Hamilton-Walker Nuptials.

One of the prettiest and most up to date weddings that has occurred in our city for many years was the Hamilton-Walker wedding, which we announced the pre-nuptial notice several weeks ago. It was the marriage of Miss Nina Hamilton, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hamilton on East
Walker street, to Mr. William Walker of East Lyon street, and who is now living in Lincoln, Neb. Both of these young parties are Des Moines people who were reared here, and are well known all over the state.

The wedding took place at the bride's home Wednesday April 25, at prompt 8 o'clock. Rev. H. S. Graves performed the ceremony; after which congratulations of the large crowd was received, then the guest sat down to an excellent supper served in courses
by Mrs. W. H. Hubbard, the cateress.
The bride wore a grey traveling suit while the groom was attired in plain black. The wedding presents were numerous, costly and quite useful.
The happy couple left that night for their future home in Lincoln, Neb., amid showers of rice, old shoes tears of a large number of their friends who accompanied them to the depot. Their friends had labeled their trunks all over with little bears and the words
"we are just married."

Thus the Bysanders with their many friends wish them happiness and success through married life.

CURRENT LITERATURE.

Last month we received a beautiful pamphlet of Dr. Booker T.
Washington and his work, by my friend Adelbert M. Roberts of Chicago. It is an eloquent and scholarly tribute to this great man. He says that the champion of higher education will do well to emulate his example. He says captains of both have equal tasks to perform—there should be rivalry but not controversy. The pamphlet is well worth the price 15 cents.

Our Neighbor, is a new magazine just out. Its motto is pure thoughts, striving for right and justice, "not charity, but opportunity we ask." It is highly illustrated and has some able articles. We congratulate its editor, W. W. Ferguson, upon his very attractive initiative issue and wish continued success for Our Neighbor. It is published in Detroit.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Matilda Golden was born in Brunswick, Howard county, Mo., came to this city 42 years ago. She died in Minneapolis
Sunday, April 22 at 1:45 o'clock.
She had been a member of the A. M.
church for many years and had a host of friends in this city, her home and Minneapolis. She leaves to mourn her death two daughters and a grand-son—Mrs.
Theodore Williams of this city and Mrs. John Jenkins of Minneapolis.

Mrs. Golden was not sick but passed away quietly. The funeral services were held at the A. M. E. church conducted by Rev. H. S.
Graves, assisted by Rev. H. S.
Seymour.

We too join in with her many friends in extending condolence to her children.

There are always two parties to a contract, and yet in a majority of cases but one is expected to carry it out.

CONGREGATIONALISM IN THE WEST.

Just a few months ago the Congregational church of the northwest, but today the Union Congregational church of Des Moines is numbered among the leading churches of the west for colored people and its influence for good is far-reaching.

Rev. H. W. Porter never tires in his endeavors to advocate the real principles for which the church stands. There is no difference between the Congregational church and any other evangelical church. Its polity grows directly out of the New Testament. We therefore believe in the Holy Ghost as God's appointed agent for convicting man for sin and

A GREAT OPPORTUNITY FOR BUXTON.

To encourage the employes of the Consolidation Coal Company to save their money I have decided to give the following cash prizes to the eighteen employes who make the best showing in this respect during first year of present agreement:

To the employe making the best record, a prize of $200.
To the next best a prize of $100.
To the next best, a prize of $50.
To the five next best, a prize of (each) $10.
To the ten next best, prizes of (each) $5.

The above prizes will be awarded by the following committee: The president of the Miners Local Union,
the Superintendent of the Public School, and the Cashier of the Consolidation Coal Company, and paid by me on the first pay day in May, 1907.
The committee may adopt such rules as may be necessary to carry out the intent of the giver and to insure a fair contest, it being understood, however, that the rules adopted by said committee will give all employes an equal opportunity to win
these prizes by taking into account the earnings, the necessary living expenses, and the savings of each employe, whether said savings be in the form of cash in the bank or real estate, or other permanent investments the purpose being to reward those who save the most money under like conditions.

If the men show the proper interest
in this matter during the first year, I will renew the offer for the second year of the Des Moines agreement.
B. C. Buxton.

Buxton, Iowa, April 20, 1906.
P. S.—Anyone desiring to compete for these prizes must notify the cashier in writing, within ten days of his signing the local contract.

REV. H. W. PORTER.

Pastor of Union Congregational church,
Des Moines, Iowa.

for securing his conversion, we believe in Jesus Christ as the Redeemer of the world, we believe in God the Father and in the Word of God, as written in the Bible. Congregationalism is not in the west to tear down or proselyte from other churches; but we are here to work in harmony with every church and religious enterprise that has for its object the moral and religious uplift of mankind.

To join the Rev. Porter comes another strong Christian man, the Rev.
H. L. DeMond of Augusta, Ga., who enters the field at Buxton, Iowa. We welcome Rev. DeMond and we shall expect an onward march of the good work. Rev. A. L. DeMond is a graduate from Platt University and Howard University and has had eight years of experience as a gospel ministry.

ARTISTIC HOME GARDENING.

Nothing is more beautiful and grand
to lovers of nature, than to see plants, or gardens growing; with their flowers
and green foliage.

So few people stop to think and consider of the wonderful transformation of seeds into plants, and even into vegetables, which are the chief articles of our diet.

As for our homes they should have just as pleasant, and pretty outside surroundings as well as inside, and a good number of flowers or vegetables should adorn every yard; if there is an accessible space.

