

SCARBOROUGH TO GO NEXT, REPORT

Bishop Jones and Followers Apply "Pruning Knife" at Wilberforce University.

WILBERFORCE, O., March 27.—That Bishop Jones is completely in the saddle here again, and is the real dominating head of Wilberforce Normal and Industrial School, the state owned department, as well as of Wilberforce University, was forecast in the calling for the resignation of Prof. W. A. Joiner, Superintendent of the Normal and Industrial Department, at the trustee board's meeting.

Simultaneous with the request for Prof. Joiner's resignation comes the report, substantiated by high clerical and officials of the University, that President Scarborough is slated to go when the University trustees meet in June, and that Dean Gilbert Jones, son of Bishop Jones, is prominently slated succeed President Scarborough. Indications point to a big shake up here in the faculty also, Prof. Woodard, professor mathematics, and regarded as one of the ablest in his line in the country, has resigned and accepted a professorship at Howard University, Washington, at a greatly increased salary.

C. P. Blackburn has resigned physical director, and Mary S. Booth as chief nurse. Blackburn, it is said, is to be employed by the Columbus board of education for work among Colored children.

J. M. D. Russell of the faculty is said to be slated for Joiner's place and his brother for head of the agricultural department. F. A. McGinnis is to be placed at the head of vocational work, reports are.

All this shake-up, the story goes, is the result of the Methodist trustees having gained fuller control than ever before over the institution. The trustees are appointed in part by the bishop of the A. M. E. church and part by the governor.

The clergy living at the institution always are in attendance at board meetings, the complaint long has been while some of the state, appointed trustees, living over the state, frequently fail to attend. The situation has been before several successive legislatures and is expected to reach its climax before the next assembly.

COLORED OFFICER FOR WOODS

He Intends to Form Clubs For the General Among People of Iowa

Kansas City, Mo., March 30th. Among the twenty-five Wood followers who applied yesterday at headquarters of the Wood-for-President club in the Glendale building for membership was Captain W. W. Russell, Negro, who was commissioned at the Panama Canal zone in the administration of President Wood.

He is a graduate of Columbia University and the Boston Institute of Technology. During the war he was connected with various Negro welfare organizations. He is an admirer of Roosevelt, and he believes Roosevelt would have endorsed General Wood. He not only intends to vote for the general, but will leave to-morrow for Iowa, where he will devote most of his time to the organization of Wood-for-President club among the Negro population.

ARCHDEACON APPOINTED BY AFRICAN BISHOP

ARCH DEACON APPOINTED BY BISHOP

(Special to the Bystander) LAGOS, Nigera, March 10th.—The Bishop of Lagos has appointed the Rev. N. Johnson to be Archdeacon of Lagos, and the Rev. A. W. Smith to be Archdeacon of the Yoruba Country.

The Rev. N. Johnson is respected by all who know him and this appointment is a fitting recognition of his loyalty service to the church.

A CORRECTION IN APPRECIATION.

In the issue of the Bystander under date of April 2, 1920 an article appeared under the caption "Political Quiz" which article was from the pen of a contributing company assumes no blame but the fact remains that by inadvertence without malicious intent all of the credit for the results obtained by the Negroes of the city of Des Moines were given to the Pan Des Moines club and we wish now to state that whatever benefits they have accrued to the Negroes by reason of the result of the election was due as much to the loyal cooperation of the East Des Moines Boosting company as to the effort put forth by the Pan Des Moines club. I take this means of expressing my appreciation of the co-operation and support afforded the Pan Des Moines club by the two clubs in question.—Signed, E. Tracy Blagburn.

APPLIES ALSO TO OMAHA

THE Kansas City Call, the wide-awake paper published by our talented friend, Chester A. Franklin takes to task the republicans of Kansas City for their failure to even attempt to place a representative of our race on ticket. Sentiment is strong in the city on the Kaw among our group for an alderman, who could easily be elected. The Call very properly excoriates the cowardice which prevented an effort to secure this recognition.

