Mrs. Paul Robeson Files Suit For Divorce

Washington May Take California's Burden

Washington, D. C., July 1.—Disregarding all pleas for calling off the annual convention of J. Finley Wilson, grand exalted ruler of the Improved Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks of the World, is determined to hold the 33rd annual meeting of the grand lodge Aug. 22 to 27.

Washington looms as the place of meeting. If satisfactory financial arrangements can be effected the official decision to hold the meeting here will be announced about July 1.

Los Angeles was selected as the 1932 meeting place at 1930 convention in Detroit. At the convention in Philadelphia last year the selection of Los Angeles was confirmed. Internal dissension and jealousies among Elks in Los Angeles, coupled with economic conditions, resulted in Golden West lodge, which was to have entertained the grand lodge in August, adopting a resolution asking the grand exalted ruler to postpone the 1932 convention.

Metcalf Is Messenger for Gov. LaFollette

Madison, Wis.—Governor Philip F. LaFollette will have swift messenger service this summer.

Ralph Metcalf, Negro sprinter from Marquette university, who has broken intercollegiate records in the dashes and is regarded as the outstanding American candidate to win in the Olympics, Monday took a temporary job to replace Sam Pierce, 72-year-old Negro messenger to the governor. Metcalf expects to use his $15 monthly earnings to help finance his trip to the Olympics.

UNION BAPTIST AGAIN IS VICTORIOUS

Allen Outpitches Rice But Loses
Union Baptists seem destined to win their third consecutive baseball pennant as they again trounced St. Paul A. M. E. to win their seventh successive game in the Crocker Y. M. C. A. baseball league.

"Jamo" Allen and Cal Rice engaged in a real pitcher's battle, with Allen striking out twelve men and allowing two hits, while Rice also granted two hits and struck out ten opponents.

Allen retired the Union team in order in the first two innings only six men facing him. In the third stanza, Rhodes, the first man up, was passed, Vaughn and Rice reached first on an error and fielder's choice respectively. Allen then uncorked a wild weave which hit Williams, filling the bases.

Former Des Moines Boy Receives Honors At Oberlin

BERNARD MASON CONTINUES BRILLIANT CAREER

By Everett Wadsworth

The friends of Bernard Lee Mason will be interested in knowing that he was in charge of the music used for the drama, "Love's Labor Lost," a Shakespearean production, presented during commencement week, June, 1932, at Oberlin College, Oberlin, O., where he enters his senior year in September, a violin student in the conservatory. He is the son of Mrs. Cora Lee Mason, 1187 West Fourteenth St.

Mr. Mason graduated from North High in Des Moines in the June Class of 1929; he was awarded an honoraria for outstanding service in music upon graduation. Local critics stated that his artistic ability and technique was unexcelled.

During his school career, he won countless honors as a virtuoso of the violin placing first in many state-wide contests.

He was concert master and assistant director of the North High Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Prof. Raymond Jones.

Mr. Mason won the distinction of being the only Negro ever to appear on a high school commencement program in Des Moines. He was acclaimed and applauded by the five thousand people who crowded the Shrine Auditorium that night; the North High youth was forced to encore this tremendous ovation.

The young genius was awarded a scholarship to Oberlin where he has been favored by the noted masters and teachers of Europe and America.

Rivals Plot to Imprison Garvey

Washington, D. C.—July 1.—A plot to jail Marcus Garvey, titular head of the Universal Negro Improvement Association, who is now in exile in Kingston, Jamaica, on new mail fraud charges, if and when he sets foot on United States soil, was uncovered here Saturday. Garvey is now negotiating for his return to America.

According to reports, former members of Garvey's "back to America" movement, believing that Garvey is planning to return to the United States to reunite the factions of his organization, are now reported to be collecting damaging evidence and transmitting the material to government officials here in an effort to build up a new criminal case against their former leader.

The unexpected then happened, Preston raised an infield fly which should have been easily taken but fell safe, two runs scoring before the ball was retrieved.