There is no spot of ground however arid, bare, sandy or ugly, that cannot be tamed into such a state as may give an impression of beauty and delight.
It cannot be done so easily, but any place under natural conditions can be graced with an adornment of suitable vegetation.

The garden of flowers should be planted in the front or side yard, and the kitchen garden which consists of vegetables and herbs should be planted in the rear of the yard. But if the garden be planted in the front or side yard in the shape of a double square;
and the front part given to flowers,
and the further portion being given to vegetables, a division between the two can be made by a foliage screen of jerusalem artichoke or sunflowers, which make a fine partition. The vegetables should be planted in nice straight even rows; and all the small vegetables placed to themselves, and vegetables planted in hills all to themselves.

If the garden is not fenced in, a hedging is very pretty planted around the sides, and sweet corn or small wheat planted across the lower end.

When gardens are newly made it is wise to arrange places for herbs close to the house, somewhere near the door that gives access to the kitchen. In this garden should be thymes, basil, and savory, a bush of sage, some clumps of balm soap celery, and parsley for flavoring, and a little mint.

It is much better, and nicer for one to go out, and compose the little he-quet for the special flavoring of some delicate soup or sauce, picking the right quantity and proportion straight from the fragrant growing herbs; than it is to go to the market and get them either dried or not sweet, and fresh.
Moreover, having them all before us,
and a chance to get a knowledge of their nature.

Let us then in planting gardens of flowers; plant all that we can of the different kinds that we have to select from; and at our windows and porches, let us have pretty vines, with their delicate sweet scented flowers bursting from them. And in our kitchen gardens let us plant, and arrange our vegetables in such an artistic manner, that they will be beautiful to look upon.

Let us not merely place our seeds in the ground, and trust to nature although to mature them for us, but let us care for them each day, and in this way we can come in closer touch with nature; and all things pertaining to the growth of plants.

We know not which is worldly wisdom is wiser; we only know that to our consistency, pure idleness seems to us to be akin to folly or even worse, and that in some form or other we must obey the Divine command: "Work while ye have the light."

GOVERNOR SIGNS IMPORTANT BILL

Anti-Discrimination Act Becomes a State Law

VICTORY FOR INDEPENDENTS

Oil King's Hold on Iowa Will Be Broken—Reductions Must Be Made Uniform all over the State in the Price of Petroleum Products.

Des Moines.—Governor Cummins has signed the anti-discrimination bill which is calculated to relieve the people of Iowa from the grasp of the Standard Oil Company.

Hereafter when John D. Rockefeller desires to drive a competitor out of business in Iowa he will have to do it by furnishing better oil or better service, for he cannot do it by temporarily cutting prices.

Independent oil people believe that this will open Iowa to the Kansas oil product and reduce the price of oil to Iowa consumed several millions of dollars a year. It will permit competition in the Iowa fields in disposing of oils.

The measure was passed by the last general assembly and provides that when a company reduces the price of petroleum or its products in one locality in the state an identical reduction must be made in every other part of the state.

So an oil company cannot sell oil in Des Moines, for instance, at a less price than to other towns in Iowa which have the same freight rates. If the price is cut in one town it must be cut in all. This will prevent a company cutting the price in Des Moines, for instance, to drive out the competition here, while the price in all other parts of the state is left at the old figure or increased sufficiently to make up the loss in the one town where competition is being destroyed.

The result will be that prices will not be cut by the Standard, but that the average prices will be reduced in the state is certain for the history of Kansas competition under a similar law demonstrates it in that commonwealth. The independent people to build up business will naturally start out with a lower price for oil than the Standard, which will force the Standard to a lower level. This will affect the whole state alike.

The claim is made by the Standard that the law is unconstitutional and doubtless the company will make a test of it. This can be done by cutting prices in a single locality and awaiting prosecution under the law. The independent oil people contend that the act is perfectly constitutional.

The rule governing vetoes of acts of the legislature is that only when it is beyond a reasonable doubt that a statute is unconstitutional is an executive justified in vetoing an act on that ground. Governor Cummins was not satisfied that the law was unconstitutional on the showing made by the attorneys for the Standard Oil people and therefore signed the measure.

Their theory was that the singling out of petroleum and its products, the dealers in which alone are affected by the law, made it class legislation; and if it did not appear on its face to be class legislation, nevertheless it was aimed at the Standard Oil company, which, in itself, made of the act class legislation.

In these views the governor could not concur.

Bolt Strikes a Church. Waterloo.—Lightning struck the new Methodist church at Parkersburg damaging it to the extent of $2,000. The church was recently dedicated and cost $40,000.

BIRDSALL GETS ANOTHER TERM Waterloo.—Congressman Benjamin P. Birdsall was renominated for a third term by acclamation at the republican district convention here on Thursday afternoon.

A convention of the Tenth judicial district was held following the congressional and Judge Franklin C. Platt was renominated to succeed himself and Hon. C. E. Ransler of Independence to succeed Judge Blair of Delaware.

Mules Are Burned in Mine. Colfax.—Number 7 mine, belonging to the Consolidated Coal company, caught fire, burning nineteen mules and causing considerable damage otherwise.

The mules were in the mine and there was no way possible to rescue them. The origin of the fire is unknown. The loss will be something over $2,000. The mines are located at Severs, Iowa, and had just resumed operations the day before. The fire will cause a serious delay and a loss on the output of coal.