What The Call so well says about the conditions in Kansas City applies equally to the attitude of republicans in this section of the political vine yard. Certain republican leaders confidently expect loyal support of colored voters, but always deem it "untimely" or "inexpedient" at this time to have a colored man file for office or put on the ticket. This is the kind of guff they have been handing out to our people since was a pup. Some individuals of our group have supinely acquiesced in this position. Fortunately, however, the masses are getting tired of this kind of business and have determined to enter the game right, win or lose. We are aware of some of the tricks that will be pulled off to prove that the political wisecracks who say colored men cannot be elected is true. We know also that if these republican leaders tote fair and stand by a colored nominee he can be easily elected. The time has come in Omaha as in Kansas City when "the spirit of the race has risen to the place we are no longer content to pay taxes, bear arms and vote to elect men who "the time has not yet come when it is expedient to have Negroes in office"

To the republicans of this section who talk in this way we desire to commend a well-known Latin phrase, "Verbum sasantibus est satis," which accurately translated means a word to the wise is sufficient but which turned into modern western vernacular means, we are on to your game; no double crossing; "tote fair"

A woman should grow more beautiful as she grows older and she will with due regard to baths, diet and exercise, and by keeping her liver and bowels in good working order. THE A. M. E. DES MOINES DISTRICT SUNDAY SCHOOLS ARE ON THE RISE.

The Sunday schools of the above named district are wide-awake this year as a whole. Through the efforts of the new and proficient presiding elder, Rev. T. B. Stovall, together with the God sent superintendent, Mrs. J. L. Edwards, the district is doing good work. The superintendent who has been a faithful Sunday school worker for more than twenty-three years, stands ready and willing to serve the very best interests of the very least as well as the greatest schools.

For many years she served in a quiet way, as an evangelist, saving many souls here and there. But recently the A. M. E. conference granted her license so that she may go forth doing more and greater work. She is now able to serve the District as never before. She preaches a plain unadulterated gospel, such as is spoken of in Hebrews 4:12.

This year the conference will be held at Bethel A. M. E. church in East Des Moines. Rev. Claybrook pastor. Mr. Claybrook is a wide-awake young man, full of ambition and takes God for his guide. He is making great preparations to entertain the district conference and Sunday school convention which convenes June 22-25. Anyone who will attend that convention will be well-paid for the effort.

KNIGHT TEMPLARS OBSERVE EASTER.

King Solomon Commandery No. 6, Knights Templar assisted for the first time in their history by the King Solomon Guild, No. 6, Heroines of the Templar Crusades, the recently organized ladies auxiliary, held their annual Easter service last Sunday afternoon at the Corinthian Baptist church.

Promptly at 3 o'clock the choir under the direction of Prof. H. R. Graves struck up "Onward Christian Soldiers" and the Heroines under command of Lieutenant Henrietta Graves, acting Captain, entered under an arch of acorn formed by the Sir Knights, who followed them in and all were seated by command of Sir B. N. Hyde, Eminent Commander.

After addresses upon the order of H. T. C. by Princess Jessye E. McClain, Grand 2nd Lieutenant of Illinois and Iowa and an able sermon by Rev. Geo. W. Robinson, pastor, musical numbers were rendered by Miss Ethel Bowmer and Princess Mary Woods. An offering of almost twenty dollars was lifted for the benefit of the church.

The turn out of the Sir Knights which is always attractive, was given added interest because of the presence of the Heroines in their immaculate white uniforms and was therefore voted the best in the history of the Commandery.

At the conclusion of the service, the Sir Knights were marched back to the asylum by Sir S. Joe Brown, Captain General where the Prelate Sir Knight Wm. Walker offered a special prayer for the speedy recovery of Sir Knight Robert Bruce one of the oldest members of the Commandery who was absent for the first time on account of illness.

ATTORNEY NAMED FOR RACE IN THE 12th MO. DISTRICT

LIUET. VAUGHN WILL OPPOSE DYER FOR CONGRESS

St. Louis Citizen's Liberty League Expects To Send Negro To Congress.

