DON'T TRY TO FOOL ME

Clarence Darrow, nationally known criminal lawyer was scheduled to appear in Des Moines during the month of May as one of the speakers before a conference of Social Service Workers, on the subject of "Crime Prevention," sometime ago in discussing the farm situation Clarence Darrow chose to lay the blame for the ills of the farmer on the farmer himself. Probably in discussing the farm situation Darrow was out of his atmosphere. But because Darrow criticized the farmer, pressure has been brought upon the officials of the Social Service Congress and Darrow's contemplated appearance has been scratched from the list.

It is hard to make me believe that Clarence Darrow an expert on the subject of "Crime Prevention," would be prevented from addressing a conference of Social Service Workers on the ground that he is in error on his farm views. Farming is not a social service subject, the Negro is.

Many States on Lynch List

1926 HAS BAD LYNCHING RECORD

Washington, April 8.—Marked increase in mob murders during the last year was a great shock to the churches in their campaign for a lawless land, according to a statement accompanying the Honor Roll of states free from lynching in 1926, made public today. This is the fifth annual Honor Roll issued by the Commission on Race Relations of the Federal Council of Churches. A direct challenge to redoubled efforts to arouse public opinion against lynching, is the way church leaders sum up the situation.

Parisian Perfume Shops
Paris is said to have more perfume shops than all other cities in the world combined. There are 10,000 perfume establishments in Paris, and about 15,000 hair-dressing shops which carry perfume as a side line.

Victim of Auto Collision Dies at Broadlawn

H. L. Williams, 25 years old, was fatally injured when the automobile which he was driving collided with a car driven by H. L. Dunbar, 611 Prospect road, and overturned at Seventh street and Jefferson avenue, Sunday night.

Dunbar, who is a stockbroker, failed to stop after the accident, according to police, but later was arrested and held in the city jail on charges of failing to give aid to an injured person and failing to report an accident.

Williams was taken to Broadlawn General hospital in the police ambulance early this morning, where he died Tuesday.

Dunbar was going north on Seventh street when Williams, driving at a high rate of speed, struck the right rear side of his car. Dunbar said at police headquarters. His car swerved to the left side of Seventh street, ran over the curb, knocking a chip from a telephone pole, and went across two lawns before he was able to steer it into the street again, he said.

Williams' automobile overturned, pinning him underneath. The machine was demolished. Lena Strickland, 1318 University avenue, who was riding with Williams, was unharmed.

Dunbar was arrested on information given by a man who would not reveal his name, who said Dunbar's car was parked in the rear of 611 Prospect road with a fender and running board smashed. Dunbar admitted to police that he was in the accident and did not stop after the collision.

Funeral arrangements have not been definitely settled as yet.

Another Woman Star Marksman

Julia Adams Faces Police Charge After Affray

Mrs. Julia Adams, 27 years old, 326 Southwest Fourth street, was arrested Monday morning in connection with the shooting of John Harris, 123 Willow street, Sunday night. She is being held on a charge of assault with intent to commit murder.

Harris was taken by his friends to Broadlawn General hospital last night with gunshot wounds in his head and hip.

Julia, who has formerly been in police court on liquor charges, said she shot Harris after he had knocked her down.

Hospital attaches reported Harris' condition as fair.

Although police are of the opinion that he will recover, the charges will be changed to murder in the event of his death.

Seven justices of the Court of Appeals, the state's highest tribunal, unanimously decided that Mrs. Rhinelander, daughter of the Negro coachman, had not deceived her husband as to her color. The decision was the third legal defeat suffered by Rhinelander in a fight that is estimated to have cost him $50,000.

Mr. Southard has visited the Offices of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, at 69 Fifth Avenue, and has returned to South Carolina to arrange for new trial for Jim Davis.

In his brief before the State Supreme Court, Mr. Southard pointed out that there was intense excitement in Fairfield County, mobs hunting Jim Davis for several days after the shooting and threatening death to the colored man on sight, that owing to the popularity and influence of the slain white man it had not been possible to procure any local attorney to defend Davis, that despite these facts the court denied a change of venue for the trial.

The State Supreme Court in reversing the conviction, said: "The alleged facts set forth in the petition were indicative of an atmosphere strongly prejudiced to the defendant. It appears also that the Governor had reasons for thinking that the defendant would be unsafe in the Winnebago jail."

