

Roosevelt Is "Too Busy" To Receive The Scottsboro Marchers In Washington

PATRONIZE THOSE WHO SEEK YOUR BUSINESS

THE IOWA BYSTANDER

PUBLISHED IN THE INTERESTS OF THE COLORED PEOPLE

PRICE FIVE CENTS

VOL. XXXIX NO. 48

DES MOINES, IOWA, FRIDAY, MAY 12, 1933

DePriest Urges Law Changes For Fair Trials

Ruby Bates Leads Pro-test Group to Capitol

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 12.—President Franklin Delano Roosevelt was "too busy" Monday to receive the delegation of more than 2,000 men and women of both races who arrived here from New York to place before him the petition that the federal government do something about the Scottsboro situation. The delegation, headed by James Ford, Communist candidate for vice president last year; Ruby Bates, one of the white women of the state of Alabama; and William L. Patterson, secretary of the International Labor Defense, was received by William McHenry Howe, secretary to President Roosevelt. Mr. Howe told the men and women gathered on the White House lawn that Mr. Roosevelt was conferring with Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, special German envoy, at the time and could not be disturbed.

See Speaker Rainey Leaving the White House, the delegation next marched to the Capitol, where Speaker Rainey of the house of representatives received their demands for congress and promised that they would be turned over to the house judiciary committee. He added that the Scottsboro case is a matter for the courts; congress has no authority to direct the release of men charged with crime.

Ruby Bates, who testified in 1931 that she had been attacked, then later retracted on that story and appeared at Decatur, Ala., in April to state before the jury trying Heywood Patterson that she had lied, interrupted Speaker Rainey to state that "the Scottsboro boys are absolutely innocent." "I testified under duress," she retorted, in answer to Rainey's questions.

That ended the conference between the delegation and Speaker Rainey. Included in the resolution to the congress was a demand that congress pass laws for the enforcement of the 14th and 15th amendments to the Constitution. These demands were read by Mr. Ford, who also acted as spokesman at the White House.

The group, which also included Mrs. Janie Patterson, mother of one of the Scottsboro boys, was bitter in its denunciation of the refusal of President Roosevelt to see the members and received the petition in person. They called on Vice President Garner, who told them he would refer their petition to a senate committee.

Rep. DePriest The committee saw Congressman DePriest and asked him to take up the matter of the Scottsboro case in Congress. Regarding the Bill of Civil Rights, calling for social, political and economic rights for Negroes, the congressman asked for time to read the document.

Last of Gold Star Mothers to Sail

Washington (C. N. S.)—Eighty colored Gold Star Mothers have signified their intention of making a pilgrimage to France and England, sailing from Hoboken, New Jersey, at noon on Friday, June 25, to visit the graves of their soldier dead in the American Cemetery located near Paris and London.

The sixth and last group of colored women to make the pilgrimage will meet in New York City on Wednesday, June 21, and sail on Friday, June 23, for Cherbourg, France, on board the American steamship "American Banker."

The party on arriving in France will be divided into six groups, each group to visit one of the following cemeteries: Meuse-Argonne, Oise-Alens, St. Mihiel, Aisne-Marne, Surmeuse, all in France; and the Brookwood Cemetery, in England, 28 miles from London.

Country Watches Hearing in George Crawford Case

New York, May 12.—With numerous daily papers declaring that the George Crawford extradition case may easily be as momentous as the famous Dred Scott case, the entire country has its eyes and ears focused on the hearing scheduled for May 23 before the United States circuit court of appeals in Boston, when the state of Virginia is to make another attempt to take Crawford back to face trial for murder.

When the circuit court of appeals hears the case it will be considering the formal written statement of Judge James A. Lowell and not newspaper reports of what he said at the time of the trial in his court April 24. The written finding of Judge Lowell states simply that since the attorneys for Virginia had attached a signed agreement of both parties that Negroes were barred from grand and petit juries in Virginia and in the particular district where Crawford was indicted, that the indictment was therefore void and that the requisition of the Governor of Virginia, therefore, was not in form.

U. S. Supreme Court

Attorneys seeking to get Crawford, contend that Judge Lowell erred principally in ruling that the evidence contained in the agreement was admissible and in ruling that the statements contained in the agreement were competent evidence. Attorneys for the N. A. A. C. P. are busy on the brief which will support their side of the case. No matter what decision is rendered May 23, the case will be appealed to the United States supreme court. Should Judge Lowell be upheld by the Massachusetts and Virginia authorities will probably appeal the case to the U. S. supreme court; should the circuit court reverse the historic decision of the Boston jurist, the N. A. A. C. P. will certainly carry the case to the supreme court.

Jim Crow Hotel Deserted by White D.C. Delegates

Washington, D. C., May 12.—More than 200 white men and women delegates to the Continental Congress for Economic Reconstruction, quickly packed their bags and moved out of the Cairo hotel on 16th St. here last week when it was made known to them that the hotel had refused to accept as guests two Negro delegates. They then marched to the Washington auditorium, where their resolutions were scheduled to be held, and turned the meeting into a demonstration against color barriers in Washington.

The Negro delegates, who came from New York, had made reservations at the hotel along with the rest of the group through the conference

Plan Now To Attend The Bystander Cooking School

Kitchen work, cooking, washing dishes, sweeping and cleaning, and putting things away get mighty monotonous. That is especially true when the housewife has to do it day after day in the same old way. That is one of the big reasons the Iowa Bystander is sponsoring a Free Cooking School on June 15, 16 and 17. The Billie Hall has been engaged and every housewife who can possibly come is invited to attend all three of the sessions, which will be held from 2 until 4 o'clock each afternoon.

Miss Laura May Kennedy, the home economics expert who is to conduct the school, is bringing to this community some new methods of doing things, new equipment, new menus and recipes. It is her purpose to relieve the dull monotony of everyday housekeeping and everyday cooking. Every woman, who is interested in her home and her family, will be interested in every minute in every session of the Bystander cooking school.

Model Kitchen

"I am not coming to Des Moines on the theory that you have no good cooks," says Miss Kennedy. "I know there are excellent cooks in every community. In fact, it's hard to find better cooking than you can find in a town of this size. My only object is to bring to the women of your community some new ideas in cooking, some new dishes they can surprise their families with, and some short cuts in housework." Miss Kennedy has a model kitchen in Kansas City where she experiments constantly with foods and with new equipment and home use. It is her experience in this model kitchen that housewives are too busy to experiment. They have to go too quickly from one meal into the preparation of another. Most women haven't the facilities to experiment.

Social Side

Since the announcement of the free cooking school many housewives in the community have expressed gratification at the prospect of the free-day affair. Aside from the educational features of the school there is a social side as well. It will provide a place for friends to meet. Miss Kennedy says "gossip" sessions usually follow the regular "business" sessions of the school. At least, after every session, practically every person in the audience gathers around to inspect the dishes that have been prepared. Nearly everybody asks questions about methods of preparation.

MACKAY BABY CONTEST INTERESTING

Whose baby will win? Unusual interest is being displayed by the mothers of the babies in the famous Mackay Baby Contest, which is closing Sunday, June 5, according to Mrs. Izora Mackay, president of the S. L. Birt Club who is sponsoring the affair.

A TRIBUTE TO MOTHER

Most all the other beautiful things in the world came by two's, and here's dozens and hundreds, plenty of roses, stars, sunsets, rainbows, brothers, sisters, aunt, cousin, but only ONE MOTHER in all the wide world housing committee. When they appeared there to take up their reservations, they were told that the Cairo house would not accept them because of their color. This information was immediately relayed to the auditorium, where most of the other delegates had assembled. Without debate on the question, the group went to the hotel, proceeded to their rooms and withdrew with their luggage.

Remember Your Mother Sunday, May 14

"NO PLACES IN FORESTS FOR NEGROES"

Thomasville, Ga., May 12.—(By ANP)—Negroes here, applying for work with the reforestation employes under the Roosevelt plan, are being told: "We have as yet received no instructions for registering colored men for reforestation. There are sixty-seven places available for young men from Thomas county, of which Thomasville is the county seat.

Neither county officials nor chamber of commerce principals could be reached to ascertain the employment and relief status of the Negro in Thomasville and Thomas county. When asked where do most Negroes working in that county derive their income, a very prominent Negro citizen replied: "They don't work. Most Negroes in Thomas county are hungry."

Press Briefs of the Week

HARWICH, MASS.—Cyril Buck, Harwich garage proprietor and supposed intermediary in the Margaret (Peggy) McMath kidnaping case, and his brother, Kenneth Buck, were arrested Saturday afternoon, after admitting, according to police, that they were implicated in a four-man plot to abduct the 10-year-old girl. Peggy was recovered Friday after the payment of $60,000 or $70,000 ransom which was furnished by her Detroit grandparents.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.—A heart ailment has ended the life of the army officer who uttered the ringing, war-time phrase, "LaFayette, we are here." Col. Charles E. Stanton, 74, whose declaration was made July 4, 1917, in Paris before the 10th of the Frenchman who aided the American soldiers in the revolutionary war, died Monday night. At first popularly attributed to Gen. John J. Pershing, who was present at the ceremony, the phrase soon resounded throughout France and the United States.

LIVINGSTON, TENN.—Tornadoes swept the South the Cumberland river valley early Wednesday, killing at least 54 people, injuring 200 and leaving a heavy but unestimated property damage. His storm, A. Edgett, number killed in this year's spring season, will past 250.

Scores Dead in Dixie Tornado

Birmingham, Ala., May 12.—A twister which swept through three west central Alabama counties, then made its way through Mississippi and lower Louisiana, has taken a death toll of more than half a hundred persons, injuring at least 300 and did property damage amounting to millions of dollars.

By towns and communities the casualties read: Helena, 11 dead, more than 100 injured; Erent, 7 dead, approximately 40 injured; Demopolis, 4 dead, 20 injured and at least 50 injured in scattered small communities. Several of the injured may die.

Striking first in Marengo county at Demopolis, the storm swept a path half a mile wide and leveled the homes of 50 Negro families before it lifted to roar northeastward along a 50-mile course.

It was in Helena the tornado spent its destructive fury, leveling more than two-thirds of the buildings and leaving many of the 700 inhabitants without shelter and with only the clothing they wore, as the twister lifted their homes from over their heads.

St. Mission Will Occupy Former YWCA Site

St. Simon's Episcopal Mission, formerly located at 950 Fourteenth St. Place, has purchased the property of the Blue Triangle Y. W. C. A. at 1227 School Street and will occupy the building immediately.

