Athenian's Lawn Social was a Success

We unintentionally omitted to mention the lawn social given last Tuesday a week ago, by the Athenian Society for the Union Congregational church. It was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Patterson, 776 W. Ninth street. There was no program, except through the kindness of Mr. E. W. Thompson and D. Patterson the Imperial band, a new organization, composed of young men, made their first appearance and graciously furnished some excellent music. This is the only colored band in our city and we hope that the boys may succeed, as they deserve much praise for the way they rendered those pieces under the leadership of Mr. O. Gauss, a very young man with much experience. There were only eleven pieces, but they did well. The band is now composed of Edward Thompson, William Smith, B. Walker, O. Hayes, Henry Lee, C. Williams, D. Early, S. James, D. Patterson, O. Gauss, leader, and O. Watts. The society realized a neat sum, and Miss Marie Bell for the society thanks the public for their patronage. Also the band boys for their assistance.

Roosevelt and Fairbanks.

Good government means a fair opportunity and equal rights for all.

There is nothing experimental about the government we ask the people to continue in power.

Our "best friends" of the South ought to exert themselves to break up the Alabama peonage system.

Senator Tillman "thinks" the Fifteenth Amendment will be repealed. Ben is entitled to another think.

The humblest individual is to have his rights safeguarded as scrupulously as those of the strongest organization. Each is to receive justice; no more, and no less.

We know our own minds. We have kept of the same mind a sufficient length of time to give our policy coherence and sanity.

We have shown in fact that our policy is to do justice to all men, paying no heed to whether a man is rich or poor, or to his race, creed or birthplace.

John W. Larrimore, chairman of the Republican executive committee of Caldwell county, and a teacher at Lockheart, Texas, was killed recently because of an alleged "offensive remark." Larrimore was an Afro-American and Texas is a Democratic state.

The New Orleans Picayune in a recent editorial declared the President Roosevelt's "mulatto policy," whatever that may mean, will "bring to pass most calamitous events in which widespread bloodshed will be frightfully prominent." Does the "steemed Picayune mean that the South is ready for another civil war?"

All of the decent people in the country sustain Postmaster General Payne in his refusal to bestow the name of Vardaman on a postoffice in the state of Mississippi. The man Vardaman, who by grace of a race hatred campaign is now governor of Mississippi, is the owner and editor of a newspaper which published an infamous article reflecting on the mother of the President of the United States.

The Southern people have been making a great bluff about spending millions of dollars to educate Afro-Americans. There's nothing in the stories they tell. Last week the Georgia legislature, with a great flourish of trumpets, appropriated $4,000 for the Georgia State Industrial College near Savannah. In the discussion of the bill the fact came out that the state of Georgia has made an appropriation for the school, although it is known as an institution. The United States government gives Georgia $4,000 annually for agricultural education on condition that $100,000 go to the education of Afro-Americans. For three years the state has withheld the appropriation for the industrial school thus boncing its Afro-American citizens out of $24,000. This is what is stated that unless appropriation for the color school was made that the United States would refuse to pay the $100,000. The Georgia solons saw the point and the bill giving the Afro-Americans their share was passed without a dissenting vote.

As to Negro Suffrage.

From Register and Leader.

Was John Sharp Williams "sharp" when he assailed, belittled and contemptuously sneered at the republican platform demands for enforcement of a plain constitutional requirement? As a mere platform expression it might have been passed unnoticed, as but few pay attention to the matter or consider the dangers to our best interests involved therein. The provision of our constitution thus invoked by republicans and ridiculed by Mr. Williams until finally misrepresented and maligned in the democratic platform aims to secure to every fully recognized American citizen equal recognition and influence in our legislative and electoral assemblies.

Mr. Williams of all men should do all in his power to keep this question out of the campaign. Acting on his own advice to republicans would have been wise, knowing as he does who defy our law and benefit thereby; as he holds a seat in congress and acts as leader of the great democratic party on the strength of 1,433 votes, whereas it requires nearly 40,000 from an Iowa district.

In fact our John F. Lacey of this Sixth Iowa district received more votes than were cast altogether in the eight districts of Mississippi. And Mr. Williams' state is not alone in this respect, as the twenty-two congressional districts of Mississippi, Louisiana and South Carolina polled but 76,831 votes, 4,789 of which were opposition. This entire vote for twenty-two members of our national congress in which our constitution intends we shall all be equally represented, was actually less than the vote of two Iowa districts. This outrageous suppression and forcible denial of the constitutional rights to American citizens in the south with a solid democratic south, makes one democrat equal to two republicans in our electoral college as is shown by the vote of 1900.

Mr. Williams' recalling of "the old force bill" calls up some other "ancient history," illustrating democracy's subservience to southern domination. From the days of Calhoun's supremacy, democracy has been in bondage to the solid south, even when fighting our flag. These terrible "force bills" appeared in every effort of loyal Americans for maintaining our government under our constitution and flag and were exploited by disloyal democracy to frighten people into the support of treason and traitors. They sported the butternut in approval of rebellion and the copperhead as an emblem of secret venomous hostility to the union. They wore the white badge inscribed "For a white man's government." On their parade banners over their wives and daughters were emblazoned their earnest appeals their fathers, brothers and husbands "to save them from nigger equality and nigger husbands."

