SUCCESSFUL SESSION.

Odd Fellows in Annual Communication.

The G. U. O. of O. F. held their thirty-fifth annual session in our city beginning Tuesday, August 28th to Thursday, August 30th. It was marked with harmony and enthusiasm and created much interest at the different meetings.

Tuesday, August 28.

The first day's session was held at the hall of the Knights of Tabor, Eighth and Mulberry streets, with the D. G. M., Mansfield Askew, presiding, and by whom the lodge was opened in regular form. The nine lodges of this jurisdiction were represented. Opening the organization and appointing committees consumed the morning.

The afternoon session was taken up in receiving and adopting part of the different committee reports.

The evening was turned over to a public reception, which was held at

A. G. RHODES.

Mr. A. G. Rhodes of Buxton was re-elected grand director of the Odd Fellows. He has held the office of deputy district G. M., also grand treasurer.

Union Congregational church. Welcome address on behalf of the city was delivered by Mayor Thomas Fairweather, acting, and a literary program was given, after which refreshments were served.

Wednesday, August 29.

The morning session was taken up in reports from the various local lodges as to their financial conditions and work during the year, also their secret work was entered into.

Afternoon session was opened and the minutes of the previous session read. They adjourned to meet at 2 o'clock in joint session with the district Household of Ruth at North Star Masonic temple hall, Eleventh and Center streets, at which time the district most noble governor, Mrs. Carrie Law, of this city, delivered her annual address. The district grand master, Mansfield Askew, of Sioux City, delivered his annual address.

In the evening joint memorial services were held at the A. M. E. church. Each lodge having a deceased member eulogized their fraternal dead.

Thursday, August 30.

Thursday morning session was taken up in receiving the final reports of the various committees, and also election of officers.

In the afternoon installation of officers was held. They adjourned earlier in order to visit the reserve officers' training camp at Fort Des Moines.

Thursday night a ball was given at the Crocker skating rink, which was largely attended.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: M. Askew, D. G. M.; W. H. Hammitt, D. D. G. W.; S. A. Spencer, D. G. secretary; W. D. Miller, D. G. treasurer; A. G. Rhodes, D. G. director; J. W. Holmes, D. G. organizer. Hon. Geo. H. Woodson, D. G.

A MESSAGE.

The question is before me today, Why is it the world hates holiness. It is because they are without understanding of the holy scriptures.

11 Timothy, 3d chapter, 15th verse: And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

You talk about how they crucified hands, pierced his side, and to think they gave him vinegar to drink. He gave up the ghost. In his dying hour he said, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me. All this is true. Then we say nobody lives holy down here, and if we hear of a holiness man or woman, Ah! deliver me from a saint the worse word is too good. To those who hate saints, haven't time to believe their messages, this is to all whom ignore holiness.

Act 7-15: Ye stiff-necked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost. As your fathers did, so do ye.

We say Christ was baptized by John. So he was, and in St. John, 10-14, I am the good shepherd and know my sheep, and am known of mine. And when the Jews were accusing Jesus of blasphemy in this same chapter, what did he say in the 36th verse: Say ye of him, whom the Father hath sanctified, and sent into the world, thou blasphemest because I said I am the son of God. Then if God sanctified a man or woman and sent them into the world with a message, we say because they are sanctified they are a liar, nothing to them.

The scripture says in I John 4:20, If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar, for he that loveth not his brother, whom he hath seen, how can he love God, whom he hath not seen.

So it is beloved he that say I hate saints and holiness and don't believe his brother or sister is sanctified and holy, and say I believe Jesus lived holy, was holy, is full of hypocrisy and the truth isn't in him, because if we believe Christ was sanctified holy and God sent him, also will we believe God is just the same today and sanctifies.

In James 5:14-15 says: Is any sick among you? Let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord. And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up, and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him. "Then when a saint follow these, what do we say? They are crazy. God don't do those things nowadays. Nobody holy. And when the patient recovers we say they were going to get well anyway. There are two verses in 1 Peter, 2d chapter, for examples 21-22: For even hereunto were ye called, because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps.

