South African Strike

40,000 GOLD MINE WORKERS OUT-NATIVES HAVE CHANGED; SMUTS.

Pretoria, South Africa, Feb. 29.—Between 40,000 and 50,000 natives are on strike in the Witwatersrand gold mine fields, causing Lieutenant-General Christian Smuts and other officials of the Union Government a lot of sleepless nights. The natives have organized picketing and are taking effective steps to enforce their demands. A feeling that they are at least entitled to the benefits of their native land is running high among them so much that General Smuts remarked in a speech here today that "a tremendous change was coming over South Africa." The natives are in hearty accord with this latter statement of the case. They evince a determination that a tremendous change must come over South Africa, a change in which their right to walk every street own land everywhere and everywhere in their ancestral home shall not be denied them by the government of South Africa or any other government for that matter, so far as they are concerned. This new temper on the part of the natives has proven cause for a great deal of concern by the union officials who have been accused of oppressive treatment of the natives. In some instances denying them the right to occupy their own ancestral lands and by a system of legislation keeping them in an actual state of peonage. Some month ago a delegation of African chiefs went to London and complained to King George of the treatment accorded them and their people under the Union government of South Africa.

In a speech here today, Lieutenant-General Christian Smuts, British member of the League of Nations Commission, referred to native troubles in the Witwatersrand gold mine fields, which he characterized as dangerous.

"Between 30,000 and 40,000 blacks are striking," General Smuts said, and, by means of organized picketing, are doing things of which he would have considered them incapable. The speaker declared he saw signs that a tremendous change was coming over South Africa. "The nonsense which the whites have been talking of republics of blood and tears will be put into practice by the natives," General Smuts said, "and, too late, it will be found that this idle talk has put these mischievous ideas into the heads of the natives."

SOUL SAVING REVIVAL

SUCCESSING

The union revival campaign in progress at St. Paul tabernacle is enjoying the fullest success. The pastors of the city with their members are working hard for the conversion of the unsaved and revival fires are being kindled throughout the city. Dr. H. Franklin Bray the Rocky Mountain evangelist is preaching some very eloquent and helpful sermons and driving the truth of God home in a way seldom witnessed in these parts. Many have already enrolled for heaven and the meeting have just begun. The evangelist will speak at 3 o'clock on Sunday to "Women Only." The wives, mothers and sisters of the entire city are invited to hear this unusual man of God. The meetings will continue to the 29th. The chorus under direction of Mr. Oris U. Bray of Chicago is rendering very inspiring music.

To the Voters of the City of Des Moines

I wish to thank you for the endorsement of my candidacy. I am indeed gratified with the results of the Primaries and trust that I will be endorsed for a place on the City Council March 29th.

Thank You Very Sincerely,

PRESENT DEMAND IS FOR TRAINED NURSES

Mercy Hospital Superintendent Says Field is Wide Open

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 26.—The refusal of the War Department to give the colored nurse a chance to go overseas with the troops gave them a newer and better chance in the civilian field at home according to Miss Elizabeth A. Newman, superintendent of nurses at Mercy hospital this city.

"Just as the colored laborer profited during the war by the labor shortage so did the colored nurse gain a foothold in the industrial plants, schools, hospitals and other social service institutions, and even families where she was not known before.

High school graduates who have completed a course in professional nursing can now select a career in public health service, private nursing, social service, sanitation, anaesthetics, office work and school positions, according to Miss Newman, and all of these positions pay higher salaries than any other places open to young women.

STAND UP AND BE COUNTED

Our group in Des Moines and Iowa have had a great deal to say more or less about the need for a good paper in our midst. Many complimentary things have recently been said relative to the "Bystander" filling that long felt need. Perhaps a bushel basket of congratulations and an abundance of personal compliments have been passed on the "Improved Bystander." It now remains to be seen how much those compliments mean. We like them, in fact we love them, but will they build up a great family paper. We must have new subscribers, old subscribers must help get them, old subscribers must pay up their subscriptions, you must let our advertisers know that you appreciate their patronizing a race journal.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

The membership committee of which Attorney John L. Thompson is chairman has launched a membership campaign for 300 additional members. Don't turn them away when they approach you. $3 will make you and your boy a member for one year. The funds will go to help maintain the building we are soon to build.

