COOLIDGE COLDLY GREETED

Lincoln-Douglass Birthday Observance

Vice President Elect "Pulls A Boner" Before Atlanta, Ga. Audience

Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 3.—One thousand Negroes from all walks of life gave Vice President-Elect Coolidge of Massachusetts, a cold greeting on his first appearance in this city.

This meeting was held in the First Congregational church. Governor Hugh Corsey presided. Spelman seminary and Moorehouse college provided a musical program.

"I come from the Commonwealth of Massachusetts where there are many interested in your welfare, who have contributed money without end to the upbuilding of those institutions that you are interested in, in order that you might profit by the very best that they have."

But as great as all that maybe, all that the commonwealth of Massachusetts and your friends there have done for you, does not compare with that which the people around you have done for you; and friendly though the people of Massachusetts have been, and helpful though they may have been, you have no better friends than those who live about you here and contribute always to your welfare, your success and your happiness.

"I want, as an American, to see you increase in your character; to see you progress in your material welfare; to see you continue to exemplify, as you have done the very best there is in the character of men and women, and, in the devotion always whatever your temptations may be—that which you have exemplified from time to time to America, to its flag, to its institutions and to its preservation forever."

This was the closing sentence of Mr. Coolidge's speech. Mr. Coolidge failed utterly to catch any of the present-day spirit of the colored people in the city of Atlanta excepting in his particular reference to the matter of "temptation" to be other than Americans.

Prominent Elk Meets at

(By the Associated Negro Press.) Phoenix, Ariz., Feb. 9.—Harry Lyles, illustrious potentate of the Colored Shriners of Arizona, was shot and killed, Tuesday night by an unknown assassin.

Eight hundred dollars in reward have been offered for the arrest of the criminal. Five hundred dollars by his employer, C. H. McVey, manager of the Mountain States Telephone company and $300 by Rev. T. J. Sanford, pastor of the African Methodist Episcopal church of which Lyles was a member.

Paid Evangelists Are Under Fire

Baltimore, Md., Feb. 5.—Paid evangelists and revivalists got a black eye at the meetings of the A. M. E. meeting at Bethel church and the Baptist Ministers Conference at Union Baptist church Monday.

"Twenty-five years ago," he said, "Every minister conducted his own revival. Now a days, we are in the habit of turning this work over to somebody else and paying them to do it. Preachers of today raise more money and are more eloquent, but do not preach as efficiently as the older pastors of twenty-five years ago."

The same was followed by Rev. J. C. Love of Montclair, New Jersey, president of the Colored Baptist State convention there before the Baptists. According to Rev. Love, the average evangelist does not believe in the gospel himself and therefore is unfitted to do the work that is done by the church pastors.

WatchFails To Wake Dead

Miami, Fla., Feb. 5.—Joe Thomas, an aged Negro, got into trouble today through failure to make good a contract to bring back to life the husband of a Negro woman. She said she gave him $15 and her husband's gold watch for the job.

Thomas said he buried the time piece at the grave to raise the sleeper, but it didn't work. The court said it looked like false pretenses and bound Thomas over.

To Form Commercial Body

Des Moines colored people will hold a mass meeting Thursday night at the Center Cafe, to organize a body which will have as its purpose the promotion of better business conditions.

Colored Women To Attend Susan B. Anthony Memorial

It is possible that from this year on, the 15th of February will be set aside as Women's Independence Day. It is the anniversary of the birth of Susan B. Anthony, whose work laid the foundations not only for the political freedom of the women of this country but for their right to education, economic independence, and every kind of public life.

This year the day will be celebrated by the unveiling of a memorial statue to the three suffrage pioneers, Miss Susan B. Anthony, Elizabeth Cady Stanton, and Lucretia Mott. The statue has just been completed by Mrs. Adelaide Johnson, and represents the heads of the three leaders. It is to be presented to the National Capitol. In the ceremony of tribute, all the great national organizations of women in the country will take part, including the National Association of Colored Women's Clubs. It is fitting that all women should be represented when all women have profited by the work of the early leaders, and practically all organized women in the country aided in the long campaign which so recently ended in victory.

Hiatt Denies He Fought Negrass

Frank Hiatt, discharged as a jailer by Sheriff Robb gave his version Saturday of the trouble that led to his dismissal. Hiatt says he was attacked by three Negro women in the county jail. Ethel Williams, a Negrass, struck him in the face, he says.

