Minimum Wage Is Too Much For Negro Workers Say Southern Employers

New York, Aug. 18.—Negro labor in many sections of the South is being tricked out of the benefits of the National Recovery Act, according to information received daily by the N. A. A. C. P. The most widespread practice is the firing of Negroes and the hiring of whites in their places because "the minimum wage is too much money for Negroes."

Memphis business men are firing Negroes on a wholesale scale, according to the Memphis branch of the N. A. A. C. P., holding that $14 a week is more than a Negro should have. In certain sections of North Carolina where Negroes form about 73 per cent of the workers in tobacco industries, the minimum wages are being withheld from them, the N. A. A. C. P. is advised.

"In one county in Georgia, where 45 per cent of the population is colored, 300 Negroes who had been receiving 50 cents a day on public work were fired when the NRA agreement specified their minimum wage should be 30 cents an hour. Negroes in this county are being re-employed as farm labor, which is outside the NRA regulation, at 35 to 75 cents a day," it is reported.

"North and South" Scale
In Birmingham, Ala., 2,000 retail grocers have drawn up a code which provides a minimum wage of $6 a week for Negro porters and delivery boys. In Arkansas white farmers are reported as sending their sons to Civilian Conservation camps where they receive $30 a month and hiring Negroes to do the farm work at $10 and $15 a month. At Washington, industrial leaders continue to submit codes for approval which either state plainly a lower wage for Negroes or hide it under a North-and-South wage scale.

Soft Coal
At the hearing on the soft coal mining agreement a basic wage scale of $4 a day in the South and $5 a day in the North was proposed. John L. Lewis, mine union president, urged one scale for all. Meanwhile no provision has been made for much needed improvement in the fortunes of domestic workers. Members of the Labor Advisory board are reported as being sympathetic to the appointment of a Negro member and such an appointment is being considered by NRA executives, but no action has been taken to date.

At eleven o'clock the campers were assembled about the American flag by Quentin Mease, camp director, and faced Chapel Point, towering nearly a hundred feet above the campus, and topped off by a magnificent flag pole upon which was hoisted the Christian flag, then marched up the steep incline while the chapel quartet, composed of Vincent Wilson, Laurence Graves, Alfred Claybrook and Leo Elmore, sang "Onward Christian Soldiers."

Send people in to us or come yourself about these employment problems.

SPAULDING TO HEAD NATION-WIDE ORGANIZATION FOR NEGRO WORKERS

New York City.—Deluged with bitter complaints from all sections of the country to the effect that Negro workers are being systematically excluded from the benefits of the NRA and in many cases discharged to make room for white workers, T. Arnold Hill, Director of the Department of Industrial Relations of the National Urban League announced upon his return from the Washington office of the League, that Emergency Advisory Councils for Negro Workers, to be designated by the initial EAC, were in the process of formation by the Urban League throughout the country.

There will be a National Council, State Councils, and local Councils in all principal centers. C. C. Spaulding, President of the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company, has agreed to serve as the chairman of the National Council. He will have associated with him prominent men and women from all parts of the country.

The purpose of these Councils will be to ascertain the facts relative to the charges being made by local Negro leaders that governmental machinery designed to bring back prosperity to the American farmer and workers is guilty of gross discrimination on the basis of race in handling relief, home loans, reforestation, reemployment, minimum wages and maximum hours of employment and other features of the NRA program.

Popular Films at Local Playhouse

CHARLIE RUGGLES & MARY BOLAND CO-STAR IN BIG FEATURES AT PARAMOUNT

The Mary Boland-Charlie Ruggles comedy, "Mama Loves Papa," opens tomorrow at the Paramount Theatre, and continues for one week. Charlie and Mary, who have been featured together in three previous pictures are starred together for the first time in this film: "Mama Loves Papa" is the story of a middle-aged suburban couple. Charlie's puns and Miss Boland's sense of refinement gets them into their series of misadventures.

