Kiplings New Storie's

THE DELINEATOR

for September contains what is really the literary feature of the month in the magazine world—the first of a series of short stories by Rudyard Kipling. The story is entitled "Cold Iron" and introduces Puck of Pook's Hill, who will be welcomed by all lovers of fiction. This tale reveals the author at his best; its magic will enthral the reader and give him much to ponder on. It is a long time since Mr. Kipling has contributed to any periodical, and the fact that he has written these stories for The Delineator speaks volumes for the foremost of the women's magazines.

DR. WASHINGTON'S ANNUAL ADDRESS

Speaks Before National Negro Business League at Louisville, Ky., August 18, at 8 o'clock, p. m.

Officers and Members of the National Negro Business League:

In coming together again for another annual meeting of the National Negro Business League, we have some reasons to congratulate ourselves upon the success of this organization. When we had our first meeting a few years ago there was comparatively little interest among our people in business, commercial and industrial enterprises. This organization has grown during these years to the point where hundreds of our best men and women now come together representing all parts of the country, for these annual meetings. We have at least 500 local Negro business leagues scattered throughout the country.

When we began work there were a few drugstores owned and controlled by black people. Now we have nearly 200. A few years ago there were only about a half dozen Negro banks in the country; now there are 47. Drygoods stores, grocery stores and industrial enterprises to the number of over 10,000 have sprung up in all parts of the country.

A little more than forty years ago, when the Negro was made free, he had almost no acres of land. Now he has an acreage nearly as large as New England. Then he had almost no homes; now he has 400,000 homes. Then he had few farms; now he has 200,000 farms. Then he had no insurance companies; now he has 85. Then he had no undertakers; now he has several thousands. When the American Negro was made free about 3 per cent. could read and write; now 67 per cent. can both read and write. Then he had few churches; now he has 26,000 churches. Our work is not yet done. The years that are to come are to bring us, in my opinion, even a larger degree of success and encouragement.

The greater part of this progress has taken place in our Southern States, right in the midst of the people who once owned our bodies. Here, let me add, this growth could not have taken place unless we had in each one of these Southern communities not a few white men who have believed in us and stood by us and stimulated and encouraged us. The Negro who lives in the South, as well as the one who lives in the North, should learn to love his home and the community in which he lives, and take as much interest in promoting its welfare as any other citizen. A few days ago, in conversation with a gentleman who has traveled widely in Africa and in other parts of the world, including the United States, he remarked to me that the Negro in America was at least one hundred years ahead of the Negro anywhere else in the world. We ourselves, as well as our neighbors, do not always appreciate the growth that is going on among us day by day, so gradual is it. Races, too often, like individuals, yield to the temptation of noting their troubles and disadvantages and overlooking their successes and their opportunities.

In an increasing degree we must be an optimistic race. There is no hope for a despairing individual or a despairing race.

Since our last annual meeting I have traveled through the States of Mississippi, South Carolina and portions of Virginia and West Virginia for the purpose of seeing for myself the actual condition of our race. Everywhere I noted progress—marvelous progress in many cases. Much of this progress is due to the stimulus and guidance furnished by the National Negro Business League. This organization has succeeded and will succeed because it has a constructive program and not a destructive one. A constructive program is the only one that will hold men together and make work for the common cause. In the Southern States which I visited I found a cohesiveness and oneness of purpose which was most inspiring.

Cholera Infantum Cured.

Something like two years ago my baby, which was then about a year old, was taken seriously ill with cholera infantum, vomiting and purging profusely, writes J. P. Dempsey of Dempsey, Ala. I did what I could to relieve her but did her no good, and being very much alarmed about her went for a physician but failed to find one, so came back by Elder Bros. & Carter's store and Mr. Elder recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I procured a bottle of it, went home as quickly as possible and gave the baby a dose of the remedy. It relieved her in fifteen minutes and soon cured her entirely." For sale by all druggists.

A PROPOSAL.

Mr. Hardup—Good morning, Miss Aughtum—ahem! There is something I have been wishing to ask you for some time, but—er—the fact is, I haven't been able to screw up enough courage to—er—come to the point.

IN AGONY WITH ECZEMA.

Whole Body a Mass of Raw, Bleeding, Torturing Humor—Hoped Death Would End Fearful Suffering.

In Despair, Cured by Cuticura.

"Words cannot describe the terrible eczema I suffered with. It broke out on my head and kept spreading until it covered my whole body. I was almost a solid mass of sores from head to foot. I looked more like a piece of raw beef than a human being.

