The Observer Make-up of Negro G. O. P.

By Chan P. Howard
WHITE SAMARITANS

I have contended that fundamentally race relations in Des Moines are superior to those of most communities. The following is an instance that I believe would be repeated in 99 out of every 100 times that the opportunity arose. Thursday night, the 2nd of August, we had a heavy rain. The engine of my car got wet. I ran the battery down trying to start it. No amount of cranking, coaxing or cursing seemed to improve the situation. It was pouring down. A white man drove up in a Ford, in all this downpour, he got out and tried to help me. We had no rope or chain so he got behind me and pushed, as long as we were going down hill, but could not make it on the up grade. I went into the first house where I saw a light and in all this downpour a white boy went out to the garage and gave me his only piece of rope and chain and was happy to do it. We drove on a while and that chain broke. I went into another white home. A white lady gave me a piece of her clothes line. She almost got soaked trying to help me. This man went miles out of his way, and exposed himself to a heavy downpour of rain. The day of the good Samaritan has not passed.

Permit no one to generally criticize white people to you, and permit no opportunity to go by to be a friend to another human being, but never let color be a consideration.

WHOSE RECORD IS 400 HOURS?

There is dance marathon going on at the Coliseum. The record is supposed to be 400 hours. Four hundred hours may be the white folks record but the world's indiscriminate record is 572 hours. It was established by couple No. 67, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lo Salle, of Chicago, Illinois, and was completed in Chicago at 9:00 o'clock, Tuesday morning, July 23, 1928, at the Savoy Dance Hall. The prize was $2,500 in cash, a $1,000 lot, a $500 Brunswick panatope, a special built easy chair, a course in beauty culture from the Madam C. J. Walker Company, a $25 dress, several hats, two pairs of made to order shoes and numerous other miscellaneous prizes. One hundred eighty-eight couples (Colored) entered the contest. Mrs. Lo Salle lost 30 pounds and was bothered most of the time with food trouble. Perhaps there was a reason why there were no colored entrants in the Coliseum contest. Who wants to be competing against folks who dance 572 hours when his record is 400 hours?

LIVE UP TO IT

In Philadelphia the National Public Links Golf Championship is in progress. Two Negroes, Robert Ball of Chicago, and Elmer Stout of Newark have been disqualified by the Public Links committee of the United States Golf Association. It seems that they were paired together in the qualifying round, that Stout claimed to have made a six on a certain hole and Ball attested to it. If the charges are true, the penalty is justified. Negroes competing in athletic events should never permit the slightest chance for criticism and should construe everything against themselves thereby leaving no possible doubt for any suggestion of dishonesty. This is not only true of golf competition, but every walk of life. Little does the white man seem to realize however, that by compelling us to set this standard he is compelling us to build within ourselves an efficiency that in generations to come will make us a wonderful people.

U. S. Negro Flyer Goes To Berlin For License

Monrovia, Liberia, Aug. 9. (P.N.S.)—Unable to secure an air pilot's license in the United States on account of his race, Captain Henson Cuttley, an American Negro, who is now military instructor to the Liberian frontier force stationed at Monrovia, has entered the School of Aviation at Berlin, Germany.

FIVE HOUSTON LYNCHING SUSPECTS FREE

Houston, Texas, Aug. 9. (P.N.S.)—Only one of six men charged in connection with the lynching of Robert Powell on the eve of the Democratic National Convention, remained in jail Thursday. All of the six except John (Slim) Kent had made bond of $7,500 granted them Wednesday by Judge Boyd. One of the bondsmen for Kent was out of town Wednesday and he could not obtain his release. He is expected to be released in a few days. The men have been in jail since June 22. Their trial will be set by the August grand jury.

Sole Iowan Named to Negro G. O. P. Advisory Comm.

Place Publicity in Hands of Negro Editors; Woodson of Des Moines Named to Advisory Committee
Washington, D. C., Aug. 10. (Special)—The interest manifested by colored voters throughout the country in the Hoover-Curtis campaign was reflected today in preparations at the Colored Division Headquarters here for bringing home to every eligible voter the importance of a Republican victory in the fall. Already the work is well under way. The make-up of organization, publicity, and speakers' committees has been virtually determined upon, and outstanding persons from every section of the United States have been called into service. "Every state, county, city and precinct will be thoroughly canvassed," Chairman John R. Hawkins declared, "and men and women whose political knowledge and experience have qualified them as experts in getting out votes, as well as individuals whose connections have aligned them with organization effort, will be used in building one of the most formidable organizations yet seen among the colored group."

New Affidavit Says Woman Lied In Ben Bess Case, Alleged

Masons Give Last Rites To Senior Brother

Cedar Rapids, Aug. 9.—Long respected by those who knew him, W. H. Milligan, Cedar Rapids most prominent Negro citizen, who died at his country home near here Thursday, Aug. 2, was buried Sunday. Funeral services were held at the Bethel A. M. E. church, Rev. S. B. Washington, pastor officiating. Condolences Were Many Among the many resolutions showing the appreciation of the various church and other organizations for the active part Mr. Milligan took were condolences from the local O. E. S. Chapter, representing the Electric Grand O. E. S. Chapter of which he was a founder and North Star Masonic former member and past master. Remarks were made by Rev. A. W. Hackley, Ottumwa, presiding elder of the Des Moines A. M. E. District and Rev. Ford of this city.