Hiatt says he acted in self defense to enforce rules of the jail. He also asserts he refused to resort to certain methods asked of him and that he made no fight to stay as he was dissatisfied.

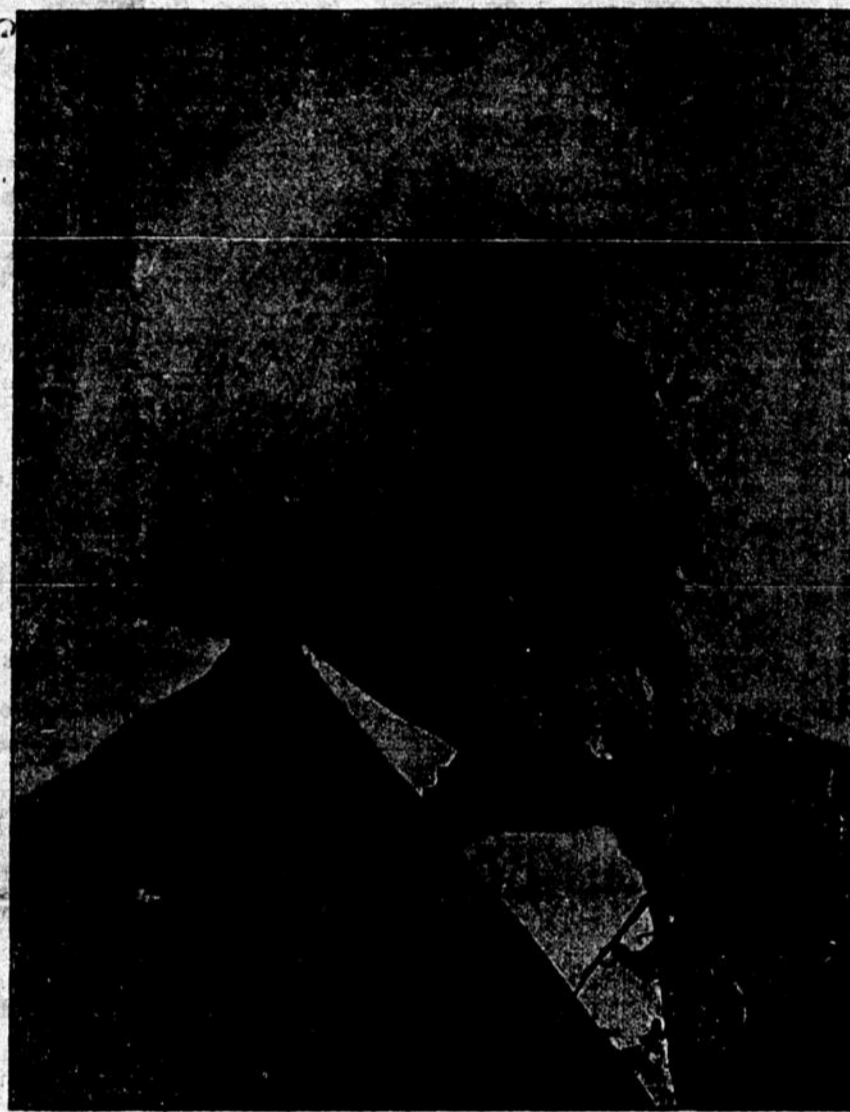

Negro Slayer Hanged To Sign Post By Mob

Plaquemine, La., Feb. 3.—George Worner, Negro, was shot and dangerously wounded Numa Tiercut, a rice planter, Monday, was taken from jail at Port Allen last night by a mob and hanged to a sign post near the scene of the shooting. Tiercut is not expected to live.

Fourth Annual Convocation of Howard University School of Religion to be Held This Month.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 9.—The Fourth Annual Convocation of the Howard University School of Religion to be held February 22, 23, 24, 1921, will devote itself to the discussion of outstanding problems. The Convocation will seek to answer the questions: "Can the White and Black and Yellow and Red and Brown races live as brothers in a common world? Are social classes and castes permanent lines of cleavage between men?"

Apes From Ceylon. Apes mentioned in the Bible in 1 Kings 10:22, and I Chronicles 10:21, were brought to Palestine from Ceylon, the same country which supplied ivory and peacocks.

