SCHOOL ELECTION

On Monday, March 11, the school election will be held. No election in the city is of more importance to the colored people than the school election. Mrs. Three board members are to be selected for a term of six years. The school board is responsible for the policy of the system. More Negro boys and girls are entering the schools every year and we are anxious that the present fair attitude of the board be continued.

There are eight candidates in the field, from which three will be selected. This column most heartily recommends to its readers, Mr. Earl Stotts, Mr. Tom Sharpnack and Mrs. C. H. Hutsonpiller. In addition to the election of three board members the proposal to transfer $300,000 from the West High fund to the North High fund is up. There are fifty-seven colored boys and girls at North High. North High is badly in need of additional equipment. We urge that you vote "YES" on this proposal.

VOTE FOR
Mrs. C. H. Hutsonpiller

Vote "YES" on the bond transfer.
Tear this out and take it to the polls with you. Take all of your eligible family and urge your friends to vote that way. It is of vital interest to you and your children.

Twenty-two men of whom thirteen were Negroes were arrested in two gambling raids by the police vice squad early Sunday morning.

The nine whites were released four hours after their arrest which took place shortly after midnight. No charge was placed against them.
Each of the Negroes, however, was charged Sunday with unlawful assembly for gambling, and an additional charge of maintaining a gambling house was filed against Ralph Morris, at whose home at 1369 East Nineteenth street, they were arrested. Five of them filed bonds and were released.

Langford Loses To DeVoss in Fifth Round

Omaha, Nebr., March 5 (INB)—M. Rene De Voss, the Belgian linguist, Friday night won by a technical knockout in the fifth round over Wolcott Langford, Negro middleweight, of Chicago.

Though severely injured by a broken jaw received in the second round, Langford exchanged blows with the foreigner for three more rounds. De Voss continued to pound Langford on his disabled jaw, causing the Chicago glove tapper, no small amount of pain.

In the fourth round, however, the Chicagoan gave the Belgian a swift counter to the solar plexus, which caused the foreigner to emit a powerful groan. De Voss returned the blow to Langford's sore jaw, which sent him down for the count. He got up on the ninth count and finished the round though very much weakened.

At the end of the fifth round, seeing that the Chicago Negro was badly handicapped, referee Rexel stopped the fight. The referee had to stop De Voss, as the referee had to stop De Voss.
In the dressing room later, Dr. Michael J. Ford, examining physician, proved the ailment a fractured jaw.
Langford received $1,100 for his his share, which included transportation from Chicago.

Knoxville, Tenn., March 7 (CNS)—After 30 years of married life, the Rev. J. H. Coleman, pastor of the Ebenezer Baptist church, has filed suit for divorce in domestic relations court from Mrs. Emma Coleman.

Lincoln, Nebr., March 7 (INB)—When the curtain rose Thursday on the sixth seasonal production of the University Players, Eugene O'Neill's "Emperor Jones", for the first time in the history of the university of Nebraska, a Negro assumed the principal role in that school's productions: Claude Gordon of Omaha, a senior in the college of Arts and Sciences, will play the role of Emperor Jones.

The only Negro female speaking part will be taken by Stevie Whibbey, freshman in the school of Fine Arts. Other Negro students in the university who will take part are Gertrude Hooker and Victoria Thurman.

Wilson Named To Position in Treasure Office

Harry E. Wilson, a former bookkeeper in the general offices of the Manhattan Oil Co., is now employed in the office of Allen Munn, County Treasurer. He is well qualified for the work and will undoubtedly do well.

The Bystander congratulates Mr. Munn upon his adoption of the principle we have always maintained: that Negroes are entitled to recognition in all public offices and the officer who refuses to do so does not square with his party's pledge, and no man can be elected to that office in Polk county, yet, who does not run on a party ticket. While Mr. Wilson's appointment is temporary only, we hope Treasurer Munn will make it permanent. It can be done and it should be.

SUN LOSES VALUE FOR WHITE MAN—NO GOLD THERE!

Pasadena, Calif., March 7 (CNS)—"Golden sun" may be an expression warmly poetic, says Dr. Charles E. St. John, of the Mount Wilson observatory, but scientifically, it is not so appropriate.

Fifty-eight of the ninety-two elements are known to exist in the sun, Dr. St. John told the California Institute of Technology Thursday night, but gold is not among those discovered. Platinum, said the lecturer, who recently completed an exhaustive spectrographic study of solar materials, is the latest element discovered in the sun.

"When we look up at the stars," he said, "we are in one sense, looking at ourselves, for the stars and human being are made of the same stuff."

W. L. Riley Wins Five Year Battle For Police Pension

W. L. Riley, former police patrolman, won a five year fight for a police pension through a decision handed down Tuesday by Judge Herman Zeuch.

