National Negro Business League Plans Big Meeting

John Wanamaker and Gov. Spruill Will Welcome Them to Philadelphia Meeting.

Washington, D. C., July 16.—Special: Elaborate preparations are being made for the forthcoming meeting of the National Negro Business League, the regular business sessions of which will be held in Dunbar theater, Broad and Lombard streets, Philadelphia. This building cost over $100,000 and is owned and controlled by colored people.

Dr. Emmett J. Scott, secretary of the National Negro Business League, is now busily engaged in formulating the program of the coming meeting which is to be held in Philadelphia, August 18, 19 and 20, 1920. Persons intending to be present are requested to send early notices of such intention to the national headquarters of the National Negro Business League, 1816 Twelfth street, North West Washington, D. C.

WHITE PROFESSOR DECLARES COLORED PEOPLE ARE NO LONGER DEPENDING ON WHITE PAPERS FOR NEWS CONCERNING THEM OR TO TEACH THEM HOW TO THINK.

Robert T. Kerlin, white, professor in the University of Virginia, says so in an article on colored newspapers printed in the June 29 issue of the New York Evening Globe.

According to Mr. Kerlin, there are four hundred colored newspapers published in the United States and they are more widely read than ever before. There is no lack of evidence that the Negroes are going to their own papers for information and guidance. Those who live in small communities and rural districts have papers come to them from large cities, "preferably northern cities, where the editors dwell in the safety zone."

"In my own Virginia town, where the colored population is less than one thousand, I found the New York Age, Afro-American, Baltimore, the Chicago Defender, the Boston Guardian, Crisis, Washington Eagle, Richmond Planet and the Southwestern Christian Advocate, the first two being among the ablest and most outspoken papers in the country, but all of them are radical. Apparently colored people of today will have nothing to do with any other kind. Disbelieve White Papers."

"To these and others of like quality they are going for trustworthy reports of 'Negro Uprisings,' 'Negro Riots'—so-called by the white press—and lynchings and wrathful denunciation of them. The colored press is now the rival of the colored pulpit in influence. There are signs that it is coming into the first place."

"Shortly after the Washington riot, I decided it would be a good thing to study the Negroes' reaction to that occurrence. Therefore I sent to all the weeklies for sample copies which were readily submitted to me. I selected about seventy from the hundreds and subscribed for them. The generalization and assertions in these articles are based upon careful reading and re-reading of these facts of weeklies and from eight or ten monthly magazines. Eighty-five percent of my newspapers are published south of the Mason and Dixon line.—The Afro-American.

DR. GREGG OF FLORIDA IS ELECTED HEAD OF WILBERFORCE

Wilberforce, O., July 16.—At the meeting of trustees of Wilberforce university recently, President W. S. Scarborough was deposed as president, and Dr. Gregg, president of the Edward Waters college at Jacksonville, Fla., was elected president to succeed him. Dr. Gregg was the choice over Dr. Scarborough and Dean Gilbert Jones, son of Bishop Joshua H. Jones, by a large majority of the ninety-two members of the trustee board present. The meeting of the trustees was marked by considerable log-rolling, but the share-up came when Bishop Connors, of Arkansas offered an innocent resolution committing the members to the candidacy of Senator Harding for president. This aroused many to oppose it, and especially members from Ohio, who declared that politics should have no place in the meeting. Major W. T. Anderson, retired captain in the United States army, in opposing the resolution, stated that there were many Ohioans who were not Hardingites, and they were opposed to a voteless representative from the south attempting to inject politics into the board, and to commit colored Ohioans. The resolution was unanimously tabled.

It is expected that the board of the combined normal and industrial department of Wilberforce, which is maintained and operated by the state, will elect a successor to Superintendent Joiner as a meeting to be held this Friday. Prof. Deatner former member of the faculty, but now with the public school system at Cincinnati, and Prof. Russell, democratic postmaster at Wilberforce, and formerly principal of the colored normal and industrial school of Frankfort, Ky., are the leading candidates to succeed Superintendent Joiner.

President Gregg brings to the university ripe experience and great popularity.

Ohio Wins Another Presidency

Tuskegee, Ala., July 15.—Special to Bystander: Miss Hallie Q. Brown of international renown and instructor in Wilberforce university was unanimously elected president of the National Association of Women's Clubs and Miss Marion Wilkins of North Carolina, vice president.

