Secret Six to Go On Trial In Atlanta

Atlanta, Ga.—An Atlanta office of the International Labor Defense is to be opened here, it was announced, as headquarters for the activities of the organization in fighting for the freedom of Angelo Herndon, 19-year-old Negro organizer of the unemployed, last week sentenced to 18 to 20 years on the chain-gang for his activity in organizing Negro and white together to struggle against starvation.

Benjamin J. Davis, Jr. and John H. Geer, Negro I.L.D. attorneys who conducted Herndon's defense, have filed notice of an appeal, and motion for a new trial. They will also be the legal defense for the famous Atlanta "Six", two Negro and four white workers, whose cases, on the same charge as that named in the indictment against Herndon—"inciting to insurrection"—have been pending nearly three years.

The Improved Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks of the World annually conduct an oratorical contest for Negro boys and girls throughout the United States between the ages of 15 and 19, inclusive.

The state contest for this year will be held in Des Moines the latter part of April under the auspices of Hawk-eye Lodge, No. 160; the winner will be sent to Kansas to compete in the regional contest for $500 scholarship and a trip to the Grand Lodge to compete in the national contest, to be held in Indianapolis the latter part of August for a cash prize of $5.00.

Students wishing to enter can do so by communicating with J. G. Browne, 1419 Maryland Ave., Phone 3-6359, the state director for Iowa.

3 More Reported Lynched in Florida

New York.—Three Negroes were hacked to pieces by machettes in the hands of a raiding gang, on a lonely Florida key, Tavernier Island, on Jan. 19, according to press reports. The report, dated from Key West, says the three were members of a fishing family. One member escaped by jumping through a window and fleeing with a baby in his arms, and brought the news to Key West.

The International Labor Defense is investigating these murders, and has tentatively listed them as constituting the third, fourth, and fifth lynchings reported in the press for this year. Other lynchings have occurred during January in Tennessee and Louisiana.

Press Briets of the Week

WARM SPRINGS, GA.—The greatest public development project any nation has attempted is planned by President-Elect Roosevelt in the Tennessee watershed, it was revealed Thursday. A gigantic program combining public power development, farm relief and employment is planned, with Muscle Shoals as the fountainhead. A dozen states would be affected, which Mr. Roosevelt said would put 60,000 to 75,000 men to work in the first year, and eventually would give direct employment to 200,000.

DES MOINES, IOWA.—The Reconstruction Finance Corp., approved a $122,500 loan for use in Polk County Wednesday dispatches from Washington, D. C., said. The money will be available immediately and is to be used to cover expenses of relief work between Jan. 16 and Feb. 28 in Des Moines and the county.

BERLIN, GERMANY.—Adolph Hitler, National Socialist party chieftain, was appointed chancellor of Germany Monday and selected a cabinet which was sworn in immediately by President Paul Von Hindenberg. 2 killed, 12 injured, 50 arrested as Communists and Socialist riot against the new regime.

CHICAGO, ILL.—Six years ago, at the pinnacle of his financial power, James W. Stevens opened the world's largest hotel, 25 stories—a $30,000,000 one with 3,000 rooms. Wednesday the grand jury indicted Stevens, now 80, and his two sons on charges of embezzlement, conspiracy, fraud, and larceny. The deficit was $7,000,000.

LONDON, ENGLAND.—John Galsworthy, British novelist and dramatist and 1932 Nobel prize winner, died Tuesday. He was 65. Most of his writings were concerned with the life of the British upper middle classes.

DES MOINES, IOWA.—Following an hour's heated debate, the house of representatives Tuesday passed a bill to repeal the present five-day marriage law. The vote was 89 to 19.

NEW YORK.—Frank Wykoff, the fastest human of them all through 100 yards, has raced against many a speed demon in eight spectacular years on the cinder paths. But at the head of his list of the 10 greatest sprinters he has met in competition stands the bespectacled little Detroit Negro, the ebony flash who fled down the Olympic cinders in Los Angeles last summer to victory in both the 100 and 200 meter dashes—Eddie Tolan.

