WHY HAS THE NEGRO NO LEADERSHIP?

Rome had her Caesar, Protestants their Martin Luther, France her Napoleon, Germany her Bismarck, Early America had her George Washington, the South her Robert E. Lee and the North, Abraham Lincoln. Today India has her Gandhi, Ireland her DeValeria, Italy her Mussolini, and Russia her Stalin. These leaders were national or racial leaders. I wonder if the Negro in America will ever come out of his state of retarded progress without the development of a national leader. Why is it that we have no recognized leadership? The problem of every Negro is the same. Can we recover without this leadership? Is such a leadership among us impossible? If so, why?

As individuals we have made remarkable progress; as a group we have succeeded but little in improving on what the Emancipation Proclamation handed us, that is, physical freedom. In the South the masses are yet in every way except physical in practical slavery; in the North we find circumscription growing tighter as the days pass. What does the future hold? Can any one point the way out?

We have no medium of mass expression. No Negro nor any group of Negroes can speak with authority about our problems or for us. Frederick Douglass and Booker T. Washington came nearest to being our spokesmen. During the lifetimes of both we made a semblance of group progress. Since Booker T. Washington's death we have wandered about rather leaderless.

There are those who may think that our interests, our problems, and our locations are so diversified that even a semblance of group leadership is impossible, but certainly we are not more scattered and there are no more factions among us than is true in India. As a matter of fact, the divisions of the factions are far less among us than among the Indians.

George Washington had the Tories, the Whigs, Colonists, Separatists, non-Separatists all with their private interests different from one another. Such leaders had the same problems

Musical Revue To Be Nov. 30

More than thirty characters will participate in the gripping pageant "Tom-tom to Syncopeation" to be given Wednesday evening, Nov. 30, at the Jewish Community Center. An all-Negro revue of song and dance will be presented in beautiful scenery and elaborate costuming.

From the rhythm of the tom-tom in the deepest African jungle through the southern plantations and log cabins to the rapid syncopeation of the high class jazz of the Harlem night clubs will be portrayed in various musical arrangements.

The theme and lyrics are written by Mrs. Corinne Jackson, of this city, and is sponsored by the St. Simon's Episcopal Mission.

Probe of Georgia Prisons Urged

New York, Nov. 25.—Charges of "cruel and inhuman punishments" alleged to have been inflicted within the last four years in Georgia prisons and prison camps on white and Negro convicts are contained in a letter sent to the Georgia prison commissioners by the American Civil Liberties union and signed on its behalf by 12 prominent persons, which speaks of "the possibility of some action in the federal courts based upon the federal constitutional guarantee."

Supported by photographic and documentary evidence gathered by John L. Spivak and published in part of his novel, "Georgia Nigger," the charges, in addition to detailing alleged cruelties to convicts, cites "six unexplained deaths" among them.

The letter asks the three commissioners, E. L. Rainey, Chairman; G. A. Johns and Mr. Stanley, whether Mr. Stanley's reported statement is the official attitude of the commission and whether it is prepared to defend in public the charges contained in a memorandum attached to the letter which outlines the Spivak allegations.

The six men whose deaths were, according to the letter, "unexplained," were Robert Lee Batt, who died in a chain gang from an "unknown cause"; George Johnson, who died of tuberculosis "with evidently no attempt made to move him to a hospital until too late"; George Neal, who "died in great pain after writing that the authorities laughed when he asked for medicine"; Charlie Riggins, who died four days after admission to the camp; John W. Kendall, "accidentally shot," and John Smith, "killed Sept. 6, 1929."

REPORTS 100 NEGROES SENT TO CHAIN GANG FOR TRIVIAL OFFENSES IN S. C.

Charleston, S. C., Nov. 25.—Robert W. Marks reports having seen almost 100 Negroes sent to chain gang in Charleston "for trivial or entirely inconsequential offenses" such as cursing, loitering on streets at night, gambling, and being a "disorderly person" which in many instances meant simply being unemployed.

The report was sent to the Civil Liberties Union which forwarded it to the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. The N. A. A. C. P. has asked its Charleston branch to meet with Mr. Marks to see what action can be taken.

Pastor In Victory Celebration

Sioux Falls, S. D.—The St. John's Baptist Church, pastored by Rev. M. W. Withers, completed their victory rally yesterday, which was from November 21st to 24th, in commemoration of the purchase of their church property in 1930. The mortgage was burned, Thanksgiving evening at the church with appropriate ceremony.

