Local Man Found Dead in Auto

Derrick, Mechanic in Police Department Discovered Monday

Coroner Wright Says Man Had Been Dead For Eighteen Hours Had Heart Trouble

J. W. Derrick, 35 years old, a mechanic employed by the police department, was found dead in an automobile about 7:45 p. m. Monday.

The automobile in which Derrick was found belonged to the Runner used automobile company, and was standing across the street from the Runner garage, in front of 620 East Locust Street.

According to Coroner H. W. Wright Derrick had been dead about eighteen hours, and the cause of his death was probably heart disease. It is thought that he felt ill, and crawled into the car during or after the rain of Sunday night. One of the employees of the Runner company crossed the street when the rain began, to put up the windows of the car, and did not find Derrick there at that time.

Derrick has been employed by the police department at various times for nine years. He was city dog catcher under Mayor Carl Garver, and then became driver on the emergency crew.

After an absence from the department he returned last April, taking up the duties of a mechanic. Derrick will be remembered as the man, who, four years ago, with Officer Taylor, made a sensational capture here of two murderers escaped from the San Quentin penitentiary in California.

Besides his wife, Derrick survived by a son, J. W. Derrick, Jr., and two daughters, Lazon and Wacile. The funeral was held from Jones-Wilson funeral home Thursday.

Local Women Serve As Hoover Hostesses

In addition to the splendid work that has been done here in Iowa by key women for this republican campaign, the following women have been of special service in the capacity of an advisory committee: Mrs. Selby Johnson, Keokuk; Mrs. Georgia B. Cheatham, and Mrs. Edna K. Bell, Waterloo; Mrs. S. V. Bean, Davenport; Mrs. M. B. Pertum and Mrs. J. W. Tutt, Ottumwa; Mrs. Elvora Gresham and Mrs. D. Mae Lee Fine, Cedar Rapids; and Mrs. Bessie V. Johnson of Burlington.

BOY INJURED WHEN BULLET DISCHARGES

Leonard Crowder, four years of age, suffered minor injuries Thursday at his home, 1016 Southeast Allen street when a bullet from a stray cartridge struck him with a hatchet tore away the skin in his left shin bone.

Police took the injured child to the Broadlawn General hospital for treatment. The mother, Mrs. Rachel Crowder, said her son was playing in the backyard with a hatchet and struck the gun shell without realizing the danger.

Rev. Scott to Go To Detroit; Williams Here

With the announcement of the exchange of preachers by Bishops A. J. Carey and J. W. Gregg, the Rev. T. L. Scott, pastor of the St. Paul A. M. E. church of this city will assume the pastorate of the St. Paul A. M. E. church at Detroit, Mich. Rev. G. W. Williams of Kansas City, Mo., will come to Des Moines to pastor at the local church. Had Started Second Year.

Rev. Scott who was beginning his second year as pastor of the St. Paul A. M. E. church, came to Des Moines from Gary, Ind., where he pastored at the Bethel A. M. E. church of that city. He has already left for his new charge and his family will leave in about two weeks.

Rev. Williams, who is already in the city will doubtless not take over the work of the local church for another week. He, however, called a general church meeting which was held Friday. Plans are being made for a great financial campaign, it is said.

Change a Surprise

The change came as a surprise to many of the members of the local church, as the Rev. Scott had just been appointed to St. Paul church for another year by the Rt. Rev. A. J. Carey following the seventh session of the Northwestern Annual conference at Waterloo last month.

Rev. Williams comes to Des Moines following a successful pastorate at the Bethel A. M. E. church of Kansas City, Mo.

Prominent Republican Woman, City Visitor

At the second annual banquet of the Automotive Workers at St. Paul A. M. Church Thursday evening at which many prominent speakers were heard an added attraction was the appearance and a brief address by Mrs. Letha C. Fleming, Western Director, assigned to the organization of Colored Republican Women with headquarters in Chicago.

Mrs. Fleming who appeared recently in Washington, D. C. on the same program with Mrs. Mabel Walker Wilder, the woman Ass't. U. S. Atty. General was there rated as one of the best organizers in the country and although she has directed the political activities of women in each National Campaign since 1920, this was her first appearance in Iowa.

Orchestras Try Tunes For Hot Battle of Music

Local Elks Plan Big Festival for October 29; Generators To Meet Dysart's Boys.

"In this corner, ladies and gentlemen, the famous Joy Generators, champions of Des Moines and this corner they get hot, stay hot hand, Ray Dysart's Eight Rhythm Kings, Kansas City's hottest. Let's go!"

Doubtless with these words will start the hottest battle of music the city has ever seen when with hot tunes and soothing melodies two of the best orchestras in the middle west meet in mortal combat at the old Street Car Men's auditorium, Eighth and Mulberry Streets, Monday evening, October 29.

Two Masters of Ceremonies

Two masters of ceremonies, Jerry Hayes, local singer and dancer and director of the Generators and Dick Burrows, fast top dancer of Los Angeles, Cal., director of the Rhythmic Kings, will hold the boards in an effort to lead their respective bands to victory.

"We mean to serve nothing but hot stuff," Jerry stated in an interview yesterday.