Mr. Williams is on similar parade though more ingenious, and the "white man's government" badges have again appeared. It also means contempt for and rebellion against all constitutional provisions that interfere with their determination to reduce their colored people to their former state of servitude. This appears incredible, yet the moves are all in that direction. Their determined opposition to the Negro's education, rights of property and citizenship as manifested by the political power represented by Mr. Williams, can have no other results; and while the solid south is democracy's only hope, the operators of that great political machine will encourage their movements as they did before the rebellion in order to gain and hold control of government affairs. If you don't believe it then reread what Mr. Williams said before a national democratic convention "as to Negro suffrage."

Republican Harmony.

The question whether or not Theodore Roosevelt should be nominated for the Presidency had been under consideration within the organization of the Republican party ever since the death of President McKinley. Gradually, but inevitably, the opposition to him had diminished, until the remainder not a single man to state openly at the party's convention that he was for any other candidate. Thus President Roosevelt was nominated with as complete unanimity at Chicago as President McKinley had been four years before at Philadelphia. Furthermore, there was no difficulty at all about agreeing upon a Republican platform at Chicago, and the selection of Senator Fairbanks for the second place on the ticket was accomplished with the utmost ease and dispatch. The results, as a whole, were eminently satisfactory to the entire Republican party, the issues, as the Republicans had to present them, were so little dubious or obscure that they would have been prepared to meet their opponents at the polls on any day, however early. The campaign will have to be fought out alertly, however, and the Republicans will find that their unity and self-satisfaction will not alone win the victory in November. —From "The Progress of the World," in the American Monthly Review of Reviews for August.

Popular Cartoons.

The art of newspaper illustration in its present form is a development of recent years. Newspaper cartoons have become a most popular feature of up-to-date metropolitan daily papers. The unique and catchy drawing now appearing daily on the front page of the Chicago Record-Herald is one of the many special features of the great paper. The Record-Herald has been fortunate in securing one of the best young artists in the country to carry out its popular policy of presenting each day a humorous and good-natured cartoon. Mr. Ralph Wilder is one of the coming men in newspaper work. His success has been as pronounced as it has been rapid. He shows all of the good-natured humor and the brighter side of everyday common life which has carried his work to a very popular success. His drawings are on all of the various subjects of popular interest, political and otherwise. Current events are vividly portrayed in a way that pleases, yet often giving just criticism in a way that does not offend. Through his excellent work on eastern magazines Mr. Wilder first attracted universal attention. The Record-Herald recognized in him at once a cartoonist of unusual promise, and congratulates its readers on having been fortunate enough to engage him.

Fifty Shows on the Pike.

When finished the Pike will show some fifty shows, The "Galveston Flood," "New York to the North Pole" and the "Bottle Abbey" are all notable structures, and if their combined spaces were put together in one building, under one roof, would form a structure equal in area to the monster Transportation Building of the world's fair at Chicago. These great shows are controlled by the Criterion Concession Company, and required an outlay of nearly one million dollars to install. They were conceived by Emmett W. McConnell, better known as the "White Czar of the Midway," a young Texan, who but a few years ago worked for $35.00 per month, and perfected his education in a Texas college while earning it. The exposition in Omaha, Nashville, Atlanta, and Buffalo made him independently rich. His associate partner and the designer of the above great shows is Edward J. Austin, the well known and distinguished artist, who was the brains and fertile imagination of the late Steele Mackaye, the projector of the great spectacular of the Chicago world's fair, who controls and directs the hundreds of artists, mechanics and electricians required to execute the coinage of his artistic brain. All the stock in this monster concern is held by McConnell, Austin and some twenty of the leading merchants of St. Louis.

The feature of the horse show this year at the Iowa State Fair at Des Moines, will be that the exhibitors are largely Iowa breeders. The fact is now fully realized that Iowa breeders of fine horses are at the point where they do not fear to go against breeders from any state. They have been rapidly coming to the front, and the fair this year will demonstrate that they can make as fine a show as the breeders from other states. The entries of Clydesdales, Belgians, Percherons, driving horses, carriage horses, standard bred and saddle horses, all are good. There is also a fine entry list of ponies.

TWO MEN DIE IN AWFUL FIRE

Damage Amounting to $15,000 Done to Town of Glidden.

TWO BROTHERS SACRIFICED

A. W. and W. E. Hobbs Are Burned to Death—Had No Chance of Escape—Flames Destroy Hotel and Other Buildings Before Firemen Can Aid

Glidden, Aug. 8.—A disastrous fire, the second within a short time, resulted in the death of two men, A. W. and W. E. Hobbs, who perished before the alarm could be given them, and the destruction of property to the amount of over $15,000, at 1 o'clock a. m. The cause of the blaze is unknown, and, from the lack of evidence, may not be.

The blaze was first discovered by Agent Flansburg at 1 o'clock. Looking north from the depot window he saw flames creep over the roof of the City hotel on Main street. He at once gave the alarm, but before the fire company and citizens could reach the scene the whole structure, which was frame and dry as tinder, was completely enveloped and the flames had spread to the adjacent buildings.

W. C. Harvey, the proprietor, and his wife and hired girl, all occupying rooms on the lower floor, barely had time to save themselves. A. W. and W. E. Hobbs occupied one of the upstairs bed rooms. They failed for some unaccountable reason to make their escape and were burned to death. Their charred remains were taken from the ruins after the fire had burned itself out.

