Judge James A. Lowell Is Dead at 64, After 10 Days' Illness

Victoria Price Repeats Her Noted 'Attack' Story

Death!

Decatur, Ala.—For the third time the jury returned a verdict of guilty Friday night recommending the death penalty for Heywood Patterson. After Judge Callahan's sentence, Samuel L. Showitz, chief of the defense of the I. L. D. will deny the case will again be before the U. S. Supreme Court.

At Decatur, Ala., Dec. 1.—Victoria Price, who testified on the witness stand that she was raped by Judge W. W. Callahan Tuesday night in the courtroom, repeated her story substantially as she told it at this year, when she was the witness against Patterson. She testified that she was in the courtroom when she was attacked by Patterson and Ruby Bates, now in New York, were traveling in a car dressed in men's clothes. The white hobo who had associated with Victoria Price and Ruby Bates, repeated his testimony on the witness stand, declaring that he witnessed the attacks and begged Patterson to leave the woman alone.

Pat Patterson on Stand
Shirley, called to the stand late Wednesday when the state rested its case against the accused. He told the jury that he was in the courtroom when a group of white men, including Patterson, Ruby Bates and several Negro boys, entered the courtroom. He testified that he saw Patterson and Ruby Bates, who were dressed in men's clothes, enter the courtroom and that he saw them attack the woman.

New Trial Ordered
In the first case, conducted at Scottsboro, eight of the nine boys arrested were found guilty and sentenced to die in the electric chair. The trial of the nine lasted a day. The case was returned to Alabama for trial when the United States supreme court overruled the decision of the state supreme court with a statement that the boys had not received a fair trial. Last spring the second trial of Patterson was heard before Judge James E. Horton of Athens. As this trial Ruby Bates, the other white girl involved, testified from the witness stand that neither she nor Victoria Price had been touched; that they had made up the lie at the first trial to escape jail terms for vagrancy. Lester Carter, another white boy, and the one with Ruby Bates on the train, also stated that the rape story had been made up to protect the women.

But a laughing jury returned to the courtroom on a Sunday morning with a verdict of guilty. Judge Horton sentenced Patterson to die in the electric chair, later reversing this decision and ordering a new trial for Patterson. He based his reversal on the fact that insufficient evidence had been introduced upon which to convict the boy.

RUBY BATES HAS MAJOR OPERATION
New York.—As the Scottsboro boys the third time wage a court battle for their lives down in Decatur, Ala., Ruby Bates, white alleged attack victim who from the witness stand during the second trial last spring established the youth's innocence, is now fighting for her life on a hospital here following a critical operation performed Friday, November 24. Ruby Bates, who was waiting near New York for her deposition to be taken by a New York lawyer for use in the Decatur trial Thursday notified the International Labor Defense that her physical condition had become such that she had been obliged to go to a hospital. There, an examination by specialists made it evident that an operation was a matter of life and death.

Funeral Services Held Wednesday for Knife Victim

Ben Rich Ousted From Police Force

Ben Rich, city detective, was discharged Friday by H. A. Alber, chief of police for "conduct unbecoming an officer by using excessive authority." Rich was discharged, Alber said, after George Zook, 20, 1401 High street, complained to the chief concerning an argument he had with Rich which ended in a fist fight and Zook's arrest Monday night. Although Rich suffered a fractured nose in effecting Zook's arrest, he was called to the police station early Friday and discharged. Zook, taxi driver, claimed in his complaint that the argument started over the way he had double parked his car to unload a passenger. Zook was ordered released from jail by H. Peterson, inspector of detectives. Rich was appointed to the police department March 21, 1932 as a patrolman, later winning promotion to the detective bureau assisting John Rhodes. He will appeal the case to the civil service commission.

