Commission To Lay A Corner-Stone

To whom these presents shall come, Greeting:

Whereas, Union Baptist Waterloo church in the city of Waterloo, Iowa, has undertaken to erect a building in which the members thereof propose to hold their future meetings, and having requested, that the corner-stone be laid with appropriate Masonic Ceremonies.

Now, Know Ye, that I, Henry A. Martin, Grand Master of Masons in the State of Iowa, reposing especial trust and confidence in the Masonic skill and ability of our R. W. Brother William Bell, a Past Master of St. John's Lodge #35 and R. W. S. & W. of M. W. United Grand Lodge have thought proper, being unable to attend in person, to nominate and appoint him to lay the corner-stone of the proposed building according to the ancient usages of the craft, and for so doing this shall be his sufficient warrant. And he will report his acts and doings hereunto to this office.

Given under my hand and the private seal of Grand Master, at Dubuque, Iowa, this 23rd day of September, A. D. 1935, A. L. 5935.

Henry A. Martin

Grand Master