(Special to the Freeman) ST. LOUIS MO. April 2.—Last week the Citizen's Liberty League selected Lieut. George L. Vaughn, as candidate for Congress from the 12th Missouri District. This district has been represented for a number of years by L. C. Dyer, whose official acts have been heralded through the district with full brass band effect, when they concerned Negro constituents.

he colored people have been following the Liberty League's meetings closely, and they are one with its purposes. The men at the head of the movement are as worthy and clean as there are in the city, and no one doubts their motives for the elevation of their race. However, they evidently overlooked the fact that the announcement of their plans several weeks in advance would cause aspirants for the honors they desired conferred on the race, to plume their wings for political fights in these unexplored regions however the recent announcement that W. A. Venerable was a candidate was not entirely unexpected, but the people will not tolerate any candidate unsupported by the Liberty League, because they know such a candidate cannot be of actual service to the race in this crisis, as he will only enhance the chances of Dyer. It will be remembered what trouble additional candidates caused when Turpin ran for constable. A repetition of this situation will not be tolerated; the public is informed to permit it.

It is not known what Dyer has up his sleeve. He is up against a losing proposition, with the colored voters standing pat. All the people need do is to support one candidate and the rest is easy.

WOULD STOP SALE OF PROPERTY TO NEGRO GIRL

ATTYS THOMPSON AND WOODSON TO FIGHT CASE

First Case of its Kind to Come Up in the City of Des moines.

Claiming that he had sold lots adjoining his home with the strict proviso that they should not be resold to colored people, Arch L. Madden has brought suit in District court to cancel the contract of sale between Hunter Flowers and Dorothy Quail.

In the meantime he asks for a temporary injunction restraining Dorothy Quail, colored from taking possession of the property.

Miss Quail is a young colored girl, member of Maple Street Baptist church and a model young woman whose engagement to Mr. Werter Gross was announced in an earlier issue of the Bystander. These young people had purchased this property as their future home and expected to go immediately to housekeeping after their marriage. This alone is a wonderful step for young people, but what a blow to other youths who might follow in their footsteps when such action is taken in a supposedly free country and especially in the city of Des Moines. This is the first case of its kind to ever come up in the courts of our city and Attorneys John L. Thompson and George H. Woodson, who are her attorneys expect to carry the case to the Supreme court if necessary or farther.

The Des Moines branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People are also taking active interest in this particular case.

FOR LEONARD WOOD.

(By Edgar G. Brown.)

Indianapolis, Ind., March 31.—Wherever the people have had a chance to vote in direct preference for General Wood, the present-day champion of the late Colonel Theodore Roosevelt's life-long policy of "all men up and no man down."

Two weeks ago New Hampshire instructed her delegates for Leonard Wood by a huge majority, notwithstanding the stron-arm tactics of the state machine, which was working for an uninstruted delegation. Last week General Wood won in both Minnesota and South Dakota over great odds of political intrigues and combinations. It is apparent to the most casual observer that General Wood is not a professional politician, because he does not pussy-foot on universal military training, the protection of America first—and a long way first, the upholding of the constitution, the rigid enforcement of law and order, the protection of property rights "as everything rests on this," and the guaranteeing to every American citizen equality of opportunity without regard to race, color or creed. Leonard Wood is the only candidate to stand on a 100 per cent platform of Americanism. That's why the people are saying if you take the ROW out of President Woodrow, you will have the name of the next president of the United States.

Every colored man and woman in America can become a charter member of the Wood-for-President Club by sending in name and address to 336 Indiana avenue, Indianapolis, Indiana.

ELECTION NOTICE.

To all Negro voters of Polk county: As the only Negro member of the Polk County Republican Central Committee I feel it my duty to call the especial attention of the Republican voters of my race to the fact that on next Wednesday evening April 14 at 7:30 there will be held at the regular voting place in each and every precinct of the county a party caucus for the purpose of electing delegates to the state convention which will elect delegates to the National Convention which will nominate the Republican candidate for President and Vice President.

I also desire to call especial attention to the fact that all women twenty-one years of age as well as men who are residents of Polk county at this time will be eligible to vote for President and Vice President in November and if in harmony with the principles of the Republican Party are eligible both to vote and to be voted for in these caucuses.

WESTERN RAMBLER.