Allen opened the fourth by hitting Thompson, who promptly stole second, Rhodes came through with a single, scoring Thompson.

Again in the fifth, one hit produced a score. Allen hit May, who was brought home by Williams' double.

St. Paul's two runs were made in the fourth, Yeager walked, Jones was safe on Vaughn's error. Allen was out to May. F. Brown blasted a double, bringing both men home.

Cal Rice, Jap Crowe and James Allen will probably hurl for the Giants in the two games here this week-end.

Prominent Negro Democrats at Chicago Meet

Chicago, July 1.—The Democratic national convention of 1932 was opened by a Catholic, prayed for the lovely saint of the Salvation Army, and for the first time in history, American citizens are admitted regardless of race or creed are taking an active part in the proceedings. Quite a contrast, indeed, to the screened gallery of the 1928 affair at Houston.

Hon. James E. Stevens, member of general assembly of New York, elected last year in the Roosevelt landslide, is here pulling for Tammany Hall. Elmer Carter, editor of the Opportunity, second alternate delegate from New York, is scheduled to address the convention. Dr. William Tompkins of Kansas City, is also booked for a talk.

The press stand, the platform, the entrances are crowded with other plenipotentiaries of color with badges and titles, assistant sergeant at arms, pages and special officers.

The alternates attending the convention lineup as follows: E. L. Powell, Charleston, W. Va.; E. L. James, Institute, W. Va.; Earl B. Dickerson, Chicago; Mrs. M. Elwood Knox, Indianapolis, Ind.; Hezekiah Sebron, Kansas City, Kans.; Mrs. Lula Hill, Wichita, Kans.; James E. Stevens, state assemblyman from the 10th district, and Elmer Carter, editor Opportunity, New York City; Ogelsvie L. Lawson, pharmacist, Denver, Colo.; Miss Theodora V. Jones, candidate for state legislature, Los Angeles, Calif.

New York, July 1.—Demand upon the Democratic National Convention in Chicago for a plank in the party platform declaring against the southern "white primary" system was forwarded to party leaders by the N. A. A. C. P.

The plank drafted by the N. A. A. C. P. was sent to Democratic leaders including Jonett Shouse, Alfred E. Smith, Senator Robert J. Bulkeley, Senator Robert Wagner and others prominent in party and convention councils.

DEMOCRATIC LEADERS WRITE N. A. A. C. P. ACKNOWLEDGING NEGRO PLANK

Texas Mayor To Offer Anti-White Primary Resolution

New York, July 1.—Leaders of the Democratic Party including Alfred E. Smith, Senator Robert Wagner and Jonett Shouse, chairman of the party executive committee, wrote to the N. A. A. C. P. acknowledging receipt of the race relations plank submitted by the N. A. A. C. P. for inclusion in the Democratic National platform.

Mr. Shouse wrote: "I shall be glad to bring it to the attention of the Committee on Resolutions."

The N. A. A. C. P. announced that although a race relations plank had been sent to Republican leaders including President Hoover, Senator Simeon D. Fess and James R. Arfield who wrote the Republican platform, there was no acknowledgment of the N. A. A. C. P. communications from these Republican leaders.

Mayor C. M. Chambers of San Antonio, Texas, has publicly announced that he would go before the Democratic National Convention, in Chicago with a resolution demanding that Negroes be given the right to vote in all state primaries of the party.

Long-Dudley Wedding

A wedding of much interest was that of Miss Beatrice Long and Mr. Sexton Dudley. The ceremony took place at the home of Rev. G. W. Robinson, Wednesday evening, June 22. The bridal party went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Hammit, 217 Clark Street, where a reception was given by the Calvary Singers of the Corinthian Baptist Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Long of 1436 Illinois Street.

Wife Seeks to Retain Custody Of 2 Year Old Son

LONDON, England, July 1.—Rumors and beliefs were materialized when on Saturday, Mrs. Eslanda Goode Robeson, the wife of Paul Robeson, internationally famous singer and actor, announced that she was suing for a divorce from her husband. The announcement that she was suing for a divorce in the "inner circle" of acquaintance with the couple. There has been an understood and mutual separation between the two for the past two years. They were married 11 years ago.

