*Mr Howard Brown, G. M.
Mason City, Iowa.*

Dear Sir & Bro.

*Received letter Sat. A. M. found me O.K just got back from Clinton last week.
and have been very busy, getting caught up with my work. In regards to the due books.
it is alright to order them which ever cover you think best. I have never had any word from the printers but there will there be same number of pages, and will they be similar to the sample I sent you they could be a little smaller in size. The main thing is to get some printed. I fell some of the orders I have (over.)*

Now - in regards to the changing of the name of our Grand Lodge. I hope it was one of my (Good friends saw the letterhead and said it was wrong here is the law. changing the Constitution requires the law or change to lay on the table 1 year. and then acted upon. which want be until next year before our Grand Lodge will be known F. & A. M. Have you sent your letters out yet. Have not heard from Powell yet. Have you heard from Jim Gibson yet. they had a death in Cedar Rapids today (Geo. Ashby). Well I must close. Regards to Parker. + the — with Rest -

As Ever. Cub.

Be sure + order Blue Books.
