NEWS FLASHES HERE AND THERE VE SAYS

The Garbo in "Mati Hari" at the Des Moines theatre this week, in her version of the sensuous dancer in a Javanese temple, dances most disabillie. And significant is the fact that 90 per cent of those in the box office line last Tuesday evening, were men.

The Japs can be likened unto the lowly ant. Taken singly, they present no serious threat or problem, but collectively and with the same objective, they are a very formidable foe.

A true story of Mississippi river love in a southern Iowa town:

A jealous crazed swain, intent upon annihilating his sweetheart (and I knew them both) and mistaking her reflection in the mirror for herself, blazed away, shattering the mirror only. Thinking he had killed her, he shot himself in the chin and died of tetanus some days afterwards in the hospital. Blind passion, that's all.

The president of the National Credit Association says that women pay their bills better than men. Quite a feather in our cap. I feel sorry for the poor male who help boost women to such high estate.

When the public submits articles for publication, the following inane expressions are apt to move newspaper folk to tears:

"A good time was had by all." I might ad, how do you know they had a nice time and who cares.

"A tasty luncheon was enjoyed by all", I've seen some terrible "tasty luncheons."

"They all departed wishing the hostess many happy returns, of the day, and averring that they enjoyed themselves." If she served bad liquor or not enough, they probably wished she'd drop off the end of the lake.

Colored Soldiers Insulted At Company Theater

Ft. Huachaca, Ariz., Feb. 4.—Again hurling insidious insult at that gallant Negro soldiery which fought and died for "democracy," and not content with segregating Negro and Indian children in the school system, headquarters of the 25th U. S. Infantry instituted the practice of discrimination in the company theater here a few days ago. The commanding officers of the unit are white, but the Negro soldier personnel constitutes about 95 per cent of the outfit. A wave of resentment swept the rank of the Negro soldiers following the issuance of the order calling for sectional segregation in the theater and indicating that certain sectors would be reserved for "white civilians, the white enlisted personnel and Mexicans."

This debt Mr. Darrow who is a member of the N. A. A. C. P. board of directors, expresses as follows: "I may not be true to my ideals always, but I never see a Negro without feeling that I ought to pay part of a debt to a race captured and brought here in chains."

The book gives a picture of Mr. Darrow's entire career from his early struggles to his attainment of fame as an internationally known criminal lawyer.

A GOOD POINT

Governor Turner has wired Chas. G. Dawes, chairman of the new reconstruction corporation, urging that not only does Iowa need early use of the funds to be loaned, but also that the state wants the money for Iowa administered by Iowans in Iowa, and not as a part of the Illinois district administered from Chicago.

No doubt the governor is right. It is natural to look out for home folks first and the governor feels that Iowa will not get its fair consideration under Illinois.

The governor could not have made a better statement for the argument we make constantly that in order for the Negro to get his fair share of what is passed around he should be represented among the group which is doing the passing.

CHINA AND JAPAN

Japan is telling the world with force that she is master of the Orient, notwithstanding all the agreements it has signed to settle disputes by peaceful methods.

Unfortunately the United States, Britain, France, et al., find themselves in a most difficult place. These nations have large number of subjects in China who have immense business interests in there; these countries are the home of many large corporations which hold great wealth there. They feel bound to protect these citizens, but their efforts to give protection are loaded with untold difficulties.

Naturally the folks at home don't feel like protecting the fellow who has placed himself in a position to get hurt when the bullets fly, and it is almost equally as hard for a country to refuse to protect its citizens.

Unfortunately the situation may be we are in this position and must get out with the best grace possible. We are inclined to believe that China and Japan can settle their difficulties to suit themselves. The trouble is that the settlement may not suit the other nations. But it is their fight. Why not let them settle it as they see fit?

CORRECT REASONING

Writing in the open forum of the Des Moines Sunday Register, Paul T. Larsh called attention to the fact that among the biggest fighters for the enforcement of the 18th Amendment to the Constitution are those who have been most prolific in the violation of the 14th and 15th Amendments.