The first service will be held Sunday, May 14th, beginning with Holy Communion at 8 A.M. At 11:00 o'clock will be morning prayer and sermon and at 12:00 o'clock church school.

The Rev. Roger E. Bunn is priest in charge.

Discrimination in Forestry Camps

Not Treated Same as White Recruits New York, May 12.—Discrimination against Negroes at the reforestation camp at Camp Dix, New Jersey, is charged by Clarence A. H. Abbott and 14 other men just sent back home by Captain Hibbard while in charge of the last Negro company of 40 men that arrived at the camp April 18.

Abbott stated the case of himself and companions as follows: "Everything went well until an additional white company arrived in camp April 25. We were then ordered out of our tents and housed in unsanitary barracks with three other Negro companies. The white workers slept in clean tents and got the best food, while Negro workers put up at the barracks with insufficient food."

It is the look of in for an epidemic. I don't believe weather is responsible. I've seen it before. I looked down at him and saw the stars that he so discards. I've seen it before. I've seen it before. I've seen it before.

Offers Resolutions For Fourteenth Amendment

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 12.—As a development from the Scottsboro and the Crawford cases, Representative Oscar DePriest, Republican of Illinois, offered in the house last Wednesday a resolution to amend the 14th amendment of the federal Constitution by giving to federal courts authority to order a change of venue whenever a defendant cannot get a fair trial in the locality of the crime on account of his race or color. The DePriest amendment would amend the 14th amendment by adding to the first section the following provision:

"To insure to all citizens the equal protection of the laws and a fair trial when charged with crime, the courts of the United States are hereby given jurisdiction to determine, on proper application of any defendant who is charged with crime, whether such defendant's constitutional rights to the equal protection of the laws and to a fair and impartial trial is prejudiced by considerations of race, color or creed, or any other condition to the disadvantage of such defendant, and the said United States court shall have power, subject to the right of appeal as in other cases, to transfer the trial of such case to such other jurisdiction as in the judgment of the court will insure a fair and impartial trial."

Judge Lowell

Before offering his resolution, Mr. DePriest discussed the Scottsboro, the Crawford and the Massie cases.

With reference to the Crawford case, he said Federal Judge James A. Lowell had freed George Crawford, wanted in Loudoun county, Virginia, on a charge of first degree murder, without regard to his guilt or innocence, on the question as to whether or not he had been indicted by a legally drawn grand jury.

He challenged any member of congress from Virginia to say that any colored person had sat on a jury in that state in the last 25 years.

Scottsboro Case

He added that he did not know anything about the guilt or innocence of Crawford. "If he is guilty, he should be punished," he declared, "but for God's sake indict him with a legally drawn grand jury."

With respect to the Scottsboro case he said that "to execute boys on the discredited evidence of a woman of Victoria Price's character, and following a trial in which racial discrimination seemed to operate in the jury panel, would be unthinkable."

Bill Robinson at Orpheum Theatre Saturday, May 27

The one and only Bill Robinson—the of the magic feet—is just as well known in musical comedy as he is in vaudeville. He has topped the biggest of bills and he has starred in "Blackbirds" and "Brown Buddies." Now he combines the two by bringing a full-fledged colored revue called "Goin' to Town" to the Orpheum Theatre here on Saturday, May 25, for a four-day run.

"Goin' to Town"

With a company of colored singers, dancers and comedians "The Dancing Master" presents the snappiest, speediest, top-notch entertainment of a career, notable for outstanding achievement in the theatre. "Goin' to Town" is a series of ensemble numbers, specialties and comedy scenes. As a tap dancer "Bill Robinson stands supreme."

Sepia Artists

Bill Robinson's company includes such well known sepia artists as Ada Brown, Swan and Lee, Pearl Baine, Jimmy Baskette, Harry Swanagan, Shorty and Gay, Lindy Hoppers, "The Brown Buddies" Chorus and Russell Wooding's Choir, many of whom were with him in either "Blackbirds" or "Brown Buddies" and some with both shows.

Famous Stair Dance

"Goin' to Town" is in eleven scenes and besides Bill Robinson's famous stair dance, includes many notable items such as "Voodoo" and "Breaking Out" by Swan and Lee, Jimmy Baskette and Company, comedy scenes, specialties by principals and chorus ensembles. Even without the inimitable Bill Robinson, "Goin' to Town" would be a great show; with him it is a theatrical event.

Des Moines Group Holds Big Scottsboro Meeting

A resolution directed to the United States Supreme court urging a change of venue from Decatur, Ala., to Birmingham, Ala., for the remaining Scottsboro trials was adopted at a local mass meeting held Sunday afternoon at the Corinthian Baptist church. More than 500 people attended, according to Rev. G. W. Robinson, pastor.

Helen DeMark, national organizer of the International Labor Defense, was main speaker, who also answered questions concerning the case. E. R. Larson also spoke of the cases and its defense. J. B. Morris, attorney, and one of the speakers, chose a committee to draft the resolutions to be sent to President Roosevelt, Judge Jas. E. Horton of Decatur, and Gov. Ben Miller of Alabama, at Montgomery, Ala. The committee consisted of J. G. Brown, attorneys S. Joe Brown and Chas. P. Howard, E. R. Larson, Miss DeMark and A. A. Alexander, president of the local N. A. A. C. P.

The text reads as follows: 1. Change of Venue to Birmingham, 2. Postpone

50c

Society and Clubs = Churches, News, Features

Beatrice Alexander Society Editor

Des Moines Residents Attend Spring Formal

Among those who attended the Spring Formal parties at Iowa City, given by the Kappa Alpha Psi and Alpha Phi Alpha fraternities, Saturday evening, May 6, were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Oval Carter and daughter, Frances; Dr. and Mrs. E. Thomas Seales, Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Ritchey, the Misses Lucille Baker, Marguerite Esters, Lucille Benning, Anna Wilson, Gwendolyn Wilson, Mercedes De Van, and Doris Bailey, Mrs. Mae Fride and Messrs. East and Everett Newcomb. The Joy Generators furnished the music for the Kappa party.

Inez Stevens Returns To Hannibal, Mo.

Miss Inez Stevens left last week for her home in Hannibal, Mo., to spend the summer. She is well known as a soprano soloist and has become very outstanding with her many appearances here.

While there Miss Stevens will take further studies under Mrs. Floyd King, who was her first music instructor.

Church Club to Give Program Thursday

The A. Ross Brent Club of the Maple Street Baptist Church is sponsoring the Scarf Fantastic, Thursday evening, May 18, at the church. The following will appear on the program: Mildred Williams, Gertrude Harris, Eula Mae Cooper, Mammie Childs, Clara Webb, Mrs. Lenora Frye, and Mrs. Gertrude Brown.

"Daughter of an Outcast" To Be Presented

The Negro Community Players will present a four act drama, "The Daughter of an Outcast," on Thursday, May 25, at the Jewish Community Center. Two prizes will be awarded for lucky numbers.

Mrs. Todd Compliments Jessie Roberts

Mrs. Roy Todd, 1425 11th St., was hostess to a few friends at a luncheon, Tuesday, May 9, in honor of Mrs. Jessie Roberts who is leaving the city to make her home in Kansas City, Missouri. The color scheme of pink and white was artistically carried out in the table decorations and menu. Those who shared the courtesy were: Mesdames H. Dudley, Wm. Neal, Arthur Crowder, Miss Sarah Wells and the guest of honor.

Lincoln Post At Knoxville

S. Joe Brown, Robt. T. Dacus and Emanuel Davis, Jr., of Lincoln Post and Frances Hall, Essie Davis, Sophia Nichols and Belle Dacus of Lincoln Post Auxiliary, attended the District Conference of the sixth district of the American Legion held in the U. S. Veterans' Hospital at Knoxville, last Thursday.

CORINTHIAN NEWS

By Adeline Wilson

Rev. G. W. Robinson preached the sermons at the morning and evening services. At 3:00 P. M. Sunday the wedding of Geraldine Hawkins and Norman Jackson was solemnized. Miss Beatrice Cassell was in charge of the program at B. Y. P. U.

The Des Moines Brotherhood Association, formerly the Pioneer Lodge No. 1 of Elks, will entertain their wives Sunday, May 14, from 4 to 6 at the Community Center.

Mrs. Clark Jones and daughter, Lavonne, have returned to their home in Chicago after several weeks visit with her sister, Mrs. Maurice Kelly.

The Regal Contract Bridge Club met at the Hotel La Marguerita with Mrs. Delza Hammit as hostess on Friday.

The E. E. M. Bible Class will meet next week with Mrs. Mayweather on 14th St. The lesson will be Matthew 13.

Baker Dixon of 2529 Easton Blvd., who was taken suddenly ill with pneumonia last Sunday, is improving at the Methodist hospital.

The T. O. B. Club met Saturday night, May 6, at the home of the president, Pauline Brown, 1054 Fifth Ave.

Junior Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Kelly of 1043 W. 17th St., wishes to thank his many friends for the kindness shown him during his recent illness.

The Worthy Matrons Club gave a dancing party at the Hotel La Marguerita, Wednesday evening, May 11. Dance music was furnished by Messrs. Kenneth Palmer, Clyde Collier and Harold Jackson.

The Jolly Twelve Club, met at the home of Mrs. D. Douglas on Ingersoll Ave., Thursday, April 27, and at the home of Mrs. Harry Hughes on 14th St., Thursday, May 11.

La Merced Club met at the Community Center Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Pearl Thompson as hostess.

The Mary Church Terrell Club met at the home of Mrs. Audra Alexander, 2901 Fifth Avenue, Monday evening.

The Roosevelt Club met at the Community Center Wednesday evening.

The Dilliantate Club met at the home of Mrs. Audra Alexander, 2901 Fifth Avenue, Tuesday evening.

BLUE TRIANGLE Y. W. C. A.

The religious education committee will sponsor a Mothers' Day vesper on Sunday, May 14, 4:30 P. M. The Book Lovers will entertain guests at a tea on Friday, May 19. Watch this paper next week for a story of the opening of the Y. W. C. A. in its new location on Sunday, May 21. At this time the public will be invited to see the entire building.

UNION BAPTIST

East Sixteenth and University Ave. Rev. Jordan W. Tutt, Pastor

Sunday school at 9:45. Hays Snyder, superintendent. Morning worship at 11:00. "The Beauty of Spiritual Mastery." The B. Y. P. U. meets at 6:00. Mrs. G. E. Henry, president. Evening worship at 7:45. Sermon title, "Folks Who Serve Their Age Well." Prayer service Wednesday evening at 7:30. In charge of the Mission circle, Mrs. F. M. Frye, president. Bible class Thursday evening at 8:00. Superintendents and teachers should join this class. A Straight Through the Bible Course, leading to a beautiful diploma. Rev. Tutt, instructor. Choir rehearsal Friday evening at 8:00. Mrs. Fannie Rice, president; Prof. Richard Oliver, director. Good music every Sunday evening.