"To Get Divorce Soon"
"I began proceedings in New York courts about a month ago and hope to have my divorce soon," she said. "It is all perfectly friendly and we will keep on being friends, but we've seen so much of each other and both are just a bit tired and want out freedom."

Mrs. Robeson referred to the recent far-fetched Nancy Cunard rumors, which have long since been proven foundationless.

Mrs. Robeson is retaining custody of their son, Paul, Jr. The boy has been in the care of his grandmother.

Mrs. Goode, for the past three years. The singer has been known to say that he has scarcely seen his son in the past two years. It is also alleged that some of the difficulty in the family has been due to the interference of the mother-in-law in the affairs of the Paul Robesons.

Hint Book Caused Trouble
Another theory is that the book by Mrs. Robeson, called "Paul Robeson, Negro," brought out two years ago, was partly responsible for the misunderstanding between the couple. In this the wife disclosed, in a combination of idolatry and expose, the most intimate things about her talented husband.

Interviewed by the press at the Casino theater, where he is the star in the revival of Zeigfeld's "Showboat," the singer made answers to all questions asked.

"If my wife wants a divorce I won't try to stop her—I'll give it to her," Paul Robeson said Saturday when told that his wife had sued for divorce in London.

DUSTY RHODES' CLOWNS IN CITY TOURNAMENT

Several Negro teams have gone together and selected their best players to represent them in the City Championship Tournament under the name of the Dusty Rhodes Clowns. They have one of the strongest aggregations in the city; a large crowd is expected to turn out to boost the colored boys to first honors.

The first game was last Friday night at the Western League Ball Park, where they met Heck Ross, another strong team in the city. These boys have been practicing very hard and expect to give a very good bid for the city championship.

The Dusty Rhodes Clowns lineup includes: James Allen, Ed Barber, French Brown, Troy Hamilton, Lee Kemp, Albert Rhodes, Jim Shade, John Williams, Gene Frazier, Toady Jackson, Chub Mays, Cal Rice, Jap Crowe, Russell Henderson, Alonzo Preston, L. H. Branch, Manager.

PROPER REPRESENTATION

In many local activities in which the public is called upon to sponsor, from day to day, the question of securing representation for the Negro group is often considered. In most cases it is granted. But too often it takes so much energy to secure that representation that the type of Negro selected is overlooked.

Experience has shown that in many cases the person is not selected to represent the Negro, but to pacify and keep the Negro contented. That person is more dangerous than no representation at all for he attempts to keep the Negro fooled and at the same time prevents the no representation argument.

We may be accused of fighting among ourselves in many cases when representation is being considered, but we know experience has shown that the fights are worth the effort.

STAND BY FRIENDS

The Polk County Republican Convention meets Saturday. Four important matters are up for consideration: the election of a county chairman, delegates to the State Convention, candidates for County Attorney and Auditor.

While the Bystander is not bidding for any particular individuals it does call attention to the fact that those people who have been our friends should be supported. In spite of the united support we have given some factions in the past, little help in the nature of political plumbs have fallen our way. After all, most people are in politics for jobs and it is foolish to expect us to be any different. By all means stand by the candidates who are willing to share his victory.

A BOLD STEP

Every Negro should read Gustavus Adolphus Steward's article in the June Crisis.

It is a ringing indictment of a ring in the A. M. E. Church and their complete control over a system which has caused righteous dissatisfaction from within and disrespect from without.

He calls attention to the progress made at the last General Conference by eliminating some of those who had helped to bring these conditions about and the wholesome effect this action was bound to have in that others would fear to try the same course.

Mr. Steward was brought up in the A. M. E. Church, knows its operations and has not stopped short of telling the whole truth. He has done a fine service for the race and the A. M. E. Church in particular.