The fire spread rapidly and entirely consumed the buildings as follows: City hotel, owned by L. M. Lyons, loss $1,500; contents owned by W. C. Harvey, total loss about $500.

John F. Grace, implement building and stock, total loss, $6,000.

Theodore Fort, egg and poultry warehouse and contents, total loss, $1,000.

W. F. Waldron, blacksmith shop and contents, loss $500.

Elias Loffer, blacksmith shop, and Thomas Burdick, wagon shop, in co section, loss $1,500.

IOWA STATE FAIR.

This is the Golden Anniversary of Iowa's Big Fair.

Des Moines, Aug. 9.—The Golden anniversary fair for Iowa, which will be held this year commencing August 19th to continue eight days, will mark the advance made in fifty years in agricultural progress in Iowa. The state fair at Des Moines will be made notable in celebration of this anniversary.

Fifty years ago the beginnings were made in a small way for the state fairs which have become famous as the finest in the country. The first exhibits were of local character—a few herds, samples of corn and pumpkins, exhibits of work of the men and women of Iowa in the days of early statehood. Today a state fair is a big exposition of all the arts and industries that pertain directly or indirectly to the pursuit of agriculture. This year there will be nothing omitted, but in addition to the regular classes brought out by the exhibitors, premiums offered, there will be much for the amusement of the visitors.

The basis of a good fair is always the live stock exhibit. With a good show assured in the stock barns and pavilions there is never any question about the quality of the fair. This year the entries for the live stock classes of the State fair have been far beyond expectation. For instance in the cattle classes the entries number nearly 1,000 or over 200 more than ever before. These entries are mainly of Iowa breeders and all the best breeders will be in the show. The entries indicate that all the breeds will be represented and no one or two will have predominance over the others. In the swine department there will be close to 2,000. The horse, poultry and poultry classes are all well filled, and some of the finest horses ever seen in Iowa are to be at the fair.

The feature of the fair this year will be the new central building being erected under provisions of the legislature. This Agricultural Dairy and Horticultural hall, is 100 by 300 feet in size, of brick and steel, splendidly lighted for exhibits, and it will be thoroughly modern in every way. The building is near the horse and cattle pavilion. It will contain the main agricultural exhibits, the dairy products, including machinery, and the fruits and flowers. They may all be seen under one roof. Its erection greatly adds to the room available for other departments and the poultry department will go to the agricultural building while the horticultural hall will be converted into a building for the women and children. The fair management will also have a hospital in the women's building and a doctor in charge.

Women's imperfections are known only to their dressmakers. A British warship steamed majestically up to Puerto Armitas, and saluted the flag of Costa Rica with twenty-one guns. It took the gunners of Costa Rica two hours to answer the salute. They only had one old muzzle-loader, which had to be allowed to cool after each round. But the salute was finished in the course of the day.

FORGED PAPER IS IN EVIDENCE

Grinnell Banker Had Forged $204,000 in Notes.

HAD RUINED POOR WIDOW

Known That the Bank Will Not Be Reopened—Report Will Show Many Ruined and That Defalcations Are More Extensive Than Presumed.

Grinnell, August 8.—Developments in the mystery surrounding the peremptory closing of the First National bank of Grinnell have taken a turn which shows almost conclusively that Cashier H. C. Spencer was a defaulter in a sum a great deal larger than will permit the reopening of the institution and which will result in a complete loss to possibly half of the stockholders of their entire fortunes. An examination of the private accounts of Cashier Spencer has resulted in finding forged paper to the amount of $204,000.

Although not known definitely, it is believed that the depositors will lose something, as the property of a number of the stockholders will not amount to double their holdings of stock. The stockholders have been notified that they will be assessed for the full amount of their stock, which makes it imperative that the less wealthy among them will lose their all.

Forgeries have been uncovered almost without cessation since the removal of Mr. Shaw began. The exact shortage will not be known until Comptroller of the Treasury Ridgely has published his report, after three months. Notice has been published stating that this much time will be given for presentation of accounts. Henry Spencer and his wife were joint owners of over one-third of the bank stock. Inasmuch as this will all be taken before the assessment is used, ruin will be the only outlet for one-fourth of the stockholders.

Peculiar as it may seem, the sentiment of the city which has since the death of the cashier and his son been greatly offended at the suggestion of suicide, has now seen a reversal, and the theory is practically adopted. That the Spencers have practiced a system of forgery and defalcation which will result in ruin to many, is not doubted. The theory of suicide and criminal practices, which were roundly denounced by the Grinnell citizens and the local press when first published, are now accepted as the true state of affairs, with a full realization of the indignity of the situation into which the city has been brought through the machinations of the bank cashier.

Among the many evidences of guilt on the part of the dead cashier is one of such ingenuity as to call forth censure from all the citizens. C. L. Gladis, a farmer residing near Grinnell, had prepared for his death, placed in his safe a deposit box in the bank the sum of $700, giving the key to Mr. Spencer, with instructions to render an account of the same to his widow in the event of his death. This Spencer promised to do. Soon after the death of Mr. Gladis, the widow brought to the bank for the sale of her farm to the bank and depositing it, asked for the certificates of deposit of both the sum left by her and the one left by her husband. Spencer denied absolutely that he had seen either of the sums, and the poor old lady, her home and all she had, was thrown out into the world without a friend. The present state of the bank shows that she will be forced to lose her deposits along with the remainder of the depositors.