Champaign, Ill., March 30. My dear Editor Bystander: My letter of rambling was from Quincy, Illinois. Peoria was the last place accounted for in my last communication and so I shall not begin with the city of Quincy. I arrived in this city Friday about 12:30 p. m., my train being two hours late. On my arrival I went to the home of Rev. G. W. Brown, one of the pioneer ministers of the West but is not in active service now. On Friday evening I lectured at the Eighth and Elm street Baptist church, Rev. B. N. Murrell, pastor. I was surprised that we did not have an audience at this church, but it is there as most places, our people cannot be encouraged to attend lectures, they don't seem to value the importance of lectures. The pastor had made the announcement for two Sundays and urged the people to turn out. The choir furnished music for the occasion. I spoke on co-operation to the satisfaction of all present.

The collection was not as good as last year, owing to the poor audience. The church is rallying to purchase a parsonage for the pastor, which is very necessary. Every church should have a parsonage. Dr. Murrell seems to be getting the church in a working condition. We can count on him being at the Western convention in Kansas City in July.

Saturday morning, March 20, I started a rambling. After several hours I was in Jacksonville where I had been called. The pastor, Rev. E. A. Crockett was in Bloomington conducting a series of revival meetings for Rev. P. W. Fields, though he had left things arranged for my entertainment while in the city. I had both services, morning and evening. The audience during the morning was small but a splendid congregation attended at night. My lectures were from meditations and comment in time and place. Knowing the advantage of the people that the leaders they have had as pastors: Dr. E. L. Serings and the present pastor, Rev. E. A. Crockett I endeavored to entertain them in accordance with the leadership. Sunday morning I spoke from the subject, "Leave a Light in Your Window." Sunday evening, "The Power of Knowledge." Mt. Emory Baptist church now stands at the head of the list of collection in Illinois, Zion Baptist in Omaha, in Nebraska, and Zion Baptist, Denver, in Colorado. We are looking for some other church to go to a head. The rain and other things and conditions gave us a dull week.

After rambling here and there, looking for a suitable place to rest, I found I had landed in that noted city, Ft. Madison. I had sent notice through the former clerk but failed to notify the pastor and he being away, did not know of my coming. In the meantime, I dropped the pastor a letter, his wife notified the officers and they made the announcement, but the rain both nights kept the people from turning out as they so desired. There were more each evening than I had anticipated. I don't know of any place in Iowa that as many people would have turned out in the rain.

The pastor, Rev. Grundy was out of the city, but his wife made it pleasant for me. I am sure, if sister Grundy had not thrown open her door, not knowing the people nor where they lived I would have had to remain out doors or at the depot all night. This church is, I think, in error. They called a pastor and agreed to pay him a certain salary, but if he is called out to notify for any occasion the officers will not pay him for that week. I didn't think Iowa had that class of men as officers in any church. Business concerns treat their employees better than this church does her pastor. It is to the shame of any church to be so narrow, (rather small).

Friday morning I took another swing from Ft. Madison and landed in that historic city of Keokuk.

Sunday morning, March 27, I went to the mother church of the Baptists of Iowa, better known as Seventh street Baptist. This church called Rev. W. H. Clark, of Colfax, Iowa, about a year ago, when it seemed that there was no life in the membership. They had almost become discouraged, but after calling Rev. Clark, they seemed to take new life. The church does not look like the same one great improvement has been made and there seems to be harmony among the members. The members are letting the pastor lead and they are following. I don't think any church in the state has done any more than this church with its few members, most of them being aged. The pastor and his people deserve to be complemented for their great work. The membership has almost doubled itself since Rev. Clark has been pastor.

Sunday afternoon I had the pleasure of speaking before the Sunday Forum of Pilgrim Rest Baptist church, Rev. J. Sterling Moore is pastor.

This was the first time I ever had an opportunity to visit this church. My subject was "The Power of Knowledge" was appreciated by the Forum. The pastor also gave me the evening service at which time I spoke on "Co-operation." There was not as many out as usual on account of the wind, storm and rain. Rev. Moore has done a splendid work since taking charge of the church. He has a splendid congregation and seems to appreciate instruction. We are expecting this church to be represented in the Western convention in July.