PAIN IN THE ABDOMEN

It is easier to show the extent of that part of the body called the abdomen than it is to describe its limits because in so doing it is necessary to use some terms with which all are not familiar. At any rate its limits are roughly from where the ribs end downward to the beginning of the legs in front and to the hip bones on the sides. This portion of the body contains many organs of importance among which are the stomach, the small intestines, the liver, the spleen, the appendix, the large intestines, the bladder and the kidneys.

The nerves in this area are very intricate. It is a compartment containing all these organs and is divided from another great compartment containing the lungs and heart by an immense dome of tissue called the diaphragm which moves alternately up and down assisting in the act of breathing. As a rule no pain or ill feeling in this region means that all is well there being few exceptions. Pain in this region means some disturbed function of one of the organs mentioned or the nerves supplying them.

There may be some illnesses in which the one affected can afford to wait to see if the pain wears off but not in pain in this area. It should always be taken care of at once to prevent rupture or bursting of certain organs and the development of peritonitis which is always a very serious disease.

The Senate confirmed the nomination Tuesday.

Mr. Cowles is an able man and will carry to that office a wide experience as a banker and publisher of one of the biggest and best newspapers in the country.

The institution which he has headed has been particularly friendly to the Negro and the Bystander is pleased to join with many others in saying something complimentary of a man of his type.

Chicago Editor and Publisher Is Said to Have Suffered a Relapse in Health

Chicago, June 23.—Attorneys for Robert S. Abbott, publisher, sought and obtained last week a continuance in the separate maintenance suit brought against him by his wife. He had been scheduled to make his appearance June 20. Two respans are held to be responsible; One is the fact that Mr. Abbott's attorney, Senator Charles S. Deneen, was busy all last week with political matters, and the other that the editor and publisher is reported to have suffered a relapse in health.

The diseases which have attacked the publisher are said to be malignant. In a report in his newspaper after his wife had filed suit, it was stated that his wife had neglected him during his illness, but since he left her on May 10, he has grown steadily worse.

Hardinsburg, Ky. — (CNS) — five thousand persons watched in silence as Sam Jennings, 38 year old colored man, was hanged shortly after sunrise today for the criminal assault which he was charged with perpetrating upon a white woman, Miss Mabel Downs.

Watching from a distance of 20 feet was the Downs woman and her father. "I don't feel sorry for him," Miss Downs is reported as saying as she saw him die. "He is getting his just deserts. I wouldn't mind pulling the trigger myself."

To the last Jennings protested his innocence.

WILLIE PETERSON TO GO TO ALABAMA STATE SUPREME COURT

Birmingham, June 24.—Attorneys for Willie Peterson, convicted of attack upon a white girl, and shot by the girl's brother in prison, will carry on appeal in his case to the Supreme Court of Alabama. Peterson was sentenced to death following the slaying of Miss Augusta Williams on August 4, last. The N. A. A. C. P. has contributed $500 to the cost of the defense which is being headed by John W. Altman, one of the best criminal lawyers in the South.

Notice of appeal to the State Supreme Court was given when the trial judge, H. P. Hefflin, denied a motion for a new trial. It is alleged that one of the jurors who convicted Peterson admitted prejudice before the trial, and that Judge Hefflin himself made prejudicial remarks in charging the jury.

Work for Furlough Rather than Pay Cut

Chicago, June 24.—(By the Associated Negro Press).—"I advise Negro postal workers and their friends to hope for and work toward legislation giving government employes a 30-day furlough without pay, rather than a ten per cent cut in wages," Congressman Oscar DePriest said Saturday night, in a speech delivered at Pore College before the members of the National Postal Alliance and their guests.

The occasion was a banquet given by the Alliance in honor of the delegates and visitors to the Republican National Convention, as well as to Roy O. Wilhoit, of St. Louis, national president of the organization.

The congressman expressed his views on bonus legislation also. "I will vote against the bonus bill because if it is passed it will break the country and reduce the value of the dollar," he said. "This country has been generous with her veterans. I myself have voted for all previous bonus legislation. One-fourth of every dollar raised by taxation in this country goes to support and succor the soldiers of our past wars. This present bonus demand will not be met. If congress passes it, the president will veto it because economic conditions will force him to do so."