The men's Bible class under the leadership of Attorney S. Joe Brown is going with great force. Few members but conscientious in their efforts and interest. Meet them Tuesday evening at Union Congregational church from 8 to 9.

There were sixty-two men and boys who enjoyed gym activities at West High last Monday. The young friends club of South East Des Moines was the inspiration club of Y. M. C. A. high school boys a game of basket ball at West High Monday night. The scores were 14-7 in favor of Young Friends.

The committee of management will hold their regular monthly meeting Saturday night at 8 o'clock at Union Congregational church. Every member is requested to be present.

Y. W. C. A. CAMPAIGN ENDS.

Colored Women raise $1,929.48. Saturday, March 13 was the close of the $40,000 Y. W. C. A. campaign which lasted two weeks.

The part taken by the colored women is exceptionally worthy of commendation since this was their first attempt at such a gigantic proposition, spurred on by the beautiful "grey house" on Tenth street which is coming to mean so much to the women and girls of Des Moines, the captains and their lieutenants found no obstacle too great to be surmounted.

The general, Mrs. Emerald Mash, was repeatedly complimented by the committee in charge of the drive at the central Y and as she made her daily reports was loudly applauded. She cannot give her captains, Mrs. H. R. Graves and Mrs. S. Joe Brown, and their lieutenants too much credit for their untiring efforts.

ST. PAUL'S A. M. E.

SUNDAY SCHOOL NOTES

Sunday, March 14 was partly clear with a maximum temperature of about 50 degrees, which was very much in our favor. The school was well attended and the lesson the subject of which was John on the Isle of Patmos found in Rev. 1:4-14. The lesson was thoroughly discussed by the teacher and their classes the teachers having met Friday previous and thrashed out the teaching points thereof.

The Easter program upon which we have worked for several weeks is nearing completion. The children have volunteered in great numbers. We question whether we shall be able to use all who want to be on the program, so you mothers who are most interested in your children see to it that your boy or your girl's name gets to the program committee on or before March 28. Miss Ethel Bowmer who is musical director of the school assisted by Miss Hortense Woods organist is working hard, training a large chorus of boys and girls of the junior, intermediate and senior classes. This chorus is progressing nicely. See to it mothers and fathers of St. Paul that your boys and your girls are in the chorus for it will reflect credit not only on them and their instructors but on their school and on you also. The plan is that the children shall entertain the grownups that day. Judging from present indications April 4 will eclipse anything in the way of an Easter celebration this school has ever had.

MOUNT OLIVE BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. Guy E. Sanders, pastor. Services were very good last Sunday. Rev. Rogers formerly pastor of the Mount Zion Baptist church of Carver, preached for us at 8 o'clock p. m. Our attendance is increasing very much since we have moved into our new location. The Sunday school is progressing nicely. Our superintendent was absent on account of illness last Sunday. We missed her very much.

Little E. Sanders, the ten months old baby of Rev. G. E. Sanders is in the hospital suffering from a broken leg as the result of a fall from a chair.

When coming to the Mount Olive church take the Scott street car, get off at Fourth and Allen streets or Fourth and Scott. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school at 12 to 1:30 p. m. Teachers meeting Friday at 8 p. m. Come, you are welcome.

John Budd

Hundreds of thousands of dollars have been saved for the city of Des Moines, by Street Commissioner John W. Budd, who is asking re-election. This is due to prompt action on improvements which if postponed would cost greatly increased amounts.

Comparison of Des Moines with other places its size shows this city to have a very low tax rate despite many needed sewer and street projects that have been carried through. Budd's successful economy is the result of twenty-eight years of engineer experience covering every phase of city improvement, accompanied by their pastor, Rev. S. B. Moore.

CORINTHIAN BAPTIST CHURCH.

Last Sunday was a big day at Corinthian. The pastor, Rev. G. W. Robinson preached two excellent sermons one in the morning and in the evening.

The Sunday school is certainly on the increase. Send your boys and girls. The B. Y. P. U. at 6:30 p. m. was at its best. Young people you are missing a treat if you fail to attend.

Last Sunday evening at 5:30 Mrs. W. W. Stanton spoke very effectively at the mother's meeting. She showed many good ways in which the mothers meeting might succeed.

The Herald association is planning great things for the near future. Rehearsals for the Passion play, the Life of Christ and a melodrama are in progress. Watch for further announcement.

Every one is working hard for the Easter program. The main feature will be an early morning breakfast served at the church. Ham or bacon and eggs, hot biscuit and coffee.

