Booker T. Washington Memorial

Tuskegee, Ala., Nov. 16.—Thursday, November 14, marked the Third Anniversary of the death of Booker T. Washington, founder and first principal of Tuskegee Institute. At the regular Chapel exercises held at the Institute last Sunday night, Dr. Robert E. Moton, present Principal of the Institute, delivered a brief, but touching address on the life of Dr. Washington. He said among other things:

"Booker Washington was a man with faith in his own race, in the white race; in the North, in the South; in himself and in his God. Is there anything better worth doing, young people, than to give your lives to service? There is nothing more worth while than to give yourselves to the service of your fellowmen. It does not make any difference who. Crowns and thrones may perish and will. They are perishing. Selfishness will perish. Only virtue and honesty and unselfishness will live forever. Love that suffereth, is kind, is not puffed up, vaunteth not itself. Love will never fail, and love permeated Booker Washington; comforted, directed and guided him in all of the great work God permitted him to do for you and for me."

Dr. Moton concluded his remarks with a strong appeal in behalf of the War Work Campaign which was launched at the Institute as follows:

"What a wonderful privilege, what a wonderful opportunity you and I have! Nobody has a greater chance to serve where service is most needed than is true of the students and workers of Tuskegee Institute. What a wonderful chance you and I have during this war, during this DRIVE, this War Work Drive to help the boys over yonder; all those who may go and those who remain for a while. What a wonderful chance for service we have, and you ought to thank God every night of our lives and every morning for your mothers and fathers, your country, for Booker Washington and Tuskegee Institute."

COUNCIL BLUFFS NEWS

(Special to Bystander.)

There will be a Thanksgiving dinner at the Bethel A. M. E. church, given by the stewards and the trustees, and also a musical program at night furnished by the talent of the church.

Rev. Rhonenee and his little son Charles made a business trip to Glenwood, Iowa, Friday and returned home Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Madison, the beloved mother of Mrs. A. Gamble, passed away Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The funeral was held Friday at 2:30 p. m., conducted by Rev. Rhonenee.

Mr. Chaunce Herndon is improving from his illness.

Mrs. A. C. Stewart has been down with the flu. She is up again, but not able to get out yet.

Miss Ethel Richardson is at 308 14th Ave. Her friends are very glad to welcome her home again.

Mrs. Ida Myers has returned from Kansas, where she has been visiting sick relatives.

We have in our city Miss Hazel Funches of Glenwood, Iowa, who will enter the business college in our city.

Rev. J. P. Jackson, pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist church, is having an all the week rally, which will close next Sunday night, and there will be a union service by all the people Thanksgiving morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. Jackson is asking everybody to help them in getting in their new church. They are expecting the churches from Omaha to be with them next Sunday, the 24th.

Miss Hazel Funches was refused at the Puryear School of Business of Council Bluffs, Iowa. F. J. Puryear and J. H. Richart, who operate the school, show an example of the true (?) democracy that exists in the hearts of some individuals in Council Bluffs as shown in the case of Hazel Funches, a colored girl who resides in Glenwood, Iowa.

After having completed a four year course in the Glenwood schools, and wishing to take a business course in some such school, she wrote to the Puryear School of Business asking them if they enrolled colored students in their school. Later she received a letter from them saying that the fact that a student was colored made no difference to them.

Coming to Council Bluffs in October, Hazel proceeded to make arrangements with them for the purpose of becoming a student in their school. They assured her it would be perfectly all right for her to become a student at any time.

A few days ago she received a letter from them saying it would be impossible for them at the present to receive her as a student, but hoped to be able to enroll later. Coming to Council Bluffs to determine just what they meant by "later," she was told by them they would be unable to enroll her at any time. After explaining this to Hazel they heaped insult upon injury by asking her to shake hands, which Hazel refused to do.

Is this the reward the colored people are to accept for the great part they have played in this recent war?

She has taken out a scholarship at the Boyles College, a school that believes in giving anyone a chance. Rev. M. B. Rhonenee and other citizens of Council Bluffs called the city officials in question about it.

UNITED WAR WORK

In the United War Work Campaign which is just closing, our women have rendered valuable assistance. Mrs. S. Joe Brown serving as one of the campaign speakers in various cities throughout the state and Mrs. J. B. Rush here in the city. Mrs. Brown was also one of the Precinct Lieutenants and with the assistance of Miss Lulu Jackson, who raised $5.50, and Mesdames Susie Hart, who raised $13.50; Mrs. Anna Harris, $31.50; Mrs. Jonnie Shaw, $34.70, and Mrs. Dannie Hult, $40.50, was pledged by members of our race for this worthy cause, of which $25.00 was pledged by one lady, Mrs. John Mayweather.