Roy O. Wilhoit, national president of the Postal Alliance, in an interesting and effective address told of the importance in the economic life of the race, of Negroes, who worked in the federal service.

The Home and That Boy of Yours

OR TAKE A CERTAIN MOTHER

WE HAVE been taught through all the ages to reverence motherhood and I would be the last to in any way belittle what mothers do and have done for ten million growing boys. On the other hand, we now know that many kind, loving mothers who would give their right arms with scarcely a question, for their sons, at the same time are actually guilty of completely "smothering" them while mothering them.

Take for instance the over-anxious mother of a live, energetic, vigorous into everything sort of a son. Here is her own story. "Up to ten or eleven, he was a perfect son; absolutely obedient, all I had to do was to express a wish and he did it. He was clean, tidy, orderly; he loved nothing better than to be dressed nicely and to sit comfortably while I read to him his favorite pirate stories. He never went out without my knowing where he was going. He didn't seem to care for other boys or girls either. I was his "sweetheart." He even sent me valentines. He always did just as I said without question and we got on famously. Then suddenly, like one awakening from a sleep, he changed. He became naughty, vindictive, destructive, defiant; made faces at me and once he told me, his mother, to go to the devil. I could have fainted. Now he's always late; throws his things about; shouts and storms and rants until I can scarcely live with him. This boy, victim of emotional conflict, will present a problem to every group and organization he endeavors to contact. He will be a problem to every school teacher, every scout master, every camp director who endeavors to serve him, because certain attitudes have been set up within him which will control his actions until, by a long, tedious process, a sort of an adjustment is made. NOTICE TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Notice is hereby given that application for commutation of sentence of pardon has been presented to me in the case of John S. Cooper, No. 10518, Fort Madison, who was convicted of the crime of Assault to Commit Murder in December, 1918, in the County of Linn, and sentenced to imprisonment for life.

Said application is based upon the following grounds:

1st—Because of the good record he has made as a prisoner, having the recommendation and approval of the prison authorities. He has manifested a good deal of ability and capacity in the weaving industry and has conducted a very faithful and profitable service to the State.

2nd—Because the evidence does not show him to be the major offender in the crime that was committed.

3rd—Because he has served nearly nineteen years in the penitentiary at this time. That said application will be presented to the Board of Pardon at the October Session, in accordance with the provisions of Section 3518, of the Code.

with poison of her own creation but inoculates the blood with malaria, yellow fever and other infectious ailments.

"The moth is the most destructive of the seven," Doctor Hedenburg declared. "The damage it does to woollens and other fabrics is dreaded by every housewife. The cockroach is most repulsive—it scatters germs wherever it crawls, and spoils food with which it comes in contact.

"Dangerous infection may result from the bedbug's bite, as it is also a germ conveyor. The flea transfers germs from rodents and vermin to the human body. The ant—especially the red ant—is a robber and despoiler of foodstuffs.

"Safety from the menace of these insects can only be attained by immediate, thorough extermination at the first sign of their presence, it was declared. Doctor Hedenburg declared that a good spray is the most effective and efficient destroyer of insects, because the method exterminates wholesale and quickly."

30 DISEASES ARE SPREAD BY FLIES

Germs of Tuberculosis, Diphtheria and Smallpox Are Transported by Insects.

The common house fly is the most dangerous enemy to mankind, causing more than 75,000 deaths annually, according to Dr. O. F. Hedenburg, director of the Rex Research Foundation, Chicago, which is engaged in a nationwide warfare on "public enemy" insects.

"These deaths result directly from germs carried by the fly from its unsanitary breeding places to man and his food," said Doctor Hedenburg. "Deaths caused by flies are many times more than those caused by wars and wild beasts of all times.

"About 30 diseases are known to be spread by germs carried by flies. The most common are typhoid, infantile diarrhea, cholera, and dysentery. Census reports show that infantile diarrhea, better known as 'summer complaint,' germs of which are transported by the fly, causes more deaths among children than measles, scarlet fever, whooping cough and diphtheria put together."

