St. Paul Goes Over Top Under Leadership Of Rev. W. E. Guy

The New Minister

REV. W. E. GUY

ST. PAUL CHURCH
TAKES ON NEW LIFE

The arrival last week of the Rev. Wm. E. Guy with his charming wife and two promising young sons seems to have been the signal for the entrance of a spirit of hope and prosperity which has been much lacking in St. Paul A. M. E. Church during the past two or three administrations.

It was Dr. Guy's second Sunday in his new pulpit and since he occupied it for the first time one week ago last Sunday he had returned to Lansing, Michigan, the seat of his last pastorate, packed and removed his household goods, his automobile and his entire family and arrived back on the job on Saturday evening preceding his Quarterly Meeting, the Rev. T. B. Stoddard, Presiding Elder, having conducted the Quarterly Love Feast for him on Friday night and occupying the pulpit for him Sunday morning and evening with two splendid gospel sermons and four accessions were made to the membership.

The Communion sermon Sunday afternoon, was delivered by the Rev. W. H. Ogleton, pastor of Bethel Church in East Des Moines and a goodly crowd was in attendance at all these services.

On Monday evening was held the first official board meeting under the pastorate at which not only the regular weekly reports of the leaders but also the quarterly reports of the twenty or more auxiliaries were filed and approved by the pastor; so that the Quarterly Conference Session on Tuesday evening was dispatched in a most orderly manner and to the surprise of all present the report from the Steward Department showed that notwithstanding there had been no parading down to the table and no prolonged appeals for financial support during the entire day Sunday nearly two hundred dollars had been collected in the basket offering, quarterage and class dues, making it from a financial point of view one of the largest quarterly meeting Sundays in history of the church.

It seems to be the consensus of opinion of both members and friends of St. Paul that Dr. Guy and his wife are the strongest team that has occupied the parsonage during the history of New St. Paul and that under their progressive leadership the church is entering upon an era of the greatest prosperity in its history.

Set Date For Trial Of Carey In Chicago

Chicago, Feb. 6.—(ANPP) Bishop A. J. Carey, indicted for alleged bribery as a Civil Service commissioner of the city of Chicago, will go to trial March 24, it was decided Thursday. Prosecutors from the states' attorney's office were eager to go to trial earlier, but the bishop's counsel, Louis Piquet, former city prosecutor, maintained that he could not get ready for trial before the March date. The case will be heard by Judge Otto Kerner. The spring primary election is April 8, and it is thought by some persons that the trial was shoved over as close to that date as possible to avoid its use as an election issue by either Republican faction in the city.

Nick Chiles' Daughter Takes Over His Paper

Topeka, Kan., Feb. 6.—(A.N.P.)—"Way-back-wheners" in this town have been furnished with a delectable topic of conversation from their observation in the last few months of the ability of a girl member of the second generation to pick up where her father left off after working many years in his way with the people, and to carry on in her way after receiving the advantages of America's best educational institutions.

The girl in the case is Thelma Chiles Taylor, who, upon the death of her father, the lamented and remembered Nick Chiles, founder, and for 30 years publisher, of the Topeka Plaindealer, became herself the editor of that publication which has become one of the things that Kansas is known by.

This overnight she was put into a position to establish a record as the youngest woman editor of any of our publications.

Mrs. Taylor is a graduate of the University of Michigan, where she specialized in journalism.

GIVES BIRTH TO WHITE, RED AND BLACK INFANTS

San Juan, Porto Rico, Feb. 7.—Triplet sons have been born to Paula Rodriguez and Ramon Crespo, white parents. The sons represent three distinctive types, one white, one Indian and one African.

They have been named Gaspar, Melchior and Balthazar after the three wise kings who brought gifts to the infant Jesus.

500 Pennies Bail Out Rev.

Forestville, Md., Feb. 6.—(S.N.S.)—Even though the contributions of last Sunday's collection of the Forestville Methodist Church were not "for the benefit of clergy," they saved the Rev. Edgar Beckett, the pastor, in his time of need.