Frederick Douglass "Cedar Hill" To Be Restored

Buffalo, N. Y., Jan. 31.—A few weeks ago, we learned that the name of Frederick Douglass had been rejected for the Hall of Fame and many of our men and women felt very bad because this illustrious man had not been chosen. We have the opportunity to place his name forever in the Hall of Fame at Anacostia, D. C., by making his home so beautiful that visitors from all over the world will make a beaten path to "Cedar Hill."

Four years ago the Trustee Board of the Douglass Memorial Home sought the help of the National Association of Colored Women and in ten months we paid off the mortgage and saved the home from any further embarrassment. We did not restore, we simply redeemed, then the war came on and we could not finish the job. I called for ten thousand dollars for restoration, and during these years, in addition to wiping off the mortgage, we have raised an additional sum towards the restoration of four thousand dollars. To completely restore the home, at least six thousand dollars is needed, and today we are sending out what we hope will be the last appeal to Club women and race men and women to fittingly celebrate the birthday of our illustrious Douglass by appropriate exercises, and by raising as large a sum as possible.

Every organization or individual that contributes $25.00 will have their name written upon the parchment that will hang forever upon the walls of the home, thus showing to our children the names of men and women who desired to make of Cedar Hill our Hall of Fame. Mrs. C. J. Walker was the largest contributor and to her memory a special tablet will be erected when the home is restored.

The old Board of Tuskegee will meet in Washington, March 3rd at the call of their president. The Board representing the National Association of Colored Women will meet in Washington, March 5th, 1 P. M., at Cedar Hill. We desire that both boards will meet the public on the afternoon of March 5 from 2 to 5 P. M., and every colored man and woman who comes to Washington for the Inauguration may consider this as the invitation to journey to this historic place, and here let us again receive inspiration by walking through the rooms made hallowed by the immortal Douglass.

Piney Woods' Representative In The West

Miss Myrtle P. Williams representing Piney Woods Country Life School, Braxton, Miss., delivered an interesting address Sunday evening before the Missionary Society of First A. M. E. church. Miss Williams, a pupil of this same school, is donating her services to the propagation of the worthy cause—the social, moral and industrial education of the race in what term, the black belt. She brings with her strong endorsements from most influential citizens of Mississippi. Piney Woods School is doing for its state what Tuskegee is doing for Alabama. The school is non-sectarian. —(California Eagle, Pasadena, Cal.)

Harding Cook In Movies

Washington, D. C., Feb. 4.—How strawberry shortcake, hot rolls and other delectable morsels will be prepared in the White House after March 4 was demonstrated before an admiring throng of fellow church members tonight by Inez McWhorter, veteran Negro cook of the Harding household. For the benefit of all aspirants in the high art of culinary who could not view the operations, Inez demonstrated in front of a movie camera, mixing the dough and latter applying the strawberry trimmings to the cake crust with those deft and facile fingers which ever mark the consummate artist.

Des Moines Branch of the N.A.A.C.P. To Hold Public Exercises.

Saturday, February 12, 1921, will be known all over by loyal race men and women as Douglass Memorial Day. Send all contributions quickly to Mrs. J. C. Napier, 120 Fifteenth Avenue, North, Nashville, Tenn., that she may have her report for us by March 5, 1921.

The annual Lincoln-Douglass birthday observance of the Des Moines Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People will be held in Union Congregational church, located at the corner of Tenth and Park streets, Saturday evening, February 12, and is expected to be one of the largest affairs of the kind in the history of the local chapter. Hon. Benj. J. Gibson, a former member of the State Senate, an ex-member of the Iowa National Guard, who saw service on the Mexican Border; a veteran of the World War, who won the rank of captain by meritorious service and who recently became Attorney General of Iowa, following his triumphant election last November, will give an address dealing with the life of the Emancipator.

Mr. J. Q. Lindsay, who won honors and a captaincy during the late great war and who recently was appointed Deputy Sheriff by Chaplain-Sheriff, Winifred E. R. Robb, the first Negro to be so honored, will eulogize Douglass.

Other numbers on the program will be a reading by Miss Marvel Blackburn and a vocal solo by Mrs. Harry Noel. The Rev. W. H. White will give the invocation and the Rev. W. H. Griffin the benediction. Dr. J. A. Jefferson, president of the Des Moines Branch will preside. Let every Negro who appreciates the great service rendered the Race by Lincoln and Douglass show it by attending these exercises to be held to honor their birthday. Admission free.

