The 1933 Parade Passes Into History

By Everett Wadsworth, Staff Writer
The year of 1933 will soon pass into history as perhaps the most eventful and hectic year of modern times. As the sunset of this year approaches there is still time left to pause and review the outstanding events and astounding happenings which affected the nation and caused the attention of the world to be focused on them. The bank holiday, national recovery acts, farm aid, legalizing of beer and a rapid succession of dramatic occurrences made the life of President Roosevelt and administration anything but a bed of roses.

Scottsboro Verdict
The California earthquake, world's fair, Cuban revolutions, Huey Long's crushing, New York Giants, world's baseball champions, Cernak's death and attempted assassination of the president, Akron disaster and Wykooop outdoor probably claimed the lion's share of the 1933 headlines and news items. To the American Negro, however, other developments occurred which made the Scottsboro case dominated the headlines as nine white defendants were found guilty on Palm Sunday by a laughing jury who recommended the death penalty.

Lynch Wave
The dramatic decision of Judge Jas. A. Lowell in freeing George Crawford, the second sensational news break. Elder G. W. Becton's murder by racketeers and Warner burning, the Alabama late rope party and an enormous mob of mob violence throughout the South particularly in Dixie, with North's Rolph's sanction of California lynching, rocked the nation with fear, causing the United States to hang its head in shame.

Local Affairs
The following national personalities, prominent people and famous organizations, favored the Iowa capital city by their appearances: William Pickens of N. A. A. C. P.; Bishop J. C. Gregg; Rt. Rev. E. T. Demby; Cong. Oscar DePriest; Finley Wilson, Elks' leader; Ralph Metcalfe, Willis Ward, John Brooks, athletes; Bill Robinson and reeve; "Shuffle Along" with Eubie Blake; Duke Ellington, Cab Calloway, Louis Armstrong, Noble Sissle, Claude Hopkins, orchestras; Kansas City Monarchs baseball team with Chet Brewer; Globe Trotters and Hot Shots basketball teams.

The death rate of Des Moines Negroes has hit an alarming high percentage this year which included the passing of George H. Woodson, noted lawyer.

The following events were recorded in the 1933 issues of the Bystander:
JANUARY—6. L. Ashby appointed deputy sheriff. Seven sharecroppers slain in Alabama.—11. Samuel S. Lellowitz of New York, enters Scottsboro case. Georgia authorizes prison camp investigations.—20. Michigan protects chain gang fugitive.—27. Angela Heipson sentenced to 20 years for commutation in Georgia. Thirteen Negro students graduate from city high school.
FEBRUARY—3. St. Paul church commemorates 60th anniversary.—10. Dr. John Williams, Episcopal rector of Omaha, dies.—17. Sherman Banning, Iowa Negro flyer, died in crash at San Diego.—24. State passes Wagner flood project prob.
MARCH—3. Jas. Mitchell receives state house appointment.—10. Ruby Bates, Scottsboro witness, disappears.—17. 30 die in Tennessee tornado.—24. Max Yergen, African teacher, wins N. A. A. C. P. Spingarn award. Gov. Herring appoints Negro messenger.—31. Scottsboro trials open in Decatur.

APRIL—7. Ruby Bates testifies for Negro boys.—14. Heywood Patterson found guilty as jury laughs. William Pickens of N. A. A. C. P. speaks here.—21. Judge Horton postpones Scottsboro trials. "Pinky" Jones wins Royal-Dukes Bathing beauty contest.—28. Judge Lowell releases George Crawford from extradition to Virginia for murder. Irene Glasgow wins local oratorical contest.
MAY—5. Negro athletes star in Drake Relays.—12. Scottsboro meeting held here.—19. Y. W. C. A. moves into new building.—26. Elder Becton, evangelist, murdered by racketeers.
JUNE—2. Maple Street church opens new church. Bill Robinson and reeve at Orpheum.—9. 700 Negro students graduate from high schools.—15. 1000 housewives attend Bystander cooking school. C. C. Callo-

"Uncle Tug's" Community Xmas Party Is A Great Success

Notwithstanding the fact that the mercury was hovering around zero all day Christmas day, youngsters from all parts of the city found their way to the Wilson Funeral Home during the afternoon to attend "Uncle Tug's" Christmas party which has become to be an annual event in the lives of many of the Negro kiddies. Because of the severe cold weather the party was held in the chapel of the home where several hundred kiddies assembled around an illuminated Christmas tree and recited Christmas poems and sang Christmas carols under the direction of Mrs. Sophia Nichols, chorister, St. Paul A. M. E. Sunday school, but some keen eyed kiddie spied in the crowd of adult onlookers Miss Marguerite Lee, K-S-O's "Fascinating Song Bird from Dixie" who was forced to render her theme song, "I Love the River" and one or two others, before the cries of "Miss Lee", "Miss Lee", subsided.

