Oskaloosa Ia.

Dear G.M.

Please find enclosed report for 2nd. Quar. you will note that some are still very slow and I rather think it the fault of the the Masters and Secretaries as the membership as a rule will pay their Relief and Burial assessments if the importance of these departments is kept before them.

I was sorry to not have been able to attend the funeral of Bro. Brooks and I hope you will not have to be called out again soon.

The Lodges have not all reported their elections so I cannot give you a list yet, but I suppose you have heard from the same ones that I have.

Hope you and the Mrs are enjoying the very best of health.

Fra.