"Every note we dispense will be steaming," Dick declared late last night. It is rumored that Burrows is banking on Augustus "Get-Hot" Warren, fast clarinet man to bring them the bacon, while the Generators favorite is said to be Seymour Morrison, versatile trumpeter.

The battle is to be staged under the auspices of Hawkeye lodge, 160 I. B. P. O. E. W. Guy Green, Henry Bradley, Fred Miller, compose the committee which is headed by Harry Johnson, master of social sessions. Wm. Rhodes is chairman of ways and means.

MOTHER SUFFERS WOUND

With his mother refusing to tell how she had suffered a minor gunshot wound in her temple, James Brown was being held in the city jail on a charge of intoxication and for investigation late Thursday afternoon.

His mother, Mrs. Jane Brown, was recovering at her residence, 523 South East Fifth Street, after having been treated and discharged from the Broadlawn General Hospital Friday night.

HOUSTON, POLICE BAR NEGRO ISSUE IN CAMPAIGN

Houston, Tex., Oct. 25.—(CSN)—Giving as their reason the fact that the Workers (Communist) Party preaches race equality and had made a special appeal to Negroes to attend the meeting, the police of Houston tonight attempted to break up a Communist election rally in this city.

The meeting which was to have been held at the Labor Temple was driven from that hall when police closed the doors and drove the crowd away. The Central Trades Council owners of the halls co-operated with the police, clearly stating that it objected to allowing Negroes to enter the hall.

The labor reactionaries and the police did not succeed in breaking up the meeting without great difficulty.

Love Unrequited Girl Kills Herself

Los Angeles, Calif., October 26.—What was said to have been the inattention of a local young man with whom she is said to have been deeply in love, brought such despondency on Miss Amanda Finks, 23, that she shot herself through the head at her home. She died at the Receiving hospital shortly after and was buried in the Evergreen cemetery. A great floral wreath sent by Young Jack Thompson was among the many tributes from her friends. She was very beautiful and her death was a great shock to her mother with whom she lived.

Incompatibility Caused Suit for Divorce, He Says

Prominent Kansas City Minister Says Wife Is Incompatible; Mrs. Hurse to File Cross Bill.

Kansas City, Mo., October 26.—Suit for divorce on grounds of incompatibility has been entered by the Rev. James W. Hurse, pastor of St. Stephens Baptist church of this city, against his wife, Mrs. Lulu Mae Hurse.

Mrs. Hurse, when she learned of the action, said she was greatly surprised, but understood that Rev. Hurse alleged incompatibility in his suit. She said that she would file a cross bill through her attorneys.

Suit a Surprise

This suit has come as a great surprise to the many friends of both parties, each of whom is popular in Kansas City and in many other states.

St. Stephens Baptist Church is one of the best known in the city and has one of the largest-Baptist congregations in the state.

Mrs. Hurse is nationally known as a singer of gospel songs and her singing is credited with having converted many people to the church. She is from Galveston, Texas, and has been here except for numerous trips since her marriage to Rev. Hurse, seven years ago.

Rev. Hurse Well Known. His church is one of the best known and most colorful of clergy-men of this city. He began preaching on the streets many years ago and attained such a following that he was able to start a tent church and later a real church building.

His church at Ninth and Harrison has the most complete plant in the city and its auditorium is the largest of all the colored churches.

Mrs. Hurse has been the director of the chorus for the National Baptist Convention for many years.

THE SAME OLD BUNK

The governor of Mississippi accused Hoover of dancing with a colored woman at Mound Bayou, Miss., while in the south during one of his inspection trips of the flood situation. Mr. Hoover's secretary denies it of course; ridiculous to be sure. But why does the governor raise the question now? It is the same old trick the dirty curs both north and south have always used as a last resort to beat the ignorant and spineless white man into line.

Social equality always scares the white man who is just sufficiently shallow brained to interpret it to mean that Negroes can force themselves upon white people in their social affairs and marry their daughters without restraint.

White people have members of their race whom they would never allow to cross their front door; Negroes the same. On the other hand some white people have Negroes whom they prefer as associates than some of their own group and vice versa. But all the relations are entirely personal and a man associates with whom he pleases. That is why Negroes have and always will fight jim crow laws, segregation, inter-marriages and all other forms of discrimination.

INCONSISTENT

We quote the following from Senator Robinson, vice-presidential nominee's speech at Sioux City, Ia.:

"Senator Robinson read a portion of an article he said was written for the Chicago Tribune by Arthur Sears Henning, who declared that while many republicans intended to vote for Governor Smith in Pennsylvania, the state seemed safe for Mr. Hoover. 'Considering how much money Mr. Mellon has not hesitated to blow on elections in the past and how potent money is in Pennsylvania elections, that ought to settle it.' Senator Robinson then said:

"Would Buy Election"

"This constitutes an assertion which, fairly interpreted, means that the secretary of the treasury, the second-richest man in the United States, intends to buy the election away from the democratic national ticket in support of the republican national ticket.

"As pointed out by the Omaha World Herald, this republican writer in a great newspaper not only boasts that Mr. Mellon will purchase Pennsylvania for Mr. Hoover, but he also quotes a republican leader in Pennsylvania as saying:

"As for the Negroes, I think the most of them will be satisfied to vote for Hoover at the usual price of 50 cents and a drink of gin. They always have been in the past."