Chicago Reds Attack Police

Chicago.—Following the uprising last Friday at the emergency relief station, 505 E. 50th Pl., during which ten policemen, including Capt. James L. Mooney and several citizens, were injured, steps have been taken to prevent a recurrence of the near tragedy. It will be recalled that such an announcement was made by officials on the heels of the tragedy of August, 1931, when three members of the Unemployed council were shot down in the street at 50th and Dearborn Sts., during an eviction demonstration.

Armed With Red Pepper

The crowd gathered in spite of the snow and slush that made walking and standing about out of doors unpleasant. The speakers, most of them professional agitators, known to the police, began to harangue the mob. Captain Mooney ordered his men to resist them, but not to shoot. Armed with irona, sticks and cans of red pepper, the mob surged upon the police cordon and the fight began.

More than 300 men and women of both races took part in the outburst. The battle lasted about 15 minutes before the agitators retreated, leaving their wounded to be piled into a police patrol and rushed to hospitals.

Negroes Forced Out of Town

Pittsburgh, Pa., Feb. 3.—Governor Gifford Pinchot granted an interview Wednesday morning February 1, in which the story of the forced deportation of about forty Negro men and women from Industry, Pa., on January 21, was laid bare before him by Homer Brown, Pittsburgh attorney and president of the Pittsburgh branch of the N. A. A. C. P.

Mr. Brown and the national office of the association requested an investigation by Governor Pinchot after A. B. DeCauquie, county attorney for Beaver county, where the deportation occurred, told Mr. Brown that he would make no investigation because the officers guilty of deporting the Negroes could not be convicted in Beaver county and that the "shanghaiing" of the Negroes was a mere matter of a mistake.

Tuskegee Choir Concludes Visit

New York.—The climax of the Tuskegee Choir's stay in New York, after successfully completing its four-week engagement at Radio City last week, will be its concert appearance at Carnegie Hall on Wednesday evening, February 8, under the auspices of the Artists Bureau of the National Broadcasting Company, in a program devoted especially to Negro folk-music.

William L. Dawson, conductor of the choir, has arranged a program designed to reveal what Tuskegee is doing in the collecting, interpretation and preservation of this music through the Institute School of Music, of which Mr. Dawson is also the director.

Several centuries ago the old Chinese God, Confucius sat on his celestial throne and uttered this oriental proverb—"All good things must be repeated." He was right. Exceeding their first performance with an audience of several hundred more theatre goers, The Ambassadors repeated the three act extravaganza "Harlem Fantasies" at the Jewish Community Center Thursday night.

The red hot sizzling floor show opened up in that mid-nite aristocratic rendezvous, Club Ambassador at 132 Lenox Ave., with "Cab" Black, gyrating, snake-hipping marvel of personality, directing those eleven exponents of the latest rhythm, Joy Jenerators.

"Windy" Davis, dapper lad from South New York, appeared once more before the ole mike to announce the big time vocal offerings of Leo Elmore, Mildred Jackson, Vinola Cornell, Jerry Hayes, Eddie Perkins, and the "hotcha" dancing of Josephine Lee, Peanuts Lee and Preston Moore. Thomas and Lee, again knocked them out of their seats with their "fool cuttin'".

Vincent Wilson, velvet voiced tenor, should be booked soon for big time as he goes over in a big way with every selection. His career will be plenty bright with success, as radio and theatre critics are loud in their sincere praises for him. So long, until next year!!!

Southern Mayor Bars Levee Hands

PROTEST TO NEW ORLEANS MAYOR FOR BARRING OF NEGRO WORKERS

New York, Feb. 3.—A protest against the barring of Negro workers on the new Public Belt Bridge in New Orleans, La., has been sent to Mayor T. Semmes Walmesley by the N. A. A. C. P., 69 Fifth Avenue. The city of New Orleans is said to be requiring that all applicants for work on the bridge show poll tax receipts for 1931 and 1932 as well as proof of registration for voting in the last election. Inasmuch as few Negroes were registered, this requirement deprives them of work. This scheme is similar to the one proposed last year by Mayor Walmesley but defeated, when he asked that all dock work be limited to registered voters. Both are schemes to take work away from Negroes without saying so in plain language.