Short talks were given by Rev. J. A. Alexander, Dr. C. R. Bradford and Atty. S. Joe Brown. The entire group assembled on the front lawn and a group picture made; and each child was treated to a bag of Christmas candy and a new toy among which were balloons, handkerchiefs, trick boules, wrist watches and neckties, which were distributed by a committee comprising Mr. Wilson, his assistant, Roy C. Tucker, his office secretary, Miss Myra T. Morgan, his sister, Mrs. S. Joe Brown and his sister in law, Mrs. John W. Wilson. Mr. Wilson takes this method of expressing his sincere appreciation to all who participated in any way in making his Community Christmas Party a huge success.

NATIONAL RACE RELATIONS DAYS FEBRUARY 12
New York, N. Y.—The twelfth annual observance of Race Relations Sunday falls on February 11, 1934. The special message for the day, issued by the department of race relations of the Federal Council of Churches, through whom the day was initiated, emphasizes justice to racial minority groups in national recovery plans.

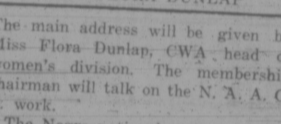

The spiritual and moral values so essential to national recovery cannot be realized when the material advantages are offered to members of one race and denied to those of another, states the keynote of the message. A special call to the Christian churches urges them to foster advancement in race relations by the prevention of discriminations, threatened or taking place under any of the recovery measures and to work for an unequivocal demand for equal opportunity for all without regard to race, creed or color.

This theme will be carried by radio stations throughout the country, in the inter-racial exchanges of pulpits, sermons and choirs in hundreds of churches and other religious organizations. Special mass meetings, inter-racial dinners and exhibits will be featured in many communities during a week of special interracial events.

WOMEN VOTERS ENTERTAIN AT COMMUNITY CENTER
The Polk County League of Republican Colored Women, entertained Tuesday evening at a Yuletide tea at the Negro Community Center. Reports from the session of the Annual Citizenship School recently held at the Fort Des Moines Hotel were given by the following delegates: Mesdames Sarah Jett, Goldie T. Fant, Sadie E. Peters and E. R. Hall. Piano selections were given by Miss Clara Fant and readings by Miss Ardel Jett. Mesdames Mattie B. Scott and C. R. Bradford presided at the tea tables. Atty. S. Joe Brown and Dr. C. R. Bradford gave brief talks. Mrs. S. Joe Brown, president of the organization was in charge.

Scottsboro Boys Put In Death Cell

Birmingham—Despite the fact that an appeal to higher court has automatically stayed the execution of their death sentences, Heywood Patterson and Clarence Norris, two condemned Scottsboro youths, have been transferred to death cells in the Kilby prison in Montgomery. The boys' cell is close to the electric chair in which they will meet death unless the supreme court reverses the decision of the Decatur trial court. The transfer was made in spite of the demands of the attorneys of the I. L. D. that Patterson and Norris remain at Jefferson county jail until the outcome of the appeal is ascertained. The move separates these two boys from the other seven.

MISS FLORA DUNLAP

The main address will be given by Miss Flora Dunlap, CWA head of women's division. The membership chairman will talk on the N. A. A. C. P. work. The Negro national anthem will be sung by the audience, led by Mrs. Josephine Kelso; Rev. J. W. Tutt, pastor, will give the invocation. The proclamation will be read by a representative of the junior branch N. A. A. C. P. Miss Roberta Maupin will contribute piano numbers. A. P. Trotter is president of the local branch.

Ask Senators' Support Of Anti Lynch Bill
New York, Dec. 29.—Spurred up in their work by the lynching of Gordie Cheek at Columbus, Tenn., after Cheek had been released on a charge of attempted assault, branches of the N. A. A. C. P. in every section of the country are securing pledges from their senators and congressmen to vote for the federal anti-lynching bill which will be introduced in the next congress by Senator Edward P. Costigan of Colorado.

All Negro organizations are asked to write their congressmen about this bill and are urged to get assistance from the many white groups over the country who are anxious to support a federal bill.

FATHER BUNN AT ST. SIMONS SUNDAY
The Rev. Roger E. Bunn will conduct services at St. Simons Episcopal church Sunday, as follows: 8:00 A. M., Holy Communion; 11:00 A. M., morning prayer and sermon; 12:00 M., Church School.

Local Sports Thrill Fans During the Season of 1933
By Allen Ashby
Since it has become customary to review the thrills of the past year, we shall look back a little and tell you what we got our biggest kick out of during the athletic year 1932-33. The sensational playing of Parks of Council Bluffs in the state basketball tournament; the fine defensive work of Heywood Brewer against McMichael, Roosevelt's great scoring ace, and his making the all-city team, the performance of our Crocker Big Five team of sandlotters and a couple of high school regulars, who more than held their own against teams of former college and high school stars.