LARGE CROWD WITNESSES T. O. B. FASHION REVUE

A large crowd witnessed the T. O. B. Fashion Revue Monday, May 8, at the Barn. Sixteen clubs of the city were represented in the revue; the participants were: Mae Mays, Elizabeth Hunley, Lucille Winston, Bessie Tate, Anna Wilson, Eunice Rhodes, Anna Mae Manuel, Helen Davis, Clara Johnson, Mable Timony, Margaret White, Lafayette Fowler, Jr.; Emery Wade, Joe Brooks, Zella Brown and Anna Mae Carter.

Prizes were awarded to Helen Davis, representing the Dreamland Night Club; Anna Mae Manuel, of the A. K. A. Sorority, and Emery Wade, of the Harlem Society. Music was furnished by the Joy Generators orchestra.

NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S SALE ON SPECIAL EXECUTION

District Court of Polk County, Iowa
STATE OF IOWA vs.
Polk County Metropolitan Life Insurance Company vs. Hanson-Elli Company, Incorporated; Eva G. Clark, D. L. Clark and Polk County, Iowa.

By virtue of a special execution to me directed, issued by the Clerk of the District Court of Polk County, Iowa, in favor of Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, and against Hanson-Elli Company, Incorporated, on a judgment rendered by said court on the 3rd day of May, A. D. 1933, wherein it was ordered, adjudged and decreed that the following described property be sold to satisfy said judgment to-wit:

The South Fifty (50) Feet, except the East Forty (40) Feet thereof, of Lot Twenty-one of the Official Plat of the West Three Hundred Ninety-eight (398) Feet of the Northeast Quarter (NE 1/4) of the Southwest Quarter (SW 1/4) of Section Six (6), Township Twenty-eight (28) North, Range Twenty-four (24) West of the Fifth P. M., now included in and forming a part of the City of Des Moines, Polk County, Iowa, and now known as Lot Twenty-six (26) of Sedore Place, an Official Plat in said City.

Now, therefore, public notice is hereby given that unless the said defendant appear at my office in Des Moines, on or before the 10th day of June, A. D. 1933, at ten o'clock A. M. of said day, at which time said above described property is hereby advertised to be sold, and pay off the amount of said execution, with interest and costs, I will sell said property, or sufficient thereof to satisfy said Execution, to the highest bidder, at the east front door of the Court House, in Des Moines, Iowa, for cash in hand to pay off said Execution.

C. F. KEELING,
Sheriff of Polk County, Iowa.
By R. L. HANSON, Deputy.
Sheriff's Office, Des Moines, Iowa.
Date of first publication May 12, 1933.
Published and printed by the Iowa Bystander.
Printer's Fee, $11.00.

To Whom Has He Given It?

How tuberculosis may invade a home household is shown in this illustration prepared by Dr. J. A. Myers, professor of preventive medicine, University of Minnesota, based on an actual case:

A—Father with serious tuberculosis, which he has had for about eleven years.
B—Young daughter, who died of tuberculosis several years ago.
C—Teen age daughter, now under treatment.
D—Another teen age daughter in a sanatorium.
E—Son, eleven years old, apparently well, but with signs of early tuberculosis.
F—Infant, not yet infected.

THE FIRST STEP — A SHORT SHORT STORY by O. Wendell Shaw

(Based by Negro Writers and Artists Guild)

A Murder, Then a First Step—In the Right Direction

Mrs. Zelma Holt, young, beautiful and flushed, nervously fingered a calendar on the wall behind the desk of Carlton Hayes, insurance executive, as she impatiently waited his arrival. His tardiness was already fifteen minutes beyond the hour they had set to meet.

Noticing the two past months had not been torn from the richly embossed calendar, she turned to an index ring around a certain date on the face of the calendar—month now before her. It was the day when she and Carlton Hayes, her lover, were to take off for a new and freer environment—a life in which they could level in their illicit affection without the ever-menacing danger of being interrupted by the husband and wife to which each of them were bound by documents on whose faces gleamed "the ebony" words, "Holy Matrimony."

In their present environment, they knew that sooner or later their affair would be known. They had gone on for over a year—these lonely trysts in his office, after hours. The week carrying the date she had marked on the calendar was finally here, and day after tomorrow was the day—the day when the two would start for the West and romantic happiness ever after; even though Hayes would be leaving a good position, a devoted wife and baby, and she a husband. War mattered all this to her? Were not there other things he could find to do out West? Hayes' big idea was to get away with the woman he loved. His wife had had a school teacher and she could begin teaching again, if she had to do it. He knew this. Too, she had a considerable bank account—sufficient to support her and the baby until she could secure a position. So much for that.

Hurrying up the stairs, Hayes prayed that Zelma would not be in his office waiting for him, for she was always so furious when she caught on him. Eyeing his watch he saw that he was already half an hour late. He lifted his key in the lock, she opened the door.

"My God!" she gasped, "guess you had to tuck the family in bed before getting away this time!"

"No, I didn't," he explained, "haven't been home. I ate dinner at Melton's with your husband."

"Carlton Hayes made an answer to think out a way of escape," she said, "but he's not here now. His heart pounded in his effort to get out of the door. He felt the shudders that raced over him as he gripped her hand. In the brief instant, she felt utterly alone and helpless—in a fleeting moment she hated him for his apparent coldness. Surely, a brave man would be braving about for a place to conceal and protect her, rather than standing there frozen in horrified silence, as though planning escape only for himself."

Hayes knew Ed Holt—knew that Ed Holt would kill—on the latter's serene face, but his wife's lover too. He knew that Ed Holt had killed, served his time, and would do so again. He knew that Holt was a gangster to whose wares the deadly crack of a gun was no more rare than music.

Ed Holt was now entering the building, which was unoccupied by tenants save for Hayes' office and the Nile Queen Beauty Salon, down the hall. Momentarily Holt would be in the hall, rapping at him and kissing her passionately. "Maybe I'd better hurry home," she said as she caught her breath and rearranged a few strands of glossy hair that his kisses had belted down in her ivory-brown face. You see, Holt probably be looking everywhere for me. I'd better go!"

With her powder puff, she dabbed her face and adjusted the snug sash on her head.

"Think we can still get away Thursday?" he asked as he released from another of his passionate embraces.

"Certainly, darling," she answered, "we must. Nothing to do but board a train. Why not?"

Her question was not answered. Glancing out the window, she saw a faint light of dawn. Catching their breath, they stepped back into the twilight shadows of the room.

"It's Ed!" she gasped. "He's waiting for me. He'll kill me if he finds me here alone with you!"

"Carlton Hayes made an answer to think out a way of escape," she said, "but he's not here now. His heart pounded in his effort to get out of the door. He felt the shudders that raced over him as he gripped her hand. In the brief instant, she felt utterly alone and helpless—in a fleeting moment she hated him for his apparent coldness. Surely, a brave man would be braving about for a place to conceal and protect her, rather than standing there frozen in horrified silence, as though planning escape only for himself."

Hayes knew Ed Holt—knew that Ed Holt would kill—on the latter's serene face, but his wife's lover too. He knew that Ed Holt had killed, served his time, and would do so again. He knew that Holt was a gangster to whose wares the deadly crack of a gun was no more rare than music.

Ed Holt was now entering the building, which was unoccupied by tenants save for Hayes' office and the Nile Queen Beauty Salon, down the hall. Momentarily Holt would be in the hall, rapping at him and kissing her passionately. "Maybe I'd better hurry home," she said as she caught her breath and rearranged a few strands of glossy hair that his kisses had belted down in her ivory-brown face. You see, Holt probably be looking everywhere for me. I'd better go!"

With her powder puff, she dabbed her face and adjusted the snug sash on her head.

"Think we can still get away Thursday?" he asked as he released from another of his passionate embraces.

"Certainly, darling," she answered, "we must. Nothing to do but board a train. Why not?"

Her question was not answered. Glancing out the window, she saw a faint light of dawn. Catching their breath, they stepped back into the twilight shadows of the room.

"It's Ed!" she gasped. "He's waiting for me. He'll kill me if he finds me here alone with you!"

"Carlton Hayes made an answer to think out a way of escape," she said, "but he's not here now. His heart pounded in his effort to get out of the door. He felt the shudders that raced over him as he gripped her hand. In the brief instant, she felt utterly alone and helpless—in a fleeting moment she hated him for his apparent coldness. Surely, a brave man would be braving about for a place to conceal and protect her, rather than standing there frozen in horrified silence, as though planning escape only for himself."

Hayes knew Ed Holt—knew that Ed Holt would kill—on the latter's serene face, but his wife's lover too. He knew that Ed Holt had killed, served his time, and would do so again. He knew that Holt was a gangster to whose wares the deadly crack of a gun was no more rare than music.

Ed Holt was now entering the building, which was unoccupied by tenants save for Hayes' office and the Nile Queen Beauty Salon, down the hall. Momentarily Holt would be in the hall, rapping at him and kissing her passionately. "Maybe I'd better hurry home," she said as she caught her breath and rearranged a few strands of glossy hair that his kisses had belted down in her ivory-brown face. You see, Holt probably be looking everywhere for me. I'd better go!"

With her powder puff, she dabbed her face and adjusted the snug sash on her head.

"Think we can still get away Thursday?" he asked as he released from another of his passionate embraces.

"Certainly, darling," she answered, "we must. Nothing to do but board a train. Why not?"

Her question was not answered. Glancing out the window, she saw a faint light of dawn. Catching their breath, they stepped back into the twilight shadows of the room.

"It's Ed!" she gasped. "He's waiting for me. He'll kill me if he finds me here alone with you!"

"Carlton Hayes made an answer to think out a way of escape," she said, "but he's not here now. His heart pounded in his effort to get out of the door. He felt the shudders that raced over him as he gripped her hand. In the brief instant, she felt utterly alone and helpless—in a fleeting moment she hated him for his apparent coldness. Surely, a brave man would be braving about for a place to conceal and protect her, rather than standing there frozen in horrified silence, as though planning escape only for himself."

Hayes knew Ed Holt—knew that Ed Holt would kill—on the latter's serene face, but his wife's lover too. He knew that Ed Holt had killed, served his time, and would do so again. He knew that Holt was a gangster to whose wares the deadly crack of a gun was no more rare than music.