It was due to sentiment aroused by Mrs. Brown that the federation was organized a quarter of a century ago. Mrs. Brown has lectured at international meetings in London and Scotland. The following prominent Iowa women are in the delegation from the Hawkeye state: Mrs. Elnora Gresham, Attorney Gertrude E. Rush, Miss Jessive E. Walker, Mrs. S. Joe Brown, Mrs. Gus Nichols, Mrs. Jennie Johnson, Mrs. Elnora Wells Shepherd and Mrs. Laurence C. Jones.

C. David Houston Writing in the Crisis, Says Whites Can't Make Good.

TUSKEGEE CITED.

Booker Washington's School Pointed Out as Institution That Would Not Accept White Head.

Declaring that colored colleges need "more teaching and less preaching," that it is a "mistake to call a white man to the presidency," and that alumni of colored schools have no share in electing the "air-tight" trustee boards.

C. David Houston, writing in the current number of the Crisis, makes out a strong case against the colored colleges as at present administered. Mr. Houston was formerly a teacher of English at the Baltimore High school, and later head of the department of English at Howard university, which he resigned to accept a headship of a department in the Washington public schools.

The most obvious weakness of the colored colleges, says Mr. Houston, lies in the delusion that the president must be a minister of the gospel instead of an educator, whereby such schools are becoming more and more repulsive to the broad-minded professors.

"It is also a mistake to call a white man to the presidency. Only two types of white men are attracted," he adds, namely "the one whose career is just about spent, and the other who finds his remuneration as president of a Negro college so far in excess of that which his talents can bring him from his own people."

White presidents according to Mr. Houston get themselves good salaries and give large increases to the white professors in colored schools, while the colored professors do the work. Atlanta's prestige has always rested on Dr. DuBois, Fiske's on Dr. Haynes and Howard's on Dean Miller. No white man in these institutions, not even the president, he says, can match these names.

NEWSPAPER PRINT HIGHEST SINCE 1865

Many Papers Being Expensive. While Others are Forced to Abandon Publication.

New York, July 16.—Beginning on Thursday, July 1, newspapers throughout the country began paying the highest price for newsprint paper bought under contract, since civil war days.

Shortly after the world war newspapers were paying less than 2 cents a pound for newsprint paper. For the first six months of this year the universal contract price has been 4 1/2c per pound f. o. b. mill, but beginning July 1, the price of newsprint has advanced to 4 1/2c for July, August, and September, and to 6 1/2c for October, November and December, increase of approximately 33 per cent.

Range is Higher. In the open market paper sold in carload lots without contract, ranges from 11c to 20c per pound, f. o. b. mill. Indications are that the price for 1921 will be still higher. Many of the small papers, depending on open market quotations, are being driven into bankruptcy and a number of publications have been forced to suspend.

The excessively high price of newsprint paper is forcing many newspapers through the country to advance subscription prices.

Prices Advanced. In New York the Hearst Sunday paper is selling for 10c per copy. The morning and evening Hearst publications are selling for 3c a copy. The Globe, the Post and the Mail have also advanced to 3c. In Chicago the Hearst publications have been advanced to 10c for Sunday and 2c for daily papers.

