White Fights Appointment Of J. Parker

New York, Apr. 10—Walter White, Acting Secretary of the N. A. A. C. P., appeared before the sub-committee of the Senate Committee in the Judiciary on Saturday, to voice the Association's protest against the elevation to the U. S. Supreme Court of Judge John J. Parker of North Carolina.

Mr. White read a prepared statement, which set forth that Judge Parker, while candidate for Governor of North Carolina in 1920, delivered an address in the course of which he characterized the Negro as unfit to participate in political life and said the Republican party did not desire the Negro to enter politics. In his address, according to the N. A. A. C. P. brief read by Mr. White, Judge Parker also clearly indicated that measures to disfranchise the Negro embodied in the North Carolina state constitution, had his approval.

Judge Parker's utterances of 1920 were characterized by the N. A. A. C. P. as "shameless flouting" of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments to the Federal Constitution. The statement continues:

"If Judge Parker, for political advantage, can flout two amendments to the Federal Constitution to pander to base race prejudices, we respectfully submit that he is not of the caliber which loyal, intelligent Americans have the right to expect of justices of the nation's highest court.

Upon request of Senator Borah, a member of the sub-committee, Mr. White read for the record the names of officers and members of the Board of Directors of the N. A. A. C. P. Questioned by Senator Overman, of North Carolina, concerning the disfranchisement of Negroes in the South, Mr. White offered to procure for the record of this hearing, instances of such disfranchisement in Senator Overman's own state of North Carolina. This offer Senator Overman declined to avail himself of.

Other replies expressing interest in the situation have been received by the national office and the Jamaica branch from Congressman Hamilton Fish, Jr., Charles Brand and Sol Bloom of New York, Samuel S. Arendt of Nevada, James M. Beck of Pennsylvania, Franklin W. Fort of New Jersey, and Senators Robert Wagner and Royal S. Copeland of New York.

Judge (former Congressman) John F. Carey writes the N. A. A. C. P. that he is strongly opposed to segregation of colored gold star mothers, but owing to his being on the bench is unable to take action against it.

PROTEST KISSING CHINESE

Vienna, Hungary, April 10—(A.N.P.)—An echo of the English censor's action in ordering a scene cut from a film in which "a white man" kissed Miss Anna May Wong, famous and beautiful Chinese movie actress, "on moral grounds," was heard here this week. The Royal Hungarian censor ordered the scene cut because "the white man" was purported to be a grand duke, thus offending his royal sensibilities.

"It has been observed that many subtle discriminations have their beginnings in placid, hypocritical England," Negro observers in London report.

DEPRIEST Girl Slayer To Hang

Chicago Congressman to Face Demo in Nov.;

Judge George Loses

Chicago, Apr. 9—Oscar DePriest, republican member from the first district won his contest from Roscoe C. Simmons and three other opponents Tuesday in the Chicago primary.

DePriest with the backing of the organization which sent him to Congress two years ago behind him, appears to be in an impregnable position. The Thompson organization threw its support solidly behind him and DePriest made thousands of friends while in office because of his service to his constituents. Outside the political organization, he had personal groups in the wards of the district which worked hard to help him retain his seat because of a sense of personal obligation. DePriest made no mistake about it, is a politician.

Simmons, who received an eleventh hour support of the losing Deneen organization, seemingly got his aid to late to have any serious effect on DePriest's majority.

The public should know however that the battle between DePriest and Simmons did not in any way jeopardize the chances for the election of a colored congressman from Illinois. The election was merely a primary where the major political parties, the Democrats and the Republicans nominated their respective candidates for the run off in November. DePriest will now have to face Harry Baker, Democrat nominee in the November election.