Part of the money for the construction of this bridge was secured from the R. F. C. in Washington on the representation that the project would furnish work to needy unemployed. The N. A. A. C. E. has also written the R. F. C. asking it to investigate the alleged discrimination in the use of the funds.

Ruby Bates Declares That She Was Not Attacked by Any of Them

Birmingham, Ala.—Judge J. P. McCoy in Jefferson circuit court Tuesday denied a writ of habeas corpus for Roy Wright, one of nine boys indicted in the Scottsboro case.

Birmingham, Ala.—A letter written by Ruby Bates, upon whose testimony of "rape" the Scottsboro boys were given death sentences, and which categorically denies all the charges she made in trials in April, 1931, was produced in court here at the hearing on a writ of habeas corpus for the release of Roy Wright, youngest of the boys. Attorneys argued the Alabama law stated specifically no minor should be confined with adult prisoners and that juvenile defendants should be first tried in juvenile courts.

The court refused the demand of Gen. George W. Chamlee and Irving Schwab, International Labor Defense attorneys, to order Solicitor-General Thomas E. Knight to testify. The hearing was Tuesday, Jan. 31. Mrs. Ada Wright, mother of Roy Wright, and his sister, Beatrice Maddox, were in court, to testify as to his age. Ruby Bates herself was also present, as was Chief of Police Blackmore of Huntsville, who was forced to give up Ruby Bates' letter.

The letter, examined by the I. L. D. attorneys, contains startling disclosures. The police forced her to lie with threats of keeping her in jail, and lodging charges against her, Ruby Bates wrote. None of the Scottsboro boys ever touched her, the letter says categorically. In this letter, written to Earl Streetman, Ruby Bates tells of her remorse for her testimony which assisted in obtaining death-verbs for the boys. She repeats again and again that the whole case was a frame-up, and that this letter is "the Gods truth."

RUBY BATES DENIES LETTER

Huntsville, Ala., Feb. 3.—Ruby Bates, the 22-year-old white textile operative, and one of the accusers of the nine youths in the Scottsboro case, has again reiterated previous denials that she had written a letter repudiating the testimony given in the trials in April 1931.

"I didn't write any such letter, and I don't know who did," the girl hotly declared when questioned.

Chief of Police H. C. Blackmore said the letter in question, which was taken from Danny Dundee, a pugilist, the night of Jan. 5, 1932, had been sent to court officials in Birmingham, where habeas corpus proceedings are pending in behalf of Roy Wright, 14 years old, one of the nine defendants.

The girl signed an affidavit Jan. 6, 1932, repudiating the letter and declaring if she had signed such a document "it was when I was so drunk I did not know what I was doing." She reiterated her testimony against the boys was true.

Miss Inez Stevens Pleases Audience of Music Lovers

By Everett Wadsworth

Representatives of nearly every musical club or organization in the city were included in the large audience who attended the song recital of Miss Inez Stevens, soprano, of Minneapolis, Tuesday evening at St. Paul A. M. E. church. The S. L. Birt club, with Mrs. E. M. Mackay as president, sponsored the affair.

Studied Under Schumann-Heink

Miss Stevens, who has studied throughout the leading conservatories

dowed with a soprano voice of wide range and melodious power, and sings with great artistic intelligence.

Impressive Recital

It would be extremely difficult to point to any particular number as being the best, as she gave a well rounded recital. Miss Stevens' opening numbers included "The Swallow" by Del' Acqua, "Serenade" by Schubert and "Danny Boy", an old Irish air by Weatherly; the language numbers, "Still Wie Die Nacht", by Bohm and "Bon Jour, Suzon" by Thome, were rich in expression and radiance.

Coleridge-Taylor's mighty "Deep River" and spirituals by Burleigh comprised the third division and was sung with great feeling and emotion. The remainder of the program consisted of Indian romance lyrics, including "By the Waters of Minnetonka" by Lieurance, Logan's "Pale Moon"; sacred numbers; and "The Rosary" by Nevin.

Little Mildred Griffin Sings

"Go Down Moses", Burleigh's masterpiece, was included in the final group as the young singer brought her impressive program to a grand finale with the immortal "Crucifixion" by N. Clark Smith. Miss Stevens was accompanied by Vivian Warricks-Parker, pianist. At the intermission, Mildred Griffin, nine-year-old soprano, pleased her audience with a sweet rendition of "Were You There". Little Mildred is gifted with a wonderful voice; while in Gary, Indiana, she was soloist for the Junior choir at the First A. M. E. church there.

