

Friend In Need

*WE pass this way but once," the wise men say,
So let us do what good we can today-
To ease another's road of strife and pain . . .
For we may never pass this way again."*

*Ah! but there's one who never passes by . . .
He's with us from our birth until we die;
And in the life to be, when this one's gone,
His name is God; He never passes on,*

*He's there when trouble backs us to the wall;
He is the wall, so how can harm befall?
He is the light which makes the blind to see,
He is the road to life eternally.*

Gertrude Brown