Mr. Alonzo Drain has made quite a reputation for himself as a scholar, and now he has shown his many friends that he is not yet satisfied and is working as hard as ever. Keokuk had three high school graduates this year. The roll of honor so far is made up as follows:

John S. Mills, valedictorian, Sioux City.
Alonzo William Drain, Keokuk.
Lenora Brown Bentham, Keokuk.
Ella Drain, Keokuk.
Clarinda Smith, Des Moines.

We hope to be able to add more names to this list for the year just closing.

THE CANDIDATES.

Mr. J. J. Davis is officially announced as a candidate for the office of county attorney. He is now filling the unexpired term of Judge Spurrier, having been appointed by the board of supervisors. He has resided in this city for twenty-five years, and has established an excellent reputation as a lawyer and prosecutor. The duties of the office are very exacting and require skill and knowledge. He has demonstrated his ability to fill the office and fill it well. The high standard which the office had attained has not suffered in the hands of Mr. J. J. Davis.

Judge S. L. Balliett is candidate for judge in this district, a position which he now fills by virtue of the suffrages of his friends and neighbors—those who know him best. Little can be said to more highly recommend him to the Republican council and the citizens of the district than his record while occupying the position of judge. His Republicanism is undoubted and his legal acumen and experience but add strength to his Republican loyalty. Judge Balliet will go before the Republican party for renomination, standing squarely on the Republican platform and on the record he has made while on the bench. He has served his country in many capacities. He was a Union soldier in the war of the rebellion and did noble service there for two years. He is also a graduate of the University of Chicago, having completed a course of study in the law department in 1867, and has had twenty-two years of active practice in the state of Iowa and four years on the bench in the district court of Polk county. This is one of the most important districts in the state.

Charles S. Stewart is a candidate for re-election to the office of constable for Des Moines township. He has filled the office satisfactorily in the past, and his term of service only enhances his value to the public in the future. He is energetic and honorable and dispatches his business with accuracy. We call attention to his announcement card published elsewhere in this paper.

Judge C. P. Holmes is again a candidate for district judge in this county. He is a studious and hard-working judge and his decisions have stood the tests of the supreme court to a remarkable degree. All of the proceedings in his court have been done in a businesslike manner, and all delays must have a substantial foundation before they are granted. He has made a judge of whom all people in the district may justly feel proud. His announcement may be seen elsewhere.

W. F. Conrad is announced as a candidate for the position of judge in this district. He has served the people in that capacity in a faithful and upright manner in the past, and such service is the best indication of what to expect in the future. He has been an active practitioner in this county for a number of years and is recognized as a good lawyer of marked ability and an excellent citizen.

James C. Hume is a lawyer and a good one. He was born in the city of Cincinnati and is 32 years old. He opened his first law office in this city and takes high rank among the best legal talent of the state. He is young, industrious, honorable and studious, and has the mate... in him that makes good lawyers ...tizens. He has been a suc... ...r a...

He is there to see that justice is done. He made a magnificent record as county attorney and his record has suffered none by his promotion. The people of the county and the Republicans in convention are always quick to perceive and recognize ability.

THE AFRO-AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.

The next meeting of the Afro-American Convention in Ottumwa July 3 and 4, promises to be a most interesting session and will be attended by some of the earnest workers for the cause. It has a laudable object in view. Nothing of a political nature enters into its make up. The delegates meet as American citizens and not as Democrats or Republicans. This will be the second session and everything will be done to better the material and moral condition of the Negroes of Iowa and the Nation. These meetings give an opportunity for free expression and a better understanding of the environments which surround our people and they cannot well fail in producing good results. We must help ourselves and concerted action is the best means by which to do it.

The citizens of Sioux City met on June 11. They selected five delegates to the Afro-American Protective Association, which meets at Ottumwa July 3 and 4. The delegates are: Messrs. Riding, Baptist, Young, Shields and Taylor. It was decided that a permanent local organization be established, and the following officers were elected: G. W. Baptist, president; J. W. Smith, vice president; J. S. Mills, secretary; and N. Riding, treasurer. The committee on constitution and by-laws are: P. D. Brown, W. P. Shields and A. Williams. The meeting adjourned to meet on June 28.

The following were chosen to represent Keokuk at the Afro-American convention at Ottumwa, July 3 and 4: Rev. T. L. Smith, R. H. Williamson, J. H. Nichols, Dr. Hartley, William R. Mott and Aaron H. Smith; Archie Washington, J. M. Burton, A. A. Bland, Alonlo Drain and George D. Foster, alternates.