The Charles Young Auxiliary of the American Red Cross comprises nearly one hundred fifty men and women of Des Moines who are eager and anxious to do their bit for the men in uniform at home and abroad.

The above picture shows a group of the women at work in their shop in the Army Y. M. C. A. at 10th and Park Sts., where they have turned out more than a thousand garments, including two hundred refugee garments for the destitute men, women and children of Belgium, one hundred fifty cretonne hospital bags for soldiers in France, five hundred "anti-flu" gauze masks and a number of sweaters and helmets for the soldiers at Camp Dodge.

In addition to the above work a number of these women have given assistance in various ways to soldiers and their families while sojourning in Des Moines; and in order to keep the members of the organization informed with reference to similar work that is being done throughout the various states of the Union such persons as Mrs. Mary E. Tolbert of Buffalo, N. Y.; Miss Halle Q. Brown of Wilberforce, Ohio; Miss Elizabeth C. Carter of New Bedford, Mass., and Dr. R. R. Moton of Tuskegee, Ala., the only member of our race to preside over a Red Cross Chapter, and Judge Hubert Utterback, chairman of the Des Moines Chapter, have appeared before them.

The ladies are also deeply grateful to the following male members who have rendered valuable assistance as follows: W. H. McCree and Sec. Edw. Ross of the Army "Y," who presented $1.50 proceeds of the selected men's banquet on July 11th; Rev. Dr. Geo. W. Robinson, of the Corinthian church, who presented $5.00 from the Dr. Moton lecture; Rev. H. E. King of the Union church, who presented $9.00 from the Emancipation meeting of Sept. 22nd;

Rev. Dr. J. Francis Robinson of the National Committee on Public Information, who presented $13.35 from his meeting at the Auditorium, and to Atty. John L. Thompson and S. Joe Brown, who presented $25.00 from the silver offering taken at the public reception given at St. Paul's church in honor of Col. Franklin A. Dennison on Sept. 26th.

The officers of the Auxiliary are Mrs. S. Joe Brown, Chairman; Mrs. C. W. Smith, Vice Chairman; Mrs. Thos. Harris, Secretary; Mrs. Dora McGuire, Treasurer; Mesdames W. H. Lowry and J. A. Wilson, Instructors, with Mrs. H. W. Hughes and Celesta Jones in charge of Knitting Department, and Miss Azak P. Hyde in charge of Juvenile Department.

PORO COLLEGE BUILDING. St. Louis, Mo.

This $250,000 structure is 142 ft. by 137 ft., three stories, mezzanine floor, basement and roof garden, fireproof and steam heated throughout. 95 dormitories and office rooms, ladies' parlors, emergency hospital rooms, latest model ice and refrigerating plant with circulating ice water, local and long distance phones in each room, every room an outside room due to two spacious courts, steam laundry, electric passenger and freight elevators, auditorium, pneumatic carriers.

31 private rooms for shampooing, hairdressing and massaging, manicuring and chopdopy.

Opening week Nov. 24-Dec. 1, 1918.

Each evening's program will feature some of the best orators and artists of the race.

The Bystander most heartily congratulates the Poro College company for their wonderful business success and growth. It is undoubtedly the largest and most complete manufacturing structure ever erected by the colored people, a credit to the race, this nation and the city of St. Louis, Mo. Again we congratulate you.

OUR NEW HOSTESS HOUSE. On Saturday, November 23, the Hostess House for visitors to colored troops at Camp Dodge will be formally opened to the public. The house, situated at First street and Main avenue, has been in use since September, but the formal opening has been delayed by the quarantine.

At two o'clock on Saturday a few guests will assemble for the formal program. This will include the dedicatory prayer; brief talks by Brigadier General Simmons, representing the military authorities; Mrs. H. H. Coggeshall, representing the Hostess House Committee, and Miss Josephine Pinyon, representing the War Work Council Staff from the New York headquarters of the Y. W. C. A.

Immediately after these brief formalities all friends and relatives of the soldiers and all interested in the work, will be given an opportunity to go through the house. Attic, staff rooms, living rooms, cafeteria, rest rooms, kitchen and basement may be inspected and will be of interest as indicating the thoroughness and completeness of detail that marks the plans of the Y. W.

C. A. War Work Council, regardless of what group it is working for.

During the afternoon refreshments will be served and music supplied by the Y. M. C. A. and K. of C.