"In this condition my mother-in-law begged me to try the Cuticura Remedies. I said I would, but had no hope of recovery. But oh, what blessed relief I experienced after applying Cuticura Ointment. It cooled the bleeding and itching flesh and brought me the first real sleep I had had in weeks.

"The charges of wilful murder and conspiracy to conceal it, made by the complainant, Mrs. Sutton, mother of Lieut. Sutton, are purely imaginary and unsupported by even a shadow of evidence, truth or reason.

"The court recommends, however, that in view of the youth and decided inexperience of Lieut. Utley, Willing and Boyan at the time, and of the altogether unusual conditions of excitement, threats and danger during the aforementioned fray, that no further proceedings be taken.

"The report is signed by J. Hood, commander United States navy, president of the board, and Henry Leonard, major, United States marine corps, somewhat impatient to reach the point of his wife's return.

"I am a great believer in realism," remarked the poet.

"Yes," we queried with a rising inflection, thereby giving him the desired opening.

"I sometimes carry my ideas of realism to a ridiculous extreme," continued the poet.

"Indeed!" we exclaimed inanity, somewhat impatient to reach the point of his wife's return.

"Yes," continued the poet, "the other day I wrote a sonnet to the gas company and purposely made the meter defective."

"At this point we faintly."

"Delightfully so."

"I never liked Shakespeare until I saw you play Hamlet."

"And you like it now?"

"You bet I do."

"And why do you like Shakespeare after seeing me in Hamlet?"

"Shakespeare is so different!"

"EITHER COMMITTED SUICIDE OR ACCIDENTALLY TOOK OWN LIFE" IS VERDICT.

HIS RIVALS ARE EXONERATED

Inquiry Court Decides That Lieutenant Was to Blame for Own Death—Mother Will Ask Congress to Start New Probe.

Washington.—That Lieut. James Sutton of the United States marine corps killed himself accidentally or with suicidal intent is the finding of the court of inquiry which has been approved by Acting Secretary Winthrop of the navy and so far as the department is concerned the case is closed.

Counsel for the Suttons intimated, however, after the court's decision had become definitely known, that they were far from satisfied with the verdict, and that they probably would take the issues involved to congress with a view of having a full hearing of the case by a committee of that body.

In part the court says: "Lieut. Sutton is directly and solely responsible for his own death, which was self-inflicted, either intentionally or in an effort to shoot one of the persons restraining him, and his death was not caused by any other injury whatever."

The court also finds: That Lieut. Utley failed in his duty as senior officer present, under article 266, United States navy regulations, 1909, in permitting Lieut. Sutton to run away and arm himself instead of calling on those present for assistance and following Lieut. Sutton, preventing his arming himself, by force if necessary, and turning him over to the custody of the officer of the day.

That Lieut. Boyan, officer of the guard, failed in his duty as officer of the guard in not disarming Lieut. Sutton by force, while in front of his (Sutton's) tent.

That Lieut. Willing, the officer of the day, failed in his duty as officer of the day in not immediately assisting by force in helping to disarm Lieut. Sutton when he arrived on the scene before the fatal shot was fired.

That the charges of wilful murder and conspiracy to conceal it, made by the complainant, Mrs. Sutton, mother of Lieut. Sutton, are purely imaginary and unsupported by even a shadow of evidence, truth or reason.

The court recommends, however, that in view of the youth and decided inexperience of Lieut. Utley, Willing and Boyan at the time, and of the altogether unusual conditions of excitement, threats and danger during the aforementioned fray, that no further proceedings be taken.

The report is signed by J. Hood, commander United States navy, president of the board, and Henry Leonard, major, United States marine corps, somewhat impatient to reach the point of his wife's return.

DISCOURAGED WOMEN.

A Word of Hope for Despairing Ones.

Kidney trouble makes weak, weary, worn women. Backache, hip pains, dizziness, headaches, nervousness, languor, urinary troubles make women suffer untold misery. Ailing kidneys are the cause. Cure them.

Mrs. S. D. Ellison, N. Broadway, Lamar, Mo., says: "Kidney trouble wore me down till I had to take to bed. I had terrible pains in my body and limbs and the urine was annoying and full of sediment. I got worse and doctors failed to help. I was discouraged. Doan's Kidney Pills brought quick relief and a final cure and now I am in the best of health."

Remember the name—Doan's. Sold by all dealers. 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Life's Unequal Combat. You, a river, are contending with the ocean.—Latin.

Teach the little ones their A B C's and to look for the spear on WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT.

Resiliency of Language. "I say, we are down on our luck!" "Yes, we are certainly up against it!"