The reception for the new converts on last Thursday was well attended in spite of the inclement weather. A fine program was rendered and all present enjoyed the evening.

The Corinthian aid will hold a joint session Friday evening March 26, at the home of Mr. F. G. Goggins, 222 Arthur street. The president, Mr. G. H. Roane, desires a large attendance. Mrs. Irene Jeffers and Mr. F. G. Goggins are hostess and host for the evening.

Mrs. Charles Ford on West Eleventh street remains quite ill.

The Callanan Industrial club will meet Wednesday, March 24 with Mrs. John Mayweather, 1082 West Fourteenth St.

BETHEL A. M. E. CHURCH.

(Rev. H. C. Claybrook.) Sunday, March 14 was a high day at Bethel. Our presiding elder, Rev. T. B. Stovall preached at the morning services. He chose for his text, Matt. 5 chapter 13-17 verses. Subject, "Who Are We? What Fe are to do in this world." Everyone in the house was uplifted. At 3 o'clock Rev. E. S. Hargde of Kyle's A. M. E. Zion church with his good people came up. He preached a powerful sermon. Text, St. John 4:6. Subject: "Prejudice and its antidote."

One joined the church. After which Rev. F. H. Bray, D. D., of Chicago made a splendid remarks concerning the revival now being held at St. Paul A. M. E. He congratulated Rev. Claybrook on the co-operation of Bethel.

At 8:00 p. m. Rev. T. B. Stovall preached another soul stirring sermon. Text Gen. 1 chapter 26 and 27 verses. In the image of God, who we look like and how we act.

Bethel is surely a place after God's own heart, for He has blessed us beyond all expectations our beloved presiding elder and pastor of but a few months are wide awake and spiritually alive. They have won the love of this people.

Bethel has only a membership of seventy-three, but raised this quarter $877.68. Sunday's collection, $63.95. Next Sunday is our rally day we ask every member to rally as never before. Men, $10; ladies, $5. All friends help us to enlarge Bethel.

DAVENPORT ITEMS.

(R. C. Moore)

The members and friends of Bethel A. M. E. church are planning to do things here Sunday, as it will be the quarterly meeting scene. Last Sunday the folks across the pond, did a little piece of work, and have the idea that the amount of money they raised will scare the Davenporters so that their heart will get cold as ice. But everyone knows that its colder across the pond than it is over here and they better come over and learn how to do things. For a number of quarters Davenport has been in the lead and will remain first. Everyone out and help boost Davenport over the top.

The wonderful work that the Rev. N. H. Jeltz did here in our city has caused his name to spread in the Tri-Cities like wildfire. The United Brothers of Friendship has succeeded in arranging for Rev. Jeltz to give a lecture here on the 16th. His subject will be "The Price of Place." No doubt that there will be a good attendance, however, the young men some of whom were recently converted in the meetings held by Rev. Jeltz are planning to take care of the crowd. There will be room for all, reserved seats are now on sale. A hint to the wise is sufficient. You'd better buy your reserve ticket and your seat will then be already ordered and you won't have to work about getting a seat when the last minute comes.

The Women's Mite Missionary society is planning to have an entertainment at the 23rd of the present month. If you are interested in the welfare of missions you will not refuse to buy tickets for this concert when they come round to you. If you want to help somebody don't be a slacker. A most swell entertainment is being arranged. And the reporter assures every one that the concert will be well worth your consideration.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harper are improving at this writing and Mr. Harper's brother was here visiting him from Ft. Madison, Iowa.

The Rev. N. J. McCracken has been in and out of our city for the past week or so, holding his tri-cities quarterly meetings and conferences. He will remain in this vicinity for the remainder of the week and will hold his Davenport quarterly meeting next Sunday.

The revival has meant much and done much for Bethel A. M. E. church, in the very fact that the pastor, Rev. S. B. Moore is now arranging to organize his church into working forces. The next issue of the Bystander will contain the announcement of the nature of the work.

Mrs. Chesterfield of Fulton avenue is still on the sick list. Mrs. Nora Shepard is again able to be up and about. Also Mrs. Foster is again out, we are glad to see her once more sitting out on the porch, after so long a term of illness.

The Bethel A. M. E. church and Sunday school is planning to have a great Easter program. All who wish to take part will please see their Sunday school teachers.
