Abdications of History

Ever since dynasties have existed there are records of kings having abdicated from one cause and another. Far back in the misty past one monarch gave up his throne because he was "wearied with dominion"; another "retired out of preference for the freedom of private life; a third laid down his crown because his schemes failed; still another abdicated in a fit of melancholy; and there are two instances in which kings left their thrones because they were unable to cope with national crises.

TO TAKE CHANCES

The Negro might well look over the candidates that have been nominated by the two leading political parties and determine who in all fairness should receive his vote.

Then in Iowa we have Hon. N. E. Kendall of Albia, republican, and Hon. Clyde L. Herring of Des Moines, democrat heading their respective tickets for governor.

In choosing candidates for whom he votes the Negro must not only determine whether this or that candidate will administer the laws of the state properly but also what is his attitude toward "us" and what influence will he have in the party as a whole.

There are few people in Iowa who do not know Mr. Kendall for as an orator of marked ability he has been heard far and near. His record as a member of the Iowa legislature, as speaker of the house and congressman from his district has been clean. He is aligned with those who offer the best advantages to the Negro race.

Mr. Herring has not been in politics heretofore. His career has been confined strictly to business activities. In that capacity he has been fair to Negroes.

But the unfortunate side of Mr. Herring's case lies in the fact that he is aligned with a party which exists on the doctrine of oppression of the Negro race and is kept alive by men of the type of Hoke Smith and Albert Burlington and Woodrow Wilson. This alone disqualifies Mr. Herring.

Further should Mr. Herring be elected and should a United States senator die during his term it would be up to him to appoint someone to serve until the next general election. A democrat would naturally be chosen.

ST. PAUL A. M. E. CHURCH

The third Sunday in August witnessed one of the most unique meetings at St. Paul in the history of the church. All the colored congregations with their pastors and choirs met and conducted a service in testimonial to Dr. Birt's five years' service in this church and city.

Every seat was taken at the Junior and Senior league last Sunday evening. The topic was well discussed, the music inspiring. All invited.

Mother's meeting Sunday at 5 p. m. True significance of education will be discussed.

The lawn social at Mrs. John Mayweather's was a fine affair.

Rev. S. L. Birt attended the funeral of Rev. S. B. Moore at Davenport and Galesburg, Ill., last Friday and Saturday.

St. Paul's congregation bowed in grief over the passing of Rev. Moore. He was well beloved as presiding elder.

The Roanoke correspondent of the Norfolk Journal and Guide tells the following horrible story of race de-basement and severity.

"God knows its bad enough for our people to pay their money for jim-crow privilege, knowing that they are jim-crowed, and have to sit on the floor, IT'S THE LIMIT, and that's just what the colored people of Roanoke, Va., are doing now to get the chance of seeing a vaudeville show, as every night they go there just the same, and pack the place, sitting on the floor; many take old newspapers with them for their ladies to sit on.

Heroines Templar Crusades.

On Monday, Aug. 23 there was organized the first Inter-State Conference of the Heroines of the Templar Crusades established only four years ago as the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Order of Knights Templar in which the Order of Knights Templar present from the Grand Guild of Missouri, which has Guilds as far east as Massachusetts, as far south as District of Columbia and as far southwest as Texas; from the Grand Guild of Illinois having Guilds all over Illinois and Iowa and from the Grand Guild of Ohio which also has jurisdiction over Kentucky.

This new Masonic Order was the curiosity of all jurisdictions where it did not exist and was compelled to devote much of its time to the conferring of the degree upon prominent Knight Templar and their female relatives who were in attendance and desired to carry the work back home with them.

In this manner the degree was conferred upon sixty-five persons including Past Grand Matron Ruth B. Bright of Colorado, practically all of whom asked for and received commissions from one of the Grand Captains of the three Grand Guilds represented and agreed to institute a Guild of Heroines in their respective communities as soon as they return.

In the Inter-State Conference of the Order of the Eastern Star which has grown to be one of the most largely attended of all the conferences, Iowa was perhaps better represented than in any other, as Past Grand Patron J. H. Garrison of Iowa presided as inter state patron and Mrs. Lizzie Palmer-Berry, formerly of Des Moines, but now Past Grand Matron of New Jersey, as Inter-State Secretary; Mrs. S. Rheumatism A Remarkable Home Treatment Given by One Who Had It. In the Spring of 1918 I was attacked by Malarial and Inflammatory Rheumatism. I suffered as you can see. I tried every remedy, and doctor after doctor, but such relief as I received was only temporary. Finally, I found a remedy that cured me completely, and it has never returned. I have given it to a number who were severely afflicted and even bedridden with rheumatism, some of them 70 to 80 years old, and results were the same as in my own case. I want every sufferer from any form of rheumatic trouble to try this marvelous healing power. Don't send a cent; simply send your name and address and I will send it free to try. After you have used it and it has proved itself to be that long-looked-for means of getting rid of your rheumatism, you may send the price of one dollar, but understand, I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. Isn't that fair? Why suffer any longer when relief is thus afforded you free? Don't delay. Write today. Mark E. Johnson, No. 4826, Durston Bldg., Syracuse, N. Y. Mr. Johnson is responsible.
