Iowa Club Women End Annual Confab

Annual Report Features Meeting; Name New Officers On Thursday

AT MASON CITY NEXT YEAR

The Twenty-seventh Annual Session of the Iowa Federation of Colored Women's Clubs, which convened in Waterloo, Iowa, May 28th to 30th, 1928, closed after a very successful three days' session, which was the first ever held in that city.

The outstanding feature of the meeting was the report of the work accomplished during the past year by the Trustee Board that is maintaining the Home for Young Women who are making their way through our State University at Iowa City.

This report disclosed the fact that there were seventeen young women in the Home during the past year, the largest number ever housed there, eleven of them representing five different states outside of our own, three being five from Missouri, three from Illinois, one from Oklahoma, one from South Carolina, one from Oklahoma, and six from Iowa.

The report further showed that $1,280.12 has been raised from various sources during the year and that of this amount the Des Moines Club Women reported $439.52, those of Keokuk, $50.00; Cedar Rapids, $40.00; Marshalltown, $30.00, and Waterloo, $9.60.

Reviews Political Activities

Among other features of the meeting, aside from the Annual Message of the President, Mrs. D. Mae Lee Fine, was a review of the Political Activities of the day and a report on the National Association of Colored Women by Mrs. S. Joe Brown, Iowa's National Representative and a report on the Junior Department by Mrs. Margaret M. Patten, Superintendent, and a brief history of the Federation by Mrs. Sophie Nichols, who has been present at each of the nineteen annual sessions except the first, also a parliamentary drill by Mrs. Selby Johnson, Past President and Parliamentarian, and a report on the Musical Field by Miss Hazel Patten, Chairman of the Musical Department and Health Lecture by Dr. Lee B. Ferguson, of Waterloo.

Prominent Speakers

Miss J. Ernestine Wyatt, Iowa's most outstanding reader of Waterloo, and Prof. Sherman Furr, Principal of an Industrial School, at New Port News, Va., were also speakers on this program.

At the annual Memorial Service, eulogies were delivered by Miss Jessie Walker, Past President, upon the life of Mrs. Clara Crawford, late organizer of the Federation, who passed away during the year.

After voting to hold their next annual session in Mason City, the following officers were elected:

Mrs. Edna K. Bell, of Waterloo, elected President of Iowa Federation of Colored Women's Clubs. Mrs. Maude Brewton, Mason City, First Vice President; Mrs. Isora Mackay, Des Moines, Second Vice President; Mrs. Lulu Mitchell, Des Moines, Recording Secretary; Mrs. Lizzie Thomas, Des Moines, Treasurer; Mrs. Josephine Daves, Sioux City, Organizer; Mrs. Emma May Walker, Des

Organizer Says Date of Withdrawal Set For 12 O'clock On June 8th

ASK HIGHER WAGES

Chicago, June 6—A. Philip Randolph, general organizer for the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, said today that the organization had notified the United States Mediation Board that its members will withdraw from service of the Pullman Company unless the company agrees to confer with representatives of the brotherhood.

The Pullman Company replied it was "not losing any sleep over the situation, and does not anticipate any of its patrons will."

Randolph said the date for withdrawal had been fixed at June 8th, noon, central standard time.

Instructions have been sent to organizers in all districts and Randolph said a complete walkout is anticipated in event the Mediation Board fails to bring employer and employees together.

The organization seeks higher wages for the porters.

Louisiana Mob Lynches Two Negro Prisoners

Seize Prisoners from Officers on Road to Shreveport; Riddle Bodies with Bullets.

Boyer, La., June 7—(PNS)—The 100 per cent of Southern Americanism showed itself Saturday when a "quiet" party of several hundred "peaceful, loyal" white American citizens assembled and seized Lee and David Blackman from Rapides Parish officers. The bodies of the victims were riddled with bullets.

Mob Gathers on Road

The lynching occurred five miles from here as the officers were enroute to Shreveport with the prisoners for safe-keeping. They had been held in the Vernon parish jail at Leesville since the slaying of a Deputy sheriff by their brother, William Blackman, who was shot to death three weeks ago by county officers, as a precaution against mob violence.

Take Men From Officers

The deputies, brave fellows, reported to Sheriff Downs Downs that as they neared Boyer, enroute to Shreveport, with their prisoners, the road was blocked by an automobile and their car was immediately surrounded by more than a score of armed men, who demanded the custody of the prisoners. After taking the prisoners from the machine they were told to drive on. In a few minutes several hundred men had gathered. They said as they drove away they heard several volleys of shots.