Ed Holt was now entering the building, which was unoccupied by tenants save for Hayes' office and the Nile Queen Beauty Salon, down the hall. Momentarily Holt would be in the hall, rapping at him and kissing her passionately. "Maybe I'd better hurry home," she said as she caught her breath and rearranged a few strands of glossy hair that his kisses had belted down in her ivory-brown face. You see, Holt probably be looking everywhere for me. I'd better go!"

With her powder puff, she dabbed her face and adjusted the snug sash on her head.

"Think we can still get away Thursday?" he asked as he released from another of his passionate embraces.

"Certainly, darling," she answered, "we must. Nothing to do but board a train. Why not?"

Her question was not answered. Glancing out the window, she saw a faint light of dawn. Catching their breath, they stepped back into the twilight shadows of the room.

"It's Ed!" she gasped. "He's waiting for me. He'll kill me if he finds me here alone with you!"

"Carlton Hayes made an answer to think out a way of escape," she said, "but he's not here now. His heart pounded in his effort to get out of the door. He felt the shudders that raced over him as he gripped her hand. In the brief instant, she felt utterly alone and helpless—in a fleeting moment she hated him for his apparent coldness. Surely, a brave man would be braving about for a place to conceal and protect her, rather than standing there frozen in horrified silence, as though planning escape only for himself."

Hayes knew Ed Holt—knew that Ed Holt would kill—on the latter's serene face, but his wife's lover too. He knew that Ed Holt had killed, served his time, and would do so again. He knew that Holt was a gangster to whose wares the deadly crack of a gun was no more rare than music.

Ed Holt was now entering the building, which was unoccupied by tenants save for Hayes' office and the Nile Queen Beauty Salon, down the hall. Momentarily Holt would be in the hall, rapping at him and kissing her passionately. "Maybe I'd better hurry home," she said as she caught her breath and rearranged a few strands of glossy hair that his kisses had belted down in her ivory-brown face. You see, Holt probably be looking everywhere for me. I'd better go!"

With her powder puff, she dabbed her face and adjusted the snug sash on her head.

"Think we can still get away Thursday?" he asked as he released from another of his passionate embraces.

"Certainly, darling," she answered, "we must. Nothing to do but board a train. Why not?"

Her question was not answered. Glancing out the window, she saw a faint light of dawn. Catching their breath, they stepped back into the twilight shadows of the room.

"It's Ed!" she gasped. "He's waiting for me. He'll kill me if he finds me here alone with you!"

"Carlton Hayes made an answer to think out a way of escape," she said, "but he's not here now. His heart pounded in his effort to get out of the door. He felt the shudders that raced over him as he gripped her hand. In the brief instant, she felt utterly alone and helpless—in a fleeting moment she hated him for his apparent coldness. Surely, a brave man would be braving about for a place to conceal and protect her, rather than standing there frozen in horrified silence, as though planning escape only for himself."

Hayes knew Ed Holt—knew that Ed Holt would kill—on the latter's serene face, but his wife's lover too. He knew that Ed Holt had killed, served his time, and would do so again. He knew that Holt was a gangster to whose wares the deadly crack of a gun was no more rare than music.

Ed Holt was now entering the building, which was unoccupied by tenants save for Hayes' office and the Nile Queen Beauty Salon, down the hall. Momentarily Holt would be in the hall, rapping at him and kissing her passionately. "Maybe I'd better hurry home," she said as she caught her breath and rearranged a few strands of glossy hair that his kisses had belted down in her ivory-brown face. You see, Holt probably be looking everywhere for me. I'd better go!"

With her powder puff, she dabbed her face and adjusted the snug sash on her head.

"Think we can still get away Thursday?" he asked as he released from another of his passionate embraces.

"Certainly, darling," she answered, "we must. Nothing to do but board a train. Why not?"

Her question was not answered. Glancing out the window, she saw a faint light of dawn. Catching their breath, they stepped back into the twilight shadows of the room.

"It's Ed!" she gasped. "He's waiting for me. He'll kill me if he finds me here alone with you!"

"Carlton Hayes made an answer to think out a way of escape," she said, "but he's not here now. His heart pounded in his effort to get out of the door. He felt the shudders that raced over him as he gripped her hand. In the brief instant, she felt utterly alone and helpless—in a fleeting moment she hated him for his apparent coldness. Surely, a brave man would be braving about for a place to conceal and protect her, rather than standing there frozen in horrified silence, as though planning escape only for himself."

Hayes knew Ed Holt—knew that Ed Holt would kill—on the latter's serene face, but his wife's lover too. He knew that Ed Holt had killed, served his time, and would do so again. He knew that Holt was a gangster to whose wares the deadly crack of a gun was no more rare than music.

Ed Holt was now entering the building, which was unoccupied by tenants save for Hayes' office and the Nile Queen Beauty Salon, down the hall. Momentarily Holt would be in the hall, rapping at him and kissing her passionately. "Maybe I'd better hurry home," she said as she caught her breath and rearranged a few strands of glossy hair that his kisses had belted down in her ivory-brown face. You see, Holt probably be looking everywhere for me. I'd better go!"

With her powder puff, she dabbed her face and adjusted the snug sash on her head.

"Think we can still get away Thursday?" he asked as he released from another of his passionate embraces.

"Certainly, darling," she answered, "we must. Nothing to do but board a train. Why not?"

Her question was not answered. Glancing out the window, she saw a faint light of dawn. Catching their breath, they stepped back into the twilight shadows of the room.

"It's Ed!" she gasped. "He's waiting for me. He'll kill me if he finds me here alone with you!"

"Carlton Hayes made an answer to think out a way of escape," she said, "but he's not here now. His heart pounded in his effort to get out of the door. He felt the shudders that raced over him as he gripped her hand. In the brief instant, she felt utterly alone and helpless—in a fleeting moment she hated him for his apparent coldness. Surely, a brave man would be braving about for a place to conceal and protect her, rather than standing there frozen in horrified silence, as though planning escape only for himself."

Hayes knew Ed Holt—knew that Ed Holt would kill—on the latter's serene face, but his wife's lover too. He knew that Ed Holt had killed, served his time, and would do so again. He knew that Holt was a gangster to whose wares the deadly crack of a gun was no more rare than music.

Ed Holt was now entering the building, which was unoccupied by tenants save for Hayes' office and the Nile Queen Beauty Salon, down the hall. Momentarily Holt would be in the hall, rapping at

"REVEALING"
YOUR PAST, PRESENT
and FUTURE
BY ABBE WALLACE
Largest mentalist on the American Stage

Ed Holt would kill—on the latter's serene face, but his wife's lover too. He knew that Ed Holt had killed, served his time, and would do so again. He knew that Holt was a gangster to whose wares the deadly crack of a gun was no more rare than music.

Ed Holt was now entering the building, which was unoccupied by tenants save for Hayes' office and the Nile Queen Beauty Salon, down the hall. Momentarily Holt would be in the hall, rapping at

Ed Holt would kill—on the latter's serene face, but his wife's lover too. He knew that Ed Holt had killed, served his time, and would do so again. He knew that Holt was a gangster to whose wares the deadly crack of a gun was no more rare than music.

Ed Holt was now entering the building, which was unoccupied by tenants save for Hayes' office and the Nile Queen Beauty Salon, down the hall. Momentarily Holt would be in the hall, rapping at

Ed Holt would kill—on the latter's serene face, but his wife's lover too. He knew that Ed Holt had killed, served his time, and would do so again. He knew that Holt was a gangster to whose wares the deadly crack of a gun was no more rare than music.

Ed Holt was now entering the building, which was unoccupied by tenants save for Hayes' office and the Nile Queen Beauty Salon, down the hall. Momentarily Holt would be in the hall, rapping at

Ed Holt would kill—on the latter's serene face, but his wife's lover too. He knew that Ed Holt had killed, served his time, and would do so again. He knew that Holt was a gangster to whose wares the deadly crack of a gun was no more rare than music.

Ed Holt was now entering the building, which was unoccupied by tenants save for Hayes' office and the Nile Queen Beauty Salon, down the hall. Momentarily Holt would be in the hall, rapping at

B. H. S.—I am going with a man who seems to take a lot of me. He promised to take a piece of property to me. Will I get it and how soon?

Ans. You will get it properly but this will be some time. I advise you to keep after this fellow and make him live up to his promises. After all that you have done for him, you deserve this property.

A. C. L.—Is it all right for me to send for another Reading? I told me came true. I would like to send for another Reading and three more free questions, which are answered privately. Can I send you another quarter or is it against the rules?

Ans. It's perfectly alright. You can send for as many Readings as you like. All questions will be answered privately by return mail.

L. A. L.—My aunt died two years ago. She had a huge sum of money. Is the money in a bank?

Ans. Your aunt's fortune was lost through an unwise investment. She would have been a pauper, had she lived.

F. K. W.—I am a college girl without mother or father, staying in the school for vocational training where I have won a scholarship for four years. I don't have any clothes, hardly a decent dress. Am I ever going to have any and is there any good in me?

Ans. There are dozens of different ways whereby you can earn the necessary pin money to buy decent clothes. You can pick extra change up by coaching other students sewing, dressing hair or some other little tasks around the campus. I suggest that you gain the confidence of one of your instructors. Your education will make you a real success, stick to it.

W. L. L.—I have written to the girl I think I love and told her I would send her money to come to me in August. Do you think she will make me a real wife and will another man be coming with her until I come back from camp?

Ans. You won't have the necessary "bucks" to send for your sweetheart in August, so put this idea out of your mind. Your article can send for as many Readings as you like. All questions will be answered privately by return mail.

Ed Holt would kill—on the latter's serene face, but his wife's lover too. He knew that Ed Holt had killed, served his time, and would do so again. He knew that Holt was a gangster to whose wares the deadly crack of a gun was no more rare than music.

Ed Holt was now entering the building, which was unoccupied by tenants save for Hayes' office and the Nile Queen Beauty Salon, down the hall. Momentarily Holt would be in the hall, rapping at

Ed Holt would kill—on the latter's serene face, but his wife's lover too. He knew that Ed Holt had killed, served his time, and would do so again. He knew that Holt was a gangster to whose wares the deadly crack of a gun was no more rare than music.

Ed Holt was now entering the building, which was unoccupied by tenants save for Hayes' office and the Nile Queen Beauty Salon, down the hall. Momentarily Holt would be in the hall, rapping at

Ed Holt would kill—on the latter's serene face, but his wife's lover too. He knew that Ed Holt had killed, served his time, and would do so again. He knew that Holt was a gangster to whose wares the deadly crack of a gun was no more rare than music.