Last Rites By Masons
Mr. Milligan, a past Grand Master of the M. W. United Grand Lodge of Iowa for the purpose of giving him Masonic burial honors. Seventy Masons were present representing, besides the Lodge of Cedar Rapids Washington, Dubuque, Des Moines, Keokuk, Okaloosa, Waterloo and Ottumwa.

N. A. A. C. P. Secures Testimony of White Man Revealing Method of Rejailing Innocent Negro

New York Aug. 8.—Startling testimony has just come into the possession of the N. A. A. C. P., it was revealed today, in the form of an affidavit signed by the white South Carolina store keeper who took the first affidavit in the now famous Ben Bess case, which alleges that the white woman involved lied when she later claimed that she only "forgave" Bess for raping her and did not declare him not guilty. John M. Timmons, the white merchant, alleges in his own sworn statement that her original affidavit was read to the Parker woman in the office and in the presence of J. Rob Lawrence, Judge of Probate at Florence and that both she and her son were present; that the document "appeared to be entirely satisfactory to her and she affixed her signature thereto, and the paper was probed by Mr. Lawrence as Judge of Probate."

Mr. Timmons' statement further alleges that the woman's son asked him and another white man for $75 to pay Bess' wife raised all she could, fifty for medicine for his mother and that dollars, which was given to the Parker woman by Judge Lawrence who had his stenographer write a receipt which the woman signed before receiving the money. "The woman involved and the said Parker immediately left the office of the Judge of Probate," the affidavit recites, "and the voice of neither was ever raised in protest concerning the affidavit which both fully understood, until the report was circulated that she would be prosecuted at the next term of court for perjury."

Quake Destroys Island in E. Indies

1,000 Reported Dead In Quake. Volcanic Eruption.

London, Aug. 10. (Special)—According to reports transmitted by a resident of Timor, nearly the entire island of Paloebeh, in the Dutch East Indies, has been destroyed by the eruption of the Rokatinda volcano Aug. 4 and 5. Six villages were destroyed by fire. The death toll was believed to be nearly a thousand. Six hundred persons were injured when hit by fragments thrown out of the crater. Further casualties were caused by the submersion of the whole seaboard of the island through an earthquake accompanying the eruption. The remainder of the islanders, numbering 5,000, were stated to be safe and ample provisions available. It was feared that nine native boats enroute from Celebes island to Paloebeh had perished with their crews. The Dutch residents of Timor are proceeding to the scene of the disaster. Paloebeh island, also known as Rusa Rajah island, lies about five miles off the north coast of Flores island, one of the larger of the Malay Archipelago islands. It is about four miles in diameter and rises to a peak 4,593 feet high, which is covered with trees to its summit.

Negro Golfers Outdo Whites In Law Suit

Negro Entrants In Golf Tournament Necessitate Court Proceedings

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 9. (P.N.S.)—The United States Golf Association went into court here Thursday and finished second best, or next to nothing. The officers were brought before Judge Raymond MacNeille to answer charges of two Negro golfers that they had been illegally barred from the public links tournament at Cobble Creek, the golf officials were put in the position of having the tournament saved only by the sportsmanship of the two Negro golfers, Robert Ball of Chicago and Elmer Stout of Newark, N. J. They were represented by Attorney R. P. Alexander of Newark. Defending the interests of U. S. G. A. were Gansen Dupew, Thomas Mc Mahon and Gerald Taylor, officials of the association. After witnesses had testified for four hours the court gave both sides five minutes to reach an agreement. Failing to do so, he said, would result in an injunction being granted and it would terminate the tournament.

Reach Deadlock
At the end of five minutes the two sides were far from an agreement. Dupew and his followers went back into court for the worst. "We must go in and take our medicine," said Dupew. "It is a terrible mixup, but I see no way out of the difficulty. Since the tournament has progressed this far it will be impossible to renew play with the Negroes as contestants."

Two Week-End Raids On Old White Chapel District Arrest 57

Saves Man from Life Term By Paying Taxes

Joseph Jackson, White Business Man Pays Tax of $12.25 And Releases Negro From Life Sentence

Coraopolis, Pa., Aug. 9. (P.N.S.)—"It's an inhuman outrage," declared Joseph Jackson a prominent businessman here, as he walked down the street with Leonard Ginn, aged 25, whom he had arranged to have released from jail. Jackson was referring to Ginn's incarceration since June 7 for non payment of borough taxes. Jackson said he saw the item in the newspapers about this man getting a life sentence because he couldn't pay taxes amounting to $12.25, and that is why I came here to secure this man's release. "I don't know this man," continued Jackson, "never saw him before and probably won't see him again, but I couldn't stand by and see this man rot in jail." Jackson is engaged in the insurance business. At first, he requested that his name be withheld, but later disclosed his identity. "I don't want to be in the limelight, but you may tell the world that I am going to at least make a move for the passage of an act in the next general assembly whereby any person jailed for the non payment of taxes will be permitted to work and earn enough to obtain their release."

Had Been Unable to Pay Tax
Ginn, with a broad smile, thanked Mr. Jackson for his kindly act. Ginn said that he only worked a few days each week and with his limited funds had been unable to pay the tax on the day it was demanded. The total assessment of $12.32 paid by Jackson was divided into three items, Borough tax, $6.50; collector's fees, $4.63, additional cost, $1.39. Jackson is white.