Collegians Cause Chinese Troubles

Dr. Paul Tells Truth of the Situation in China

By C. W. Meloy

"Three thousand college men are the brains back of the present Chinese revolt," said Dr. Alexander Paul, missionary to China for the United Christian Missionary Society, speaking before two thousand Drake University students. "These men are graduates from some of the best colleges and universities of America. While studying in America they caught the spirit of democracy which reigns here. They returned to China with the determination to abolish the oppression of the war lords."

"Visiting the southern part of China a year ago, I saw the fields sowed with rice," he continued, "and on returning, seeing the same fields blooming with poppies, I inquired of the farmer why he had changed his crop back to the harmful opium. He then proceeded to tell me how the 'war lords' at a point of a bayonet forced them to raise the opium plants because of the large revenue that the westerners give for it. When the harvest is over the 'war lords' return and take the opium away, after giving the poor farmer nothing for all of his troubles. This is the situation the college men mean to end."

"The slogan, 'China for Chinese,' is the result of 'Boishevik' propaganda," he declared. "The reds have taken advantage of the real condition of the country to sow the seeds of hatred toward foreigners. They are using the same purpose of the young southern leaders; this will merely be a temporary condition. The students wish to unite China into a recognized nation of the world. How could they accomplish this recognition by exterminating foreigners? They could not and do not wish to cultivate the animosity of America; to the contrary they look to America for a square deal in their fight for democracy. They expect the same fair play in diplomatic dealings as they received in their athletic and scholastic activities while on the college campuses of this country," he concluded.

Mrs. Rhinelander to Seek Alimony

New York.—Suits for separation and permanent alimony were under consideration Saturday by Alice Jones Rhinelander, bride of Leonard Kip Rhinelander, wealthy young aristocrat, defeated in the Court of Appeals Thursday in the last effort for annulment of his marriage.

Mrs. Rhinelander and her attorney indicated that papers in a separation suit, charging cruelty and abandonment, would be served on Rhinelander within a few days.

The complaint was prepared the day the jury decided against Rhinelander's plea that his wife had deceived him as to her part Negro blood, but, her counsel said, the suit was not begun pending settlement of appeals.

Mrs. Rhinelander has been receiving $300 monthly as temporary alimony and also has been allowed $6,500 in counsel fees. Legal compulsion for payment of the alimony ceased with Thursday's decision. Whether her husband would continue the payments of his own accord could not be learned.

Samuel P. Swinburn, Mrs. Rhinelander's counsel, said that at the start of the court battle for annulment of the marriage Rhinelander announced that no matter which way the case went some provision would be made for Mrs. Rhinelander.

Seven justices of the Court of Appeals, the state's highest tribunal, unanimously decided that Mrs. Rhinelander, daughter of the Negro coachman, had not deceived her husband as to her color. The decision was the third legal defeat suffered by Rhinelander in a fight that is estimated to have cost him $50,000.

Mr. Southard has visited the Offices of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, at 69 Fifth Avenue, and has returned to South Carolina to arrange for new trial for Jim Davis.

All Organizations Endorse Bystander Effort

The campaign for 3,000 new subscribers opens on April 10.

By that time literature will be in the hands of all workers. This week has been especially encouraging; every citizen with whom we have talked endorsed the movement and is cooperating to make the job a success.

In spite of the fact that most of the members of the advisory committee are busy men and women, they are taking the time to come out to the conferences, advise as to the best methods of getting the work done, and spreading propaganda at every opportunity.

We must all realize that a paper cannot give good service continuously unless its customers pay up. The plan, whereby you may do so by May 31 for just half the regular price should appeal to every citizen both from the standpoint of economy and race pride. If you want the Bystander to succeed, pay your subscription in advance during this drive and urge some one else to do likewise.

Next week the full advisory committee will be announced and the endorsements and cuts of some individuals run.

Arizona Authorizes Another "Brute" Segregated Schools

State Legislature Passes The Walker Segregation Bill Almost Unanimously

Tucson, Ariz., April 6.—The State Legislature, almost unanimously, passed the Walker school segregation bill, calling for separate schools for whites and Negroes in the State of Arizona. The law provides for separate facilities for the public instruction of whites and Negroes in any community in the State where the Negro pupils number 25 or more. That Governor Hunt will ratify the measure, is a foregone conclusion, a dispatch of March 24th pertinently adds.

