The above is the picture of Walter (Hoggy) Thompson of East High Des Moines, taking the first place in the 880 yard relay for dear old alma mater, competing against more than twenty entrants from prep schools from all over the middle west.

Such a picture, which was taken at the Drake Relays last week, would never have been possible if, say, the meet was held in Atlanta, Memphis, or any other southerly points so popularized by song.

Thompson, by the way, is the grid star for the Lee township school.

TOM MAYBERRY

On the early morning of the 6th of April the Kirkwood Hotel caught on fire. Six people lost their lives. Unquestionably the hero of this fire was Tom Mayberry. He was advised by firemen not to do it. Being a wet towel across his face when he was refused a gas mask, he went to the rescue of every human being that he could possibly get to. He said he was unable to listen to the moans, groans and prayers of men and women in that burning building without going to their rescue.

Tom Mayberry is black, ordinarily they don't have any black guests in the Kirkwood Hotel, at least there were none there on the morning of the 6th of April. It never occurred to Mayberry that a lot of the people whose lives he saved would have moved out if they had given him a room on the same floor of the hotel. I started to talk about Mayberry's heroism, pardon me. Mayberry's conduct on this occasion is something for which Negroes are very proud. The local branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People is giving a banquet in Mayberry's honor at St. Paul A. M. E. Church the night of May 8. This is a deserving honor and should be heavily patronized by the citizens of Des Moines.

Hazel Patten Wins Local Elks Oration Contest

The oratorical contest under the auspices of the Grand Lodge of Elks, Chas. P. Howard, director, held at St. Paul A. M. E. church, offered one of the finest demonstrations by the young Negroes in Des Moines ever seen. Ten participants appeared. The subjects chosen by the Commissioner of Education, Judge Hueston of Gary, Ind., were "Frederick Douglass and the Constitution," "Lincoln and the Constitution," "John Marshall and the Constitution," "The Constitution and Slavery," "The Constitution and Citizenship," "Relation of the Book, 'Uncle Tom's Cabin' to the Constitution," and "Harriet Beecher Stowe and the Constitution" were aimed to give the boys and girls who took part an opportunity to make special study to a portion of our history which Negroes fail to get in the public schools in many instances.

The contestants prepared their orations with great care and delivered them to the satisfaction of the audience. Miss Hazel Patten was declared winner of the first prize which entitles her to a trip to St. Louis where she will compete for the sectional prizes, the winner of which will go to Atlantic City to contest for the national prize; Miss Ivory Green of Manley, Iowa, won second place.

DePriest Casts First Vote on Haugen Federal Farm Relief Measure

Wilson Says He Welcomes Elks Probe

Finley Wilson Welcomes Accusers to Search Records; Will Launch Campaign for Re-election

"I welcome an investigation and not only an investigation of the finances of the order, but I welcome an investigation of the character and veracity of the grand exalted ruler.

"My life will stand investigation from my birth in 1880 to this very day. I was christened J. Finley Wilson. I have always been known by that name. I have never been indicted or convicted in any court on any criminal charge in any court, state or federal, nor have I served a day in prison. Can any of my accusers truthfully say such?"

"Economy and efficiency," continued Mr. Wilson, "will be my slogan at Atlantic City, and if I cannot produce a better record this year than the year before I shall not ask the suffrage of the convention."

Washington, D. C., May 2.—Representative Oscar DePriest, Republican of Illinois, voted for the Haugen federal farm relief bill which passed the House last Thursday by a vote of 366 to 35. This was his first vote on a roll call.

The bill creates a federal farm board of six members who shall be appointed by the president and confirmed by the Senate.

It authorizes as a revolving fund, to be made available by Congress as soon as practicable for loans and advances for farm relief through cooperative associations.

The board is authorized to make loans from the revolving fund to assist in the "effective merchandising of agricultural commodities and food products thereof; for construction or acquisition of storage or other physical marketing facilities; for formation of clearing house associations," and for extending the membership of cooperative associations applying for loans "by educating the producers of the commodity handled by the association in the advantages of cooperative marketing of that commodity."