Fire Scare in Mapleton. Mapleton.—Fire destroyed the Elite Jewelry company stock, as well as the building belonging to J. D. Giddings. Stock estimated at $3,000, partially insured. The building was in the center of the block surrounded by frame buildings, but owing to the vigilance of Night Watchman George Frame and the quickness of the fire company a bad fire was averted.

Mapleton Has Very Bad Fire. Mapleton.—Fire destroyed the jewelry store building and stock of the Elite Jewelry Co. The entire loss amounts to about $3,000, partially covered by insurance. The building was owned by J. D. Giddings. Only after hard work did the firemen and citizens stop the fire from spreading to surrounding buildings.

Duncombe Against Conner. Fort Dodge.—It is authoritatively rumored here that the democrats of the Tenth district are preparing a dark horse as Judge Conner's opponent for congress in the person of Charles F. Duncombe, editor of the T. Dodge Chronicle, and that his candidacy will be announced soon.

JAMISON HEADS THE COMMISSION

Des Moines.—The legislative insurance commission yesterday elected James H. Jamison of Clarke county chairman and C. S. Byrkit of Des Moines secretary.

No other business was done except to direct the secretary to gather and classify information as to the companies doing life insurance business in Iowa, their business and their methods, as disclosed by the reports of the examiners of the office of the auditor of state, and by the reports on file with that officer.

The commission will meet again the later part of the coming week, and will then undertake to lay out a general plan of procedure. Pending that meeting the question of selecting the company employees will be left in abeyance.

As to an actuary it is stated that the commission expects to make use of the services of the actuary in the employ of the office of the auditor of state, if possible; but stenographers will be employed as required.

It is probable that at the meeting next week the commission will reach a conclusion as to the course of its inquiry—as to whether it will hold an inquiry such as the New York committee did or whether it will gather its information without such a formal procedure. If that method is decided on it is possible that some outside attorney will be selected to conduct the inquiry.

ARE SURE MORSE WAS MURDERED

Webster City.—The remains of E. L. Morse, the young man who met such a mysterious death in Boone last week, were interred here.

That Morse was murdered, the motive being robbery, is the general belief here. The Boone police are still working on the case, but no clues have been developed. At the inquest Saturday it developed that Morse had been in the company of two men, a tall and a short one, one of them professing to be an agent for a railroad construction crew and with whom Morse was about to make a contract. A fire broke out in the night near to the hotel where the three were staying and they left together to see it. The next morning Morse's battered body was found under the Sixth street bridge upon the Honey creek bank. He had evidently been struck over the head with a lead or iron pipe or some other instrument which practically broke every bone in his skull. He was still alive but unconscious when found, and lived 48 hours. Morse had $20 on his person at the time of his disappearance. Police are looking for the two strangers and Morse's relatives in this city are making every effort to have the guilty parties brought to justice.

SAC CITY WOMAN BURNED TO DEATH

Sac City.—Mrs. Lucy J. Everhart, mother of Councilman W. C. Everhart, who had been keeping house for him was fatally burned by the explosion of a can of kerosene with which she was attempting to quicken the fire in the kitchen stove.

The flaming oil was thrown all over her body and her upper and lower limbs and face were burned to a crisp. A young minister visiting in the home and others hastened to her relief, and the fire was soon extinguished, but she was burned beyond possibility of recovery and died within a few hours without suffering greatly. She was the widow of the late Rev. W. B. Everhart of Grant City, and leaves two sons and five daughters besides the motherless children of her son whom she was giving a mother's care. She was 57 years of age.

It has been ascertained that the oil in the can that exploded had been mixed accidentally with gasoline.

MAN AND WOMAN WERE NEAR DEATH

Chicago.—A man and a woman were overcome by illuminating gas in a room at the Fees hotel, 645 West Madison street. Both were revived and will recover. They are James O'Leary, 43 years old, a traveling salesman from Villisca, Ia., and Mrs. Mary Kennedy, 40 years old.

To the police Mrs. Fees said O'Leary entered the hotel with Mrs. Kennedy about midnight. Policemen here, who investigated, believe O'Leary accidentally turned on the gas after turning it off for the night.

Mrs. Kennedy, who recently came from Iowa and who resides at the hotel, was revived before the police came. O'Leary remained unconscious until after he reached the hospital.

His Neck Was Broken. Fort Dodge.—Coroner's inquest over the body of William Church, killed in a saloon brawl by Albert Fecht, bartender, has shown that death was caused by a broken neck, presumably from a blow from the fist of the bartender. Fecht will be given trial on charge of manslaughter.

Accident at Iowa City. Iowa City.—Frightfully killed by a horse, which he had frightened by striking it with a stick, Master Forest Emmons, the 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Emmons, has been unconscious for seventy-two hours.

Lightning Kills and Injures. Woodbine.—Lightning struck a hand-car on the Northwestern road bearing six section men and killed Fred Ulmer besides shocking four others. The storm was a very severe one, three inches of rain falling.

Strange Freak of Lightning. Valeria.—Lightning struck the barn of Dan Phelan, a prosperous farmer near here, and killed three horses. Strange to say, the barn did not burn.

SEVEN YEARS OF SUFFERING

Ended at Last Through Using Doan's Kidney Pills.

Mrs. Selma Jones, of 200 Main St., Ansonia, Conn., says: "If it had not been for Doan's Kidney Pills I would not be alive to-day. Seven years ago I was so bad with pain in the back, and so weak that I had to keep to my room, and was in bed sometimes six weeks at a spell. Beginning with Doan's Kidney Pills, the kidney weakness was soon corrected, and inside a week all the pain was gone. I was also relieved of all headaches, dizzy spells, soreness and feelings of languor. I strongly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills."