The house at Camp Dodge is the seventh hostess house to be opened for the use of visitors to colored troops. The other six already in use are at Camps Funston, Sherman, Upton, Dix, Gordon and Jackson. Houses nearly completed are at Camps Grant, Taylor, Meade, Lee, Alexander, Humphries, Pike, Greene and Travis. These are expected to open before January 1. There are workers already stationed at some of these camps, bravely enduring the discomforts of temporary quarters for the sake of the women to whom they can minister in many ways even before the permanent houses are finished.

All of these houses are staffed by race women, carefully selected and trained—for the responsibilities of camp work for women are not light and much depends upon the initiative and judgment, the dignity and wholesome Christianity of the "hostesses." At Camp Dodge, Miss Virginia Robinson is executive hostess; Mrs. Mary Dixon, cafeteria hostess; Mrs. W. J. Yerby, information hostess, and Mrs. W. H. Brooks, assistant hostess. The "titles" of the hostesses indicate (though in small measure) the function of the hostess houses. They are built and furnished by the War Work Council of the Y. W. C. A. to be the place in camp where women relatives and friends of soldiers may meet their men folks under proper conditions. The wide porches and ample living rooms afford plenty of space for the family groups, and the tete-a-tetes of the soldier boy and his sweetheart. In the cafeteria they may be served a substantial meal or the "extras" that supplement the soldier's mess. In the rest room the weary women who come long distances to see their boys may find a comfortable couch; and the mother who has brought her baby may find a crib in which the youngster may nap while the information hostess at the desk outside is getting a message to "Daddy" that he is wanted at the hostess house. In case of illness or some other grave emergency a woman may remain over night in the hostess house, but unless some such serious emergency arises all visitors are required to be out of the house by five o'clock.

While its first duty is to the women visitors, the hostess house is also privileged to supply the home touch to camp life. The soldiers are always welcome, even when accompanied by relatives and friends. The comfortable chairs and settees, the writing tables, the books, the piano are all at their disposal. The draperies, floor lamps and potted plants emphasize the hominess of the place and the hostesses are always ready with the word of cheer, or advice, or just plain friendship that the soldier boy may need.

Many and various are the requests that come to the hostesses, some that tax their ingenuity, but so far as we can hear, no legitimate request has gone unfulfilled. It may be a wedding to arrange (including the finding of a preacher), or a transferred man to trace; a letter to write or one to read, a partner at checkers wanted; a boy to be taught to read or write; a baby to be cared for; the mother of a sick boy to be comforted; transportation to be secured for a woman returning to her distant home; a feast to be arranged; mending or slopping to be done, etc., etc. The hostess is always ready to smilingly help in any way she can.

Military etiquette is waived in the hostess house so that officers and enlisted men alike may feel that it is THE one place in camp where their women folks may go without any question.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS.

On account of Thursday being Thanksgiving, we ask that all correspondents get their respective items in not later than Tuesday to insure their being in that week. We shall accept no correspondence after Tuesday noon this week.

HUNTSVILLE, MO.

(Special to Bystander.)

Mr. Editor: We feel lonesome not ever to read a word in your wonderfully liberal pages of Huntsville, who is perfectly elated over the late news of the close of a long bloody war. We can only hope at this time that it is true; if so we will tell you later.

We have been having a siege of flu in our city, but don't seem to reach our people directly. But when the peace angel flew over they all began to fly and forgot the flu sick.

Our public assemblies are still opposed, however. We are anxious to have the ban lifted of the churches as we believe prayer is the key to peace and health.

Rev. G. D. Saunders is very busy remodeling his church as he is now leading the Baptist family here to more enlightened things; the right man in the right place, not afraid of himself or people.

Mrs. Saunders has been on the sick list, but is now convalescing.

Mrs. Clarence Teeters is yet indisposed.

Prof. J. H. Viley is very sick at this time.

Mrs. Talbert Rount is still very ill at her home in South Huntsville. Her husband is over seas.

Prof. S. T. Pettigrew is away this week in the interest of his work assigned him by the government. He will attend the State Association of Baptists at Fulton, Mo., this week.

We ask the reporter of Krokuk, Iowa, if she will please put the address of Mrs. Emily Spice in her next news, for the benefit of Mrs. Ike Robinson of Huntsville, Mo.?

We are glad to say Mrs. S. T. Pettigrew is home from a few months' visit to the Twin Cities, Minn., and entertained a few of her lady friends Thursday by serving a three course luncheon, with the dainties of the season. Among them were Mrs. Ellen Hicks, former matron of the W. B. F. and S. M. I. Home of Hannibal, Mo., Mrs. Ike Robinson, Mrs. Ida Payne and others. Mrs. Pettigrew is an amiable woman. We miss her out of our society these seven summers of her illness.

