NEWS FLASHES HERE AND THERE VE SAYS

Who says children are a hindrance? Carl A. Morlok of Lansing, Michigan, was elected constable there recently, because the women voters of that community fell in love with his quadruplets, all girls.

The country's best minds are agreed that the year 1932 should show an upward trend of affairs. Surely a moron could understand that conditions couldn't get any worse.

One would be surprised at the number of people who do not know that the following radio artists are colored: Duke Ellington and band, Fletcher Henderson's orchestra, Ivie Anderson, Blues singer, Gene Ballard, the Songster, Cab Calloway's orchestra, Earl Hines' orchestra, Noble Sizzle's band, McKinney's Cotton Pickers, Eva Jessaye and her Dixie Jubilee choir, the Southernaire quartet.

While the Russian Five Year Plan is being torn to pieces by America, Russia might slap back by sneering at America's gangland rule, lynching, at our inadequate civilization that allows honest people to go hungry while food rots in fields or grain elevators, our wholesale graft and corruption in politics and the assassinations of prohibition.

Funeral Services for Atty. H.R. Wright Held Tuesday

Noted Negro Lawyer Ill for Year Funeral services for Herbert R. Wright, 59, widely known Negro lawyer, were held at 2 p. m. Tuesday at St. Paul's A. M. E. church. Burial was in Marshalltown Wednesday. He died Sunday of heart disease at his home, 218 Clark street.

Lynching Issue Splits Maryland

Salisbury, Md., Dec. 31.—A colored man was lynched here about a month ago, and today mob spirit, revived after twenty years, still rules on the Eastern Shore.

Maryland has slipped half way into the fold of the backward states, its people are bitterly divided against one another, and Gov. Albert C. Ritchie, a candidate for the Democratic Presidential nomination, is seriously embarrassed by a local situation that may assume national importance.

People Approve Act Nobody has been punished for the hanging and burning of Matthew Williams, colored murderer. A coroner's jury has taken no action. The entire Eastern Shore thoroughly approves of the lynching.

Gov. Ritchie has said that the members of the mob must be "apprehended and vigorously prosecuted" and has instructed Attorney General W. Preston Lane, Jr., to assist Wisconsin County authorities.

Perry Jones, Daring Kansas City Aviator, Killed In Air Crash

Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 31.—Thomas Perry Jones, 20-year-old son of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Jones, was instantly killed Monday morning at 8:45 when his plane crashed in a field two miles north of Topeka, Kan., in a dense fog that hung over the Kansas capital and its vicinity early in the day.

The plane was a two-passenger Vellie monocoque and it was owned by Jones and Dr. P. C. Turner, both of Kansas City. The plane was completely demolished. Jones had completed 115 hours of solo flying and was one of the few young Negroes in this section seriously interested in aviation. He owned also a commercial airplane license.

He was a great-grandson of Frederick Douglass and was a former student of both Kansas and Howard universities.

Perry recently visited in Des Moines; while here, he created much newspaper comment of his achievements in the aviation field. Rev. A. Ross Brent, pastor of Maple Street Baptist church, accompanied him in several of his flights.

thirty-one. On that day and in keeping with the saying of our Lord, suffer little children to come unto me, Mr. T. W. Wilson, (better known by many of the younger set and little tots as Uncle Tug), paused in the midst of the activities of one of our nation's greatest holidays long enough to go into the remotest parts of the city, north, east, west and south, and bring together more than three hundred anxious children and many of their parents to enjoy with him the happiness of that day, at 811 West 14th street, known as the Wilson Funeral Home, Mr. T. W. Wilson, President and manager, Mrs. Lena Wilson secretary-treasurer.

Never before among the Negro business of this city has there been an occasion such as this that has brought as many children together expecting to receive a gift; it has affected the entire childhood of Des Moines. After a program of music and short addresses, which were adequate to the occasion all assembled on the lawn in front of the home while the photographer, Mr. Claud Frye made a photograph of them all, the children then filed in single line passing Mrs. Wilson and Mr. Tucker receiving their presents, as they yelled, "thank you" and "good bye Uncle Tug." Now if you would have friends, first your self be friendly.