Merely Renewal of Old Law
The Walker school segregation bill is simply the constitutional renewal of an old law, enacted by the State Legislature in 1912 when Arizona entered statehood. Separate schools flourish under the law throughout the State, there being little hope of its abolishment under the Hunt regime, or with a Democratic majority in the State Legislature, though the measure has often met with vigorous opposition by political and civic clubs throughout the State.

Public sentiment on the question of segregated schools in Arizona is divided among the Negroes.

N. A. A. C. P. RECEIVES LIST OF PAROLE DATES FOR "HUSTON MARTYRS"

New York, April 1.—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, 69 Fifth Avenue, has received from Lieutenant Colonel W. W. Merrill, Parole Officer of the U. S. Disciplinary Barracks at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas the parole dates of the 20 prisoners still confined of the original 64 sentenced after the Houston Riot of 1917.

Sixteen of the prisoners will be eligible for parole on June 9, two on February 29, 1928. Robert W. Bagwell, Director of Branches of the N. A. A. C. P. has consented to serve as First Friend and Advisor of one of the prisoners to be released on parole to New York City.

On August 12, 1928 the War Department reported only 20 of the original 64 still confined with probability that all would have been released in 1928 at the very latest. With the release of the last Houston Martyr, the N. A. A. C. P. will re-began its work in the case which began with the riot, as closed.

Jail and so detained him in the penitentiary practically up to the time of trial. That the defendant could not get paid local counsel at Winnebago to represent him, strongly indicates the state of feeling in Fairfield County against him."

The N. A. A. C. P. has promised its aid to Mr. Southard in a new trial for Jim Davis and Mr. Southard is at present endeavoring to procure local counsel to assist him, change of venue having been granted as a result of the State Supreme Court's decision.

Lookin' 'Em Over

SACCO SHADES MORROW

Boston Wop Shows Plenty Speed

Jimmie Sacco, veteran of 12 years ring experience in the lightweight division, shaded Emil Morrow, welterweight champion of Iowa, in the fastest 10-round leather elting contest ever before witnessed in Des Moines. Both boys went in the ring at each weight. Morrow's title was not at stake. The victor by sheer force of infighting piled up a slight margin against his adversary after the pair had fought the first 6 rounds even. Both men boxed and fought well, weaving their heads, making each miss, smiling at clean punches, and always coming back for more, making the fight a real one and established in the minds of many Iowans the difference in real vegetable eaters and the meat and fat eaters. In Sacco's 12 years of giving and receiving, he has engaged in no less than 150 fights, winning 81, drawing 21, losing 28, no decisions 6, no contest 1; with 11 knockouts and 4 exhibitions, meeting such boys as Tommy Shea, Joe Jackson, Nate Goldman, Tom McGovern, Emil Morrow, and many others. A No. 1 fighter, Sacco tipped the beam at approximately 142 and Morrow at 146.

Two dark skinned warriors of the cauliflower industry, one a Negro the other a Mexican, swapped punches at the Grand Opera House arena before 1,000 fans who heaved the wrath of Jupiter Pluvius at Ottumwa Thursday, March 31, to see Kid Lawson, dubbed by various writers as the Tiger Flowers of Des Moines, a fight Jack Sylvia in ten rounds to a draw. Sylvia, who is strong for the "crotch," persisted in holding Lawson in order to save himself from taking a good lesson in boxing and fighting. After the 6th frame Sylvia's poor condition was very evident and his holding tendencies slowed the fight considerably, while Lawson, always the aggressor, showed no signs of the fight as he was in the pink of condition when he stepped in the ring.

Lawson is expected to box "Lettie" Louie Mays on Promoter Alex Bean's next card in the near future.

OUR SUBSCRIPTION CAMPAIGN

Most of our readers know by this time what we are trying to do with regard to the present campaign. Times are hard in the middle west but at that, most of us are working. We have been trying to devise some means of giving our constituency better service. Something had to be done in order to keep the Bystander through this period and a campaign suggested itself to us.

Somewhat different from others, however, the colored people are interesting themselves to the extent that they, rather than the management, are taking the lead in the work. The Negro Ministerial Alliance of Des Moines has endorsed the movement and the churches are rounding up their forces ready to move off on April 10th with the full backing of the pastors.

Every church in the state at least has been asked to enter the campaign. Letters have been sent each pastor and agent in the cities of Iowa; they have been asked to form committees in these towns in order to put more efficiency in the campaign.