Who did no sin. Neither was quite found in his mouth.

Christ pleased God; the world hated him because he was sanctified holy. "Praise His name."

One thing sure, we must obey God in order to inherit eternal life and in order to see God. Read Heb. 12:14. Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord. When condemning holiness we lack understanding.

Pro. 4-7: Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom, and with all thy getting get understanding.

A SAINT'S CRUCIFIXION.

It was one Saturday even When I met two thieves. They were climbing up to God, By their own ends and odds, And as the two approached One bowed her deceitful head. While the other opened her lips and said,

MANSFIELD ASKEW.

Mr. M. Askew of Sioux City is so well known to the Iowa secret societies that we need hardly to mention his name. He was re-elected district grand master of Iowa Odd Fellows, No. 30. Mr. Askew has held nearly every office in his local lodge. He is also R. W. G. S. warden of Iowa Grand Masonic lodge and is a successful business man. He owns valuable property and is a coming young man in our state.

"How are you, 'Sister Lowe," And stood beside her beau, To await to witness a lie.

Yes, they call me a liar, But we are always among briars, And the one who gets stuck Is the one who gets struck, Wear a scar for Jesus, For it is the sweetest. Be called a liar for Christ, Jesus paid the price, If you are called in adversity, Be sure you have the necessities.

You need the spirit, power and blood, For though God's way be rugged, Hard, self-denial it's a sure way. No devil or thief can gainsay, They can yell, "You're a liar, I don't believe it." But after all it pays To watch the briars. Somebody my body, in the grave, In the grave must lay.

For Jesus is surely coming my way, A scar I will wear on my eye, A sad tear within my face, But my heart will be clear, My joy will begin, The race will be won, The victory begun, Old Satan will shake his head, Then shall he know his works are dead, And I shall be with the redeemed.

A scar in my bosom, For a God like this, When friends depart,

He holds your heart, He makes us as happy as a lark, He sends his angels to bring The very echoes of his choir, And always comes in the darkest hours; Never from this way depart. Keep pure, righteousness, holiness in your hearts.

You need not talk about what you can do, For a devil will say it's no use, For he'll say the world isn't looking For no reading, writing or books About Christ.

But look the old devil in the eye, And boldly say, "You're the liar." He'll begin to roar, and get by On some deceitful lust, But always be ready to shake the dust.

And let old Satan have the fuss, For God is able our tongues to hush. One thing we can always remember, A Christian's peace needs no mending, And the devil's confusion has no ending.

For when we think it's at rest, We always hear the devil's best, He always leaves that for bate, It's sorrow to all who have ate, For weeping and wailing is at the gate.

IOWA BOYS AT FORT DES MOINES

The following is a very interesting group of candidates at the reserve officers' training camp at Ft. Des Moines from the great state of Iowa. We feel sure that it is the wish of every citizen in the state that these young men may each receive a commission next month that will be an honor to them and a credit to their race.

ter Hutchinson, northern agent for Tuskegee institute, Des Moines; H. S. Wilson of Des Moines; A. Richmond, Des Moines; J. O. Redmon of Colfax; Mr. Campbell of Iowa City. Lower row, beginning at left: C. N. Howard, Des Moines; Jesse A. Graves, Des Moines; Dr. A. J. Booker, recently commissioned first lieutenant of the medical corps, Des Moines; Atty. S. Joe Brown, Des Moines. Harry Short, Iowa City; V. L. Jones, undertaker, Des Moines; E. H. Colbert. Iowa City.

The above cuts are those of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Lowe of Pacific Grove, Cal., who have their family here, located on Lyon street. Sergeant Lowe was born in Kentucky and has been in regular service since 1898. His wife was born in Denver, Colo., educated in the rural schools of Texas. Later she attended school at San Antonio, Tex., under Prof. S. J. Sutton. They have four children, Elise, Ilo-Ilo, Victoria and Hewaithio.

How Training Camp for Colored men happened to be established

The officers' training camp at Fort Des Moines, Iowa, marks a great epoch in the history of the Negro race. It is a recognition that the black race has never before received from any country in modern times. The training and commissioning of approximately one thousand Negro officers to lead thirty thousand Negro troops in the titanic war for democracy marks a new era in the history of the Negro race throughout the world.