The theory of suicide, at one time never given the smallest credence, is now thought that the awful load carried by the dead man was such as to render their positions further untenable. It is known that Spencer himself kept the books of the bank, and in this way manipulated them to his own satisfaction.

THIEF IS CAUGHT REDHANDED.

Arrested as He is Leaving Bancroft Store With Plunder.

Bancroft, Aug. 11.—Peter Knocker, a one-legged painter, was caught coming out of Nemmers Bros' hardware store with a comfortable bag of loot, including two repeating rifles and several hundred cartridges, three dozen pocket knives, two dozen shears, spoons, knives and forks, etc. the whole invoicing at $60.30. A dance was in progress in a nearby hall, at which he had been, but later on disappeared, and Nightwatchman Jensen started out to look him up. Coming down the alley back of the store he heard an unusual noise and sneaked up to investigate. It was Knocker leaving the back door with his plunder, supposing himself safe from observation, as the nightwatch is usually at the night train at that hour. The command to halt brought a show of flight and fight alternately, but a brace of athletes, young Brigham and Wood, happened along at his rear just then and the fight was up.

SEPARATOR CRUSHES MAN.

Ida Grove Young Man Instantly Killed By Threshing Machine.

Sac City, Aug. 9.—Frank Paulson, 25 years old, son of Thomas Paulson, residing about six or seven miles north of this place, was instantly killed. He was working for Marion Potts, a neighbor, on his threshing machine at the Potts home. He crawled under the separator to oil up while the machine was running. He either loosened some key pin or a support broke, precipitating the entire separator upon him, killing him instantly.

Bring Criminal Prosecution.

Leon, Aug. 11.—It is stated that a number of the depositors who lost their money in the failure of the Citizens' bank at Mt. Airy last winter, have decided to bring criminal proceedings against Day Dunning, the president, and Clyde Dunning, cashier, who were in charge of the Citizens' bank at the time of the failure.

L. W. Laughlin has been designated by Judge Tower as special attorney to prosecute the Dunnings, as the county attorney, P. E. Fuller, is the attorney for them. The depositors claim that the Dunnings received deposits long after they knew that the bank was insolvent.

WILLIAMS GETS 30 YEARS.

Negro Who Was Under Sentence of Death.

Oakaloosa, Aug. 10.—Dick Williams, once sentenced to be hanged for the murder of William Sharper in a thirty seconds' drunken row, will serve a thirty year sentence in the penitentiary. Judge Clements passed judgment, and considering Williams' 40 years of age, this is probably a life sentence. The time already spent in prison awaiting the 14th of March, the date on which he was to be hung and the time he worked while awaiting the opinion of the supreme court, will be duly accredited to the man. The case against Williams was sent back by the supreme court of Iowa for retrial after the man had for a year been awaiting the day of his hanging. This time Williams pleaded guilty to murder in the second degree. Judge McCoy and Lawyers Woodson and Brown addressed the court in the morning, appealing eloquently for a lighter sentence for Williams, weaving an accidental discharge of the penitentiary, but the court was not to be swayed. Williams was sentenced to the penitentiary for a term of thirty years, and the court was not to be swayed. Williams was sentenced to the penitentiary for a term of thirty years, and the court was not to be swayed.

BULLET THROUGH HEART.

Pretty Alma Carlson, Living Near Perry, Ends Her Life.

Perry, Aug. 12.—Broken hearted, it is supposed, on account of the unhappy termination of a love affair in which it is thought that a former prominent young man of Perry, now a resident of North Dakota, figured, Miss Alma Carlson, living near Woodward, ten miles east of Perry, shot herself through the heart yesterday morning, dying three minutes later. The young woman was only 22 years of age, and beautiful in face and figure. She was the acknowledged belle of the community in which she lived. She seemed in her usual health and spirits and gave no indication of any intention of suicide.

Yesterday morning she received a letter, presumably from her former sweetheart, although this is not definitely known. All efforts to find this letter have failed, and it is supposed that the girl destroyed it before she ended her life.

She ate dinner with the family at noon, and soon afterwards went up stairs to her room. A few moments later a shot rang out, and when her parents reached the room it was to find their daughter breathing her last.

HAVE BLACK DIPHTHERIA.

Hamilton County Family are in Grip of Dread Disease.

Webster City, Aug. 10.—The dread disease of black diphtheria which has seen its appearance in the Leonard Hill family at Stanhope, fifteen miles south of this city, claimed its third victim Monday night within a period of three days in the death of Miss Mildred Hill. Mr. Hill himself is now ill with the terrible affliction. The victims claimed thus far by the disease are as follows:

Crystal Hill, aged 8 years; died Saturday morning.

Little Helen Hill, aged 4 years; died Saturday afternoon.

Mildred Hill, aged 12 years; died Monday night.

About two weeks ago sore throat made its appearance in the Hill family. A week later this developed into black diphtheria. The Milburn family, who reside north of Stratford, are also reported to have this disease, although no fatalities have yet occurred there.

$5,000 TO COLLEGE.

Late Jeremiah H. Merrill Makes Gift to Grinnell.