The following paragraphs in his article, true in every detail, are well worth the readers attention:

"The 14th and 15th Amendments to the Constitution were adopted decades before the 18th Amendment but have these several gentlemen (Bishop Cannon, et al.) ever endeavored to secure enforcement of them?"

"The specific privileges of the 14th and 15th Amendments have been circumvented by grandfather clauses, literacy tests and poll tax payments;

HEALTH TALKS

By Dr. H. H. London

CANCER OF THE STOMACH

We read recently of the death of a splendid young doctor, a scientist at work at Harvard University on the cure for cancer who had made wonderful headway toward the solution of this cure when by some means he was poisoned by the material with which he had hoped to conquer this potent destructive abnormal tissue. A pity indeed because his brain might have held the solution and that part of the cure upon which he was working might have been the link in the chain connecting the theoretical with the actual cure. Perhaps he sits in interesting controversy with Nogouchi and others who have given their lives while attempting to solve the mysteries of the cause of disease and their cure while vainly endeavoring to get to earth that knowledge so easily discernible here—of such difficult solution here. Had this Harvard doctor been able to carry his work through to the end all the sufferers from this disease would have begun a pilgrimage to his whereabouts immediately. As it is we are informed that he has left a "lead" which will be no doubt a beacon light midway between the beginning and the solution to this cure.

Sufferers from cancer of the stomach have been victims of this disease as a rule for many years before it is discovered. Some have had nausea occasionally, some attacks of what is termed acute indigestion, some with occasional vomiting, others with occasional distress after eating and others have been thought to suffer with chronic inflammation of the stomach, to say nothing of those who for years have had ulcer of the stomach treated and untreated only to find at a certain period in the course of this disease that a cancer exists. And oh, what a distressing revelation! How easy to have avoided it and to avoid it paramount, and to avoid it, it is necessary only that an examination be made in every case where any doubt exists as to its presence. Until a cure is found for this condition this is the only way that its ravages can be stopped and a fatal termination changed into what is equivalent to a cure.

State legislation adopted to assert State rights contrary to Constitutional rights. "It would seem that when these professional moralists from a section of the country that has openly and flagrantly violated the 14th and 15th Amendments to the Constitution approved sixty years ago suddenly grow apologetic in their support of the Constitution, that we can well discount the sincerity of their vociferous fanfare and wonder after all, if perhaps they aren't largely actuated by the fact that their jobs pay a pretty good salary."

Why all the sudden desire to enforce the 18th Amendment which after all is a crime because prohibited when the 13th, 14th and 15th Amendments, which deal with human rights, are flagrantly violated by these same people? Hypocrisy of course.

Once a law is on the statute books, it should be enforced. But it becomes the group which openly violates a part of the Constitution, which has helped to build up disrespect for law by its own acts, to complain when a part of the same Constitution is violated by another group.

Birmingham, Ala., Jan. 28.—After a relentless prosecution which lasted the better part of six days, a jury Saturday night found Willie Peterson guilty of the murder of Miss Augusta Williams and Miss Jennie Wood, white, on the night of August 4th.

This marked the conclusion of the second trial of Peterson, the first having ended in a mistrial when the jury failed to agree on a verdict after deliberating for forty-four hours.

Defense counsel for Peterson, J. R. Johnson and J. T. Roach, both white, signified that they would enter a motion for a new trial for Peterson. The case was heard before Judge H. P. Helm.

Townson, Md., Jan. 28 (By CNS).—Euel Lee, 60-year-old colored man, accused of the murder of a white farmer and his family, was found guilty by a jury of twelve white men here last Wednesday after thirty-two minutes deliberation. The verdict carried with it no recommendation of mercy, making a death sentence mandatory. Immediately upon the announcement of the verdict, Merriam Ades and David Levinson, International Labor Defense lawyers, who acted as counsel for Lee, made a motion for a new trial. They stated that Lee had been denied due process of law and that the case would be fought to the Supreme Court of the United States in the attempt to win a reversal. Several motions for a new trial and for an appeal is a new trial is denied, were before the court for action this week.