Ed Holt was now entering the building, which was unoccupied by tenants save for Hayes' office and the Nile Queen Beauty Salon, down the hall. Momentarily Holt would be in the hall, rapping at

Ed Holt would kill—on the latter's serene face, but his wife's lover too. He knew that Ed Holt had killed, served his time, and would do so again. He knew that Holt was a gangster to whose wares the deadly crack of a gun was no more rare than music.

Ed Holt was now entering the building, which was unoccupied by tenants save for Hayes' office and the Nile Queen Beauty Salon, down the hall. Momentarily Holt would be in the hall, rapping at

Ed Holt would kill—on the latter's serene face, but his wife's lover too. He knew that Ed Holt had killed, served his time, and would do so again. He knew that Holt was a gangster to whose wares the deadly crack of a gun was no more rare than music.

Ed Holt was now entering the building, which was unoccupied by tenants save for Hayes' office and the Nile Queen Beauty Salon, down the hall. Momentarily Holt would be in the hall, rapping at

Ed Holt would kill—on the latter's serene face, but his wife's lover too. He knew that Ed Holt had killed, served his time, and would do so again. He knew that Holt was a gangster to whose wares the deadly crack of a gun was no more rare than music.

Ed Holt was now entering the building, which was unoccupied by tenants save for Hayes' office and the Nile Queen Beauty Salon, down the hall. Momentarily Holt would be in the hall, rapping at

Ed Holt would kill—on the latter's serene face, but his wife's lover too. He knew that Ed Holt had killed, served his time, and would do so again. He knew that Holt was a gangster to whose wares the deadly crack of a gun was no more rare than music.

Ed Holt was now entering the building, which was unoccupied by tenants save for Hayes' office and the Nile Queen Beauty Salon, down the hall. Momentarily Holt would be in the hall, rapping at

Ed Holt would kill—on the latter's serene face, but his wife's lover too. He knew that Ed Holt had killed, served his time, and would do so again. He knew that Holt was a gangster to whose wares the deadly crack of a gun was no more rare than music.

Ed Holt was now entering the building, which was unoccupied by tenants save for Hayes' office and the Nile Queen Beauty Salon, down the hall. Momentarily Holt would be in the hall, rapping at

Ed Holt would kill—on the latter's serene face, but his wife's lover too. He knew that Ed Holt had killed, served his time, and would do so again. He knew that Holt was a gangster to whose wares the deadly crack of a gun was no more rare than music.

Ed Holt was now entering the building, which was unoccupied by tenants save for Hayes' office and the Nile Queen Beauty Salon, down the hall. Momentarily Holt would be in the hall, rapping at

Ed Holt would kill—on the latter's serene face, but his wife's lover too. He knew that Ed Holt had killed, served his time, and would do so again. He knew that Holt was a gangster to whose wares the deadly crack of a gun was no more rare than music.

Ed Holt was now entering the building, which was unoccupied by tenants save for Hayes' office and the Nile Queen Beauty Salon, down the hall. Momentarily Holt would be in the hall, rapping at

Ed Holt would kill—on the latter's serene face, but his wife's lover too. He knew that Ed Holt had killed, served his time, and would do so again. He knew that Holt was a gangster to whose wares the deadly crack of a gun was no more rare than music.

Ed Holt was now entering the building, which was unoccupied by tenants save for Hayes' office and the Nile Queen Beauty Salon, down the hall. Momentarily Holt would be in the hall, rapping at

Ed Holt would kill—on the latter's serene face, but his wife's lover too. He knew that Ed Holt had killed, served his time, and would do so again. He knew that Holt was a gangster to whose wares the deadly crack of a gun was no more rare than music.

Ed Holt was now entering the building, which was unoccupied by tenants save for Hayes' office and the Nile Queen Beauty Salon, down the hall. Momentarily Holt would be in the hall, rapping at

Ed Holt would kill—on the latter's serene face, but his wife's lover too. He knew that Ed Holt had killed, served his time, and would do so again. He knew that Holt was a gangster to whose wares the deadly crack of a gun was no more rare than music.

Ed Holt was now entering the building, which was unoccupied by tenants save for Hayes' office and the Nile Queen Beauty Salon, down the hall. Momentarily Holt would be in the hall, rapping at

Ed Holt would kill—on the latter's serene face, but his wife's lover too. He knew that Ed Holt had killed, served his time, and would do so again. He knew that Holt was a gangster to whose wares the deadly crack of a gun was no more rare than music.

Ed Holt was now entering the building, which was unoccupied by tenants save for Hayes' office and the Nile Queen Beauty Salon, down the hall. Momentarily Holt would be in the hall, rapping at

ST. JAMES' CHOCOLATE
AMONG HAIR DRESSINGS

Choose your hair dressing with care. It is always a LEADER. A first class shampoo in both dress. BLACK and WHITE Hair Dressing is equally perfumed, finest quality honey can buy.

BLACK and WHITE HAIR DRESSING

It keeps your hair soft and smooth. It is equally perfumed, finest quality honey can buy.

GROW Long Hair

Don't let short, straggly hair make you unhappy. Get yourself a can of Black and White Hair Grower and really GROW hair. It's Nature by stimulating the scalp glands, bringing an abundance of soft, luxuriant hair.

PROTECT Your Hair

If you are careless and let hot iron rods comb scorch and burn your hair, you can expect to be at the hairdresser's with Black and White Hair Grower. That's what is used in America's finest beauty parlors. Black and White Hair Dressing also gives your hair a gorgeous gloss and sheen, keeps it soft and attractive. Large can 25c.

Cal

Insurance On All

3181

CAN RIDE

Look at the picture. It shows a man riding a horse. The man is wearing a hat and a coat. The horse is galloping. The background is a landscape with trees and a fence.

"This Medicine Helps Me!"

98 Out of 100 Women Report Benefit After Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—Read These Letters from Grateful Users

MRS. TEMPA FOSTER: "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is all you claim it to be. I was weak and rundown from my housework and farmwork. I saw the Compound advertised and heard people talking about it. Since I took it I feel like a new person. It helped me in every way, nerves, strength and appetite. I am recommending it to everyone."—Mrs. Tempa Foster, Thomasville, Alabama.

MRS. ELLA M. ROBERTS: "From a girl I suffered with severe headaches and vomiting. Three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me entirely well. I am now fifty years old. Recently I had a nervous breakdown from overwork so I am taking the Compound again. It helps me do my work and drives away that tired feeling."—Mrs. Ella M. Roberts, 1900 N. Taylor Ave., St. Louis, Mo.

ANNIE MAE BEHN: "I was so weak I could not work any length of time without panting for breath. I saw the Vegetable Compound advertised in a booklet. It has made me strong. My nerves are perfect and I sleep all night. I never know what it is to be tired, thanks to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I recommend it every day, any time, anywhere."—Annie Mae Behn, Lake Butler, Florida.

If you are nervous, tired, weak, rundown or blue, get a bottle of this medicine today! It tones up the whole system... quiets quivering nerves... helps you to eat and sleep better... gives you more pep and energy... makes trying days endurable. Sold at all drug stores.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

It helps you do your work and drives away that tired feeling. It helps you to eat and sleep better. It gives you more pep and energy. It makes trying days endurable. Sold at all drug stores.

Ed Holt would kill—on the latter's serene face, but his wife's lover too. He knew that Ed Holt had killed, served his time, and would do so again. He knew that Holt was a gangster to whose wares the deadly crack of a gun was no more rare than music.

Ed Holt was now entering the building, which was unoccupied by tenants save for Hayes' office and the Nile Queen Beauty Salon, down the hall. Momentarily Holt would be in the hall, rapping at

IOWA BYSTANDER

Beauty Hints

By "Bebe"
To relax that tired, strained look about the eyes, try this simple remedy. Have a basin of hot salt water and some cotton pads. Lie down in a dark room and squeeze most of the water from the pads and lay over the eyes, changing when they cool, for 15 minutes. Then cold cream the eyes and follow with skin tonic. Your eyes will look fresh and lovely and perfectly rested. Try this the next time your eyes show fatigue.

PALMISTRY

By Luther H. S. Browne
Being very frank and sympathetic with your subjects be they skeptical and many times rude is not a very easy matter but all professions find this, I, for one, know that any person or thing that annoys you rules you have power over you and weakens the interest that you profess to take. To adapt good manners is not always a success but it is the most popular way to hold the key of the mysteries of life the secret and eventual future of the person to whom you talk some- times these people come to you and other times you are thrown among them. I would much rather deal with the man who accidentally met me than the smart aleck who wishes to show off before his friends and often bring them along to purposely embarrass you. In the 21st Psalm we find this quotation, "Thine hand shall find out all thine enemies, thine right hand shall find out those that hate thee." This is better explained by the song writer who said, "Gee but ain't it great to meet a friend from your home town when he takes you by the hand there's a feeling that you understand." Even left-handed people shake hands with the right hand, find this out for yourself. How many left-handed friends have you and how do they greet you in church or any place. I say, the right one will most always send that thrill through the heart that nothing else will.

Why not watch the hands of the people who shake hands with you and also watch their actions when they do it. The man or woman who barely grasps your hand by the tips of the fingers and give it a short quick shake is just that kind of friend, but the person who grasps your hand and lets the electric flash shoot through you while they say, "How are you, where have you been," and the person who takes your hand and covers it walks away with it and tells you funny stories while they hold it, well, such friendship is rarely any good when put to the test.

WILLIS WARD STARS AS MICHIGAN WINS

ANN ARBOR, MICH. — Michigan swamped Michigan Normal in a dual-track and field meet Tuesday, 85 to 41. The Wolverines took 11 first places and scored slams in three events.

Willis Ward, Michigan Negro star, won the 100-yard dash and high jump and took seconds in the high hurdles and broad jump for 16 points.

FOR COLDS, COUGHS

Sore throat, muscular rheumatic aches & pains, apply Musterole, the "counter-irritant"

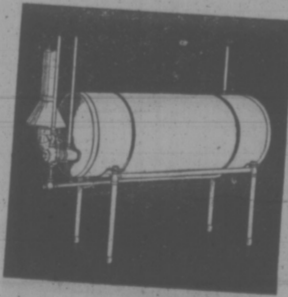

Hot water

... on tap for hurry-up laundering

Douse them under the hot soapy suds. Wash them clean! Cleanliness promotes health, wealth and happiness. Wash them often! But don't work yourself to death. Let hot water do most of the work. Keep it on tap 24 hours a day.

Install a Leland Efficiency Water Heater and save time and labor. The operating cost is very low. Heats twenty gallons of water for about 4 cents.