GOVERNOR OF VIRGIN ISLANDS HOWARD VISITOR

Governor Waldo Evans, of the Virgin Islands, visited Howard University on Wednesday and addressed the students and faculty in Andrew Rankin Chapel, at the University Assembly Hour. The Governor's visit was in response to an invitation by Dr. D. E. Wiseman, a native of the Virgin Islands and an alumnus of Howard University, who for a long period of years was a Lutheran minister in the city of Washington.

HAMPTON SELEBRATES 61ST ANNIVERSARY

Dr. Mordecai W. Johnson Delivers Stirring Address 189 Candidates for Degrees and Diplomas Presented to Trustees
Hampton Institute, Va., April 26—Dr. Mordecai W. Johnson, president of Howard University, before 600 alumni, the students and workers, and the special Hampton party of 123 guests, delivered a stirring address at the 61st anniversary of Hampton Institute, in which he interpreted the contribution to the nation of the institution and the obligation of America to show that the dark races shall have equality of opportunity and freedom from exploitation.

Dr. Francis G. Peabody, whose retirement from the Hampton Board of Trustees, after 39 years of service, was announced by Dr. Gregg, presented the graduating classes to the Board of Trustees.

Fifty-six candidates for degrees in the schools of Business, Agriculture, Library Science, Home Economics and Education were presented to the trustees. Thirty-five candidates for diplomas in two-year collegiate courses and ninety-eight in the secondary school including 36 from the Trade School were introduced by Dr. Peabody. The honor students, chosen largely with regard to scholarship, which will participate in the commencement program in May, were announced by Dr. James E. Gregg, principal of Hampton Institute, as follows: from the secondary schools, Lycurt Lee, of Corapeake, N. C.; from the two-year collegiate courses, Miss Lily Jackson, of Warrenton, Va.; and from the college, Joseph G. Fletcher, Jr., of Connelville, Pa.

NEGRA AVIATOR DENIES STORY OF U. S. DISCRIMINATION

New York, April 26.—A story attributed to the Associated Press and published in the New York World of Sept. 31, 1928, to the effect that a colored aviator had been denied a pilot's license in this country, has been run to earth and found to be false, by the N. A. A. C. P.

The story stated that a Captain Hanson Cutley (Outley), colored aviator and military instructor to the Liberian Frontier Force at Monrovia, had been denied a pilot's license because of his color in the United States and had entered the Berlin School of Aviation.

The N. A. A. C. P. inquired about the alleged discrimination at the Department of War and Commerce in Washington.

The Department of State, through Mr. W. E. Castle, Jr., now forwards to the N. A. A. C. P. a copy of a letter written by Captain Outley in which that officer denies ever having applied for a pilot's license in this country and branding the discrimination story as false.

SEGREGATION AND LANDLORDS

Richard B. Moore, president of the Harlem Tenants League and member of the American Negro Labor Congress, stressed especially the housing phase of the ill-fated. Both white and Negro landlords, he said, deliberately fostered racial prejudice in order to be able to squeeze out of the Negro workers as much rent as possible.

Must Face Third Trial

Washington, D. C., May 2. (C.N.S.)—Perry W. Howard, Republican national committeeman for Mississippi, E. L. Patton, patronage referee for Howard and James G. Buchanan and George F. McClelland, both white, were acquitted in Meridian, Miss., Friday, April 26, of a federal patronage conspiracy which involved alleged irregularities in the endorsement in 1927 of Buchanan for federal marshal for the Southern Mississippi district.

All of the defendants are recognized as leaders of the Republican faction that had directed the party's affairs in Mississippi. The four denied in their testimony that $2,000, borrowed by Howard from McClelland and paid back, was connected in any way with endorsement of Buchanan by the committeeman for the position of marshal.

The trial began Monday morning, April 22, after two postponements on motion of the government. The case was given to the panel at 3:30 p. m. Thursday by Judge Edwin R. Holmes. They reached their decision Thursday night after the case had been on their hands six hours, but did not report until the morning session Friday.