Lee's counsel facing an almost impossible task at the trial in the lower court, did their best to build up as strong a case for appeal as possible. Time after time they forced state prosecutors to admit that it was not customary to admit Negroes to jury panels. Even one of the trial judges, Judge Duncan, stated that he did not consider Negroes in picking a jury panel.

The prosecution did not hesitate to bring in the race question at every stage of the trial. Godfrey Childs, state prosecutor, assailed as ridiculous the attempts of the defense to pin the crime on a white witness, thereby "slandering the reputation of a white gentleman."

White newspapers in the lynching area along the Eastern Shore were jubilant last week over the conviction of Lee. Editorials praising the verdict appeared in several papers.

CROCKER "Y" SPORT NEWS
The unexpected happened last Wednesday evening on the West High floor when St. Paul conquered the heretofore unbeaten Union Baptist Five by the score of 18 to 16 in a thrilling hard fought game. The St. Paul team strengthened by two new additions, Woods and Brown, fought all the way and were never headed by Union. Thompson and Palmer played a stellar game for the losers. Woods was the big noise in St. Paul's victory collecting seven points with Allen, Wilson, Brown and Ashby the outstanding players.

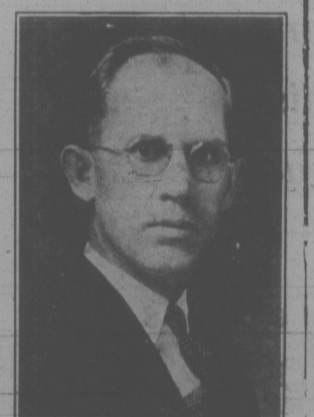

Corinthian trounced the Scorpions 36 to 14. Smith had a big night, dropping in eight baskets and one free throw. Newcomb, E. Webb, B. Webb, and Richard Tilson featured the evenings battle with fine team work.

The Trojans and Weasels waged a merry battle for three quarters but finally the Trojans pulled away to score a 16 to 11 victory, featuring Johnson, Robinson and Mann; Miller and Western performing well for the losers.

The Panthers participated in two games, losing to the Judea club the Roadside club 7 to 6. The Fellowship club won from the Bethel club by a law by its own acts, to complain when forfeit when the Bethel outfit failed to appear.

Mrs. Joseph Brooks was honored at a surprise birthday dinner last Sunday evening, January 28, given by his mother, Mrs. Adelaide Brinker, at their residence, 1111 11th street. Those sharing the courtesy were Misses Marguerite White, Dorothy Bently, Altha Childress, Estell Beavers, Leona Ligon and Messrs. Joe Redd, Robert Webb, Bill Ashby and Buddy Morris.

Large Newspaper Collection
What is said to be the largest collection of newspapers in the world has been opened to the public in a newspaper museum at Aix-la-Chapelle, Germany. Among its collection of 150,000 newspapers are curiosities from all over the world, including an Eskimo paper from the middle of last century.

Buy gloves with what it saves

It isn't necessary to buy 50¢ gloves to get quality like Listerine. Listerine Tooth Paste, made by the makers of Listerine, comes to you in a large tube at 25¢. Now buy it clean, beautiful and protect your teeth. More over it saves you approximately $3 a year over 50¢ gloves. Buy things you need with that saving—gloves are merely a suggestion. LISTERINE TOOTH PASTE 25¢

Los Angeles, Calif., Jan. 15.—Slowly the fog of mystery which has enveloped the circumstances surrounding the tragic death of Lieut. William J. French is clearing away, and it is becoming increasingly evident that the officer was a victim of foul play instead of a suicide as was broadcast to the world last week following the discovery of his body Jan. 2 on a lonely road about 50 miles from Gilroy.

The officer had been shot through the head and his automobile had crashed into a tree off the roadside.

Investigation of the case now centers around Mrs. Gertrude McEnroe, middle-aged divorcee, about whom the police have learned but little. It was Mrs. McEnroe who, according to her own testimony before a coroner's jury, accompanied Lieut. French on his last ride. She declared the officer assaulted her with a hammer, shot himself and then deliberately steered his car into the tree. Her version of the death and facts pertaining thereto apparently were accepted, as a verdict of suicide was returned and she was released.