Mrs. Emma Lee and friends are planning a trip to Des Moines, Iowa, Thanksgiving. We wish for them a good time.

CLARINDA, IOWA.

On account of the epidemic of influenza the funeral of Mrs. Laura Jones was very private. Very appropriate services were held at the city cemetery, conducted by Rev. R. B. Manley, pastor of the A. M. E. church. Mrs. Jones will be greatly missed. Not only will she be missed in her society, home and various church activities, but those of the city, community which she lived, and everyone that ever came in contact with her will notice the absence of first, her sweet smile, secondly, her pleasant conversations, and third, the presence of that true type of a Christian. Truthfully we can say that Mrs. Laura Jones lived and died the death of the righteous. The floral offerings in behalf of the Daughters of Eastern Star, and friends were most beautiful. A few friends and relatives attended the funeral. The out of town relatives were her mother, Mrs. Sarrah Stewart of Blair, Neb.; sisters, Miss Mamie Stewart, St. Paul, Minn., Mrs. Jno. Howe, Bedford, Mrs. Tillie Lee, Des Moines, Mrs. Mary Knight and Mrs. Marjorie Dickerson of Sioux City; Mr. Geo. Jones, Oskaloosa, also Mr. and Mrs. Alfonso Stewart, Omaha. Mr. Jones and little daughter Alice have the sympathy of their many friends.

Mrs. Fields expects to move to Sioux City in the near future.

The Spanish flu lid was lifted Saturday noon, Nov. 9.

The Baptist Sunday school was held in the home of the superintendent, Mr. K. D. Black.

Rev. R. B. Manley filled his pulpit last Sabbath evening.

Regular services were conducted at the A. M. E. church Sunday.

Mr. Samuel Stewart is able to be out again.

In the cafeteria they may be served a substantial meal or the "extras" that supplement the soldier's mess. In the rest room the weary women who come long distances to see their boys may find a comfortable couch; and the mother who has brought her baby may find a crib in which the youngster may nap while the information hostess at the desk outside is getting a message to "Daddy" that he is wanted at the hostess house. In case of illness or some other grave emergency a woman may remain over night in the hostess house, but unless some such serious emergency arises all visitors are required to be out of the house by five o'clock.

While its first duty is to the women visitors, the hostess house is also privileged to supply the home touch to camp life. The soldiers are always welcome, even when accompanied by relatives and friends. The comfortable chairs and settees, the writing tables, the books, the piano are all at their disposal. The draperies, floor lamps and potted plants emphasize the hominess of the place and the hostesses are always ready with the word of cheer, or advice, or just plain friendship that the soldier boy may need.

in use since September, but the formal opening has been delayed by the quarantine.

At two o'clock on Saturday a few guests will assemble for the formal program. This will include the dedicatory prayer; brief talks by Brigadier General Simmons, representing the military authorities; Mrs. H. H. Coggeshall, representing the Hostess House Committee, and Miss Josephine Pinyon, representing the War Work Council Staff from the New York headquarters of the Y. W. C. A.

Immediately after these brief formalities all friends and relatives of the soldiers and all interested in the work, will be given an opportunity to go through the house. Attic, staff rooms, living rooms, cafeteria, rest rooms, kitchen and basement may be inspected and will be of interest as indicating the thoroughness and completeness of detail that marks the plans of the Y. W.

SECRETARY BAKER TALKS TO COLORED SOLDIERS IN FRANCE
 Declares America Proud of Her Brave Colored Troopers and That They Hold Nation's History in Their Hands—War Chief Warmly Greeted and Gains Much First-Hand Information.

Some Human Interest Stories of Negro Battlefronts on the Firing Line.

Somewher in France.—With a gasoline can as a rostrum, Secretary of War Baker, in the course of his inspection tour over here, addressed an audience of more than 2,000 colored stevedore troops during their lunch hour. The speech, as well as the entire stage setting, was highly informal. Part of the Secretary's audience lay sprawled upon the roof of a half-finished warehouse overlooking the focal gasoline can, and nearly all of them went on munching the contents of their mess kits, as it was intended they should do. The Secretary told the men how proud the people—all the people, home were of them, and especially how proud their own race was of them. He told them a couple of short, comical stories that quickly surrounded him with an amphitheater of white teeth all set in a broad smile. When he wound up by telling them that when he got back to America he was going to tell their people how well they had been doing, and the big shove they were giving to the army supplies which made it possible for the men at the front to win battles, he got such a "hand" as only strong and honestly-calloused palms can give a speaker. Both before and after his talk to them, Secretary Baker mingled among the men, asking them questions right and left, and thus getting much first-hand information from these colored stevedores.