The cost is $49.50 cash—or a small payment—the balance in small monthly payments. Phone our Water Heater department now for 30 day's Free Trial.

Approved Appliances such as advertised by this company are also sold on favorable terms by other Reliable Dealers in This Community.

Des Moines Gas Co.
312 Sixth Ave. Phone 4-2131.

CAN'T YOU WIN THE MAN YOU WANT?
Blame GRAY FADED HAIR

Lustrous jet black hair attracts men—keeps you youthful and popular

You may fool yourself into believing that streaked, faded hair makes no difference—but you can't fool the man you want. Faded hair is a handicap. Why risk unhappiness when it is so easy to have beautiful lustrous black hair again!

A $1.25 bottle of Code roy's L'arieuse French Hair Coloring will bring back that charming jet black luster in just a few minutes. Don't hesitate—be prepared for romance—live—be youthful!

GODEFROY'S L'ARIEUSE French HAIR Coloring
3506 OLIVE STREET · ST. LOUIS, MO.

WARNING!
Avoid new, strange, unproven hair colorings. For over 40 years Godefroy's L'arieuse Hair Coloring has been used with perfect results by thousands of people, especially in religious, political and social life.

IOWA BYSTANDER

Beauty Hints

By "Bebe"
To relax that tired, strained look about the eyes, try this simple remedy. Have a basin of hot salt water and some cotton pads. Lie down in a dark room and squeeze most of the water from the pads and lay over the eyes, changing when they cool, for 15 minutes. Then cold cream the eyes and follow with skin tonic. Your eyes will look fresh and lovely and perfectly rested. Try this the next time your eyes show fatigue.

PALMISTRY

By Luther H. S. Browne
Being very frank and sympathetic with your subjects be they skeptical and many times rude is not a very easy matter but all professions find this, I, for one, know that any person or thing that annoys you rules you have power over you and weakens the interest that you profess to take. To adapt good manners is not always a success but it is the most popular way to hold the key of the mysteries of life the secret and eventful future of the person to whom you talk sometimes these people come to you and other times you are thrown among them. I would much rather deal with the man who accidentally met me than the smart aleck who wishes to show off before his friends and often bring them along to purposely embarrass you. In the 21st Psalm we find this quotation, "Thine hand shall find out all thine enemies, thine right hand shall find out those that hate thee." This is better explained by the song writer who said, "Gee but ain't it great to meet a friend from your home town when he takes you by the hand there's a feeling that you understand." Even left-handed people shake hands with the right hand, find this out for yourself. How many left-handed friends have you and how do they greet you in church or any place, I say the right one will most always send that thrill through the heart that nothing else will.

Why not watch the hands of the people who shake hands with you and also watch their actions when they do it. The man or woman who barely grasps your hand by the tips of the fingers and give it a short quick shake is just that kind of friend, but the person who grasps your hand and lets the electric flash shoot through you while they say, "How are you, where have you been," and the person who takes your hand and covers it walks away with it and tells you funny stories while they hold it, well, such friendship is rarely any good when put to the test.

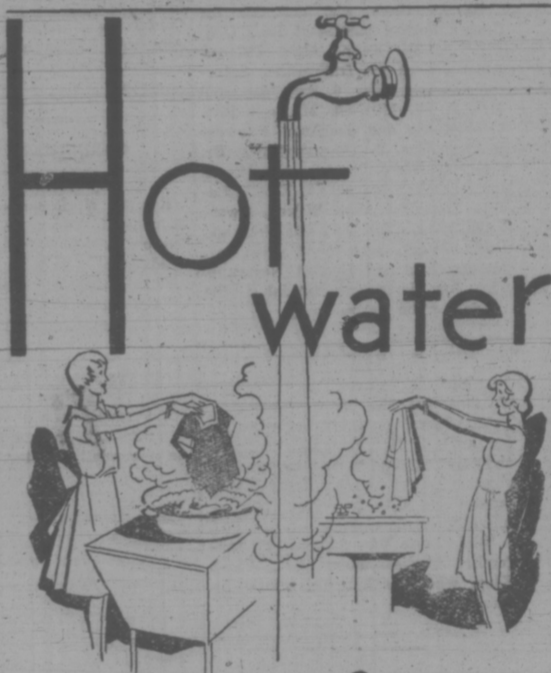

WILLIS WARD STARS AS MICHIGAN WINS

ANN ARBOR, MICH.—Michigan swamped Michigan Normal in a dual track and field meet Tuesday, 85 to 41. The Wolverines took 11 first places and scored slams in three events.

Willis Ward, Michigan Negro star, won the 100-yard dash and high jump and took seconds in the high hurdles and broad jump for 16 points.

For COLDS, COUGHS

Sore throat, muscular rheumatic aches & pains, apply Musterole, the "counter-irritant"

Hot water .. on tap for hurry-up laundering

Douse them under the hot soapy suds. Wash them clean! Cleanliness promotes health, wealth and happiness. Wash them often! But don't work yourself to death. Let hot water do most of the work. Keep it on tap 24 hours a day.

Install a Leland Efficiency Water Heater and save time and labor. The operating cost is very low. Heats twenty gallons of water for about 4 cents.

The cost is $49.50 cash—or a small payment—the balance in small monthly payments. Phone our Water Heater department now for 30 day's Free Trial.

Approved Appliances such as advertised by this company are also sold on favorable terms by other Reliable Dealers in This Community.

Des Moines Gas Co. 312 Sixth Ave. Phone 4-2131.

Lustrous jet black hair attracts men—keeps you youthful and popular

You may fool yourself into believing that streaked, faded hair makes no difference—but you can't fool the man you want. Faded hair is a handicap. Why risk unhappiness? ... when it is so easy to have beautiful lustrous black hair again!

A $1.25 bottle of Godefroy's L'arieuse French Hair Coloring will bring back that charming jet black luster in just a few minutes. Don't hesitate—be prepared for romance—live—be youthful!

GODEFROY'S L'ARIEUSE french HAIR Coloring 3506 OLIVE STREET - ST. LOUIS, MO.

WARNING! Avoid new strange or green hair colorings. For over 40 years Godefroy's L'arieuse Hair Coloring has been used with success, results by thousands of people. See how it helps you live in religious, social and social life.

HAS GO A

Decision Prever Says

CITY

OKLAHOMA (A.N.P.)—The order, appeared in his office, consent of N. consent of N. H. Governor Monday decli three black extending from Walnut street gress stood a nor's office w what he had "I have no have the pow do it," said G the only prot Attorney J. J. "Do you me Mofray, that drawn on this permanent li designating w live?" "Yes, where ter to live," M saying "It was an one of the con to the Govern out of pace" said Joseph, in patch reporter pened in the could not hold because there of the Negroes resent the rig "When we got introductions, conference. The any preliminary troduitory state map upon whi drawn lines. If the committee t the." "Dr. W. L. H. Attorney Josep Governor if the any opportunity expansion? Josep nor gave an indi Haywood, see then said to the wanted the gov members of the "yellow journal try to distort committee's pres nor's office."

"We want the a group of intel called on you Haywood stated. "I don't think about that. The fill all the tim Murray as sus Murray then p to the Negroes in sending for the taking a upon his guarantees of the tion. In addition to Joseph, members whose names con

"We want the a group of intel called on you Haywood stated. "I don't think about that. The fill all the tim Murray as sus Murray then p to the Negroes in sending for the taking a upon his guarantees of the tion. In addition to Joseph, members whose names con

"We want the a group of intel called on you Haywood stated. "I don't think about that. The fill all the tim Murray as sus Murray then p to the Negroes in sending for the taking a upon his guarantees of the tion. In addition to Joseph, members whose names con

In addition to Joseph, members whose names con

In addition to Joseph, members whose names con

In addition to Joseph, members whose names con

In addition to Joseph, members whose names con

In addition to Joseph, members whose names con

In addition to Joseph, members whose names con

In addition to Joseph, members whose names con

In addition to Joseph, members whose names con

In addition to Joseph, members whose names con

In addition to Joseph, members whose names con

In addition to Joseph, members whose names con

In addition to Joseph, members whose names con

In addition to Joseph, members whose names con

In addition to Joseph, members whose names con

In addition to Joseph, members whose names con

In addition to Joseph, members whose names con

In addition to Joseph, members whose names con

In addition to Joseph, members whose names con

In addition to Joseph, members whose names con

In addition to Joseph, members whose names con

In addition to Joseph, members whose names con

In addition to Joseph, members whose names con

In addition to Joseph, members whose names con

Editorials

The IOWA BYSTANDER

Published every Friday by The Iowa Bystander Publishing Company, Des Moines, Iowa. Office, 302-Chemical Building.
Entered at the postoffice of Des Moines, Iowa, in 1924, as second class matter.
James B. Morris, Editor
SUBSCRIPTION RATES
One Year $1.50
Six Months .75
All matter should be addressed to The Iowa Bystander Publishing Co., Des Moines, Iowa
Notify the office when you fail to get your paper.
Foreign Advertising Representative: W. B. ZIFF COMPANY, 608 So. Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill., 210 Walter Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., 551 Fifth Avenue, New York, N. Y.

DE PRIEST'S WARNING

Last week Representative Oscar De Priest delivered an address in the lower house of Congress in which he pointed out that large numbers of Negroes are joining the Communist movement. He cited a voluminous record of lynchings, disfranchisement and segregation as some of the causes as well as the fact that the radical groups are taking the Negro in on an absolutely equal basis.

Heretofore the Communist movement has made little headway among Negroes because of their radical methods; and because experience with other organizations has been that the Negro turned out to be the goat.

The depression has taught the poor white man the experiences Negroes have suffered for years. He now feels that if the Negro is not safe from social and economic destruction he is the next victim. He therefore finds himself willing to call the Negro in the struggle for the masses which heretofore meant white masses.

There are many instances where Negro leaders may without hesitation co-operate with these groups. The Scottsboro case is one in point. For after all there is a battle to be won and the personnel of the soldiers cannot be the issue. Representative De Priest states facts when he says Negroes are joining these radical groups in large numbers in protest of the treatment given in the past by the anti-radical groups.

DEMOCRATS ORGANIZE

The Democrats in Iowa have conducted unusual activities since January 1. Organization of permanent clubs have progressed to the point where they have taken over the Grant Club, formerly run by Republicans. Many men and women heretofore labeled Republicans are now staunch Democrats. They are building a substantial organization.

This means that the Republicans are going to find it more difficult to come back, and that they cannot expect to wait until the last minute, produce a weak group of managers and candidates and expect to win. The Democrats are making friends and are not going to be kicked out without a cause and a fight.