This ends my rambling report for two weeks.—Yours for Western convention, C. W. Rodgers, Field Secretary.

ST. PAUL A. M. E. SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Once more the hearts of the little ones were full of glee on Easter Sunday. The Easter program was carried out in its fullest. There was a large attendance of both young and old. It was very inspiring to see and to hear the Easter chorus composed of the young people ranging from two years and upward.

As officers and members of the school we would like to take this time to thank those who so earnestly worked and toiled to help make the Easter exercises such a unique affair. The decoration composed of palms and lilies blended with the occasion of the day. It is hoped that the Easter spent will continue in the hearts of both young and old. Again we wish to thank the parents of the children for their co-operation in the Easter affair, their parents in the audience help to lighten and inspire the hearts and minds of the children. We only hope that the parents will pay the school more frequent visits.

As officers of the school we wish to thank those who had rally cards and who were so prompt to turn them in with such average which totaled up to $36.00.

LETTERS TO 50,000 PASTORS URGING CO-OPERATION

Laymen Urged to Use Business Methods in "Selling the Gospel"

Community features of the plans for the United Simultaneous Lenten Evangelistic Campaign are being worked out in cities and towns throughout the United States, according to Bishop Theodore S. Henderson national campaign director, who gave a report at the meeting of the executive committee of the Interchurch World Movement, Tuesday, March 16. He said that the reports he has received from the field indicate that the ingathering of members on Easter, which is "Join the Church Sunday," will materially increase the numerical strength of the churches all over the country.

Bishop Henderson reported that while many of the churches and denominations had made plans for some special evangelistic efforts, it was easy for them to adopt the programs already made to the plans for cooperative community evangelism outlined in the literature of the Interchurch World Movement. The slogan used in the campaign "Every Christian an evangelist and every church a center for evangelism and community service" expressed the whole purpose of the campaign.

Letters bearing the signatures of Bishop Henderson, Dr. C. L. Goodell, secretary of the Commission on Evangelism of the Federal Council of Churches and the denominational pastors leaders, were sent to 50,000 pastors on the denominational mailing lists.

Other letters were sent by the bishop to 5,000 leading laymen urging them to use business methods in "Selling the Gospel" while other letters were sent to the delegates registered at both the National conference of Church Women at Washington, asking them to do their utmost in their respective spheres of influence to promote the campaign.

Letters urging hearty cooperation with the churches along evangelistic lines were sent to all general secretaries of the Y. M. C. A. by Dr. John R. Mott, and to all the secretaries of the Y. W. C. A. by Miss Mabel Cratty, at the suggestion of Bishop Henderson.

FAMILIES HOMELESS

Horace M. Towner, of Iowa, chairman of the Congressional Committee on Insular Affairs, who visited Porto Rico with a congressional delegation, has seconded an appeal for $1,000,000 for relief work in that country brought to New York by a Porto Rican Commission.

Representative Towner recounts the devastation wrought by the earthquake shocks from which Porto Rico has suffered, and asks private citizens to help the natives rebuild their homes. The entire principal of the $1,000,000 sought will be used for this purpose.

The island has had a succession of shocks in the last ten months, the most recent being recorded on February 11. Many families rendered homeless are still without adequate shelter. Together with other church organizations the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America has endorsed this appeal for funds made by Martin Travieso, Jr., Jose Sabater and Clarence E. Ferguson, Porto Rican commissioners, and contributions may be sent to Alfred R. Kimball No. 105 West Twenty-second street, New York.

VISITS PLANNED

More than 56,000 Presbyterian girls now pursuing college courses will be visited by secretaries of the Committee on Student Work of the Women's Board of Home Missions and the Woman's Boards of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. Before the colleges are visited each girl will be mailed a card and an endeavor will be made to link her with a Presbyterian Church in the neighborhood. Provisions for increase of this work is made in the $19,000,000 campaign for which sum is being begun.

The visits will be for the purpose of impressing upon these Presbyterian college girls the splendid opportunities for Christian service offered in both Overseas and Home service as doctors, nurses, teachers, community workers and home and foreign missionaries.