When the reverend was arrested for speeding Monday morning and instructed to put up $10 collateral, he pulled out a bag of pennies and, much to the clerk's surprise, proceeded to count out 1,000 coppers.

In court Tuesday the judge found the good gentleman guilty of speeding and fined him $5, and it was then the clerk's turn to count.

The minister told the court, as he put the 500 pennies back into his bag, that he knew his congregation didn't want him to be locked-up and would feel that the collection money was well spent.

Kansas Citian Wants to Open Radio Station

Washington, D. C., Feb. 6.—Establishment of a new broadcasting station under Negro auspices with the objective of stimulating interracial interest, which would offer "America's only distinctive music, the Negro folklore," was urged before the Federal Radio Commission on Jan. 28.

Dr. William J. Thompkins, managing editor of the Kansas City American of Kansas City, Mo., asked the commission at a hearing to issue to his newspaper a license for a 250-watt broadcasting station. Commission records show that there are no broadcasting stations licensed to Negroes or Negro organizations.

"We hope to stimulate inter-racial interests, offering America's only distinctive music—the Negro folklore, exemplifying the spiritual life of the Negro in sermons and demonstrating the Negro's conception of patriotism and Americanism," he stated.

One of the main reasons for the station, said Dr. Thompkins, is for the uplifting and educating of the Negro, and to give people "the Negro viewpoint."

The application filed by Dr. Thompkins was for assignment on the 1120-kilocycle channel with unlimited time and 250 watts.

Representatives of other broadcasting stations, WISN, Milwaukee, and KTRA, Houston, asked leave to object to the assignment of the station on this channel because of technical interference that might result.

The application was taken under advisement by the commission.

Man Gets Medal For Saving Lives of White Girls

(Special to the Bystander)
Sioux City, Ia., Feb. 6.—When David Tapley fought to save the honor of two young white girls whom he believed were being attacked by three white men, he performed the greatest act of heroism in Woodbury county during 1929, judges in the annual Columbia club's Woodbury county hero contest decided Friday.

"The principles in this drama which resulted in the fatal stabbing by Tapley of one of the men were, in addition to Tapley, Miss Maxine Berner, 18 years old, 1212 Douglas street, and Miss Ruth Kasper 18 years old, 519 Tenth street, and the three men, Harry Arisao, James Dunlap, and Glen Wesner, all of Sioux City. Dunlap was the stabbing victim."

The girls had met the three men at a dance and accepted a chance to ride home in Wesner's car. Instead they went for a ride and eventually wound up near the Floyd monument. Tapley, who happened to be fishing in the locality, heard one of the girls scream and went to their rescue, unarmed except for a knife. The men jumped on him and, in the ensuing struggle, Tapley stabbed Dunlap and then fled. A short time later at a hospital, where Dunlap was taken by his companions, the youth died.

Tapley voluntarily gave himself up to the police and was later brought before the grand jury, but was not indicted.

EXPOSE TO START BIG CONFLICT BELIEF

Chicago, Feb. 6.—"The National Baptist Convention is headed for the rocks!"

This startling declaration has been made by the Rev. W. B. Fleming of Nashville, Tenn., who, in a series of articles, has attacked the administration of affairs and flayed the dictatorial leadership of President L. K. Williams.

"Headed for the Rocks"

Rev. Fleming states that unless conditions and methods are changed with reference to the running of the National Baptist Convention, the organization is headed for the rocks. Commenting upon it at length, he continued:

"There is no question about it. We are facing a very, very serious crisis, and unless conditions are different within the near future, our Convention is going to suffer serious embarrassment and a most disastrous loss. We cannot hope to save our publishing house under present conditions at the rate we are going."

The minister who is responsible for the charges alleges that he is a martyr to a cause. He admits that he will be subject to criticism and derisive remarks from brother ministers, but claims that his act is one "countenanced by God." Speaking of this angle he continues:

"I am acting as the flagman of God and Negro Baptists throughout the world. Notwithstanding I know I am going to suffer personally, because I have reasons to believe that I have been threatened already, I am going to sound the alarm in time to arouse Negro Baptists."