Gov. Ferguson Evades Lynch Protest Group

Austin, Tex., Dec. 29.—Governor Miriam Ferguson refused to see a delegation of white and Negro workers who came to protest the brutal lynching of David Gregory at Kountze, Tex., and to present her with a petition demanding investigation of the case, and relief for the victim's family on Thursday and Friday, Dec. 14 and 15. The delegation consisted of representatives of the International Labor Defense, branches of Houston and Austin, the unemployed councils of Houston and Austin and locals No. 872 and 1271 of the International Longshoremen's association of Houston.

Duke Ellington Well Received

The mighty Duke Ellington and his famous Cotton Club band appearing this midweek at the Orpheum theatre were greeted by enthusiastic crowds at each performance. In addition to the rhythmic synopses of "Sing Dem Bells," "Mood Indigo" and "Sophisticated Lady," the band offered a variety of selections starting a group of versatile soloists that were well received. Fred Jenkins, trumpet, Barney Bigard, clarinet player, Edgar Brown, trombonist, Sonny Greer, drummer deluxe, with the most elaborate outfit ever seen here; were the principals.

Ivy Anderson delighted her audience with "It Don't Mean a Thing, 'Til You Hear from Me" and "Stormy Weather." In addition, Miss Bobby Gaskins, young entertainer, presented "The Talk of the Town," which was pleasing. "Snakehips" Tucker, tap dancer, could twist and curve more ways than a farmer could go to town; there is not a dancer can beat him. Ford, Marshall and Jones, dance team, were very satisfactory.

The "Duke" and his boys were glad to be back in Des Moines for the third time to meet their friends. They told newspapermen, it is always a delight to have colored shows come to the Orpheum as Negro patrons are treated with utmost courtesy. Hale, Cavanaugh, manager, always extends to Bystander reporters the same privileges in granting backstage interviews as he does other papers; local citizens appreciate this courtesy which is seldom shown by other theatre managers.—E. W.

HOTTENTOTS WHIP MICHAELS
The Hottentots, now called the Savoy, dusted Michaels in a well played game at the Jewish Community Center Xmas day. The fast, accurate passing of the Negroes matched the desperate driving offense of the lunch boys and provided a real thrill. Score: Savoy 34, Michaels 27.

CORINTHIAN CHURCH NEWS
By Adeline Wilson
Faye Southern had charge of the Sunday School Xmas program Sunday morning. Each child received a box of candy. The Jubilee chorus sang at morning service; B. B. Brown contributed a violin solo. Rev. Robinson delivered the sermon for the city mission Sunday afternoon at Maple St. Baptist church. The B. Y. P. U. program was in charge of Mrs. Sarah Roy Kemp, presented a Xmas concert at evening service. Rev. Robinson delivered the sermon at the Xmas morning service at 6:00 P. M.; assisted by Rev. Simons. During the intermission the marriage ceremony of Miss Gertrude Cassell and Carl Johnson was performed.

UNION BAPTIST
East Sixteenth and University Aves.—Rev. Jordan W. Tutt, Pastor
Sunday school 9:45; Morning worship 10:45. Sermon title: "The World Without Excuse." B. Y. P. U. 6:00. Evening worship 7:30. Sermon title: "What to Think About." Prayer service Wednesday evening, 7:30. Mission circle meeting Thursday afternoon at 2:00. Bible study class Thursday evening at 8:00. Watch meeting New Year's eve. Pastor and wife's Open House—New Year's day. Special mass meeting the second Sunday in January, sponsored by the president of the Women's Convention, Mrs. J. W. Tutt, to receive reports from the Xmas stockings. Rev. Robinson was Xmas stocking for Perry field.

Young Man Wanted

The Bystander desires to find an energetic young man who would like to learn the newspaper business and who has some talent for salesmanship. Call at the office for interview or if out of town, write us.

BITUARY

Mrs. Emma Houston, 80, died Monday morning, Dec. 26, in Des Moines. Funeral services were held Thursday, Dec. 28, at the Tug W. Wilson Funeral home, Rev. J. A. Alexander officiating. The remains were shipped to Memphis, Tenn., for burial.

Des Moines Boy Sails for China

Harold Benning, crew captain Harold L. Benning, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Benning, 1145 E. Enos Ave., who has been in Seattle, Wash., for the past three years, was appointed captain of the Negro crew of the Alexandria Steamship Lines which sailed for Shanghai, China, last week, according to word received here. After a three months' stay on the coast of Asia Minor and other Eastern points he will return to Des Moines for a few weeks' visit. Benning graduated from North high school in 1930 and was employed at the Paramount theatre.

ALABAMA BARS NEGROES FROM MAY PRIMARIES

Montgomery.—Alabama's Democratic Executive Committee, Saturday, barred Negroes from the party primary next May, officially ignored a pre-convention proposal for a liquor referendum and adjourned to hear former Senator Thomas J. Heflin formally announce he would run for congress next year.

Local CWA Office Women's Division Discriminates?