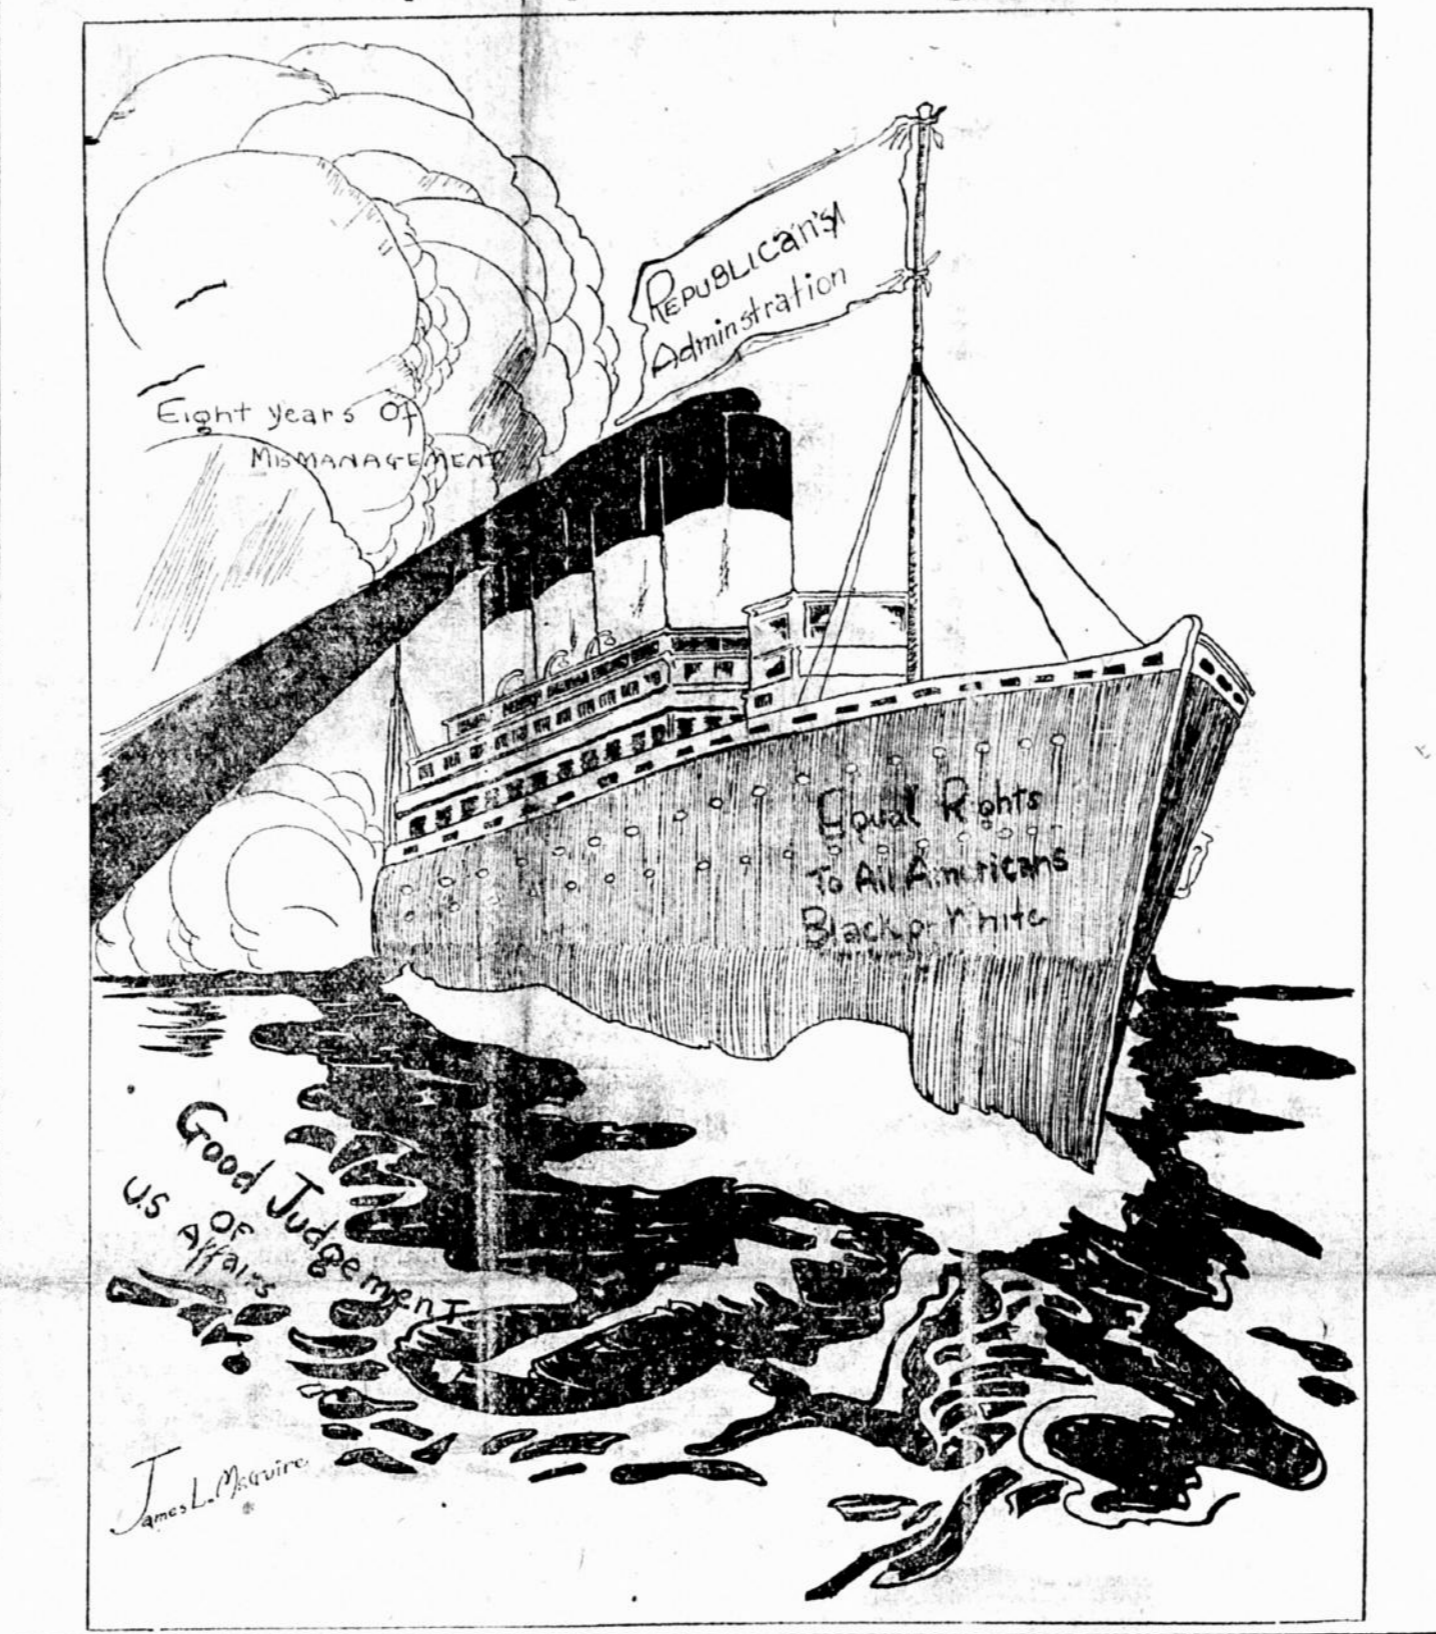

Many cities throughout the country also have increased the price of daily papers to 3c per copy and 10c per copy for Sunday papers, while in the south and west some small papers are being sold for 5c a copy.

Danville, Ky., July 16.—The Torchlight of this city, makes editorial comment in its issue of last Tuesday on the recent decision of the United States Supreme court upholding the power of a state to enact and enforce a "Jim Crow" law. It says in part: "This decision hurts business and in the end will work general hardship upon the whole people regardless of color or condition. It hurts business by perpetuating the discrimination and injustices that are slowly but surely driving the Negro population from the south. When the Negro leaves the south in large numbers the south experiences a shortage of production and the output of raw materials appreciably lowers the volume of business done. Southern planters and merchants become land poor, the land instead of producing the staples grows up in weeds and jungles. These are the logical results of the action of Supreme court in upholding

HEALTH OF NEGROES IN DETROIT IS IN DANGER

Detroit, Mich., July 16.—One thousand and Negroes are coming into Detroit every week. This is the estimate of Forrester B. Washington, who is making a comprehensive survey of the social and industrial conditions among the large number of these people who now are lodged in this city. Washington's survey reveals that the living conditions in which these emigrants are forced to abide are wretched in the greater instances, and constitute a health menace that should be remedied at once. He advocates the erection of workmen's homes in large numbers as one of the means of solution.

ST. PAUL A. M. E. SUNDAY SCHOOL NOTES

Sunday, July 11 was an ideal day and the school was like the day in attendance and behavior. There was a goodly number of grown people present to our delight, and some visitors among them were: Mrs. Louise Greenup of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, who is one of the sub-district superintendents of the Des Moines district.