Humanitarian Contributed Millions Toward Negro Welfare and Education

Colored Woman Sues For Riches

Chicago, Jan. 7.—Julius Rosenwald, numbered among the greatest philanthropists of all time, died Wednesday. The fortune founded on the growth of Sears, Roebuck & Co., of which he was chairman at his death, Mr. Rosenwald pitted against racial and religious intolerance, ignorance and poverty and his benefactions to humanity totaled more than $40,000,000.

His personal contributions, so far as they could be tabulated from incomplete records since the beginning of the century, reached $21,568,670. Public men, merchants, employes, humanitarians and friends all offered high tribute as they learned of his passing.

Through his philanthropies, more than 5,000 schools have been built for Negro children throughout the southland, several hospitals have been made possible and the education of the masses as well as scores of individuals holding scholarships from the Rosenwald Fund, has been promoted.

Rosenwald memorial services will be held at the Crocker street Y, Sunday at 3:00 p. m.; speakers: Attorney James B. Morris, on "The Benefactor", and D. C. Pears, manager local Sears-Roebuck store, on "The Employer". Musical numbers will be given by Mrs. Joburness Kelso and the Y Junior Quartette.

If you fail to get your paper next week your name has been taken off the list for failure to pay your subscription. When you pay it will be put on again.

CROCKER "Y" SPORTS

By the Physical Department The Crocker Y. M. C. A. Sunday School Basket ball League opened December 11, at West High Gym. with ten teams entered in the Junior and Senior leagues. Union Baptist, senior champions for the past two years withdrew after previously having entering.

Corinthian Baptist, St. Paul's A. M. E., and the Trojan club have displayed the best early season form. St. Paul's attack is built around "Jamo" Allen, outstanding local athlete whose splendid floor work and accurate shooting features the play of the St. Paulians. Eugene Brown, formerly star center with Union Baptist and Eugene Wilson, elongated forward, contribute toward making this team formidable.

The Corinthians boast of a strong aggregation this year with the Newcomb and Webb brothers comprising four-fifths of the team which has won both its starts by comfortable margins: William Smith, a new recruit from Burlington, Iowa; has added considerable punch to their attack.

The Trojans, having won the junior championship for the last two years decided to try their luck in the senior section this year. This team also was runnerup in the State Junior tournament at the Central Y. M. C. A. last year. Virgil Mann, George Robinson and L. T. Johnson, carry the brunt of the offensive work for the Trojans. Jerome Southers, Linford Willis, and Art Bush handle the defensive, also contributing many points in the scoring column. Morton Graves, diminutive forward and captain, makes up for his lack of size by his aggressive ness and fight.

The Weasel club, Burns M. E., and the Weasel club have started slowly but each team has showed latent power which will make them forces to be reckoned with in the future. The four teams in the Junior League are the Fellowship club, Panther club, Roadside club and Bethel club. All the

Local NAACP Celebrates 70th Anniversary of Emancipation Proclamation; Annual Event

A large audience heard N. O. Calloway, graduate student of Ames, deliver an oration, "What the Negro Wants" at the 70th anniversary of the Emancipation Proclamation, sponsored by the Des Moines branch of the N. A. A. C. P., at Maple street Baptist church, Friday evening, January 1.

Quoting excerpts from Mr. Calloway's eloquent and dramatic appeal for a fair chance for the Negro, he said, "Is it asking too much for the Negro to desire the material things of life? Is it asking too much for him to ask for protection from mob violence? Is the Negro wrong in seeking the cultural things of our civilization? The Negro is intimidated and when that fails, he is lynched. The Negro's indisputable contribution to America is—Music. One of the regrettable blots on the escutcheon of the State of Iowa is the barring of Negroes from the dormitories of the State University and at Ames College. In industry, the Negro's wages are 50% lower than other workers."