Howard and Patton were acquitted at Jackson, Miss., last December at a trial on similar charges. The reluctant justice in which the Department of Justice has pursued this second case, in the light of the December acquittal, at which time their principal witnesses were discredited, and the failure to bring any action whatever against other suspected offenders, appear to many to be persecution rather than prosecution.

Nor does the statement of the special assistant attorney general, in charge of the case lessen the suspicion.

He states that the acquittals will not deter the government in pressing further counts in Mississippi patronage cases. He fails to make any statements as to the prosecution of cases in either South Carolina or Texas.

DETROIT "Y" CAMPAIGN SUCCESS UNDER DIRECTION OF DEFRANTZ

The Membership Campaign recently held in Detroit, Michigan, under the personal direction of Mr. E. B. DeFrantz National Council, Y. M. C. A. 247 Madison Avenue, New York, was highly successful.

The goal for the Campaign was placed at 750 new members in order to have a total membership of 1500 by April 16th. On the final night of the Campaign, amid songs and cheers the grand total exceeded 1500.

The wide experience of Mr. E. B. DeFrantz and his leadership were factors leading to the success of the Detroit effort. So unusual was the community enthusiasm that a Mayor from one of the nearby cities joined in as a worker and reported sixteen memberships. Mr. DeFrantz is well known in Des Moines, having served at St. Des Moines, during the war.

A GOOD PROGRAM

Down in Durham, N. C., a number of prominent Negroes have been conducting what they call a fact-finding conference. Notable among those present were Anthony Overton of Chicago, president of the Douglas National Bank, Victory Life Insurance Company and the Overton Hygiene Company; C. C. Spaulding, noted insurance man of Durham, N. C.; Mrs. Annie Malone, founder and president of Poro College, St. Louis; Jessie Binga of Chicago, president of the Binga State Bank; Dr. Kelly Miller of Howard University; F. B. Ransom, manager of the C. J. Walker Company of Indianapolis; A. L. Holsey, of Tuskegee, secretary of the National Negro Business League and many more but these serve to indicate that practical successful business men and women made up the gathering.

Below are the findings agreed upon and recommended as a new program for racial progress:

- 1. Creating opportunities for better training facilities for Negro nurses and post-graduate work for Negro doctors; and the fuller participation of Negro organizations in the promotion of a live health program in the race.
2. The use of church funds more for the promotion of social betterment programs and less for the erection of costly church edifices.
3. The promotion of the economic welfare of the race through a program for the development of Negro business in which the Negro school, an independent Negro press, and all other agencies that can be brought to bear, should participate.
4. That in the interests of Negro education, that the fullest possible publicity be given to the inequality of appropriations by the national, state and municipal governments for Negro education with a view to bringing about reforms in this respect.
No one agrees with all anybody does and yet all must admit that they hit the fundamentals. We hope a special effort will be made to get this program over to the race.

TOO MUCH DUPLICATION

The state agents of Iowa raided a little game of poker on Center Street Saturday night and took a wagon load of men to the city jail. Some of them paid a little fine; this is not particularly interesting. The point is Des Moines has a fair number of policemen. Polk county a fair number of sheriffs, the United States maintains a few narcotic agents and prohibition officers in and around Des Moines and yet state agents chase around from town to town to arrest men for playing a game of poker.

We have been complaining about heavy taxes, and have cited on many occasions duplication of bureaus and commissions as one of the causes. We certainly have too much duplication of and no cooperation among law enforcement officers for this class of work; again state agents not only draw pay for their work but many of them don't live here and the state must pay their railroad fare and other expenses an ordinary policeman or sheriff of the county does not yet.

This is not in the least an argument for violation of any law, but why send a man from Sioux City to arrest a man in Des Moines for a crime when the

NEGRO IN AMERICA

By J. G. Browne

The president of the United States insists that the people must not select what statutes they will ignore. Now some of the legislators are insisting that the president must not select what statutes he will enforce and what statutes he will ignore. The indications are that we are going to have a very interesting four years.