Perhaps the most impressive feature of the Secretary's trip among the colored men over here was at Blois. Here there is a battalion of Class B and C men, all of whom had been wounded in action, and many of whom proudly wore the Croix de Guerre or the D. S. C. They were lined up for inspection, together with their splendid band, also composed of B and C men. The Secretary would not consent to their being introduced to him, but, as he put it: "It is an honor to be introduced to you." From the middle of the boxing ring and bandstand combined, which is the pride of the Bois camp, Mr. Baker told them how much their efforts had been appreciated by the nation; how greatly the nation was indebted to them, and how they—all of them—would be marked men in their communities throughout their entire lives for the service they had rendered their country in time of urgent need. "In after years," he said, "men will come home to their families and tell with pride, and with a glow upon their faces, how they had met and fought with valiant fighting colored men at Belleau Wood, at Chateau Thierry, at Soissons, on the Vesle and at Champagne." Concluding, Secretary Baker said to these colored troopers: "The history of America is in your hands, for you have enlarged it and helped to make it what it is today—a thing to fill every American with pride."

FEATS OF FEARLESS COLORED TROOPERS ON THE FIRING LINE

Somewhere in France.—A successful raid, planned by one of the majors of the old 8th Illinois regiment, whose home is at Metropolis, Ill., was made in the Vouchan sector, and with great daring. The motor battery of the regiment first took part in laying down a barrage fire. The barrage fire began at 4 o'clock in the morning—just as the first rays of the sun shone sluggishly, and but dimly, behind the horizon. At the hour named, every gunner was at his gun. The major flashed an electric signal, and within a minute or two thereafter every gun fired simultaneously, as if connected with and controlled by an electric battery. For fifteen minutes the colored gunners kept up their barrage fire, and then a French company was sent out behind the barrage to make the raid. So surprising was the raid, and so quickly made, that but three of the colored soldiers were wounded, and they but slightly, and but eight of the French, with whom they were fighting, while the German's casualty toll was eleven killed, three wounded, while the remainder were captured.

Stories of the fight in the Argonne Forest, and the splendid endurance and valiant fighting of the colored soldiers continue to come in. It is reported that a company of the old Ninth Ohio Battalion, under command of its colored captain from Dayton, Ohio, laid in an open field all night, awaiting orders to go into action, while all the time the Germans were dumping 210 shells and machine gun fire into them. But even in the face of such a murderous fire, the colored line stood as firm as if the huge shells and murderous machine gun fire was but the discharge of toy blow guns. Among their casualty was Anderson Lee and William Chenault, of Dayton, who were killed. The firmness of the line these khaki garbed black soldiers maintained in the face of a withering fire—a veritable hell, constitutes one more reason why the folks, the race, back home should be proud of these, their colored soldiers over here, whose unyielding spirit and bravery is making history for the race.

I have learned that Hill 304, which the French so valiantly held, and which suffered such a fierce bombardment from the Germans that there is not a single foot of it but what is plowed up by shells, and whose sides, even today, are literally covered with the corpses of French soldiers who still lie where they fell, was later as valiantly held by the colored soldiers from the United States, who fought with all the heroism and endurance the best traditions of the army has chronicled. The colored soldiers, under their own captain from Dayton, Ohio, who so splendidly maintained their line in the Argonne Forests, and those who held that bloody and forever historical Hill 304, had the odds against them, but like Tennyson's immortalized "Six Hundred," they fought bravely and well, firm in the belief "it was not their's to reason why. It was their's to do and die," and, like the patriots they were, they did DO, an dthis war's history will so record.

UNCLE SAM'S MAIL POUCH

FROM A SOLDIER IN FRANCE TO HIS SISTER.
 Oct. 12, 1918.