"We have men in our Convention who are displeased with the leadership of the Convention, but they have not had the manhood to come out and challenge it. Some of us, for the sake of the cause, and especially our publishing house in Nashville, have kept our mouths shut. But the longer we keep our mouths shut, the more power, it seems, is given to the one man whom some men regard as a czar."

"Brethren, where is the wisdom in giving a man a lifetime deed to the presidency of the National Baptist Convention? Don't you think four years is long enough for any man to serve as president of the National Baptist Convention? Why not, my brethren, allow Dr. L. K. Williams to come down and let Dr. J. C. Jackson serve two, three or four years. Dr. Jackson is a wonderful presiding officer; and many of the thinking brethren will admit that he is the best presiding officer that we have in our Convention."

Maupin Kills Self

Brooding over ill health, Lee Maupin, 62 years of age committed suicide Sunday morning at his home, 1408 Second Street. Mrs. Minnie Maupin, his wife became suspicious of his prolonged absence after he arose and left the room at 5 o'clock and did not return at eleven. She went in search for him in the basement and found his body suspended from one of the rafters in the basement. He had been dead about an hour.

Mr. Maupin is survived by his widow, Mrs. Minnie Maupin, a son, James, and a daughter, Miss Rebecca, who teaches music in the public schools of Ardmore, Oklahoma.

HONORING HEROES

The Columbus Club of Sioux City presented David Tapley its award for having performed the greatest act of heroism in Woodbury County during 1929. Tapley, at the risk of his own life saved two white girls from criminal attack during one night last summer stabbing one of the men fatally.

Tapley did a heroic act by saving these girls; the law enforcing officials are to be commended for not allowing a fake charge to be brought against him; the club, all white people, are to be commended for recognizing the heroic act of Tapley and giving him this coveted award.

Jobs Must Be First

The Bystander wishes to call attention of the Negro voters of Iowa to the fact that whatever consideration they get out of politics must come in the primaries for the election in November is simply a ratification of the spring voting.

It is well to remember that each one of these candidates has from one to one hundred jobs at his command and that as taxpayers you are as much entitled to them as anyone else.

It is further well to remember that all these candidates are making deals with other people in consideration of their votes and that he might as well deal with you some too.

The Bystander has adopted as its slogan "more jobs for Negroes in public offices in Iowa". We expect the help of everyone in putting over this program. Now is the time to begin.

TWO GOOD PROGRAMS

The Des Moines Interracial Commission is sponsoring the appearance of the Fisk Jubilee Singers here on Feb. 9th. The Forum composed of the Roosevelt, Monarch, Rock Island and Automotive Workers clubs is sponsoring the appearance of George S. Schuyler, noted journalist and feature writer for the Pittsburgh Courier. Mr. Schuyler will discuss "The Negro in Politics". It was the Interracial Commission which sponsored the appearance of Congressman De Priest last fall.

These organizations do a fine service for the citizens of Des Moines by bringing these two splendid appearances to the city for they not only provide wholesome entertainment and instructions but give the City of Des Moines a good reputation. Both the Fisk Singers and Mr. Schuyler are well worth hearing.

"INTEGRITY BILL" MIGHT ENCOURAGE "PASSING"

Richmond, Va., Feb. 6—(CNS)—A substitute for the Ball racial integrity bill which would preserve racial integrity without placing a stigma upon the poor Indian, and encouraging the Negroes to "pass for white," was advocated at a hearing of the state Senate committee on general laws here Friday by the opponents of the bill which defines "a colored person" as any person in whom there is ascertainable any Negro blood.

The Negro in America

By J. G. Browne

The Methodist Episcopal Church is to raise $1,500,000 for the education of Negroes in the United States. This is indeed a very commendable undertaking, one that means a great deal to the Negro and very much more to American advancement. "A chain is no stronger than its weakest link."