It is a clever story of a social minded wife and a husband who is forced into several humorous situations. The events that follow swell into a crescendo of hilarity and merriment, but, fortunately, well enough for Charlie and Mary.

The other full length feature on this program will be, "The Eleventh Commandment," starring Maylan Marsh, Alan Hale, Marie Prevost and Arthur Hoyt. For the benefit of those who are curious, the Eleventh Commandment reads, "Thou Shall Not Be Caught." "Eleventh Commandment," IN PRICES.

Urschel, Oklahoma City, Okla., oil man.

HOT SPRINGS, ARK.—A confession that he poisoned four members of a family, was signed Wednesday by Mark H. Shank, an attorney of Akron, Ohio. Police advanced as a motive the imminent arrest of one of the victims for getting papers for Shank from the prosecuting attorney's office in Akron in a forgery case against a client of Shank.

ST. LOUIS, MO.—Lou Gehrig, who started playing first-base for the New York Yankees as an ambitious young "rookie" Wednesday equalled the big league record for consecutive service by playing his one thousand three hundred seventh game. ### Negro Day at Fair Is Complete Failure

Affair Is Financial Flop
Chicago, (ANP)—Eighteen thousand persons sat scattered in Soldier's Field Saturday night, August 12, and witnessed the "Epic of a Race," a pageant depicting the struggle of the American Negro since the time of his enslavement to the present day.

The limitations of the parade, which was expressed by Chicago citizenry as the worst in history, no doubt caused a distressing effect upon the commercial end of the show at the stadium. Many on the sidelines were heard to comment that the parade was a knock to the main show. Civic, fraternal and business groups were totally absent which disappointed thousands.

Chandler Owen, executive director of the affair, deplored opposition to the event directed by Congressman Oscar DePriest. The affair was not a financial success: 100,000 people had been expected.

It is reported that all the girls receive either applause or silence from the audience in the film, but when "Miss Harlem," appears she is booted not only by the audience, but by the men acting as judges. A letter has been written both to Mr. Winchell and to Universal Pictures by the N. A. A. C. P. deploring the humiliation and ridicule heaped upon the Negro girl and through her upon the Negro race and its women and asking that the scene be deleted.

MONARCHS DEFEAT THE HOUSE OF DAVID

Charles "Sooty" Beverly was the outstanding star of the great exhibition. All this lanky Kansas City pitcher did for the full distance and was hit for one hit in the 11 in-

Gov. B.M. Miller Immediate Investigation

MONTGOMERY, ALA.—Governor B. M. Miller ordered a grand jury investigation. The Governor described the lynching as a "barbaric and heinous crime."

BIRMINGHAM, ALA.—Night riders snatched three armed deputies at Woodstock, 75 miles west of here, as the youths were being transferred from a Tuscaloosa County Jail in Birmingham for safe keeping. Two of the men on a lonely road, eleven hours later their bodies literally were drawn from the ground.

With bullet wounds in his hip and leg, Elmore Clark, the third of the trio was found Monday night and brought back to the jail.

A new mob was reported forming and troops were hurried here Tuesday. The Negroes slain were Dan Pippin, 18, and A. T. Harden, 16.

Ever since the alleged confession of one of the youths that they were responsible for the murder of Vaudine Maddox, 20, daughter of a white farmer in Southern Tuscaloosa County, the entire countryside was seething with racial hatred. The girl was found dead on June 22 and Pippin, Harden and Clark were arrested on information that they had been in the vicinity at the time.

Feared Lynching Attempt
Sheriff E. L. Shamblin, who seemed disposed to absolve his deputies, said that he and several deputies were escorting the youths from Tuscaloosa and left in two cars around midnight. The decision to move the youths to another jail came after persistent rumors that lynchers would make a raid on the jail some time Sunday.