Addressing the Negro Ministerial Alliance of Des Moines in which he expressed his opinion of the movement last Sunday, St. pastor of St. Paul A. M. E. church, said that it was a shame that it was necessary for the Bystander to give prizes to accomplish that which Negroes should and are daily bound to perform voluntarily. In spite of the fact that these prizes are given freely and by some of our friends, what Dr. Scott says is the crux of the attitude that should prevail in the hearts of at least all Iowans.

Every drive Iowa Negroes have entered even during these hard times have been successful. The Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. drives went over better than ever before. The Des Moines Branch of the N. A. A. C. P. closed the most successful drive ever put on in Des Moines, reaching a goal of over five hundred. We venture that the drive outdistances any town with a population equal to that of Des Moines. The Negro women accomplished a herculean task by the purchase and maintenance of the girls' home at Iowa City.

If all these things can be made to go big for the sake of charity, why can't the rule work just as well when a fellow is getting dollar for dollar in a business way. We believe it will. Remember we are looking to every organization to endorse this movement. We are looking for 100 per cent subscription list in all these organizations.

COAL STRIKE AND NEGRO LABOR

(W. P. Bayless.)
"Hello, Jim," we heard a husky coal miner (white) say as he greeted a gentleman of color at the corner of Wylie and Sixth avenues in Pittsburgh, Pa., Friday afternoon, "What you doin' now?"

"I'm fine, how are you, Tom?" responded the gentleman of color as he offered his right for a friendly hand shake.

"I am feeling as fine as a fiddle, Jim, but I am about broke, for I just came off the workings this morning in the mine strike," Tom replied.
"That's too bad, Tom. What are you going to do now?" asked Jim.
"I think maybe I can get something to do on the new buildings that are going up here in Pittsburgh. You know I am sort of handy with carpenter tools and I think I can get on as a carpenter, you know I belong to that union, too," said Tom. "Jim, you did not tell me what you are doing," Tom added.

"O, I'm working in the mines up the river. Just came in town last night and I'm going back to the workings this evening. We're working steady up there."

"I see, you're working in the non-strike mines. That's the trouble Jim, if you don't get together with us and not allow yourself to be used by the bosses as strike breakers and to force wages down, things would be better for all of us working people."

Jim threw his cigar down to the sidewalk and with considerable agitation replied: "What are we going to do? A lot of us fellows joined the union when you were head of the local and didn't get anything or anywhere. All we got was the worst of everything. So we concluded we would be a darn sight better off sticking with the bosses. They at least give us a job as strike breaker, or to head you fellows off in many of your unreasonable demands. Now, Tom, I do not want you to get the idea that I or any of us colored fellows like to be strike breakers (but often this offers the only chance the Negro worker has to make a living for often when you fellows are out on a strike you route us out of our jobs in some other industry."

"I tell you, Tom, and you know it's true, white labor leaders do not seem to fully appreciate the value of having the Negro worker as a co-partner in the general effort to better working conditions and maintain a living wage scale. When we Negroes went into the labor movement, as you know we did in the miners' union, we were used as a political football to fight against another faction of the union by reactionary and self-seeking labor officials. I tell you this sort of thing is done in practically all of the unions in which the Negro has gone."

"Tom, now get this straight, the only way to bring about the desired results is for the workers of all races to see that their destinies are common; white and black labor must learn that they are one and that their problem is one and the same; that both belong to the working class; and that they cannot afford to stand separate on account of race."

"Then, too, Tom, listen, let me tell you, the winning of Negro labor to the union cause cannot and will not be permanently and successfully brought about until white members of the union from top to bottom show an about-face and honestly treat the Negro worker as a brother and equal in the common struggle for better working conditions." Jim concluded with a proud oratorical gesture.

"Jim, that is certainly splendid and I wish that what you have just said could be brought to the attention of every member of the union throughout the country. Good-bye, Jim, I wish you luck. I'll preach your doctrine to my local," promised Tom as he shook hands with the gentleman of color and the two departed.

Less than one-third of the world's population is white, according to a lecture delivered by H. Williams before the Geographical Society of Manchester, England, and quoted in a clipping received by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, 69 Fifth Avenue, New York. Mr. Williams said there were about 1,900,000,000 in the world of whom 600,000,000 were white, 700,000,000 yellow; 400,000,000 brown and 200,000,000 black. Mr. Williams pointed out that the whites dominated about nine-tenths of the earth's land surface.