Mr. Calloway's oration won the State oratorical contest last year. Preceding the principal address by Mr. Calloway, Mr. A. A. Alexander, president of the Des Moines branch, said that he was glad to lead the organization through the trials and tribulations which shall undoubtedly be theirs during the year 1932, that an extensive schedule is being perfected, and that to succeed the organization must have the united support of everyone. Alexander further stated that in his opinion the Emancipation Proclamation far exceeds in greatness that of the Magna Charta; he made a plea that everyone take out a membership in the organization and thanked all personal sponsors of the "Fair."

All intelligent and thinking Negroes should belong to the N. A. A. C. P., said Mrs. Alexander, in soliciting new memberships. Twelve were secured. Rev. G. W. Robinson made some very pertinent and timely remarks in assisting in securing new members. The organization announced that negotiations are being made to secure William Pickens, National Field

LOOK FORWARD

Nineteen hundred thirty-one is over. Nineteen thirty-two is here. While most people would prefer to forget the old year, yet all have countless blessings for which they should be thankful.

Out of every difficult situation somebody is made stronger while those who lack the tenacity to stay put are pushed down. It may be well to remember that much of our troubles of last year are with us yet and that we might as well settle down to a process of slow progress upward. The Bystander extends to all its greetings for a happy New Year.

TIME TO SPEAK

At the December meeting of the Republican National Committee in Washington, representatives from several cities appeared urging their town as the hostess for the convention in 1932. One of Chicago's representatives, Edward Hurley—Chicago got the convention—stated in his appeal that the big hotels in the loop would house the delegates amply and that arrangements had been made with the Negro hotels on the South side to house the Negro delegates.

In the past Negro delegates have been housed in the Metropolitan hotels without regard to race and this will be a wide departure from the old rule. Several of our newspapers have spoken out against this arrangement and proceeded to take Mr. Hurley to task for his statement.

Unfortunately to be sure; but the most unfortunate part of it was the failure—nothing to the contrary appears—of the three Negro representatives on the National Committee to raise objections to the remarks and the arrangements then and there. Why accept it without protest, come outside and make the complaint? Where were the National Committeemen and Women, Perry Howard and Mrs. Boozie of Mississippi and Mrs. Williams of Georgia? What are they there for? Are they afraid to talk? Possibly their silence on this question is indicative of the program they follow when other questions are raised for decision. Chicago Negroes should not allow this arrangement to go without a substantial protest. If they fail, Negro delegates may be segregated in the convention hall in 1936. Who knows?

HEALTH TALKS

By Dr. H. H. London

COLDS

The processes involved in the taking of a cold usually go unobserved until the victim has in the nose a very unpleasant condition. After getting the feet wet or becoming chilled as when forced to remain too long inactive in a cold temperature the nose becomes stuffy and there is difficulty or inability to breathe through one or both nostrils. Just why this occurs is somewhat difficult of explanation and will not be attempted here.

However, there are both local and general actions which cooperate to produce this condition. Lasting usually three or four days without much attention it may pass leaving the nose again in normal condition. And then again the throat becomes sore sometimes or a cough may develop bringing to the imagination all the possibilities which can follow in its wake. Considering the continuous membrane from nose to throat to bronchial tubes and lungs such a result is not surprising even though the non-serious nature of the head cold is admitted. To prevent a cold is almost always difficult because of the suddenness with which it makes its appearance and because of its unexpectedness.

Nevertheless if one so exposed to cold under the circumstances mentioned supplies necessary heat in the form of hot lemonade and hot baths together with a possibly needed eliminant the cold which might have developed will not in a great majority of cases. Having developed such treatment will abort or shorten the course of a cold already begun. Further extension will require treatment necessary for complications which infrequently arise.