ENUMERATOR "CANNED"

WHEN WHITE HUBBY
DRAWS "COLOR LINE"

Washington, D. C., Apr. 10—(CNS)—Following receipt of a protest from a white man who objected to his wife answering personal questions to a Negro enumerator, William D. Denney, director of the census for Delaware, colored enumerator for the rural section of New Castle county, it was learned here Saturday. He was the only colored enumerator among 30 working in the county and was considered one of the most efficient of the census takers in the group.

Inquiries at the Bureau of the Census, however, failed to throw any official light on the matter, as Director Stuart stated positively that "no incident had come under his notice." He questioned further any supervisor having appointed an enumerator would disbar him on any such complaint.

City Sunday School Meeting Ends at Keokuk;

A. W. Draine Presides

By Kenneth South Meyers
Keokuk, Apr. 10—The second city convention of Sunday Schools was held yesterday in the Pilgrim Rest Baptist church, commencing at 2:30 o'clock. A. W. Draine presided, and the program opened with a chorus of forty voices directed by Miss Kathryn Waterfield, singing a group of songs. The invocation was by the Rev. J. W. L. Underwood and the convention orchestra was under direction of Fred D. Fields.

Class demonstrations were given by Miss Thelma Seals of Pilgrim's Rest church, Miss Vivian Johnson of Bethel A. M. E., in which Junior Johnson, Henry Lofton Shaminghouse and Ellmore Frye told the story of "the sower" in three parts. Miss Marjorie Bland of St. Mary the Virgin demonstrated with three pupils by means of songs, pictures and charts. The superintendents' round table, composed of Mrs. Ruth B. Tommes, Mrs. P. A. Jones and Mrs. Birdie Williams discussed "The Most Important Department of the Sunday School." Mrs. Tommes stressed service and loyalty from our small children. Mrs. P. S. Jones, one of the elderly members of Bethel's Sunday School talking very pleasingly of early training. Mrs. Birdie Williams pointed out the importance of training the primary department. The ministers' council, composed of Father A. M. Roberts, Rev. J. W. L. Underwood and Rev. D. H. Byrd discussed "The Status of the Colored Youth Before the American People."

Before closing, the committee on memorials caused the convention to pause and give honor to those members who have departed this life since the last convention, Mr. Jenkins, Mrs. Cornelia Mott, Mrs. Mahja Allen, Mrs. Ellen Dickson.

The evening session, with Mrs. Ruth B. Tommes presiding, was opened by "Holy, Holy, Holy," by the chorus under the direction of Miss Kathryn Waterfield followed by a very pleasing selection from the orchestra. Rev. A. M. Roberts of the Church of St. Mary the Virgin gave a splendid address on "Church Schools." Father Roberts is a vivid speaker and captivates his listeners on all occasions.

Closing session of Convention Monday evening.

The feature of the Monday evening session was the oratorical and vocal contest, Henry Lofton Shaminghouse took first place. Second place went to Elizabeth Battle of Pilgrim's Rest church, and third place to Martha Morgan of the Church of St. Mary the Virgin. In the vocal contest, first place was awarded Miss Harriet Trigglett of St. Mary the Virgin; second place to Paul Owens of Bethel A. M. E., and third place to little Chester White of Pilgrim's Rest Church. Every number in these contests was delightful. Miss Beulah Gillam, Anderson of St. Mary the Virgin was heard in a whistling solo entitled "In the Sweet Bye and Bye," in variations by Spencer. The orchestra played several beautiful numbers, among which they were requested to play "The Romance."

White New Orleans Policeman Sentenced to Death for Killing 11-Year-Old Girl—First Sentence of its Kind, Report

New Orleans, April 10—What is said to be the first verdict carrying with it the penalty of death on the gallows, against a white man for killing a Negro, has been returned by a New Orleans jury against Charles Guerdan, former emergency policeman, who shot and killed Hattie McCray, 11-year-old colored girl who resisted his advances.