Editorials

(By Mrs. Elbert R. Hall)

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

Public opinion has become pretty generally crystallized into the belief that newspapers of the race have become the "Voices of the Negro." This being true, the nation at large turns to our publications to get our point of view. The standard of the Negro is raised or lowered in the opinion and knowledge of the general public, by the standard of our publications. Therefore, the solemn responsibility resting on publishers must be thoroughly recognized by all, and every ounce of effort expended must count for something worth while.

A MAN FOR THE AGES

There is a perennial interest in the name and memory of Abraham Lincoln. His simplicity of character, his sincerity of motive and his humanity are the attributes which make him indeed "A Man for the Ages." His life history is of the most recent and most delightful in Irving Hatchelder's book "A Man for the Ages." It is delightfully written and in it you come to know Abraham Lincoln in the friendly, kindly way, that you come to know a neighbor living next door. There is nothing particularly dramatic about it; it is a plain narrative of pioneer life with Abraham Lincoln as one of the characters. Because it rings true, you instinctively know that the portrayal of Lincoln's life and character must be a real one. The incident of his love for Anne Rutledge and her death is an interesting feature of the book. The picture of Mary Todd and their courtship is so characteristic of a man of the Lincoln type, that this, too, gives every evidence of truth, if not of romance.

When you close the book, after having read it, you feel your friendship for Lincoln. Heretofore one may have admired and loved him for his sterling virtues and for all he gave to his country, but this book, more than any other, makes him your friend in a near and personal way.

Incidentally the book gives one of the best pictures of pioneer life recorded anywhere. Through all of its pages you live the frontier life.

DOUGLASS—GREAT REFORMER.
Saturday we honor the memory of one who, in the estimation of the American Negro, stand without a peer among the leaders of his race and ranks with the great orators, reformers and statesmen of history—Frederick Douglass. He was supposed to have been born in February, 1817; but no one knows the date of his birth or his father's name. Such trifles were seldom recorded of slaves. In accordance with the custom which has prevailed since his death, his birthday has been commemorated on the same day as that on which homage is paid Lincoln.

On Saturday throughout the Union, the colored people will again call to mind this great character, who gave the greater part of his life in the cause of freedom for an enslaved race and in the struggle to make America a better and safer place in which to live. Time can neither darken nor dim his memory throughout the days of this and succeeding generations, but it is on his birthday that we should get closer to him and realize the great debt that we owe him.

Douglass was like Lincoln, a fighter and not discouraged by defeat. He forged ahead despite his handicaps and gained honors and office against great odds.

BUXTON ITEMS

(Isabelle Smith.)
The community meeting Sunday was certainly a splendid meeting. Mr. Hatchelder gave a splendid talk. The B. Y. P. U. is improving fast. Mr. R. F. Baker's daughter is visiting him this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Gains and sons have gone to Hot Springs for a short stay.

Mrs. Rosa Brown has returned home from Minnesota from the burial of her grandson.

Mr. Ashby and Mrs. Jenkins are improving very slow.

The service at church Sunday was well attended. Two were added to the church.

The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary societies are still doing good work.

On Sunday, Jan. 23, Mr. Bruce W. Tallman spoke at the community meeting. He spoke on the general subject, "Thrift," stressing the particular point of "Sharing with Others." Mr. Tallman is High school secretary of the state Y. M. C. A.

Monday morning, Mr. Tallman visited the schools, and at 1 o'clock, spoke to all the school boys at the Y. M. C. A.

Thursday at 7:30 p. m., the annual meeting of the Young Men's Christian association was held. Along with the regular business, the following men were elected to the board of directors: Allen M. Staten, William Wheels, Dan'l Smith, and L. G. Garrett.

The first monthly union meeting of the Buxton public schools was held in the auditorium of the Y. M. C. A. After a very splendid program by the children, Rev. G. W. Kimble delivered an address. Subject: "The Sides of Life."

As an expression of appreciation for the services rendered to the public schools of Buxton, by Mr. W. L. Hutcherson, the general secretary of the Young Men's Christian association, he was presented with a pair of gold cuff links, and a gold chain and knife, by the teachers and students. The presentation remarks were made by the superintendent, Mr. R. F. Baker, and were as follows:

"Mr. Walter Hutcherson—On behalf of the pupils and teachers of the Buxton school, allow me to present to you this little token, as an expression of our gratitude, for the splendid help you have given us, for your untiring efforts in our behalf. While we know we will never be able to repay you, we are taking this measure of expressing to you our appreciation and esteem. It gives me great pleasure to be able to offer this little memento, to one so worthy, deserving, and capable. And we hope you will accept it in the spirit in which it is given. Conveying the best wishes of all."

