SEN. HARDING SPEAKS HERE

Senator Harding Speaks at Coliseum

The largest crowd seen in the Coliseum since President Roosevelt spoke here greeted Senator Warren G. Harding, Republican candidate for president. Hon. Nate Kendall was introduced by Chairman Rawson as the next governor of Iowa who in turn introduced Senator Cummins. Mr. Cummins in a few words made a touching introduction of Mr. Harding. The nominee had his audience with him from the beginning and demonstrated beyond a doubt that he was of presidential caliber. The senator was scheduled to reply to President Wilson's recent letter on the League of Nations. He said in no uncertain words that he was opposed to the present covenant proposal by President Wilson or any other document which surrendered American rights or left any of its rights uncertain. Senator Harding said Wilson had scrapped his own League of Nations, that he realized the difficult circumstances surrounding him after his election, and that in order to bring about some amicable means of insulating an association of nations he would surround himself with the best brains of the nation.

Such questions as "What about the Irish," "Will America be forced to send its sons abroad should the league be accepted as presented by Wilson," were suggested all of which he answered in a clear and forceful manner that was pleasing to his audience. The senator urged the re-election of Senator Cummins because he was one of the most useful men in public life today. The meeting was a huge success and undoubtedly demonstrated that Harding would carry Iowa by a safe majority. The senator left at noon for Omaha.

HIGH COST OF LIVING EDITORIAL PARAGRAPHS

The high cost of living still continues to hold a place in big headlines as well as in the news and editorial columns of the daily papers. The Literary Digest "Topics of the Day" is showing on the motion picture screen numerous well-worded editorial comments on this phase of our living, selected from the press of the world. We believe the following paragraphs "hit the nail on the head."

More old fashioned American sweat will mean less Bolshevism and an early funeral for Mr. High Cost of Living.—Baltimore American.

Some of the cost tags are still ashamed to look an honest consumer in the face.—Toledo Blade.

Wanted: Something that will sharpen American wits so they will cut the cost of living.—Minneapolis Tribune.

Democratic Misrule in Haiti

James Weldon Johnson's investigation in Haiti shows that Vice President Candidate Roosevelt spoke the truth in mountains when he said that he wrote the constitution of Haiti and held its League of Nations vote in his pocket. The following report is taken from the Cleveland, (Ohio) Advocate Editor's note:

New York City, Sept. 30.—About five years during which the invasion of the island of Haiti by United States marines was shrouded in secrecy, silence has been broken by James Weldon Johnson, acting secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, who was sent to Haiti by that organization to investigate. Mr. Johnson's charges have been reiterated by Senator Warren G. Harding in his campaign for the presidency and the state department has had to reply to numerous editorial attacks made by newspapers to which the N. A. A. C. P. investigation supplied facts.

In brief, Mr. Johnson's indictment of the Wilson administration's course in Haiti recites:

1. That the island of Haiti was seized by United States marines and that in five years some 3,000 natives were shot.
2. That the Haitian assembly was dispersed by force at the order of an American officer of marines and that the Haitian republic has been virtually overthrown.
3. That a convention was forced by the United States upon the Haitian government changing the constitution of Haiti, so that Americans could purchase and own land there.
4. That the invasion of Haiti and the conduct of Haitian affairs had been unduly benevolent to the National City Bank of New York, whose vice president, Roger L. Farnham, had represented the state department in Haiti.
5. That the salaries of the president and other officers of Haiti were withheld because the Haitian government refused to turn over the National Bank of Haiti to the National City bank, alleging that an agreement previously made had been tampered with.

The secretary of state in reply to Mr. Johnson's charges published several statements announcing that General Lejeune, commandant of the marines, and Admiral Knapp had been sent to Haiti to investigate. He also insisted the intentions of the United States in Haiti had been "benevolent." Mr. Johnson thereupon replied asking for a congressional investigation of affairs in Haiti and charging that the investigations by General Lejeune and Admiral Knapp would probably result in an official whitewash. Latest advice to the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People indicate that a congressional investigation will be held as a consequence of Mr. Johnson's charges.

Lester G. Fant, a very successful lawyer of Holy Springs, has been employed to defend the estate. One side in the controversy has already summoned twenty-two witnesses.

American Legion Convention at Cleveland

In Session Assembled at Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 27, 28, 29, 1920. September 27, 1920.

The annual session of the American Legion opened at Keith's hippodrome, Euclid avenue, Cleveland, Ohio, Monday, September 27, with a representation of more than four thousand delegates.

The sessions were arranged in program for each day's work as follows: September 27, 1920, reports of National Commander D'Olier, National Adjutant Bolles, National Finance Officer, National Chairman of Post Welfare Work, and the National Committee on By-laws and constitution. Due to composition of proposed amendments to constitution as regards policies and politics, the same tabled to be resumed later.

September 28, 1920.

Continuation of report of National Committee on By-laws and constitution. In the proposed amendment, there was considerable heated debate on that part of the constitution which promulgated that the American Legion stands for "Folies, Not Politics," seemingly it was the intent of Past Commander Lindsey and other of his staunch supporters so as to stimulate the idea of infusing politics. This in its entirety was defeated. The afternoon session was devoted to introduction of distinguished visitors, who made inspiring talks. These distinguished guests were: General Leonard Wood of the American army; Admiral Ferrat of the Royal British navy; General Ferrari of the French army; the National Commander of G.