Soldiers Not Satisfied

Brother officers of Lieut. French, dissatisfied with Mrs. McEnroe's statements started a private investigation. Later Major General Malin Craig, commandant of the Ninth corps area, appointed a board of inquiry composed of two majors and a lieutenant and ordered it to San Jose to demand District Attorney Fred L. Thomas of Santa Clara county to reopen the inquiry, and fill some of the omissions and explain some of the discrepancies in the story as related by Mrs. McEnroe.

N.A.A.C.P. GOT FREE SPEECH FOR NEGRO, DECLARES J. E. SPINGARN AT ANNUAL MEET

New York, Jan. 15.—In its 23 years of existence, the N. A. A. C. P., has opened the doors of public discussion to problems of race, declared J. E. Spingarn, President, addressing the annual mass meeting last Sunday in St. Mark's M. E. church.

"Twenty-three years ago when the Association was founded", declared Mr. Spingarn, "the problem of race-relation was at the nadir of discussion. Virtually no one dared to ask anything for the Negro beyond training to make him a good worker. If the N.A.A.C.P. has done nothing else it has given the Negro free speech. No one now fears to get up and ask anything for the Negro. If you think we have done nothing remember that 23 years ago few men could get up and demand full rights for colored people and be heard."

Rev. A. Clayton Powell, pastor of Abyssinian Baptist church, presented the attitude of Jesus toward world problems, declaring that that attitude was opposed to the selfish use of wealth and to race discrimination. Walter White, the Association's Secretary, reported on the work done in 1931, and presented a life membership medal to John H. Howard, of New York.

Historic Building Now Temple of Justice

Montgomery, Ala., Jan. 29.—The appeal against the death verdict of the Scottsboro boys is being argued in the capitol of Alabama. This building once housed the government of the Confederate states during the Civil War. In this building was made the last official stand of slave-ownership in America.

It is significant that five lawyers should stand up here for the International Labor Defense and argue that eight young boys have been railroaded brutally and inhumanly to a death sentence in a southern court.

One senses in the faces of the sorrowful judges, in the electric suspense of the crowded court room, in the army of Negroes looking in from outside through the big old-fashioned southern windows and bunched around the doors, that here is being argued one of the most significant cases ever heard in the South.

GEO. W. CARVER TO VISIT DES MOINES

DR. G. W. CARVER

Mrs. S. Joe Brown, chairman of the Committee in charge of the Testimonial Dinner being given in honor of Dr. Geo. W. Carver, of Tuskegee at the Central Y. W. C. A., 9th and High Sts., Tuesday, Feb. 9th, reports that requests for tickets are coming in from Ames and other surrounding cities and urges Des Moines residents who desire to enjoy the privilege of meeting and hearing this greatest of all Negro scientists, to make their reservations at once as only three hundred can be accommodated.

This is to be the annual public meeting of the Interracial Commission and it is expected that each of the sixty-four members of the Commission will bring with them at least one guest, hence the number of others to be accommodated will have to be reduced to about one hundred and fifty. The tickets are only 65c and may be secured either from Mrs. Brown or at the office of the Secretary of the Y. W. C. A., Ninth and High streets, where the dinner will be held.

The fight of long standing between the two factions of the Hawkeye Lodge No. 160, I. B. P. O. E., is rapidly drawing to a dramatic climax in the Municipal Court.

George Edmunds, secretary, and W. J. Newcomb, treasurer, secured an injunction in the Municipal Court on Friday, January 1st, restraining W. J. Shepherd, district deputy; J. G. Browne, Bonnie Branch, Wm. Rhodes,

Harry Crews, Simon Wilson and Archie McGuire from interfering with them in their duties as officers of the lodge. The Gray-Edmunds-Newcomb group claimed in a petition that they were elected officers of the lodge on December 2, 1931.