CHURCHES, CLUBS, LODGES

See Us For Your JOB PRINTING
Clean, Up-to-date, Modern Plant
Civic and Fraternal organizations are doubly benefitted when their job work and advertising are done here. Notices and attractive news items are published in several issues of the Bystander FREE OF CHARGE. (Ads Excepted).
Take advantage of this FREE PUBLICITY of your coming attractions, social affairs and programs which are read by nearly two thousand readers. The IOWA BYSTANDER serves local business establishments to the highest degree as their advertising and notices cover most of local territory in the city and all of the leading Iowa cities.
See Us For Your JOB PRINTING For Guaranteed, Satisfactory Work
Cards, Envelopes, Statements, Letterheads, Dodgers, Blotters, Tickets, Menus, Showcards, Streamers, Etc. Prices Sent Upon Request.

302 Chemical Building
Phone 3-2822
"THE ONLY NEGRO NEWSPAPER"

HEALTH TALKS

Dr. H. H. London
GOOD DIGESTION

Good digestion depends upon a healthy normal secretion from the stomach wall, a reasonable care in the taking of foods with some regard to an insufficient or to an over-supply of food, and to the condition of the other organs which play some part in the absorption and assimilation of these foods. An insufficient amount of food might give rise to an over-production of stomach secretion and too much food to an under-production or too little secretion for the amount of food although producing to its utmost.

A secretion deficient in some element making up its composition does sometimes occur when some other organ is not functioning properly. Foods which are deficient as to a variety where some element is lacking as a rule cause no immediate disturbance if the amount is normal but eventually show some gastric abnormality and always some change in the body as a whole. With a stomach at fault the intestines will also share somewhat in the changed condition and intestinal diseases are usually more difficult to cure than those of the stomach.

THE FARM BILL

Congress has passed the new farm relief bill and the President will sign it. Secretary Wallace who will be charged primarily with its execution has had a great deal to say about what the law should contain.

Fortunately for the farmers the law contains the three things of which they complained and which if embodied in legislation would place the farming business on a parity with industry. These provisions are (1) guarantee of the farmer of a price for his products equal to that received prior to the World War; (2) reduction of surplus crop by taking out of production some of the agricultural acreage—the government will rent this; (3) refinancing of mortgages at a cheaper interest rate.

Disregarding the fact that the farmer himself is greatly responsible for much of his mortgage difficulties, it is generally agreed that the three propositions strike at the real troubles. The law should be given a substantial trial and sympathetic administration by the officials.

OBITUARY

Henrietta Phelps was born in Hopkinsville, Ky., April 13, 1861, and died April 30, 1933. She was married to Willie Western in Hopkinsville, Ky., and to this union six children were born. She became a member of Virginia Street Baptist Church in 1888. After coming to Des Moines she joined Maple Street Baptist Church. She is survived by a daughter, Caldonia Williams, and three sons, Furst, Willie and Frank Western; three brothers, Frank Phelps of Louisville, Ky.; Charlie Bradley of St. Paul, Minn.; and Hugh Bradley; and three sisters, Mrs. Minerva Bradley of St.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends for the kindness shown during the illness and at the death of our loved one, Mrs. Henrietta Phelps Waters. We also wish to thank the friends for the beautiful floral displays, and the donation of cars, Rev. A. Ross Brent for his consoling remarks, and L. Fowler & Son for their efficient services.

Richard Waters, husband, and family.

OBITUARY

Thomas Garnette was born January 20, 1896, in Pemoroske, Ky., and died Saturday, April 29, 1933, at the age of 37 years. He was united in marriage to Daisy Kimbrough on December 6, 1924. He united with Maple Street Baptist Church in December, 1932. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Daisy Garnette; father, Gus Garnette; one brother, James Garnette; and two sisters, Mrs. Anna Garnette and Mrs. Fanny Small. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon, May 2, at 2 P. M. at Corinthian Baptist Church with Rev. Garrett officiating. Interment was in Glendale cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends for the kindness shown during the illness and at the time of the death of our loved one, Thomas Garnette. We also wish to thank the American Legion for their services and the firing squad of Fort Des Moines, the friends for the beautiful floral displays and the donation of cars; Rev. Garrett for his consoling remarks and L. Fowler & Son for their efficient services.

CROCKER 'Y' NEWS

Banquet and Election
The annual banquet and election of the Crocker Y. M. C. A. will be held at St. Paul A. M. E. Church Saturday evening, April 13, beginning at 7:00 P. M. T. M. Kelley, chairman of a special committee, is in charge of arrangements.

FORUM

The Sunday afternoon meetings of the Y's people's Forum were brought to a close for this season April 30. The last two Sundays were devoted to discussions on the liquor situation past and present. On April 23, Atty. S. Joe Brown traced "The Status of the Liquor Traffic" down to the present. Dr. Bradford gave the medical aspects of the liquor problem on the April 30th program, which was followed by a general discussion by the audience.

BASEBALL

The inclement weather of the past two weeks has retarded the playing of any of the first round games in the church baseball league to date. Every game to date has been called off due to wet grounds and cold weather. It was announced earlier, that six teams would comprise the league this year, but two of the aggregations decided that they did not want to play on the diamond that has been selected for this year. This will result in a healthier complexion being given the league, due to the weeding

OBITUARY

Henrietta Phelps was born in Hopkinsville, Ky., April 13, 1861, and died April 30, 1933. She was married to Willie Western in Hopkinsville, Ky., and to this union six children were born. She became a member of Virginia Street Baptist Church in 1888. After coming to Des Moines she joined Maple Street Baptist Church. She is survived by a daughter, Caldonia Williams, and three sons, Furst, Willie and Frank Western; three brothers, Frank Phelps of Louisville, Ky.; Charlie Bradley of St. Paul, Minn.; and Hugh Bradley; and three sisters, Mrs. Minerva Bradley of St.

Announcing the Opening of the FOX CLEANERS

Particular people will be pleased with the high quality work and service rendered at Foxes. We meet competition with better cleaning service.
FOUR STORES TO SERVE YOU
Suits Cleaned and Pressed 25c
Topcoats 40c
Any Ladies Dress 50c
Any Ladies Coat 50c
CASH and CARRY
We will gladly compare our cleaning quality with any in the city regardless of price. Try us, you will be pleased.
Fox Cleaners
4 STORES
604 GRAND EIBERTY BUILDING SEARS & ROEBUCK DEPARTMENT STORE
1439 GRAND DEPARTMENT STORE
1146 KEO WAY

STATE TROOPERS MAKE PRISONER LIE IN A CASKET WITH CORPSE

Trenton, N. J. (C. N. S.)—Five New Jersey State Troopers attached to the Salem barracks, are charged with using third degree methods on six Negro residents of Salem and Clayville whom they arrested but never served with warrants or brought before a magistrate for hearings.
One charge against the troopers is that in their efforts to get confessions from their prisoners, they caused Fisher to go to the morgue and lie in a coffin with a dead body and closed down the lid of the same.

DES MOINES PUBLISHER URGES INCREASED SUPPORT FOR N. A. A. C. P.

New York, May 12—Harvey A. Ingham, publisher of the Des Moines Register and Tribune, who was a charter member of the local N. A. A. C. P. 18 years ago and is still an active member, told Dean William Pickens that local supporters of the N. A. A. C. P. ought to give more in these critical times than ever before since the need for vigilance is so great.
Mr. Ingham, whose paper has been a fair and fearless spokesman for the rights of colored people, suited his action to his word by raising his annual contribution from $10 to $25.

Annual Crocker YMCA Meeting Saturday

The annual election of the Committee of Management of the Crocker Y. M. C. A. will follow the annual dinner which will be served in the dining room of the St. Paul A. M. E. Church, Saturday, May 13th.

All members and contributors, as well as supporters of the association are invited to attend the dinner and election, and review the work of the year during the past year. T. M. Kelley, chairman of the Social Committee, and Harrison Gould are in charge of arrangements.

METROPOLITAN LIFE ADMITS MAINTAINING SEPARATE OFFICE

New York, May 12—A separate office for colored policyholders in St. Louis, Mo., is maintained by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, it was admitted by K. C. Ringer, superintendent of agencies for the company at the home office here. The admission was in a reply to a letter from the N. A. A. C. P. Mr. Ringer did not answer the other question of the N. A. A. C. P. which asked whether the Metropolitan had a general policy of maintaining separate offices in all cities, but it is well known that in many cities separate jim crow offices are opened for "Negroes only." In Jersey City, N. J., a separate window is used for Negro customers.

Mr. Ringer excuses the separate office in St. Louis by saying it is in line with the company's aim to provide "easy and convenient arrangements for the transaction of business." The N. A. A. C. P. has been told that in many cities these jim crow offices, besides being insulting by their very existence, are anything but "easy and convenient" for colored customers.

Specific information on the location of these offices with an outline of their convenience or inconvenience should be sent to the N. A. A. C. P., 69 Fifth Avenue, New York, so that the matter can be taken up further with the company.

Sports

By Allen Ashby

In last week's issue was an interview with Willis Ward, of Michigan and Ralph Metcalfe, but these are private observations. So much has been written about Metcalfe, that our Negro population was inclined to overlook Ward. But this huge Wolverine made a tremendous impression on us. As one looks at Ward, at the ease and grace with which he handles himself, and as one surveys those huge hands, sloping shoulders of a boxer and powerful forearms, it isn't hard to realize why he is a good end and might make a better than ordinary halfback. Here is a man standing over six feet in height and weighing over two hundred pounds, possessing all the speed and co-ordination of a much smaller man in games where the chief requisite is a world of speed and fast starting ability. Add to these physical requirements, intelligence above the ordinary and a competitive spirit which is evident in those catlike eyes and square, determined jaws, and you have an athlete who we predict will be the talk of the middle west in football as well as track.

BLACK BARONS

After remaining undecided between the names of Dusty Rhodes Clowns, The Hawks and maybe some other name, the ball club run by Louis Branch finally bet upon the name Black Barons. Then, apparently pleased with their selection of a new name, the Barons went to De Soto and whaled the stuffing out of the club there. Allen pitched a good game and also hit well. They do say the great Jackson hit a ball or two also. Too bad we couldn't have seen it. The score? 11 to 1.
—And one other thing. A couple of the Barons grabbed this writer last week and informed him in quite terms that they were not going to skip around but intended to stick together and make a club. They demanded publication of this statement but said that it didn't include pitchers. The statement is published and we shall await results. It's a long time till September and habits of long year's practice are hard to break, boys. Can you do it?

