Dear Bro; Culberson, I hope you have had a little rest by now
As you was saying in your letter of the 23rd that you was in the Need of rest. well cubby why dont you be your age, I am sure
You think you are geting younger. but old farther time will Catch up with you, as it have caught Percy and myself.
Well Cubby I had a talk with the man that gave me the price
On the Due Books, so he change and let us have them for
For $25.00 0.50¢ tax $450 for the cut total $30.00 I still No it should be a little less. but that was the best that He would do. So make out new warrent for $30.00 to the same company.

Cubby write warrent $8.10 for Telegrams sent to preasent and Past Grand Officers. Account of Death of P.G.H. Gross.

Make it out to me.

Please rush this back to me, so I can send it on to G.T. with Your other order, and the bill for the Due Books is due the First of the Month.

Fraternally yours

Howard Brown Grand Master