Chandler C. Luzenberg Sr., was employed by the New Orleans branch of the N. A. A. C. P. of which Dr. George W. Lucas is president, to assist the district attorney in prosecuting the police officer, and Dr. Lucas reports: "Mr. Luzenberg, assisting the prosecution, was employed by the New Orleans branch of the N. A. A. C. P. and the public sentiment was created by our fight. We regard it as a signal victory, yet it is not all over. We intend to go to the court of last resort if necessary to hold our victory."

The New Orleans Times-Picayune, reporting on the outcome of the trial, states that the verdict, brought in after 45 minutes' deliberation, "was received with stunned silence by the crowded courtroom," and later says: "Veteran jurists and attorneys declared Guerdan's case was the first in their memory of New Orleans criminal history where a white man had been sentenced to die for the slaying of a Negro. Several verdicts stipulating guilty without capital punishment have been returned, but never before the death penalty, they said."

Witnesses at the trial testified to previous advances made by the police officer against the girl, and also riddled his contention that the girl had attacked him with a bread-knife in resisting his advances.

N. A. A. C. P. Poll Induces Many Editors and Publishers to Employ This Style

New York, April 3—A poll conducted by the N. A. A. C. P. among editors of leading white dailies throughout the United States, and book publishers, shows that sentiment is overwhelmingly in favor of the use of the capital N in writing the word Negro, and that many editors and publishers have adopted this style in response to the request of the N. A. A. C. P.

At this time our very distinguished visitor in the person of Attorney J. B. Morris of Des Moines, Iowa, was present to the convention. Also, Mrs. Mattie Kinkade of Quincy, Illinois, formerly Mrs. Mattie Foster of this city was with us.

Before closing of the session A. W. Draine was presented in behalf of the convention, in appreciation of the hard and grand work he has done during his two years of service. Mr. Draine is the father and sole organizer of the convention.

Blease Makes Fight for Negro Labor in North

Washington, D. C., Apr. 10, (CNS)—While visitors in the gallery gaped and fellow senators looked askance, Senator Cole Blease, of South Carolina, whose tirades denouncing and berating Negroes have echoed and re-echoed in the Senate of the United States, urged protection for the Negro worker, and flayed the people of the northern states for hiring foreigners in their stead.

"Today we hear much about unemployment. There is a race among you today to which you do not give employment," he said. "The people of the North invited them to come up here; they were not satisfied with the Negro being in the South; they were not satisfied with letting the southern man handle him; they invited him to Washington; they made this a 'nigger' heaven, where they sit beside you on the street cars, eat with you in some of the dining rooms and associate with you in other places, even taking dinner at the White House."

"Now he is here, he is in New York, he is in other northern cities, and what are you going to do with him? You are putting him in the bread line, putting him out of the positions which he has held and giving them to the foreigners who can not speak the English language," he continued.

"The Negro is entitled to the job that God created him to fill. Have you given him that job? No; you have driven him out of them."

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 27.—

(C.N.S.)—The opening of the Fair department store, located at Seventh and I streets, Northwest, on April 15, with an all-colored sales force numbering approximately 100, will mark the beginning of a new economic era in the history of the colored people of Washington.

The Fair, which occupies about 20,000 square feet of floor space with three floors stocked with first-class merchandise, catering to all tastes and pocketbooks, has been acquired by the Mercantile Trading Company of which Thomas H. R. Clarke is president.

According to Mr. Clark the company plans to press forward their program of establishing stores in other cities in order to create a purchasing power for the colored people.