RADIO TELEGRAPH NOW GOES INLAND

Fourteen Cities in Nucleus of Network, With Plans for Twenty-nine as Wave Lengths Are Granted. Plans for the immediate establishment of a radio-telegraph system serving all the interior of the United States through fourteen strategic cities just have been announced by General James G. Harbord, president of the Radio Corporation of America. The service will be managed and operated by the Corporation's subsidiary, R. C. A. Communications, Inc. The stations will be at New York, Chicago, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Seattle, Denver, New Orleans, Kansas City, Detroit, Cincinnati, Cleveland, St. Louis, Boston and Washington. The establishment of the new service, which will give the inland cities direct communication with the world wide wireless networks radiating from New York and San Francisco to foreign countries, was made possible by the recent grant of ten exclusive channels and five shared channels from the Federal Radio Commission. "We hope to extend the system," General Harbord said, "to the full list of 25 cities contemplated in our original application as soon as additional wave lengths are made available." Other cities whose commercial importance and strategic location justified a place in the new radio network, General Harbord said, were Philadelphia, Miami, Ft. Savannah, Minneapolis, Memphis, Pittsburgh, Houston, Norfolk, Buffalo, Portland, Me., Rochester, Schenectady, Portland, Ore., Milwaukee, and many others which it is

The above map shows the twenty-nine cities which the Radio Corporation of America hopes to include in an inland radio telegraph network soon. Work already is under way to give radio telegraph service to fourteen of the cities, on wave lengths already granted. These stations will be at New Orleans, Kansas City, Detroit, Cleveland, Chicago, Los Angeles, Seattle, Denver, St. Louis, Cincinnati, New York, San Francisco, Boston and Washington. able means of communication with each other. "But its greatest significance, as the United States turns more and more to foreign markets, is that it brings Europe, South America and the Orient closer to America through radio's new and efficient avenues of communication." Supplementing General Harbord's announcement, W. A. Winterbottom, vice-president in charge of communication, revealed that the construction program for the fourteen cities was already under way. Three million dollars has been set aside for the initial expenditure.

In what language was most of the New Testament originally written?

BRIBERY CASES THROWN OUT OF COURT
 Chicago, Dec. 11th.—A jury in Judge George Fred Rush's courtroom, after less than 30 minutes' deliberation, on Dec. 4, returned a verdict of "not guilty" in the case of "Judge" William H. Harrison, former member of the Illinois pardon and parole board, who was tried for conspiracy.
 After the verdict members of the jury upon being questioned about their opinions regarding the 21-page confession Harrison made, said they were convinced that the defendant told the truth when he said the statement was made under "mental duress."
Harrison Is Sole Witness
 Attorney Wendell E. Green, who defended Harrison, was successful Wednesday in having two new bribery indictments recently returned against the former board member not pressed.
 Harrison was the only witness in his behalf with the exception of three character witnesses. He explained while on the stand that all the charges set forth on the "confession" were untrue and that he signed the document only after he had been told by investigator George "Doc" Williams of the state attorney's office that failure to do so was to take his life in his own hands.
 The trial opened Monday, Nov. 20, and immediately a bitter fight was started to have the "confession" admitted into the records. Attorney Green waged a hard battle to prevent it, but Judge Rush finally granted the motion of the state to admit the document and Assistant State's Attorney Harry J. Buch read it to the jury.

In a spirit of well wishing we extend a Merry Xmas and a Happy New Year to the citizens of the community and World War veterans and their families.