It is up to the Negro to make the best of these opportunities. We all realize the fact that there has been quite a let up in public philanthropy and donation toward Negro education in this country within the last two decades.

Too many of the younger generation of Negroes are taking life too lightly for the future good of the race. It is up to us who are older to see to it that young men and women of our group are encouraged and inspired to take advantage of every opportunity to get an education.

There is no kind of labor so menial today that does not require a trained mind for one to be able to make any headway. It is necessary to ones advancement not only to be able to grasp opportunity when it presents itself, but to be able to seek it intelligently. Everyone who hopes to make progress must be, in our latest phraseology a "Go Getter".

"The heights by great men reached and kept
Were not attained by sudden flight
But they while their companions slept
Were toiling upward in the night."

FREDERICK DOUGLASS

(A tribute to Mrs. S. Joe Brown, Des Moines, Iowa Trustee of Douglass Home Board, National Association of Colored Women in 1926.)

Standing as it were at the threshold of the 100th Anniversary of the birth of that eminent American, Frederick Douglass, it is with a deal of reverence that I pause for a moment to pay a brief tribute to the sainted memory of that most distinguished character.

Douglass, known as one of the most eloquent of American orators, was born a slave on a plantation near Tuckahoe, Maryland, sometime in February, 1817, the exact date being unknown.

At the age of about ten years he was separated from his mother who was also a slave and sent to Baltimore to live with a relative of his master and where he was sent to work in the ship yards, where by the exercise of his unusual ingenuity under most difficult circumstances he learned to read and write.

As was only natural to one of his superior nature, he had a horror to being held in slavery, hence in 1838 he escaped to New Bedford, Mass., where he resided for several years and was aided in his efforts at self education by that great abolitionist, Wm. Lloyd Garrison and where he discarded the name of his former master, Bailey and assumed the name of Douglass, taking it from the hero of one of Sir Walter Scott's novels.

In the year 1841 he attended anti-slavery convention at Nantucket, and delivered his first recorded address, which was so remarkable for wit and eloquence and so telling in its effect that he was at once employed by the Anti-Slavery Society as one of its agents, in which capacity he traveled until Emancipation came, speaking before enormous audiences in all parts of the North and was even sent to Europe, where before Emancipation a number of his English friends made up a purse with which his freedom was purchased.

After being emancipated, recognizing the power of the pen, he returned to America and began the publication of an abolition paper at Rochester, N. Y., known as the "North Star" and in 1870 removed to Washington, D. C., and began the publication of another paper known as "The New National Era". In 1871 he became assistant secretary of the Santa Domingo Commission and the following year was presidential elector at large from the State of New York, where he still held his legal residence.

In 1876 he was appointed U. S. Marshall for the District of Columbia, and later was appointed Recorder of Deeds of the District and in 1888 was made U. S. Minister Resident and Consul General for the Republic of Haiti, in all of which positions of honor and trust, he acquitted himself most nobly.

Being tall and erect with a wealth of waving white hair, he was commanding in personal appearance as well as eloquent of delivery and used these rare attainments for the betterment of his Race in general in every

JAUNDICE

Jaundice means always some disturbance in the liver or the gall bladder which is considered part of it. In this condition there is always a yellow discoloration of the skin and mucous membranes (the lining of the mouth), or of the eyeballs. Whenever this symptom appears it calls for attention as some forms are serious beyond any imagined degree. These types of jaundice however, that are serious have some accompanying symptoms such as loss of appetite, weakness and sometimes some disturbance in the stomach. Cases which are not serious present usually no other symptom except the jaundice itself with one exception. This one exception shows nothing in the beginning except this discoloration of the portions mentioned. The presence of gall stones may be made manifest by this symptom alone but usually there is enough pain to make the diagnosis of gall stones without the X-ray picture but these stones are seen very plainly when present in a picture made of the gall bladder. Whenever jaundice is present the liver is at fault, is not functioning properly and needs attention of some kind, best suited to the particular disease condition existing.