Oklahoma Sheriff Repulses Large Mob

Duncan, Okla., Aug. 9. (P.N.S.)—A large crowd of maudlin white citizens claimed to have been incensed and angered by the story of a white woman who said that she had been attacked by a Negro named James Forest, attempted to storm the jail seeking Forest to have another lynching party. It is said that the officers had arrested Forest and placed him in jail for safe keeping fearing that some sort of an uprising would ensue. Forest is said to have been wounded by the hoodlums in their pursuit of him prior to having been rescued by the officers.

In the language of the game when the impasse was reached, it was the Negroes who saved the tournament by a unanimous act of sportsmanship. The two golfers agreed that if they were reinstated and cleared of all charges they would withdraw as contestants. The court ruled that the golfers were cleared of all charges of professionalism, restored to their proper amateur status and, furthermore, reinstated into the tournament. The case attracted unparalleled interest in the sporting world. It is said to have been the first time in the history of golf that the game has been brought into open court.

"White Chapel" Raid Results in Arrest of Fifty-seven; Hold Twenty-six For Running Disorderly House

Two week-end vice drives conducted last Saturday and Sunday nights in the old "white chapel" district near Fourth and Elm Streets, resulted in the arrest of fifty-seven men and women. The raids were staged following complaints of wild cabaret parties, and noisy disturbance.

Thirty Arrested Saturday
The Saturday roundup netted some thirty persons and included several persons hauled to the police station on general orders to "cleanup." Several of the remainder taken Sunday night were held as "suspicious characters." Several young girls were picked up in the raid. Approximately thirty were released early Monday morning and the remaining twenty-six were arraigned before Municipal Judge Ralph Powers on charges of disturbing the public quiet. All pleaded guilty and were required to post bonds of $100 each to appear August 10 for preliminary hearing.

Name Defendants
The twenty-six held included: Lillian Wills, J. Harris, Harvey Graves, C. W. Small, Sylvester Cunningham, John Anderson, Ernest Baker, Lawrence Terry, Harold Payne, Lawrence Todd, John Parker, James Marion, Annie Garnett, Mrs. Fannie Small, Julia Adams, Evelyn Keller, Mrs. Eta Thomas, Laura Thomas, Al Rhodes, Herman Russell, Sam Spencer, Donald Prince, Floyd Edwards, E. Williams and Theodore Williams.

Voters' League Holds One-Day Session at Capitol

Mrs. S. Joe Brown Speaks at Meeting About Iowa; Miss Nannie Burroughs Presides

Washington, Aug. 10. (Special)—That the colored women of the country will take an active part in the coming presidential campaign, and will be aggressive boosters for Mr. Hoover and Senator Curtis, was the decision of a meeting of delegates of the National League of Colored Women's Republican Clubs held in Washington Saturday morning. Speakers at this meeting were Congressman Franklin W. Ford of New Jersey, Secretary of the Republican National Committee; Mrs. George S. Williams, Republican National Committeewoman from Georgia; Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, Assistant United States Attorney General, and Mrs. Daisy Curtis Gann, sister of Senator Curtis. Mrs. Alvin T. Heft, Vice Chairman of the Republican National Committee, who was unable to be present because of attendance on national conferences in Chicago, sent her greetings to the delegates through Mrs. Alice Gram Robinson, Miss Nannie Burroughs presided. Mrs. S. Joe Brown of Iowa spoke briefly of the pride of the state in her native sons. An afternoon session was devoted to an executive meeting at which plans were brought into concrete form for the league to carry on until election day.

GREET OUR AGENTS

Bystander agents are calling upon every Negro family in Iowa with the idea of securing a subscription in every home. They are meeting a hearty response in Des Moines where but one family has flatly refused. Regardless of the cause this is a fine record.

This canvass is being made in order to meet the people personally, explain the problems of the paper to them and to get their views. They are urging upon the old as well as new subscribers that the paper can progress only in proportion that they give their support and that their due account helps to make up that large outstanding list of delinquents which handicap us in the issuance of the paper.

The Bystander urges its subscribers and friends to realize that small weekly papers in cities are run with great difficulty; that admitting that the continuance of the paper is necessary, they should do their part in keeping it up with the lightest burden possible on the management.

GET ASSURANCES IN ADVANCE

In a statement issued at the time the personnel of the Negro organization of the republican national committee was appointed, Chairman Work congratulated the party upon the high standards of the parties selected and said the election of Hoover would bring a new day to the Negroes of this country.

The leaders of our group know that there is a great deal of dissatisfaction among the Negroes of the country because of the trend of unfairness being practiced on the race on every hand. The republican party is guilty of some of these injustices. Those close up to the heads of the party should realize that any assurance that the conditions will be corrected should be forthcoming now and not after the election.

Does this statement from Chairman Work mean that something has already been promised? We hope so. The list includes most of the key people among which is James Weldon Johnson, secretary of the N. A. A. C. P. Surely Mr. Johnson, who is better acquainted with the Negroes fight for justice than any other man to day will not let the opportunity pass to get some promise that the things for which the N. A. A. C. P. fights will be given favorable consideration.