A letter of Commendation

To the Editor of the Bystander, Sir: Your news item in last week's Bystander under the caption, "Negroes Must Stop Trading at Grund's" was timely and to the point. Not only should Negroes cease trading at Grund's, but they should rapidly build up different business enterprises and industries of their own as has been done and is being done through the large Negro centers of the east and south. In so doing they would have no excuse to trade with the other fellow.

Grund, the Jew, is no different from any other Jew or business white man, who locates in a colored district. They have no interest in the race save what money they can extract from their pockets. Negro public sentiment ought to forbid white people from succeeding in business in Negro districts by refusing to support them, and when we permit them to succeed in our neighborhoods, and permit race enterprises of a similar nature in the same neighborhood to die from the lack of support we are exhibiting a pitiable lack of race consciousness.

Negroes should view it as a religious duty to support their own in every legitimate enterprise; in so doing they are building an economic structure upon which a lasting and enduring superstructure can be built. And the converse is equally true of Negro business men and women, they should make it a point to so conduct their business that criticism would be reduced to a minimum.

A DOUBTFUL SITUATION.

During the primaries the A. F. L. act through the U. M. W. had in its employ a colored man whose duty it was to show the Negro voter why Senator Cummins should be defeated for re-election. The moving cause for this propaganda speaks for itself. That work has not entirely ceased for not only did the force of this man gain a good many votes for Brookhart, but the seed was planted and a certain amount of sympathy is drifting in the direction of Claude Porter, the democratic candidate.

We are merely stating facts as they are and not as we should like them. Mark Sullivan, the great political correspondent found this condition in his travel through Iowa and so stated in an article which appeared in the "Register" this week.

The Bystander is desirous of knowing through the U. M. W. had in its employ this condition especially among colored people. Maybe some of the "race leaders" here have secret instructions. If so the people should know something about them. Has anyone any information?

REGISTER.

Everyone should be interested in the coming election and what the results will be but don't lose sight of the fact that in order to vote every person must not fail to register. Fine advertising space is available for those who wish to be told that because of a failure to register "you cannot vote." Remember, no matter how many times you have voted. You must register in order to vote in November. In other words don't disfranchise yourself.

INCONSISTENCIES.

The Democratic party surpasses anything in the world for inconsistency. The disease begins with President Wilson and descends to the lowest ward healer in Iowa or any other state. Among the many inconsistent positions President Wilson has taken the one that interests us most is his attitude toward suppressed foreign people and his well known attitude toward that class of people in the country of which he is president.

Here in Des Moines several democratic candidates have approached and addressed young colored men during the last few weeks and have asked them to forget party and support this or that local man who is worthy of any voter's assistance because he stood on the principles of democracy in its larger sense to be black or white.

These men know the attitude of the democratic leaders. They ask the support of their local candidate, but remember that some local candidate is supporting your enemy, thus the enemy gets the boost for your vote.

Don't be deceived by these emissaries of Wilson but support men and women who stand for the exponents of principles and ideals that should prevail in America.

THE NEGROES IN POLITICS.

(By W. H. Lowery.)

The Negroes in Des Moines are very quiet during these days of campaigning. With the advent of the women voters, the Negro voting population of Des Moines will aggregate 3,500. To any local candidate, a plurality of 3,500 would not be looked upon as a mean victory.

Political issues today are not as well defined as they were in days gone by. The important issues for debate and were championed by the Republican and Democratic parties respectively. Today we have the labor question to reckon with and let it be known from hence forth that the Negro is becoming a real important factor in the ranks of organized labor. His morning prayer is "Give us this day our daily bread," and while he is praying his eyes are not always closed to temptation. The assurance of bread is a very convincing argument to put before any voter.

The Negro has always been one hundred per cent Republican and we would like to see him continue as before, but like all other men he is susceptible to a change of mind. Now if he only hears one side of the subject and that side presented by men who have aligned themselves with the Democratic party, but still speaking in the Republican tongue, there is a chance for a stampede that would be hard to overcome.

The Negro must be advised, and he must be prepared for registration. State central committee get busy!

(Special to The Bystander.)
(By Osborne Powell.)
Rev. W. W. Williams after thirty-nine years of active service as a minister in A. M. E. church conference preached his farewell sermon on Sept. 19. He took his text from Rev. 6:17, "The great day of his wrath is come, and who shall be able to stand?" He spoke at length of how he had tried to serve God with that untiring feeling, and then plunged into the heart of his text and charged his congregation to get ready when the great heavenly emancipator shall return. "We must," continued the veteran minister, "search the Bible to find a better way to live and serve God, for when we come to the judgment we can meet our Creator with a record, let it not be said that Christ did in vain, it is not hard for me to step down for the younger ministers for I know they will be treading the path my feet has made plain."
Rev. W. W. Williams came into the Methodist ministry under Bishop T. M.

A VOTE FOR THIS TICKET OPENS THE DOOR OF HOPE

Every right and every privilege of Citizenship that the Colored American Enjoys Came Through the Republican Party. Every Reprisal Against His Citizenship, Every Constitutional Privilege He Has Lost Was Taken By the Democratic Party.
The Democratic party, its platform and its candidates have all ignored the twelve millions of colored citizens, who defended the flag in time of war and loaned to the Government one-fifth of their wealth.

BEAR THIS IN MIND
Thousands of colored people who have moved into Northern labor centers from the Democratic South, CAN VOTE, provided they hold the qualifications of other men. The fact that they are colored does not interfere. Tell them of this privilege, and direct them to their county or city chairman of the Republican organization, who will be glad to give them full instructions.