THE ADULT FORUM

The Bystander desires to call attention to the Adult Forum discussions which have been running the past two weeks. It is encouraging to the sponsors that the attendance has been beyond expectations; interesting to the public that the discussion leaders have done their jobs so well. Such subjects as "Technocracy," "The Domestic Allotment Plan," "Farm Bill," "Our Monetary System," "Has Democracy Failed?" are live topics involving the solution of our troubles today. While it is easy to react about them the addition of an opportunity to hear them discussed and about which questions may be asked are unusual combinations.

Every effort is being made to let the public know the program in advance and to place the meetings convenient to all. It is not hard to go once a week.

HONOR ROSENWALD

Sunday, many organizations are honoring the birthday of the late Julius Rosenwald. Mr. Rosenwald was well known for his philanthropy; Negro schools in the South, Y. M. C. A. branches, hospitals and scholarships among Negroes sharing liberally.

Mr. Rosenwald literally covered the rural districts of the South with schools for Negro children, particularly in communities which had been backward in providing them schools. To him is due the credit for much of the improvement in the education of the Negro in the South.

It would be well for each minister to devote a part of one of his services in memory of one who has done so much.

THE CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION

The readers of the Bystander and hundreds of Des Moines citizens gladly accept action of the Civil Service Commission when it disposed of the complaint filed against Patrolman McGuire that he was beyond the civil service age.

When McGuire volunteered for World War service he put his age up two years—a thing thousands of others did. On the application for the civil service examination he gave his true age. Just how this discrepancy in age was brought to the attention of the pension board is not clear, but suffice it to say, somebody has been unusually interested in a lot of uncalled for snooping.

However, McGuire's mother filed an affidavit stating his true age and in its decision passing on the complaint the commission said:

"After investigation the board has decided to accept as final the birth date shown by Patrolman McGuire in his civil service application, which is verified by his mother's affidavit."

Few Negroes complain when they get what they make. But it is not always possible to get a body to do this. In the past the colored people of Des Moines had a lot of trouble getting an impartial Civil Service Commission with the courage to make and stand by a fair decision without regard to who is involved. Fortunately, we have such a com-

HEART DISEASE

The examination of hearts for a suspected or unsuspected heart disease will reveal in many cases of the latter some condition, which will enable the person to place himself in the proper attitude, circumstance, and channel so that no disability or invalidism will result from what might be called personal neglect. I think, there is no one who suspects heart disease in himself fails to get proper advice and treatment for the same.

The unsuspected cases are so because of the ability of the heart to react with additional force and strength, when so called upon, to a certain point, when all reserved strength is gone, passing this certain point and resulting in much diminished physical strength and endurance, frank invalidism, or perhaps fatal collapse.

Unsuspected cases of heart disease are not all rare. As many cases of heart failure occur in persons who seem to be in perfect health. In suspected cases of heart disease the person who goes for such examination is enabled in the majority of the cases to receive much help, many times a cure, and, in very severe conditions, a prolongation of life numbering many years.

Laurence Jones Praises Iowa Bystander

The editor received the following letter from Laurence C. Jones, principal and founder of Piney Woods Country Life School, last week; he was enthusiastic in his praise for the paper:

Piney Woods, Miss., Jan. 24, 1933.

Editor, The Iowa Bystander, Des Moines, Iowa.

Dear Sir: Allow me to congratulate on your up-and-comingness; is there such a word it can certainly be applied to you. I think your plan of having news boxes in various centers is one of the most ingenious of which I have heard. I am sure it is going to be a help to you people will feel it is their paper, with the depot so close at hand.

I have faith that the Bystander is going to keep on filling its place of usefulness with an editor who is on his job the way you are.

Sincerely, LAWRENCE C. JONES.

JUSTICE COMING TO LIGHT

One of the white girls upon whom the Negro boys convicted in the Scottsboro (Ala.) case were charged with criminal attack, has written a letter to the state's attorney denying that any of the boys ever attacked her. It was partly on her testimony that the boys were convicted.

