

THE EDITOR'S OBSERVATIONS

(By John L. Thompson.)

Last week we were so very busy in the Tri-cities and Chicago that we could not get our observation out in time. Therefore we are going to skip this week the observation of Rock Island and Moine because we want to have Chicago in this week's review as it is fresh from our memory and will include the other omitted cities next week. On Wednesday morning July 13 just as the morning sun spread its shining rays upon the horizon in company with bicycle and grip we started with our face the longest toward this rising sun facing east for the longest and heaviest trip of the year over the Rock Island into the old Quaker City of Oskaloosa, which was founded more than half a century ago by the band of Quakers coming from Pennsylvania who sought to extend their religious ideas among the Indians in the then great west here lives about 5,000 people of which 500 are colored. There are two colleges, the Penn college and Oskaloosa, three colored churches the M. E. pastored by Rev. Woodford, formerly of Des Moines; the Baptist Mission pastored by Rev. E. P. Palmer, who is just planning to begin building a church and the A. M. E. pastored by Rev. D. W. Brown, who is doing well. J. B. Wood, who is still in the ice and coal business, is preparing to move out on a farm soon. He has thirty acres of good corn out this year. He is a hustler. Mr. Frank Allen is still in the contracting business crowded with work as usual. Woody Thomas is still helping him. Mr. S. Mitchell, one of the pioneers of this city, has passed away since we were last here. A. J. Clark and Mr. Moore are still operating their tonorial parlors and are doing nicely. The former is high up in the Masonic councils of Iowa. He is the only son of the Hon. Alexander Clark of Muscatine. Mrs. Ring is quite sick and has been for several months. W. C. Coleman is still in the same old place doing well. He owns some good valuable property. Pierre Barquette is back from Ottumwa and is employed as a butcher in a meat shop. Mr. A. Hardy is one of our oldest and highly esteemed citizen, well fixed. R. Franklin is still working at the movies, doing well. Mr. A. Stewart is still here doing nice. Mr. Hockaday is running his barber shop. E. E. Jones, one of the old and highly respected citizens is still working at the bank. We next stopped in Washington, Ia. Here we find that the colored population is more on the decrease than increase. Most of those here are old settlers and own their own homes. One church supplies their spiritual needs, the A. M. E., pastored by Rev. F. J. Peterson, whose daughter, along with one of Mr. Daniels daughters graduated from the high school with honors. Mr. A. L. Hall is doing well. He is employed by the city as scavenger. He owns a nice home. H. K. Craton is also doing well. He owns valuable property. Nate Black is still in the job printing business. Muscatine found a home for us one-half day here also one church denomination serves the colored constituents the A. M. E., pastored by Rev. R. Thomas, doing as well as could be expected. Frank A. Walker is still in his barber shop, also are the Greenway brothers while some of these brothers are out upon their small farm. Mr. Jeff Thompson is still working at the depot while his wife is running one of the finest hair dressing parlors in Iowa located in the balcony of the finest store buildings in Muscatine. You can take the elevator and go to it on the second floor. Her parlor is beautifully equipped with all the latest and modern fixtures. She employs from three to four girls to assist her. All are colored girls. Thomas Lloyd is working in the tailor shop. A. O. Powell is still working in the Muscatine hotel. Miss Grooms is still matron at the court house. Davenport was our next stop. It is one of the largest and finest cities in Iowa with a colored population of 1,200. Two colored churches, three pool halls, three restaurants, three barber shops, two soft drink and lunch rooms, one physician, one dentist, two shoe polishing stands, several rooming and boarding houses, one undertaker, one florist. The A. M. E. Church is pastored by the Rev. S. B. Moore, a very fine minister. He is doing well. His only son is one of the active young men of this city, an enthusiastic Boy Scout and has worked so hard last winter to furnish the Bystander with the Davenport news while our agent was sick. Rev. Moore is the Grand Patron of Iowa Eastern Star Grand Lodge. The Baptist Church is pastored by Rev. F. K. Nicholson, an able young man who is well known in Iowa. Dr. R. S. Taylor, who was recently elected R. W. Grand Senior Wardens of Iowa, has a large and lucrative practice here. L. M. Brown is the undertaker. He formerly lived in Des Moines. He has a fine parlor and is doing well. John E. Bradford, one of the leading and high Masons, is freight clerk at the Rock Island freight office. He is doing well. He owns a nice home. Mr. Charles Bates is still running his shoe shining parlor. The day we were here there were born to him and Mrs.