Jaundice exists in children at the time of birth occasionally but may come on weeks after. It has been found to be due to an infection in some cases especially in older children and it is not improbable that the failure to the water they drink may be the error which introduces this infection into the system. Germs that would produce no disturbance in grownups can cause infection in children who do not have the resistance acquired by age. Although jaundice may cause no discomfort or inconvenience its true nature is always to be known so that any future disability that might arise from neglect can be avoided.

capacity that he was permitted to serve.

That he was the advocate of the cause of freedom, whether for Negro men or for women both white and colored, was demonstrated when on numerous occasions in the midst of his eloquent appeals for the abolition of Negro slavery, he also injected telling appeals for woman suffrage, advocating the passage of the Susan B. Anthony Amendment, which finally became a law in 1920.

On the very day of his passing, Feb. 20th, 1895, he met and addressed the National Council of Women, in session in Washington, D. C., presided over by Miss May Wright Sewell, immediately after which he repaired to his beautiful home at Anacostia near Washington where he suddenly expired; and out of appreciation for his devotion and service to the womanhood of America, that the Negro women of the country, through the National Association of Colored Women have undertaken the pleasant task of redeeming and preserving this homestead, thus making of it a National Shrine for the members of his Race, as that of George Washington at Mount Vernon is for the entire nation.

NATIONAL BENEFIT LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

Washington, D. C., Feb. 4—Some time ago Mr. R. H. Rutherford, President-Treasurer of the National Benefit Life Insurance Company, located here at the National Capital, called attention to certain actuarial figures which indicated that the needless business loss of the country in adult deaths amounts to about three billion ($3,000,000,000) dollars annually.

More specifically, he called attention to the exceedingly high and needless death rate among the colored population of the country, and indicated not only the high ratio of preventable deaths, but also the annual economic loss to the race in sickness and death amounting to, approximately $300,000,000 a year in the south alone, not counting the rest of the country. Undoubtedly, if the country as a whole is considered, the losses of the Negro because of sickness and preventable deaths must reach close to $500,000,000 a year.

Recurring to this discussion, Mr. Rutherford this week referred to the fact that National Negro Health Week through its propaganda agencies, has a golden opportunity to call these figures to the attention of our people more effectively than ever before, because of the heightened interest of the masses in this subject of public health.

Our Life Insurance Companies, he says, are setting aside each year larger and larger sums of money to educate the people in ways of right living. They are responding as never before, Mr. Rutherford believes. One reaction is to be found in the world of life insurance. With many life insurance has become a passion. The people now recognize that it offers an opportunity for thrift, hardly offered by any other single agency.

It still remains a fact, however, that while $100,000,000,000 worth of life insurance is in force in this country, but a little more than 2 per cent of the aggregate income of the nation is invested annually in life insurance premiums. Comparatively speaking, a negligibly small amount of this One Hundred Billion dollars represents the investment and potential wealth of the Negro people. Because life insurance has now come to be reckoned as a form of thrift, and because thrift promotes economic independence, and it seeks to do away with all barriers, National Benefit and other life insurance companies are adopting for 1930 and succeeding years, the slogan "Health and Thrift", handmaidens of progress and prosperity.

Life insurance, undoubtedly, in the future, will be regarded as the cornerstone of thrift. It is now the largest organized factor against the terror of poverty which death hash erebefore brought in its wake. The saving protection in this crisis which all of us must face is "Life Insurance," which has been referred to by a New York Life Insurance executive as "the most important beneficial enterprise in the manifold problem of living," because it banishes Charity and enthrones Self-Respect, Protection for our loved ones, and self-protection for ourselves.