Marguerite Lee Featured at KSO

Marguerite Fields Lee, "Dixie songbird," former Des Moines girl, was presented in a premiere performance Thursday evening, Nov. 23, over radio station K-S-O at 7:30 p. m. She had special orchestral accompaniment and will be featured each week at the same hour. Miss Lee may also be heard on other nights during the week. In addition to "Shuffle Along," Miss Lee has appeared at the Roxy Theatre, Eltinge Theatre, Chez Florenz, and has been starred with Duke Ellington at the Cotton Club, and with Cora Green, the international Creole Queen on the Orpheum circuit. Walter Winchell, Allan Dale, Robert Coleman and other New York critics comment on Miss Lee's ability. Variety says "Marguerite Lee has a peculiarly attractive voice that grows on one, and has her own style of delivering a ballad, jazz or hot ditty. She copies no one."

Undertaker Shot To Death by Wife

St. Louis.—Claiming that her estranged husband came to her house and forced his attentions on her, Mrs. William M. Boyd shot and wounded fatally the well known undertaker early Thursday morning. On July 9, they were engaged in an argument, he drew an ice pick on Mrs. Boyd and she that he was going to kill her, she shot him in the rear part of the neck with the same revolver. She was brought to court on a charge of disturbing the peace and was dismissed for the want of prosecution.

Newton, Mass.—Federal Judge James A. Lowell, 64, died at his home Thursday after an illness of 10 days. His death brought to a close impeachment proceedings brought against him in the United States house of representatives because of his decision in the extradition of George Crawford, Negro, to Virginia, to face a murder charge.

Slaying Charged
Crawford had been arrested in Boston, Mass., charged with slaying Mrs. Margaret Boeing Halsey and Mrs. Nina Buckner, her maid, at Middleburg, Va. Governor Ely granted a request of Virginia for Crawford's return. Judge Lowell, however, issued a writ of habeas corpus which freed Crawford.

The judge's action led to his impeachment and a house committee came here to investigate the case. His decision in freeing Crawford held that "Negroes were not allowed to serve on juries in Virginia."

Noted Family
Judge Lowell came from a line of four Lovells who had served on the federal bench. His great-grandfather, first of the line, was appointed by President Washington. He was a cousin of A. Lawrence Lowell, president emeritus of Harvard university.

DEFENSE LAWYERS DIG UP CRAWFORD HISTORY IN BOSTON

Washington, Dec. 1.—Investigators were off from here this week to dig into new facts about George Crawford's stay in Boston, Mass. It was in Boston that Crawford was arrested and there that the bitter fight against extradition was staged through the courts by lawyers working for the Boston branch of the N. A. A. C. P. and the national office in New York.

Charles H. Houston, chief defense counsel, is seeking more light on Crawford's stay in the north. Mr. Houston has not yet indicated just what line of defense he and his associates will pursue when the trial is called December 12.

for a touchdown. We all are sorry for him and his family; Toady was a great guy. Everett Wadsworth, news editor, in expressing his deep regret over Jackson's tragic passing, said in tribute: "The boys of this city have certainly lost a great teammate and a wonderful sport; in all of my years of playing with and against him, he was always the same fine gentleman and noble character, never too big to know you. A brilliant athletic career has ended."

Ward on Title Team
Well folks; it finally happened. In the last Big Ten games we saw a number of unusual incidents. All the fall we've been yelping about the possibility of Ward of Michigan using that great speed of his to outrun everybody down the field to grab a pass. Last week he did just that. He lit out and breezed by everybody; colored the pigskin and marched. Incidentally that was the marker that cinched the game and the conference title against Northwestern. Michigan State bit the dirt and McCreezy didn't have much to say about it although he was the best player. Lyons and Babbs were among those present when Purdue rolled over Indiana.

Possibilities for next year: Harpole of Minnesota a regular; a Negro from Iowa, becoming a sophomore sensation; Ward being All-Conference and All-Western; your writer going hatter, if possible. Editor's note—impossible!

Two Negro Captains
Nothing doing on the high school front until the All-state teams are chosen. Jim Napier of Washington High Cedar Rapids, put up a great battle to be responsible for his team's busting of Grant High for the city title. Down at Davenport, Gibbs of Dubuque, and Ashby of Davenport, probably made state history by being captains of their respective teams. Both played essential parts in the scoring. Dubuque won 14 to 13.