Sheriff Shamblin, two deputies and the three Negro youths, rode in the first car while deputies followed in another car. After selecting an unfrequented road to Birmingham and

CHET BREWER REALIZES HIS LIFE'S AMBITION

By Allen Ashby
Sometime ago, probably 1928, a bunch of us were discussing the baseball situation and goodness knows, it was something to discuss. We were talking about the great Negro athletes who most of the local white fans never knew about. We argued that the locals couldn't even imagine Negro baseball players as good as the headlines they read about. One lanky fellow in the discussion said, "Boy, I'd like to come back here some time in mid-season with our club hitting on all fours and show these people some real Negro baseball. I'd like to play the Western league team here when they had a good team."

That winter passed. Other winters passed and we forgot about that expressed boyhood desire.

Monday night, Aug. 7, that natural ambition of every boy to make good in front of a home crowd was realized, as Chet Brewer, star hurler of the Monarchs, fanned by some of Negro baseball's greatest, stood the best Western league club on their collective heads.

"You realized your lifetime ambitions," we told him after the game. Chet promptly answered, "Boy, you ain't lyin'. I mean, here meet the boys," and one after another we were

Hodges Fined $500, Wife $200 by Judge T. T. Guess

DID BIG BUSINESS

By CLIFF MACKAY
 ATLANTA, Ga.—Startling disclosures that a state organization of a prominent Negro lodge was actually backing one of the most extensively organized lottery banks operating in the city was made Wednesday before Judge J. T. Guess sitting in the city criminal court of Deatur.

The connections of the order with the famous numbers game were revealed during the trial of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hodges, who were jailed by a squad of Atlanta and DeKalb county officers at their home, 170 Wesleyland avenue.

Hodges was fined $500 and given a 12 months suspended sentence, while his wife was fined $200 and twelve months suspended in one case and given a six months probation sentence in another case made the same day.

Swooping down on the Wesleyland Ave. address, Detectives M. B. Petty and Neal Ellis, and DeKalb County Officers Ed Foster and J. T. Daily testified before Judge Guess to finding a specially equipped room in Hodges' attorney company's headquarters.

Two adding machines and a pile of ledgers and used lottery books confiscated by the officers were exhibited as evidence of the huge volume of business the company was conducting, mainly in Deatur and vicinity.

City Detectives Petty and Ellis detailed to lottery cases, including the lodge's connections with the numbers' business as operated in Atlanta.

The fact that the lodge, possibly through certain of its officials, had become interested in the numbers racket first loomed when Hodges asked court attaches to release some of the bookkeeping machinery, including one of the adding machines to the lodge.

RELATIVES CLAIMED FOR DISPUTE

Undertakers Wrangled Over Body

NEW BERN, N. C.—New Bern will never forget last Saturday afternoon, July 28, 1933, when the Master called to eternal sleep Mr. Joe Isler, well known merchant of Five Points. Mr. Isler was a shock to the entire community, even though Mr. Isler died from some lingering malady, appertaining to a disease of the heart from which he was suffering and leave a blot on the civilized history of New Bern.

Undertakers Wrangled Over Body

Shortly after Mr. Isler's death two undertakers were called, Mr. L. P. Hatch and Mr. Davis, of the Citizens Funeral Parlor. Mr. Hatch was called according to the terms stipulated in the "WILL" of the deceased, held by the executor, Dr. I. A. Daves, while the relatives called Mr. Davis. Hatch claimed the right to the body of the deceased, and the youngest was buried last April from the Citizens Funeral Parlor, and at that time according to Mr. Davis, Mr. Isler picked out his own casket, while in conversation and to have remarked: "Sister is here long, and I will not evoked" to which he pointed and my body to be interred beside hers.

On the other hand Mr. Hatch claimed the right that the executor engaged him and further investigations later revealed that the "WILL" of the deceased stipulated him as the Mortician for the burial.