Des Moines, Aug. 12.—The officials of Iowa college at Grinnell have been notified that the late J. H. Merrill of Des Moines bequeathed the institution $5,000. S. A. Merrill of Des Moines, a son of the deceased, is a trustee of the estate, and will turn the money over to the institution within a short time.

Mr. Merrill was a trustee of Iowa College for many years. He was prominent in the work of the Iowa Congregational church and did much to aid the college of his alma mater. It is understood the money is to be added to the endowment fund of the institution without any conditions attached.

The report of the administrator of the estate has not been filed yet. The late Mr. Merrill had long been identified with the business interests of Des Moines and Iowa prior to his retirement several years ago and was considered one of the wealthiest men in the city.

Chilson's Slayers are Held.

Council Bluffs, Aug. 9.—Robert Turner and Andy Hill, colored, charged with the murder of George Chilson, president of the Boiler Makers' union, were yesterday bound over to the grand jury. Chilson was shot on a street car during the Eagles' carnival here in July. The men were on the crowded car coming from the carnival when Chilson interfered with an argument between Hill and Turner, pushing Turner from the car. Hill followed Turner, handing him a revolver and told him to "plug him." Hill did so and Chilson died next day. An effort will be made to show self-defense.

Back From Brink of Grave.

Humboldt, Aug. 11.—The proprietor of the Rutland meat market, Irve Lovron, who cut himself about a week ago with a knife above the wrist, is recovering. Blood poison set in, but by careful medical aid his life was saved after hope of his recovery had been almost given up.

Tramp Perishes in Flames.

Clinton, Aug. 11.—Champion Bros. livery barn, burned last night. It was built four years ago and cost $3,000. The loss is perhaps $4,000. A tramp sleeping in the hay is supposed to have perished. There is but little insurance.

WESTERN CANADA

Three Divisions Affording Great Chances for Settlement—Ranching, Wheat-Growing and Mixed Farming.

The old Romans used to say that Gaul was divided into three parts; so is the Canadian North West. Gaul's divisions were political; those of the Western Canada prairies are created by the unerring hand of nature.

The First Division. Chiefly because of the elevation of the country, the absence of large lakes and rivers and the operations of the "Chinook" or Pacific ocean winds, which readily cross the Rocky mountains in Southern Alberta through gaps and passes, the southwestern portion of the Canadian prairies is regarded as somewhat arid, and less fertile than other portions of the country.

Although this has been a prevailing idea in the past, it has been left for American settlers, who have invaded this district within the past two or three years, to prove that splendid crops of grain can be grown on the land.

While there are no large lakes or rivers in this whole country there are numerous fast running streams fed the year round by melting snows in the mountains, furnishing an abundance of the coolest and purest water, the best for beast as well as man.

Englishmen and Americans in the western territories are bringing in their herds as fast as they can and leasing or purchasing land in lots from 1,000 to 20,000 acres from the Dominion government. An idea of the growth of the industry will, however, be gathered from the fact that in 1899 there were but 41,471 head of cattle shipped and sold from the ranches. These figures ran to 55,129 in 1900, and to 160,000 in 1903, averaging $40 per head for the owners. But it takes a great many ranchers and a large number of cattle to cover an area of 200,000 acres, the area available for ranching in the Canadian Northwest.

It is not at all necessary that large investments should be made at the outset. Many men commenced with small capital and small herds, and have worked themselves into large herds and great wealth. There is still in the country plenty of room for those who desire to go and do likewise.

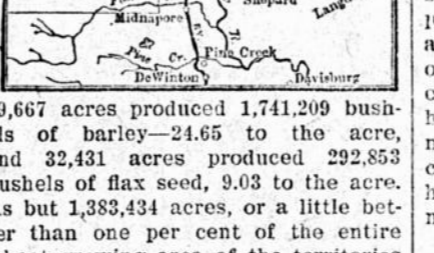

The Second Part.

The second part of the Canadian prairies embraces the great wheat growing belt of the country, which is easily a half larger than any other in the world. It includes about 150,000,000 acres. As it is comparatively free of broken land, large lakes and rivers, about 125,000,000 acres of it can be brought under the plow. Placing a farmer on every half section (320 acres) it can comfortably locate 800,000 farmers, or 4,000,000 of an agricultural community. The territorial government's reports show that in 1903 there were raised 16,629,149 bushels of spring wheat off 837,234 acres; an average of 19.86 bushels per acre; off 440,662 acres of oats there were grown 14,179,705 bushels, an average of 32.17 bushels per acre;

63,667 acres produced 1,741,209 bushels of barley—24.65 to the acre, and 32,431 acres produced 292,853 bushels of flax seed, 9.03 to the acre. As but 1,333,434 acres, or a little better than one per cent of the entire wheat growing area of the territories was under crop, a little figuring shows that 13 per cent of the entire country under wheat will raise the 200,000,000 that Great Britain annually requires from the outside countries. It is a fairly safe statement to make that in twelve or fifteen years the Canadian prairies will be supplying the entire demands of the mother country.

Throughout this entire belt there is an enormous length of railway mileage, branches are radiating in every direction from the trunks until they scarcely leave a grain field more than six or seven miles from a road, and they are all required, for in the fall and early winter the sight of the trains passing to and from the elevators at the railway depots makes the entire country look like one hive of activity. In 1880 there were but few white settlers in the entire country, outside of those connected with the Hudson Bay Company's posts, and scarcely a dollar's worth of anything outside of buffalo hides exported till 1883, twenty years ago, and now the country has a white population of over half a million, the immigration of 1903 being 128,364, 40 per cent of the number being Americans brought over by the representations of their countrymen who preceded them in settlement. Large quantity of Free Homestead Lands.