Independence Bulletin-Journal: A recent trip through the Ninth district leads us to believe that there is no locality in this country where James B. Weaver can do more rustling around and less damage than that. If there is any Democratic party left in that vicinity it is not visible to the naked eye, while as for the Populistic nonsense, the people were inoculated during the greenback craze, and as it "took" they were thoroughly cured. Therefore we are rather glad that Weaver has been nominated for congress and trust he will accept.

The black district in South Carolina, the 7th, including Beaufort and the Sea Islands, is now represented in Congress by George W. Murray, who wants to go back again. Robert Smalls also wants to go back, and has been nominated by one convention, while Murray has been nominated by another. The temperance people of Haverhill, Mass., advanced saloon licenses $2,000, in order to diminish the number. There are twenty-six holding the fort. They now propose to open a large saloon and sell whisky at 5 cents and beer at 2 cents. When all the other places are ruined by competition they propose to close their saloon.

Gold continues to accumulate in the Bank of England. It now amounts to about 37,000,000 pounds, which is nearly 10,000,000 pounds more than was held a year ago. The gold reserve continues to decrease in the United States treasury below legal requirements, and the secretary is kept busy selling bonds.

The rain maker is abroad in the land once more. In Nebraska and Kansas rain has recently fallen and the 'rain-maker' is given credit therefor, and more business thereby. He should take the credit for the floods in other parts of the country. Be consistent.

Of a colony of thirty-six women who made the run in the Cherokee strip when it was opened, twenty-one have proved steadfast. They build their own houses and do all their own farm work.

Kansas Republicans mean business this year, and are not making an issue of prohibition, but propose to fight the common enemy.

The house has refused to repeal the state bank tax. Democracy is compelled to take Republican wisdom some time.

The tariff question is in such a tangle that we are convinced that the people will be compelled to send Republican congressmen there this fall to straighten matters out. We are now having an object lesson on the tariff question.

The question of labor is one that demands attention and study. The present condition of the country shows that there is something wrong somewhere. It will not do to say that it is due solely to tariff legislation or lack of legislation. It is admitted that laborers of this or any other country produce the wealth, but when "hard times" come upon a nation they are first to suffer. THE MANAGEMENT.

We take this method of introducing to the readers and patrons of the IOWA STATE BYSTANDER those who are interested in this new enterprise. We do not do so because they are recent arrivals in this community or in this state, but because they have embarked in a new line of business. We give below a brief introduction:

Mr. T. E. Barton is president of the company. He has been a resident of this city for eleven years and of the state for seventeen. He has been in business here ever since and has been successful. He owns valuable real estate in the city. He is known as a brave soldier, a good citizen and a pleasant and honorable man to do business with or meet socially. Hon. E. H. Conger secured Mr. Barton a place at the National capitol, which he held for several years.

Mr. Wm. Coalson is the vice president. He has been a resident of this city for nineteen years, and of the state thirty-one. Mr. Coalson has been in business here many years and is well and favorably known. He owns some very nice property in this city. He is now employed in Governor Jackson's office at the capitol.

Mr. Jefferson Logan is the treasurer and needs no introduc...on in Des Moines or in Iowa. He ca... his lot with Polk county and Des M... ...s thirty-two years ago and by indus... ...nd strict attention to business has ...pered beyond that of the averag... ... He owns some of the most valu...e property in Des Moines, which requires his personal attention.

The business manager and secretary is John D. Reeler. He first saw the light of day in the city of Dubuque. He received an education in the school of that city and later took a business course. He has held many places of local importance and trust. He was the first colored man to hold the position of file clerk in the general assembly. He has been in business here for the past eight or nine years, and has some very handsome property on Grand avenue. He is at present grand master of the Iowa lodge of A. F. & A. M.

Mr. Charles S. Ruff is the editor. He received his first dose of paragoric in the city of Muscatine, Iowa. It is the ...est town in the state in which to be ...orn. The city was quite full of business and when people came from the ...ast they always came through Muscatine, but after his removal what a change! He lived in Mt. Vernon for a number of years and attended Cornell college. He began the printers' trade there and has worked in various parts of the state and country. He has been employed on the Iowa State Register for the past eight or nine years.

Mr. Thaddeus S. Ruff is the associate editor. He was born in the city of Mt. Vernon, Iowa, graduated from the public schools of Atlantic, and became a "devil" on the Iowa State Register and learned the printers' trade. He, a bicycle and a pony, and will chase a local item to its lair.

Mr. James E. Todd is one of the directors. He has lived in the city a long time and enjoys the respect and esteem of a large number of friends. He is a cook by profession and has been chef in some of the leading hotels of the city. He has also accumulated some nice property.