The Girls' Evangelist, Miss Marjorie L. Casson of Chicago, preached and was assisted by her secretary, Miss Dorothy Binga of Chatham, Ont., Canada. Miss Casson conducted services each evening with music by the St. John's Baptist Choir, directed by Miss M. E. Glover, and the Moxley's Quartette.

Calloway Main Speaker at Rally

Nathaniel Calloway, of Iowa State College, will be the principal speaker at the Young Negro Men's Service Club Rally to be held Sunday afternoon at 3:00 P. M., at St. Paul A. M. E. Church.

Negroes View Democratic Jobs

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—(By the Associated Negro Press)—The five Negro Democrats who were the most conspicuous in the Presidential campaign will be equally as prominent during the Roosevelt Administration. They are Julian D. Rainey of Boston; Robert L. Vann of Pittsburgh; Dr. Joseph L. Johnson of Columbus; William H. Thompson of Kansas City, who were regional directors, and Lester A. Walton of New York, who was director of publicity.

Not only is it expected that the five will receive outstanding appointments, having the ear of Democratic Party leaders, but it is thought that they will have much to do with the shaping of Negro policies.

Bishop Reverdy C. Ransom, who served as head of the National Colored Citizens Roosevelt Committee, will be persona grata with the incoming administration, also Negro state leaders, such as Dr. W. G. Alexander of New Jersey; Joseph L. McLemore of Missouri; Harold E. Bledsoe of Michigan; Henry A. Fleming of Indiana; Thomas R. Smith of Maryland, and I. K. J. Wells of West Virginia.

Abbot Comes To Court In Chair

Chicago.—Robert S. Abbot, editor and publisher of The Chicago Defender and Abbott's Monthly magazine, was in court Saturday before Circuit Judge Philip F. Finnegan to contest his wife's plea for temporary alimony and solicitor's fees. The hearing on the merits of Mrs. Abbott's bill for separate maintenance will come up some time later.

Youths Given New Hope

Montgomery, Ala.—(CNS)—Upon authority of the United States Supreme Court, the Alabama Supreme Court today reversed its decision affirming the death sentences of seven young Negroes for alleged attacks on two white girls near Scottsboro in 1931, and sent the cases back to Jackson Circuit Court for new trials.

The order followed a mandate from the United States Supreme Court which reversed the death sentences on the grounds that the Negroes had not been given their full rights in obtaining counsel.

Thomas E. Knight, Jr., attorney-general of Alabama, recently announced that he would not oppose a motion for a change of venue in the retrial if defense counsel sought to have the new trials elsewhere than in Jackson County.

Flood Commission Ready to Work

WASHINGTON.—(CNS)—The commission which President Hoover named on October 26th to investigate charges that private contractors were mistreating Negro laborers on Federal flood control projects along the Mississippi River, started work on its investigation last week. The delay to begin work sooner was caused by engagements of Dr. R. R. Moton of Tuskegee and departmental difficulties.

Other members of the commission include Eugene Knicker Jones, of the New York Urban League; Judge Jas. A. Cobb, of the D. C. Municipal Court, and Lieut. Col. U. S. Grant of the U. S. Army. There are 22 camps to be investigated and it is likely that the task of the commission will occupy some three or more weeks.

HARRY BUFORD, OMAHA COUNCILMAN, CLEARED

Omaha, Neb.—Federal charges in a liquor conspiracy were dismissed by Judge Woodrough at Omaha, Neb., against Lieut. Harry Buford, after listening to testimony for five weeks. Buford was discharged by the city council after serving on the force for more than 20 years when the charges were preferred against him. Judge Woodrough said the evidence showed Buford was in no way guilty.

Negro Football Stars Flash On Iowa Gridirons

By Everett Wadsworth

With the playing of many annual Turkey Day games, the curtain of the 1932 football season has been officially rung down. Upsets have occurred, many disastrous to championship hopes, throughout the country, both intersectional and local. Negro gridiron stars have flashed across the chalk marks to victory and many will doubtless be honored on all star selections of the various conferences and newspaper writers.

Olanda Johnson Local Star

With the unexpected 12 to 0 victory of East High over North High, hitherto only unbeaten prep school in the city, last Friday night went the hopes of a possible state championship football team from the capital city. Olanda Johnson, pile driving all-city fullback of North High and strong candidate for state honors, placed second in the scoring columns of the high schools. His teammate Charles Orebaugh, halfback, headed the list. Johnson's dogged plunges and wild battering ram thrusts were responsible for much yardage and many victories for the Pink and Green machine. His work has been most outstanding throughout the state. Critics expect sensational accounts of his exploits on the college gridiron. His brother, Leland, his substitute, is also a color ful and a brilliant player.