The Bystander has received reports of discrimination in the hiring of Negro women and girls of this city at the offices of the civil works administration. Any information or reports of discrimination or segregation in the local CWA offices, women's or men's division, will be appreciated. Call, write or phone the Iowa Bystander, 201 Seventh St., 3rd floor, care of James B. Morris, editor, Phone 3-2822.

BLACK DOLLS—I overheard a white clerk say Christmas Eve that they sold out all their colored dolls—that they had sold more this year than ever. That was an encouraging bit of information. When I was younger, I bought a white doll for my sister. But when my eyes became open, I bought and advocated Negroes buying Negro dolls. In the same store where I heard this white clerk make the remark about black dolls, I saw a big black Negro, accompanied by his two exquisitely beautiful black daughters, buying two, life size white dolls. It was about the most jolting sight I have seen this year. That Negro's brothers to the tune of more than forty have been lynched recently by white men because some white woman had "possibly identified" them as her attackers. This Negro knew that—and yet there he was buying white dolls. Of course his eyes have not become open yet. He does not realize that in buying the white dolls in preference to the black ones, he is teaching in the most effective way, his daughters, to look upon anything that is white as being better and more beautiful than anything that is black. No wonder the Negro is about the only human being that hates himself. No wonder the most of our leaders desire above everything else to be white—they are never so happy as when they can get some white person to approve of their ideas.

Tragedies in Angel City Take Spurt

LOS ANGELES.—(ANP) Suicide, murder, and traffic accidents snuffed out the lives of six well known Angelenos this week. George W. Hedfield, 45, former railroad man, shot himself through the brain after seriously wounding Mrs. Olive Smith aged 40, during a quarrel at the latter, home, 839 E. 32nd street. Death was instantaneous in Hedfield's case, while the woman is said to be in a dying condition. Two sisters, prominent in Washington, D. C. society, nieces and a nephew, Wayman Stanley, city police officer, survive him. Declaring that her husband had beaten her for five years continuously, Mrs. Jessie Aldridge, prominent society matron, was pronounced by a coroner's jury that she had committed suicide with a butcher knife. Aldridge was widely known in fraternal and social circles and had been in the employ of the Safeway store, where she was a black woman. "I want my children to be like her and want dolls for their children like her—black-believing black folk just as good as any one else."

This issue is the last one in 1933, and an eventful year it has been. Besides the poor business year most institutions have experienced...

But in spite of all things, we have been able to carry on; to be a mouthpiece for the Negroes of the state; a medium whereby many of the white people of Iowa have been able to read the Negroes' view of the questions of the day.

We lived through this period—the next promises to improve—so everything should be better next year. In fact, we are planning to give greater and better service; our only pledge for 1934.

IT CAN BE DONE

Attorney General Cummings announced Thursday morning that the strong arm of the Federal government had crushed the wave of kidnaping and extortion which pervaded the country early this year.

But what about the wave of lynchings which exists now? Upon the same theory can Uncle Sam assume to go into states and help run down kidnapers, he can ferret out and punish lynchers.

Everybody agrees that it was right to have done so because states seem powerless to cope with the situation. It has been proven conclusively that the same situation exists with regard to lynchings but here even Uncle Sam balks.

The Bystander does not like to say it but it is easy to reason that "the rich" only are kidnaped and subjected to extortion; of course, Uncle Sam is willing to go beyond state borders to get the perpetrators. "The poor" only are mobbed and lynched and since they have little money and no influence, "well, it is just too bad." This ought not to be the case but we must look facts in the face.

But some day the wrong fellow is going to get lynched and things will be different. In the meantime those good people who sense the danger of waiting for this to happen, must continue to mold public sentiment for the stamping out of this heinous crime.

HELP ALWAYS

A Washington, D. C., department store secured an injunction against a Negro society to prevent them from picketing the institution. The picketing was carried on because the store, even though located in a Negro settlement, refused to hire any Negroes.

The Negro organization, secured the services of an organization made up of young white people who carried on the picketing. Before the store could get an injunction against the white group the holiday shopping was over.

A pretty smart job to be sure. This proves that a fellow can usually get help when his cause is worthwhile.

PLEURISY

Pleurisy is an ailment which we find very prevalent at this particular time of the year, however, many persons are prone to call any pain in the chest, side, or back, pleurisy.

But in spite of all things, we have been able to carry on; to be a mouthpiece for the Negroes of the state; a medium whereby many of the white people of Iowa have been able to read the Negroes' view of the questions of the day.

The Observer

By Chas. P. Howard

A white man can always find a Negro to back him in anything he does to another Negro. We will always be a backward race, until these kind of Negroes die and go to hell, or go there without dying.

It appears that great difficulty is being experienced by colored women in getting registered for employment under the CWA, and after being registered, getting on. As a matter of fact, to date one has been put to work more forward Uncle Tom and justify them in not putting your women to work.

The Municipal Water Works, maintained in part by your pocketbook, hires not a single Negro, and shows no signs of ever intending to hire any.