Now that the U. S. Supreme Court has reversed the lower courts and remanded the case for a new trial, the truth is beginning to come to light.

Fair-minded people questioned the guilt of these boys from the beginning. The attitude of the community, which does not tolerate any association of white women and colored men even though without any solicitation upon the part of these men nor explanation that the association was not for criminal reasons, is so poison that it is easy to see how the case was trumped up.

Many a Negro has been hung with less evidence than in the Scottsboro case. It so happened that somebody has been willing to fight the case through the upper courts that justice might be done.

N. A. A. C. P. BRANCHES TO HOLD LIBERTY DINNERS IN FEBRUARY

New York, Feb. 5.—Branches of the N. A. A. C. P. are to stage "liberty" dinners during the month of February as a means of raising funds for the organization. The plan is to use cheap but appetizing menus from which a tasty meal can be prepared for less than a dime a plate and then sell the meal for either fifty cents or a dollar for the benefit of the association. The Passaic, N. J., branch will hold such a dinner on February 12th, the birth-day of the association, and the Pittsburgh, Pa., branch is to hold one during the month and expects to have 500 diners.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 27.—Ironical conditions in the nation's capital will prevent Negro theatergoers from seeing "The Green Pastures," the Marc Connelly play, which deals with the Biblical account in Genesis as seen through the eyes of the religious southern Negro, which will open at the National theater here Feb. 13 for a limited run.

There are no segregation or racial discriminatory laws in force here, but colored persons are barred from public amusement and hotels and cafes as effectively as if there were. Persons discriminated against on account of race or color may sue in the courts, but in case of a verdict in their favor, would be given only nominal damages.

Washington.—(CNS)—The Wagner resolution authorizing the appointment of three senators to go to Mississippi and personally investigate conditions among the Negro workers on levee contracts has been reported out of committee and is on the Senate calendar. The proposal for an inquiry came out of complaints made by the N. A. A. C. P., prior to the November election that Negro workers were compelled to work under conditions bordering on peonage by the contractors along the lower Mississippi river.

BREAD NEEDED, NOT DRY BONES, SAYS PRELATE

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 27.—That many preachers are giving people the dry bones of theology rather than the bread of life was the conviction expressed by Bishop Wilbur P. Thirkield of New York City in his founder's day address Friday at Gammon Theological seminary, this city. "Many theological schools," he said, "should organize their work to meet the needs of life today, with less attention to Hebrew and Greek and a great deal more to the practical needs of individuals and society."

THE CAT TURNED NUN

In a certain convent there was a cat which had killed all the mice in the convent, but one, which was very big, which she could not catch. The cat mused in her heart in what manner she might deceive the mouse; that she might kill him; and thought so long till she agreed she must take the veil, and clothe herself in nun's garb, and sit amongst the nuns at table, and then she might get at the mouse; and she did as she had thought. The mouse when he saw the cat eating with the nuns, rejoiced greatly, and thought, since the cat had become religious, that she would henceforth do him no harm, inasmuch that Dan Mouse came near to where the nuns were eating, and began to leap about here and there. Then the cat rolled her eyes as one who has no longer eyes for any vanity or folly, and she kept a peaceful and humble countenance; and the mouse, seeing that drew near little by little; and when the cat saw him high she sprang upon him with her claws and began to throttle him. And the mouse said, "How is it that thou, a nun, art so cruel as to wish to kill me?" Whereupon the cat replied, "Think not thy cries will cause me to free thee; for know, brother, that when it pleases me I am a nun and when it pleases me I am a cat."