THE PRIMARY CAMPAIGN

The primary campaign is over. Governor Hammill was nominated. Iowa people have indicated their desire to keep a man at the head of the state government who is sound, safe and yet progressive to the extent that he believes in keeping Iowa on a par with other states.

Polk County showed little disposition to make changes in spite of the fact that many candidates disregarded the principle of the Republican party that Negroes should be given consideration in the councils and spoils of the party victory.

THE THREATENED BOLT

About everytime a person goes to the market to purchase meat, he feels like complimenting "Ding" for his cartoon in the Register last week; that the politician is the biggest portion of the uprising of farmers in the corn belt.

President Coolidge does not believe in the principal of the McNary-Haugen bill, declares that it will not give the farmer the relief he is seeking and suggests another remedy. There is a group which declare nothing will do but the bill as drawn. The very fact that the farmer-politician refuses any compromise is evidence that he is not as interested in getting relief for the farmer as he claims, but simply wants something to fight about.

There is a lot of talk about marching on in Kansas City, bolting the G. O. P. and a third party, but the average fellow is looking a bit further into this dissatisfaction before following the lead of some of the political calamity howlers.

THE NEGRO IN AMERICA

By J. G. Browne

Colonel Higginson's Expedition was a grand success in every way and furnished just such evidence as the country was looking for. Beyond all doubt, it proved the contention of the Negro's friends that black men, under competent officers, make capable and reliable soldiers.

Trowbridge's Expedition

During this same week, another expedition from this same regiment made a daring march into Georgia. Captain Charles T. Trowbridge, with thirty men, set out on January 30, 1863, to destroy a rebel salt works on the coast of Georgia, these Negroes being familiar with the country were delighted with this venture though the swamps were numerous and almost impassable. That dragged their boat over the country and in high spirits withstood the hardships and fatigue, thus to cross the streams, with the fortitude and bearing of veterans. They finally reached their objective and destroyed thirty-two large boilers, two store houses, and a large quantity of salt.

The commanding officer of the department of the South was greatly pleased with the results of these two expeditions and the correspondents hurried their information to the rear and thrilled the nation with their reports that its Negro defenders had justified its hope and disarmed all fear.

While the South Carolina troops were displaying their courage and

AMONG MY SOUVENIRS

I remember, I remember
When I was but a child,
How my mother used to say
That I would surely run her wild.

With my running and my jumping
And my banging on the door
And my tracking in the mud
All over the nice clean floor.

But now that I've grown older,
I like to count those years
That seemed so very hard to me
Among my souvenirs.

When I grew a little older,
Mother packed me off to school
So I could learn my A, B, C's,
Also the Golden Rule.

She imagined that the teacher
Would get me under her control
And maybe I be good enough
To join the honor roll.

But I was wild in those days,
And most days at recess
I found myself all housed in
Underneath the teacher's desk.

But now since I've grown older
And look back on those years;
They're sealed within my memory
Among my souvenirs.

Still as the years flee by,
Although 'twas nothing striking,
I grew a little tamer,
Much more to mother's liking.

And then when it was over
And I, a senior at last;
I don't know how I got there,
But I stood at the head of the class.

And, oh how proud my mother was
That last day of my school years,
I count that day the best of all,
Among my souvenirs.

And as I go along in life,
I can't help but remember,
Those years that meant so much to me
Beginning with each September.

Those school years they have given me
An understanding mind.
They taught me to appreciate
The earth and all mankind.

And so the school years of my life,
Have been so very dear,
That I count them most precious
Among my souvenirs.

IN MEMORIAM

Our darling son, Herschel Arnold Walker, departed this life, June 11th, 1926.
The wound has never healed,
The pain has never left our hearts,
Since your lips in death were sealed.
Deep in the heart lies a picture
Of a loved one laid to rest.
In memory's frame we shall keep it,
Because he was one of the best.

RELIGIOUS WORKERS INVADE KENTUCKY

Louisville, Ken., June 6.—Special Twelve Themes effecting the present and future status and religious life of the young people of America are the features of the Twenty-third Annual Session of the Sunday School Congress, which opened in this city Wednesday morning June 6th. Thirty-two states in the Union have sent messengers to this annual. The key to the Sunday School Congress, as has been demonstrated during the twenty-three years, is the Bible study hour, which begins at eight every morning and continues until nine A. M. every day.