"Toady" Jackson
Out at Ankeny our disappointment at not being able to trim the Anamosa team was over-shadowed by the untimely death of George (Toady) Jackson, our best ground gaining back. Jackson turned in the best performance of his career in what proved his last game. It's hard to write about that boy without a lump in one's throat, for he was the most popular in town. It's hard to think of Toady as not being one of us any more. Smart, intelligent, and with unusual coordination he made the most of his physical and mental assets in all sports. A desperate chance taker, born of an intense desire to win, Jackson sometimes made some rather ludicrous errors only to come back a second later with a virtually impossible play. In one of our games, Jackson broke 'off' tackle for a big gain. With a sure touchdown in sight he cut back into the mass of players and eventually lost the ball. He said he wanted them to kick and he would show them some real open field running. He then took the punt over his shoulder on a dead run, circled around and ran sixty-five yards

Missouri Governor Will Punish Murderers; Gov. Rolph Lauds Mob Rule

VOWS THOROUGH LYNCHING PROBE

St. Joseph, Mo.—The state of Missouri "intends to get to the bottom of this lynching," Asst. Atty. Gen. W. O. Sawyer said Wednesday night when he arrived here to investigate Tuesday night's mob vengeance against a Negro. "The good people of St. Joseph and the state of Missouri don't believe in this sort of thing," Sawyer said.

Not a Smoke Screen
Sawyer said he was ready to cooperate with Prosecuting Attorney Frank L. Kirtley in attempting to locate the mob leaders. Kirtley in turn said he was willing to cooperate with Sawyer. "This investigation is not going to be just a smoke screen," Sawyer said.

Sawyer was sent here from Jefferson City, Missouri's capital, with express orders from Gov. Guy B. Park to exert every effort to apprehend members of the mob which lynched Lloyd Warner, 19, Negro who confessed to attacking a 21-year-old white woman.

Authorities Criticized
Curious persons still were gathered Wednesday night about the spot where Warner's body was soaked with gasoline and burned after the hanging, while 9,000 men, women and children cheered.

The St. Joseph News-Press sharply criticized members of the mob and the authorities who allowed the action to take place. At the same time it deplored "maudlin sentiment that makes martyrs of criminals" and criticized members of the legal profession "that profits from the failures of courts in handling crime."

"Brutal Madness"
"To the normally orderly St. Joseph community comes the reproach of mob violence, with all its brutal madness and savagery," the paper said, adding: "When the governor of a state like California publicly condones a lynching, we can scarcely expect the man on the street to take a higher moral tone. Back of all this, however, lies the real cause—lack of law enforcement."

Maryland 'Citizens' Defy Gov. Ritchie and Troops

Hero Dies Stopping Topeka Jailbreak

Princess Anne, Md. (CUP)—Gov. Ritchie's residents of this eastern shore section of Maryland defied state authorities Thursday to attempt any further action against four alleged members of a lynching party who were liberated after a tumultuous court hearing here Wednesday night.

In the face of a statement from Gov. Albert C. Ritchie deploring the action of the court in releasing the men, eastern shoremen vowed that they never would permit them to be taken into custody again.

The four—William H. Thompson, Irving Adkins, William Hearn and William S. McQuay, were seized in their homes before dawn Tuesday by national guardsmen sent here from Baltimore. Governor Ritchie ordered had refused to prosecute the four men on the basis of evidence gathered by the state attorney general.

Plea of Ritchie Is Denied by Court
After a pitched battle with a crowd of 2,000 in Salisbury the troops withdrew to Baltimore with their prisoners, who were lodged in the city jail. They were held there only a few hours, however. In response to writs of habeas corpus issued by Judge Robert F. Duer of Princess Anne, the four men were returned here late Wednesday and were freed after a hearing before Judge Duer and Judge John H. Pattison.