We know that we can depend on you getting your hat in your hand and going to the white folks back door, telling them that it is alright with you if they never put any of the Negroes to work in the Water Works, and you in return will get a pat on the back as a good N.

There isn't a permanently employed Negro man in the Polk County Court House in a single office. Come on Bandanna Days and give these office holders around Des Moines, who solicit Negro support, but never give any Negroes patronage, your loyal backing.

The writer of this column recognizes that it is unpopular and personally destructive to fight the cause of the Negro generally. He has been advised by his friends, both white and black, that if he would spend both his time and energy in making a living for his family, when it came to the close of the year, he would owe less and have more friends.

The writer of this column further believes that "he" would be free must himself strike the first blow." He furthermore veritably despises the child-like docility of many of the members of his race. He despises the Uncle Toms worse. He believes that the people of this community believe in justice to the Negro more than the people of any community in the world, and will see that an injustice is restricted if it is brought to their attention.

He has decided that irrespective of personal costs, he will cry out against any injustice that he believes is being done his race, and the yelping of a selfish puppet in his own ranks won't deter him in the least.

72nd Emancipation Proclamation Anniversary Program Monday Admits Guilt But Makes Unusual Request

The 1933 Parade Passes Into History

By Everett Wadsworth, Staff Writer
The year of 1933 will pass into history as perhaps the most eventful and hectic year of modern times.

Scottsboro Verdict
The California earthquake, world's fair, Cuban revolutions, Huey Long's thrashing, New York Giants, world's baseball champions, Cernak's death and attempted assassination of the president, Akron disaster and Wynnok murder probably claimed the lion's share of the 1933 headlines and news stories.

Lynch Wae
The dramatic decision of Judge Jas. A. Lowell in freeing George Crawford from extradition to Virginia for murder and subsequent events made the second sensational news break.

NATIONAL RACE RELATION
DAYS FEBRUARY 12
New York, N. Y.—The twelfth annual observance of Race Relations Sunday falls on February 11, 1934.

Local Affairs
The following national personalities, prominent people and famous organizations, favored the Iowa capital city with their appearances:

January 1—L. Ashby appointed deputy sheriff. Seven sharecroppers slain in Alabama.—13. Samuel S. Leibowitz of New York, enters Scottsboro case. Georgia authorizes prison camp investigations.—20. Michigan protects chain gang fugitive.—27. Angelo Herndon sentenced to 20 years for communism in Georgia. Thirteen Negro students graduate from city high school.

February 1—St. Paul church commemorates 60th anniversary.—10. Dr. John Williams, Episcopal rector of Omaha, dies.—17. Herman Banning, Iowa Negro flyer, killed in crash at San Diego.—24. Senate passes Wagner flood project probe.

March 3—Jas. Mitchell receives state house appointment.—10. Ruby Bates, Scottsboro witness, disappears.—17. 30 die in Tennessee tornado.—24. Max Yergan, African teacher, wins N. A. A. C. P. Spingarn award. Gov. Herring appoints Negro messenger.—31. Scottsboro trials open in December.

April 7—Ruby Bates testifies for Negro boys.—14. Heywood Patterson found guilty as jury laughs. William Pickens of N. A. A. C. P. speaks here.—21. Judge Horton postpones Scottsboro trials. "Pinky" Jones wins Royal Dukes. Bathing beauty contest.—28. Judge Lowell frees George Crawford from extradition to Virginia for murder. Judge Glass wins local oratorical contest.

May 5—Negro athletes star in Drake Relays.—12. Scottsboro meeting held here.—19. Y. W. C. A. moves into new building.—26. Elder Beeton, evangelist, murdered by racketeers.

June 2—Maple Street church opens new church. Bill Robinson and revue at Orpheum.—9. Ten Negro students graduate from local high schools.—16. 1000 housewives attend Bystander cooking school. Cah Callo-

'Uncle Tug's' Community Xmas Party Is A Great Success

Notwithstanding the fact that the mercury was hovering around zero all day Christmas day, youngsters from all parts of the city found their way to the Wilson Funeral Home during the afternoon to attend "Uncle Tug's" Christmas party which has become to be an annual event in the lives of many of the Negro kiddies.

Because of the severe cold weather the party was held in the chapel of the home where several hundred kiddies assembled around an illuminated Christmas tree and recited Christmas poems and sang Christmas carols under the direction of Mrs. Sophia Nichols, chorister, St. Paul A. M. E. Sunday school, but some keen eyed kiddie spied in the crowd of adult onlookers Miss Marguerite Lee, K-S-O's "Fascinating Song Bird from Dixie" who was forced to render her theme song "I Love the River" and one or two others, before the cries of "Miss Lee," "Miss Lee," subsided.