"Should Be Resented"

"The Negro voters of the nation should resent this arrogant and insulting reflection on the integrity of Pennsylvania Negroes.

"Mr. Henning further declares that the Pennsylvania republican leader just quoted also might be done along the line of counting a goodly number of Smith votes for Hoover.

"He boasted that this is an established practice in Philadelphia, brought to a high state of perfection by the Vore machine and made possible by the fact that at most polling places the election officials are all republicans.

"These are some of the grounds upon which progressives should repudiate the standpat policies and corrupt practices by which it is proposed to maintain in power the present leadership of the republican party."

He is right, Negroes resent the statement from the Pennsylvania leader who, by the way, does not represent the sentiment of the republican party. Everybody knows it; that this is true among Negroes only in so far as it applies to any other group.

But why does the senator come to Iowa to raise the question of election scandals when his state and the whole solid South are past artists at the job. For instance, take their leading Statesman—Senator Carter Glass of Virginia, for one, openly boasts of it. If Iowa people fall for Senator Robinson's bunk, like the heckler in Senator Curtis's speech at Spencer, they are "too dam dumb to understand," or they don't believe in constitutional government.

THE NEGRO IN AMERICA

By J. G. Browne

There is an old saying that "it is an ill wind that blows nobody any good." The discontent that is manifest among the Negro voters of the United States is causing the other citizens of our country to consider and ask the reason why.

When a great newspaper like the Chicago Tribune turns the searchlight of publicity on national injustices practiced against us as people, it won't be long before the public conscience will be aroused, and sentiment for the just enforcement of all laws will be a fact rather than a theory.

Except by this protest the Negro never would have been able to interest so powerful a publication as this to the extent that it would attempt to turn the torch light of publicity on the pseudo-saints, who rise upon their hind legs in holy conformation at the flagrant disregard of a property right as embodied in the Eighth amendment, and wink at and connive in the nullification of the Thirteenth, Fourteenth and Fifteenth amendments which embody human rights.

The apostles of deceit for political expediency have said that "there is a difference in the operation of these amendments, by which there are legal grounds for the enforcement of the one and not for the other."

For a while, many of our spineless, dollar-seeking leaders, attempt to condone this in this viewpoint, and cry out "that's right, me too," but are not deceived, the interest is the basis from which all laws must be interpreted.

Human rights are equitable rights. It is not a question of what a law permits us to do, but what equity teaches us we ought to do.

If she wishes the strict enforcement of the Eighteenth, then the other may wish the strict enforcement of the Fourteenth amendment, that is reciprocity, one of the established principles of our government.

The real trend of American ethics is toward true democracy. The fundamental basis of our government is liberty and justice for all. Since this is so, the superstructure must conform with the rest of the building.

Patriotism is love for one's country, and every true American desires that this government of the people, by the people, and for the people, shall not perish from the earth.

Men Sing "Let Jesus Lead Me Out" As Warden Enters Door

Columbia, S. C., Oct. 18.—Charlie Robinson, Sam Tolbert, George Palmer, John Brown and John Pinckney were saved from death Friday, after they had been led into the death chamber and left by notice of the granting of an appeal of the case which reached here from Charleston. When the warden went to the chamber in which all five of the men were awaiting their death, the men were singing, "Let Jesus Lead Me Out."

The warden opened the door and led them into the sunlight which they had never expected to see again.

John Pinckney, 16 years old, was the first of the condemned men to step out.

Robinson was sentenced in Charleston for the alleged murder of his common-law wife, it being charged that he soaked her with an inflammable substance and set her afire. Tolbert, Palmer, Brown and Pinckney were sentenced for the alleged murder of Carrie Loy, a Chinaman. The governor is investigating the case against the last four, it being alleged that two of the prisoners have made a confession in which they exonerate the other two.

SEES RUIN IN TARIFF STAND OF THE DEMOCRATS

Leland Declares His Election Would Be Greatest Calamity Which Could Befall Nation.

"I tried this Democratic free trade policy in 1923, and those of us who can remember the bread lines, the poverty and the suffering have no desire to repeat the experiment," says Henry M. Leland, veteran engineer of Detroit, Mich., in a letter to Chairman Work of the Republican National Committee. "We tried it again in 1913 with similar results, but were saved from further disaster only by the world war."

"At Smith, together with Tammany Hall, which he now dominates, and the members of the Democratic party in the past have stood like adamant for absolute free trade or a tariff for revenue only."

"If tariff schedules are reduced to a point where manufacturers in the cheap-labor countries of Europe can bring their products into this country and undersell our products, there is then only one of two things to do—reduce wages or close down plants throwing millions of our workmen into idleness. The want and distress are absolutely indescribable."

"I have studied the history of Al Smith since he was a boy mingling with other boys on the sidewalks of New York. I have scanned his record during the twelve years he has been a member of the Legislature of New York, and his record as Governor of that state. To my mind it would be difficult to imagine a greater calamity that could befall this country than his election to the Presidency."