Other common ailments traceable to flies are tuberculosis, anthrax, eye disease, diphtheria and smallpox.

Health authorities declare that the fly can be eliminated most effectively by destroying breeding places—refuse and garbage piles, by screening windows and destroying the flies that get into the house with a good fly spray.

Watches in Havana Set

When Old Gun Is Fired
Among the world's odd timepieces is that by which Havana sets its clocks and watches.

In fact it really isn't a clock at all, but a battery of 21 old Spanish guns, mounted on the parapet of Havana's fortress overlooking Havana harbor.

Though Havana may bustle with activity throughout the day, hearing a thousand noises and sounds, it listens intently at nine o'clock for the rumble of one of the guns.

Beds in Closets Once

Matter of Necessity
This hygienically minded age which scoffs so readily at the European notion that fresh air at night is unhealthy may be chagrined to realize that the open beds on which we sleep nowadays are a natural evolution of the beds with doors which can still be found in peasant quarters in Europe, says the New York Sun.

The last vestige of the old notion of sleeping in a closet was the four-poster bed which, to antique collectors, is a very desirable object. It was from sheer necessity that people used to sleep in closets.

Monks in Old Home

The old abbey of Saint-Wandrille near Rouen, is inhabited again by the Benedictine monks, who used to live in it before the days of the expulsion of religious orders from France.

Portsmouth, Ohio, June 24.—Luke Murray, Georgia Negro chauffeur, who was lynched in South Point, Ohio, on the night of Tuesday, June 7, after being forcibly removed from jail, was done to death because he was "too popular with his white employers."

The N. A. A. C. P. investigator reports: "This village is 25 miles from Portsmouth. The nearest colored residents in that section are at Ironton, which is in the same county. I visited the scene of the lynching June 12, made investigation. Met key citizens of that vicinity and got some first hand information. I learned this man was killed just because he was too popular with his employers for some of the whites in that section."

"He would often take his employer, wife and daughter auto-riding, and most times the daughter would go without her mother. And this, I learned, he was warned by some of the whites in that section today.—Montreal Star.

Might Be Excused for Using Strong Language

A few nights ago a spectacular fire left a warehouse a smoking ruin. Five alarms were sounded. Eleven reporters—two working and nine out to enjoy the fire—rushed to the scene.

The conflagration was the destructive sequel to a minor blaze that had scorched the establishment a few hours earlier. The first fire was discovered by the owner of the building, who sent in the alarm, watched the fire-fighters apparently extinguish the flames, and then went home.

Before retiring he telephoned a contractor to call around the next morning to see about repairing a few windows, painting the doors, and otherwise touching up the place here and there.

How Volcanic Islands Act as Safety Valves

Niunfon is one of the Tonga, or Friendly Islands, situated halfway between Samoa and Fiji in one of the most restless geological areas in the world. Stretching across the South Pacific from Samoa to North Island, New Zealand, there is a huge fissure in the earth's crust.

To passengers of steamers passing close, the island looks like any other tropical isle, green with vegetation and coconut palms. Clean white houses and thatched native churches set in grassy lawns dot the hillsides. When wind and sea are quiet, landings are made in small open boats which are guided skillfully into a nook partly sheltered by fingers of lava flow.

Obeying Instructions

FARMER Smith had a supply of winter cabbage to plant. Arriving at the farmyard, he called over one of his laborers. "George," he said, "I want you to plant these cabbages, but remember to plant them well apart."

Jewish Emblem

Just as the oak from which came the navy that made Britain mistress of the seas, became the national tree of England, so did the beautiful lofty palm, which gave oil, timber and dates to its people, become the national tree of what we like to call the Holy Land.

Now suppose you found a watch on the street car. The question is should you keep it, is it yours? Well, literally it is yours as to any other claimant other than the true owner. But you have no legal right to keep it—you should turn it over to the conductor then after the company has made a diligent search for a period of six months, and the owner is not found, the watch becomes yours.