Short talks were given by Rev. J. A. Alexander, Dr. C. R. Bradford and Atty. S. Joe Brown. The entire group assembled on the front lawn and a group picture made; and each child was treated to a bag of Christmas candy and a new toy among which were balloons, bandanas, trick bouquets, wrist watches and necklaces, which were distributed by a committee comprising Mr. Wilson, his assistant, Roy C. Tucker, his office secretary, Miss Myra T. Morgan, his sister in law, Mrs. John W. Wilson.

Mr. Wilson takes this method of expressing his sincere appreciation to all who participated in any way in making his Community Christmas Party a huge success.

WOMEN-VOTERS ENTERTAIN AT COMMUNITY CENTER
The Polk County League of Republican Colored Women, entertained Tuesday evening at a Yuletide tea at the Negro Community Center.

Ask Senators' Support Of Anti Lynch Bill
New York, Dec. 29.—Speeded up in their work by the lynching of Cordie Cheek at Columbus, Tenn., after Cheek had been released on a charge of attempted assault, branches of the N. A. A. C. P. in every section of the country are securing pledges from their senators and congressmen to vote for the federal anti-lynching bill which will be introduced in the next congress by Senator Edward P. Costigan of Colorado.

FATHER-BUNN AT ST. SIMONS SUNDAY
The Rev. Roger E. Bunn will conduct services at St. Simons Episcopal church Sunday, as follows: 8:00 A. M., Holy Communion; 11:00 A. M., morning prayer and sermon; 12:00 M., Church School.

Local Sports Thrill Fans During the Season of 1933

Since it has become customary to review the thrills of the past year, we shall look back a little and tell you what we got our biggest kick out of during the athletic year 1932-33.

FISK STUDENTS IN PROTEST OVER LYNCHING OF CHEEK
Nashville.—(ANP)—Despite being refused permission to parade by the city of Nashville, a group of Fisk university students, augmented by Negroes in the community, aroused to action by the lynching of Cordie Cheek staged a silent protest parade on Fisk campus Tuesday, Dec. 19, at 12 o'clock.

OBITUARY
Mrs. Emma Houston, 80, died Monday morning, Dec. 26, in Des Moines. Funeral services were held Thursday, Dec. 28, at the Tug, W. Wilson Funeral home, Rev. J. A. Alexander officiating. The remains were shipped to Memphis, Tenn., for burial.

Young Man Wanted
The Bystander desires to find an energetic young man who would like to learn the newspaper business and who has some talent for salesmanship. Call at the office for interview or if out of town, write us.

Scottsboro Boys Put In Death Cell

Birmingham.—Despite the fact that an appeal to higher court has automatically stayed the execution of their death sentences, Heywood Patterson and Clarence Norris, two condemned Scottsboro youths, have been transferred to death cells in the Kilby prison in Montgomery.

MISS FLORA DUNLAP

The boys' cell is close to the electric chair in which they will meet death unless the supreme court reverses the decision of the Deatur trial court. The transfer was made in spite of the demands of the attorneys of the L. L. D. that Patterson and Norris remain at Jefferson county jail until the outcome of the appeal is ascertained. The move separates these two boys from the other seven.

Duke Ellington Well Received

The mighty Duke Ellington and his famous Cotton Club band appearing this midweek at the Orpheum theatre were greeted by enthusiastic crowds at each performance. In addition to the rhythmic syncopations of "King Dem Bells," "Mood Indigo" and "Sophisticated Lady," the band offered a variety of selections starting a group of versatile soloists that were well received. Fred Jenkins, trumpet; Barney Bigard, clarinet player, Edgar Brown, trombonist, Somy Greer, drummer deluxe, with the most elaborate outfit ever seen here, were the principals.

Ivy Anderson delighted her audience with "If Don't Mean a Thing," "Lazy Bones" and "Stormy Weather." In addition, Miss Bobby Gaskins, young entertainer, presented "The Talk of the Town," which was pleasing. "Snakehips" Tucker, tap dancer, could twist and curve more ways than a farmer could go to town; there is not a dancer can beat him. For Marshall and Jones, dance team, were very satisfactory.

The "Duke" and his boys were glad to be back in Des Moines for the third time to meet their friends, they told newspapermen. It is always a delight to have colored shows come to the Orpheum as Negro patrons are treated with utmost courtesy. Hale Cavannah, manager, always extends to Bystander reporters the same privileges in granting backstage interviews as he does other papers; local citizens appreciate this courtesy which is seldom shown by other theatre managers.—E. W.

CORINTHIAN CHURCH NEWS
By Adeline Wilson
Faye Southern had charge of the Sunday-School Xmas program Sunday morning. Each child received a box of candy. The Jubilee chorus sang at morning service; B. B. Brown contributed a violin solo. Rev. Robinson delivered the sermon for the city mission Sunday afternoon at Maple St. Baptist church. The B. Y. P. U. program was in charge of Mrs. Sarah Jett; the choir, under the direction of Roy Kemp, presented a Xmas concert at evening service. Rev. Robinson delivered the sermon at the Xmas morning services at 6:00 P. M., assisted by Rev. Simons. During the intermission the marriage ceremony of Miss Geraldine Cassell and Carl Johnson was performed.

