Dear Sir & Bro. Greeting:

Just a few lines to let you hear from me . I do hope this letter will find you well. Dear Cubby, I received the Bank statements from Grand Treasurer H. A. Martin a few days ago. The statement shows no money have been sent to his office by you. Cubby please send the money to the Grand Treasurer Office in due time . I have received reports from seven Lodges for July Quarter and four Lodges have sent in there reports for the second Quarter, this amounts to a total of $268.00. I am sure several of the larges have sent you there reports which I have not received. Please informed me which Larges have Paid, as we dont want them to get in the rear. Please inform me if Sumner No.3 have paid their back indebtness of $20.00 as I received a letter from them stating that they had sent it to your Office. Please give my best regards to the wife. I have not heard from Jinnie Gibson, wrote his wife but no reply from her either. I also wrote the Worshipful Master of Mt Ollive and no reply. I want to take this time and think you for sincere corporation in answering my letters.

Fraternally yours

HOWARD BROWN ,
Grand Master