Two Colored Boys from East

The stonewall defense of the rugged East High line which showed its self so prominent in the championship fray last Friday, included two Negro athletes, Higwood Brewer, guard, and Lawrence Federick, end, who played a stellar game to assist their teammates in annexing the city crown. Curtis Tillman, center, was also a member of the Red and Black eleven.

Valley Junction High, with one of the best eleven in years, has Benny Carter, end, as an exceptional wingman. He will graduate this June from where he has won countless honors in tracks and football.

Thompson's Last Year at Drake

Walter Thompson, 1928 all-state fullback from East High, will complete his last year of football competition at Drake as quarterback. Although the local school suffered numerous setbacks, Thompson usually starred in most of his games; he runs through any thousands of spectators. Robert Webb, end, suffered an attack of appendicitis early in the season and was forced out of the lineup. William Smith and Enoch Coleman saw service with the Blue and White squad.

Two Negroes on Hawkeye Squad

Coach Ossie Solem, coach at the University of Iowa, states that the work of his two colored players, Voris Dickerson, end, and Wilbur Wallace, quarterback, was highly satisfactory and commended their playing to the highest degree. The unsuccessful season for the Hawkeyes was offset by brilliant performances of individual stars which included these two Negro linemen.

King's Court Pleases Audience

Several hundred enjoyed the mammoth musical, "The King's Court", given at St. Paul Church, Friday, November 18th. It was sponsored by the Usher Board under the direction of Mrs. Sophia Nichols with Tug Wilson as Master of Ceremonies. The roles of King and Queen were played by Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Dixon. A program was rendered by some of the best talent of the city, including numerous quartettes, quintettes and instrumental groups.

The feature of the program was a xylophone solo by Bobby Parker, son of Mrs. Vivian Parker. The instrument was constructed by little Mr. Parker. Trumpet selections by Chas. Washington were very pleasing. The audience was especially pleased with the Usher Board quartette, consisting of Messrs. Wilson, Winn, Williams and Hughes. Miss Inez Stevens, formerly of St. Paul, Minn., rendered a solo.

Nearly every number was a masterpiece which made the entertainment an outstanding event of the season.

occupants of the White House and Republican Administration that if they had white leadership of the party in that section they could become serious contenders against the Democratic Party.

This contention was put to the test on November 8th, when the electoral and congressional ticket of the Howard-Redmond-Boose black and tan ticket ran away with the lily white ticket in the old State and forever set at rest this spurious and race hating crowd. It was extensively advertised in the campaign that the Rowland band was strictly a white party. The verdict at the polls was most decisively against them.

THE REASON

Following each election there are varied opinions as to how and why the Negro supported certain candidates. While we realize that more Negroes voted the Republican ticket than ever before, yet statistics show that in communities where the Negro found it to his best interest to support the G. O. P. the results were as favorable as ever.

The N. A. A. C. P. news service this week quotes several prominent Negroes on the subject among whom are Isadore Martin, real estate dealer in Philadelphia; F. B. Ranson, manager Mme. C. J. Walker Co., Indianapolis; Gordon H. Simpson, N. A. A. C. P. branch secretary in Ohio; Robert L. Bailey, Assistant Attorney General of Indiana; C. A. Franklin, editor, Kansas City Call; N. B. Young, Jr., editor St. Louis American; P. B. Young, editor Norfolk, (Va.) Journal and Guide and others who sum up the reasons as follows:

"General economic conditions and depression; 'Lily-White' policy of the Hoover Administration and especially the nomination of Judge John J. Parker to the U. S. Supreme Court; Jim Crowing of colored gold star mothers on the pilgrimage to graves in France; distribution of the Negro regiments in the Army to service detachments; failure to appoint Negroes to federal office; general indifference of the Hoover administration to the Negro."

There is much talk about the future of the G. O. P. It is contended that the party has left behind the ideals upon which it was founded. The high crimes against the Republican party are matters of record; they are not in accord with the ideals of the founders of the party. Then to draw back the Negro this blotch must be erased.

Now is the time to begin with the men who are to reorganize the party—who are to lead it. They must be made to know that they cannot disregard the rights of the Negro and at the same time stay in power forever. Generally a person who disregards the rights any group will incur the ill will of all groups because he is not just.