HOTTENTOTS WHIP MICHAELS
The Hottentots, now called the Savoy, dusted Michaels in a well played game at the Jewish Community Center Xmas day. The fast, accurate passing of the Negroes matched the desperate driving offense of the lynch boys and provided a real thrill. Score: Savoy 34, Michaels 27.

Refuse NAACP Help in Salary Fight

York Out of Red

Facing the biggest task of his colorful career, Major Fiorenzo LaGuardia takes the reins of New York City's government at a time when the municipal deficit is estimated at $27,000,000, and maps his campaign to balance the budget with an eleven-point economy program, an appeal for aid to the State Legislature and a plan to seek a loan on tax delinquencies from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

HOLLYWOOD, Cal.—Add Colleen Moore to the feminine stars whose contracts guarantee them time off to be just a wife. Profiting by her MGM experience which kept her idle on the Coast for so long, Colleen had made RKO put in writing that she can go back to New York for three months as soon as she finishes "Success Story."

The plight of the Negro school teachers in North Carolina is a sad one, for with the tremendous reductions in salaries being paid them, they are being reduced to dire straits, in even their living needs, and are forced to do without having sold out to the white interests in the state, and with the teachers suffering privations and discomforts from the meagre pittance, it is hard to say whether the educational structure of North Carolina will be able to survive the strain or not. Six years ago, the state bonded its school system, which was rated fifth in national standing, but today—

...all that is another tale. Careful observers point out the agency appropriation" by Governor E. B. Edwards, but they say that if leaders of the State Teachers Association, or the N.A.A.C.P., have sounded out the state head, to ascertain the possibility of such being done, it is suggested that an appropriation be made with the funds to Negro teachers in such high schools, based on four years of college work, and one to eight years experience is now 70 to 100 per month, as against a previous 100 to 125 dollars, a cut of 30 to 43.33 per cent. Negro per month for this work formerly, and these cuts reduce their total range around 60 to 70 dollars per month at present.

...plight of the Negro school teachers in North Carolina is the subject of white concern, and much wonderment is expressed as to just how it will be adjusted. The sadistic and raving articles which appeared in the Greensboro Daily News, a white paper, from their Raleigh office, were intended to "scare" the Negro teachers, and there were some of them who were actually frightened into thinking that the state really COULD displace them with white teachers for colored schools, something which was the very acme of absurdity and a credit to the insensibility of any prejudiced age news writer. There were those sane teachers who rightly consigned the author of those articles to the rightful place where belonged (if his writings indicated his trend of mind), and that was in the State Hospital at Morganton, N. C.

...Meanwhile the situation still looms large on the horizon of public state affairs here, and what with the president of the Teachers Association declaring himself firmly against NAACP aid, and with some of his own members accusing that of Negro teachers is slightly ruder. For instance, a high school teacher with two years of college work, for teachers having from one to four years experience, paid from $5 to 105 dollars per month, but with the new scale they range from $5 to 45 dollars per month for white teachers. Salaries of principals in schools with from seven to thirty teachers have been cut from 36 to 44.25 per cent. For

...The big question in Hollywood these days is whether Greta Garbo's romance or friendship withouben Mammoulian will be the final means of bringing the Swedish star out of her seclusion. Greta died in public last Friday. She and Mammoulian occupied an unobtrusive table at the Russian Eagle Cafe, colorful rendezvous which is guarded by a tall doorman in a Cossack uniform.

...And this is not all. The Swedish star attended both previews of her new picture, "Queen Christina." If you don't think that a concession, it was the first time that La Garbo has seen one of her own previews since the silent days.

...The ruby and diamond ring that Mae Clarke has been wearing really was intended as a Christmas present from Sidney Blackmer, when it arrived early, "Sidney was so excited that she couldn't wait. Now, however, it has been re-wrapped and Mae won't get it officially until Christmas.

STATE FEDERATION EXECUTIVE BODY MEETS SOON

ATLANTA, GA. A number of important matters will be discussed by the executive board of the State Federation of Colored Women's Clubs when it meets in its mid-year session this week at Macon, Ga., according to Mrs. Rosa Parker King, chairman of the executive board.

WHAT TO READ

We will be glad to help you solve your book problems, plan outlines for courses of study, or give competent direction in the choice of books.

Inquiries should be sent to Miss Sonya Krutchkoff, Reader, Advisory, 103 West 135th Street, New York City.

Mr. F. S. F. of New York wants to know if there are any books, readable in style and non-technical in treatment, that will give the weather reader simple but adequate explanations of weather phenomena.

Van Cleef, Eugene. —Story of the weather.

A clear and simple account of weather and how to forecast it, written for the beginner.

Brooks, C. F. —Why the Weather? Notes on a year's weather, from spring to spring, explaining the nature and whereabouts of weather science.

