THE EDITOR'S OBSERVATIONS

(By John L. Thompson.)

From Kirksville, Missouri up into grand old Iowa, the finest of ten thousands, the brightest star in the galaxy of the American union. Iowa, the home of 3,000,000 people prospering upon her rich undulating drift soil, the greatest agricultural state in the union and the richest. She was the first state in the union to wipe from the statute book the obnoxious black laws. We had only traveled a few miles in Iowa until we had heard the almost forgotten tinging and saw the electric street cars, a sound and a sight that we had not seen while traveling in Missouri for more than two weeks. Of course Missouri will never have electric street cars now since automobiles and aerial time with the airship will be there; we only have about 22,000 colored population and our state is capable of offering and keeping a hundred thousand of good honest, industrious colored people, who want to farm. There are still a few opportunities left. Our first stop was in Carney, Polk county, Iowa, a little mining camp of about 500 people of which nearly one-half are colored and most of them have bought a few acres near this town and are farming it. They are doing well. They have hogs, cattle, chickens, ducks, turkeys and geese and they own several hundred acres of Iowa land that cost them from $200 to $500 per acre and now some of it is worth from $500 to $1,000 per acre.

Our next stop was in Centerville, Iowa, county seat of Appanoose county, where lives about 500 colored people, most of them are miners as this is a great mining community. Mr. Richard Good is one of the pioneers and highly respected citizens; another one is W. H. Tompkins, who owns valuable property. Mr. Ceory Noah is doing well. He has recently built a beautiful stecco house. Mr. B. B. Baker is doing well. C. J. Reed is still here; also H. A. White. Henry Johnson is one of the reliable citizens, who stands for something in this community. Mrs. A. L. Crittenden is still the Bystander reporter. She is the best reporter that Centerville ever had. We next stopped in Buxton, the far famed Negro metropolis of Iowa at one time, but now as the great coal mines becomes worked out the people have left here by the hundreds seeking employment in other coal fields or cities until now there are only about 2,000 people in Buxton of which 1,500 are colored. The two justices of the peace are colored. C. E. Foster and Mr. W. H. Bailey. Two constables Mr. C. R. Roman, I cannot just now call the other one. Five churches of which three are colored, the St. John's A. M. E. pastored by Rev. Sims and the Mt. Zion (without a minutes) and the other Baptist church pastored by the Rev. F. C. Bolling, who is doing good here. One Y. M. C. A. with Edward Mills as secretary. Lieut. Walter Hutchinson has just succeeded him last Sunday at a large meeting at 4 o'clock, where he was inducted into the office. There are four white teachers and six colored teachers. Mrs. Minnie Landon is principle; assistants, Mrs. Mayme Humbles, Miss Mary Dimitry Miss Loto Hart, Mrs. Mae I Solo Billings. Mr. Hobe Armstrong still operates the only meat market. He has been with the company for the past thirty-four years and is claimed to be the richest man in Monroe county. He owns over 1,100 acres of some of the highest assessed land in that county. Ruben Gaines is one of the rich men here. He owns several farms and many houses in Coopertown. Lawyer George H. Woodson, the pioneer lawyer and real estate man lives here. He is another large property holder, a wealthy bachelor, so ladies ought to look that way. Mr. Woodson is without doubt the best criminal lawyers perhaps in Iowa. There are two other colored lawyers, J. A. Spears and H. H. Hicks, the latter has a fine tonsorial parlor here. One physician, Dr. E. A. Carter, the company doctor and one dentist, Dr. E. A. Willis of which both have a large practice. Mr. Jacob Wilson, one of veteran wheelhouse in political affairs for many years who has been sick for several years is improving. Mr. C. G. Southall's daughter is now a teacher in the academy in Virginia. Mr. James is another young single man, who is operating a cigar factory. There are about twenty-five farmers owning their own farms. Mr. Henry Harnes, J. H. Bates, M. Qualls, Mr. Isaac Johnson, Mr. A. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor and many others that I cannot name who owns their farm and doing well.

Automobile and Thousand Dollars to Prof. and Mrs. Laurence Jones

Sergeant Neadom Roberts, Hon. Nate Kendall and Hon. Harvey Ingham Spoke. An interesting and intelligent audience of our people numbering several hundred assembled in beautiful St. Paul's church last Monday night to encourage "The Piney Woods Country Life School" and to hear our world war hero Sergt. Neadom Roberts, of the old Fifteenth New Yorkers. Sergeant Roberts together with his partner Sergt. Henry Johnson fought and killed thirty-six Germans in the Argonne forest May 15, 1918.