There is yet a large quantity of government land for homesteading in this country, and as in everything else, "the early bird catches the worm." Those who come first are first served. When it is preferred to purchase railway or other company lands they can be got at from $5 per acre up. This section cannot be better closed than by showing practically what is made by wheat growing in this district. The average from the first of operations is twenty bushels per acre. Breaking the prairie, as first plowing is called, is of course, an exceptional expenditure, as when it is once done, it is done for all time. This costs about $2.50 an acre. After the breaking, plowing and seeding, harvesting, threshing and marketing—all expenses combined amount to about $5.25 per acre, that is if a man does everything done it will cost him $5.25 per acre. If he does the work himself he is earning wages while producing at that figure. Now, as the average yield is twenty bushels, and the average price 60 cents—$12 per acre—the difference between the result and cost, $6.75, is the profit of grain growing year in and year out of the great wheat belts of the Canadian prairie country. If a man has a half section of land and puts half of it, 160 acres, under wheat, which is a very common occurrence, he makes $1,080 on wheat alone and should make, if he is a capable farmer; enough, out of other crops, sale of cattle, dairy and other products, to keep himself and family the year round besides.

The Third Division.

The third division of this great country lies to the north of the wheat belt; between it and what is known as the forest country. As wheat growing implies the raising of all cereals that can profitably be raised in the country, the remaining branches of

SHIPS ESCAPE FROM HARBOR

Russian Battleships Make a Dash From Port Arthur for Open Sea.

JAPANESE ARE IN PURSUIT

Decisive Engagement is Expected at Any Time—Six Russian Battleships, Four Cruisers and Half of Torpedo Boats are at Large.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 11.—A Russian torpedo boat destroyer entered the Chefoo harbor this morning and reported that six Russian battleships, four cruisers and half of the torpedo boats escaped from Port Arthur yesterday morning. The torpedo boat destroyer left Port Arthur last night, bringing in five passengers, who stated that the Japanese fleet is pursuing the Russians and that a battle on the open sea is expected.

Tokio, Aug. 11.—The Russian fleet emerged from Port Arthur Wednesday and a severe engagement with the Japanese fleet lasting all day followed. The Japanese destroyers attacked the Russians at night. The results of the engagement are unknown. The Russian battleships Retvizan and Pobeda were seen outside Port Arthur this (Thursday) morning.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 11.—Again the chance of a decisive battle between General Kurapatkin and the commander of the Japanese armies seems to be disappearing. According to a statement issued by the general staff tonight news are again falling over a wide area in Manchuria, with the prospect of impending operations; but even more important is the information reaching the Associated Press from an exceptional source that the Japanese have delayed too long.

General Kurapatkin has withdrawn his bulk of his army safely north of Liao Yang, leaving only a strong rear guard line southeast of Liao Yang to contest the advance when it comes.

According to this information the Japanese have about 300,000 men in the armies operating against General Kurapatkin, rendering it too hazardous for him to risk a general engagement.

The general staff has no information regarding the reported presence of a large force of Japanese at Pailin, a place that cannot be located on available maps. The report agrees, however, with the general tenor of the information received by the Associated Press and here given, that General Kurapatkin is already retreating north of Liao Yang.

On Aug. 12.—According to the Russian information obtainable, the Russian squadron has not returned to Port Arthur.

In the night of August 9 heavy cannonading was heard at sea in the direction of Port Arthur.

Advices from the fortress say that a Japanese bombardment of the town, facing their batteries in dense kaolin fogs, when they were effectually masked. The shells dropped mainly in the western basin, where the squadron was anchored. Many of the shells fell on the Retvizan, but no serious damage was done either to the town or the fleet. Later the forts got the range of the Japanese field batteries and drove them from their shelter in the kaolin.

On the morning of August 10 the squadron put to sea, heavy cannonading was heard for several hours. The result of the battle is not known, and nothing definite has been learned regarding either squadron.

London, Aug. 12.—A dispatch to a news agency from Tokio announces definitely that Admiral Rozhitzan's attempt of the Port Arthur squadron to escape, and adds that the Port Arthur forts participated with the warships in the engagement, indicating, if true, that the fighting occurred close to the port.

London, Aug. 12.—The dispatch to the Japanese legation from Tokio confirms the reports of a severe naval engagement Wednesday before Port Arthur, and of a subsequent attack on the Russian squadron by the Japanese torpedo boat destroyers.

The dispatch also says by saying that at dawn yesterday the Retvizan and another battleship of the Pacific fleet appeared, taking flight towards Port Arthur.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 12.—Public anxiety regarding the fate of the Port Arthur squadron, which has reached the highest point, remained unrelieved when the people of St. Petersburg retired last night.

The reports from Tokio and Chefoo of the sea fight which followed the departure of the squadron are so conflicting and inconclusive that a strong hope exists that the Russian ships succeeded in breaking through the Japanese fleet. Indeed, it is rumored that the admir

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.
Children, soothe the gums, reduce inflammation, always pain, cures whooping cough.

The fellow who breaks a promise is always ready to make a new one.