The judges not only granted the men their freedom on writs of habeas corpus but dismissed all complaints against them.

Drive Negroes From Town
As a prelude to the court hearing the shrieking mob of men and boys drove 300 Negroes out of town.

By the time the prisoners were due the Negroes of the town were already in full flight before the mob. There were cries: "All Negroes must get out of this town." GOV. ROLPH SAYS SAN JOSE AND ST. JOSEPH LYNCHINGS NOT PARALLEL

Sacramento, Cal.—Governor James Rolph Jr., who a few days ago warmly commended the action of a mob in San Jose which lynched two white men for murdering their kidnaped victim, was asked Tuesday night to comment on the lynching of Lloyd Warner, Negro, in St. Joseph, Mo. "The cases are not parallel. Kidnaping was not involved in the St. Joseph lynching," was the executive's comment.

Hero Dies Stopping Topeka Jailbreak

Topeka—Benjamin J. Davidson, 53, night jailer at the Shawnee county jail, was fatally wounded by Cecil Thornburgh, the notorious Kansas desperado, in preventing Thornburgh from escaping jail here Tuesday night. Today the county mourns at the passing of Davidson, and many are the tributes of his unyielding bravery which enabled him to subdue the dangerous Thornburgh while in the very throes of death. Davidson's courageous battle with the desperado outlaw is a saga that officials here were not loath in praising highly.

Sheriff Rogers stated that three other prisoners also attacked the jailer, which made the odds over which Davidson triumphed, even though he died for it, four to one.

Word of the killing of Davidson spread rapidly and the usual, if not untold, number of white men who were toward a white man because he had killed a Negro, became a fact. Threats against Thornburgh became so strong that he was hustled to the state penitentiary at Lansing.

When Davidson was made a jailer he remarked to his superior officers: "A prisoner will have to kill me before he gets away."

And Davidson made good that promise.

SLAYER GOES TO HIS DEATH IN CAPITAL

Washington, D. C., Dec. 1.—Charles Edward Washington twice saved from death by presidential intervention, died in the electric chair at the District jail last Friday. He died for a murder of which his innocence was strongly asserted. A final plea to President Roosevelt, however, was of no avail.

Last Thursday afternoon Supt. M. L. Barnard, superintendent of penal institutions in the District of Columbia, appeared for commutation of Washington's death sentence to life imprisonment. The plea was forwarded to Wain, Springs, Ga., where the president is spending his Thanksgiving vacation.

Dr. B. SHOT BY MOTHER'S SPOUSE

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 27th. — A Baptist minister took the homicide spotlight this week when he committed the fourth slaying of the month. The minister is Rev. Sam Jones, 45, 628 Polk St., held at the police station for the killing of William Brown, 34, 381 Pontotoc St. The slaying was perpetrated early Monday morning between 4:30 and 6:00 o'clock at Rev. Jones' home.

Initially on the part of the minister's wife was the basis of the trouble, according to police reports. Brown, who had been employed by the Commercial Appeal paper as a truck driver, was sweethearting with Mrs. Jones, particularly during the minister's absence when he was away on his gospel mission out of the city. Last Sunday, Rev. Jones was away in Mississippi where he had a preaching engagement. Returning home Monday morning, he found Brown at his home.

"I knocked at the front door of my house, but my wife wouldn't let me in," Rev. Jones told officers during the investigation. "Then I walked around to the back door and knocked again. When my wife opened the door, I saw, on entering the house, Brown standing behind my bed. He was undressed, I stabbed him twice, and then called for a Hayes' ambulance."

Rev. Jones went to General Hospital in the ambulance with the dying man, and expressed sorrow that he had killed him. He was arrested at the hospital by officers in squad car 18.

Officers Gilson and O'Quinn looked for the woman at her home but she had disappeared. Brown's clothes had also been taken away in the meantime. S. W. Quill, Company Funeral Home had charge of the remains.