R. F. BAKER, Superintendent Public Schools, Buxton, Iowa.

After the presentation remarks by Mr. Baker, the children of Fifth street school gave the following yell:
H—is for Honesty all the way through,
U—is for Unselfishness from head to the shoe,
T—is for Truth he usually speaks;
C—is for Charity he commonly seeks,
H—is for Humility he has always shown,
E—is for Energy, from bone to bone,
R—is for Regularity each day,
S—is for Sincerity to work or play,
O—is for Obedience to Mother or Son,
N—is the Last in HUTCHERSON.

Mr. Hutcherson was very much surprised, and slightly embarrassed; but made a very splendid response; expressing his appreciation, and determination to be faithful to the extent of proving

THE MINISTERIAL-PROFESSIONAL AND BUSINESSMEN'S ALLIANCE

(By Robt. D. Durr.)
This promises to be the strongest organization that has ever been organized in this city. The fact that it includes the ministry is one assurance that it has the strongest support that there is to be found in any community. There is one fact that is undeniable and that is, besides news paper advertising, the thing to shake any business enterprise "Go" is to have the ministers of any community groups of men linked together in one great chain of unity with a oneness of purpose and that purpose to make conditions generally better among our people without question accomplish great things.

One might ask the question what can this organization do? There are many things that it can do! It could urge that the resident districts in which our people live be better lighted. It could demand that the streets where our business enterprises are, be put in creditable order. It can campaign that the colored man in this town when he can't find the thing that he wants at one of the colored Drug Stores go to the other. It can do the same thing in regard to the moving picture theatres, the newspaper and the other institutions that are run by our people. It is disgusting to see a colored man passing a colored man's Drug store going over to one of another race making the extra steps, besides perhaps paying more, taking money away from his own people in face of the fact that they constantly see when a man of the other group gets rich he usually passes us up. Then you hear the same fellow discuss as to why the colored man never does this and that. Of course that kind of a person is hard to change but there are thousands of younger people that should have the right to change before them and this ALLIANCE should do it. They should make their business to first urge that the colored man give the colored man a square deal. If, need be go to the guilty individuals and ask them their reasons for making it a heart-proposition really get next to the things in a definite way. In the words of a noted Negro says: "When I found out that I was black I decided to live as though I was white and force men to look beneath my skin."

On Feb. 3 a number of friends under the leadership of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Creston proceeded to the home of Mr. F. C. Carey of 2415 Oxford street and left him a bountiful supply of groceries and a purse. Mr. Carey has been in poor health for some time and this remembrance by his friends so overpowered Mr. and Mrs. Carey that they were at a loss for words to express their gratitude.

The regular meeting of the Music Lover's Forum will be held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Community Center. The Forum each Sunday renders a fine musical program and all interested in music should avail themselves of the opportunity of attending as many of these gatherings as possible.

On Monday evening members of the H. C. Claybrook Structure club entertained in honor of Mrs. H. C. Claybrook, wife of the pastor of Bethel church, the Rev. H. C. Claybrook. The evening was passed in conversation, music and games with special addresses of welcome by Mr. Summerville and Mr. Clifford Williams. A dainty three course luncheon was served by Miss A. Watkins and Mrs. Drew Williams.

