Mr. H. Brown G. M.

Mason City, Iowa,

Dear Sir, Sorry that there was some delay in answering your last letter but I was going to send it last week, but I knew a week ago that you were going to be called to Washington, Iowa and that I would have a chance to talk to you. Sorry that you were not able to get down, last Sunday the funeral rites were very impressive and there was a fair turnout.

I am sending you the entire report of Comm. on Jurisprudence there were no new laws as you will see. I made this copy for you so you can have it for your files.

Those warrants that you sent back to my office, they are to be sent to Martin G.T. so when he was here last Sunday I gave them to him as he keeps them. I am having trouble in getting due books printed the price + labor shortage is awful, I am going up to Des Moines in a short while & try and see what I can do up there. How did you like your stationary. Sorry that the Grand Custodian want be able to use his after Sept. 8th. You will get a letter from Pearl City in a few days in regards to surrender of their Charter. Bro S. Joe Brown & myself were talking to them Sunday & told them what procedure to take. Are you coming down to Cedar Rapids Sunday, let me know if you are. C. Cul.