Watches in Havana Set When Old Gun Is Fired
 Among the world's odd timepieces is that by which Havana sets its clocks and watches. Never has it lost a minute, run down or eluded the wrong hour. Nor has its face necessitated the periodic washing that all clocks seem to need.
 In fact it really isn't a clock at all, but a battery of 21 old Spanish guns, mounted on the parapet of a fortress overlooking Havana harbor, one of which is fired nightly at nine o'clock, a custom that has prevailed for nearly four centuries.
 Though Havana may bustle with activity throughout the day, hearing a thousand noises and sounds, it listens intently at nine o'clock for the rumble of one of the guns. The electric timepiece in the old fortress is controlled by the adjacent Observatorio Nacional. Each night a few seconds before nine o'clock a single sound, the approach of the hour, the gun is rammed and then fired on the dot.
 Years ago, before Cuba won its independence, the Spanish fired the gun twice daily—at 12 o'clock noon and at nine, when the gates of the old city of Havana were closed for the night. However, after Cuba became its own master, it was felt needless—and a trifle expensive—to fire the gun at noon, when the city's natural noises drowned the boom of the gun. So the noon shot was discontinued, effecting a saving of seven dollars a day at the time.

Beds in Closets Once Matter of Necessity
 This hygienically minded age which scoffs so readily at the European notion that fresh air at night is unhealthy may be chagrined to realize that the open beds on which we sleep nowadays are a natural evolution of the beds with doors which can still be found in peasant quarters in Europe, says the New York Sun.
 The last vestige of the old notion of sleeping in a closet was the four-poster bed which, to antique collectors, is a very desirable object.
 It was from sheer necessity that people used to sleep in closets. Without central heating it was the only way to keep warm at night, but as houses were better built the closet doors changed to heavy curtains. The next development was leaving off the back and sides and substituting four posts with a canopy from which curtains hung.

Monks in Old Home
 The old abbey of Saint-Wandrille, near Rouen, is inhabited again by the Benedictine monks, who used to live in it before the days of the expulsion of religious orders from France. The homecoming of the holy men must have frightened away a good many profane spirits, as the abbey belonged for several years to the Belgian writer, Maurice Maeterlinck, who, with his former wife, the actress Georgette Leblanc, gave there great artistic parties. The old cloisters contributed a beautiful scenery, and "Macbeth" found there an unrivaled setting. Then Maurice Maeterlinck took to other pleasures and other climes, and the abbey of Saint-Wandrille was deserted. Now the monks sanctify it anew.—Exchange.

Beauty Now a Science
 The invention of a device to measure beauty is claimed by Jose V. Soriano, student in the University of the Philippines.
 The machine consists of a circle divided into more than 20 parts and angles in which the beauty of the face one can be mathematically determined for purposes of comparison.
 The girl is viewed from different angles and her score is the sum total of the grades taken from the various angles.
 The highest grade that can be made is 2,000 points and the lowest 450 points.

Yellowstone in 1867
 "An exploring party, which has been to the headwaters of the Yellowstone river, has just returned and reports seeing one of the greatest wonders of the world," said an article in the Montana Post on September 14, 1867. "For eight days they traveled through a volcanic country, emitting fine flames and living streams of molten brimstone. The hollow ground resounded beneath their feet as they traveled, and every movement seemed to break through. Not a living thing was seen in the vicinity. The explorers gave it the significant appellation of Hell."

Close Acquaintance
 Mrs. S— had gone down to her precinct voting place to vote. She noticed another woman also waiting.
 "I've always voted a straight ticket before," Mrs. S— told the woman, "but this year I don't think I will, because I don't think much of Mr. — of that party. Do you know much about him?"
 "Well, rather," replied the woman. "To see, I'm married to him!"

Des Moines, Dec. 9.—O. K. Maben of Garner, prominent house leader among the Cummins forces in the legislative reforms of the thirtieth and thirty-first general assemblies, and active in farm affairs of Hancock county for the last several decades, today announced his candidacy for Treasurer of State on the Republican ticket at the next June primaries.
 As a pioneer in farm bureau work, farm mutual insurance, and legislative activity in the advancement of agriculture, Maben is expected to call upon these forces in his party for largest support.
 Although he has not announced his definite campaign platform, Mr. Maben is expected to stand actively for a more equitable distribution of the tax burden as an absolute necessity for Iowa agriculture, for still further economies in governmental expenditures and for legislation in the interests of farmers and working men.