MET MARCH 15 AND 16

That a League of Churches will take the place and make unnecessary a League of Nations was the note sounded in a majority of the addresses made at the Metropolitan Conference of New York Church Women, which met March 15 and 16 in the Marble Collegiate Church, Fifth Avenue, New York.

To consider fully the message of the Interchurch World Movement, and to obtain the cooperation of the last woman in the last church was declared to be the purpose of the convention, and to this end, leaders of the Movement presented the results of the foreign and home surveys. Several hundred women, representing the religious and missionary thought of greater New York, were present at each of the sessions.

Mrs. Jackson's Epileptic Fits Conquered

Her own story of her remarkable deliverance. New Jersey Chemist offers generous supply of the wonderful remedy free.

No wonder Mrs. Jackson is anxious to have the whole world know what Dr. Kline's Epileptic Remedy did for her. Doctors tried and failed to help her. Fifteen convulsions in three hours is a terrific experience. But Mrs. Jackson is well now. Read how it all happened:

Dr. R. H. Kline Co., 201 White St., Red Bank, N. J.

Gentlemen: About six years ago I was taken with convulsions. I had fifteen convulsions in about three hours. I had five doctors who tried to help me for some time, then I was sent to the hospital and there I laid for three weeks before I got home. When I was in the hospital for four weeks. Then my husband took me home. Every year since that time I have several attacks of convulsions. A little over two years ago when I had four very bad convulsions, at one time, a lady friend told me of Dr. Kline's Epileptic Remedy. I was anxious to try anything, so my husband said to continue it, which I did, and at the present time I never felt better in my life. If this letter will help anybody that has that kind of trouble, I hope they will take your Epileptic Remedy, as I believe it will cure them as it has cured me.

Yours very truly,
G. Jackson

HEADS OF INTER-CHURCH MOVEMENT MEET IN KANSAS CITY

Effort to Complete Organization Plans for Financial Drive in the State

Regional and Iowa heads of the Interchurch World Movement are meeting this week at Kansas City, Mo. in an effort to complete final organization plans for the financial drive in the state, which opens April 25 and closes May 2.

The Iowa quota as announced is approximately $5,000,000. Quotas for the various counties are now being figured and will be given out within the next week.

E. C. Wolcott of Sioux City, regional financial director, is attending the Kansas City meeting, as are Rev. Nelson Wehrhan, state director of the financial campaign, Dr. H. R. Best, field secretary, Robert E. Lewis, associate director general and a few other departmental heads.

Immediately following the conclusion of the conference Rev. Wehrhan will return to Des Moines to take charge of the financial drive.

The Iowa director has already appointed county financial directors, and to them will outline the general plan to be followed in the big drive.

The financial campaign and other phases of the Interchurch World Movement is to be taken up by speaking teams when they visit county conferences April 6 to 9.

During the conferences there are to be life service meetings for young people in every town in the state of 5,000 upward.

The young people will be asked to take a more active part in church work and to endeavor to interest more young people in the work.

Rev. W. P. McCormick of Des Moines is in charge of the life service department in Iowa and has asked that a special effort be made to carry out a program of merit during the conferences.

Denominational leaders are preparing to speed up their work, and to concentrate on matters that will lead up to the financial campaign.

HOLD GENERAL CONFERENCE

Inquiry directed to various churches by the Department of American Religious Education, Interchurch World Movement, shows that a number of denominations are thinking seriously of establishing vacation Bible schools during the summer.

Northern Baptist recently held a general conference at Philadelphia where the subject was discussed.

Dr. Thomas S. Young, former State Director of Sunday School and Young People's Work in Colorado has been appointed Director of Vacation Bible School work under the religious Education Department of the American Baptist Publication Society. Presbyterians have appointed J. S. Armentrout, a member of their staff of Religious Education, to promote these schools for their denomination.

It is the purpose of the Baptists to institute intensive training courses for workers in every Baptist seminary and training schools this summer as well as at other central points.

Pleasant Hill Christian Church, at Wingate, Ind., is cited by an Interchurch World Movement Surveyor as an example of what a small church can do to overcome difficulties. The congregation numbers 150.