Mrs. Ora Weldon,
 128 W. Washington St.
 Dear Sister: While thinking of you and have just eaten dinner, I take great pleasure in writing you a few lines to let you know how I am. This leaves me feeling fine and have just had a good cigar and that is just the thing for me just after eating. I got wounded on September 27 about 4:30 in the afternoon. I am in the American hospital. My wound is not a bad one, but it lays me up, but is could have been worse. I have had another operation since you heard from me. It will be quite a while before I will be able to be up and around again. Tell mamma not to worry as I am doing fine. Give my best regards to papa, Earnest, Ora, Gordon and all. Has Earnest gone out to camp yet? Or Ora? I have never heard from Glorine but once, and that was the one that was sent from Camp Upton. Well, sister, I have crossed that place you have heard so much about, No Man's Land. I crossed it three times and never got into any trouble at all, but it was in a different drive where I got wounded. I guess you heard about the big drive anyway I was in. It was sure some experience. If you ever heard music, we had it. Tell mamma that she can send me the fountain pen for Christmas. And I forgot to say that I received your letters. I got two August 17 and two from mamma the 20th. Excuse poor writing and poor paper as this is all I have at present. Well sister I will close for this time. From your brother,
 Private Earl E. Humphrey,

Mrs. Mattie Brooks.
 Dear Mother Brooks: No doubt you will be surprised at receiving this letter, but I hope you will not be offended. I am proud that I can say that this letter leaves me well, and enjoying myself as well as could be expected on the field somewhere in France. I find many interesting things over here. I always think of the good Mother Brooks and the many good deeds that she did to bring about contentment and pleasure among our boys, and make them feel at home. They will never forget Mother Brooks. The boys are always speaking of Mother Brooks.

Now hoping when this reaches you it will find you as well and pleasant as ever and an answer at your earliest convenience.
 With best regards to all the friends of Des Moines, I remain
 Yours truly,
 Anderson Trupp.

CLINTON, IOWA.

Carl Culberson was confined to his home on account of illness last week.
 Rev. Bates, pastor of the Second Baptist church, visited recently at Quincy, Illinois.

The quaranting which existed in Clinton for a month on account of the flu contagion, was lifted last Thursday. Conditions are again normal. All churches resumed services on Sunday. Notwithstanding the very inclement day good congregations were in attendance generally.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Aikens were the victims of the flu, but are both doing nicely. The cases among our people are limited to this household, from all reports.
 Hostilities with the Germans have ceased and parents and friends are longing for an early return of our boys.

A beautiful service flag bearing eleven stars is now displayed in Bethel A. M. E. church in honor of members whose sons are in the service.
 The barking of a dog owned by Mr. J. T. Bass is responsible for the saving of lives of tenants in the buildings 410, 412 and 414 North Second street Sunday morning at 4 o'clock by fire. The first floor of the latter number was occupied by a grocery store and living rooms above. The other building was occupied by Mr. J. T. Bass as a barber shop and lunch room. He also resided in the rear. Living rooms were also on the second floor of this building. The loss to the flats are practically total. Mr. Bass fortunately estimates his loss at only $25.00, mostly caused by water and things incidental to the fire. The losses otherwise are quite heavy. The fire is supposed to be of incendiary origin, a bundle of oil soaked clothes being found partially consumed by a shed where the fire started, and the unseemly hour of the fire. Had it not been for the faithful dog we no doubt would have a tragic tale to tell as undoubtedly some lives would have been lost.

Clinton did her part in celebrating the signing of the armistice. At 1:45 a. m. the people were aroused from their slumbers by the blowing of whistles and ringing of bells. Almost immediately the town was astir and soon the streets were alive with humanity. A monster parade was formed, marching from one part of the city to another. Red fire was used with profusion. The mayor proclaimed Monday a holiday, all ordinance restrictions were set aside, and business in general set aside. At 1:30 the monster parade was formed and was witnessed by thousands. It is estimated from 10,000 to 15,000 persons took part in the parade. Nearly every line of business was represented by a float. A grand feature of the event, our people were represented on a float which bore a quartet who sang at intervals along the line and a number of our people on foot.
 Mrs. W. A. Emerson is at Agatha hospital owing to an accident on Victory Day evening, when at about 6 o'clock, while crossing a street, she was struck by an auto. She sustained a broken leg and bruises. She is doing as well as can be expected.

Mrs. Wesley Porter and daughter Naomi are in Paris, Mo., called there on account of the illness and death of a daughter of the former.

Rev. and Mrs. W. W. Williams received the sad intelligence last week of the death of a daughter in Colfax, Iowa.

What Would You Do?
 In case of a burn or scald what would you do to relieve the pain? Such injuries are liable to occur in any family and everyone should be prepared for them. Chamberlain's Salve applied on a soft cloth will relieve the pain almost instantly, and unless the injury is a very severe one, will cause the parts to heal without leaving a scar.

To Keep Insects Away.
 Eggshells burned in the oven and placed on the pantry shelves will keep the insects away.

CORINTHIAN BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES.

