TO: ALL DORIC LODGE MEMBERS.
FROM: CHARLES WATKINS SECRETARY.

Brethren,

The time has now come to show our Masonic and Fraternal dedication. As most of the brothers know, a few people have been trying to raise funds to relieve the lodge of our great indebtedness to the Grand Lodge and the responsibilities we have incurred.

Because We as a body have not supported the programs and efforts put forth, our financial situation is still minus zero.

Brothers I'm going to lay it on the line. We need 5300.00 (fifty three hundred dollars) to stabilize our situation. That is over and above our dues. We have fifty three members and if each brother would loan the lodge $100.00 with the understanding they would be repaid within one (1) year unless they wished to apply the loan to future dues, We could see clearly to erase our indebtedness, and insure our building.

The builders club will continue to work for the cause but We need your help FINANCIALLY.

Consider carefully Brethren We do or We do Not wish to lose our lodge hall or, Our Charter. If you are donating a loan send Checks to the Secretary Charles Watkins so that you may be credited as doing so.

PAY YOUR DUES PROMPTLY — WEAR YOUR MASONIC EMBLEM
