

1319 Fulton Street,
Keokuk, Iowa, July 18th 1924.

Mr. A. G. Clark, Grand Master,
Oskaloosa, Iowa.

M.W.Sir and Brother:-

Answering yours of fifteenth inst. I have to say that I concur wholeheartedly in your scheme to have the Grand Secretary get out some cards announcing the names and addresses of the new Grand Master and Grand Secretary, to be sent to sister jurisdictions. In addition to those two I have suggested that the C.C.F.C. be inserted. I thought this would meet your approval. I referred your letter to the Grand Secretary and he has already got this business under way.

I like your stationery, especially the envelopes. The style is on the order of my idea of simplicity and quiet dignity.

If you have no serious objections to a little sketch of yourself appearing in the forth-coming proceedings to be run in connection with your cut, I shall ask you to furnish up a few of the more prominent circumstances going to make up your life's history so that we can build up such a sketch. I am familiar with some of your history in a sort of indefinite way, but I want the more important things accurately given, and there is no one, I guess, in a better position to give them accurately than yourself.

Brother Smith was anticipating that visit with you with no end of pleasure and I feel sure he was not disappointed. However, you have me up a tree when you say "poor Spencer is dead!"

And, now Grand Master, I shall again felicitate you upon your election to the high station of Grand Master of Iowa, though I think the Grand Lodge itself needs most to be congratulated on account it and for its good sense, and I thank you for remembering me with so high appointment, the which I shall do my best to fill satisfactory, and you may rely upon me at all times for any service which may contribute to the making of your Grand Mastership auspiciously successful.

Fraternally yours,

W. W. Brown