Mrs. Hughson, of Chicago, whose letter follows, is another woman in high position who owes her health to the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I suffered for several years with general weakness and bearing-down pains, caused by womb trouble. My appetite was fitful, and I would lie awake for hours, and could not sleep, until I seemed more weary in the morning than when I retired. After reading one of your advertisements I decided to try the merits of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am so glad I did. No one can describe the good it did me. I took three bottles faithfully, and besides building up my general health, it drove all disease and poison out of my body, and made me feel as spry and active as a young girl. Mrs. Pinkham's medicines are certainly all they are claimed to be."

Mrs. M. E. HUGHSON, 347 East Ohio St., Chicago, Ill.

Mrs. Pinkham Tells How Ordinary Tasks Produce Displacements.
Apparently trifling incidents in women's daily life frequently produce displacements of the womb. A slip on the stairs, lifting during menstruation, standing at a counter, running a sewing machine, or attending to the most ordinary tasks may result in displacement, and a train of serious evils is started. The first indication of such trouble should be the signal for quick action. Don't let the condition become chronic through neglect or a mistaken idea that you can overcome it by exercise or leaving it alone.

More than a million women have regained health by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If the slightest trouble appears which you do not understand, write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for her advice, and a few lines of work from her will show you the right thing to do. This advice costs you nothing, but it may mean life or happiness or both."

Mrs. Lelah Stowell, 177 Wellington St., Kingston, Ont., writes:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—You are indeed a goddess to women, and if they all knew what you could do for them, there would be no need of their dragging out miserable lives in agony.

"I suffered for years with bearing-down pains, womb trouble, nervousness, and excruciating headache, but a few bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made life look new and promising to me. I am light and happy, and I do not know what sickness is, and I now enjoy the best of health."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound can always be relied upon to restore health to women who thus suffer. It is a sovereign cure for all the troubles of the uterus or womb. It dissolves and expels tumors from the uterus in the early stage of development, and checks any tendency to cancerous humors. It subdues excitability, nervous prostration, and tones up the entire female system. Its record of cures is the greatest in the world, and should be relied upon with confidence.

THE POLICE AND STRIKERS CLASH

Aroused By Attempt to Carry Meat Through the Streets.

DESPERATE AFFRAY ENSUES

Chicago, Aug. 8.—All the labor unions in Chicago have endorsed the butchers' strike. After listening to the strikers' side of the controversy which was presented to them by Michael J. Donnelly, president of the striking butchers' union, the Chicago Federation of Labor, which is composed of every labor organization in Chicago has a membership of nearly 300,000, adopted resolutions last night endorsing the moral and fiscal support of the federated body as long as the strike continues. Each member of the central body will be assessed a small sum each week and the whole amount will be turned over to the striking butchers and their families during the struggle with the packers. The expenditure each member is to be assessed with left in the hands of a committee with orders to report results today. While the officers of the Federation of Labor were unable last night to give an exact estimate of the amount of money the strikers would receive from this source, it was stated that the total sum would be well up into thousands each week.

A fight which has lasted for nearly four weeks a statement of the strikers' side seems tonight to be as acute as at any time since the strike began. Neither side, during all this time, has shown any signs of weakening.

Chicago, Aug. 9.—Union teamsters are the principal weapon which the packers propose to use to win the stock yards strike. Orders were issued yesterday to drivers of ice wagons to deliver no more ice to the butchers who buy of the big packers or to any of the branch houses of the packings where the men are now on strike. A list of more than 200 retailers who have been buying meat the so-called trust packers and haul away with their own wagons has been compiled, and according to the claims of the strike leaders, the ice supply will be cut off from every place the packers place their wagons. Arrangements have been made to place pickets stationed at all the retail markets which have been placed under the ban of the unions to see that the boycott is enforced to the limit.

Yesterday's order prohibiting ice deliveries to retailers is a duplication of the order issued last week, but which was not enforced because it had not been sanctioned by the intentional officers of the teamsters' union. At Cincinnati where the International Brotherhood of Teamsters was in session yesterday the necessary endorsement of the proposed boycott was given and the related order will be put in force tomorrow.

Chicago, Aug. 10.—An attempt to move meat to the stock yards to the Fulton street on Randolph street, a distance of four miles, caused a number of the night between the police and the strikers. The packers, who are the strikers' pathizers, were to haul the meat through the streets of the wagons bearing the meat.

Fully a hundred shots were fired by the police and the members of the mob, but nobody was struck by a bullet. Two police officers, Stephen Barry and Patrick O'Hara, were cut on the head by stones thrown by rioters.

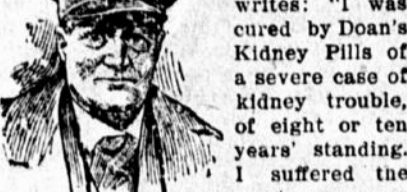

The packers' trucks that fully 80 percent of the stock of work was carried on yesterday. The receipts of live stock, which were large, still were almost normal, and with corresponding days of the strike began. The great attention of these arrivals were purchased by the packers and before night were slaughtered. Between 600 and 700 new arrivals were added to the packers' force of employees yesterday.

According to the strikers' Journal the Independent Packing concerns have raised prices of meat to the advance applied to the kinds of meats and ranges from 25 to 50 cents a pound.