It is an ill wind that blows nobody any good. Some of the organizations, religious and secular, that are crying to high heaven for the enforcement of the eighteenth amendment are the most laggard violators of the thirteenth, fourteenth, fifteenth and nineteenth amendments. In spite of the fact that he later four deal with human rights and the former is a property right with the administration pledged to the rigid enforcement of all laws a demand for any law will be reflected all along the line.

We are sure to be benefitted in some way, we have explicit confidence in the government and whenever the sunlight penetrates the vale and exposes hypocrisy and wrong to public view a change for the better is sure to follow. Evil does shun the light, and when the public conscience becomes aroused at the flagrant violation of a part of the law it will demand the respect for all of its laws. The Negro is too intelligent to allow those in authority to ignore our cause, in face of what is being done or attempted for the eighteenth amendment. What good is the constitution if there is no way to enforce it. Surely we are not willing to lay claim to being one of the greatest governments on earth under any such conditions. America becomes the laughing stock of all nations if she attempts to enforce the one and refuses to enforce the others. A great government like ours cannot afford to be ridiculous. It is the duty of every loyal citizen to see that this shall not be.

MADONNA RADIOS, NEW YORK CITY

Dear Friends:

With a record-breaking run of "Black Birds" that is nearing a year at the Eltinge Theatre, "Show Boat," in its fifteenth month at the Ziegfeld and the success of "Harlem" at the Apollo, and the opening of a second company in Detroit last week, it seems that the race show fever has hit Broadway again with the many productions preparing to make a bid for the gay white way. "Messin' Around" will be the first to make its bow, opening at the Hudson next Monday the 22nd. "Mr. George," by Marceo Pinkard, (who is the husband of one of our home girls, Edna Alexander), Noble Sissle, Moss and Frye, opened Monday at the Lafayette and after a few out-of-town dates, will return for a try at the bright lights. Connie's Inn Revue will try to follow in the footsteps of "Black Birds," which was a floor show at the Ambassador's Club. Leonard Harper, the producer has called the rehearsals to elaborate on his present floor show to make it into a Broadway attraction.

Garland Howard's "De Social Function," is now rehearsing at the Liberty, opening Monday at Werba's Brooklyn theatre, and has the Vanderbilt all set for its Broadway premiere. Miller and Lyles, two of our best known comedians, returned Friday from Europe, where they have been appearing for several weeks in London, Glasgow and Wales. They are undecided as to their plans. Johnny Hudgeff, comedian in Lew Leslie's "Black Birds," still playing the Eltinge theatre, added a new pantomime to his repertoire.

AMERICAN TURNED BEAN POT INTO SCIENTIFIC PIECE OF KITCHEN EQUIPMENT.

Spain is known not only for her dashing toreros but for her shawls and clicking castanets, but is equally famous for her cooking which she has raised to the point of an art. Every Spanish woman is known to her servants as la Senora, does her own marketing and supervises the cooking of the food. And how they do enjoy doing it!

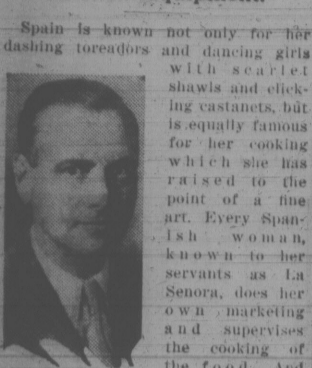

La Senora goes about her work with a song on her lips and the working women jest back and forth to one another as they prepare the food for the coming meal and the whole atmosphere is pleasant and happy. So reports E. R. Hamilton, of the Claire, Wis., food expert and inventor of the modern pressure cooker, who is now in Europe studying the methods of food preparation of the leading civilized countries. The Spanish woman is partial in serving her family one-dish dinners. A favorite one of these is called "cocido" and consists of chick peas, potatoes, cabbage, meat, peppers and sausage all cooked together in a big pot over a charcoal burner. Very few ovens are found in Spanish kitchens. Cooking over a single charcoal burner is a slow, tedious process. About twenty-five years ago, however, the Spanish bean pot was invented, and is the forerunner of the present-day pressure cooker which has so revolutionized cooking and canning in the American home.