"As this letter would be too lengthy if I should attempt to catalogue a complete list of my reasons for the foregoing statement, I will confine myself to only one or two of the economic reasons for my conviction."

"One of these is the Protective Tariff. Al Smith, together with Tammany Hall which he now dominates, and the members of the Democratic party in the past have stood like adamant for either absolute free trade or a tariff for revenue only. Is it reasonable now to expect the leopard to change his spots?"

"I have studied the history of Al Smith since he was a boy mingling with other boys on the sidewalks of New York. Affects 30 Million

"Our thirty million wage earners work altogether the shortest hours and receive by far the largest wages of any wage earners on earth. If labor schedules are reduced to a point where manufacturers in the cheap-labor countries of Europe can bring their products into this country and undersell our own products, there is then one of two things for our industry to do and that is reduce wages to meet that competition, or close down their plants throwing millions of workmen into idleness. Our people largely spend as they go—in fact many of them spend far in advance of their incomes, and the want and distress which would result from the cutting off their incomes, and the result to their creditors, are absolutely indescribable."

"Abraham Lincoln said that if we bought a stove or a locomotive made in Europe, then we had the stove or the locomotive, but Europe had the money."

"On the other hand, if we bought a stove or locomotive which was made in the United States, then we not only had the stove or locomotive, but we also had the money with which it was bought. This is a simple problem, but it is far-reaching and of the greatest possible significance to the workmen of America."

"The difference is the difference between the 'full dinner pail' and the 'empty dinner pail,' between a nation of many millions of well-paid thrifty citizens as against millions of people struggling with poverty."

"Not since this nation was born has the electorate had the opportunity to draft as its head a man so unambiguously equipped by experience, judgment, ability and integrity to cope successfully with the vast multiplicity of problems which confront us, and capable of leading us onward and upward to further greatness."

"With that opportunity, it is inconceivable that an enlightened citizenry would allow itself to be set backward a half a century by surrendering its destiny to Tammany Hall with its unsavory record of Booz, Boodle and Bunk."

Wells and America

Mr. H. G. Wells made a survey of the United States a number of years ago. In the book, "The Future in America," which he published as the result of his research, he asked "is the average citizen honest? Is he a rascal in humbug and grain? If he is, the future can never be more than a monstrous social disorganization in the face of divine opportunities." Whatever the future may have in store for us, Mr. Wells' phrase is a good description of large portions of the past as seen by Tammany Hall as a focus. —M. R. Werner in Tammany Hall.

Local Man Found Dead in Auto

Chicago Doctor Opens Offices In Des Moines

Dr. E. Thomas Scales, local surgeon at the University of Iowa, comes to Des Moines from Chicago where he served in the Provident hospital.

While at the University of Iowa, Dr. Scales was named a fellow in Pi Gamma Mu, national honor society, was elected to the National association of social science and signaled as a honor student in the college of medicine. He is also a member of Gamma chapter, Kappa Alpha Psi, Negro greek letter college fraternity.

Many girls at the university of Iowa know Mrs. Lillian Scales, wife of Dr. Scales, as she served as matron of the Iowa Federation of colored girls' home while Dr. Scales was attending school there.

In Chicago he had the unique experience of operating under some of the leading surgeons of the United States. He did work under the auspices of the Chicago Lying-in Hospital, the largest maternity hospital in the world. Dr. Scales expects to devote the major part of his time to surgical work and women's diseases while in Des Moines.

Dr. Scales, his wife and small son Junior are making their residence on the east side of the city at the home of Mrs. Hamilton, 706 Walker Street.

Advice by Dr. Geo. W. Little, beauty hints by Miss Josephine, love problems by Julia Jerome, a true story "A Dangerous Game" by Martha Evelyn Brown, "Kiddies Corner" by C. Leslie Frazier, and numerous other features of interest to women.

The magazine contains one solid page of pictures of beautiful women of the stage including late poses of Josephine Baker in Paris, Arline Conroy, Julia Moody, Gertrude Saunders, Ethelred Murray and Ethel Waters.

The editor, Geo. S. Schuyler, reviews "The African Sagar" in his column "Chats About Books."

"Front" Startling Story

One of the most striking pieces of literature of the new feature section is a short story by Reginald Wright "Front," a shocking incident in a Boston hotel.

All Youssif Mohammed, the distinguished Egyptian actor, writes a startling article on "Your Dreama," and tells what they mean to your present and future.

Watch for the section appearing with the Bystander in the issue of November 3.

Love Unrequited Girl Kills Herself

Los Angeles, Cal., October 26—What was said to have been the inattention of a local young man with whom she is said to have been deeply in love, brought such despondency on Miss Amanda Finks, 23, that she shot herself through the head at her home. She died at the Receiving hospital shortly after and was buried in the Evergreen cemetery. A great floral wreath sent by Young Jack Thompson was among the many tributes from her friends. She was very beautiful and her death was a great shock to her mother with whom she lived.

Incompatibility Caused Suit for Divorce, He Says

Prominent Kansas City Minister Says Wife Is Incompatible; Mrs. Hulse to File Cross Bill

Kansas City, Mo., October 26—Suit for divorce on grounds of incompatibility has been entered by the Rev. James W. Hulse, pastor of St. Stephens Baptist church of this city, against his wife, Mrs. Lulu Mae Hulse.