Rev. G. W. Robinson, D. D., Pastor. On account of the great rain on Sunday the congregations were small all day. But the services were good and inspiring. The pastor delivered a strong sermon in the morning from the subject, "Tarrying With God." At night he spoke from "Back to Bethel."

The Sunday school and B. Y. P. U. were a little below normal, but much enthusiasm was demonstrated. All the clubs are busy now electing their officers for the ensuing year.

The choir will present a beautiful cantata Dec. 5, "A Heavenly Mission in Song." Don't fail to see and hear this great song hit of the season.

Mrs. F. G. Goggins, Mrs. Carrie Law, and Mrs. Bertha Long have charge of the Sunday school Christmas play. With such workers as these we are sure to see something grand.

The Mission Circle, assisted by the other clubs, will give a free dinner to all the colored over sea soldiers at Ft. Des Moines Thanksgiving Day. This is a big undertaking and we do hope everybody will help them. There will be a country school play given by them at night.

On Sunday the pastor will deliver a special sermon to the aged members of the church. We hope that the relatives of the aged will see to it that they get there in time for good seats. We wish to thank the following who remembered the pastor's house last week: Rev. J. E. Roberts, Sister H. J. Rogers, Rev. Rogers, Bro. J. W. Johnson, Bro. McDavid, Sister Watson, Sister Shelby Adams.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

The talk last Sunday afternoon by W. O. Payne, editor of the Forum, on the real cause of the present world war, was indeed a real treat to the men that were present. It was a live subject. All thinking men are anxious to know as much about the cause of this war that has caused such a tremendous and willing sacrifice of the world. It will be the purpose of the Army Y. M. C. A. in the future to have just such speakers.

On account of St. Paul services to be held at 3 o'clock, Sunday the 24th, the Y. M. C. A. will not hold its usual public meeting. We ask you to look forward to the first Sunday in December, which will no doubt be our last big public patriotic meeting. An elaborate program is being prepared. Among some of the good things you may look for is Captain Cooper and other speakers and the glee club from Camp Dodge. The full program will be given in the next issue of the Bystander. Young men's Bible class has resumed its study on Thursday evening of each week. We are still ready to work with the boys from 12 to 15 on Tuesday evening of each week. Send the boys. Fathers, come with your boys if you can. There are great things in store for Des Moines colored boys if parents will only show their interest in this movement. Edward Ross, Sec.

About Croup. If your children are subject to croup, or if you have reason to fear their being attacked by that disease, you should procure a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and study the directions for use, so that in case of an attack you will know exactly what course to pursue. This is a favorite and very successful remedy for croup, and it is important that you observe the directions carefully.

Greatly Benefited by Chamberlain's Tablets.

"I am thankful for the good I have received by using Chamberlain's Tablets. About two years ago when I began taking them I was suffering a great deal from distress after eating, and from headache and a tired, languid feeling due to indigestion and a torpid liver. Chamberlain's Tablets corrected these disorders in a short time, and since taking two bottles of them my health has been good," writes Mrs. M. P. Harwood, Auburn, N. Y.

Bethel A. M. E. Church News. Notwithstanding a very unfavorable day Sunday, Nov. 17th, our church was opened for the first time in six weeks for services. It was a slow, grizzly, rainy day, but in the morning we had a very large congregation out, it being the first sermon Rev. Waters preached since September 29th. And this first sermon impressed the people so much that they were so very anxious to hear him again.

The trustees formed themselves in bands and went among the members and friends and collected money enough by the consent of the pastor, Rev. Waters, to have a new roof put on the parsonage at a cost of $101.25, and every dollar paid. They are also laying in our winter's coal and paying as we go. Also the stewards and class leaders are doing nicely in keeping up with the pastor's support and salary. Rev. Waters and his sweet family are just as happy as they can be.

Also the good president of the Sunshine Club in the person of Mrs. J. C. Craig, and the splendid array of women she has gathered about her; also the president of the Willing Workers Club, in the person of Mrs. Geo. Buckner and her good members. These two clubs have collected enough money to decorate the entire parsonage at a cost of between $70 and $75 and every dollar paid. Too much credit can not be given to these good men and women of Bethel church.

The messenger of death invaded the home of our dear sister, Minnie Taylor, and took out her darling mother. Mrs. Taylor is the president of stewardess board No. 1, but we know our loss is Heaven's gain. Thy will be done. Sister Vaughn died in the full triumph of faith.

We are anticipating a very enjoyable Thanksgiving. We are going to observe what is known as open doors all day, and up to a late hour in the evening. The stewardess will serve on that day the refreshments. Rev. Waters will preach at 10:45 a. m.