THE NEGRO IN AMERICA

By J. G. Browne

In our last article we spoke of the heroism of Captain Andre Cailoux, who commanded the color company of the Negro troops in the early stages of the assault upon Fort Hudson. It would be impossible to mention all displayed by these black soldiers under these discouraging circumstances. The correspondent of the New York Times gives the following account of the conduct of these regiments: "The deeds of heroism performed by these colored men were such as the proudest white men might emulate. Their colors are torn to pieces by shot, and literally bespattered by blood and brains. The color-sergeant,

LOVE

Nothing on earth or in Heaven above, Is half so powerful as love; Love in power reigns supreme, Where love reigns, it reigns as king.

Love will carry to the heights 'Till the soul with sure delight, And yet, that same love tortures so If unrequited here below.

Love will make men fight and kill, But, oh, how sad, sadder still, Is love that drives brave men mad And turns their course from good to had.

Still love will enter in the depths, And battle wrong both right and left, Bringing lost ones to the fold To enter joyousness untold.

When love steps in, hate fades away, Hate cannot dwell where love holds sway.

Love comes direct from God above, For love is God, and God is love.

Anselmas Planciancois, of the First Louisiana, on being mortally wounded, hugged the colors to his breast, when a struggle ensued between the two color-corporals on each side of him as to who should have the honor of bearing the sacred banner, and during this generous contention one was seriously wounded. One black lieutenant actually mounted the enemy's works three times, and in one charge the assaulting party came within fifty paces of them. Indeed, if only ordinarily supported by artillery and reserves, no one can convince us that they would not have made a passage through the enemy's works.

"One poor wounded fellow came along with his arm shattered by a shell, and jauntily swinging it with the other, as he said to a friend of mine, 'Massa, guess I can fight no more; I was with one of the captains, looking after the wounded going in the rear of this hospital, when we met one limping along towards the front. On being asked where he was going, he said, 'I been shot bad in the leg, captain, and dey want me to go to de hospital, but I-guess I can gib 'em some more yet.'"

"Although repulsed in an attempt which, situated as things were, was all but impossible, these regiments, though badly cut up, are still on hand, and burning with a passion ten times hotter from their fierce baptism of blood."

The Second Louisiana was stationed at Ship Island, Mississippi, in the early spring of 1863 under the command of Colonel Naham W. Daniels. The enemy was sending troops from Mobile to reinforce Charleston, General Sherman in command of the defenses of New Orleans, determined to make several demonstrations, up the Mississippi Sound. Colonel Daniels, hearing that the enemy was headed toward East Pascagoula, embarked with companies B and C consisting of one hundred and eighty men. At 9 A. M. the morning of April 10, 1863, the transport General Banks landed at Pascagoula, and Colonel Daniels took possession of the hotel and placed his colors on the flag-staff. He placed his picket lines, possessed the town and placed small squads to hold the roads leading into the town. This was scarcely accomplished when the enemy's cavalry numbering over three hundred men drive his pickets in; but news of seasoned veterans and coolness of the reserve met them with the coolness of a dash upon the hotel but met them off. The rebels reformed and the same fate. Then the Confederate infantry made an attack upon the left flank. The lines were drawn in and took shelter behind an old wharf from which they held. The enemy was repulsed and retired in confusion.

Shortly afterward the enemy made an assault upon the center, and although these troops never under fire before stood in the open field and repulsed the assaulting troops. In his report to General Sherman April 11, 1863, Colonel Daniels said: "The expedition was a perfect success. Great credit is due to the troops engaged for their untiring bravery, under their first fire, exchanging volley after volley with the coolness of veterans, and for their determined tenacity in maintaining their position, and taking advantage of every success that their courage and valor gave them. . . demonstrating, that the oppression which they have undergone from the hands of their foes, and the obliquity that had been showered upon them by those who should have been their friends had not extinguished their manhood or oppressed their bravery."

TETANUS

The importance of attending to cuts and bruises properly in the prevention of Tetanus or Lockjaw cannot be too often emphasized and it is just as important to give them attention early as cases have been known to develop within twenty-four hours after an injury. Others have developed as late as sixty hours after injury and when the wound seemed practically healed. These injuries which are contaminated with dirt are the ones which usually develop into Lockjaw although a wound which seems clean to close observation may be contaminated. The germ itself has been found as deep under the earth as twelve inches and seems more abundant in certain localities than in others. The disease may follow injuries sustained anywhere on the body the only requisite for infection being the presence of the germ on the object which causes the injury, be it a nail, an ice pick, the pavement, the earth itself or whatever the injuring object may be. I think it is a safe statement to make that all injuries which are treated early and given protective doses of antitetanic serum at the very time of the injury and another dose later on if the symptoms indicate will not develop the disease.