Bates a bouncing baby boy, someone remarked that he was making boys to run his shop. Mrs. Rosa Corbin is conducting her rooming house and boarding. She has eighteen regular boarders, doing well. Mrs. Rebecca Corbin (formerly Mrs. Raikes) of Des Moines is living here. She wishes to be remembered to her old Des Moines friends where she lived for thirty-five years. Mrs. D. S. Johnson will still chronicle the news for the reliable Bystander. Mrs. Maggie Sage is still here doing well. Mrs. S. Washington has been sick for several months. D. L. Holmes is one of the successful young men. He is teaming for the city making big money. He owns some fine horses. Mr. E. Green is still running the restaurant and pool hall, doing well. Mr. Eugene Green is our ever reliable expressman doing a big business. Mr. I. A. Trembo is still conducting his soft drink and pool hall. He is a fine fellow to meet. Mr. U. M. Shortridge is doing well. Mr. William Towles has bought a house on 415 West Ninth street. Mr. H. Harper on Bridge avenue is doing well. He owns a well kept home. Mr. and Mrs. L. Shepard on Grand avenue is doing well. He works for the Railway company. They own a very beautiful modern well kept home. J. I. Ingram is also doing well. Mr. and Mrs. U. Ballard are doing well. They own a nice home. H. B. Smith also owns good property. His several lots are covered with grape vines and they are loaded with fine grapes, several thousand pounds. Mr. A. Cooney at 510 West Tenth street also has lots of grapes in his vineyard this is a big crop year through Iowa. Mrs. C. Robinson has bought a house at 1718 East-ern ave. Mr. and Mrs. H. Buck on Scott street are still here, doing well. Mr. and Mrs. William Turner are doing nicely, also is F. Baker. Mr. H. Howard has bought a nice large house at 1528 Judson street and is enjoying happiness with his family. Chicago, Chicago, oh, you little city on the pond, says one writer but we had rather put it Chicago the world's metropolis on the lake. We want to write briefly about this wonderful city while some of the inspiring things that we saw is fresh upon our memory. Breathes there a soul who ever goes to Chicago but what they come away with a new vision of hope and surprises for here you can see and meet hundreds and thousands of people of every civilized country upon the face of the globe. Every known tongue and every known language live side by side in this great metropolitan city. We have here a little more than 100,000 Negroes in nearly every avenue and in all kinds of business known to the American Yankee. Some are rich some are poor, some are educated and almost uncivilized, some are succeeding and some are failing, some are good and some are bad. In fact there are here just like the human race in all other nationalities. The colored business directory reveals the fact that Chicago has at present about 235 policemen, three members of the state legislature, one member of the city council, almost one regiment of colored soldiers in khaki now with about 100 colored commissioned officers. There are 480 colored clerks employed as clerks in the post office, 280 mail carriers, eighty-four colored churches, one Y. M. C. A., one Y. W. C. A., and one hospital, 125 barber shops and several hundred restaurants and lunch rooms, twenty-five lawyers, thirty-four physicians, fourteen dentists, six undertakers, several hair dressing parlors, hundreds of pool halls and soft drink parlors, three banks, ten real estate firms, twenty grocery stores, fourteen drug stores, one daily paper, two magazines, five weekly newspapers, two good baseball teams, three hotels, five colored bands, several manufacturers and laundries. It is said that more than 5,000 railroad porters live here with several shoe stores, candy and many other stores that space will not at this time permit me to enumerate them. The first thing that struck me was the big colored carnival company was holding a carnival on the Odd Fellows track of Grand on Thirty-seventh and State streets, given one week for the benefit of the Odd Fellows lodge building fund. They had old merry-go-rounds, the whip, swing and the air swing, woman's booths and lottery drawing by numbers of chickens, geese, ducks, four, sugar and ham and meal and various other amusements. The next real surprise to us was to see such royal and enthusiastic receptions that both white and colored people give the last of the colored heroes just returned home from France, the 803rd Pioneer infantry numbering 1,800 with white officers marched from the depot to Grant Park to the khaki and boys in blue club house where they were served to dinner by the Red Cross. Both colored and whites of the 165th infantry band met them at the Grand Central depot where they escorted them to Grant Park and gave an open air concert while the boys met their parents, sweethearts and wives and friends. It was a great time, dancing, singing and eating. At 2 o'clock the big parade started headed by a platoon of police-

A $10,000 Drive. All Expected to Help

The drive is on. The workers are busy in the various duties assigned to them. The people of Iowa, both men and women, are expected to come to the support of this movement. Iowa is widely noted for the number and high character of its educational institutions, but there is not in all Iowa a home or dormitory for the colored students. The committee urges everyone who has received a subscription card to fill it out and return to chairman at once. Those who have not, committee will mail cards to you or send in your donation to chairman of committee. The Mary Church Terrill Club of Des Moines heads the honor roll of Clubs. Christian Culture Club of Washington is second. The Grand Lodge of Knights of Pythians and Court Calanthe made generous donation at their meeting in Cedar Rapids last week and are first on honor roll of lodges. Rev. C. P. Jones of Osceola is the only minister in the state enrolled thus far in the drive. The people must awaken. It is not like Iowa, the Iowa we have known for the past two years to let any worthy cause suffer.