In the evening at 8 o'clock Mrs. Everett Holmes, the chairman of the program, is going to put on one of the finest programs ever given in Bethel church. Mrs. Holmes has secured the Institute Band for the occasion.

Our first quarterly communion will be held December 1, 1918. Our P. E. N. J. McCracken, will be with us on that day. Also he is going to be with us on lovefeast evening, Friday preceding the communion.

Mrs. C. R. Waters has been placed at the head of the program for Christmas and she called for the young folks to meet her and they responded in great numbers. Monday after school about 40 of them met her and the rest of the committee, Mrs. Margie Teomes and Mrs. Welden. They are to meet again Friday after school.

The Sunday school are to have a rally on December 15.

Mrs. Lena B. Porter is very anxious to have the people of Allen C. E. League come out at 6:30 p. m. every Sabbath.

SPECIAL NOTICE TO THE IOWA BAPTISTS.

We must thank you for the hearty co-operation rendered to the work during the past year. Nearly all the churches met their quota of money. All had an increase in members with a little exception.

Now the first quarter will close Dec. 10, at which time every church is asked to send in at least one-fourth of its yearly apportionment money. This has been a hard quarter. The Spanish influenza caused our churches to be closed for some time, but let us not allow the work to lag behind.

We are under a heavier burden this year right here in the state. We are helping more missionary pastors than ever in our history. They are as follows: Second, Okalobosa; Tabernash, Council Bluffs; Second, Marshalltown; and Union, Burlington. The high cost of living and excess railroad rates compelled us to increase the salary of the missionary. You see by that we need your help. These churches that were so fortunate as to be ahead send something along to help out. The Board will convene at the First African Baptist church, Keokuk, Iowa, Tuesday, Dec. 10, at 10 o'clock a. m. Let all the Board members endeavor to reach Keokuk on Monday that we might have a service Monday night.

Let every church send its money to G. W. Robinson, 818 W. 14th St., Des Moines, Iowa. After Dec. 6, send it to me, General Delivery, Keokuk, Iowa.

G. W. Robinson, Sec. Executive Board, 818 W. 14th St., Des Moines, Ia.

LEMONS DO MAKE THE SKIN WHITE

How to make a lemon bleaching lotion at home for a few cents

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply you with three ounces of orchard white or a few cents. Squeeze the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle, then put in the orchard white and shake well. This makes a quart of the very best lemon skin whiter and complexion leach known. Massage this fragrant, creamy lotion daily into the face, neck, arms and hands and just see how much softer and whiter the skin becomes. It is harmless, and the best of all skin whiteners.

Soldier Dies in France.
Word was received from the war department notifying his parent, Mrs. Hattie Guy, that her son, Jessie Franklin, died of wounds Oct. 2, 1918, aged 28 years. The many friends that knew him to be a kind and industrious boy and always wore a smile for everyone. His last words when leaving home one year ago Oct. 26 were that he was going for a better cause and was glad of the chance. He visited home once before going over sea on a two days leave and on his returning to Funston his greatest desire was when I come back from France what a greater man I will be. His death came as a shock to his mother and sisters and many friends, just a "beautiful flower." Somewhere in France is a lily, close by the English rose,
A thistle so keen and a shamrock green,
Each loyal flow'r that grows,
Somewhere in France is a sweetheart,
They were facing the battle's chance;
The flower of youth he fought for freedom and truth,
Somewhere in France.

Remember the service flag honoring the memory of our dead heroes, our boys. It's not your boy, not mine, who has gone to meet the call. They are our boys, flowers of the nation's youth. They put life's vision by to take the standard of the right and keep it floating high. To know how brave they are, America, thy service flag gleams.

Only One-Fourth of American Telephone Exchanges Are Bell Owned or Controlled

Of the 21,700 telephone exchanges in the United States, only 5,400 or about 25 per cent, are owned by the Bell System.

The Bell System, composed of 37 associated companies, does not seek universal ownership of the telephone. It does, however, encourage the connection of all the telephone systems in the country with each other so that communication between any two telephones in the nation will be possible.

In addition to 9,129 independent telephone companies in the United States operating 16,300 exchanges, there are 22,000 mutual telephone associations of farmers with 1,400,000 rural telephones.

The United States today has over 11,700,000 telephones, or more than all the rest of the world combined, and the service is the best and cheapest given anywhere.

No single telephone organization can claim the credit for the magnificent showing made in this country. Every telephone company, large and small, Bell owned, independently owned or a mutual association, is entitled to its full share of the credit.