The case came before Judge Zeuch on a writ of certiorari after the city pension board had twice turned down Riley's claim that he was entitled to a pension on disability grounds.

Riley contended that he was stricken with cerebral hemorrhage while on duty in August, 1922, after seeing fifteen years of service in the department.

He appealed to the district court some time ago from the pension board's stand and the hearing in the case was held before Judge Zeuch Tuesday.

Judge Zeuch ordered the pension board to place Riley's name on the pension list and directed that they pay him back pension money amounting to $1,350. This includes salary of $75 a month since August, 1927.

NAACP To Aid in Virginia Segreg'n Fight

New York, March 7—Through its National Legal Committee, the N. A. A. C. P. will assist in an advisory capacity, the legal fight to be made against the new segregation ordinance enacted by the City of Richmond, Virginia.

A citizens' committee in Richmond has retained Alfred E. Cohen and Joseph R. Pollard, attorneys, to fight the case, on the basis of the decision by the U. S. Supreme Court in the Louisville Segregation case of 1917, (Buchanan vs. Warley) holding segregation ordinances unconstitutional.

The colored people of the city have the sympathy and endorsement of the outstanding white citizens in their attack upon this new segregation ordinance, according to Walter White, Assistant Secretary of the N. A. A. C. P., who has returned from conferences there.

Mr. White, after conferences with colored citizens and with the attorneys that had been retained, announced that the National office of the N. A. A. C. P. would act in an advisory capacity in the conduct of the case, that its National Legal committee would pass on all documents and legal steps during the contest and would help thoroughly prepare the case for eventual submission to the Supreme Court.

The leading editors of the city opposed the enactment of the ordinance and the Richmond Times-Dispatch charged editorially that the purpose of the measure was to "hoodwink the United States Supreme Court," an attempt the editor felt must be unsuccessful.

Odd Monkey Specimen

One of the most interesting specimens in the world zoos was the monkey that didn't have a tail, it was a single wall, singularly like the cry of a child. He was all black except for a white frontal band over his eyes.

Porter Rescues Hoboing Kitten

Winston, Minn., March 8 (INB)—A pullman porter on a northbound train found a maltese kitten riding on the red of a pullman coach in genuine hobo style and after rescuing the half frozen animal, turned it over to Agent Hale here.

When he reached Bingham Lake and told the story, he learned that the kitten had belonged to Operator Walker there, who had given it to his brother-in-law, Andrew Anderson, Heron Lake. The kitten, evidently had decided to return to Bingham Lake and was making for these parts when discovered by the porter.

Alac Talley pleaded guilty in federal court Wednesday to a charge of illegal transportation of liquor and was sentenced to 60 days in jail. He must also pay a fine of $50. Agents found half a gallon of corn whiskey buried in snow at the rear of his house.

Woman Badly Cut in Sioux City Knifing Battle

Sioux City, Ia., March 7 (INB)—Conditions early Thursday morning of Mame Hall, alias Lovett, 817 Cook street, who was the victim of a knifing fray Saturday night, remained critical, attendants at St. Vincent's hospital said.

William Watley, 46, also of 817 Cook street, was arrested at West Seventh and Cook streets a short time after the fray by detectives Bert Lutz and Henry Shumaker. He is being held in the city jail pending the outcome of the woman's condition.

The injured woman is said to have told officers that Watley wielded the knife that inflicted deep gashes about her arms and head. The stabbing took place at 817 Cook street, where the Hall woman rooms and Watley lives.

His children have always taken an active part in the civic, religious and social life of the city. Mr. and Mrs. Morrison in their 22 years here had always maintained an ideal home for their children. Surviving are his wife and three children, Seymour, Dorothy and Mary Morrison Earl, all of Des Moines; and one grandchild, Delbert Morrison. A daughter, Lucille Morrison, died in 1919. In addition to the immediate family Mr. Morrison is survived by a brother and two sisters.

Quartets to Battle

There will be a contest between the four leading men's quartets of this city at the St. Paul A. M. E. church Tuesday evening, March 12. These quartets have been heard over WHO and sung in many of the leading churches in Iowa and have on each occasion received high praise from their audiences. The public is invited to come out and hear these quartets. You will enjoy a real treat when you hear them. This contest is being sponsored by the St. Paul Stevards and the Corinthian Jubilee Chorus.

This program was advertised for last month but owing to the illness of Mr. Brown, one of the participants it was postponed. Tickets sold, for this are good for the 12th.

"The city had won two out of three pension appeals it has taken to the supreme court," Weaver stated. "We are going to take another chance in this case."