READ AND YOU WILL LEARN

That the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice endorse and commend, in the strongest terms possible, each and every ingredient entering into the composition of Dr. F. C. Winslow's Medical Discovery for the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia, catarrh of stomach, "liver complaint," torpid liver, or biliousness, chronic bowel affections, and all catarrhal diseases of whatever region, name or nature. It is also a specific remedy for all such chronic or long standing cases of catarrhal affections and for the relief of chronic cough, bronchitis, or chronic cases of throat and lung diseases (except consumption) accompanied with severe coughs. It is not so good for acute colds and coughs, but for lingering, or chronic cases it is especially efficacious in producing perfect cures. It contains Black Cherry bark, Golden Seal, Licorice, Sassafras, Root of Mandrake root and Queen's root—all of which are highly praised as remedies for all the above mentioned affections by such eminent medical writers and teachers as Prof. Bartholow, of Jefferson Med. College; Prof. Hare, of the Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago; John King, M. D., late of Cincinnati; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati; Prof. Wm. C. Wood, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago, and scores of others equally eminent in their several schools of practice.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for like purposes, that has any such professional endorsement—worth the cost of a nickel—of any medical journal. Open publicity of its formula on the bottle wrapper is the best possible guaranty of its merits. A glance at this public record will show that the "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no poison or harmful agents and no alcohol—chemically pure, triple refined glycerine being used instead. Glycerine is entirely unobjectionable and besides is a most useful ingredient in the cure of all stomach and lung troubles, and in bringing about relief. There is the highest medical authority for its use in all such cases. The "Discovery" is a concentrated glycerine of medicinal roots and is safe and reliable.

A booklet of extracts from eminent medical authorities, endorsing its ingredients, mailed free on request. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

A cook in Kansas thinned her potato-polish with gasoline, and the newspapers say that her chance of recovery is thinner than her polish.

An eminent physician of London declares that the modern drawing-room, with its carpets, cushions, and curtains, is an ideal breeding-place for disease germs, which are constantly recruited from the clothes of people who have arrived in public halls.

Fashions in millinery did not trouble Mrs. MacClean, who died a few weeks ago at New Ross, Wexford, Ireland, at the age of ninety-nine. At a recent exhibition in the town there was on view a black straw bonnet that had been worn by Mrs. MacClean for fifty consecutive years without a change of shape or trimmings.

A new slang expression, now in popular use in London's smart set, is "Pull up your socks!" It is uttered in contradiction of something that has been said, or is equivalent to a surprise, as "You don't mean it?" Fancy a young man saying to an elderly dowager, who has narrated a strange story, "Oh, pull up your socks!"

An Irishman, a devout Catholic, entered a London restaurant on a Friday, and successfully asked for "divine whale," "filleted shark," and "roasted porpoise." The amazed waiter, having in turn informed him that these dainty dishes were not on the bill-of-fare, the patron said, "Well, I'll take some roast beef and vegetables. But I'd like to witness that I asked for fish."

FOUND OUT.

A Trained Nurse Discovered Its Effect.

No one is in better position to know the value of food and drink than a trained nurse.

Speaking of coffee a nurse of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., writes: "I used to drink strong coffee myself and suffered greatly from headaches and indigestion. While on a visit to my brother-in-law, a good chance to try Postum Food Coffee, for they drank it altogether in place of ordinary coffee. In two weeks, after using Postum, I found I was much benefited and finally my headaches disappeared and also the indigestion."

"Naturally I have since used Postum among my patients, and have noticed a marked benefit where coffee has been left off and Postum used."

"I observe a curious fact about Postum used among mothers. It greatly helps the flow of milk in cases where coffee is inclined to dry it up, and where tea causes nervousness."

"I find trouble in getting servants to make Postum properly. They must always serve it before it has been boiled long enough. It should be boiled 15 or 20 minutes and served with cream, when it is certainly a delicious beverage."

"There's a reason" for Postum.

DISASTER ERASES CLASS DISTINCTION

EARTHQUAKE AT SAN FRANCISCO PLACES RICH AND POOR ON SAME LEVEL

GIDLIGHTS ON THE GREAT CATASTROPHE

Millionaire and Pauper New Friends—Business Being Conducted Amid the Ruins—Hear to Wealth Born on Sidewalk.

San Francisco, Cal.—This town is "or, the level" in every sense of the word, writes Richard Barry. You can stand on the flat and see Telegraph hill with no obstruction but a few skyscraper skeletons. South of Van Ness avenue it is not even a junk heap. No more ghouts are shot because there is nothing to steal, and they will have to pay men to carry off the smashed bricks, Russian, Telegraph and Nob bills, which formerly made such a magnificent metropolitan saddle against the Golden Gate, look as they do in the prints of '49, when scrubby bushes rambled across their barren faces. They have been scraped of foul and fair by a mighty muck raker. The homes of threefourths of the people are annihilated, and as one walks through the desolation he slowly realizes that the world can never know what has happened; that 100 Pompells would be swallowed in these ruins and that California in tragedy, as in all else, has shaken her jaunty fist in the face of history and written "anis" to the volume.

Social Distinctions Levelled.

