Dear Sir, and Bro, Greeting.

Receive your letter of Oct, 29th. very sorry to hear of you not feeling well, but do hope you are ok, by now. I was call out of the State on Oct 25th and just return last Wednesday Nov,1. my Brother inlaw pass, and I went down south. was very sorry to hear of The Death, of P.G.M. Gross, Bro, percy parker Telagram all Grand Lodge Offices, to be Preasent, as I was call out of town. I do hope every thing turn out ok. receive a letter from Deputy Grand Master, stateing he was not able to be there.

Dear Cubby in my last letter to you, I ask you about sending your report to the Grand Treasure, will you please advise me at once, if you have sent your report to him.

I was over to see about the Due Books, Monday, they was on the press, so I thank you will have them in just a few days. had a letter from Carl Mays to day, was very much Surprise, as this is the first time sence July.

you has the Junior Grand Warden listed for 100 sheets 100 Envelopes . I cant unstand why his Office is listed, and there are the Senior Warden Office left out. Cubby I thank that you should have not ordered these for his office. I will ask you to have the Grand Junior Warden to under stand that we do not furnish his office with letters heads. I will order you to draw warrant for the amount stated less cost of Junior Warden Office, we cant do things like this and have the Grand Lodge come back on us when we no better.

Fraternally yours

Howard Brown Grand Master