Around The City

S. E. W.

For Sunday:

One snowy day, about the year 401, the snow lay thick around Sisan, a little town in Celsia. A shepherd boy who could not lead his sheep to the fields on account of the cold, went to church instead, and listened to the eight beatitudes which were read that morning. He asked how these blessings were to be obtained, and when he was told of the monastic life, a thirst for perfection arose in him. He became the wonder of the world, the great St. Simeon Stylites. He was warned perfection would cost him dear, and so it did. A mere child, he began the monastic life, and thereupon passed a dozen years in superhuman austerity. He bound a rope round his waist until the flesh was petrified. He ate but once in seven days, and when God led him to a solitary life, kept fasts for forty days. Thirty-seven years of his life was spent upon top of a stone pillar which was over thirty feet high, and had his food which was placed in a basket and pulled up by him. Here he lived exposed to heat and cold night and day adoring the majesty of God. Perfection was all to St. Simeon; the means nothing, except so far as God chose them. The solitaries of Egypt were suspicious of a St. Simeon come down from his pillow and return to the common life. In a moment the Saint made ready to descend, but the Egyptian deluged was satisfied with this proof of humility. "Stay," he said, "and take courage; your way of life is from God."

Cheerfulness, humility, and obedience set their seal upon the austerity of St. Simeon. The words which God put into his mouth brought crowds of heathen to baptism, and of sinners to penance. At last, in the year 460, those who watched below noticed he had been motionless for three whole days. They ascended and found the old monk's body still bent in the attitude of prayer, but his soul was with God.

Perhaps one of the oldest clocks in the state of Iowa is in the possession of Mrs. J. J. Evans, 1524 University ave. This clock was given to a Mrs. Dornell, a wealthy white woman of Evanston, Ill., by her grandmother and after keeping the clock over fifty years, Mrs. Dornell gave it to Mrs. Evans as a present. Mrs. Evans has had the clock now over thirty years. The clock in spite of its age of a hundred and thirty years or more, still keeps correct time and has been overhauled but once. It has the appearance of a very old clock and is made of an iron frame. Its base is square with graduating iron blocks and on each side of the clock is a lion's head made of brass with a small ring through each lion's mouth. This embellishment serves as handles on the clock.

On top of the clock is a brass statue of George Washington mounted upon a proud steed with his hat in his hand. Being the wife of a Methodist minister, Mrs. Evans has moved over the country much in the last forty years; but she says she will always carry her antique timepiece with her.

SCHUYLER HELD AS HOLD-UP SUSPECT, SAYS VICKSBURG MAYOR

New York, Feb. 3.—George S. Schuyler was arrested and held overnight in a Vicksburg, Miss., jail Deember 29, 1932, as a suspect in a robbery, according to a letter from Mayor J. C. Hamilton to Walter White, secretary of the N. A. A. C. P. Schuyler, when arrested, was investigating labor conditions on the Mississippi Flood Control Project for the N. A. A. C. P. Thirty dollars was taken from him by two detectives before they carried him to the police station. At the station all his possessions, including a valuable fountain pen and $22 in cash, were checked in to the desk. The next morning Schuyler received everything except his fountain pen and, of course, the $30 which the two detectives had taken privately. Mr. White wrote Mayor Hamilton requesting that the money and pen be secured and returned to New York.

Beauty Hints

By "Bebe"
After the skin has been cleansed thoroughly the next step is to enliven it. You must use something to break sluggish tissues and to clear the dull, sallow look. There are good preparations on the market for the purpose.
No beauty treatment is complete without the bracing tonic action of a mild astringent lotion. It braces the tissues, closes the pores. It is also most effective as a powder base.
In this and previous articles you have been given the three essential steps to intelligent skin care—cleansing, enlivening and toning.

A Step Ahead

It is extremely gratifying to see the change that has come over most of our athletes during the last year. A year ago almost every one of the boys in the city, playing in the Crocker league had one ambition. That was to beat his brother athlete. With that accomplished he was satisfied. Any attempts to change or improve a boy's style of play was met with the same answer, "I can beat you. You can't tell me anything". That spirit still prevails to a large extent yet, but the rapidly growing idea now is to beat somebody else. The athletes are also realizing that in order to beat somebody else, they must have organization. The league has forced the championship teams to become organized in order to become champions. Then after they were organized, they beat the other unorganized outfits so easily that the games lost their thrill for them. It was only natural that this improvement should come about and now it is a pleasing sight to see our Wednesday night games with the varsity "Y" five and two or three other teams competing against outside teams. It hasn't been so long ago when our Wednesday night gym periods were free for alls among ourselves.

Of course, there are a few die hards who cling to the old methods of play and the old style ballyhoo about we beat you. We suppose there always will be, but most of us are outgrowing that and with boys starting in younger than we oldsters did to meet outside competition we will soon cease to have that spirit as the backbone of our athletes.

