

Negro Masons' Sessions Here

Fifty delegates from 20 Iowa lodges of the Prince Hall (Negro) Masons are holding grand lodge sessions in Corinthian Baptist church.

Acting Grand Master Howard Brown, Mason City, Ia., formally opened the session Monday morning and was preparing to give the annual address of the Grand Master, Pvt. Carl M. Mays, 1422 DeWolf st., when Mays appeared. He had received a furlough from Newark, Ark., where he is stationed with the army air corps.

During afternoon sessions, William A. Givens, Council Bluffs, conducted a school in the conferring of degrees.

Memorial services Monday evening included prayers for Lowell Bush, jr., Des Moines, who died with the armed forces.
