Dear Sir, and bro; Greeting. well, Cubby, this letter leaves me not feeling not so well, I was off three days last week with a head cold, but have taken a new cold and do feel very bad. I receive my letters heads about two weeks ago, and I thank you for the speed you gave me, on them. I has been waiting on your report I ask you for and you said you was geting ready for me. I am mailing you a copy of letters that I have sent out. we are haveing more deaths, as we had two deaths sence i got out last Letters. Moric no 30 has thos to. I will be please to have this report I ask you for had statement from grand treasure, feb. 8th. how are the Lodges doing, are they geting Their moneys into your office. some few are not giving their reports to this office. But do have a total of $816.00 returns that some few have sent to me, plus $100.00 from ft madison lodge and $20.00 from sunner lodge of burlington.

Had letter from P.G.I. Mays, he is asking me to have his apron ordered out, I wrote P.S.M. S. Joe Brown, about geting it out. so receive a letter from him today stating That the apron will cost $22.50 as the price have gone up. the last three aprons cost $18.00 each. so says he. $22.50 plus c.o.d. he says send him $22.50 and the Grand Lodge can pay him at the next session. please writo warrant for $22;50 For P.G.I. Mays, apron.

Fraternally yours

Howard Brown Grand Master