FORT DODGE, IOWA, NEWS

By Wm. Brown

Rev. I. N. Coggs returned from a business trip to Davenport where he with other members succeeded in consolidating two Baptist Churches. Our church services are very very good considering the cold weather. The attendance was good Sunday night and B. Y. P. U. is doing well. The young people are taking greater interest. Frances Reed has been sick over a week not able to be out of bed only part of the time. Miss Minnie Benning who is visiting her uncle, Wm. Benning, 126 Eleventh Ave. S., has a very bad cold. She is expecting to leave for her home in Keosauqua some day this week. Mrs. Ike Lomas has been somewhat indisposed, but was better when we last heard from her. Mrs. S. Lewis has been on the sick list, but was at her post of duty Sunday at the piano. The writer had a birthday the 22nd, but did not have a celebration, yet a few friends remembered that the writer was 86 years young and old, gave or sent him a token. His daughter, Mrs. Sarah Smith of Keokuk sent him a large pound cake and he is still eating on it, although his birthday has past 5 days ago. Mrs. Martin, mother of Mrs. John Wilson, 820 S. 9th St., remains poorly at the home of Mrs. S. Wilson. Mr. Cecil Brown and family were callers Sunday at the Wm. Benning, Jones and Rev. Hubbard homes. There is to be a pastoral anniversary at the Second Baptist Church the 29th and 30th, closing the second year of Rev. Coggs' pastorate. They are planning and working to make it a grand affair. Mrs. Hannah Thompson spent part of the day Sunday visiting Mother Benning. It was a pleasant visit, as they are great friends. May this be the banner year of the 36th past. Let us help to make it so.

MORAN, IOWA, NEWS

Services were held regular at both St. John's Church and the Church of God in Christ. The Sunday Schools of each church are well attended each Sunday. Rev. S. Bates, superintendent of missions of Iowa, preached at St. John's Church Thursday evening, Jan. 30th to an appreciative audience. The Mission Circle met in a special meeting in the home of the president, Mrs. J. L. Lytle on Saturday, Feb. 1, in honor of the Supt. of Missions, Rev. S. Bates. The Mission Circle was highly elated over his encouraging remarks. On Sunday Rev. Bates officiated at both services, 11 A. M. and evening. At the close of the evening service issued communion. Rev. Bates is well known and loved by all. He was met with a genuine welcome. While spending the week end in Moran he was a guest in the J. L. Lytle home.

Seeing Far in Advance!

Years ago telephone engineers planned the telephone system now in use in this community; today they are busy determining what will be required years ahead in each place served.

It must be this way in the telephone business—it cannot be built for a day, a month or a year. To provide economical service a telephone switchboard must be large enough to use for several years—not just large enough for use today and outgrown tomorrow.

It is the same way with other parts of the telephone plant. Only by seeing far in advance and building for the future can telephone service be provided with economy and so as to meet the increasing demands of the public.

Out of this data have been organized and prepared for publication several important studies, one of which has already appeared. This dealt with the Negro As A Business Man from the point of view of his achievements as a local merchant, banker, and an insurance man. In the work, too, are found scientific accounts of other Negroes who have advanced beyond this point to be classified as captains of industry like Anthony Overton, C. C. Spaulding, Jesse Bling, and S. W. Rutherford.

This survey, however, did not neglect the man far down. Two investigators directed special attention to the masses. Out of this investigation has come his latest book, "The Rural Negro", which is now being published.

The masses were also given still more extensive treatment in the study of the laboring classes by Lorenzo J. Greene. In his study he has made an effort to state the various lines of endeavor in which Negroes have toiled, to point out those particular employments to which the majority of them have been restricted, and to invite attention especially to those in which they have increased their numbers from decade to decade. At the same time he has undertaken to show the gradual trend of a considerable number of Negro laborers from unskilled to skilled labor, from less productive to more productive toil, and from irresponsible to responsible positions in the economic world. The large number of Negroes engaged in domestic service and agriculture naturally necessitated that much space be given these occupations in the development of this treatise. This effort has finally culminated in a treatise now being published as the "Negro Wage Earners."

To continue further the important work now being done by the Association of one of the boards contributing to the uplift and education of Negroes has pledged itself to give the Association $10,000 on the condition that a similar amount be obtained from other sources. An appeal has, therefore, been made to the country in the interest of this effort to treat the records of the Negro scientifically that the race may not become a negligible factor in the thought of the world.