Affidavit Attacks Governor
The affidavit, which is quite lengthy and which sets forth all the circumstances in detail, contains a bitter attack upon Gov. John G. Richards of South Carolina for accepting without investigation the woman's repudiation of her affidavit. That part of the statement reads: "that for the first time, today, July 20, 1928, he (Timmons) has been asked by a representative of Governor John G. Richards' office for a statement concerning the procurement of affidavit from the woman involved in the Ben Bess case; that except for the fact that this is a case in which the general public has an interest, he would promptly refuse to make an affidavit or statement, as he does not feel that he is due the least courtesy to the said John G. Richards, when said Richards has without an investigation into the facts, branded the procurement of the affidavit in the case as fraudulent; that to repeat, this affidavit is made solely that the general public may, for the first time, learn the truth."
Seek to Prove Law Point
At the request of Mr. N. J. Frederick of Columbia who is acting for Ben Bess to obtain, if possible, his freedom, William T. Andrews, Special Legal Assistant of the N. A. A. C. P., has compiled and forwarded to Mr. Frederick a careful statement of law on the question of whether or not an unconditional pardon can be revoked. It is a well established principle of law that such revocation is impossible.

MISS FRY SUCCEEDING

Editor's Note—The following letter written to Mr. Jones, tells of the splendid work being done by one of the East High graduates. Miss Frye is only one of several Iowans now working at Piney Woods school.

Piney Woods School,
Piney Woods, Miss.

Mr. Laurence C. Jones,
General Delivery,
Lincoln, Nebraska.

I certainly like the office work very much, and I do believe that I have become more efficient in it than I was. I have been here nearly six months now, and since I have always been interested in this work, I am sure I could not have kept from making some progress had I tried. Teaching school in the early morning isn't half so bad after one becomes accustomed to it, and I have just about reached that stage. My pupils are all quite interesting and I really enjoy working with them. I only hope that when the term is over I shall have made some improvement in them, and I know that my experience will mean much to me.

Despite all difficulties, I hope that you and all those concerned with the work, this summer, will have a great success.

Sincerely,
Miss Emma Frye.

N. A. A. C. P. SENDS CHECK FOR ANTI-RESIDENTIAL SEGREGATION FIGHT

Briefs in District of Columbia Court of Appeals Printed; to Test Validity of Property Owners Covenant Barring Negroes

New York, Aug. 9—The National office of the N. A. A. C. P. this week forwarded its check for $180.75 to George E. C. Hayes, attorney of Washington covering the cost of printing the briefs in the case of Cornish vs. O'Donoghue, in the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia. This is the action brought to test whether or not white property owners may include the deeds to property clauses which prohibit the sale by any future owner of that property to persons of Negro blood.

This case marks another step in the relentless battle which the N. A. A. C. P. has waged for upwards of ten years to checkmate and defeat each new move to segregate colored people. It will be recalled that in 1917 the Association eliminated for all time segregation by municipal ordinances or state laws through the victory gained in the United States Supreme Court in the Louisville case of Buchanan vs. Warley. Following that victory, efforts were made by white of white property holders to achieve the same results by means of clauses in deeds to their property which prohibited sale, usually for a specified number of years, to a Negro.

CORINTHIAN NOTES

(By Allie F. Winston)

Sunday, August 5th, was one of the greatest days in the history of the Corinthian Baptist Church. At the opening of the morning service the main floor and balcony were packed to full capacity. The members of the Roosevelt, Monarch, Mary Church Terrell and La Merced Clubs who were the honored guests, made a splendid showing. We also had a large number of out of town guests with us. The choir was at its best during the entire service. Rev. G. W. Robinson delivered a wonderful sermon, after which two were united with the church. At the conclusion of the service the new Baptistry was dedicated, during which time the choir was chanting softly and sweetly the beautiful hymn, "Near to Thee," Rev. L. G. Garrett, Mt. Hebron, Valley Junction, preached a very impressive sermon to the Junior Matrons Society at 3:00 P. M. Rev. Robinson delivered a splendid sermon at the 8:00 o'clock services, to a well filled house, after which he baptised two and administered the Lord's Supper. The annual Sunday School picnic was held Thursday, August 9th, at Greenwood Park. There were games and sports of all sorts and everyone spent a wonderful afternoon. The Red Circle Girls met Monday evening, August 6, at the Parish House. Rev. C. B. Wheeler preached at the Mt. Olive Church; Sunday, at 8 o'clock service, and at the Mt. Hebron, Valley Junction, Wednesday evening. Sunday, August 12, will be known as "Bring-One" day. Every member and friend are to bring one or more guests with them. Everybody is welcome to attend Corinthian Church at all times.

BETHEL A. M. E. NOTES
On Saturday, August 4th, a big Emancipation celebration was given by the members of Bethel Church. B. W. Garrett, clerk of supreme court delivered the principal address, and those who heard it can say that he is an eloquent and forceful speaker. A musical and literary program was given in connection with the other. The Young Women's Missionary Societly of Bethel entertained the Young Women's Society of St. Paul in the Parsonage, Monday afternoon. Very pleasant afternoon was spent. The Senior Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. Vera Williams, Thursday afternoon. Mrs. E. M. Madison, Mrs. Molden, Mr. Carls and Mrs. Byrnes, all of Council Bluffs, were visitors at the parsonage, Monday. Those on the sick list are: Mesdames Ella Taloot, Zula Turner and Susie King.

GREET OUR AGENTS

Bystander agents are calling upon every Negro family in Iowa with the idea of securing a subscription in every home. They are meeting a hearty response in Des Moines where but one family has flatly refused. Regardless of the cause this is a fine record.

This canvass is being made in order to meet the people personally, explain the problems of the paper to them and to get their views. They are urging upon the old as well as new subscribers that the paper can progress only in proportion that they give their support and that their due account helps to make up that large outstanding list of delinquents which handicap us in the issuance of the paper.