Two years ago the church had a $1,400 debt, and a half-time pastor to whom it paid $500 a year by the hardest effort.

Last year it paid the pastor $1,500, furnished a parsonage rent free, and gave $300 to foreign missions and $500 to other mission work.

RESUME PRAYERS

Prayer periods have been inaugurated at the New York offices of the Interchurch World Movement, No. 45 West Eighteenth Street. At twelve o'clock each day the ringing of the bell puts an end to the clash of typewriters, work ceases, and one brief moment is given over to prayer and relaxation. At the close of the period the bells sound again and the busy hum of the workers is heard once more.

Every Friday the prayer period is supplemented by a fifteen minute devotional service, when the entire staff on each floor assembles for a hymn, a brief talk and a prayer.

Though prayer periods have been ordained for the offices since the beginning of the Interchurch World Movement carpentry work, moving of departments, and unsettled conditions interrupted their observance for a time. Now they have been resumed.

Notes.

In the county in Wyoming, the superintendent of schools while making inspection visits in the county, found children in two schools who had never heard the name of Christ, says a surveyor for the Interchurch World movement. The population of the county is 9,500 and the church membership 807.

Rev. J. P. Linn of Iowa State college at Ames, Ia., has accepted the position of county work secretary of the Interchurch World Movement.

The Presbyterian denomination has released Rev. Linn for this work, after which he will return to his duties at the college.

Third Baptist church on Thirteenth street between Main and Harrison street. The Easter services at the Third Baptist church were great all day. Our pastor, Dr. Nickolson preached a wonderful sermon at 11 a. m. and serving communion at 1 p. m. the Holy Spirit was felt.

Three p. m. a cantata entitled "Hail Joyful Morn," was so beautifully rendered by thirty children from the Sunday school. The Cantata in every detail portrayed the glad tidings of Easter. Some special solos were given by Miss Thelo Stocker and Miss Elizabeth Nickolson of which their voices were so sweet. Too much praise cannot be given to the many children who participated in the exercises. The church was beautifully decorated in Fuchs, notted plants, lilies and linen covers. Mrs. J. Smith did her best in training the children. The Sunday school is making rapid progress under its superintendent, Bro. G. Gunn.

At 8 p. m. the choir gave a very nice musical with a special reading from Mrs. K. Monroe. The anthems rendered by the choir were in keeping with Easter. Mrs. Tate did her best in training the singers. The collections for the day were very good.

On the third Sunday will be home-

COUNCIL BLUFFS ITEMS.

The Pastor's Aid gave a grand musical and concert at the Bethel A. M. E. church Tuesday night, March 30, which proved to be a great success. They cleared $52.35. We must say that the Pastor's Aid under Mrs. T. L. Hawthorn is doing good work. Owing to the illness of our musician, Mrs. Florence Frankle, Mrs. Estella McCoy filled the vacancy. Mrs. Gertrude E. Rhonence conducted the program. Among the numbers was an address by Frederic C. Williams, business manager of the Monitor. The supper was in charge of Mrs. P. J. Richardson, Mrs. A. Gamble, Mrs. Lyons and Mrs. Rodriguez.

On last Wednesday night, Mr. and Mrs. P. Farmer entertained a number of their friends at a dinner party in honor of the latter's birthday at their home 3201 4 avenue.

The Wednesday and Friday night choir meetings are doing a great work with the young people. They will begin rehearsals for a musical at once.

The Easter program was conducted by Mrs. E. H. Madison, superintendent of the Sunday school. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and birds. Rev. Elder W. A. Moore made some timely remarks on behalf of the young people and the church. The Easter offering amounted to $11.12.

Morning services were well-attended Sunday by both Methodist and Baptist congregations.

Rev. M. R. Rhonence and wife and son Charles were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Ferman, 3215 4 avenue at dinner Easter Sunday.

The many friends of Mrs. Florence Frankle are glad to know she is improving. Mrs. Mamie Brown and Miss Desie Johnson are both better. We are praying for them all. Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Madden and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Payne are ill.