National Negro Business League in St. Louis

St. Louis, Mo., July 31.—One of the most important features of the coming meeting of the National Negro Business League will be a discussion, "A Reconstruction and Readjustment Symposium—The Negro's Relation Thereto," in which national leaders of thought will participate. The subjects of Labor, Health, Business and related questions and problems will be dealt with at length. It is hoped that a sympathetic southerner of national reputation will also be present to speak on this occasion. Addresses will also be delivered by Mr. William D'Arcy, president of the Associated Advertising Clubs of America; Mr. Allen W. Clark, chairman of the Clean-Up and Paint-Up Bureau, with headquarters at St. Louis, and Colonel Otis B. Duncan of the famous Eighth Illinois regiment. The official announcement of entertainments for the League include a visit to the Anheuser-Busch Bevo plant a special entertainment at the Booker T. Washington Theater and an Industrial and Fraternal parade showing the achievements of the Negroes of St. Louis and the middle west. The Eighth Illinois regimental band will furnish music for the reception and banquet which will be held Friday evening, August 15th at the Coliseum. It will thus be seen that the local Negro Business League of St. Louis is making full and complete arrangements not only for the business meeting of the league, but also for the entertainment of the delegates and of the friends. The meeting begins August 13.

Chicago Riots

Chicago, Ill., July 31.—The scene of riot has shifted from Washington, the nation's capital, to Chicago, America's greatest cosmopolitan city, and regarded everywhere as the world's greatest center of race progress. Sunday afternoon, a colored lad was bathing in Lake Michigan near the beach at East Twenty-ninth street. The day was hot and tens of thousands of Chicago's population were seeking relief from the heat in the cooling waters of Lake Michigan. This lad was on a raft and a white ruffian threw a stone and knocked him into the water where he drowned before being rescued. The attention of white policemen was immediately called to the ruffian, but the policeman refused to arrest the man, where upon the crowd became angered and in a short time began to "clean up" the place. The man accused of the crime is Augusta Strauber. Finally, he was arrested by two colored detectives Middleton and Scott. The news of the crime scattered like wild fire. Hundreds rushed from the beach in their bathing costumes, hurrying to places of shelter while others hurried to their nearby homes for revolvers and rifles. And, in less than an hour, there was a general battle in which more than one hundred whites were injured by weapons of various kinds. The news of the strife spread to every section of the south side and at several points such as Thirty-first and State, Thirty-fifth and State, Thirty-ninth and State streets, thousands of people gathered and talked in low tones over the situation. Between 3 am and Sunday night and early Monday morn-

Demands Congress to Investigate Lynching

HUGHES, TAFT, ROOT, A. MITCHELL PALMER SIGN ADDRESS TO NATION DEMANDING CONGRESS INVESTIGATE GATE LYNCHING Demand for an investigation by congress of mob violence and lynching in the United States is made in an address to the nation signed by 150 citizens throughout the country including former President Taft, Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer, Dr. Henry Van Dyke, the governors of seven states including Governor A. H. Roberts of Tennessee, every living former attorney general of the United States, the heads of California, Illinois, Princeton, West-ern Reserve, Fisk and Vanderbilt universities, Charles W. Elliot, Elihu Root, Charles Evans Hughes, J. R. Bingham of Mississippi, and Senator Arthur Coper of Kansas. The address to the nation is an outcome of the national conference on lynching which was held in New York City, May 5 and 6, last. "The people of the United States suffer justly under the grievous charge that they continue to tolerate mob murder," says the address. "In the year 1918 no less than sixty-seven persons were done to death without trial or any process of law, having been denied the right to a day in court accorded by the federal and state constitutions to all citizens. "It is well known that the innocent with the guilty suffer the cruel inflictions of mob violence. Mobs have even invaded court rooms and prisons to seize and murder prisoners whose punishment had already been fixed. Early in 1919, a hospital was invaded by a mob, and the attack resulted in death from shock of a patient that day operated upon.

RACE PROGRAM VERY ATTRACTIVE. The Iowa State Fair management has never announced a more attractive program, one that promises better sport for lovers of harness and running races, than the one to be contested at the coming fair, August 20-29. It includes thirty-one race events, eighteen for harness racers, twelve for runners and one for free-for-all trotter under saddle.

The purses offered are liberal from the horseman's point of view. Furthermore they will be contested under the Added Money Plan which will be tried out for the first time in Iowa this year. Under its provisions all entrance money, subsequent payments and starting fees—all of which have in the past gone into the treasury—will be added to the purse offered and the entire amount divided among the winning horses.

It means vastly more clear money for the men who train and race the horses, in other words the men who furnish the sport. And as they race for the money, not for health and glory, the more alluring the prospect for financial remuneration the better the class of horses they will enter and the harder they will race. All of which means good sport for the spectators.