HAWKEYE LODGE NOTES

I. B. P. O. OF W.

It was with much sadness as well as surprise that the intelligence reached us of the demise of brother Thomas Andrews of Newton, Iowa, who died on the 28th February after an illness of two months.

Brothers N. P. Gray, exalted ruler accompanied by the Esquire brother Danforth, the secretary, and brother W. A. Benning, returned to Newton Sunday, March 3rd where they were met by past exalted ruler Harry Crews, brothers Howard and Woods and a host of friends of the deceased brother.

The family were very much pleased at the prompt payment of said claim, and thanked the lodge profusely.

Brother Andrews was a new member in Hawkeye Lodge, having joined in Feb. 1928, and died in Feb. 1929; he was the first member to die under the new burial arrangement of the lodge.

Hawkeye Lodge wishes to acknowledge and thank Mr. and Mrs. May of Newton, the M. E. ministers, both white and colored, and Mr. Murdoch the funeral director for their kindly assistance in conducting the funeral of brother Thomas Andrews.

HOPE IN HOOVER

Mr. Hoover has been inaugurated. His address contained little other than a reiteration of his campaign speeches and a more definite statement as to what he proposed to do with regards to the enforcement of the constitution.

If this committee was to deal with the prohibition question only, it would not interest us in the least. Not that we are not in favor of prohibition but there are other parts of the constitution that need serious attention, namely, the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments and as long as they are ignored this breeding of law law enforcement goes on.

We are mindful of the problems involved in dealing with these amendments and are therefore not insisting that radical changes that have no chance of being adopted be recommended but if a careful plan of adjustment is evolved destined to give fair and impartial justice to the Negro, he will be satisfied.

ANEMIA Anemia means not enough blood. A certain amount of blood is necessary to maintain life. Any condition causing a lessened amount of it produces an ailment of some kind showing itself in slight indisposition or definite weakness depending upon the degree of shortage that exists.

Nothing startling about that statement; everyone knows that. And yet many after realizing this truth go through life in a state of ambulatory semi-invalidity. Weakness of any kind is not indicative of perfect health. A person without any medical training might make his own diagnosis here, that is might suspect anemia and be right with the symptom of weakness only to work upon it.

So it is neither wise nor profitable to neglect an anemia whether it be well started or only in its beginnings. mention for our progress since 1861. We are tired of that. We of course, are interested in what is said, but we are more deeply concerned in what is done.

On law enforcement, president Hoover says "Our whole system of self government will crumble other if officials elect what laws they will enforce or citizens elect what laws they will support. The worst evil of disregard for some law is that it destroys respect for all law. For our citizens to patronize the violation of a particular law on the ground that they are opposed to it is destructive of the very basis of all that protection of life, of homes and of property which they rightfully claim under other laws."

HIT AND MISS

By R.M. P. Most anybody can boost the old home town along while the band is playing, but it takes a real patriot to sweep out the hall after the concert is over.

This problem of what's wrong with youth would be solved if automobiles could talk.

Even jail has its bright side; the outside.

If the Bystander does nothing more than keep the family home long enough to read it, it is worth while.

The Negro in America By J. G. Browne President Hoover's inaugural address was somewhat of an improvement on most of the other presidential addresses. It was a clear cut declaration of the principles for which he stands and the course he intends to pursue for the good of all citizens of the United States of America.

are great. One bit in particular where the comedians have a card game it is very amusing to see each one of them stealing cards from the other. One of the boys keeps saying "let's take out the deuces and the treys." Suddenly one of the men is called on the phone and after receiving his message he shoots himself off tags. One of the other boys asks what to do since old Bill has committed suicide and this same fellow speaks up and says "lets take out the deuces and treys."

Adelaide Hall, a charming little brownskin sings "Diga Diga Doo" and "I must Have That Man", two very pretty numbers that she really can put over. Miss Ward sings the hit song of the show "I Can't Give You Anything But Love," the most popular tune in New York. Bill Robinson, known as Bojangles, needs no introduction as every one remembers him being a headline on the Orpheum Circuit. Bill is at his best in this show. Speaking of dancing we have a friend known as Peg who is a one leg dancing maverick and stops the show every performance.

Now I will tell you just what is what with the new show that opened "Harlem" black drama in three acts by Wallace Thurman corroborating with William Jourdain Rapp, jazzed humpty-bumped, screamed, laughed and shot it straight into the Apollo Theater, 42nd Street off Broadway, last Wednesday night. Evidence are that there will it remain until Gabriel blows his horn. Black dramatic predecessors of Harlem with the exception of Porgy, have been nothing to brag about. "Harlem" however will pack 'em in and it safely can be predicted that some two-timing will be done.