Ask Your Druggist for Allen's Foot-Ease. "I tried ALLEN'S FOOT-EASE recently, and have just bought another supply. It has cured my corns, and the hot, burning and itching sensation in my feet which was almost unbearable, and I would not be without it now.—Mrs. W. J. Walker, Camden, N. J." Sold by all Druggists, 25c.

Getting at the Root. Fair Patient—Oh, doctor, I'm positively all run down and I'm so miserable. I have that tired feeling all the time.

Physician—No doubt. Let me see your tongue.—Cleveland Leader.

His Colors. "What are your son's college colors?" "Well," answered Farmer Cortes, "Josh has figured so strong in hazing and football, I should say they must be black and blue."

Prepared for the Worst. "How long had your wife's first husband been dead when you married her?" "About eight months."

"Only eight months? Don't you think she was in a good deal of a hurry?" "Oh, I don't know. We had been engaged for nearly two years."

Tuberculosis Spread by Whites. According to a report of the United States census it is stated that the mortality of the Indians from tuberculosis is undoubtedly far higher than that of either the whites or the negroes, although it is believed by careful investigators that the disease was entirely absent before the advent of the white race in America.

Could She? "When women get to voting," said the man, "they will have a great many more calls than they now have to put their hands in their pockets and give money to further important causes."

The woman looked thoughtful. "I'm always willing, of course," she said, "to give money for a good cause, but as for putting my hand in my pocket—"

They Were Good Mothers. Elizabeth Cady Stanton is quoted as saying that a woman's first duty is to develop all her powers and possibilities, that she may better guide and serve the next generation. Mrs. Stanton raised seven uncommonly healthy and handsome children, says an admirer of hers, and the children of Mrs. Julia Ward Howe testify to the virtues of the noted woman as a mother. The eagle may be as good a mother as the hen or the goose.

Severs. Samuel Gompers was talking in the smokeroom of the Baltic about a recent newspaper attack on a rich corporation.

"It was a cruel attack," Mr. Gompers chuckled. "It was as cruel as the Jonesville Clarion's paragraph about old Deacon Hiram Ludlow."

"This paragraph headed the Clarion's obituary column. It said: 'Deacon Hiram Ludlow of Frisbie township, aged 82, passed peacefully away on Thursday last from single blessedness to matrimonial bliss after a short but severe attack by Maria Higgins, a blooming widow of 37 summers.'—Detroit Journal.

BAD DREAMS Caused by Coffee. "I have been a coffee drinker, more or less, ever since I can remember, until a few months ago I became more and more nervous and irritable, and finally I could not sleep at night for I was horribly disturbed by dreams of all sorts and a species of distressing nightmare."

"Finally, after hearing the experience of numbers of friends who had quit coffee and were drinking Postum, and learning of the great benefits they had derived, I concluded coffee must be the cause of my trouble, so I got some Postum and had it made strictly according to directions."

"I was astonished at the flavor and taste. It entirely took the place of coffee, and to my very great satisfaction, I began to sleep peacefully and sweetly. My nerves improved, and I wish I could wear every man, woman and child from the unwholesome drug—ordinary coffee."

"People really do not appreciate or realize what a powerful drug it is and what terrible effect it has on the human system. If they did, hardly a pound of it would be sold. I would never think of going back to coffee again. I would almost as soon think of putting my hand in a fire after I had once been burned."

"A young lady friend of ours had stomach trouble for a long time, and could not get well as long as she used coffee. She finally quit coffee and began the use of Postum and is now perfectly well. Yours for health."

Commercial Congress Delegates Shout Approval of Policies—Would Save the Forests.

Denver, Col., Aug. 19.—Great cheers greeted Gifford Pinchot, chief forester of the United States department of agriculture, as he began and ended his speech before the Trans-Mississippi congress, by Thomas F. Walsh, the multimillionaire of Colorado, with whom he exchanged compliments.

The so-called "enemies of Pinchotism" said they were satisfied with the conservation ideas of the speaker and joined in the cheering as lustily as did the adherents of the chief forester.

Mr. Walsh, in presenting Mr. Pinchot, referred to the latter as a patriotic young American, who, rich in his own right, is devoting himself to the service of his country and whose mistakes, if there are any, are those of the head and not of the heart.

In return, Mr. Pinchot spoke of the mine magnate as a "soldier of the common good" and wished for more of his kind. And in this mood the congress listened with evident satisfaction.

Based on the "Roosevelt policies," Mr. Pinchot's address dwelt on conservation as a practical business policy. He said that the loss or injury of one great staple will not only injure that particular business, but will strike at the heart of many allied interests. He paid his compliments to Roosevelt.