To all those who were instrumental in having the camp established all credit and honor is due. They deserve the undying thanks of the entire colored race. To one man is undoubtedly due the credit of having originated the idea of having colored officers lead their own troops in this great war. Before the United States had declared war he foresaw the present situation and started the agitation for the training of colored officers. This pioneer was Dr. Joel E. Springarn, president of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and one of the truest and noblest friends the colored race has in this country. At a great sacrifice of his own time and money he began the campaign that later was to triumph. When it was thought that the men would have to purchase their own uniforms he offered to equip 100 Howard students at his own expense. Due almost to his efforts a list of about 500 qualified volunteers for such a camp was secured. At this time Dr. Springarn had very few supporters, for it soon became necessary for him to request a separate camp, since admittance to the white camp was clearly impracticable and many short-sighted men opposed the movement for that reason. Professor George W. Cook of Howard university and Dean William Pickens of Morgan college were among the few who upheld Dr. Springarn's early efforts. It was definitely decided to ask for a separate camp, when Secretary of War Baker informed a committee composed of Dr. Springarn, Professors Cook, Miller and Gregory of Howard university, Attorney Cobb and others that the government could not admit colored men in the white camps.

It was then that Dr. Springarn was unfortunately summoned to Madison barracks, New York, for service as military instructor. He was compelled to give up all active efforts in behalf of the camp. Fortunately it was immediately taken up by two groups of workers, and it was they who together continued the fight until it was successful. These groups were the Howard university joint committee of teachers and students, which later developed into the central committee of Negro college men, and the committee of 100 citizens of Washington, D. C. The students of Howard university wrote the name of their institution down in history by the demonstration they have given to the world of the young Negro's capacity for organization and united effort. It was they who completed Dr. Springarn's list of 500 men willing to enter the camp up to 1,600. It was they who raised $150 to finance the campaign. It was they who sent representatives to all the leading Negro schools and colleges and brought about the magnificent cooperation of Negro school men throughout the country. Finally it was they who planned and executed one of the most efficient lobbies seen at the capitol. President Stephen N. Newman of the university gave every assistance and encouragement to the campaign and himself was one of its foremost workers. Deans Kelly Miller, George W. Cook, Lewis B. Moore, Charles Syphax, Professors E. L. Parks and W. V. Tunnell all gave valiant assistance. The central committee of Negro college men opened regular headquarters at Howard university and labored day and night in the cause. This committee had as its chairman Prof. Montgomery Gregory and as secretary Mr. E. B. Curley. Their chief co-workers were Messrs. C. H. Houston, J. H. Waring, J. Bryce, H. Moore, N. O. Goodloe, J. Heslip, T. S. Walters, O. Brown, C. S. Thompson, Treadwell M. Curtis, L. Kozier, T. B. Dyett, Barnes, W. M. Pollard and others. Capt. Austin, former commandant at Tuskegee, brought to Washington the list of names prepared by Dr. Springarn and assisted in directing the forces at work.

Working parallel as in unison with the Howard forces was Rev. Dr. J. Milton Waldron's committee of one hundred, to which a large share of the credit for the successful termination of the fight is due. Side by side with Chairman Waldron was Dr. Geo. W. Cabaniss, whose untiring zeal and self-sacrificing efforts were ever at the fore front of the battle. Wherever and whenever the camp is mentioned Dr. Cabaniss' name will always be sounded in a grateful and appreciative remembrance. That his heart was wholly in the cause has been wonderfully demonstrated by his presence voluntarily in the camp at the sacrifice of his lucrative medical practice, that he might do all in his power to make the camp successful in every way. Col. Ballou has said that his services are invaluable, as that the camp could not permit him to leave until the course of training is over. He is indeed the pater familias of Fort Des Moines.