Mrs. Hulse, when she learned of the action, said she was greatly surprised, but understood that Rev. Hulse alleged incompatibility in his suit. She said that she would file a cross bill through her attorneys.

Suit a Surprise

This suit has come as a great surprise to the many friends of both parties, each of whom is popular in Kansas City and in many other states.

St. Stephens Baptist Church is one of the best known in the city and has one of the largest Baptist congregations in the state.

Mrs. Hulse is nationally known as a singer of gospel songs and her singing is credited with having converted many people to the church. She is from Galveston, Texas, and has been here except for numerous trips since her marriage to Rev. Hulse, seven years ago.

Rev. Hulse is one of the best known and most colorful of clergymen of this city. He began preaching on the streets many years ago and attained such a following that he was able to start a tent church and later a real church building.

His church at Ninth and Harrison has the most complete plant in the city and its auditorium is the largest of all the colored churches.

Mrs. Hulse has been the director of the chorus for the National Baptist Convention for many years.

Orchestras Try Tunes For Hot Battle of Music

"In this corner, lad-ees and gentlemen, the famous Joy Generators, champions of Des Moines and this corner they get hot, stay hot band, Ray Dysart's Eight Rhythm Kings, Kansas City's hottest. Let's go!"

Doubtless with these words will start the hottest battle of music the city has ever seen with hot tunes and soothing melodies of the best orchestras in the middle west meet in mortal conflict at the old Street Car Men's auditorium, Eighth and Mulberry streets, Monday evening, October 29.

Two Masters of Ceremonies

Two masters of ceremonies, Jerry Hayes, local songster and dancer and director of the Generators and Dick Burrows, fast tap dancer of Los Angeles, Cal., director of the Rhythm Kings, will hold the boards in an effort to lead their respective bands to victory.

"We mean to serve nothing but hot stuff," Jerry stated in an interview yesterday.

"Every note we dispense will be steaming," Dick declared late last night. It is rumored that Burrows is banking on Augustus "Get-Hot" Warren, fast clarinet man to bring them the bacon, while the Generators favorite is said to be Seymour Morrison, versatile trumpeter.

With the announcement of the exchange of preachers by Bishops A. J. Carey and J. W. Gregg, the Rev. T. L. Scott, pastor of the St. Paul A. M. E. church of this city will assume the pastorate of the St. Paul A. M. E. church at Detroit, Mich.

Rev. Williams, who is already in the city will doubtless not take over the work of the local church for another week. He, however, called a general church meeting which was held Friday. Plans are being made for a great financial campaign, it is said.

Change a Surprise

The change came as a surprise to many of the members of the local church, as the Rev. Scott had just been appointed to St. Paul church for another year by the Rt. Rev. A. J. Carey following the seventh session of the Northwestern Annual conference at Waterloo last month.

Coroner Wright Says Man Had Been Dead For Eighteen Hours Had Heart Trouble

J. W. Derrick, 35 years old, a mechanic employed by the police department, was found dead in an automobile about 7:45 p. m. Monday.

The automobile in which Derrick was found belonged to the Runner used automobile company, and was standing across the street from the Runner garage, in front of 620 East Locust Street.

According to Coroner H. W. Wright Derrick had been dead about eighteen hours, and the cause of his death was probably heart disease. It is thought that he felt ill, and crawled into the car during or after the rain of Sunday night. One of the employees of the Runner company crossed the street when the rain began, to put up the windows of the car, and did not find Derrick there at that time.

Derrick had been employed by the police department at various times for some years. He was city night catcher under Mayor Carl Garver, and then became driver on the emergency crew.

After an absence from the department he returned last April, taking up the duties of a mechanic. Derrick will be remembered as the man, who, four years ago, with Officer Taylor, made a sensational capture here of two murderers escaped from the San Quentin penitentiary in California.

Besides his wife, Derrick is survived by a son, J. W. Derrick, Jr., and two daughters, Lazon and Waele. The funeral was held from Jones-Wilson funeral home Thursday.

Prizes are to be awarded to the best masked man and woman. Howard stated. The admission is fifty cents.

MOTHER SUFFERS WOUND POLICE HOLD SON IN JAIL

His mother, Mrs. Jane Brown, was recovering at her residence, 623 South East Fifth Street, after having been treated and discharged from the Broadlawn General Hospital Friday night.

Houston Police Bar Negro Issue in Campaign

Houston, Tex., Oct. 25 (CSN)—Giving as their reason the fact that the Workers (Communist) Party preaches race equality and had made a special appeal to Negroes to attend the meeting, the police of Houston tonight attempted to break up a Communist election rally in this city.

The meeting which was to have been held at the Labor Temple was driven from that hall when police closed the doors and drove the crowd away. The Central Trades Council owners of the halls co-operated with the police, clearly stating that it objected to allowing Negroes to enter the hall.

The labor reactionaries and the police did not succeed in breaking up the meeting without great difficulty.

Marse Henry's Idea

Prominent Republican Woman, City Visitor

At the second annual banquet of the Automotive Workers at St. Paul A. M. Church Thursday evening at which many prominent speakers were heard an added attraction was the appearance and a brief address by Mrs. Lethia C. Fleming, Western Director, assigned to the organization of Colored Republican Women with headquarters in Chicago.