FT. DODGE, IOWA

By Wm. Brown

Ft. Dodge is not quite silent but striving to keep moving slowly. Our churches are doing fairly well for the times. Coppen Chapel, Pastor Rev. Hubbard and members say keep to the top, but can't go over. The Second Baptist church wants to go over the top after a while. Herbert Brown is still in the hospital at Iowa City doing fairly well when last heard from. Mrs. L. Johnson was taken to Iowa City last week for treatment. We have not heard from her. Mother Benning is about as usual. Mrs. Sam Hayes has been somewhat indisposed for more than a week, but Sunday found her at her post of duty in the church. Mrs. Francis Redd is holding up at work real well so far since she returned from Iowa City, mother woods is getting along real well this spring and looking well. Mr. Ross Johnson has been feeling very well for some time. Years of hard work is now taking hold of him. Geo. Williams, better known as Geo. Blackburn returned to this city last week after being in Chicago for seven months and other eastern cities. They will come back to Ft. Dodge. The reporter has not been feeling so good for a week but at present feeling better. Both churches are planning great things for Easter. Come and see for we have the talent in Ft. Dodge that can do things worth while if they want to and from what I glean they want to, if they will follow their leader they need not fear defeat. The Mission Circle of the Second Baptist church met last week in a joint session at the home of Mrs. Wm. Chambers.

SILK GIRDLE REPLACES THE OLD-TIME CORSET

There is about as much resemblance between the old-time corset and modern girdle that women have adopted as there is between an armored battleship and a canoe. It is safe to predict that never again will women allow themselves to be sheathed in steel and whalebone until all natural beauty of figure is hidden and free, spontaneous movement is impossible.

The type of a girdle the 1930 woman selects depends somewhat upon her type of figure and the purposes for which she intends to wear it. The larger woman likes a fairly deep, form-fitting Hickory girdle with wide insets of silk elastic over the sides, extended front shield and a light boning.

The woman of slighter build, however, selects a narrow Hickory girdle, with small elastic insets and little or no boning. Another style is of flower-trimmed, shirred satin ribbon in slip-on style. This type is particularly popular for sports and day-time wear. With the formal evening frock, which must be form-fitting according to fast-ion's revived mode, the other types are selected even by the youngest and slimmest of girls.

In other case, the new style girdles meet the approval of doctors and physical educators who recognize them as the perfect happy medium that gives enough support to abdominal muscles and yet permits perfect freedom of motion regardless of occupation.

But the girdle has another important duty to perform besides the slight molding restraint it gives the figure, and that is the task of keeping the stockings smooth and straight. For this reason, any girdle selected should have four adjustable Hickory hose-supporters, of live, responsive elastic, and with supporter buckles with rubber cushions to protect the hose from holes and runs.

Many women like to wear a dainty Hickory round garter in addition to assure straight seam lines in the stockings, which are universally acknowledged to be essential to correct grooming.

Among Us Women by Mrs. Ruth Stone

FRESH GARTERS THE THING TO RENEW OLD CORSETS

What part of an article goes out first? Where the greatest strain is, naturally, and with corset, corset or girdle, or whatever article one finds most comfortable and convenient, the part that is sure to go first is the hose supporter that gets a constant tug and strain all day long. They also get somewhat soiled from constant rubbing against clothing, which makes the whole garment seem shabby and worn out. The next time you are tempted to discard your girdle, try washing it and then putting on a fresh pair of Hickory so-on garters and see what a difference it makes.

The old ones can be ripped off and the new ones put on in a jiffy by simply stitching around the convenient tab tops which come with the so-on garters. In selecting garters, whether to replace old ones, or in getting an entirely new girdle, the wearer should see that good, live elastic is used and that all metal parts are smooth and rounded so as not to catch the fingers or tear the stockings and, to promote the long life of sheer hose, the supporter buckle and loop should both be entirely protected with rubber where it touches the stocking.

A pair of so-on garters kept always on hand will save annoyance when an emergency arises, and should always be part of one's traveling equipment.

STURDY WAISTS FOR ACTIVE YOUNGSTERS

Dressing the children sensibly suggests having them wear as few separate garments as possible. This not only saves washing and expense, but what is most important, means greater freedom of movement, and free circulation of air around the body. A Hickory pantle waist, drawers or bloomers and, for the girl, a little frock, and shorts and blouse for the boy, are all the healthy child needs except in the most severe weather, when knit underwear may be worn.