This bean pot, shown here with its pretty Spanish owner, is a crude, iron affair, equipped with a screw and a petcock but without the pressure gauge of the modern pressure cooker. Brought to America the pressure cooker has been developed and refined until now it is a scientific piece of equipment. Experiment proved that food cooked in this way not only saves both time and fuel but is tasty and nutritious since none of the mineral salts is lost nor the vitamins destroyed.

But Spain is a conservative country and will probably stay by her charcoal stoves and iron bean pots for many years to come. (© National School of Pressure Cooking).

Waltz Shown to Be Akin to Wallowing

Would you ever suspect that there was any relation between wallowing in a ballroom and wallowing in a mire? There is, however, for waltz is distinctly related to the Anglo-Saxon word waller, the basic meaning of which is to roll. Waltz itself is German, where again the basic meaning is to roll. In an encyclopedia of 1882 this was noted about the waltz: "Those manifold turnings and gestulations which have lately become fashionable in this country (German under the appellation of German vaults (or rather, waltzen)." Waltz may have come, according to some authorities, from the same source as vault or vault, the turning in horse-manship or fencing. This sense of the word is also found in volte-face, meaning to face suddenly about.—Dance Magazine.

Harp of Ireland

In the "Gold Room" at Trinity college, Dublin, rests the "Harp of Ireland" that sounded "once through Tara's halls". The story is that "aft er Brian Boru was killed at the battle of Clontarf, this harp was given to Pope Alexander II. It remained in the Vatican for nearly 500 years, and was given in 1521 to Henry VIII in recognition of his defense of the Seven Sacraments. Twenty years later Henry VIII gave the harp to the part of Clanricarde, and it was landed down until it came into the possession of a Limerick antiquary. Archeologists however, say the harp is not older than the fourteenth century.

Flue Cleaning Urged as Safety Measure

Chicago.—Clean your heating plant and chimney and forestall the possibility of a fire in your home, John Touhey, chief of the fire prevention bureau, said in a Cleanup week message to Chicago. "A great many fires can be prevented, losses reduced and danger to life and property eliminated if flues are properly cleaned," said Chief Touhey. "There is no question in my mind that if all chimneys were thoroughly cleaned it would eliminate many chimney and roof fires. Fifty per cent of all chimney fires are caused through lack of proper cleaning of flues. "The modern suction heating plant cleaner with high-powered motor and powerful suction is a potential safeguard against fire. A clean chimney increases the efficiency of the heating plant and reduces the smoke evil."

Bearing out the last statement, the Holland Institute of Thermology points to recent tests by the United States Bureau of standards which show that

HEATING PLANT PIPES CUT DOWN HEATING EFFICIENCY 28 PER CENT, WHILE A QUARTER INCH REDUCES THE HEATING SYSTEMS PERFORMANCE BY 48 PER CENT.

NEW YORK COMMUNISTS PROTEST MURDER OF CLARK

New York, Apr. 25 (CNS) While the white bourgeoisie and church maintained a discreet silence in the killing of 14-year-old Henry Clark by a white boy, angered at his victory in a sports event, the local leaders of the Communist Party came out in a strong condemnation of the crime and a sharp denunciation of the system which breeds such crimes against the Negro race. The statement follows: The New York district of the Communist Party of the U. S. A. protests against the killing of Harry Clarke, the Negro schoolboy, by his white schoolmate for winning a race in an athletic meet after having been warned not to win.

Upon learning of the girl's conviction, William T. Andrews, Special Legal assistant of the N. A. A. C. P., wrote to Miss Hattie L. "Opportunity" for May is devoted to a discussion of the dilemma of the Negro worker. It is the Conference issue and contains what is probably the last word on the present industrial status of the Negro.

T. Arnold Hill of the National Urban League—Dr. Broadus Mitchell of Johns Hopkins University—Professor Nathaniel Cantor of the University of Buffalo—Charles S. Johnson of Fisk University—W. O. Brown of the University of Cincinnati and Jesse O. Thomas, National Urban League, are among those who contribute to this comprehensive analysis of the Negro in Industry.

The issue is beautifully illustrated with photographs of the Negro in American industry.