SERIOUS—BUT TRUE

A series of articles "And It Happens in the U. S. A." are appearing in the Des Moines Evening Tribune. Doubtless other papers are carrying them. Anyone who has lived in the south knows that they are true and will not be surprised. Now the whole world knows it and is shocked. It is hard to believe that in this "Land of the Free and Home of the Brave" such conditions could exist.

But this most unusual statement quoted in substance in one of the articles is striking: the slave holding class no longer is in control in the south. The poor white trash which was less than a Negro before the Civil War is in control. They have become rich, and instead of owning

HEALTH TALKS

By Dr. H. H. London

TUBERCULOSIS

In the attempt to keep Tuberculosis or Consumption (as it is commonly called) from beginning in and taking full possession of the individual, as it usually does, it is not always remembered that this disease in the parents or in any ancestor makes anyone in question liable to this disease; that is to say, heredity in this disease must of a necessity be kept in mind from early infancy on.

Tuberculosis in the offspring is indeed much more liable to occur, if there has been this disease in any parent, ancestor, or relative. Having accepted this as a fact, the question naturally arises as to what precautions are to be taken.

To prevent the establishment of this disease in one so predisposed the first thing to remember is that one so predisposed is more liable. Another fact is that Tuberculosis thrives on a lowered resistance. This lowered resistance may be obvious or not apparent. The means at our command for determining it are not apparent lowered resistance are many, and an obvious lowered resistance will certainly prove itself when the weight is taken and the height measured.

Adults, as well as infants, should not be underweight and with an ancestral history of Tuberculosis underweight needs prompt increasing. Weights of babies are now so carefully watched that a lowered resistance from this cause is now quite improbable. This cannot yet be said of adults, as they are in most cases quite capable of taking care of themselves. There should, however, be no doubt about this ability to withstand the entrance of this germ and when such doubt exists, the means to determine this ought to be put into effect.

slaves worth hundreds of dollars each, they go to the chain gang and buy them by paying small fines and work them for life to satisfy the debt.

Already investigations are to be made. Following this practice of almost a century maybe this inhumane practice will be checked.

BACK THIS

Fortunate for those seeking an investigation by the United States Senate of labor conditions in the Mississippi flood control project financed by the Federal government, the publication of John L. Spivak's articles "And It Happens in the U. S. A." is going to make it easier.

Already grave charges of peonage conditions have been made. While the war department has denied them, there is every reason to believe that most of the charges can be substantiated.

Senator Wagner of New York will introduce a resolution in Congress the first day it meets in December, calling for an investigation by the Senate. It ought to pass. Already thirty-two senators have agreed to support the resolution. Senators Brookhart and Dickinson of Iowa have not. Political organizations, clubs, churches and individuals should write or wire them, urging that they do so. By all means they should.

that we have, at the same time realizing that the only possible way for group progress was through unified leadership.

It therefore appears to me that history dictates only one solution, and that is unification. No selected leader is likely to be satisfactory to all groups. None of the leaders above named had a unified following, but an unsatisfactory leadership is better than no leadership. There will be those who contend that our

YOUNG NEGRO WOOD CARVER ATTRACTING ATTENTION

Richmond, Va. (CNS)—Leslie G.

Boling, a young Negro who has during the past five years attracted attention to his skillful use of a jack-knife in wood carving, has recently from life of Dr. W. T. Johnson, pastor of the First Baptist Church. The bust of Dr. Johnson was made in spare time over a period of three weeks. Boling was given the commission by a committee from the First Baptist church that presented it to Dr. Johnson as part of the "Week of Remembrance" celebration here last week.

ADMIT WRECK PLOT

Janesville, Wis.—(CNS)—Henry Vance, the Beloit colored man arrested November 5th, while carrying a crowbar along the railroad track shortly before President Hoover's special passed, has admitted that he and others planned to remove a number of spikes from the right of way and then notify police in hope of earning a reward.

problems are not susceptible to solution through unified leadership. I differ. The problem of every Negro in America is the same. The ambition of every Negro in America is interwoven with the retarded progress of every other one.