Answer to last week:

No. At common law he could have, Charles being what is known in the law of Torts as an invitee, but such a right has been abrogated by the Statute and no recovery is allowed.

Question for this week:

Mr. Rhodes called Mr. Mason, who is a grocer, on the phone and told him to let John have $10.00 worth of groceries and if John does not pay you, I will, John failed to pay.

May the grocer compel Mr. Rhodes to pay him on the afore mentioned conversation.

Each week The Counsellor will submit a statement of facts to the Readers of THE BYSTANDER and will likewise ANSWER the same in the following issue and will answer any legal question in his column sent to him.

The 12 worst odors in the world

Scientists recently selected the twelve worst odors in the world to test the deodorizing power of Listerine and other antiseptics.

In every case Listerine showed marked superiority. In several instances Listerine promptly ended odors that other antiseptics couldn't hide in 4 days.

To keep your breath sweet and clean and beyond power to offend others, use Listerine every morning and night. Lambert Pharmaceutical Co., St. Louis, Mo.

Reduce COLDS 66% and relieves SORE THROAT

Now, science has studied ordinary people leading normal lives and has proved that those gargling with Listerine twice a day had 66% fewer colds than those who did not use it.

This is because full-strength Listerine kills the common cold germs—almost instantly! And consequently, when germs have made your throat sore, you can kill the germs and relieve your throat by gargling Listerine. Lambert Pharmaceutical Co., St. Louis, Mo.

Miss Mildred Ellen Williams, East High graduate, won the Alexander scholarship award at the reception given for the 1932 June graduates at St. Paul A. M. E. church, Friday evening.

Lawrence Slaughter Places Second
Miss Williams' average mark for the four years was 2.35. She belonged to the Euclidean club, an organization of Latin students, and was a member of the girl's chorus.

The Alexander award, a scholarship presentation made each year to any high school student graduating with the highest scholastic grades, was established in 1927; it is an outgrowth of the Harmon foundation award which was won that year by Archie A. Alexander, of Des Moines, nationally known civil engineer.

The complaint demands judgment against the defendant DuBois in the sum of $50,000, together with costs and disbursements, "because the article was calculated to and did hold the plaintiff up to public scorn and ridicule, to his injury and damage in his reputation and in his good name and credit in his vocation."

There was filed in the courts here Thursday, June 16, a suit for libel and slander by Powers, Kaplan & Berger, attorneys, 90 John Street, New York City, for Emmett J. Scott of 1714 S street, Northwest, Washington, D. C., against W. E. B. DuBois, editor of the Crisis, a magazine published at 69 Fifth Avenue, New York.

This suit for libel and slander follows the publication in The Crisis Magazine of an editorial article signed by DuBois in April, in which, by insinuation and innuendo, it is alleged libelous and slandrous statements were made regarding the complainant, who is the Secretary-Treasurer of Howard University at Washington, D. C.

In his complaint, as filed, Dr. Scott charges that the defendant "maliciously and wantonly composed and published concerning the plaintiff in The Crisis, a magazine of extensive circulation throughout the United States of America, false and defamatory matter."

"Also, that thereby the defendant meant and intended to mean that the plaintiff was guilty of mis conduct in the capacity of Secretary-Treasurer of Howard University; that the plaintiff was not a person of integrity; that the plaintiff was guilty of such malfeasance in his said office as to constitute sabotage; that the plaintiff was derelict and/or dishonest in his handling of the funds of Howard University; that the plaintiff was a person of low and mean character and unfaithful to the trust imposed upon him by said office; that the plaintiff did not possess the ability requisite to said office and was incapable of performing the duties thereof; and the said publication was so understood by the readers thereof. That the defamatory statements contained in the said publication concerning the plaintiff were and are wholly false."

That the defamatory statements contained in the said publication concerning the plaintiff were and are wholly false."

The complaint demands judgment against the defendant DuBois in the sum of $50,000, together with costs and disbursements, "because the article was calculated to and did hold the plaintiff up to public scorn and ridicule, to his injury and damage in his reputation and in his good name and credit in his vocation."