Yet these smash-up buildings and desolate streets do not present the significant leveling. The material loss is great, but it does not stagger the imagination. A few hundred millions will mend the hurt and there are many people here to-day who think the shake-up is worth the leveling. Society is on the ground, face to face. Every artificial barrier is swept away. The social distinctions built up in 50 years have been obliterated with the same swiftness and finally shown by the flames toward the property. The loss of life is small, the loss of social position colossal. Down to the elements, now nothing counts but human loss. Money has momentarily lost its purchasing power. Servants, luxury, habits, prestige—yes, animus, feuds, hatred, jealousy and contempt have disappeared. Humanity is in the flat and every one is on the level.

Here are a few random incidents picked from the edge of the cataclysm:

Fillmore street, a third-rate metropolitan artery, has become for the moment the business center of the town. Here, in dinky bakeries, cheap candy stores, tawdry photograph galleries and insignificant lodging houses, are found all that is left of the greatest business institutions on the Pacific coast. A sawmill that formerly employed 4,000 men has its office in a hall bedroom that used to rent for one dollar a week. A bakery that employed 300 carts before the fire is operating out of a hand laundry that was run by three women. The largest department store in the west is being resurrected from a soda water stand that has been roughly partitioned, the front 14 by 16 feet space being used for an office. In a rear room of similar extent the exclusive heads go for fridges and coffee warmed over an alcohol lamp.

Odd Quarters for City Officials.

You can see the chief of police in San Francisco as easily as you could see the sheriff of the most backwoods county in Arizona. He sits in the window of a corner grocery and as you pass on the sidewalk you glance at his bright face and hear his hearty laugh. The mayor issues his orders from the lodge room of a secret society. The superior court is being held in a Jewish synagogue, while the city and county records are buried in a tomb in the Masonic cemetery.

The newspapers that once occupied the principal skyscrapers in the city are being operated from four little rooms in the same block, no one of which has more than a 30-foot front or a 50-foot depth. On one side of each room you can see the sign "Subscriptions Department," on the other "Advertising Department," while on each rear wall is hung a rough sign, "Editorial Department."

One Newspaper Office a Bedroom.

One of the most fortunate papers, after much maneuvering, has managed to commandeer a second-floor bedroom, the nature of whose previous occupants is attested by the notice still hanging from the chandelier, which reads, "Don't Blow Out the Gas." This tiny room, around two small tables, is congregated the journalistic talent that formerly conducted a world-famous organ from a suite of 15 rooms in one of the most magnificent buildings in the west.

To Ask Loan of Congress.

Congress may be asked to appropriate $100,000,000 to rebuild a new metropolis on the Pacific coast on the site of the devastated city, the money to be loaned on real estate security for 25 years at two per cent per annum.

This project, it is said, will be laid before the president and the leaders of both political parties in congress by Zerbert Law, a San Francisco capitalist, after a conference with the leading business men of the city.

Loss of Life Exaggerated.

Secretary Metcalf, who went to San Francisco as the representative of the national administration, with instructions from the president to report to him regarding the conditions in the stricken city as he should find them, has wired the president a complete summary of the situation. He thinks the loss of life will not exceed 300, the injured being about 1,000. The loss to government buildings is not so heavy as the early reports indicated. Secretary Metcalf says, however, that the industrial and commercial losses are appalling.

10,000 Acres Burned Over.

A well-known Oakland engineer states that the area devastated by the fire in San Francisco approximates 10,000 acres, or about 15 square miles. There are few cities in the world where so much valuable property is contained in an equal territory. Within this 15 square miles were nearly 100 banks, some of the finest buildings in the world, thousands of mercantile and manufacturing establishments, and more than 230,000 inhabitants, besides 40,000 transients.

Rebuild Fairmont Hotel.

Work on the great Fairmont hotel, California and Powell streets was commenced Friday. A rough inspection showed that only the woodwork of the building had been destroyed and that the walls are in good shape. The building would have been finished by the first of next November and the opening it is expected will not be delayed more than three months after the date originally set. The effects of smoke and flame on the outside walls are being removed and in a few days the great building will show few outward signs of the conflagration.

If further proof were needed of the leveling character of conditions it might have been seen yesterday afternoon, when "Mike" De Young, of the Chronicle, millionaire and political leader, stood in front of one of these little offices. Down the street in an automobile belonging to ex-Mayor James D. Phelan came Abe Rent, the triumphant Republican boss. When he saw De Young he waved his hat and called out a hearty greeting, to which De Young responded with a gay salute. For one not intimate with San Francisco to fully realize what this means he must be told that Souf, Phelan and De Young are the respective leaders of the most bitter and antagonistic political factions in the west.

If you still doubt that the millennium is upon us go down the street two blocks to where the relief committee is working 24 hours a day from the showroom of a vegetable grocer and you will find Gavin McNabb and Abe Reuf with chairs and arms touching, laughing at the same grim earthquake jokes and putting the two crafty heads in San Francisco together for the immediate relief of the afflicted. A week ago as the bosses respectively of the Republican and Democratic ranks, America could have afforded no more striking instance of deadly rivalry than would have been adduced by mention of these two names.

Resurrecting a Dry Goods Store.

From another clear stand white-haired, esthetic Raphael Wolf is resurrecting the most fashionable dry goods store in the city. He is old, wealthy and practically retired. He could easily turn his back on San Francisco and live the rest of his days, the one other place of his delight; but says he: "I shall stay here and see it all up again just as it was—with perhaps one difference, it will be about twice as good."