Mr. Joseph H. Shepherd is on the board of directors. He has been in the state thirty-two years and in Des Moines twenty-nine continuously. He has been identified with the interest of his people and the city in many commendable ways. He is also a past grand master of Iowa Masonic lodges and at present bailiff of the district court of Polk county. He has a wide circle of friends who appreciate him for his many sterling qualities of mind and heart.

Mr. B. J. Holmes has resided in this city twenty-one years and has no reason to regret the choice he made in a location. His strict honesty and industry has made him a valued employe. He has charge of one of the public school buildings. His property is very nice and valuable.

Mr. E. T. Banks has the title of captain among those well acquainted with him. He was captain of Company E., Iowa National Guards, composed of colored boys of the city. It was a well drilled company, probably as good as any in the state. He was on the police force of this city and performed his duties with commendable zeal. He has lived in the city twelve years.

The homes of Iowa said they wanted to see a practical test of the theories of prohibition and so expressed themselves at the polls nearly ten years ago. Those who disobeyed the laws adopted were few and not of the best citizenship of the state. Prohibition was pronounced a failure by the people throughout the state at several ... mulct plan came to the ... recommended, and now ... of prohibitionists to be ... citizens and wait and see ... of things put in practic... trial. In ten years time the prohibitionists should have produced something better than the saloon to take its place.

There was imminent danger of trouble in the coal regions of Mahaska county and the governor took precaution to avert the impending outbreak. The Iowa National Guard was sent into the territory and distributed in various localities. It was a wise coup de main. Men have a right to work and men have a perfect right to quit. That is unquestioned. It is equally unquestionable that the right to work or not to work should not be interfered with by either faction. There are 486 colored miners in Muchakinock. They are not union men and could not be because they are prohibited. One colored miner expressed himself in this manner: "I am not allowed to belong to the white union and if I were to get out of employment I would be thrown on the 'cold charities of an unfeeling world.' My sympathy is with the union men but my duty is with my family. I came from Virginia and am a long way from home. I am making good wages and think I will stick to my family first."

Archbishop Ireland on "Americanism:"

"This country is America; only they who are loyal to her can be allowed to live under her flag, and they who are loyal to her may enjoy all her liberties and rights. Freedom of religion is accorded by the Constitution; religion is put outside state action and most wisely so; therefore the religion of a citizen must not be considered by voter or executive officer. The oath of allegiance to the country makes the man a citizen; if that allegiance is not plenary and supreme, he is false to his profession; if it is, he is American. Discriminations and segregations, in civil or political matters, on lines of birthplace or of race, or of language—and, I add, or of color—is un-American and wrong. Compel all to be Americans, in soul as well as in name; and then let the standard of their value be their American citizenship."

When all of these things come to pass there will be great rejoicing and every colored ma... the country will join in singing "America" because it will mean something to them.

The woman suffrage movement received a further impetus recently in the passage by the legislature of this state of a bill giving women the right to vote at municipal or school elections involving an issue of bonds or increase of the tax levy. This makes three large and adjacent states in this part of the Union—Iowa, Kansas and Colorado—in which women can vote in municipal elections, while in Colorado they can also vote at other elections. The full right seems likely to be extended them in Kansas when the men vote on the constitutional amendment next November. The movement has also made more headway in Massachusetts than ever before since the annual agitation before the legislature began in 1867.

The income tax clause of the Wilson-Voorhees-Gorman-Cleveland tariff bill is meeting with great opposition from eastern statesmen and eastern capitalists. Income tax helped to crush Democracy and rebellion "once upon a time." If the Democratic party would pick up some of the new doctrines of the Republican party it would be sleeping better at night.

The acting pallbearers at the funeral of Surveyor of the Port of Baltimore C. Ridgely Goodwin, who died last Saturday, were colored servants who had been employed in the family for years, or whom he had met at the clubs of which he was a member. These were chosen by Mr. Goodwin some time before his death.

The birthday of Jeff Davis is a legal holiday in the state of Florida. Did you celebrate, gentle reader, in due form and with great solemnity. If Solomon were alive to-day he would say "there is something new under the sun."

Gov. Frank D. Jackson was in Cincinnati last week, where he has been visiting an old school chum. The governor was given a nice reception and many hospitalities by the people of Cincinnati.

The Republican state convention meets in the city of Des Moines on Wednesday, July 11, 1894, at 11 o'clock a. m., to place in nomination nine state officers. There will be 1,128 delegates.

Gen. Weaver came very near getting the nomination for congress in the Ninth district before he had crossed the boundry line. He will be a s... wiser man after election.

The commissioner of labor is made an ex-officio member of the arbitration board. The governor of the state in which the labor controversy occurs is also a member. The board thus consists of five members. An application for arbitration may be made by employers or employes. If the governor is satisfied a conflict exists which cannot be amicably settled, he can apply to the national board of arbitration to take charge of the question. The board assembles in the state capitol, hears evidence and arbitrates the differences in the usual manner. Its decisions are made as binding as those of a federal court of law. Provision is also made for enforcing the decisions of the board.