BROOKLYN BAR SUSTAINS N. A. A. C. P. CHARGES AGAINST MAGISTRATE RUDICH
New York, Feb. 4.—In its report made public Wednesday, the Grievance Committee of the Brooklyn Bar Association sustained in every detail charges made by the N. A. A. C. P. that Magistrate Mark Rudich erred in dismissing the case against Patrolman Walter Lowe who shot Ralph Baker, young Lincoln University student last Sept. 9, at the Troy Avenue Station of the Brooklyn elevated.

When a grave problem confronts a community and that community or the individual citizen residing within its boundaries fails to meet the problem, the social welfare of each and every human in that community is directly or indirectly affected.

Present for the N. A. A. C. P. were Morris L. Ernst, prominent liberal attorney, who volunteered his services in the case; William T. Andrews, N. A. A. C. P. Special Legal Assistant; and Walter White, Acting secretary. They reiterated the charges made by letter to Chief Magistrate McAdoo and to the Brooklyn Bar Association, that Magistrate Rudich had favored the patrolman, had declined to hear witnesses for Ralph Baker and his companion, had urged a civil settlement for $500, which came close to "compounding a crime," and had not shown due diligence in handling the case.

SCREEN GRID GIVES FARM NEW RADIO

One Example of the Newest Battery Sets Which Offer Really Modern Radio to Unwired Homes.

The real split between the requirements of rural and city listener-in came with the introduction of the loud-speaker in place of headphones. says E. A. Nicholas, Vice-President of the Radio-Victor Corporation of America. "Until then the usual battery radio set, especially when operated with dry cells, could serve both rural and city family equally well. With the loud-speaker there arose a demand for more power and better tone, with a decrease in operating cost, all of which led to socket power. "Now radio engineers have turned to the requirements of the unelectric home, eager to duplicate what has been achieved for city and town. Starting with current conservation as the ideal, they have evolved loud-speakers supplying ample volume and rich tone from a minimum input. "The recent development of the screen-grid tube, with an amplification factor several times that of the usual three-element or standard battery tube, also has been a step in the direction of the ideal battery set. Indeed, with a single screen-grid tube replacing between two and three of the usual tubes for the radio-frequency end, and when also used as the detector, replacing the first audio tube, a well battery current consumption has been reduced to new low levels. "These current economies, combined with the possibilities of greater volume and better tone through refined loud-speaker design, have made possible a battery-operated radio set about on a par with the average socket-power radio set, plus the advantage of a noiseless background for tuning distant stations. "The combined engineering and research forces of the Radio Corporation of America have been at work on this new conception of an efficient battery-operated radio receiver. After many months of intensive effort, such Radiolas have been developed. These new sets are not simply revamped versions of old storage battery or dry battery radio sets. They are entirely new conceptions of battery-operated sets, designed to establish rural radio more on a par with metropolitan radio. In sensitivity, selectivity, simplicity, economy, tone and power, there is little more to ask."

RADIO TELEGRAPH EXPANDS SERVICE

Recent additions to the radio telegraph service from the United States are of special interest now as indications that America is striving to hold her own in a radio telegraph leadership, which is made more difficult to maintain by the British merger of radio telegraph and cables. The announcement that RCA Communications, Inc., will begin work at once to establish a transatlantic telegraph network in fourteen strategic cities in the United States, with plans for 25 inland stations, as wave lengths are granted, also has added to the country-wide attention to this modern means of communication. Within the last few weeks three new direct international circuits have been announced by W. A. Winterpot tom, Vice-President in charge of Communications of RCA Communications, Inc., to Spain, Syria and Costa Rica. Several reductions of rates for radio telegraph service also have been announced recently by Mr. Winterpot tom. It was the competition of radio telegraph which forced a reduction of cable rates which users have saved $60,000,000 in the last eight years.