J. P. Robinson, D. D., of Little Rock, Ark., the Chairman of the meeting called it to order at 10 o'clock. Henry A. Boyd of Nashville, Tenn., the Corresponding Secretary, announced the Conductors of the various departments. All sessions are being held at the Mt. Lebanon Baptist church on W. Chestnut Street. A mammoth street parade is scheduled for Sunday afternoon with three bands and 5,000 workers, culminating in a mass meeting at the Jefferson County Armory where twenty-five thousand persons are expected.

HARRIS-BRECKENRIDGE WEDDING
Mr. Charlie Harris, of South Dakota, and Miss Irene Breckenridge, of Ft. Dodge, were quietly married Sunday, at 6:00 p. m., at the home of Mrs. C. Brown. The ceremony was performed by Rev. I. M. Coggs. The bride was gowned in soft white georgette, wearing a corsage of sweet peas, lilies of the valley and roses. After the ceremony a reception was held. Mr. and Mrs. Harris will be at home after Sunday, in their beautiful bungalow located at 1016 South Norton Street, Sioux Falls, South Dakota.

DELIVERS FORCEFUL ADDRESS AT ST. PAUL A. M. E.
By E. L. Dimity
Addressing a congregation whose interest was held by the force of his eloquence and the earnestness of his words, Dr. S. P. Felder, presiding elder of the Mount Bayon, Miss., district A. M. E. Church, preached an inspiring sermon on "Unity and Fellowship," at the 11:00 o'clock services at St. Paul's Church, last Sunday morning.

Dr. Felder pointed out the necessity of unity of purpose in our every day activities as well as in our Christian work. In division, he stated, there is no strength, failure being the reward. For success there must be unity of mind, faith and zeal. This entire address was fraught with many beautiful illustrations.

Attended A. M. E. Meeting
Rev. Felder stopped in Des Moines at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. P. Jackson, while enroute to his home from the A. M. E. conference, at Chicago. He has just served his eighth consecutive election as a delegate to general conferences. He was a candidate for the Bishopric and has been nominated for the Bishopric at the past several conferences, but has been unsuccessful because of the division of strength of the Mississippi delegation.

According to Rev. T. L. Scott, Dr. Felder is one of the outstanding ministers at the general conferences. Since 1916, Dr. Felder has spoken at Rev. Scott's Church at the conclusion of every general conference. He is a member of the powerful Episcopate Committee, which assigns the Bishops.

Received D.D. Degree
Rev. Felder is one of Mississippi's greatest ministers. He was born at Greensburg, La., in 1863. Exhausting the possibilities of the public and night schools he studied theology under a private tutor and was ordained a minister in 1890. He is serving his twenty-eighth consecutive year as a presiding elder. He is the organizer of a number of churches; is a financier, builder and leader of affairs in church and school in his state. He is a trustee and manager of the Campbell College Farm. The honorary degree D. D. was conferred upon him by that institution.

Dr. Felder is one of the most progressive ministers of his church. An interview with him will prove that he is a far-sighted individual who has great hopes in the younger generation.

Y. SECRETARY BIDS DES MOINES FAREWELL
Miss Regina Crawford, executive secretary of Blue Triangle Branch, Y. W. C. A., resigned her position last Friday, to go to Chicago and live with her mother.

Miss Crawford has been with the local branch for the last seven years, and has aided in its rapid advancement since the purchase of the present building at Thirteenth and School Streets. Before coming to Des Moines she taught school in the South.

In saying farewell to her many friends, she writes:
Des Moines, Iowa, June 6, 1928.
Dear Friends:
I wish to take this means through the columns of the Bystander to thank all the people of Des Moines for the kindness and hospitality shown me during the years I have been in your community.

INSTALL LINE TO TRENTON
To handle the increasing long distance calls between Des Moines and Trenton, Missouri, a direct line has been constructed between these two cities by the Northwestern Bell Telephone Company according to R. J. Hopley, district manager of the company in Des Moines.

The local demand for long distance service to Trenton amounts to an average of 25 calls a day. The new direct circuit has a capacity for handling nearly 40 calls a day. Mr. Hopley said. This gives the people of Des Moines a direct and quicker long distance service to Trenton.