The Bystander urges its subscribers and friends to realize that small weekly papers in cities are run with great difficulty; that admitting that the continuance of the paper is necessary, they should do their part in keeping it up with the lightest burden possible on the management.

GET ASSURANCES IN ADVANCE

In a statement issued at the time the personnel of the Negro organization of the republican national committee was appointed, Chairman Work congratulated the party upon the high standards of the parties selected and said the election of Hoover would bring a new day to the Negroes of this country.

The leaders of our group know that there is a great deal of dissatisfaction among the Negroes of the country because of the trend of unfairness being practiced on the race on every hand. The republican party is guilty of some of these injustices. Those close up to the heads of the party should realize that any assurance that the conditions will be corrected should be forthcoming now and not after the election.

Does this statement from Chairman Work mean that something has already been promised? We hope so. The list includes most of the key people among which is James Weldon Johnson, secretary of the N. A. A. C. P. Surely Mr. Johnson, who is better acquainted with the Negroes fight for justice than any other man to day will not let the opportunity pass to get some promise that the things for which the N. A. A. C. P. fights will be given favorable consideration.

THE NEGRO IN AMERICA

By J. G. Browne

In our last article we spoke of the heroism of Captain Andre Celloux, who commanded the color company of the Negro troops in the early stages of the assault upon Port Hudson. It would be impossible to mention all displayed by these black soldiers under these discouraging circumstances. The correspondent of the New York Times gives the following account of the conduct of these regiments:

"The deeds of heroism performed by these colored men were such as the proudest white men might emulate. Their colors are torn to pieces by shot, and literally bespattered by blood and brains. The color-sergeant,

LOVE

Nothing on earth or in Heaven above,
Is half so powerful as love;
Love in power reigns supreme,
Where love reigns, it reigns as king.

Love will carry to the heights
Till the soul with sure delight,
And yet, that same love tortures so
If unrequited here below.

Love will make men fight and kill,
But, oh, how sad, sadder still
Is love that drives brave men mad
And turns their course from good to bad.

Still love will enter in the depths
And battle wrong both right and left,
Bringing lost ones to the fold
To enter joyousness untold.

When love steps in, hate fades away
Hate cannot dwell where love holds sway.

Love comes direct from God above
For love is God, and God is love.

Anselmas Planciancois, of the First Louisiana, on being mortally wounded, hugged the colors to his breast, when a struggle ensued between the two color-corporals on each side of him as to who should have the honor of bearing the sacred banner, and during this generous contention one was seriously wounded. One black lieutenant actually mounted the enemy's works three times, and in one charge the assaulting party came within fifty paces of them. Indeed, if only ordinarily supported by artillery and reserves, no one can convince us that they would not have made a passage through the enemy's works.

"One poor wounded fellow came along with his arm shattered by a shell, and jauntily swinging it with the other, as he said to a friend of mine, 'Massa, guess I can fight no more.' I was with one of the captains, looking after the wounded going in the rear of this hospital, when we met one limping along towards the front. On being asked where he was going, he said, 'I been shot bad in the leg, captain, and dey want me to go to de hospital, but I guess I can gib 'em some more yet.'

"Although repulsed in an attempt which, situated as things were, was all but impossible, these regiments, though badly cut up, are still on hand, and burning with a passion ten times hotter from their fierce baptism of blood."

The Second Louisiana was stationed at Ship Island, Mississippi, in the early spring of 1863 under the command of Colonel Nathan W. Daniels. The enemy was sending troops from Mobile to reinforce Charleston, General Sherman in command of the defenses of New Orleans, determined to make several demonstrations, up the Mississippi Sound. Colonel Daniels, hearing that the enemy was headed toward East Pascagoula, embarked with companies B and C consisting of one hundred and eighty men. At 9 A. M. the morning of April 10, 1863, the transport General Baggs landed at Pascagoula, and Colonel Daniels took possession of the hotel and placed his colors on the flag-staff. He placed his picket lines, possessed the own and placed small squads to hold the roads leading into the town. This was scarcely accomplished when the enemy's cavalry numbering over three hundred men drive his pickets in; but these of seasoned veterans and rove the reserve met them with the cool-made a dash upon the hotel but met the same fate. Then the Confederate infantry made an attack upon the left flank. The lines were drawn in and took shelter behind an old wharf from which they held. The enemy was repulsed and retired in confusion.

Shortly afterward the enemy made an assault upon the center, and although these troops never under fire before stood in the open field and repulsed the assaulting troops. In his report to General Sherman April 11, 1863, Colonel Daniels said:

"The expedition was a perfect success. Great credit is due to the troops engaged for their unflinching bravery, under this their first fire, exchanging volley after volley with the coolness of veterans, and for their determined tenacity in maintaining their position, and taking advantage of every success that their courage and valor gave them. . . demonstrating, that the oppression which they have undergone from the hands of their foes, and the obliquity that had been showered upon them by those who should have been their friends had not extinguished their manhood or oppressed their bravery."