As we look around for a practical solution of this problem of leadership we find that large numbers of Negroes are already assembled into one kind of organization or another. If we assembled the president of the National Baptist Convention, the president of the Southern Baptist organization, the Senior Bishops of the A. M. E. Church and the A. M. E. Zion Church, the Senior Secretaries of the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A., the National Secy of the Urban League, a representative from the N. A. A. C. P., the president of the Equal Rights League, the president of the National Negro Bar Association, the Grand Master of the U. B. F., the Grand Exalted Ruler of the Elks, the Imperial Potentate of the Shrine, the Grand Master of the Negro Masons of America, the Grand Chancellor of the K. of P., the Grand Master of the Odd Fellows of America and the executives of each of these orders, we would have a group of perhaps less than fifty individuals. These individuals have at least the ear of the majority or organized thinking Negroes of America. Out of the group could be formulated a policy and selected a leadership composed of one or more persons that might crystallize Negro opinion and present the Negro's view on all matters seriously affecting his life.

All the Negroes above referred to are financially able to go to any point selected in America and spend a few days; they have the ability to formulate a policy that would be an improvement over our present unorganized state. I make no claim that this is the only theory of organization or the only group that should assemble or that I have included all the organizations or individuals on the list that should be included. The group of Negro leaders above referred to owe it to their individual followers and to their race to inaugurate some such movement. I venture the suggestion that this as a general idea put into operation will give us a medium through which our demands may be expressed and a leadership with sufficient ability to formulate plans that will in the next generation bring to our race liberty, freedom, and enjoyment fitting a free and independent people.

As Will Rogers says, "All I know is what I read in the papers," and I see by the papers that Governor-elect Clyde Herring of Iowa is visiting the capitals of Maine, North Carolina, Virginia, and Georgia, to study the forms of government in States. Please, Mr. Herring! Please don't model our dear old State after Virginia, North Carolina, and Georgia. You see, it might be awfully hard on "the colored brother" if you adopt the ways of Virginia, North Carolina, and Georgia.

Just think—we couldn't persuade you not to vote for the dear old Democrats. And now look where they go for advice.

"SHUFFLE ALONG OF 1932" OPENS IN BROOKLYN

Brooklyn—(CNS)—The new "Shuffle Along" which opened here November 14th, at the Majestic Theatre, sees Flourney Miller, Noble Sissle and Eubie Blake again working hand in hand as entertainers extraordinary. Miller appears with his partner Mantan Moorland and these two fun makers create all sorts of laughter.

It really is not the story or the low-comedy humor that makes "Shuffle Along of 1932" so enjoyable. It is the dancing. And also the music that Blake has written. Incidentally, the composer directed and later in the evening went upon the stage and sang some of his former song hits on the piano. Then finally Noble Sissle's Park Central Hotel Orchestra came out on the stage, bringing the show to an end in a wild burst of jazz and noisy melody.

PAINE COLLEGE TO CELEBRATE FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY

Atlanta, Ga. (CNS)—Paine College, at Augusta, in this state, and known as Paine Institute until 1903, will be fifty years old next year, and its faculty, alumni and friends are planning to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the school early in 1933.

ELIE SHEETS, CANDY MAKER AND FRIEND OF NEGRO, DIES

Washington, Nov. 15 (CNS)—Elie Sheets, one of Washington's best known figures and founder of the Martha Washington Candy stores throughout the country, died here this week at the age of 81.

Mr. Sheets not only employed colored women in his stores, but taught both men and women the business of candy making.

Los Angeles, Calif.—Lloyd C. Griffith, son of Dr. T. L. Griffith, pastor of the Second Baptist church, passed the examinations for admission to practice law in the State of California, according to announcements made by the Committee of Bar Examiners of the California State Bar.

He is the brother of Thomas L. Griffith, prominent local attorney.

Mr. Griffith is a former Des Moines boy, having lived here for several years while his father was pastor of Corinthian and Union Baptist churches of this city.

New York, Nov. 15 (CNS)—William L. Patterson, national secretary of the International Labor Defense, announced that immediate steps will be taken to obtain a change of venue for the new trial granted the seven Scottsboro youths in the decision handed down November 7th by the United States Supreme Court.

Oklahoma City, Nov. 18.—The State of Oklahoma has become a storm center in the battle for Negro rights, no less than three cases of stirring interest to all colored citizens being now fought under the leadership of the N. A. A. C. P.

In the first of these, Editor Roscoe Dunjee of the "Black Dispatch" reports that even prisoners in the state penitentiary have given their pennies toward the defense of Jess Hollins, who goes on trial for his life this month. The N. A. A. C. P. national office has given $100 toward the defense of this man, railroaded to a death sentence on a charge of rape, whose conviction was reversed by the State Supreme Court.

