Mr Howard Brown G. Master
Mason City, Iowa

Dear Sir and Bro.

Greetings;

Received letter and in reply to the same in regards to the warrants they have all been made out and signed by you I made out (1) blanket warrant and you signed it and then turned over to to the Grand Trea. and we both reported them paid in our Report I am sending you the warrant so you can see it, the only one that was not made out is the one of Bro, Childs which I will now do. But if you desire a separate warrant I will so do it. Now in the case of Bro Samuels his warrant was made out at the last Grand session held in Mason City July 14th 1943. Dr Martin Grand Trea. has made out checks for all these claims, so that is that,

Now in regards to the Bulletin letter Mays all ways got them out I will be glad to help you in getting them out and any thing in this office I will be glad to put at your disposal so lets try and get them out soon. The members in Des Moines wanted me to have some of my printing done in their City by one of your people and July 20th I sent them some printing letterheads etc, and they are not out so as soon as they are done I will supply your office. I have got the roster cards all ready to send in as soon as I get the other printing out.

I am also sending you my continuation slip for my bond. If I am wrong on any of the above matters please let me know and I will try and fix it.

Yours Fraternaly

C. T. Culberson