Lee Kemp pitched a nice game for North High last Monday, fanning eleven Maxwell High batters and winning 9 to 5. He also did his share of hitting. Slee going, Lee.

THE OSKALOOSA MEET

Our boys did themselves right well at Oskaloosa last week. George Robinson collared the century dash in good time and ran third in the 220 behind Nance, a Cedar Rapids Negro. Leland Johnson got second in the shot put while Earl Miller of East missed a new broad jump record by a small margin, in winning this event. Emerson Redick tied for third in the high jump. Miller and Robinson are our bets to finish high in the state meet. They may not win the 100 or the broad jump, but we're backing them to finish in the money. Now we've fixed those boys out for our predictions have yet to come true.

LEAGUE BASEBALL AND DIAMOND BALL

The Sunday School League opened last Thursday with St. Paul and Corinthian playing to a tie, 3 to 3. Big Bunny Wilson hurled for the Methodists and when he was not hitting backstops players, the ground in front of the plate and various other objects nearby, was hard to hit. When he got that fast one over it simply whizzed by. Nobody could swing fast.

DR. C. R. BRADFORD

Physician and Surgeon
Cor. E. Fifth and Locust Sts.
404 E. Fifth St. 4-3627
Office hours: 10-12; 1-5; 7:30-8:30

Dr. J. Alvin Jefferson

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON
202 1/2 Seventh Street
4-8116
Office Hours: 1 to 5 P. M. 6 to 7 P. M.

DR. W. J. RITCHEY

DENTIST
HOURS 1-5 Phone 3-8411
Appointment Sundays-8-9
Office Over 517 Mathew Street

Gallaughier Pharmacy

1602 NINTH STREET
FREE DELIVERY 3-4017
FOR SALE
Acreage Prospects in Highland Acres, Orallabor Good Homes
CALL BYSTANDER OFFICE
PHONE 3-2822 or 5-2819

enough to connect. Corinthian's three runs being the result of walks, with the batters thinking the World War could have been no more dangerous than Bunny's pitching.

The famous Ashby league, operating under the name of Southern League, almost got started last Monday with the Ambassadors trimming the Harlem Club 6 to 2 in the only game played. This league has the Ambassadors, the I. D. K.'s, the Harlem Club, Wildcats and the Roadside B. Square Club. The Fellowship Club also wants in. These games have played every Monday night at Amos Hall on East Fourteenth and University. Come out and we will guarantee you some real games and action.

ORIGINAL NOTICE

In the District Court of the State of Iowa, in and for Polk County, Iowa, July Term, 1933.
FRANK J. CARDAMON, Plaintiff, vs.
BERNICE CARDAMON, Defendant.
TO: Bernice Cardamon.

You are hereby notified that on or before the 10th day of May, A. D. 1933, the petition of the plaintiff in the above entitled cause will be filed in the office of the Clerk of the District Court of the State of Iowa, in and for Polk County, Iowa, claiming that you are about to divorce on the grounds of your cruel and inhuman treatment to and of this defendant, as well as to justify his health and endanger his life, and for such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and equitable in the premises.

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO FORFEIT AND CANCEL CONTRACT

TO: C. A. BERTRAM, NORA BERTRAM, WIFE OF C. A. BERTRAM, ALSO KNOWN AS MRS. GEORGE BERTRAM, LLOYD BERTRAM, AND HIS WIFE, BERTRAM BERTRAM.
YOU AND EACH OF YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED that the undersigned, Stage Finance Company of Des Moines, Iowa, is the holder of the contract hereinafter described, which was made on the 15th day of May, A. D. 1932, and after the completion of service of this notice upon you, you pay all of the sums that are now due and delinquent, as herein stated, and perform all of the obligations on your part now delinquent under the said contract, make all payments as therein provided, you, and perform any and all conditions broken, fully as in said contract provided, said contract will become null and void and you will be relieved and forever discharged from having any right, title and interest in and to the premises herein described and covered by the said contract, or any part thereof.

You are hereby further ordered to give possession of the said property within THIRTY DAYS from and after the completion of service of this notice, unless you fulfill the obligations as stated herein, all of which is in accordance with the terms and agreements of said contract.

Dated at Des Moines, Iowa, this 19th day of April, A. D. 1933.

BERTRAM SMITH,
Trustee Agent and Attorney,
611 Valley Street, Room B,
Des Moines, Iowa.

Published in Iowa Bystander, April 22, 1933.

SPECIALIZING IN DISEASES OF WOMEN

L. Fowler & Son

Embalmers and Funeral Directors
LADY ATTENDANT
One of the Oldest and Best Equipped Funeral Homes in the Middle West
EQUIPMENT MODERN AND OF THE LATEST DESIGN
Big enough to serve you, not too big to know you. Prices consistent with care and ability.
Regardless of cost every care receives the same reverent, thoughtful service.
Day and Night Calls Answered Promptly
Autism for Any Occasion
We are not connected with any other firm in the city
Address: 1701 Walker Street
Phone 6-2713

MACHLAN GARAGE

Auto and Radio Service
7 Work Guaranteed
1077 Twelfth St. Phone 3-4026

BABY CHICKS

Regular Heavies $5.00 per hundred
Chick Feed Brooder Supplies
The Des Moines Chickeries
515 E. Walnut St. Ph. 4-9556

Baby and Started CHICKS

Diamond Strain
Feed and Supplies
DIAMOND POULTRY FARMS AND HATCHERY
202 East Grand Ave

CHICKS

FEED SUPPLIES
RED BIRD HATCHERY
121 Locust St.

LIVE POULTRY

Spring Fries
Best prices in the city
We dress poultry while you wait
CLARK'S POULTRY MARKET
SUFFERERS WITH PILES—
Will find instant relief with L. & P. salve, 25c, 35c, 50c and $1.00.
Cough Syrup knocks a cough instantly—25c, 30c, 50c and $1.00. Send cash with order.
William Hampton—777 Tenth Street
Des Moines, Iowa

La Marguerita Hotel

1453 Center Street
Dial 3-5940, Mrs. Nellie M. Esters, Manager
Rooms and Apartments
Everything Modern and First-Class

PEERLESS DRESS CLUB

GILBERT QUINCY, Prop.
Try me—I am specializing in cleaning, pressing, altering and re-lining.
402 1/2 Second Street

STATE FINANCE CO.

408 1/2 N. T. St.
Published in Iowa Bystander May 6, 11, 17, 18.

TO JOHN E. FREY AND EDITH B. FREY, YOU AND EACH OF YOU ARE HEREBY

NOTIFIED that the undersigned, B. F. Smith and Beatrice Smith of Des Moines, Iowa, owners and holders of the contract hereinafter described, will at the expiration of THIRTY DAYS from and after the completion of service of this notice upon you, declare forfeited and cancelled a certain written contract, dated April 27, 1929, covering the following described property situated in Polk County, Iowa, to-wit:

Lot One (1) Ocasola, an Official Plat now included in and forming a part of the City of Des Moines, Polk County, Iowa, locally known as 1706 East 29th Street in the City of Des Moines, Iowa, in which contract the said B. F. Smith and Beatrice Smith, husband and wife, are named as vendors and you, the said John E. Frey and Edith B. Frey, husband and wife, are named as vendees.

Said contract being for the sum of Twenty-three Hundred Fifty Dollars ($2350.00) and providing for payments of Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) on the execution of the contract and Twenty Dollars ($20.00) per month beginning on the 1st day of June, 1929, and the exact amount on the first day of each month thereafter until said consideration of said contract in full is received by the said B. F. Smith and Beatrice Smith, husband and wife, on or before May 1, 1932, shall have been duly paid.

You are hereby notified that you are now delinquent in said payments and that the time on said property has now past due and delinquent and that there is now due on said contract the sum of Two Thousand Dollars ($2000.00), besides interest thereon.

Service of this notice is made upon you in accordance with the provisions of the said contract and Sections 1289 to 1294 inclusive, as contained in Chapter 527 of the 1931 Code of Iowa, and unless within the said THIRTY DAYS from and after the completion of service of this notice upon you, you pay all of the sums that are now due and delinquent, as herein stated, and perform all of the obligations on your part now delinquent under the said contract, make all payments as therein provided, you, and perform any and all conditions broken, fully as in said contract provided, said contract will become null and void and you will be relieved and forever discharged from having any right, title and interest in and to the premises herein described and covered by the said contract, or any part thereof.

You are hereby further ordered to give possession of the said property within THIRTY DAYS from and after the completion of service of this notice, unless you fulfill the obligations as stated herein, all of which is in accordance with the terms and agreements of said contract.

Dated at Des Moines, Iowa, this 19th day of April, A. D. 1933.

BERTRAM SMITH,
Trustee Agent and Attorney,
611 Valley Street, Room B,
Des Moines, Iowa.

Published in Iowa Bystander, April 22, 1933.

Hats Cleaned and Blocked 25c
Men's Half Soles 40c
Men's Heels 19c
Ladies' Half Soles 45c
Ladies' Heels 25c
OBSERVATORY SHOE REPAIR AND HAT SHOP
102 Locust Street

DR. H. H. LONDON

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON
Office 1950 16th St. Phone 3-9011
Hours: 10 to 12 a. m., 2 to 5 p. m.

SPECIALIZING IN DISEASES OF WOMEN

THE FUNERAL HOME BEAUTIFUL

L. Fowler & Son
Embalmers and Funeral Directors
LADY ATTENDANT
One of the Oldest and Best Equipped Funeral Homes in the Middle West
EQUIPMENT MODERN AND OF THE LATEST DESIGN
Big enough to serve you, not too big to know you. Prices consistent with care and ability.
Regardless of cost every care receives the same reverent, thoughtful service.
Day and Night Calls Answered Promptly
Autism for Any Occasion
We are not connected with any other firm in the city
Address: 1701 Walker Street
Phone 6-2713

TUCKER'S CAR CLEANING COMPANY

Washing and Painting
General Repair—Graining
Expert Battery Service—
415 Fourth Street

Wilson

Funeral Home
811 Fourteenth St.
PHONE 3-5726

Not Best Because the Biggest
But Biggest Because the Best

TUG W. WILSON
FUNERAL DIRECTOR AND LICENSED EMBALMER
Satisfaction Our Motto
Lady Attendant Ambulance Service

Drink Flynn's Milk

Peerless Dress Club
Gilbert Quincy, Prop.
Try me—I am specializing in cleaning, pressing, altering and re-lining.
402 1/2 Second Street

The Spinn Dairy Company

Heavy duty dairy company
The world's best milk is being churned at 85°F.