Mrs. Fleming who appeared recently in Washington, D. C. on the same program with Mrs. Mabel Walker Wilderbrandt, the woman Asst. U. S. Atty. General was there rated as one of the best organizers in the country; and although she has directed the political activities of women in each National Campaign since 1920, this was her first appearance in Iowa.

Boy Injured When Bullet Discharges

THE SAME OLD BUNK

The governor of Mississippi, accused Hoover of dancing with a colored woman at Mound Bayou, Miss., while in the south during one of his inspection trips of the flood situation. Mr. Hoover's secretary denies it of course; ridiculous to be sure. But why does the governor raise the question now? It is the same old trick the dirty curs both north and south have always used as a last resort to beat the ignorant and spineless white man into line.

Social equality always scares the white man who is just sufficiently shallow brained to interpret it to mean that Negroes can force themselves upon white people in their social affairs and marry their daughters without restraint.

White people have members of their race whom they would never allow to cross their front door; Negroes the same. On the other hand some white people have Negroes whom they prefer as associates than some of their own group and vice versa. But all the relations are entirely personal and a man associates with whom he pleases. That is why Negroes have and always will fight jim crow laws, segregation, inter-marriages and all other forms of discrimination.

To raise this question is nothing new among people of the Mississippi governor's type.

INCONSISTENT

We quote the following from Senator Robinson, vice-presidential nominee's speech at Sioux City, Ia.:

"Senator Robinson read a portion of an article he said was written for the Chicago Tribune by Arthur Sears Henning, who declared that while many republicans intended to vote for Governor Smith in Pennsylvania, the state seemed safe for Mr. Hoover. Considering how much money Mr. Mellon has not hesitated to blow on elections in the past and how potent money is in Pennsylvania elections, that ought to settle it." Senator Robinson then said:

"Would Buy Election" "This constitutes an assertion which, fairly interpreted, means that the secretary of the treasury, the second richest man in the United States, intends to buy the election away from the democratic national ticket in support of the republican national ticket."

"As pointed out by the Omaha World Herald, this republican writer in a great newspaper not only boasts that Mr. Mellon will purchase Pennsylvania for Mr. Hoover, but he also quotes a republican leader in Pennsylvania as saying:

"As for the Negroes, I think the most of them will be satisfied to vote for Hoover at the usual price of 50 cents and a drink of gin. They always have been in the past."

"Should Be Resented" "The Negro voters of the nation should resent this arrogant and insulting reflection on the integrity of Pennsylvania Negroes."

"Mr. Henning further declares that the Pennsylvania republican leader just quoted also said:

"Something might be done for the republican ticket along the line of counting a goodly number of Smith votes for Hoover."

"He boasted that this is an established practice in Philadelphia, brought to a high state of perfection by the Vore machine and made possible by the fact that at most polling places the election officials are all republicans."

"These are some of the grounds upon which progressives should repudiate the standpoint policies and corrupt practices by which it is proposed to maintain in power the present leadership of the republican party."

He is right. Negroes resent the statement from the Pennsylvania leader who, by the way, does not represent the sentiment of the republican party. Everybody knows it: that this is true among Negroes only in so far as it applies to any other group.

But why does the senator come to Iowa to raise the question of election scandals when his state and the whole solid South are past artists at the job. For instance, take their leading statesman—Senator Carter Glass of Virginia, for one, openly boasts of it. If Iowa people fall for Senator Robinson's bunk like the heckler in Senator Curtis's speech at Spencer, they are "too damn dumb to understand," or they don't believe in constitutional government.

THE NEGRO IN AMERICA

By J. G. Browne

There is an old saying that "it is an ill wind that blows nobody any good." The discontent that is manifest among the Negro voters of the United States is causing the other citizens of our country to consider and ask the reason why.

When a great newspaper like the Chicago Tribune turns the searchlight of publicity on national injustices practiced against us as people, it won't be long before the public conscience will be aroused, and sentiment for the just enforcement of all laws will be a fact rather than a theory.

Except by this protest the Negro never would have been able to interest so powerful a publication as this, to the extent that it would attempt to turn the torch light of publicity on the pseudo saints, who rise upon their hind legs in holy consternation at the flagrant disregard of a property right as embodied in the Eighth amendment, and wink at and connive in the nullification of the Thirteenth, Fourteenth and Fifteenth amendments which embody human rights.

The apostles of deceit for political expediency have said that "there is a difference in the operation of these amendments, by which there are legal grounds for the enforcement of the one and not for the other."

For a long time, many of our spineless dollar seeking leaders, attempt to condone them in this viewpoint, and cry out "that's right, me too," but he not deceived, the interest is the basis from which all laws must be interpreted.

Human rights are equitable rights. It is not a question of what a law permits us to do, but what equity teaches us we ought to do.

If the one wishes the strict enforcement of the Eighteenth, then the other may wish the strict enforcement of the Fourteenth amendment, that is reciprocity, one of the established principles of our government.