FISK UNIVERSITY REPRESENTED AT SWARTHMORE

NASHVILLE, Tenn.—

The Institute of Race Relations held at Swarthmore College, Swarthmore, Pa., during the month of July, represents a unique approach to the study of Negro-white relationships in America. The lecturers, who were authorities in the fields of anthropology, economics, sociology, history, and education, were given by such authorities as Boas, Hershkovits, and Reuter laid the factual foundation for the whole question of race from the point of view of biology and anthropology. These lectures were followed by others in which social conflict and racial contacts were viewed in their social and cultural setting.

Dr. Charles S. Johnson of Fisk University lectured on the role of the Negro as a labor factor in the development of American economic life. In subsequent lectures he gave the history of the changing attitudes toward the Negro as a member of the American community and as a competitor of white labor.

Dr. E. Franklin Frazier of Fisk University addressed the institute on the "Urbanization of the Negro Population." The Changing Character of Negro Family Life, and at a public lecture traced the historical pattern of cultural conflicts throughout the world. The pattern of Negro-white relationships in America was shown to follow the pattern of cultural conflicts in Egypt, Turkey, Persia, India, and China.

Dr. James Weldon Johnson, professor of creative literature at Fisk University, gave a series of lectures on "The Negro's Contribution to American Art." He showed in every interesting manner how Negro art has been gradually broken up through the medium of art.

During the last week of the institute Dr. W. E. B. DuBois spoke on African cultures, and Eugene Kinkle Jones and other speakers addressed the institute on technical and racial adjustment.

President Thomas E. Jones was also in attendance at the institute.

By ALGERNON B. JACKSON, M. D.

(By the Associated Negro Press)
DO YOU EAT PEANUTS?

The discovery of vitamins by scientists interested in nutrition has proved of wide public interest. One of the reasons for popular interest lies in the improved results in health and well-being which housewives can obtain from the food they prepare for their families, if they follow the advice offered by science, and make sure of a proper supply of the various vitamins. The chemical knowledge of vitamins is limited, and their constituents are more or less a mystery.

Less familiar to the public are the amino acids, which the final chemists have found of prime importance in the diet. These amino acids, of which there are nearly a score known to science, are co-constituents of the proteins present in various forms and in different foods. Some of these amino acids have been found essential for the normal growth and for proper nutrition of man and other animals.

The protein of corn, for example, has an inadequate amount of certain amino acids. Peanut protein, on the other hand, has a surplus of these particular acids. A large part of the peanut crop is used in making peanut oil, the remaining press cake, which is rich in protein, being ground into meal for animal feeding. As a consequence, when animals are fed a ration including one part of this peanut press cake meal with three parts of corn, the ration is better balanced, and the animals grow more satisfactorily than when fed on corn alone.

Chemists in the United States Department of Agriculture are studying such problems, striving to gain exact knowledge of the chemical constituents of the various proteins, and searching for the secrets of the vitamins. These studies are checked by feeding experiments with small animals. Albino rats have proved most useful as test animals, as they mature at an early age and are of great variety of food products. A great length of rats has pointed the way to desirable combinations of foods which can be eliminated and desirable combinations can be recommended for trial on live stock. All the information passed along to dietitians for trials with human beings.

Opportunities to be Sought by Catholics

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—

One of the most important features of the convention of the National Catholic Interracial Federation which is to meet here September 2, 3, 4, 5, is to be its Industrial Conference. This conference will consider the matter of extending employment opportunities for Negro Catholics particularly and Negro people generally will be taken up. No religious nor class group in the United States has been more successful in infiltrating its membership into paying substantial positions than the Catholics. In many of the great cities the priests are said to have more liberal jobs of one of the objectives of the discussions expected to ensue.

Miss Linna Brosette, field secretary of the National Catholic Welfare Conference's Department on Industrial Relations, spent two days here mapping out the program for the first day of the convention, which is devoted wholly to the question of the Negro in industry. This conference will consider President Roosevelt's National Recovery Administration in its relationship to the Negro and the great encyclicals of Leo XIII and Pius XI dealing with the reformation of the social order. Eminent authorities on social economics will address the delegates on these subjects. The speakers will include both white and colored industrialists and economists.

