September, 1944

To All Grand Lodge Officers:

Worshipful Masters Wardens and Brothers of the most worshipful Grand Jurisdiction of Iowa A.F. and A.M. Prince Hall affiliation, Greetings.

Our 57th Grand Session which was held in Des Moines, Iowa, July 10-11-12, was well represented with members from all over the State being present.

Our 57th Grand session was one of our best years in Masonery in Iowa. Our new relief fund was a big success. We paid out $1300.00 and every claim was taken care of. We have a balance in relief fund of $463.54 General Fund.

At our 57th Session it was unanimously recommended that Article One of our Constitution be revised to read as follows: "Article One. Name and Style of this Grand Lodge shall hereafter be styled and known as the Most Worshipful United Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Mason, Prince Hall Affiliation of Iowa and Jurisdiction."

I am asking each secretary to please write for application blanks when ever there is a death in his lodge. I am also urgently asking that all quarterly reports be sent promptly to this office.

We have had four deaths since our last Grand Session: Brother Richard Brown of Mason City, Brother W. L. Black of Washington, Brother Smith, Keokuk, Iowa, and a Brother of Des Moines.

I am indeed glad to report that we have Peace and Harmony in the Grand Jurisdiction.

Fraternally yours,

Howard Brown