These combined forces besieged congress, the war college and the war department from sunrise until sundown. Often the prospects seemed discouraging, but these men toiled on. Two final conferences practically settled the matter and insured the camp. One was with the personal secretary of the secretary of the secretary of war and its membership consisted of representatives from the two committees. A few moments later a committee consisting of Dr. Milton Waldron, Dr. Geo. W. Cabaniss, Dr. C. H. Marshall, Professor Montgomery Gregory and others was granted an interview at the white house. No more was needed. The following day the war department announced officially the establishment of a training camp for colored officers at Fort Des Moines, Iowa.

Mention should also be made of a committee of ladies of Washington, headed by Mrs. Arthur M. Curtis and Mrs. George W. Cook, which stormed the capitol and war department with telling results. It should also be stated that many other men and women did their part in the campaign, but only the organized movements can be taken into consideration. Let it be understood that this stupendous achievement was accomplished by organized effort—yes, by the new spirit of an awakened race.

RECEPTION TO GRAND MASTER BUTTER.

On last Friday, John L. Thompson, P. G. M. of Iowa, and president of the International Conference of Grand Masters, P. G. M. and G. secretary, received a message from Dr. H. R. Butler, G. M. of Georgia, of Atlanta, Ga., that he would be in Des Moines on Sunday with his son, Henry. I immediately notified all the Iowa grand officers that I would give a reception Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the North Star Masonic hall. A large crowd gathered there. The distinguished visitors and out of the city guests were: P. G. M. Austin A. Bland of Keokuk, R. W. Grand Senior Warden M. Askew of Sioux City, P. G. M. J. H. Shepard, P. G. M. S. Joe Brown of this city, Mr. I. P. Johnson of Muscatine, Richard Johnson of Gravity, Dr. U. G. Mason of Montgomery, Ala., Mr. Gould of Prine Hall grand lodge of Massachusetts with Dr. Butler. At a later hour ladies came, as follows, Mrs. French Bland, M. W. G. matron Electra grand chapter, Mrs. L. R. Palmer Berry, P. G. M. and present grand lecturer of

New Jersey and secretary of the international royal grand chapter, and Mrs. Smith, P. G. lecturer of Illinois, were all present and made splendid talks. Dr. Butler of Georgia and Dr. Mason of Alabama made very interesting and impressive talks. They were met at the depot by P. G. M. S. Joe Brown and John L. Thompson and escorted to the Thompson home and later to the hall. They left Sunday night for home, having been made to rejoice at the splendid reception tendered them. They will long be remembered by those who met them. Refreshments were served by J. B. Mitchell, Wm. Tomlin, Wm. Jones, N. Hyde, Wm. Walker and Jess Braden.

DISTINGUISHED VISITOR HERE.

Prof. Kelly Miller of Washington, D. C., dean of the College of Arts and Sciences of Howard university, will arrive in our city Saturday and will address the officers' training camp at the Y. M. C. A. on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock and at Union Congregational church on Sunday evening at 7:30, and 8:30 at the Corinthian Baptist church at Fifteenth and Linden streets.

Prof. Miller is one of the ripest scholars of our race, an orator and writer of the first class. Indeed he lectured all over the United States and has written many books on the great race question and is considered authority of race adjustments. Every one should hear him Sunday. All of his meetings are free.

DOUGLASS MEETING

At Ft. Des Moines Huge Success—Fisk Jubilee Singers Charm Audience—General Ballou Present and Endorsed Work of Colored Women.