The Catholic clergy seems to be rallying to the idea of the organization perhaps because of the interracial character which it now has definitely assumed.

ECHOES OF THE CENTURY OF PROGRESS

NASHVILLE, Tenn.—

People from all corners of the world are directing their footsteps toward Chicago to view the Century of Progress.

The last word news in this connection was brought to the writer's attention just a day or so ago when the whole town of Barwick, Ga. (with the exception of a few old folk afraid to risk the trip) made up their minds that they just must go to the World's Fair and they went in their produce trucks with the determination to see all there is to be seen in Chicago's "barbaric" return to progress. The "old folk" at home. They were afraid to trust their appetites wholly in the hands of the Chicagoans, so they took along with them 42 boxes of canned goods, a generous supply of their pet brand of tea and coffee, a case of grapefruit, 15 quarts of blackberry cordial.

A. and J. State College has not lined its doors and said that we must all go to the Fair, but both the student body and faculty have surely entered into the spirit, and have taken advantage of special ticket and trips to the Century of Progress Exposition. One of these many persons is Mr. S. E. Gripstead.

Both Claimed Rights

Both undertakers claimed right to the dead body. According to Mr. Davis, he had buried two sisters of the deceased, and the youngest was buried last April from the Citizens Funeral Parlor, of which Mr. Davis is proprietor, and at that time according to Mr. Davis, Mr. Isler picked out his own casket, while in conversation and to have remarked: "Sister is here long, and I will not evoked" to which he pointed and my body to be interred beside hers.

On the other hand Mr. Hatch claimed the right that the executor engaged him and further investigations later revealed that the "WILL" of the deceased stipulated him as the Mortician for the burial.

Relatives Bitter Against Hatch

Relatives of Mr. Isler were bitterly against Undertaker Hatch's right to the body, and they argued against the terms of the will and contesting parties.

The contest was taken before the Clerk of Court Honorable L. E. Lancaster, who ruled informally Saturday that the terms of the will issued a certificate to Dr. I. A. Daves, as executor, while the will remained on file for probate. Still bitterly dissatisfied, the relatives sought legal redress and advised which resulted in a "contest" being filed against the will to be settled in the September court. Prominent white attorneys of the city have been retained by both parties.

Reconciliation with Relatives Failed

All efforts to reconcile the relatives by Dr. I. A. Daves, up to the writing of this article, failed, and the body and casket were buried up until Thursday when news went out over town that the remains of Mr. Isler could be viewed from Underway's Hatch's establishment on Elm street from 8 a. m. until 2 p. m. Thursday, August 3, 1933.

No Church Ceremonies

There was a member of the Mt. Calvary B. C. of which the Rev. Miles Spruell is pastor. On account of an alleged feud between the pastor and relatives to participate in church services, Mr. Isler failed to receive any church ceremonies. The Rev. N. H. Hargett responded to the call of the executor and undertaker, to perform such religious ceremonies as was possible at the graveside. This was a beautiful layout with a pastor and a choir, and a solemn service. The last rites were performed nevertheless in appreciable order. Consignment was made in a grave at the Greenwood cemetery.

Who Is Right in the Contest?

Who is right in the contest will be decided by the September court but Mr. Isler was entitled to a decent burial with church services and all that goes to make his passing peaceful and sacred before man and his Maker, regardless to who may be right in the contention. Suffice to say it's a backward step in civilization, practically uncalled for among civilized people, and New Bern-colored constituency will long remember a stigma of such a pathic happening, which remains as an erasable blot upon the community given its sacred farewell. Mr. Isler desired his desire was a quiet, quiet and peaceful citizen. We must pray and mourn and ask the Master to come.