FLOODS in the Frazer Valley have damaged property to the extent of $4,000,000. At Vancouver, B. C., and Portland, Orc., the damage is immense and the surrounding country is devastated.

—Dispatches received from Sofia, Bulgaria, say two batalions of infantry and the entire police force have issued a manifesto in favor of ex-premier Stambuloff. The dispatchess said a bloody fight has taken place between revolted soldiers and police and loyal troops, during which many were killed on both sides.

—Colorado was visited by very disastrous floods last week. At Boulder all the bridges were washed away and a half million dollars' worth of damage done to railroads, pastures, etc. Fifty bridges between Boulder and Manitou were carried away, and several mining towns having a population of about 200 were wiped out. The damage at Pueblo will reach $100,000

—Col. Breckinridge had an audience of 600 persons, of whom twenty were ladies, at Midway, Ky. He spoke for an hour and twenty minutes, and scored his opponents. After Breckinridge finished, Evan Settles, his main opponent, took the stand, and nearly fifty ladies marched into the hall and were given seats. Col. Breckinridge and nearly all his followers left the house.

—The convention of the Order of Railway Telegraphers finished its labors at Denver last week. All traces of feeling, which was the natural result of the election of W. V. Powell to succeed Grand Chief Ramsey, died out in the reconstruction of the constitution. The, proposition to organize state divisions was voted down. The next convention will be held in St. Louis on the third Monday of May, 1895.

—A daring outrage was perpetrated at the home of Silas Johnson at St. Louis. Two men called at the house. Mrs. Johnson opened the door, and the men forced their way in, and seizing the woman, repeatedly outraged her. As they were about to leave, Mrs. Johnson seized a shot gun and fired. The discharge took effect in one of the men's arm and body, causing dangerous wounds. The police caught the men, whose names are Mike Cooney and John Weitza.

—Owing to high water in the Missouri river which will not begin to recede for some time, the very prosperous village of Winthrop, thirty miles south of St. Joseph, on the Rock Island, Hannibal & St. Joe, Missouri Pacific and Kansas City, St. Joe & Council Bluffs railroads, will soon be wiped off the face of the earth. The Missouri river, when it first began its spring rise this year, began cutting the bank at the edge of the town and adjacent to it, and to-day half of the place has melted into the river, together with half a dozen farms of 160 acres each.

THINKS 100 H... PERISHED.

Frightful Effects of the Floods in the Frazer River Valley.

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 6.—Four million dollars will hardly cover the present loss by the Frazer river flood, and there is yet no sign of abatement. One prominent railroad official thinks the loss of life will reach 100, although conservative estimates are not so high. Bridges, trestles, tunnels and tracking on the Canadian Pacific have gone, and the company has over 2,000 men at scenes of danger working night and day. From Prevelstoke to the sea 380 miles along the railway is now a watery waste. The last point above Vancouver which can now be reached is Ruby Creek, eighty-two miles distant. Beyond all is water. Masqui, Mission, Chilliwack, Hatzic and Langley are all under water, no a building left standing. Fully 10,00 cattle have perished.

Round Pond Railway War.

WICHITA, Kan., June 9.—On the receipt of a telegram from the Rock Island officials, the sheriff has sent a number of armed men on a special from here to Round Pond, O. T., where a railroad war is in progress. All the men were selected for bravery and were heavily armed with Winchester rifles, under command of James Garnes, ex-chief of police and one of the best known and nerviest officers in the west. A fight is surely expected today.

Knights of Labor ... American Railway Un...

CHICAGO, June 15.—When the convention of the American Railway Union was called to order yesterday afternoon it was behind closed doors, none but regularly accredited delegates being admitted. The meeting was addressed by Grand Master Sovereign of the Knights of Labor and President Debs of the American Railway Union in favor of a consolidation of the two bodies. The following resolution was then adopted:

"Resolved, That we want the whole laboring world to know that two of the greatest labor organizations that it has ever known, viz., the Knights of Labor and the American Railway Union, have affiliated and joined their interests for the purpose of placing the members of both organizations in a close bond of harmony to the best interests of the world of labor."

The resolution was adopted by a rising vote and tremendous applause, not a delegate voting in the negative. The work of outlining a general plan of action for the two bodies will be taken up at once.

The coalition of the Knights of Labor and the American Railway Union is looked upon as the beginning of relentless warfare in the labor world. This will probably be between the Knights of Labor and the American Federation of Labor, and between the American Railway Union and the old brotherhoods of railway men.