Get Together Spirit. The meeting was an evidence that our people can get together if they only would in a general way. Capt. Asa Turner, a great friend of Piney Woods had planned a surprise meeting on Prof. Laurence C. Jones for last Monday night and had secured from Hon. H. R. Wright, the use of the Army club, and Hon. Nate Kendall and Harvey Ingham had promised to speak at this meeting for Piney Woods at which time Captain Turner intended making a presentation of a gift to the school. A short while after these arrangements the advance agent of Sergeant Roberts arrived and without knowledge of the Piney Woods meeting, Mr. G. U. Cloud and Attorney Morris contracted for an address by Sergeant Roberts for this same Monday night.

They planned to put it on under the auspices of and for the benefit of the American Legion, but upon consulting the head of the American Legion, permission was refused on the grounds that it was against their policy to commercialize the uniform.

They then decided to assume the responsibility themselves and made arrangements to use St. Paul's church. It was announced in the churches on the following Sunday and the friends who had started boosting the Piney Woods meeting thought of the conflict. Principal Jones who had just returned from Omaha was called into consultation with Messrs. Cloud and Morris and they decided it would be best to combine the two meetings instead of fighting one another. They then attempted to get the auditorium but it was engaged for Monday night. It was finally decided to go ahead and use St. Paul's church which would get one-fourth of the profit from the meeting, Piney Woods another fourth and the promoters the other two-fourths.

Since no provision was being made to have anything in honor of our world hero after the meeting Professor Jones generously told Messrs. Cloud and Morris to arrange a dinner for fifty and use his part of the profit to pay for the dinner in honor of the first American hero. At the table with Sergeant Roberts were Capt. Asa Turner, Atty. and Mrs. S. Joe Brown, Atty. Gertrude Durden Rush, Dr. and Mrs. J. Alvin Jefferson and others.

While the audience was large and enthusiastic, it was not complete success financially for Messrs. Cloud and Morris, as expenses were quite heavy, the largest of which was a guarantee of $125 to Sergeant Roberts, aside from the cost of the church, printing and their time.

Messrs. Nate Kendall and Harvey Ingham, served without recompense, Hon. Nate Kendall taking care of his own expenses from a distant point in the state where he had been addressing audiences in behalf of his candidacy for governor.

The audience was well pleased and very commendatory in their praise of all of the speakers who in the words of Prof. Laurence C. Jones, were unanimous in their declaration that the world "was looking for a new whiteman with an awakened conscience."

Atty. Gertrude Durden Rush acted as chairman of the meeting. Atty. S. Joe Brown introduced Hon. Harvey Ingham, Mr. G. U. Cloud, introduced Sergeant Roberts and Professor Jones introduced Hon. Nate Kendall.

Automobile and a Thousand Dollars for Piney Woods. At the close of the meeting Capt. Asa Turner presented a gift of an automobile with electric starter to Mrs. Laurence Jones, to which friends from San Francisco to New York, subscribed generously when they heard of her recent illness. To Principal Jones he presented a check for $1,000.

Mrs. Jones made the acceptance speech in a very winsome and fascinating manner sounding a high note of encouragement to our people to continue onward and upward.

Rhonene a surprise party as an expression of their joy at having the reverend returned to them for another year. They were also guests at a 6 o'clock dinner of Mr. and Mrs. Guss Hupp, 2122 Paul street, Omaha, Neb., Thursday evening.

After investigation the shooting that occurred near one of the lumber yards on October 8 on Wednesday night. The name found in the coat was B. F. Walker assistant engineer at the county court house. Mr. Walker said that he left the coat in Mr. Bob Keating's car about three weeks ago, but we would like to let the public know that the coat was stolen in a white community where the colored people very seldom go. We want to say for the colored citizens of Council Bluffs we are willing to help run down the criminal of the community, but we want to ask the better class of whites to give some of our people through the recommendation of the better class of colored, for police officers and detectives, and we can help run each other's criminals down.—Rev. M. R. Rhonene, pastor of Bethel A. M. E. church, Rev. J. B. Jackson, pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist church.

PROF. JONES LEAVES FOR THE SOUTH

Prof. Laurence Jones, who has had headquarters in Des Moines for the past six months left Thursday night via Chicago for "Dixie." Mrs. Jones will look after some business for the school in eastern Iowa for a few weeks, will then visit at her old home in Burlington and Keokuk and an aunt in Indianapolis before going south for the winter.

This has been the most successful year financially for these interesting people and their pioneer effort in its history. They deserve success for they are indefatigable in their effort to "put it over the top."

While in the north they have been guests at the home of Attorney and Mrs. Joe Brown.

On last Wednesday night they were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Thompson.