On last Friday evening in the Army Y. M. C. A. at Ft. Des Moines the candidates in the officers' training camp and a large number of civilians listened to one of the most interesting programs ever put on in this section. After invocation by the Rev. M. M. Jefferson of Georgia, a vocal solo by Miss Beatrice Lee of Kansas City and a number of selections from the famous Fisk Jubilee Singers, who fairly charmed the vast audience. Mrs. S. Joe Brown, chairman of the Douglass Memorial Board of the National Association of Colored Women, who had planned the meeting and was in charge, told of the activities and accomplishments of the association and of their plan for redeeming and preserving as a national memorial the homestead of the late Frederick Douglass. At this time Mr. Montgomery Gregory, a professor of Howard university of Washington, D. C., who had a personal acquaintance with Mr. Douglass, and familiar with the condition of the homestead, told in an interesting way of the accomplishments of this first race leader and complimented the women of the association for their timely efforts in preserving this homestead. After pleasing and complimentary remarks by Mr. J. A. Meyers, manager of the Fisk jubilee quartet, and Mr. R. B. De Frantz, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., who had made it possible for this meeting, General Ballou, who is in charge of the Ft. Des Moines training camp, and who had previously extended the time in order that this meeting might have the desired effect, was present and was given a great ovation when introduced. For the first time General Ballou faced an audience of this kind and among other things lauded the colored women for their efforts in restoring the homestead of Frederick Douglass, and after granting Mrs. Brown permission to lift a collection, made the first contribution. Consul H. R. Wright, who had visited the homestead, was then introduced, and after words of praise followed the contribution and in five minutes' time $126.75 had been placed on the table by the cadets.

TRAINING CAMP LAWYERS ENTERTAINED.

On last Saturday evening the Iowa Negro Bar association entertained the Seventeenth Training Camp Lawyers association with a sumptuous banquet in the parlors of Union Congregational church at West Tenth and Park streets in this city. About thirty-five Negro lawyers, with the ladies, representing different states from Connecticut to California and from Minnesota to Florida, all of whom are members of the Seventeenth provisional training regiment at Fort Des Moines, were present and had as their special guests of honor Atty. E. W. Rich of Baltimore, Rev. Dr. H. H. Proctor of Atlanta and Dr. Gresham H. Hill of this city, at whose home Dr. Proctor was being entertained while in the city. As Atty. S. Joe Brown was president of both the Iowa bar and the Seventeenth Training Camp Lawyers' association, Atty. Geo. H. Woodson, the founder and first president of the Iowa Bar association, presided at the banquet and all present participated in the program, which continued until an early hour, when they dispersed, declaring the Iowa Negro bar the most royal entertainers they had met.

As a part of the program the Iowa Negro Bar association held their annual election, resulting in the election of Atty. Geo. H. Woodson, president; Atty. J. B. Rush, vice president; Atty. J. B. Morris, secretary; Atty. John L. Thompson, treasurer; Atty. H. R. Wright, S. Joe Brown and Jas. A. Spears, executive committee.

They have been having a delightful time.

NOTICE.
On account of the many inquiries which are made from time to time as to who can become members of the "Home Maker's League" and how much does it cost to be a member, the president will herein quote that part of the constitution that deals with the membership and paying of dues: Any person desiring to be useful in the uplift of humanity may become a member of the "Home Maker's League."
Each member shall make a free will offering to the league once per month, either great or small, the amount being left to the individual.
Any one desiring to become a member and does not find it convenient to attend the meetings may give their name to the president by phone, Drake 4076-W, or see our secretary at the union depot.
Mrs. J. L. Edwards, President.

A WORD FROM THE SUPREME LODGE SESSION,
By Sir H. Gould, grand chancellor of the Iowa Jurisdiction.

When you come to consider the fact that the majority of all the leading conventions of both clubs and lodges have been called off on account of war times and the high cost of living, yet the supreme lodge of the Knights of Pythias, the biggest convention of Negroes that ever came together at one time, met in its 19th biennial session in St. Louis, Mo., August 19 to 25, inclusive. We arrived in St. Louis on Sunday morning, August 19th, on time, that we might be present at the beginning, and we stayed until the end, which was Saturday evening, August 25th, at 7:30 p. m. And it was an inspiration which I can never forget. We were there on strictly official business and we wish to inform all who have been watching for the outcome of the trouble which has been hanging between the Iowa jurisdiction and North Star lodge, No. 3, K. of P., which was most harmoniously settled between us and the supreme lodge, and North Star was ordered reinstated and all its property and other valuables returned back to them.

GRAND MASTER IS GIVEN HONORS.

Presented With a Pin.

Union lodge, No. 1. A. F. & A. M., Keokuk, at its regular session planned a surprise for W. W. Cross, recently elected grand master of the colored Masonic lodges of the state. The event was one which will be remembered by all of the Masons who were present, and proved a most enjoyable occasion for the lodge men and their honor guest.