In the second case, also involving a rape charge and railroaded to the penitentiary, Mr. Dunjee, who is president of the Oklahoma State Conference of N. A. A. C. P. branches, reports that the convicted man, Charles Dumas, stated that he had "confessed" his guilt under threat of mob violence. Dumas was immediately sentenced to electrocution upon pleading guilty.

The third Oklahoma case in the state-wide battle for civil rights concerns the driving of more than 200 colored citizens from their homes, farms and jobs, with threats of murder, arson and beating as penalties for Negroes remaining in Beckham County.

An actual incident from a telephone call may be worth more than telephone service costs in a lifetime.

Doors and windows of their home were tightly closed to keep out the icy gale of a cold night early in 1932. The fire in the heater was banked when the family retired for the night. About midnight the baby cried. Her mother awoke, fumes from the heater choked her.

She roused her husband . . . fell back unconscious. He was barely able to reach the telephone and call for a doctor before he was overcome. That call brought help in time to save their lives.

REVIVAL OF "UNCLE TOM'S CABIN" Troy, N. Y.—(CNS)—"Uncle Tom's Cabin," the dramatization of Harriet Beecher Stowe's celebrated novel, which originally opened here eighty years ago, will be presented here in a three days revival Thursday, Friday and Saturday, November 24, 25 and 26. It is recalled that for more than seventy-five years some dramatization of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" has been on the boards somewhere in the world and that it was not until last year that "Little Eva", "Legree", "Uncle Tom" and the blood hounds were absolutely missing from the dramatic stage.

London, Eng.—(CNS)—The British Government has just sent a communication to Emperor Haile Selassie of Abyssinia which includes a stern warning that if he was unable to keep order in his own territories Britain would have to take "appropriate action."

The communication was not made public as it was sent to the British Minister at Addis Ababa for verbal transmission to the Emperor. It was provoked by the receipt of news of a raid by Boran tribesmen from the wilderness of Southern Abyssinia on Galla tribesmen in British territory east of Lake Rudolf in Kenya in which 150 Galla tribesmen were massacred.

In addition to the slaughter by the raiders, whose rifles gave them an overwhelming advantage, a number of women and children were carried off. Villages were burned and cattle driven away, while the Kenya tribesmen, armed only with spears were killed or captured.

The British do not accuse the Abyssinian Government of furthering the raids in any way, but hold it strictly accountable. In the opinion of British authorities the raids prove that the Emperor, who took the title fairly recently, is still incapable of enforcing obedience on the tribesmen of his inaccessible southern territories.

Reached Heights as American Author Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 18.—Charles Waddell Chestnut died at his home here Tuesday at the age of 74 after a short illness. Mr. Chestnut, known throughout the country as the dean of Negro authors, reached heights in his literary activities.

His first book, "The Conjure Woman", containing some of the short stories which are considered classics in American literature today, was published first in 1899. It was revived in 1928 and republished by Harcourt, Brace & Co., of New York.

Awarded Spingarn Medal In 1928 Mr. Chestnut was awarded the Spingarn medal by the National Association for Advancement of Colored People for his achievements in the field of literature, and special reference was made to "The Conjure Woman." Other works by Charles W. Chestnut included "The House Behind the Cedars," which gave the author definite ranking in America as an author.

Besides his works of fiction, Mr. Chestnut wrote a biography of Frederick Douglass, which is still used as a reference work by students interested in that great statesman and orator. He also was a regular contributor to the Atlantic Monthly and the Century magazine. Among his stories which achieved wide reading through various publications were "The Wife of His Youth," "The Marrow of Tradition" and "The Colonel's Dream."

Mrs. Mary A. Ruthrauff Values Her Glasses at $7,000.00. Mrs. Mary A. Ruthrauff's Eye Sight Restored Perfectly.

LEW ARNTZ Doctor of Optics who prescribed special glasses for her case that have restored to her perfect vision. Mrs. Ruthrauff is 65 years of age and now sees better with her glasses than when she was young.

She says of Arntz: "Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 14, 1905. I have spent hundreds of dollars trying to get glasses that would be suitable both to read with and see at a distance, but Lew Arntz fitted me about four years ago. He said he could give me 100 per cent vision and he has made his word good. I would not take $5,000 for my glasses. I could not see another pair just like them. It was told some years ago by a very prominent specialist that I could never expect to see clearly any more, but Arntz thought differently. The doctor gets a great deal of credit for the great work he does, but not enough, in my estimation."
