IOU FIELD REPORTS FORM Date filed: 12-1-95

Season: Fall Year: 1995

Name: Doug Harr
Address: Box 65
Larchwood, Iowa 51241

Other Observers:

General Notes: August-October generally with above-normal temperatures and below-normal precipitation in NW corner of state. Extreme cold snap froze up almost all small wetlands on Nov. 2, with most waterfowl exiting region.

Species	No.	Date	Location--comments--other observers
✓ Greater White-fronted Goose	85	Oct. 18	Grovers Lake, Kettleson WMA, Dickinson Co.
✓ Osprey	1	Oct. 18	Little Spirit Lake, Dickinson County
Bald Eagles	?	November	Apparently common on Migration in Dickinson Co.
Western Flycatcher	2	August 15	Near Alvord, Lyon County
Red-breasted Nuthatch	?	Sept-Nov.	Abundant in Dickinson, Lyon, Osceola & O'Brien Co's
✓ Northern Shrike	1	Nov. 6	Jemmerson Slough, Dickinson County (readily identified in 5 min. of observation--mask not extending over bill; light barring on sides.)
? Kingbird / TRK

IOU FIELD REPORTS FORM Date filed: 12-1-95

Season: fall Year: 1995

Name: Doug Harr
Address: Box 65
Larchwood, IA 51241

Other Observers: Craig Van Otterloo

General Notes:

Species	No.	Date	Location--comments--other observers
SIGHTINGS BY	OTHERS RE	PORTED TO	DOUG HARR:
Tundra Swan	4	Nov. 2	At Rush Lake, Osceola County. Distingusihed
			by whistled call and slightly concave bill profile. No evidence of tags, collars, bands.
			Reported by CRAIG VAN OTERLOO, Director of Lyon County Conservation Board.