Mr. A. G. Clark, G. M.

Dear Sir, and Brother: your long and most pleasing letter was received quite a while ago, I am not answering it now. I am just writing to let you know that my wife is in the hospital and under went a very serious operation last Thursday.

But she is doing as well as could be expected. I hope this will find you and family well. This leave myself quite well

I will close

Fratly yours

M. F. Askew Deputy S. M.