TETANUS

The importance of attending to cuts and bruises properly in the prevention of Tetanus or Lockjaw cannot be too often emphasized and it is just as important to give them attention early as cases have been known to develop within twenty-four hours after an injury. Others have developed as late as sixty hours after injury and when the wound seemed practically healed. Those injuries which are contaminated with dirt are the ones which usually develop into Lockjaw although a wound which seems clean to close observation may be contaminated. The germ itself has been found as deep under the earth as twelve inches and seems more abundant in certain localities than in others. The disease may follow injuries sustained anywhere on the body the only requisite for infection being the presence of the germ on the object which causes the injury, be it a nail, an ice pick, the pavement, the earth itself or whatever the injuring object may be. I think it is a safe statement to make that all injuries which are treated early and given protective doses of anti-tetanic serum at the very time of the injury and another dose later on if the symptoms indicate will not develop the disease.

Affidavit Attacks Governor

The affidavit, which is quite lengthy and which sets forth all the circumstances in detail, contains a bitter attack upon Gov. John G. Richards of South Carolina for accepting without investigation the woman's repudiation of her affidavit. That part of the statement reads: "that for the first time, today, July 20, 1928, he (Timmons) has been asked by a representative of Governor John G. Richards' office for a statement concerning the procurement of affidavit from the woman involved in the Ben Bess case; that except for the fact that this is a case in which the general public has an interest, he would promptly refuse to make an affidavit or statement, as he does not feel that he is due the least courtesy to the said John G. Richards, when said Richards has without an investigation into the facts, branded the procurement of the affidavit in the case as fraudulent; that to repeat, this affidavit is made solely that the general public may, for the first time, learn the truth."

Seek to Prove Law Point
At the request of Mr. N. J. Frederick of Columbia who is acting for Ben Bess to obtain, if possible, his freedom, William T. Andrews, Special Legal Assistant of the N. A. A. C. P., has compiled and forwarded to Mr. Frederick a careful statement of law on the question of whether or not an unconditional pardon can be revoked. It is a well established principle of law that such revocation is impossible.

MISS FRY SUCCEEDING

Editor's Note—The following letter written to Mr. Jones, tells of the splendid work being done by one of the East High graduates, Miss Frye is only one of several Iowans now working at Piney Woods school.

Piney Woods School,
Piney Woods, Miss.
Mr. Laurence C. Jones,
General Delivery,
Lincoln, Nebraska:

I certainly like the office work very much, and I do believe that I have become more efficient in it than I was. I have been here nearly six months now, and since I have always been interested in this work, I am sure I could not have kept from making some progress had I tried. Teaching school in the early morning isn't half so bad after one becomes accustomed to it, and I have just about reached that stage. My pupils are all quite interesting and I really enjoy working with them. I only hope that when the term is over I shall have made some improvement in them, and I know that my experience will mean much to me.

Despite all difficulties, I hope that you and all those concerned with the work, this summer, will have a great success.

Sincerely,
Miss Emma Frye.

N. A. A. C. P. SENDS CHECK FOR ANTI-RESIDENTIAL SEGREGATION FIGHT

Briefs in District of Columbia Court of Appeals Printed; to Test Validity of Property Owners Covenant Barring Negroes

New York, Aug. 9—The National office of the N. A. A. C. P. this week forwarded its check for $180.75 to George E. C. Hayes, attorney of Washington covering the cost of printing the briefs in the case of Cornish vs. O'Donoghue, in the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia. This is the action brought to test whether or not white property owners may include the deeds to property clauses which prohibit the sale by any future owner of that property to persons of Negro blood.

This case marks another step in the relentless battle which the N. A. A. C. P. has waged for upwards of ten years to checkmate and defeat each new move to segregate colored people. It will be recalled that in 1917 the Association eliminated for all time segregation by municipal ordinances or state laws through the victory gained in the United States Supreme Court in the Louisville case of Buchanan vs. Warley. Following that victory, efforts were made by white property holders to achieve the same results by means of clauses in deeds to their property which prohibited sale, usually for a specified number of years, to a Negro.

CORINTHIAN NOTES

(By Allie F. Winston)

Sunday, August 5th, was one of the greatest days in the history of the Corinthian Baptist Church. At the opening of the morning service the main floor and balcony were packed to full capacity. The members of the Roosevelt, Monarch, Mary Church Terrell and La Mercredi Clubs who were the honored guests, made a splendid showing. We also had a large number of out of town guests with us. The choir was at its best during the entire service. Rev. G. W. Robinson delivered a wonderful sermon, after which two were united with the church. At the conclusion of the service the new Baptistry was dedicated, during which time the choir was chanting softly and sweetly the beautiful hymn, "Near to Thee." Rev. L. G. Garrett, Mt. Hebron, Valley Junction, preached a very impressive sermon to the Junior Matrons Society at 3:00 P. M. Rev. Robinson delivered a splendid sermon at the 8:00 o'clock services, to a well filled house, after which he baptised two and administered the Lord's Supper. The annual Sunday School picnic was held Thursday, August 9th, at Greenwood Park. There were games and sports of all sorts and everyone spent a wonderful afternoon. The Red Circle Girls met Monday evening, August 6, at the Parish House. Rev. C. B. Wheeler preached at the Mt. Olive Church, Sunday, at 8 o'clock service, and at the Mt. Hebron, Valley Junction, Wednesday evening. Sunday, August 12, will be known as "Bring-One" day. Every member and friend are to bring one or more guests with them. Everybody is welcome to attend Corinthian Church at all times.