The pantle waist is the key garment, so to speak, of the child's outfit. To this the garter is fastened, and drawers, shorts, bloomers and skirts buttoned. For this reason sturdy materials and strong, unbreakable bone buttons, securely taped on, are necessary features. In selecting the waists one should note also that the essential parts are double stitched, that the stout tabs or patent pin tube attachments are provided for the garters.

Cut is also an important part of the waist. The arms must be full cut to avoid binding and the front and neck sufficiently low not to show above the outer garments.

When buying the children's clothes, see that they are the kind they can easily get in and out of themselves.

VISITING EASTERN IOWA

The editor of the Bystander has been visiting Keokuk, Ft. Madison, Burlington, Ottumwa and Oskaloosa this week. Most of these towns like Des Moines, have closed their city elections and are now lining up their forces for the county, state and national contests.

There are some encouraging signs to be noted politically but like many other communities the employment situation is working considerable hardships on the laboring classes—and this includes most of our group.

Recently Keokuk has elected a new city council. Politics in this town is always interesting for in it are many intelligent Negroes and they take an active part in all the campaigns. As a result of their activities a second policeman, Mr. Fields, is on the force and other things are to follow.

Negroes in Keokuk have some very nice homes. It is not a factory town and the substantial people hold their jobs year in and year out because the seasonal orders which often open and close factories do not enter the employment situation there.

Ft. Madison has just finished its city election, but Negroes seem to make little headway toward securing employment in the city and county government. Unlike most Iowa counties, Democrats often win places in the final elections both parties making strong bids for Negro support. A colored man is a candidate for constable in one of the Lee county townships and he seems to have the backing of the organization.

Burlington has one man-working for the city and this seems to be the extent of the political advantages gained. The Negroes take an active part in politics but like some other communities many of the workers make unprofitable objects the prize for their political reward.

This article is written in Burlington early in the week and before Ottumwa and Oskaloosa have been visited.

There are some things which stand out boldly in these communities. 1. The people have come to realize that the state of Iowa is far behind in giving proper recognition to Negroes in the state government. There is an earnest desire to learn the records and inclinations of candidates in this election and a firm determination to fight and help defeat those candidates who fail to measure up. They feel that they have been fed on beautiful senti-

The Negro in America

By J. G. Browne

There seems to be quite a lot of unnecessary protest on the part of some people, concerning the word Negro. Before anyone finishes grammar school he knows that proper names and proper adjectives begin with a capital letter, Indian, Mongolian, Negro, Malay or Caucasian. Anyone too ignorant to know this, is too illiterate to write anything worth reading, and they who do it from a prejudicial stand point, simply liable their own integrity. If a man is little enough to ignore common knowledge in the proper usage of literature to cast aspersions on a race, whatever else he may say will be taken with a grain of salt.

The trend of the age is a quest for true values. Men are not carried away on every glimmer or pretense as formerly. The business that advertises falsely is condemned by the rest of the business world. The same is true of that which is superficial in every line of endeavor.

The writer who fails to capitalize the first letter in Negro, places himself up for ridicule and not the race. "Were I so tall to reach the pole, Or grasp the ocean in my span, I must be measured by my soul, 'Tis character that makes the man."

We think any Negro or group of Negroes can use their time to a greater advantage than requesting a few ignoramuses to use proper style in writing. We are not the losers.

Said to be First Such Sentence of White man for Killing Negro

New York, Apr. 10—What is said to be the first verdict carrying with it the penalty of death on the gallows, against a white man for killing a Negro, has been returned by a New Orleans jury against Charles Guerdan, former emergency policeman who shot and killed Hattie McCray, fourteen-year-old colored girl who resisted his advances.

Chandler C. Luzenberg, Sr., was employed by the New Orleans branch of the N. A. A. C. P., of which Dr. Geo. W. Lucas is president, to assist the district attorney in prosecuting the police officer, and Dr. Lucas reports: Witnesses at the trial testified to previous advances made by the police officer against the girl, and also ridiculed his contention that the girl had attacked him with a bread knife in resisting his advances.