Up and down all the streets one can see curbstone fires, where the people are cooking their meals in obedience to the municipal order to light no fires in the houses. They being without large ranges, small kitchen stoves, improvised sheet iron ovens and the old brick Dutch ovens are used and from which are turned out some wonderful concoctions.

Most of the servants have either run away or been sent away and the people who got their own meals out of doors are among the best in the city. Cooking their dinners in the streets may be seen girls who have been educated at Stanford, Berkeley, Vassar and Bryn Mawr.

Spreckels Heir Born on Sidewalk.

But of all the astounding leveling feats accomplished by the fire and earthquake the most remarkable occurred in front of the Pacific avenue home of Rudolf Spreckels, son of the president of the sugar trust. There on the sidewalk, behind some screens, Mrs. Spreckels was safely delivered of a handsome and healthy son. It is a free state, everyone beginning over again, rich and poor alike, just as the front rank broke from the line the day Oklahoma territory was opened to settlement.

Not Fair Shake; Start Again.

Young men who can swing a small capital to-day will be millionaires in a few years. Millionaires to-day are walking the streets mourning over their ill-luck will never again be flush. San Francisco, queen city of chance, born of the gambling fever, bred of the gambling energy, dreamed out of a gambler's visions of wealth and glory, with a fierce and terrible grandeur, has smitten all who loved her and said to the half million who had sworn by her: "It's not a fair shake; start again."

Rescue Insane People.

Many stories of heroism lie buried in the ruins, but some tales that make the heart tingle are slowly filtering through official sources. This is the story of the noble work performed by Mrs. Kane, matron of the Detention hospital, and Policeman John McLean, who was detailed there the night of the great earthquake. The insane patients at the ruined city hall were kept in locked cells, from which only the keys of the stewards could free them. At the hour of dawn on that fatal Wednesday morning, the structure in which the courts were housed was the first to fall. The weight tense nervous emergency and the officer the detention hospital, which was on the ground floor. Steward Manville was so badly injured by the falling ruins that he died two days later. Mrs. Kane and Policeman McLean, however, managed to rush outside to momentary safety. Both of them are well advanced in years, but the nurse is a woman of intense nervous energy and the officer is a man of giant frame. As soon as they reached the open court they were greeted by the terrified shrieks of the insane that pierced through the smacking ruins around. They refused to leave their helpless charges, and both went back into the chaotic debris.

New Buildings Are Planned.

The work of rebuilding San Francisco will proceed rapidly. Mrs. Herman Oelrichs of New York has agreed to repair the Rialto building and to build again on the site of the Crossley, She and her sister, Mrs. W. K. Vandervilt, Jr., have also stated that they will put up solid office structures on their Montgomery street sites.

Congress may be asked to appropriate $100,000,000 to rebuild a new metropolis on the Pacific coast on the site of the devastated city, the money to be loaned on real estate security for 25 years at two per cent per annum.

WAS WEAK AND DIZZY

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Restored the Patient to Perfect Health and Strength.

Mrs. Mary Gagner, of No. 678 South Summer street, Holyoke, Mass., had passed through an experience which proves that some of the greatest reachings of life may lie within a few reachings of death.

"I was so weak at times," she says, "that I could hardly stand, and my head was so dizzy that it seemed as if the room was moving around me."

"My condition at last became so bad that I was obliged to give up work in the mill, and later still I became so feeble that I could not even attend to my household duties. After the slightest exertion I had to lie down and rest until I regained strength."

"A friend who had used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People urged me to try them. I bought a box and began to take them. The benefit was so noticeable and so quickly evident that I had taken only a few days' worth when I was entirely cured. For two years I was entirely cured, and for two years I was in the best of health and able to do all my duties. I am glad to say that I have never since had any of the symptoms which I suffered from."

"The secret of the power of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in cases of this kind, such as Mrs. Gagner's, lies in the fact that they make new blood, and every organ in the body is supplied with the body fluids the stir of a new tide of strength."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or will be sent by post, on receipt of price, 60 cents per box, or boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

NO FEAR OF HARD TIMES

FRISCO HAS CAPITAL IN SIGHT FOR ALL NEEDS.
Work of Clearing Up Burned Section Progressing—New Yorkers Ready to Advance Money.

San Francisco.—An investigation made Wednesday demonstrated that the fear that San Francisco will suffer a period of hard times as an aftermath of the disastrous fire is unfounded. Careful estimate made by authorities competent to speak, show that within the next year there will be over $200,000,000 available for the rehabilitation of San Francisco.

The following figures made clear where this sum is to originate: Investment of new Geary street municipal road, $340,000; Home Telephone company expenditures, $1,000,000; Insurance losses now due and payable (approximately), $175,000,000; United railroads new constructions, $9,000,000; city bonds of 1904, sum still available, $17,000,000; Ocean Shore railway, approximated expenditures here, $1,000,000; restoration of Pacific States Telephone company, $1,000,000; restoration of government buildings, $70,000; building of sea wall, $2,000,000. Total, $207,100,000.

It is expected that a large part of this money will come from eastern and foreign capitalists. In figuring the two hundred and odd million which will be available, the investigators did not take into consideration the sums that may be raised for the beautification and improvement of the city.

Signs of renewal of industrial activity were apparent in many parts of the burned districts, and the work of clearing away debris preparatory to rebuilding was in progress in a score of places. It was said that plans for over 30 large buildings have been drawn, and will be submitted to the authorities after the new building laws are promulgated.