Fifty Years In Iowa

Mr. Milligan was born in Bowling Green, Ky., an dat an early age, in 1868, moved to Chicago. He came to Iowa in 1874 and settled in Mahaska County. He served as a state guard at the Reformatory at Anamosa, for several years. For a while he lived at Des Moines during which time he became a member and served as worshipful master of North Star Masonic Lodge. From 1883, the time he became a member, till the time of his death he was an outstanding leader in the Masonic Grand Lodge. In 1905 he was elected and served six years as Grand Master. Under his administration the present efficient endowment system of the Grand Lodge was evolved and put into operation.

In 1907 with the assistance of others he combined scattered Chapters of O. E. S. Grand Chapters of the Missouri and Illinois Jurisdiction in Iowa, and formed a new organization, the Electric Grand Chapter O. E. S. of Iowa and jurisdiction of which he served as first Grand Patron.

EDITOR SMITH UPSETS

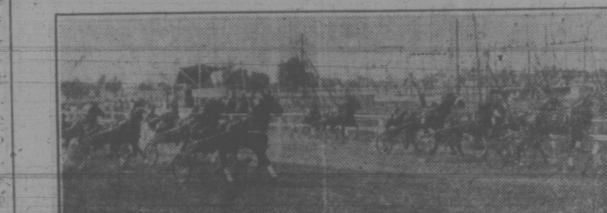

OHIO POLITICAL BOAT

Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 9, (P.N.S.)—Of considerable interest to political observers of the situation throughout the state is the renewed candidacy of Harry C. Smith, editor of the Cleveland Gazette, as a candidate for governor. Smith is said to be on the war-path against Hoover.

Editor Must Never Err

When a plumber makes a mistake, he charges twice for it. When a lawyer makes a mistake, it is just what he wanted, because he has a chance to try the case all over again. When a carpenter makes a mistake, it's just what he expected. When a doctor makes a mistake, he buries it. When a judge makes a mistake, it becomes the law of the land. When a preacher makes a mistake, nobody knows the difference. But when the editor makes a mistake—good-night!—The Outlook.

$20,000 FOR HORSE RACES

Advance entries indicate that Iowa racing enthusiasts will witness probably the fastest five days of harness and running events that will be seen in the mid-west this season, when the Iowa State Fair classics open at Des Moines August 25. More than $20,000 in purses will be paid to winners during these five days, and over 300 horses have been entered for these classics. Saturday, August 25, will be devoted exclusively to running races and the remaining days to a combination of both harness and running events. The above scene was snapped at the Iowa State Fair track during one of the fast finishes last summer.

SHOW IOWA'S FINEST CALVES

Between 600 and 700 prize baby heaves and dairy calves owned and raised by boy and girl farmers in all parts of Iowa will compete for the championship of the state in a mammoth calf club show which is to feature the Junior department of the Iowa State Fair at Des Moines, August 22 to 24. It is said that this will be the largest showing of boys and girls' livestock to be seen at any state fair in America this year. The above picture shows some of the club members at the State Fair grounds conditioning their entries for the judging ring.

Blackberry a Nuisance

War on the blackberry has been declared in New Zealand. During the last few years this fruit has encroached upon nearly 100,000 acres of valuable drying land, and thousands of pounds have been spent on vain efforts to defeat it. Insects have now been sent to New Zealand to eat up the blackberry.

Cause of Heartburn

Heartburn is not due to acid stomach, or any condition of the stomach contents, but to a muscular distention of the digestive tract itself, and can be controlled by medicine, according to two noted American physicians.

BODY OF WILLIAM SINKLER CREMATED

Pittsburgh, Pa., Aug. 9, (P.N.S.)—The unclaimed body of William Sinkler, alias Elisha Cole, aged about 27 of West Newton, was cremated Friday morning. Sinkler was killed by a railroad train at McKeesport July 5. Papers found in his possession indicate that he was discharged from Camp Lee following the termination of the World War.

STATE-WIDE DRIVE FOR MORRIS BROWN

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 9, (P.N.S.)—A state-wide campaign to obtain funds for the expansion of Morris Brown University here will get under way Monday, August 13 with a monster picnic to be held in Sunset Park under the auspices of the Alumni association. The state-wide campaign is under the direction of the presiding bishop and officers of the Georgia A. M. E. Conference.

S. O. ALLEN, of 641 East Grand Ave. has lived in Des Moines twenty-two years, and in the state of Iowa thirty-nine years, and held public office as constable some years ago, which office he filled with the greatest of satisfaction. Mr. Allen's word is always an honor. Of late Mr. Allen has been bothered with his eyes, but got relief by wearing Low Arntz's Doctor of Optics glasses. He writes as follows:

Dear Mother, Iowa, March 20, 1904. I had been troubled with pain in my eyeballs, and dizziness that gave me a great deal of trouble for a long time. I could not read but a short time until I would have to stop and rest my eyes. The pain would come so badly I had to stop reading. I confess I was skeptical about doctor's advertisements and testimonials, yet, as a last resort, I concluded to consult Low Arntz, who gave me great encouragement and fitted my eyes with perfectly ground glasses that have given me entire relief. I can now read all night without difficulty and suffer no more inconvenience, and can cheerfully recommend Low Arntz to any person suffering with their eyes.