Trouble started when Shepherd removed the charter from the lodge room. On January 14th he filed a suit of replevin to get possession of all records of the lodge. Shepherd was arrested for breaking and entering, but Judge Mershon dismissed the case on grounds of lack of criminal intent in securing the charter. Shepherd retaliated by suing the Gray-Edmunds-Newcomb faction and Officer Garland for illegal arrest; he asks for one thousand dollars damages from each.

Another set of officers headed by Branch, who says that he is the exalted ruler, has entered the fray. Shepherd claims that they were legally elected because the lodge was suspended on November 5th. The trial of continuing the temporary injunction is now in progress in Judge Don Allen's court; the decision will determine who are the defacto officers of the lodge.

The Eiks have been in a turmoil over disputed officers and financial affairs for the past five years; the attorneys hope for an immediate settlement. Messrs. Gray, Edmunds and Newcomb are represented by Attorney J. B. Morris and C. I. Spencer; the defense is headed by Attorney C. P. Howard.

Little Profit Found in Search for Sensation

A time comes to most of us when life means just a little more than playing around. We must not think for a second that there should be no plus. That would be unwise. But what is foolish is the attitude that brings us to the belief that to gain happiness—for that is, after all, what we are trying to get—we must indulge in all sorts and all kinds of fun and frolic.

Sometimes it extends beyond that: we seek every kind of sensation we possibly can in our pursuit of gaiety. Whenever a new idea is mooted we go after it with renewed vigor, in the hope that the boredom of life—as some limited minds regard it—will be changed to a really good time.

We only manage to secure the maximum of contentment by accepting the debits and credits—taking the former at their real valuations, and making the utmost of the credits.—Exchange

Chateau of Knowledge

The speculative mind of man is like a colossal chateau set on a hill. It is surrounded by perpetual darkness. The chateau has countless windows facing in all directions. There is, at first, but one light, a flickering glimmer, in one small window level with the ground.

As years pass, another window slowly lights up. Gradually, as time flows away, a thousand windows in the chateau flame with light. Tower windows begin to glimmer. Finally, the whole chateau is a blaze of light. For behind each window a mind labors in a small dark room shaped like a human skull to create a light of its own. From the tower windows the lights gush the dark for a great way. But they are powerful.

His service and ability won him assignment to several special Army schools after the Armistice was signed, and for a time he was an instructor at the American University at Beaune, France. He was honorably discharged in August, 1919.

Business called him and he held the position of office manager and auditor for a manufacturing concern until he organized a large motor delivery firm which is still operating successfully.

In 1922 he accepted an administrative position with the United States government, where he has helped to aid a host of disabled World War veterans.

Greenwalt has held many important offices in Argonne Post of the American Legion, of which he is a charter member. His work in his post moved comrades to elect him Seventh District commander and he was re-elected. When Junior Baseball was launched by the American Legion, Greenwalt was selected as the best man for state director. Nationwide attention attended his efforts. At the last Iowa Legion convention he was elected a department vice commander, which place he resigned when he became a candidate for Secretary of State. He was reappointed state athletic officer and he is also a Chef de Gare Passe of Voltaire 71 of the Forty and Eight.

In March 1921 Greenwalt organized Company A, 168th Infantry, Iowa National Guard, and in May 1923 was promoted to Major and commanding officer of the First Battalion. He is now Senior Major in Iowa. His hobby is boys but he is a devotee of rifle marksmanship and has led several Iowa teams at the national matches at Camp Perry, Ohio.

Greenwalt and Miss Margerita Cook were married in 1917. They have three sons, aged 11, 8 and 6 years respectively, and an adopted daughter who is in high school. Mrs. Greenwalt is the daughter of John A. Cook formerly of Hampton, Iowa, who was for a time secretary of the House of Representatives.

Mrs. Greenwalt devotes much of her time to the Parent Teachers' Association. Mr. Greenwalt is intensely interested in public school education. He has a most engaging personality and is extremely popular with all who know him.

His campaign headquarters are at 225 Flynn Building, Des Moines.
