Dear Sir :

I am a former member of North Star Lodge # 2 of Des Moines, Ia some two years ago I stood in open lodge and declared that at this moment I was leaving the lodge for certain reasons, and that I did want to be cared on the secretarys books any longer.

Now mind you grand master I requested the lodge not to carried me because I did not them to be responsible to my family in case of death.

A few weeks ago I secured an application for reinstatement I also inquired of the secreatary as to the amount due for reinstatement, he informed me that I owed the lodge when suspended $ 14;75 and this amount would have to be paid before I could be reinstated.

Am I due any consideration under the circumstances or not I did not ask to be carried, I duly informed the lodge that I was quitting until some changes were made in the lodge.

I am perfectly willing to pay a month or so dues but I do not feel that I should pay for more than a years dues when the lodge has been duly informed of my intentions can and will you please set me at ease as to the amount I should pay my lodge to reinstate, seemingly I am entitled to some regress.

Thanking you in advance for any consideration that you feel fit to give me,
I am yours truly.

*Das L. Williams
Deputy Sheriff*