The following item was taken from the Iowa City Press Citizen of February 5, "The Wesley club will meet at the Wesley House, 120 North Clinton street this evening from 7 to 8 o'clock. Y. M. C. A. NOTES.
Work With Boys.
 The work of the Crocker Street Branch of the Y. M. C. A. with younger boys is an appealing and interesting work of the association.
 Over 100 boys are in some way touched and made to feel the influence of the work of this institution. Fifty-three boys from 12 to 16 years of age gather at the "Y" each Wednesday evening from 8 to 9:30 for the purpose of studying the Bible in story form just for boys and at the close of a study hour to enjoy the various games under the direct supervision of the secretary. The secretary is assisted in this special work among the boys by Mr. Maurice Patterson, law student of Drake university, who has volunteered his services for one night each week. Mr. Patterson will also serve as leader of the Boys club.
 At Bethel A. M. E. church a group of boys are under the leadership of Alfonso Spriggs. Another club is being organized among the boys in Chesterfield.
 The high school boys are also being brought under the influence of the Y. M. C. A. Each Thursday night of each week will find a large majority of these boys in the "Y" discussing problems of vital interest to them and thereby helping them to become better men, spiritually, mentally, physically and socially.
 The employed boys are not forgotten. On Tuesday evening this group of boys gather at the Beattie Settlement and games and physical exercises of all kinds are enjoyed by them in the gym.
 Besides these regular club meetings fifty or more boys are thrown under the influence of the Y. M. C. A., because of ever-ready invitation of the secretary that the doors of the Y are open to all boys regardless of whether a member or not. The boys life of Des Moines is a challenge to you. Save the boy today and you make an internal investment for yourself and the world tomorrow.
 No meeting Sunday afternoon Feb. 13 on account of the Y. W. C. A. mass-meeting at St. Paul's A. M. E. church. Be on hand the following Sunday at 4 p. m.

SUNDAY SCHOOL NOTES
 February 6 was unfavorable to a good attendance, but about one hundred children, and grownups, braved the storm and bad walking and were present.
 The lesson for the 6th was a missionary lesson. Half of the time usually used for our regular Sunday school routine was given over to the Women's Mite Missionary society (which society is presided over by Mrs. W. H. Griffin) for the rendition of a program. The program was pleasing and instructive.
 We are exceedingly grateful to those who were present. There have been some things accomplished in the year just past. But there is much more to accomplish. Come over and help us. Our work is to save lives.
 Lesson VII Lessons on citizenship (to be given Temperance application), found Matt. 22:15-22.
 Golden text—Jesus said unto him, thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment, and the second is like unto it, thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself, Matt. 22:37-39. Opening bell, 1:30 prompt.

UNION CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH ITEMS
 Tenth and Park streets, Rev. B. F. White, pastor.
 Although the weather was very inclement both morning and evening services were well attended and a good day was enjoyed. The pastor filled his pulpit at both services. At the evening service the Boy Scout troop of fifty-nine assembled for their annual sermon. The pastor's theme at this time was "The Boy Who Thought," based on John 6:89. The discourse was very much enjoyed by all.
 Good attendance at Sunday school and great interest manifested. Superintendent Shelton is bringing things to pass. Be there next Sunday.
 The Union Missionary society held an enthusiastic meeting at the home of Mrs. J. G. Brown Thursday afternoon. The Union will serve dinner to the public the coming Thursday on Center street.
 The homelike church. Everybody made welcome.

UNION BAPTIST CHURCH.
 The very successful meetings closed last Sunday night with fifty-five persons seeking membership in the church of whom thirty are for baptism. The total number seeking membership since September 1st of last year is now eighty-three.
 Next Sunday, Feb. 13 the pastor will preach the baptismal sermon at the regular morning service at the church. In the evening the hand of fellowship will be extended to all those recently received into the church.
 The baptismal service will be held at Corinthian Baptist church at 2:30 p. m.

NOTES FROM THE M.T.
OLIVE BAPTIST CHURCH
 Rev. G. E. Saunders, pastor.
 It has been some time since we have appeared in the columns of the By-stander. The fault being our own, but we are glad to say that we are still on the job, neither dead or are we asleep since our last appearance. Three members have been added to our flock and the church is alive spiritually, and a new club has been organized by our young people. It shall be known as the White Rose Junior club.
 Our Sunday school is still on the map. Sunday was a very bad day but it did not faze the children from coming to Sunday school. Our Sunday school was full of life as ever. Our home department is progressing through the leadership of the Superintendent, Mrs. Carter and the pastor.
 Our organist who has been confined at home for the last four weeks was able to be with us Sunday.

The White Rose Junior club is planning to give a Valentine social on Monday night, Feb. 14, first, second, and third prize will be given to the person can't be known.
 Our service was well attended Sunday considering the bad weather. Our superintendent was not present Sunday on account of illness. We hope with our prayers she will recover.
 We shall be glad to see you any time at the Mt. Olive Baptist church. Take the Scott street car and get off at Fourth and Allen or Fourth and Scott streets. The church is between the block.
 Preaching services at 11 a. m. Evening service at 7:30 p. m. Sunday school at 1 to 2 p. m. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening. Mission Wednesday afternoon at 2:30. Come, you are welcome.