Rev. Jones is the second Baptist minister who has committed a slaying this year. On January 16, 1933, a Rev. John McGhee, 45, 2801 Harvard St., Birmingham subdivision, killed his brother-in-law, Rev. Harry Hollis, 63, a Holiness minister.

ENTHUSIASM ZION CHURCH FEATURES MEET CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

CINCINNATI, Ohio.— Zion Baptist church celebrated her ninety-first anniversary last week with an elaborate program which lasted from Sunday, November 19 to Sunday, November 26.

A novel feature appeared on the program each night. On Sunday evening a twilight memorial service was held. A professional started off the services which was very impressive and inspiring. Every person in the church marched up and down the aisles carrying lighted candles. Mr. Marcus Ranbo then called the roll of the dead. Mr. James A. Hurst rendered a solo, "God Leads His Dear Children Along."

The ceremony ended with the Lord's Supper, which was beautifully furnished and solemnized with the pastor, Rev. B. E. Reid, in charge. A large black eulogy was carried up the aisle of the church, and being opened it proved to be a fable from which the Lord's Supper was served.

Monday night was spent with Miss. Whitelena Edmunds in charge. Every club and organization of the church participated on the program by giving some stunt which lasted not longer than fifteen minutes. A Bible was awarded to the Young People's Society for the best stunt of the evening. Honorable mention was given to the Mothers' Club and the Laymen's League. Messrs. Clinton Gibbs, C. E. Boisseaux and L. P. Good were the judges. A trio from Zion Baptist church also rendered two numbers on the program.

Tuesday night was Evening Meeting. Co-operative Prayer meeting, Rev. E. Kelley was the guest speaker.

Wednesday was Civic Night. Addresses and remarks were made by the following persons: Rev. W. A. Page, Mr. Fred K. Hoelzer, Mr. J. M. Ragsdale, and the Hon. F. A. B. Hall. The guest of honor was the Union Baptist church.

Denominational night was Thursday. Rev. Chas. Isom was the speaker for the evening with Southern Baptist church as the guest of honor.

Singers from the World's Fair under the direction of Professor A. R. Austin, rendered the program for Friday evening.

An anniversary parade, under the direction of Mr. Albert Johnson, will take place Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Quite a great deal of effort, time and money were spent by the pastor and members of the church to make this program the success it turned out to be.

Pastor Dies Letting Ala. Governor Act

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 27.—(Special) Letting to follow the example of the late President Woodrow Wilson in asking the governor of California to interfere in the Tom Mooney case, following Mooney's conviction of throwing a "Preparedness Day" bomb, President Franklin D. Roosevelt is not exercising his presidential authority in the Scottsboro case.

Instead, he has directed his secretary, Stephen Early, to forward to Governor B. M. Miller, the telegram sent him by Sam Lebowitz, chief counsel for the Scottsboro boys, requesting troops to prevent their violence.

"This telegram, along with a number of others, was sent to the chief executive following the conviction of Judge W. W. Callahan, Morgan county circuit court jurist who will preside over the cases, to have national guardsmen present during the hearings.

Rev. Watson, 110 members, licensed 11 young preachers, married 93 couples and buried 149 persons. He was born in 1871 and during his lifetime gave every ounce of his energy in helping the poor, of which he was one. A wife, three daughters, five sons, one brother and a host of grandchildren mourn the passing of the late and revered clergyman.

REV. HANDY 12 Arrested; 3 Are Fined in Lottery War

ATLANTA, Ga.— While DeKalb county officers were conversable on the count of lottery activities in that county and arresting twelve Judge Wood Thursday night, a court fined three, one of whom pleaded guilty to operation of a check-up station.

Sadie Gilbert, of 318 Washington place, said by Deputy Sheriff's Nelson and Hopkins who arrested her to be one of the main headquarters for lottery activities in the southwest section of Atlanta, pleaded guilty to lottery operation Thursday and was fined $100 and eight months in the county jail, the sentence being suspended on payment of the fine.

