Women Faint As 8,000 Attend Four Hour Funeral

New York, June 2.—Mystery lurked behind the pageantry and emotional storm attendant to the funeral Tuesday afternoon of the sensational evangelist, Rev. George Wilson Becton, who was shot and beaten in Philadelphia recently on a gangster's "ride" and who died in Graduate hospital there in the arms of his wife, Rev. Mrs. Josephine Becton, also an evangelist, from whom he was estranged. Although reports are that the minister was the victim of two gangsters, many believe it was an inside job.

Standing in the rain, the crowd began to gather as early as 5 a. m. A crowd of 8,000 sought to gain admittance to the church which held only 3,000. Women screamed and fainted. Frantic followers of the slain evangelist fought to get through the crowd and as a result the disturbances bordered on a riot. The services lasted for four hours.

Philadelphia (CPS)—Saturday a warrant was issued for the arrest of Mac Davies, business manager of the Gospel Becton party, of which Rev. G. Wilson Becton was president and Davies vice-president. The warrant charges Davies with fraudulent conversion and the misappropriation of funds.

Scientific Methods Revealed at Bystander Cooking School

WOMEN SHOULD BRING NOTEBOOKS

Mothers, of course, were the first cooking school instructors. The classroom was the kitchen. "This is the way to do it," mothers tell growing daughters. "You put in some of this and some of that and some more of the other." Most women learned to cook that way, according to Lucille M. Hall, the home economics expert who will conduct the Bystander Cooking School and Home-maker's Institute, June 15, 16, 17, in the Billiken Hall.

"Nobody can deny mother's cooking is good," says Miss Hall. "Its famous in song and story. My object is to bring to mothers and their daughters some of the scientific side of cooking, the modern, time-saving methods of doing housework. At the cooking school we'll take some of mother's favorite foods and make them up until the family won't know them."

Mother's Cooking
The drama was in four acts and was well presented by the cast which included George Mason, Paris Skanes, Archie Davis, James Rhodes, Minnie B. London, Eunice Rhodes, Fannie Wilson and George Edmunds. The play was staged and directed by Mrs. Harrison Gould. The Men's Community Band furnished music between acts.

Plain Foods
Miss Hall will not bring a lot of frothy foods and frilly recipes to the Bystander cooking school. Plain foods prepared in a modern way is her slogan. Miss Hall will explain in detail her recipes and her methods of preparing each dish. She will tell what ingredients she uses and why. Women, who really wish to benefit to the fullest extent from the various sessions of the school will come with notebooks and pencils so they can keep a permanent record of Miss Hall's recipes and methods.

Black Barons

The Black Barons proved to about 500 people Memorial Day that they have a tough club. Playing the Heck Ross Clothing Co., city and state champs, at the league park, the Barons walloped them 9 to 3 in the first game and only lost the second 4 to 3. In both games the boys turned in some fine fielding and presented an organized offense and looked like a real club. In the first game Allen had everything, and the Clotheiers couldn't hit the ball. When they did connect, somebody grabbed it, the Barons turning in three double plays. The Great Bus Brown turned in some nice hitting, being tough on pitchers all day. Jas. Allen got a fast one in his alley and popped it over the highest part of the center field fence with one on. Cal Rice working on a three to nothing lead put everything he had on every pitch and had the boys swinging after his smoke ball was in the catcher's glove or else blinking as it blossomed. The strair was too much, however, and he got tired, falling a victim to a barrage of singles in the

Irate Members Attack Aged Prelate In Pulpit

New York, June 2. (Special)—Only the timely arrival of police saved Bishop William H. Heard of the first district of the African Methodist Episcopal church from possible death Sunday night when 700 angry members of Bethel church attempted to mob him. A riot call brought three radio cars filled with police who rushed through the crowd in time to rescue the A. M. E. prelate from the throng; the majority of whom were women.

The trouble Sunday night was the culmination of several months agitation for the retention of the Rev. Edward Clarke, present pastor of Bethel who has held the post for four years. Throughout last week Bishop Heard presided at the 11th annual session of the district conference at Bethel. A crowd numbering some 2,000 packed every available space to hear the reading of appointments by the prelate Sunday night. Three hundred more, unable to gain admittance, stood outside awaiting the assignments of their various pastors.

Bishop Heard read his appointments, deferring Bethel church until the last. Then he announced that Rev. Clarke had been transferred to a post in New England and would be succeeded by Rev. C. F. Cole of Jamaica, L. I.