The primary department broke all previous records for attendance. There should have been more intermediate and senior children in attendance.

We are glad to note the way in which the girls and boys behave themselves around and in the church. This reflects credit on the parents, the community and the race.

There is a growing tendency among our people to dishonor the church that is the building, and also the worship and some go so far as to think and speak lightly of God himself.

The individual or the race or nation that has sunk to that depth of depravity so that to them there is nothing sacred, they are more to be pitied than cursed.

The normal department will be supervised by Attorney S. Joe Brown. The 1921 class will start Sunday at the regular Sunday school hour in the normal room. Come and enroll.

We are beginning arrangements for a great picnic for which the date has not been decided on. Watch the Sunday school notes.

We missed our choir leader on July 11. He was in Buxton preparing to move here. We welcome Mr. and Mrs. London as we consider them a valuable addition to our community. They are always ready to help in their quiet unassuming way.

CURED HER FITS

Mrs. Paul Gram, residing at 916 Fourth Street, Milwaukee, Wis., recently gave out the following statement: "I had suffered with Fits (Epilepsy) for over fourteen years. Doctors and medicine did me no good. It seemed that I was beyond all hope of relief, when at last I secured a preparation that cured me sound and well. Over ten years have passed and the attacks have not returned. I wish everyone who suffers from this terrible disease would write R. P. N. Lepso, 194 Island Avenue, Milwaukee, Wis., and ask for a bottle of the same kind of medicine which he gave me. He has generously promised to send it post-paid, free, to anyone who writes him."—Adv.

No. 1 will have its annual sermon at Corinthian church Sunday evening, July 25 at 8 p. m. Rev. G. W. Robinson will preach the sermon.

Thirty-five young people responded to the call of Mrs. H. R. Graves last Monday evening at Corinthian church. The purpose was to organize a glee club. After a thorough explanation of the object of the club the following officers were elected: Mrs. M. Crawford, president; Miss Brown, secretary; Mrs. Spriggs, treasurer; Professor Malcolm Griffith, organist; Mr. H. R. Graves, director. We hope to have a large number out on next Monday evening at Corinthian church at which time other officers will be elected. This is a Cosmopolitan club and any talented person, musical or dramatic may join. Watch for our first appearance with a chorus of fifty persons in the near future.

LEARNING HOW TO LEARN.
(By George Matthew Adams.)
Wendell Phillips once said that the biggest brains don't go to congress.

What he meant was that knowledge is not a thing to be weighed nor to be measured by titles of honor. Learning is a thing of appreciation.

Every year thousands upon thousands of men and women are graduated from colleges. And it is to the credit of any nation that such a process goes on. But it took a man trained in the backwoods to pen on the back of an envelope the immortal Gettysburg speech—a few hundred words that, for pureness of expression and nobility of thought, have never been surpassed.

Lincoln had learned to learn. The biggest thing that any college education can do for anyone is to teach them to think. And if a man begins to think, he learns how to learn.

Learning is the most serious process that the brain is put to. A man has to be downright in earnest. He has to want to learn in order to learn.

The mind in youth is very plastic. It's like the soft clay that the sculptor uses to form his models. It is then that it is easiest to learn to learn. But a man is never too old to learn. Elihu Burritt learned himself more than forty languages while he pushed the bellows at his forge, and so proficient did he become that he was known far and wide as the "learned blacksmith."

LESSON FOR JULY 18

DAVID SPARES SAUL'S LIFE.

LESSON TEXT—1 Sam. 26.
GOLDEN TEXT—Love your enemies, do good to them that hate you.—Luke 6:27.
ADDITIONAL MATERIAL—1 Sam. 24
PRIMARY TOPIC—The Man Who Was Kind to His Enemy.
JUNIOR TOPIC—"Paying Back."
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Overcoming Evil With Good.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Treatment of Wrongoers.