The real trend of American ethics is toward true democracy. The fundamental basis of our government is liberty and justice for all. Since this is so, the superstructure must conform with the rest of the building. Patriotism is love for one's country, and every true American desires that this government of the people, by the people, and for the people, shall not perish from the earth.

Magazine Section

First: There will be five interesting, moving stories of Negro life, with Negro characters and by Negro authors. Think of it! Social stories and short stories of romance, drama, and adventure! That feature alone is worth more than the price of the paper.

Second: The pictorial news shows comely women of our race and outstanding characters from the different walks of life. This is a section you will like. Even the little tots will be fascinated by Negro pictures of the best class.

Third: Even the little tots will be fascinated by Negro pictures of the best class. The kiddies' Korner is just the thing for your live, wide awake youngsters. It features The Question Box, the Puzzle Box, short poems and many other interesting and enjoyable things.

We shall not deal in detail with the other departments, but shall mention them on the run. There is and will be a "weekly" sermon, by a Negro minister for those who are interested in religious discussions; a weekly sport review; weekly chats on etiquette and fashions; talks on health by a competent physician; household help and other features. Need we say more? All those features with the Bystander for the one price!

You cannot ignore this addition to the Bystander which the editor has been working on for months to obtain for your pleasure and entertainment. These features do not simply double the value of the Bystander, but more than triple its value to its readers.

There is no reason under the sun why every Negro family in Iowa should not be listed among our subscribers. These features are added for the reader's benefit at the expense of the Bystander. They answer the request for a bigger and better Bystander. Every person now on our subscription list must at once adjust their accounts with us. The only way we can continue to put out this new section is through the prompt payment of the subscriptions as they become due.

Just as soon as you have read the news section next week, we wish you to write us, giving your opinion of this added feature.

Men Sing "Let Jesus Lead Me Out" As Warden Enters Door

Columbia, S. C., Oct. 18.—Charlie Robinson, Sam Tolbert, George Palmer, John Brown and John Pinckney were saved from death Friday, after they had been led into the death chamber and left, by notice of the granting of an appeal of the case which reached here from Charleston. When the warden went to the chamber in which all five of the men were awaiting their death, the men were singing, "Let Jesus Lead Me Out."

The warden opened the door, and led them into the sunlight which they had never expected to see again.

John Pinckney, 16 years old, was the first of the condemned men to step out.

Robinson was sentenced in Charleston for the alleged murder of his common-law wife, it being charged that he soaked her with an inflammable substance and set her afire. Tolbert, Palmer, Brown and Pinckney were sentenced for the alleged murder of Carrie Loy, a Chinaman. The governor is investigating the case against the last four, it being alleged that two of the prisoners have made a confession in which they exonerate the other two.

SEES RUIN IN TARIFF STAND OF THE DEMOCRATS

Veteran Engineer Recalls Bread Lines of Previous Administration.

FLAYS GOVERNOR SMITH

Leland Declares His Election Would Be Greatest Calamity Which Could Befall Nation.

"We tried this Democratic free trade policy in 1923 and those of us who can remember the bread lines, the poverty and the suffering have no desire to repeat the experiment," says Henry M. Leland, veteran engineer of Detroit, Mich., in a letter to Chairman Work of the Republican National Committee. "We tried it again in 1913 with similar results, but were saved from further disaster only by the world war."

"Al Smith, together with Tammany Hall, which he now dominates, and the members of the Democratic party in the past have stood like adamant for either absolute free trade or a tariff for revenue only."

"If tariff schedules are reduced to a point where manufacturers in the cheap-labor countries of Europe can bring their products into this country and undersell our products, there is then only one of two things to do—reduce wages or close down plants throwing millions of our workmen into idleness. The want and distress are absolutely indescribable."

"I have studied the history of Al Smith since he was a boy mingling with other boys on the sidewalks of New York. I have scanned his record during the twelve years he was a member of the Legislature of New York, and his record as Governor of that state. To my mind it would be difficult to imagine a greater calamity that could befall this country than his election to the Presidency."

"As this letter would be too lengthy if I should attempt to catalogue a complete list of my reasons for the foregoing statement, I will confine myself to only one or two of the economic reasons for my convictions."

"One of these is the Protective Tariff. Al Smith, together with Tammany Hall which he now dominates, and the members of the Democratic party in the past have stood like adamant for either absolute free trade or a tariff for revenue only. Is it reasonable now to expect the leopard to change his spots?"

AMOUNT $9,000,000

"Our thirty million wage earners work almost by far the longest hours of any wage earners on earth. If tariff schedules are reduced to a point where manufacturers in the cheap-labor countries of Europe can bring their products into this country and undersell our own products, there is then one of two things for our industries to do and that is reduce wages of workmen into idleness. Our people largely spend as they go; in fact many of them spend far in advance of their incomes, and the want and distress which would result from the cutting off of their incomes, and the result to their creditors, are absolutely indescribable."

"Abraham Lincoln said that if we bought a stove or a locomotive made in Europe, then we had the stove or the locomotive, but Europe had the money. On the other hand, if we bought a stove or locomotive which was made in the United States, then we not only had the stove or locomotive, but we also had the money with which it was bought. This is a simple problem, but it is far-reaching and of the greatest possible significance to the workmen of America."