The strike affects the packers and the independent firms and the strikers are in collision to market the meat concerns and the dealers who bought of the large packers is simply a move to force retail dealers to pay high prices for the independent companies' support of the charge the packers' out comparative prices.

AN OLD MAN'S TRIBUTE.

An Ohio Fruit Raiser, 78 Years Old, Cured of a Terrible Case After Ten Years of Suffering.

Sidney Justus, fruit dealer of Mentor, Ohio, writes: "I was cured by Doan's Kidney Pills of a severe case of kidney trouble, of eight or ten years' standing. I suffered the most severe backache and other pains in the region of the kidneys. These were especially severe when stooping to lift anything and often I could hardly straighten my back. The aching was bad in the day time, but just as bad at night, and I was always lame in the morning. I was bothered with rheumatic pains and dropsical swelling of the feet. The urinary passages were painful and the secretions were discolored and so free that often I had to rise at night. I felt tired all day. Half a box served to relieve me, and three boxes effected a permanent cure."

OLD FASHIONED.

But Still in the Fashion.

It is an ever new and interesting story to hear how one can be entirely made over by change of food.

"For two years I was troubled with what my physician said was the old fashioned dyspepsia.

"There was nothing I could eat but 20 or 30 minutes later I would be spitting my food up in quantities until I would be very faint and weak. This went out from day to day until I was terribly wasted away and without any prospect of being helped.

"One day I was advised by an old lady to try Grape-Nuts and cream leaving off all fatty food. I had no confidence that Grape-Nuts would do all she said for me as I had tried so many things without any help. But it was so simple I thought I would give it a trial she insisted so.

"Well I ate some for breakfast and pretty soon the lady called to see her 'patient' as she called me and asked if I had tried her advice.

"Glad you did child, do you feel some better?"

"No," I said, "I do not know as I do, the only difference I can see is I have no sour stomach and come to think of it I haven't spit up your four teaspoons of Grape-Nuts yet."

"Nor did I ever have any trouble with Grape-Nuts then or any other time for this food always stays down and my stomach digests it perfectly; I soon got strong and well again and bless that old lady every time I see her.

"Once an invalid of 98 pounds I now weigh 125 pounds and feel strong and well and it is due entirely and only to having found the proper food in Grape-Nuts." Name given my Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

STORIETTES.

The editor of an English paper recently received a fine chicken, which he, supposing it to be a token of appreciation from a discriminating reader, took home and enjoyed for dinner. The following day he received this letter: "Dear Editor:—Yesterday I sent you a chicken in order to settle a dispute which has arisen here. Can you tell us what the chicken died of?"

In applying for some additional life insurance recently, William Jennings Bryan had to fill up the usual questions as printed on the application sheet. One query was: "Have you ever suffered from fever of any kind?" To this Mr. Bryan replied: "Yes, from two attacks of Presidential fever, both of which were followed by severe chills. Have completely recovered."

Like the traditional Englishman, Arthur Stanley, Dean of Westminster, wore home from his first visit to America an expression of amazement which only time would efface. He was at once beset by interviewers, who asked the usual questions. "What was the thing which most impressed you in America?" was one of these. Without a moment's hesitation, Dean Stanley replied: "My own ignorance."

One portrait of a distinguished subject which the late Professor Lenbach began he never finished. The sitter in this case was the Queen of Holland, who, taking umbrage at a suggested change in her costume, sharply rebuked the artist, and ordered him to paint her as she was. Whereupon the spirited artist replied: "Your majesty can command your own subjects, but I am a German," and he took his departure.

Senator Beveridge uses neither railing nor telegraph franks. In one occasion he had been speaking at an old settlers' picnic, and in making his way through the crowd was relieved of all of his money. He did not discover his loss until he attempted to pay for a hasty lunch at the railway station. He explained to the restaurant-keeper, who said in suspicious tones: "Show your railway passes if you are a senator." "I don't use them," replied Mr. Beveridge. "Then you ain't no senator," said the landlord with conviction.

Professor William James, of Harvard, is very popular with the more intelligent and studious of the undergraduates. When these young men, however, make rash or bold or unbecoming assertions, he does not hesitate to take them down. Not long ago, a sophomore aired some rather atheistical views before Professor James. "You," the latter said, "are a free thinker, I perceive. You believe in nothing." "I only believe—haw—what I can understand," the sophomore replied. "It comes to the same thing, I suppose," said Professor James.

RUM GOING UP.

Customer—"I don't see why rum should be so high?"

Dealer—"It's on account of the war between Russia and Japan."

"Hum! Don't see how that can be."

"Japan, after she has walloped Russia, intends to civilize the benighted Chinese Empire, you know, and that will vastly increase the demand for rum."

A UNITED STATES SENATOR

Used Per-na For Dyspepsia With Great Benefit.

HON. M. C. BUTLER, Ex-United States Senator from South Carolina.

EX-U. S. Senator M. C. Butler from South Carolina, was Senator from that state for two terms. In a recent letter from Washington, D. C., he says: "I can recommend Per-na for dyspepsia and stomach trouble. I have been using your medicine for a short period and I feel very much relieved. It is indeed a wonderful medicine besides a good tonic."—M. C. Butler.

Per-na is not simply a remedy for dyspepsia. Per-na is a cathartic remedy. Per-na cures dyspepsia because it is generally dependent upon catarrh of the stomach.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Per-na, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.