San Francisco.—The first definite proposition for furnishing money on a large scale to San Francisco for the purpose of rebuilding some of the burned sections was made public Tuesday, when it was announced that a syndicate of New York capitalists had agreed to advance $100,000,000. The news came in a telegram received by W. F. Herrin, chief counsel of the Southern Pacific, from United States Senator Newlands, of Nevada, who had a large interest in the burned Palace hotel. Senator Newlands stated that he had submitted the plan to New York financiers and that they had virtually consented to supply the money on a bond and mortgage basis. The names of the New York people are not given. The offer is under discussion by the local finance committee.

CONSTABLES FIRE ON MOB
Foreign Mineworkers Attack State Police with Stones and Receive Shower of Bullets.

Mount Carmel, Pa.—The first serious collision in the anthracite coal regions since mining was suspended on April 1, occurred here Monday between a mob of idle mine workers and a platoon of the new state constabulary force, and resulted in the injuring of probably 20 men, three of them will likely die.

The disturbance was caused by an attack on a detail of the state police by several hundred foreigners, who threw stones at the policemen and otherwise endangered their lives to such an extent that they were forced to fire on the crowd.

While it is believed that a score of persons were injured during the day only ten are accounted for. Three, it is thought, will die.

NO FEAR OF HARD TIMES

FRISCO HAS CAPITAL IN SIGHT FOR ALL NEEDS.
Work of Clearing Up Burned Section Progressing—New Yorkers Ready to Advance Money.

San Francisco.—An investigation made Wednesday demonstrated that the fear that San Francisco will suffer a period of hard times as an aftermath of the disastrous fire is unfounded. Careful estimate made by authorities competent to speak, show that within the next year there will be over $200,000,000 available for the rehabilitation of San Francisco.

The following figures made clear where this sum is to originate: Investment of new Geary street municipal road, $340,000; Home Telephone company expenditures, $1,000,000; Insurance losses now due and payable (approximately), $175,000,000; United railroads new constructions, $9,000,000; city bonds of 1904, sum still available, $17,000,000; Ocean Shore railway, approximated expenditures here, $1,000,000; restoration of Pacific States Telephone company, $1,000,000; restoration of government buildings, $70,000; building of sea wall, $2,000,000. Total, $207,100,000.

It is expected that a large part of this money will come from eastern and foreign capitalists. In figuring the two hundred and odd million which will be available, the investigators did not take into consideration the sums that may be raised for the beautification and improvement of the city.

Signs of renewal of industrial activity were apparent in many parts of the burned districts, and the work of clearing away debris preparatory to rebuilding was in progress in a score of places. It was said that plans for over 30 large buildings have been drawn, and will be submitted to the authorities after the new building laws are promulgated.

San Francisco.—The first definite proposition for furnishing money on a large scale to San Francisco for the purpose of rebuilding some of the burned sections was made public Tuesday, when it was announced that a syndicate of New York capitalists had agreed to advance $100,000,000. The news came in a telegram received by W. F. Herrin, chief counsel of the Southern Pacific, from United States Senator Newlands, of Nevada, who had a large interest in the burned Palace hotel. Senator Newlands stated that he had submitted the plan to New York financiers and that they had virtually consented to supply the money on a bond and mortgage basis. The names of the New York people are not given. The offer is under discussion by the local finance committee.

CONSTABLES FIRE ON MOB
Foreign Mineworkers Attack State Police with Stones and Receive Shower of Bullets.

Mount Carmel, Pa.—The first serious collision in the anthracite coal regions since mining was suspended on April 1, occurred here Monday between a mob of idle mine workers and a platoon of the new state constabulary force, and resulted in the injuring of probably 20 men, three of them will likely die.

The disturbance was caused by an attack on a detail of the state police by several hundred foreigners, who threw stones at the policemen and otherwise endangered their lives to such an extent that they were forced to fire on the crowd.

While it is believed that a score of persons were injured during the day only ten are accounted for. Three, it is thought, will die.

Set Date for Vote.
Washington.—The senate will begin voting on the amendments to the railroad rate bill on Friday, May 4.

An amendment to that effect was reached Monday, but it proved impossible to so extend the understanding as to provide to have it include the fixing of a date for taking a final vote on the bill as a whole. Senator Tillman first proposed a final vote on May 9, but Senator Morgan objected.

Rockefeller's Aid Is Dead.
Cleveland, O.—Henry C. Rouse, chairman of the board of directors of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railway company and president of a number of other western railways, died here Monday of pneumonia. Mr. Rouse represented Mr. Rockefeller on the boards of a number of railway companies. At the time of his death he was a director in at least 25 transportation companies.

Hope for San Francisco.

REVOLT FAILS TO DEVELOP

PARIS STREETS SCENES OF TURBULENCE ON MAY DAY.
Anarchists and Revolutionists Take Advantage of Labor Agitation to Create Disorder in Capital.

Paris.—The long-dreaded May day failed to bring the revolution which inflammatory journals predicted, but it brought scenes of extreme violence. The labor districts, which thousands of troops confronted with difficulty and even central portions of Paris have taken on the appearance of a siege, with regiments of infantry and cavalry camped about the Arc de Triomphe, the bourse, the Bank of France and the great railway station, while military sentries paced before banks and private establishments.