NEW YORK, N. Y., March 18.—(E. N. S.)—Information from Kingston, Jamaica, British West Indies, announces that the Appeal Court had reversed the verdict of the lower court on Feb. 2, which had imposed a sentence of six months without hard labor on Marcus Garvey, president of the Universal Negro Improvement Association, for seditious libel, for the publication of certain articles in his daily newspaper, "The Blackman," rement long enough. One person remarked "We are where we were thirty years ago, a change must come this time."

2. There are altogether too many places where vice protection is the reward for political support whereby one or two Negroes are permitted to operate a din where the young boys and girls are permitted to loiter and rub shoulders with the thugs and thieves of the town. This is a most unfortunate situation. Congressman DePriest cited this method of political reward to some Negroes as a grave menace all over the country.

3. To correct the conditions mentioned above, it is highly essential that the better class of Negroes take a leading part in the campaigns, for it is often too late to complain of these things after the election is over.

garding the action taken by some officials of the government during the recent election campaign in that island. His editor, a Mr. Aikman, was also sentenced, along with his chief, to three months imprisonment in the St. Catherine District Prison, without hard labor. The case against the foreman, a Mr. Beecher, was dismissed.

1023 13th Street, Des Moines, Iowa, April 4, 1930.

THE IOWA BYSTANDER, Des Moines, Iowa, Gentlemen:

I have learned with a great deal of satisfaction that Dan W. Turner my old school mate and friend for many years is a candidate for the republican nomination for governor.

Knowing Dan as I do, and this is what we have always called him, I feel that your readers and the good folks of Iowa generally would appreciate a word from one who has known him from boyhood.

More than thirty years ago, with my parents I lived in Corning. My father and Dan's father were about the same age. Twenty-five Negro families lived there then. The A. B. was held in the highest esteem; Dan, his brothers and I went to school together, engaged in athletics, pulled the old fire engine together and on all occasions he was absolutely clean and fair.

On many occasions I was counted on to save the day in athletics and the boys were always pushing me to the front.

Aspiring to an office as chief executive of the state, it is well to know the back ground of the men. I commend him to my friends and believe that with the record he has made since I left Corning, that if elected Governor, he will give all the people a clean, honest administration.

Sincerely yours, J. H. WOODS.

NOVEL PLAY APRON FOR LITTLE GIRLS

"Just like Mother" is reason enough for little girls to do a good many things, including the very sound and helpful practice of helping with the dishes now and then.

In the style shown here, one of many available, the little apron is slipped over the head and fastened at the side.

affording complete protection to the little frock underneath and yet cool and unconfined. It has the daintiest of ruffles all the way round and a front ornamented with applied rubber motifs designed to capture the childish feminine heart.

These aprons, which are as suitable for play as for work, can be easily washed by using lukewarm water and soap flakes. Do not wring them out, but squeeze gently and wipe with a dry cloth. They should not be ironed.

STRAIGHT HOSE SEAMS SPELL SMARTNESS

"Show me what she wears and I'll tell you what she is!" would be a safe proposition for almost any woman to make about another. In the matter of girdles and supporter belts, for example, it is not difficult to judge whether their owners are young or old, fat or thin, fastidious or soberly practical.

To make doubly sure that the hose seams are straight and parallel, many women prefer to wear a Hickory round garter as well as the hose supporter.

The college girl or debutante insists on style and beauty in her hose supporter, as well as the greatest possible comfort and freedom of movement.

An inch circle of soft elastic, rosebud trimmed, has four adjustable hose supporters which hold the stockings firmly in place. To avoid runs in stockings, one should select a supporter buckle having both loop and button protected with rubber, and with all metal parts rounded instead of with sharp edges to tear the fragile silk or scratch the fingers.