Make no mistake that we have a long way to go yet. Our best teams will take some disheartening setbacks just when we think we are unbeatable. But we are on our way out of the wilderness and before we know it, we will find ourselves producing some really great athletic teams.

Picked Up by the Sideliners

Jas. Allen has temporarily deserted the Big Five. He got a break with the Globe Trotters. We are glad that we can produce boys good enough to go out and hold their place in faster company. Still, it would be nice if they all stayed home and made a good home town club as they have done in Jones gave a candy party at her home on Park Ave. Lloyd Nash entertained at his home Sunday. Those present were Misses Dora Riding, Mabel Jones and Lucile Riding. The infant son of Mae Riding died Sunday evening and was buried Tuesday. Misses Opal and Jennie Smith visited Mr. and Mrs. S. Estes. Mrs. Emma Hicks is about the same. Joe Saunders is improving. Mrs. M. J. Tompkins is ill. Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. B. Price visited Mrs. Cobin is ill.

DAVENPORT, IOWA

The revival meeting at Bethel A. M. E. Church ended Sunday. Miss Naomi Taggart, Donovan Robinson and Glagta Hockaday were representatives for the Sunday School and Christian Endeavor league of Bethel church. Miss Wilkerson was the leader. The representatives attended the Scott County older boys and girls conference, which was held at Edwards Congregational church on Monday. Eayle Peoples and Miss Delores Baker of Davenport were quietly married. Mrs. Rosie Samuels is improving. Mrs. Cobin is ill.

DOINGS OF THE BIG FIVE

Last week was a busy one for the Five. Wednesday, Colfax brought down a team of giants and went home on the short end of a 27 to 10 score. The Five proved that they have a great defensive club by holding the big boys to five baskets, most of them from mid court. Brown, Palmer and Allen grabbed scoring honors for the "Y" but everybody scored as usual.

Friday night the gang tripped to Liberty Center and played six men. The home team and the referees, Al Webb, and Bunny Wilson kept the Five in the running during the first half until Brown and Palmer could get together and do their bit. Overton allayed in one while the home boys were trying to decide which "cuddled Gemen" to stop. Oh yes, that was another win, 27 to 24.

Tuesday night the Five paid Westminster church another visit where they kept up a steady fire of baskets to lambast the Capital City Commercial College 32 to 19. Overton came to life again and instead of scoring one basket, popped in four. So did Brown and Wilson. Oh the rest of the boys scored. So far every member of the Five has scored in every game played. By the way, that's eleven straight.

CORINTHIAN TRIP'S ST. PAUL

St. Paul A. M. E., weakened by the absence of several of their players, dropped a 26 to 14 contest to Corinthian Baptist in the feature game of the Crocker "Y" league at West High gym Friday night. Bill Smith dropped in seven baskets and a charity toss to take first place in the scoring column. The Trojans found the Wildcats harder to tame in their second meeting, and were held to a 23 to 19 score. After being behind at half-time, the Fellowship club bore down in the second chapter and walked away with the game by a 12 to 6 decision over the Spartans. Louie Fulton's long range shooting was the big factor in his team's victory. The Panthers took a breather from the Tigers in running up a 31 to 0 score. Arnold Wiley was the big noise in the winner's attack, netting six hoopers, closely followed by Glass and Howard who dropped in eight and seven markers, respectively.

TO GLORIFY BREAKFAST

Toast and coffee and the morning paper!
Coffee and toast and the morning paper!
Ho hum! That's the great American breakfast—prepared with misgivings, swallowed in haste, not remembered long enough even to be repented.

It is perhaps a great pity that the days when American breakfasts were mighty affairs, suited to pioneering activities, are gone forever. Yet there are still ways to arouse even lagging modern breakfast appetites.

One is to add the delicious tang of pineapple to the morning meal. A nutritional studies have recently revealed a definite health reason for this addition. For canned pineapple has been found to be a generous source of vitamins A, B, and C and five essential minerals. It is also revealed as an aid to the digestion of proteins such as meat and eggs and to the prevention and relief of acidosis.
