

AN IDEAL OUTING.

The ideal outing is one which not only affords recreation, but also has educational value such as will prove an inspiration to greater achievement. It has long been recognized that an expedition or fair combines the possibilities of recreation and education in an unusual degree. It is the recognition of this condition that has made the Iowa State Fair such a success. The Fair this year is to be held at Des Moines Aug. 26 to Sept. 4, and the educational features will stand out most prominently. There will be numerous lecture courses. There will be informative lectures with reference to Iowa crops, soils and agricultural problems as well as other exhibits. There will be experts on hand to explain exhibits, and the man, woman or child who comes to the Iowa State Fair with a thirst for knowledge and a real ambition to take advantage of the wonderful resources and opportunities in Iowa will indeed find the Iowa State Fair in all of its appointments and conveniences an ideal place to study Iowa.

SUCCESSFUL IOWA BAND.

Two high class Iowa bands which will play at the Iowa State Fair, Aug. 26 to Sept. 4, are Landers' Fifty-fifth Iowa Infantry Band of Clarinda and T. Fred Henry's Band of Des Moines. Mr. Landers has been known in Iowa as a successful band leader for many years and won a great name for himself at the time of the Spanish-American war and immediately thereafter.

T. FRED HENRY, LEADER OF HENRY'S BAND.

with his famous Fifty-sixth Regiment Band. Mr. Landers in making his contract insisted on a clause which would permit him to cancel the engagement in case he and his band were needed in the war with Mexico. Henry's Band is one of the most popular bands of Iowa and filled a most successful engagement at the Iowa State Fair last season.

CHAMPION POLAND CHINA BOAR AT THE IOWA STATE FAIR, AUG. 23 TO SEPT. 4.

FOR IOWA'S WOMEN AND CHILDREN.

One of the centers of attraction at the Iowa State Fair this year, to be held at Des Moines Aug. 26 to Sept. 4, will undoubtedly be the new building known as the Women and Children's building. It will be given over to those interests which particularly concern women and children and the home. It will also be a delightful place in which to rest and to leave the children, as there are rest rooms, a day nursery with trained nurses in charge, amusements for the children and every comfort. This will be the place where the babies' health contest will be held. There is a general auditorium in the building, which seats about 700 people, affording a delightful place for meetings. The building faces the west, having a frontage of 244 feet and a depth of 144 feet. The art exhibit will be there, as will also the model school exhibit, including the manual training and domestic science display.

DRAFT HORSE FUTURITIES EXCITING.

One of the most exciting days at the five stock pavilion during the Iowa State Fair last year was the one given over to the judging of draft horse futurities. A magnificent bunch of youngsters were in the ring. There was big money to be won, the stakes amounting to $4,000. There were honor and recognition for the winner. When the ribbons were finally placed there was a great demonstration of enthusiasm. The Percheron filly Coucourou, which carried off the honors in the Percheron division, was sold after the contest for $2,000. At this year's Fair, to be held Aug. 26 to Sept. 4 at Des Moines, there promises to be still greater interest in the futurity. A total of $4,000 is again being offered in premiums.

The Twenty Year Test.

"Some twenty years ago I used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," writes Geo. W. Brock, publisher of the Enterprise, Aberdeen, Md. "I discovered that it is a quick and safe cure for diarrhoea. Since then no one can sell me anything said to be 'just as good.' During all these years I have used it, and it has never disappointed anyone." For sale by all dealers.

HEALTH HINTS.

A. J. Booker, M. D.
"I am resolved that no man shall drag me down by making me to hate him." If Booker Washington could inculcate this utterance into a million souls he would have justified his existence. So little do we realize the importance of our dealing with people.

It is, in the last analysis, people, and the way they affect us that shall determine our condition on the last day—whatever that may mean to you. It is useless to talk of loving the heathen in Africa or China or God in heaven and hating so many people on earth. The human soul is part of God and God is Love. Hate is the opposite of love; consequently the more of hatred you have the less your capacity for love. The advent of hate into the soul is an injury that leaves a hideous scar and it continues to contract and disfigure. It is you, not the other fellow, who's hurt in your soul-destroying thoughts; for it is not possible to hate and think we would not kill—fear of punishment prevents many homicides. Every evil thought is a crime against yourself. You do no harm to the other fellow. He goes along in blissful ignorance of your soul-destroying tactics and you drag yourself down, into a pitiable, lamentable condition, and not only devitalize your physical forces, but tie your soul to hell by invisible, but by no means indubitable, bonds.

Hatred is death and love is life. It is love that makes the flowers that causes the sun to shine and the birds to sing. For it is the love of rain and dew that brings nourishment; it is the attraction and harmony of the planets that makes the sun hold to its course; it is the admiration of all these that causes the birds to swell their throats in song. Love attracts and hate repels. It is scientifically proven that hatred and the consequence, anger, fill the system with poison and cause not only indigestion and insomnia, and even paralysis, but other bad symptoms. Life is too short, the world is too full of beautiful and helpful things to allow anyone or anything to sully your soul by harmful tactics. It is to you that all the blessings will flow if you are in league with this mighty force; and no less important from you will go if your heart is not filled with love. There are blessings that money cannot buy; there is a success above dollars; there is happiness that comes and settles on the soul when the soul is at peace and in harmony with the Author of life, which is Love. "I am resolved that no man shall drag me down by making me to hate him."