CLASSIC RECITAL OF NEGRO TENOR A REVELATION TO WHITE AUDIENCE

Aristocratic Music Lovers Turn Out En Masse to Hear Black Singer in Classics of Many Nations

By Geo. Perry
Los Angeles, Cal., April 4.—While the rendition of Negro Spirituals in all that naive interpretation of sadness, happiness and religious ecstasy in which Roland Hayes voices the soul of his race convincingly, attested the ability of the famous tenor as a spiritual singer, the artist's remarkable rendition of a varied group of classics, romantics and moderns before a large and appreciative audience at the Philharmonic Auditorium Monday evening proved a startling revelation to the aristocratic music lovers of Los Angeles and Hollywood, who were held spellbound by the famous singer.

While the Daily Record comments on his classical program it extols as "the spirit of the colored people in his rendition of those marvelous songs, arranged by himself and Gustave Klemm. Sung with a perfect intonation, a mellowness extraordinary, the song of the Negro took a new meaning to all who heard Hayes' interpretation."

BRILLIANT NEGRO ATTORNEY SUBSTITUTES FOR CLARENCE DARROW BEFORE CANADIAN COURTS

Battles Attorney For the Crown in Blasphemy Prosecution Against Canadian Publisher

Tronto, Ont., Mar. (Pacific Coast News Bureau).—In the case of the Crown against Ernest V. Sterry, publisher of the "Christian Enquirer" that has attracted international interest as an asserted attack on free speech on the North American continent, and in which atheists in Chicago rallying to the support of the Toronto publisher had engaged Clarence Darrow, attorney and agnostic, to appear as legal advisor; E. Lionel Cross, brilliant Negro lawyer defended the publisher substituting for the great Darrow.

Real Wealth

Wealth is having sufficient to keep body and soul together with the necessary health to enjoy life. It is marked, not by what we have, but by what we can do without. Love, honor, patience, vigor, cheer, and peace are the factors in the best wealth of human life. And these are ours for the taking. It matters neither where we live nor how humble our abiding. If we possess these things, though we may leave no will, we shall pass on to the world a legacy supreme.—Exchange.

NEGRO DEPOSITORS STAGE RUN ON NEW'S SAM'S BANK

(Prested Uncle Service) West Palm Beach, Fla., Mar. 24.—Preposterous rumors that "The government was going broke" caused a run, principally of Negroes, here throughout the day on the postal savings department of the West Palm Beach post office.

Wild reports circulated widely through the Negro sections Tuesday brought forth more than 100 persons at the opening of the postal savings windows, 7 o'clock and two hours later the line had been augmented by others seeking to withdraw their funds. The crowd, numbering many whites, increased so rapidly that for a time that police were summoned to insure order.

The run followed closely after the financial crisis here in which three West Palm Beach and one Palm Beach bank suspended operations within the past two weeks.

It is said that this 'sheik' has a Powerful Line but it will be of no avail when the silver-tongued GYPSY ROVER arrives. She can sell refrigerators to Eskimos.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF COLORED WAITERS AND COOKS TO BUY HOME FOR AGED HATED WAITERS, COOKS

Chicago, Ill., Mar. 22.—Information has been given from the office of the president of the National Association of Colored Waiters and Cooks, Mr. Chylow H. Brown, that the Executive Committee and Board of Trustees are negotiating a deal on a piece of property in the vicinity of Memphis, Tennessee, to establish an old waiters' home. This will go a long way to serve a purpose that is very essential. This organization, less than one year old, has made rapid progress in promoting the welfare of the race. They have succeeded in cementing and strengthening the bonds of friendship and good will between employees and employers. Their scope of work is to establish in leading universities, chairs for the instruction of the culinary profession. Their next annual convention will be held in Harrisburg, Penn., in the month of August. Prominent hotel men of both races will be in attendance.

"From January 1st to February 1st, the membership has been increased exactly 882, a large majority of whom are from the Pennsylvania and Southern districts which until now remained hostile to the Brotherhood. Their sudden conversion to our cause is another evidence of the firm hold the Pullman porters' struggle has secured upon these workers in particular and the race in general in spite of the treachery and weakness of some of the so-called leaders of the race. The Brotherhood now has a membership totaling almost 85% of all porters and maids in the employ of the Pullman Company, and with confidence awaits its recall before the United States Mediation Board."