Angry Women
Immediately pandemonium broke out. People rushed to the rostrum and an attempt was made to attack Bishop Heard, but several ministers fanned him and pleaded with the crowd of angry men and women. In the meantime one of the trustees rushed to a telephone in the pastor's study and sent in a riot call for police.

Bishop Heard was spirited out of the back door to safety by the uniformed men, who remained on the scene until the church services had been dismissed.
Rev. Clark, declaring that an injustice has been done him by Bishop Heard, he refused to accept the appointment.

Backstage With the Dance Master
The genius of the American stage and dean of all tap dancers, Bill Robinson, was interviewed backstage of the Orpheum Theater, Monday evening by Everett Wadsworth, news editor, and Owen Robinson, reporter, of the Iowa Bystander. "How do I like Des Moines? Man, I was playing here before you were born. I was here 35 years ago," he answered to the usual opening question of an interview.

Born in Richmond, Va., May 25, 1878, he has received very little education as his parents died while he was quite young. He moved to Washington, D. C., when he was seven years old where he made his first appearance on the stage. Robinson has been dancing 47 years and never had a lesson in his life. With his graceful athletic figure and his coal black hair he could easily pass for a man of half his age.

War Veteran
He is known as the "mayor" of Harlem. He danced for two hours without missing a tap at a recent dancing convention in New York City. Robinson played the Orpheum here 20 years ago and has been appearing in Des Moines for 35 years. His noted "stairsteps" dance was offered in London, England, before King George in 1904 and again in 1926.

Robinson served in the Spanish-American War and with the 8th Ill. Central.

St. Louis Girl Wins Elk Oration

Irene Glass Places Fifth

Kansas City, Mo.—Miss Annie Paige, of the Sumner high school in St. Louis, took first honors in the regional Elks' oratorical contest Monday night, May 29, at the Bethel A. M. E. church.

Declared winner by the five judges over her four opponents, she won a $250 scholarship to an accredited university and will represent the sixth regional district in the national oratorical contest Monday, August 28th, held during the I. B. P. O. E. of W. convention in Indianapolis. Her subject was "Slavery and the Constitution."

Iowa Boy Third

Third place went to Edward Elliott, senior high school, Fort Madison, Ia., proxy for John E. Payne of El Centro, California's representative, who did not appear. Elliott spoke on "The Negro and the Constitution." Miss Irene Glass, Iowa official representative, from the North high school of Des Moines, won fifth place, her oration entitled, "The Constitution and Slavery."

LOCAL BOYS IN REFORESTATION CAMPS

Many Iowa colored boys have enlisted in the reforestation corps thru the activities of Lincoln Post American Legion. Ralph Kittinger, of Argonne Post, secretary of the R. F. C. and John McMahon, of the Soldiers' Relief, assisted in the work.

Lawrence Nichols, of Des Moines, is employed as overseer of the laundry and Henry Johnson of Ankeny, is head cook of the camp. Lt. Col. Talbot Smith and Lieut. J. B. Kraft, in charge of the boys, report that the discipline, treatment and food, is very satisfactory.

nois Reg. during the World War. He was stationed at Camp Funston at the time of the Armistice. Robinson is the star of the New York Yankees baseball team, and has a lifetime pass to any major league ball park in the country. His specialty is running the 100-yard dash backwards, defeating the star sprinters of the nation.

Three Weeks
Mrs. Robinson travels with him and acts as his secretary, agent, doctor, peace-maker, policeman or what have you. She is not an actress, but was a former fashioner in a drug store in Chicago. The revue was organized in New York three weeks ago and came straight to Cedar Rapids, Iowa, to get on the Orpheum circuit. The members of the company worship Robinson and call him "father."

Refined Group
Unlike most show troupes which abound with coarse manners and loose morals, his company consists of a group of educated, refined and respectable people. In no uncertain terms, Robinson denounced the "tough" element. "I have no 'rats' in my show," Robinson said emphatically with flashing eyes. "These people are all decent and respectable. Our shows are clean and entertaining, and we are proud of our name." The chorus girls must observe strict training rules and must appear on schedule. They are a friendly and affable group of people and not at all "high-toned" or "uppity."

PALMISTRY

By Luther H. S. Browne

Raise your left hand and turn it so that you can see all of the hand from the tip of the little finger to the wrist; now begin at the base of the little finger and on down to the wrist and see how many lines you can find that seem to come from the back of the hand and find their way into the palm; the first lines that come between the base of the little finger and the Heart line are what is known as the marriage lines. The lines have different relationship to other lines and in almost every hand the meaning is different. The lines that come below the heart line and on down to the wrist are travel lines, many of these trips should not be taken and there is a cross or some other line there to tell you so.