Alonzo Draine spoke on the topic, "The Man of the Hour." He gave a short sketch of the achievements of the past grand masters, and spoke of the honor which has come to Mr. Cross, and outlined in a general way the duties of the grand master and of the Masonic lodges under his jurisdiction.

Austin Bland, the oldest colored Mason in the state, and the oldest living past grand master, greeted the new grand master. He spoke of the honor which was Keokuk's in having the oldest and the youngest grand master.

F. S. Johnson then presented to Mr. Cross a handsome grand masters pin. Following the presentation and talks the members enjoyed a smoker, and lunch was served.

Summer Complaint.

During the hot weather of the summer months some member of almost every family is likely to be troubled with an unnatural looseness of the bowels, and it is of the greatest importance that this be treated promptly, which can only be done when the medicine is kept at hand. Mrs. F. F. Scott, Scottsville, N. Y., states, "I first used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy."

Chicago minister who formerly was pastor of a Swedish church in East Des Moines, like many others, had to call on Lew Arntz, doctor of optics, before he could be heard. This is fully evidenced by the minister's letter which should serve to convince others who are similarly afflicted that help can be had by calling on the right kind of a doctor of optics.

It gives me a great deal of pleasure to write you in regard to the glasses fitted for me over a year ago. I have been for a number of years at constant study and any one who has had anything to do with books knows that it is a great strain on the eyes. A few years ago I began to feel an occasional returning headache and I was often hindered in my work. An examination revealed that my eyes were overworked. Then I decided to have glasses made and fitted for me. A certain firm endeavored to fit me with the glasses. After I have changed the lenses several times I left the city and the glasses they gave me no satisfaction.

Ask Anyone Who Has Used It.
There are families who always aim to keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house for use in case it is needed, and find that it is not only a good investment, but saves them no end of suffering. As to its reliability, ask any one who has used it.

All Buxton Greets Carrizal Heroes.
First Sergeant Harry Houston, Supply Sergeant H. D. Queen and former Secretary F. H. Townsend addressed a patriotic throng at the Y. M. C. A. auditorium.
Important United States history was recited and local history was made at Buxton on Sunday afternoon, August 19, 1917, when veterans and heroes of two wars marched upon the platform and were greeted with an enthusiastic applause of welcome from one of the largest gatherings ever assembled in the Y. M. C. A. here. Every seat was taken and people filled the aisles and hallway and stood on the outside to catch the eloquent patriotic words from the speakers and the strains of martial music from the Buxton Peerless band.
There were sons and daughters of veterans in the audience and Buxton patriotism was again shown to be of the highest and best.
George H. Woodson arrived for the trip and a patriotic committee to carry out the plans was formed, composed of the ministers of the churches, the secretary of the Y. M. C. A. and the

Tonoline Is Beauty Aid, Announces Specialist

Mildred Louise Talk of Interest To Women.
As health is a first aid to beauty this story, told by Mildred Louise, beauty specialist, of Boston, Mass., is of unusual interest:
"I can recommend no better health giver than tonoline," said Mildred Louise.
"I was for many months a victim of stomach trouble and nervousness. I had suffered terribly from pains that followed eating. Headaches also would add to my worries. Poor digestion finally brought on nervousness."
"Relief came, however, when I took the advice of several women, who said, 'Take tonoline.'"
"Not long after I started the tonoline treatment, my patrons began to remind me of the improvement in my condition. And because health is the quickest way to beauty, the improvement was particularly noticeable in my face."
"What tonoline really did for me I cannot say. I am so grateful that I am very willing to recommend tonoline publicly.
Tonoline is a purely vegetable preparation which goes to the seat of common maladies--stomach and kidney trouble, catarrh of the mucous membranes, liver ailments and impurities of the blood--and quickly restores normal action. Tonoline is being explained daily to many people at our druggists."
Notice--As tonoline is a wonderful flesh builder it should not be taken by any one not wishing to increase his weight ten pounds or more. Although many reports are received from those who have been benefited by tonoline in severe cases of stomach trouble and nervous depression, chronic constipation, etc.