Mr. Charlie Harris, of South Dakota, and Miss Irene Breckenridge, of Ft. Dodge, were quietly married Sunday, at 6:00 p. m., at the home of Mrs. C. Brown. The ceremony was performed by Rev. I. M. ### CORINTHIAN NOTES

Rev. S. W. Robinson preached Sunday afternoon at Bethel A. M. E. Church. He was accompanied by the Corinthian chorus. Rev. C. B. Wheeler, the assistant pastor preached at Carney, assisted by the Junior choir. The Red Circle Girls met Monday evening at the church. After a very effective "Style Show" Tuesday evening, June 5th, the "Queen Contest" was brought to a close. Miss Allie E. Winston was crowned Queen of the Young People's Department and received a beautiful diamond ring as first prize. She turned in $30.00. Miss Geraldine Glass received second prize, which was a silver vanity case. She reported $22.50 and Miss Aletha Quinn won third prize, which was also a vanity case. She reported $2.50. The Young People's Department of the church met Thursday evening, June 7th. The discussion for the evening was, "Youth and Christian Organizations." Many strong points were brought out by the young people on the subject. The meeting was full of pep and enthusiasm. We are very proud to have among our graduates this year our president of the local B. Y. P. U., in person of Mr. Lloyd Shelton. We hope he will see the necessity of seeking a higher education.

1. Boasting, self-confidence (vv. 20-31).
2. Lack of watchfulness (v. 37).
3. Neglect of prayer (v. 38).
4. Service in the energy of the flesh (v. 47).
5. Following Jesus afar off (v. 54).
6. Seeking comfort among the Lord's enemies (v. 67, cf. Luke 22:55).
7. Open denial (vv. 68-72). His backsliding really began when he shrunk from the cross.

IV. Jesus Arraigned Before Pilate (15:1-15)
In the early morning after the trial before the high priest they bound Jesus and delivered Him to Pilate. They acted freely in this according to the evil desires of their own hearts. Yet He was delivered up by the determined counsel and foreknowledge of God (Acts 2:23). The Jews would gladly have killed Him, but they had not the authority to do so. They delivered Him to the Gentile governor, thus involving the Jews and the Gentiles in the crowning act of the world's sin. Pilate questioned Him without delay for they accused Him of pretending to be a king. "Thou sayest," was His only reply. To the slanderous accusations of the chief priests and elders He made no reply, to the utter astonishment of Pilate. Pilate sought to release Him because he was convinced of His innocence. After several unsuccessful efforts to escape responsibility, the expedient of letting the people choose between Barabbas and Jesus was resorted to. He no doubt thought that Jesus would be chosen rather than the notorious Barabbas.

Cast Thyself at His Feet
The fever of worldliness that burns in the blood, the ill-temper, the unkindness, the impatience, the dreadful malady of avarice that turns the heart to stone, the dim vision of Himself, the fretting fear, the foolish envy—how loathsome in His sight is that of which we make so little! Cast thyself at His feet until He make thee clean!—Mark Guy Pearse.

Our Obedience
God wants work of us. He offers His power to us if we will work with Him. Greater deeds than have ever been done do not wait upon His willingness but upon our obedience.—Robert E. Speer.

Joy
Joy is there if we will set ourselves to find it—Joy in labor, joy in love, joy in the beauty of earth around us, joy that waits in hidden well to bubble up in hearts that are open to it.

No Sorrow Too Great
No sorrow is too great to endure if it reveals to us some new beauty in Christ, or brings out in us some new feature of Christlikeness.—J. R. Miller.

1. The Betrayal and Arrest (vv. 43-52).
1. The sign to the mob (vv. 43-47).
With the basest hypocrite Judas pointed out Jesus to the mob by a kiss, the sign of love.
2. Jesus forsaken by all (vv. 48-52).
At the sight of His betrayal, one of Jesus' disciples attempted to defend Him by resorting to the sword, but seeing that He made no attempt at resistance they all fled. Their courage failed them in the hour of trial. How little man knows of his own weakness until the crucial hour comes.

11. Jesus Before the Sanhedrin (vv. 53-65).
1. Contradictory testimony of false witnesses (vv. 53-55).
The chief priests and all the council sought for witnesses against Jesus to put Him to death, but they found none because there was no unity of testimony. They accused Him of having declared that within three days He would build again the temple if it were destroyed.
2. The high priest's questions (vv. 60-65).
(1) "What is it that these witnesses say against Thee?"
To this Jesus was silent, showing that no evidence had yet been given worthy of an answer.
(2) "Art thou the Christ?"
To this He definitely replied, "I am," and quoted a Scripture passage which they recognized as referring to the Messiah. This claim they answered with buffeting and the most shameful treatment.