"The difference is the difference between the full dinner pail, and the empty dinner pail, between a nation of many millions of well-paid thrifty citizens as against millions of people struggling with poverty."

"Not since this nation was born has the electorate had the opportunity to draft as its head a man the equal of Herbert Hoover, a man so thoroughly equipped by experience, judgment, ability and integrity to cope successfully with the vast multiplicity of problems which confront us, and capable of leading us onward and upward to further greatness."

"With that opportunity, it is inconceivable that an enlightened citizenry would allow itself to be set backward a half a century by surrendering its destiny to Tammany Hall with its unsavory record of Boozie, Boodle and Bunk."

Wells and America

Mr. H. G. Wells made a survey of the United States a number of years ago. In the book, "The Future in America," which he published as the result of his research, he asked, "Is the average citizen honest?" "Is the racial in humbug and again? Is he a monstrous social dehumanization in the face of divine opportunities?" Whatever the future may have in store for us, Mr. Wells' phrase is a good description of large portions of the past as seen with Tammany Hall as a touch—Mr. R. Weaver in Tammany Hall.

ARRESTS COMMUNISTS FOR ADVOCATING RACE EQUALITY

Wilmington, Del., Oct. 25 (C.N.S.)—Police officials of this city continued tonight the terror launched last night against speakers of the Workers (Communist) Party who dare to advocate race equality in their speeches.

Police officials of this city continued tonight the terror launched last night against speakers of the Workers (Communist) Party who dare to advocate race equality in their speeches here. This evening, Richard B. Moore, Negro communist candidate for Congress in the 21st Congressional District, was arrested together with Paul Crouch and two other white workers, Esther Markizon and Jennie Foranro. Unable to secure a hall following the police persecution of the preceding night, when William Z. Foster, Communist candidate for president, was arrested at Pythian Castle for denouncing the hideous crime of lynching the Workers' Party was forced to hold its meeting on the open streets in the colored district of Wilmington.

Fear Felt Concerning Prisoners
Moore was presenting to the large crowd, most of whom were Negro workers, the demands for equality for Negroes issued by the Workers (Communist) Party when the police seized him together with his white companions.

The arrested men and women were hustled off to the police station where no further word has been heard from them. Grave fears are felt for their safety on account of threats made by the chief of police as to what he would do to those advocating the abolition of lynching and of laws favoring Jim Crowism and forbidding inter-marriage.

Police Ban Negro Rights

Foster, who was arrested the night before, forced from the chief of police the admission that he was arrested because he advocated full social, political and economic equality for Negroes, and had urged the organization of new industrial unions in which Negro and white workers should unite against the common enemy, the capitalist class. The chief of police explained that it was his opinion that the discussion of the question of the rights of the Negro would incite Negroes to riot.

The chief of police at the same time threatened G. Newcombe, Worker (Communist) Party candidate for governor of Delaware, with bodily injury for distributing the party's anti-lynching leaflets.

"As for you," he shouted at Newcombe, "if you distribute any more of these leaflets favoring the abolition of laws forbidding inter-marriage you white hair will not save you. You will be taught a lesson you will never forget."

SAVES WOMAN AS TWO PERSONS DROWN

New Orleans, La., Oct. 25 (C.N.S.)—When an automobile in which four persons were riding snapped a guard-chain at the entrance of the Chief Mentour ferry, two of the occupants were drowned. The Negro chauffeur and Mrs. August Ladnier were unable to extricate themselves from the wreckage and perished in the water. Mr. and Mrs. Marth got free from the submerged car and Mrs. Martin was saved by a Negro passenger on the ferry, while the former succeeded in swimming to the shore.

COMMUNISTS CARRY PLATFORM OF EQUALITY INTO ARKANSAS

Phoenix, Ariz., Oct. 25 (C.N.S.)—Defying the capitalist terror which two weeks ago threatened anyone who would bring the Communist platform of race equality into the State of Arkansas, Benjamin Gitlow, Communist candidate for vice-president, yesterday addressed a large audience at City Hall Plaza. The local Rotary Clubs, Ku Klux Klan, American Legion and Chambers of Commerce got a severe jolt when, with the opening of the meeting, a Negro worker was seen seated next the vice-presidential candidate in a place of honor on the platform. There was loud talk of lynching Gitlow as a result of this action, coupled with his stirring and fearless denunciation of lynching, Jim-Crowism, segregation and all the other instruments used by the capitalists to oppress and terrorize the Negro workers of the South.

The nationwide agitation which has been conducted since the attempted kidnapping of Gitlow a week ago resulted in the mayor of Phoenix granting a permit to the Communists to hold the meeting at the very hall for which the city officials two weeks ago refused to grant the necessary permission.

Meeting a Victory for Communists
The holding of the meeting in Phoenix is a victory for the Workers (Communist) Party and a defeat for the reactionary organizations. The hall was well packed with white and colored workers who showed by thunderous applause their agreement with the sentiments expressed by Gitlow. As evidence of the fact that race prejudice is kept alive by the employing classes, was the splendid reception given the fearless platform of the Workers' Party which demands full equality for the Negro workers and in no uncertain terms denounces lynching, Jim-Crowism, segregation.