I. Saul in Pursuit of David (vv. 1-3).
Ever since David took his departure from Jonathan (ch. 20), when that crowning act of friendship was shown, Saul had been hunting him as a wild animal. He now pursues him with 3,000 chosen men. David flees from place to place, hiding as an outlaw. Sometimes he is in the enemies' country doing disreputable things. This is the period of his schooling which fitted him to be the eminent king that he was. It was a bitter period in his life, but God sent him to this school and adapted the instruction to his needs. David never could have been the broad man that he was, had he not been prepared in this crucible of bitter experience. His wading deeply into trouble adapted him to write psalms suited to all men, in all ages, and under all conditions. His life swung through the arc of human experience, touching the highest point of fame and dipping to the depths of sorrow and shame. Then, personally, he learned many lessons, among which may be mentioned:

1. His own weakness. It was necessary that he be humbled under the sense of his infirmities. Unless a man has learned this lesson, sudden elevation to power will utterly ruin him.

2. His dependence upon God. David's many miraculous escapes caused him to realize that the Lord had redeemed him out of his adversity. His hiding places in the rocks gave him much of his imagery for the psalms.

3. He learned the country and people over which he was to rule. By knowing the grievous afflictions which Saul had heaped upon the people he could sympathize and remove them.

4. He learned the magnanimity of self-control. This a man must know before he can be a true king. He that ruleth his spirit is better than he that taketh a city (Prov. 16:32).

II. Saul in David's Hands (vv. 4-20).
1. David sends out spies (v. 4). This he did to find out as to whether Saul was come in very deed.

2. David at Saul's camp (vv. 5-11). He took with him Abishai and went in the night to where Saul was sleeping. Abishai asked to be allowed to kill Saul, but David forbade him because Saul was the Lord's anointed.

3. David takes Saul's spear and breast of water (vv. 12, 13). Once before at Engedi (ch. 24) David spared Saul's life. Now again he was at his mercy. This he did that he might show tangible evidence to the king that he had no evil intent.

4. David taunts Abner, the king's bodyguard (vv. 14-16). He calls to Abner and taunts him for his listlessness—his failure to watch over the Lord's anointed, the evidence of which is the cruse and the spear in his hands.

5. David reasons with Saul (vv. 17-20). When Saul recognized David's voice, David began to reason with him, showing that he had nothing but good intentions toward the king. He asked that he would show what wrong he had done or what evil intent was in his heart. David is very humble and begs Saul to relent, for surely if he had any wicked purpose he would not have saved his life twice when the Lord had placed Saul wholly at his mercy. David had peculiar regard for the Lord's anointed. He recognized the fact that the Lord had delivered Saul into his hands not to kill, but to save.

III. Saul's Confession (vv. 21-25).
1. He confessed that he had sinned. The sad feature about his confession is that it lacked conviction, for he went right on sinning. This is the great trouble with people. They are willing to confess that they are sinners, but still they go on sinning.

2. He confessed that he had played the fool and erred exceedingly. We see about us daily many using such expressions, but still they go on repeating their sins. David shows his magnanimity of spirit, however, in delivering the cruse and the spear to Saul's servant. He knew that Saul's confession was not genuine, so he was afraid to go near. He knew the cunning of that old fox. He still appeals to Saul's kindness to him, and they part never to meet again.

Consider Faults of Others.
No one thing does human life more need than a kind consideration of the faults of others. Every one sins; every one needs forbearance. Our own imperfections should teach us to be merciful.

You will never amount to much unless you take seriously everything you do. The happy-go-lucky fellow who does things in the way, and sooner or later events shove him aside and out of the way.

I don't care what position you hold—even though it is that of an office boy, or a stenographer, or clerk—if you put your heart into your work and learn every day to learn, there are going to be big jobs in the world waiting to receive you with open arms all along the way.

Ready-Made Pie Crust!
Someone has invented a ready-made pie crust that will keep a year. By the evidences that have been encountered it might be judged that many ambitious cooks have been experimenting for a long time with this object in view. There May Be Delay In Moving Your Telephone

If you order your telephone moved next week you may be told to expect a delay in getting it done.

Nearly half a million other telephone users in the United States will move their telephones this month, too. And for all of them many carloads of wire and other materials must be needed.

A general shortage of materials, as well as a lack of sufficient transportation facilities, is holding back factory output and the telephone companies can't get enough supplies. The factories are months behind in their orders.

In this emergency it will be greatly appreciated if you will order the least possible changes in your telephone equipment. And when you need to have something done please let us know as far in advance as possible.