111. Peter Denies His Lord (vv. 66-72).
Though Peter loved Jesus, yet in the hour of supreme trial he failed. Grieved as his sin was, it was not like that of Judas. His failure was due to:
1. Boasting, self-confidence (vv. 29-31).
2. Lack of watchfulness (v. 37).
3. Neglect of prayer (v. 38).
4. Service in the energy of the flesh (v. 47).
5. Following Jesus afar off (v. 54).
6. Seeking comfort among the Lord's enemies (v. 67, cf. Luke 22:55).
7. Open denial (vv. 68-72). His backsliding really began when he shrunk from the cross.

IV. Jesus Arraigned Before Pilate (15:1-15)
In the early morning after the trial before the high priest they bound Jesus and delivered Him to Pilate. They acted freely in this according to the evil desires of their own hearts. Yet He was delivered up by the determined counsel and foreknowledge of God (Acts 2:23). The Jews would gladly have killed Him, but they had not the authority to do so. They delivered Him to the Gentile governor, thus involving the Jews and the Gentiles in the crowning act of the world's sin. Pilate questioned Him without delay for they accused Him of pretending to be a king. "Thou sayest," was His only reply. To the slanderous accusations of the chief priests and elders He made no reply, to the utter astonishment of Pilate. Pilate sought to release Him because he was convinced of His innocence. After several unsuccessful efforts to escape responsibility, the expedient of letting the people choose between Barabbas and Jesus was resorted to. He no doubt thought that Jesus would be chosen rather than the notorious Barabbas.

Cast Thyself at His Feet
The fever of worldliness that burns in the blood, the ill-temper, the unkindness, the impatience, the dreadful malady of avarice that turns the heart to stone, the dim vision of Himself, the fretting fear, the foolish envy—how loathsome in His sight is that of which we make so little! Cast thyself at His feet until He make thee clean!—Mark Guy Pearse.

Our Obedience
God wants work of us. He offers His power to us if we will work with Him. Greater deeds than have ever been done do not wait upon His willingness but upon our obedience.—Robert E. Speer.

Joy
Joy is there if we will set ourselves to find it—Joy in labor, joy in love, joy in the beauty of earth around us, joy that waits in hidden well to bubble up in hearts that are open to it.

No Sorrow Too Great
No sorrow is too great to endure if it reveals to us some new beauty in Christ, or brings out in us some new feature of Christlikeness.—J. R. Miller.

New York—Margarine is a food product of peculiar interest not only to the country's housewives but to 5,000,000 producers of live stock in the nation.

FOOD PRODUCT ADDS TO FARMER REVENUE
The production in the United States of 242,654,698 pounds of uncolored and 14,501,929 pounds of colored margarine for the year ending July 30, 1927, meant millions of dollars more revenue to farmers than if no margarine had been produced. Margarine is primarily an animal product in the making of which oils made from the choice fats of beef and pork are used. These are combined with small quantities of the highest grade of refined peanut, cottonseed and coconut oils and blended with milk salt and sometimes butter to produce the finished product.

THE ORDER-CHANGETH

By Virginia V. Stewart. Surely there are some beautiful girls to be found in the Negro race who are predominately "Negro." White producers on Broadway said one day, "We want a Negro Chorus." You know Broadway gets what it wants. This one thing alone has gone far to make the Negro realize that he does have some pretty women within his own race. It has stimulated race consciousness. The stage has helped us establish a fairly decent standard of beauty as is applied to an adaptable to our race.

Heretofore we have had no standard of beauty other than the white man's, which has made the Negro feel inferior. He has tried, and sometimes fairly successfully, to ape the white race in beauty, art and music; at the same time closing his eyes to the inherent beauty of his own people.

But thanks to the white man we have the dawn of a new era. We find that the public admires and will pay to see real pulchritude in any race, and that the presence of colored pigmentation does not retard the box office receipts. Brown skin beauties like Josephine Baker, Ethel Waters and the now deceased "Flo" Mills, have been of incalculable value in casting a favorable limelight on that physical beauty which is preponderantly "Negro."

Steamship Screws

A phenomenon known as "cavitation" is recognized as one of the most important causes of loss of efficiency in the driving screws of steamships. When the velocity of the screw is increased, above a certain limit a cavity is formed in the water inside which the screw revolves and a further increase in power then causes no increase in the ship's speed.