The main thoroughfares in the residential portion of Paris remain tranquil. In the West end, far removed from riotous scenes, people were disposed to treat the events in the labor quarters as harmless effervescence. It was, however, much more than that. Throughout the afternoon dragoons, republican guards and cuirassiers charged disorderly masses, sweeping the Place de la Republique and the broad Boulevard de Magenta. Toward nightfall cavalry charged with drawn swords and many persons were wounded on both sides. The manifestly overturned omnibuses and threw up hasty barricades. Over 1,000 arrests were made during the day.

At no time did the demonstration reach the magnitude of a revolt, but was rather a leaderless tumult, in which the serious labor element, struggling for a principle, was helplessly confused with violent agitators, anarchists, revolutionists, roughs and a large number of the curious. The workers never succeeded in forming a procession or even in assembling more than scattered bands. Their chief action was a reunion of several thousands in the labor exchange, at which a resolution was adopted not to return to work until the eight-hour day shall have been accorded.

TWO BANKS HAVE TROUBLE

National and State Institutions, Controlled by Pittsburg Man, Are Closed.

Pittsburg, Pa.—National Bank Examiner John B. Cunningham Wednesday closed the Delmont National bank at Delmont, Pa., of which James McQuade, of this city, is president, and almost at the same time the attorney general's department at Harrisburg made application to the Dauphin county court for a receiver for the Monongahela Valley bank of Duquesne, which is alleged to be insolvent. Mr. McQuade is vice president of the Monongahela bank and also has been conducting a chain of amusement enterprises about the country, which consists mainly of merry-go-rounds.

Fire Nearly Ruins Town.

Harrisville, W. Va.—Fire early Sunday morning threatened to wipe out the entire town, but was subdued after causing a loss of about $25,000. The blaze started in the National hotel, destroyed that building, heeled up the First National bank building and then burned the post office with all its contents. Every available man in the town was called upon to fight the flames. The only fire fighting apparatus to be obtained was two hand fire engines with which, supplemented by a bucket brigade the fire was controlled.

Soldiers Remain in Paris.

Paris.—The main force of the labor movement as it affects the city and the country appears to have spent itself on Tuesday, although detached movements continue to agitate various trades, requiring constant surveillance by the police and the continued presence in Paris of a considerable force of troops. However, the authorities, while prepared to meet any further widespread demonstration, no longer treat the movement as a serious menace to the community.

NAMES SUCCESSOR TO WITTE

Former Minister of the Interior Is Selected to Fill Position of Premier.

St. Petersburg.—The official announcement that Premier Witte's resignation had been accepted, coupled with the statement that former Minister of the Interior Goremykin would succeed him, was made Wednesday.

COUNT WITTE.

(Emperor Nicholas of Russia Has Accepted His Resignation as Premier.)
In view of the publications of the last few days, the former statement did not come as a surprise, but M. Goremykin's elevation to the premiership created amazement. He is not only regarded as a reactionary, but the general opinion is that he is not equal to the task of facing the coming crisis.

OPERATORS OUTLINE VIEWS

Issue Statement Regarding Causes with Led to Calling of Miners' Convention.

New York.—Anticipating the convention of miners at Scranton, Pa., the anthracite coal operators issued a statement outlining their view of the negotiations in the anthracite field up to date. The object of the statement, according to its introductory paragraph, is "to prevent misunderstanding of the situation which has led to the convention of miners at Scranton."

It declares that in the summer of 1906 the leaders of the United Mine Workers found their organization rapidly dwindling; that having obtained a large wage increase as a result of the arbitration award of the commission appointed by President Roosevelt in 1902, the men apparently saw no reason to continue to pay union dues.

It adds that on June 1 last the total union membership was 38,816 out of some 179,000 employees. President Mitchell's tour of the districts, which, the statement says, resulted in increasing the union membership to 80,487, is reviewed and portions of some of the miners' leader's addresses are quoted. The operators accept the commission's decision as having permanent effect, except insofar as subsequent events have possibly modified actual conditions. These possibilities the operators agree to submit to the same impartial tribunal.

An amateur poet, a keen observer of human nature, in his last editorial effort informs the world that "Time marches on with the slow, measured tread of a man working by the day."

Clary Bell, president of the Medical Society, of New York, has received a commission from the state department announcing his appointment as delegate from the United States to the International Medical congress, which meets in Lisbon on April 19 to 25. Professor A. E. Macdonald has been appointed to represent the New York University medical faculty at the conference.

A rural paper in Indiana contained this droll piece of dramatic criticism: "Mr. Scandoso and his company played 'Hamlet' in the town last night. It was a great social event, and all the elite of our fair village attended. There has been a long discussion as to whether Bacon or Shakespears wrote the play, commonly attributed to Shakespears. It can be easily settled now. Let the graves of the two writers be opened. The one who turned over last night is the author."

Railroad building is so active in Canada that the local steel mills are unable to supply the demand for rails, and large orders are accordingly being turned to the United States. But the present Canadian duty on steel rails is high enough to make importations expensive, and so the Grand Trunk Pacific company has petitioned the government to remit the duty on the ground that it was imposed purely as a protective measure and the local mills cannot meet the demand.

A waiter in a Seattle restaurant, Martin Keller, by keeping his ears open, received a tip on which he made a big sum. He heard some guests at his table discussing the chances of making a fortune in Tacoma tide lands. Having saved up two thousand dollars, Keller boarded the next train and secured an option on a block of tide lands, and in a few days afterward received an offer from the Union Pacific of eighty thousand dollars for the block of lands on which he held the option at twenty thousand dollars. He cleared up sixty thousand dollars on his investment.