The officers working down on her residence said they discovered a large number of tickets and an adding machine, on which she had been running a "ribbly".

Others who were fined Thursday included Elizabeth Caldwell, a tickler woman, $100 and six months; and Agnes Burnett, $50 and four months.

Two raids made by DeKalb County Officers J. T. Dally and A. S. Foster on the basement of the Emory University hospital and the residence of Cliff Smith in Blue Heaven section of Edgewood, resulted in the arrest of twelve, all of whom were released on a posting of $200 bonds each.

A large number of tickets and lottery books were confiscated by the officers.

The following persons are urged to be present: Miss M. W. Weeks, Mrs. Bessie Fonville, Mr. J. L. LeFlore, Prof. E. C. Powell and Mr. R. H. Perry.

'Skegee R. Cross Hears Strange Stories

TUSKEGEE INSTITUTE, Ala.— The Tuskegee Institute Health Center receives applications for material relief, such as Red Cross groceries and RPC funds. From time to time white plantation owners and even bring the heads of newly colored families to this place to make application for help of various sorts. Many of them are obviously sincere in their efforts to help a hand. But that is not so in every case.

Recently a white farmer walked up to the desk and asked for clothing for a middle-aged colored man he had brought with him. "The poor fellow" had come begging for food and shelter, which he (the farmer) had generously given in return for "little odd jobs" around the house. Now if the Red Cross would only give a few clothes...

Certainly, the desk clerk assured the farmer, they would gladly give him more than the regular allotment of clothes. And a job, also.

The white friend hesitated at the mention of a job, pursued his request to hold a hand. The clerk beckoned to the Negro to step outside with him. The door closed behind them. And they did not come back. The clothes are still waiting.

Afterwards it was learned that the "poor fellow" is one of the best workers in the country, and single-handedly has made several cotton crops for the farmer. It would be disastrous for somebody if he got a job.

MOB OFFICIALS

Just how are we going to maintain constitutional authority when public officials elected and sworn to enforce orderly government deliberately flaunt the law becomes a serious problem when men like Gov. Rolph of California, not only call lynching a good job but offers to block court procedure by the use of the pardon authority.

The whole civilized world is shocked at America's lawless acts and can but wonder how the country can take the leadership for justice and equality and at the same time disregard those sacred principles within her own borders.

The late Booker T. Washington once said that the people of this country were lynching Negroes but the time would come when they would lynch white men. His predictions have not only come true, but white men are being lynched with public approval, America must about face on this question or there is no telling where we are headed.

A group of outstanding citizens of California including former President Hoover scored Gov. Rolph for his approval of lynch methods of punishing criminals. His only reply is off the issue when he argues that his act caused no bloodshed while former President Hoover's official acts against the bonus marchers did. In fact the governor has no defense. He is entirely unfitted for public office and California will fall short of its duty if he is not impeached.

The governor says he has received 5 letters of commendation to 1 of condemnation. That is easy to answer. The mob wherever found is outspoken when it involves no penalty to do so while other people who after all constitute the majority pray that such things don't happen again or use other pious methods to stop the evil.

President Roosevelt ought to speak out against these horrible crimes. Surely he cannot be blind to the evil consequences of allowing the country to go wild with its policy of human destruction.

In fact those who have taken the question seriously insist that the federal government only can cope with mob violence. It becomes more apparent each day.

THE YOUNG SHOULD TAKE PART

In his annual address, the retiring president of the Des Moines branch N.A.A.C.P. stated that he was vice president of that organization nineteen years ago and that by rightful succession some younger man should have been heading it at this time. Some may argue that the old heads have passed the thing among themselves too much, but the fact remains that there are more young men than older people.

The Bystander questions seriously whether our young men are taking their places where they may learn the "ropes" before the older ones pass out. It retards the progress of anything to put the green, inexperienced in authority without having about them those seasoned with experience. Surely both the young and old need to wake up to this situation which certainly undermines the successful continuance of our organization.