There are compulsory trips, pleasure trips, also trips caused by sickness, accident or death of others; also sudden and unexpected trips are plainly shown on the hand, but cannot be found by the untrained eye. See Exodus 13:9. "And it shall be for a sign unto thee upon thine hand and for a memorial between thine eyes that the Lord's law may be in thy mouth." (The hand is the chief officer of the soul.) 1st Cor. 12:21. "And the eye cannot say unto the hand I have no need of thee."

MINORITY RIGHTS

German representatives tell the League of Nations that in their treatment of the Jews is a purely local matter the league has no right to take cognizance of it.

Technically speaking with the present set up the German position may be within the rules. However, there is no practical difference between that of a nation which heaps inhuman injustice on minority groups within its borders and the nation which imposes upon small nations.

After all if races living side by side cannot get along together, there is little chance of inducing races with international boudiers separating them, doing so.

ALL DO IT

Strange to say but the big factors J. P. Morgan & Co., has been doing big business in New York are on the same level morally as those that are being done in a small way in every business, every state and every town daily. The only difference is Morgan does it with millions while the little fellow, in dimes and dollars.

The public has been worked up to the point of distrust where transactions involving public and powerful men bring down heaped criticism even though no moral or legal law has been violated. There is no reason why any man in the ordinary course of business and who could qualify should not borrow money of Morgan. And yet, about every man who has done so has been severely criticized.

But like one with a criminal record whenever a crime is committed he is the first picked up for investigation. We are financial wrecks and the public generally feels that all the fellows with money caused it.

Annual drive at the Des Moines branch of the N. A. A. C. P. Judge Lewis is giving his full week of 48 hours for assaulting. Next week headquarters will be opened and special teams will contact former members in an attempt to bring the membership up to the quota set. The association merits the help of every individual and should be supported. Every good citizen should pay his membership.

Boston. The question of the release of George Crawford, 28-year-old chauffeur, wanted by the state of Virginia for murder, on a writ of habeas corpus was taken under advisement by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals here Tuesday afternoon, May 23, following four hours of argument by counsel for Crawford and for the state of Massachusetts.

The court was sitting in special session to hear an appeal by the state from the sensational ruling of Judge James A. Lowell on April 24 by which Crawford was released from the state prison for 1700 on the papers submitted.

DIARRHOEAS

Diarrhoeas occur frequently in warm weather and are due as a rule to some offending food in the intestines which has caused irritation. The frequent stools being the irritating material. Some times however, the diarrhoea keeps up long after the irritating material has passed and it then becomes necessary to stop it. Not all diarrhoeas are due to this cause some being the result of a real infection in the intestines. These latter forms continue for quite a period and may last indefinitely unless treatment is had. In them real damage is done to the intestinal wall and ulcers are formed which because of their peculiar location become not infrequently very difficult things to treat.

In such conditions the weight loss very soon becomes extreme and the weakness marked to say nothing of the pain and discomfort caused by the lesions within the intestines. Certain forms are peculiar to certain localities and other forms exist only in tropical countries. As soon as any diarrhoea begins it should be treated and no one should wait in the hope that it will soon right itself without proper aid.

terison has been set by Judge James E. Horton for June 22, in circuit court here. At this hearing, L. L. D. attorneys will argue on the basis of exceptions made in the course of the first Scottsboro re-trial which ended in a second lynch-verdict in direct contradiction to the evidence, for setting aside of the verdict.

Athena, Ala. Writs of habeas corpus granting a hearing for Roy Wright and Eugene Williams, the two youngest Scottsboro boys, were forced from Judge James E. Horton by General George W. Chandler of Chattanooga, chief of the International Labor Defense Scottsboro legal defense corps, last Thursday.

At the same time Judge Horton ordered hearing on the writs to be heard before himself, June 1, and refused to transfer hearings to Birmingham, a demand also raised by the L. L. D. and General Chandler.

S. S. League baseball
Beck's limited Cornshiners last Thursday to complete matters in the Sunday School league. The game itself wasn't so important, but after the game ended up to matter. This league, originally intended to let kids and good natured rivalry among the players has degenerated into a mess of jealous fighting players and managers who do anything to win and want to fight when they don't. Instead of letting the kids play in the semi-pro ball players in town are out there battling like dogs to win and intensifying the none too cordial feeling between the East Side and West Side boys. The league was intended to eliminate that and in order to do so must have youngsters to work on. There are very few young ball players in town because they have no place to develop. They are crowded out of the league which should be their developing ground by these managers, who want semi-pro players, forgetting the