Wisdom in Pictures

One of the finest cartoons that has been published in recent times is that showing a lot of Tammanyites rushing to save a struggling farmer who had fallen into the water. When the drowning farmer saw who was approaching him, he yelled back: "Go away, you fellows; I don't want to be saved."

Cause of Heartburn

Heartburn is not due to acid stomach, or any condition of the stomach contents, but to a muscular distention of the digestive tract itself, and can be controlled by medicine, according to two noted American physicians.

This act was a direct result of the vicious system of race and class oppression which rules in this country, which has resulted in the past year in the boating of several Negro workers in the suburbs of this city by U. S. soldiers, in police brutality against white bourgeoisie and church main Negroes in Harlem, as well as in many lynchings cases in various parts of the country.

The bosses and their government deliberately foster racial divisions and racial prejudice among the workers in order to divide their ranks, enabling the bosses to play one against the other. Their system of education and schools are used to create artificial racial barriers between children of the working class.

The capitalist system is responsible for the murder of Harry Clarke. It is responsible for all the lynchings, Jim Crowism, peonage, and other forms of discrimination, which the Negro race and Negro workers are subjected to. It is responsible for the segregation of Negroes into certain sections of the city, resulting in addition to congestion, higher rents, and the worst abuses of landlordism. It is responsible for denying Negro workers equal opportunity for work, with equal pay for equal work.

The N. Y. District of the Communist Party calls upon all workers, black and white, to protest the killing of Harry Clarke. It calls upon all workers, black and white, to fight for full political, social and racial equality for the Negro race. It calls upon all workers to fight all forms of discriminating against Negro workers for the right of Negro workers to join and belong to unions. It calls upon all workers to unite in militant working class organizations and to join and support the C. P. which fights for the abolition of the capitalist system with its exploitation of workers and with its oppression of colonial peoples and the Negro race.

SOS

A subscription to the Bystander came into the office last week and said "I heard the Bystander had discontinued. I owe you seventy-five cents. I came because I did not want my delinquency to contribute to the downfall of the paper. I believe it is a good paper and it should have the support of every colored person in Iowa."

To be sure this is a splendid spirit. It is the fair spirit. If our subscribers generally took this position, the paper would be on time each week and would come out regularly. Our friends cannot expect to subscribe for the paper, fail to pay for it and complain of its delinquencies.

The Bystander calls attention to another serious handicap under which it operates: at one time our large merchants used the paper freely to draw colored patrons. Now they don't except in a few cases and this in spite of untiring solicitation by us and some of our white friends. The Negro merchants are few and their business admit of but slight advertisement—the white business of the same class. Newspapers must either sell enough advertising to pay its bills or be subsidized.

Realizing that a heroic effort has and is being made to keep the Bystander alive, a committee of interested citizens have been working to evolve a plan which they hope to put into operation and which is supported by the friends of the Bystander, both colored and white, will put the paper on a basis which will enable it to cope with the unfavorable situation. They have formulated a plan and want your cooperation. If you are interested, either individually or as the head of some organization, clip out the coupon and mail it to the office.

Magnetic Milker Driving "Hired Man" Off the Farm

Application of Machinery to Agriculture Working Many Changes in Farm Life.

ous is this milker, which brings the electro-magnetic force into the dairy barn for the first time. The same magnetic force that is being harnessed today for many uses, is being used from the marvellously new pipe organs in which hundreds of electro magnets instantly transmit each finger touch on the keyboard to a note control in a distant pipe. In the gigantic magnetic cranes for picking up and releasing hundreds of tons of steel, is here used to provide the simplest and most effective pulsation control ever devised, to make uniform milking the first essential if cows are to produce to the fullest extent of their possibilities.

Here is what transpires when the new magnetic milker

Joseph Henry was the discoverer of the electro magnet, the principle of which is used in the magnetic milker to secure uniform milking of cows.

The above illustration shows the magnetic milker at work. Cow's udder is shown with teat-cups in place and hose conveying milk to pail of magnetic milker.

The Old Way and the New. It takes three men milking by hand to do what one man can do with a magnetic milker.