Elm, I. E. —Weather and Why. An aviator's non-technical and simple account of the fundamentals of weather, its causes and forecast.

Free, E. E. and Hoke, Travis. —Weather. Practical, dramatic and spectacular, about rain and snow, hail and frost, floods and thunder storms.

Humphreys, W. J. —Rain making and other weather vagaries. A very readable discussion of traditions, folk-lore and unscientific beliefs regarding the weather.

Mrs. N. D. of New Jersey wants to know of some recent biographies of notable, preferably stories of living people.

Longworth, A. R. —Crowded hours. Interesting and amusing reminiscences of the elder daughter of Theodore Roosevelt, giving an insight into the social and political past of America through the eyes of a woman.

Johnson, J. W. —Along this way. One of the foremost American Negroes, at the age of 62, tells the story of his life as author, critic, musician and diplomat, at the same time relating the struggles of his race.

Stein, Gertrude. —Autobiography of Alice B. Toklas. A lively chronicle of Gertrude Stein's own life and intimacies, as German and Jew.

Wasserman, Jacob. —My life. A sensitively written autobiography of a distinguished German novelist.

Truddy, Nell. —Annie Sullivan Macy. The story of "Teacher" the woman who made Helen Keller go, blind.

If you would like to read further along this line, or any other line, you are invited to confer with Miss Sonya Krutchkoff, Reader's Advisor, Harlem Adult Education Committee, 103 West 135th Street, NEW YORK CITY.

ELIXIR Ah, press thy lips to my lips dear, Thy throbbing heart on mine; And let us sip the nectar, And the red, red wine.

For it is not nectar, And it is not wine, That my lips take from thy lips, And thy heart gives to mine.

Then fruit and flower and blossom, And sunshine, cloud and rain, All are but empty nothings, And all life's hopes are vain.

So let us while we may, dear, Partake of Love Divine; With thy lips pressed to my lips, And thy dear heart on mine.

The school was decorated for Christmas with Xmas wreaths, Xmas trees, poinsettias, candles and Santas.

DEAN BRAWLEY IS BACK ON CLARK U. CAMPUS

ATLANTA, GA. Dean James P. Brawley of Clark University has returned from the University of Chicago where he has completed the requirements for the Ph. D. degree in education. Dean Brawley will offer some courses in education during the second semester, which begins on January 28.

Class work was suspended Friday afternoon and will be resumed on January second. Many of the students departed immediately for their homes. The advisory committee, composed of faculty members, has a number of plans on foot to make it pleasant for those who have decided to spend their vacations on the campus.

The work in the quarter will broadcast over Station WGST Sunday afternoon at 4:15.

Prof. R. H. Morsey of the chemistry department spoke to the Morehouse college science club Monday evening. He discussed the work in endocrinology, the influence of the endocrine glands on the mental characteristics of animal life.

It is noted with much pleasure that the large freshman class is taking a dynamic interest in all things worthwhile.

Medical Advice

By DR. M. T. ASBERRY TUBERCULOSIS

Through the sale of Christmas seals opportunity is given the public to contribute toward the expenses of the fight against tuberculosis, we are reminded that this serious disease must be relentlessly combated and efforts to control it must be redoubled when conditions that now obtain are so much more favorable for its development and increased intensity.

Let us take it to much for granted that the disease is under full control and that ample funds are at hand to "carry on," the following facts are quoted.

Dr. Morris Finneisen, Editor, Journal of the American Medical Association, and of Hygiene, the Health Magazine, says, "In 1900, it was estimated, there were 750,000 cases of tuberculosis in the United States, out of which there 154,000 deaths annually. Today the number of cases is more than 1,500,000 and yet there are only 100,000 deaths (A marked decline in the number of deaths yet a considerable gain in the number of cases.)"

The White House Conference on Child Welfare reported that there are 382,000 tubercular children and possibly 850,000 additional suspected cases in the United States. Also, surveys made in various parts of the country indicate that the death rate from tuberculosis in girls as boys of this age; and that, given sufficient funds and sufficient competent medical attention, tuberculosis can be controlled at the source, and particularly among children.

Dr. Fishbein states that in the attempt to study and control tuberculosis, it is first necessary to find out where cases may be found. The last step is to find out where the child caught the disease.

Whenever a case of tuberculosis is found in a family, every member of that family should be examined to find out whether there are other cases which may perhaps be responsible for the case that occurs in the child.

Dependent upon the loss of her husband's health and financial reverses, Mrs. Dixie Greenlee of Phoenix, Arizona, placed a 32-caliber revolver in her mouth and fired the fatal shot. Her body was discovered in her Pierce-Arrow sedan parked near Arlington and Venice boulevards by a merchant who thought she was asleep. After several hours seeing the woman in the same position, he became alarmed and called police.

Dr. N. B. Greenlee, prominent physician of Phoenix, has been brought to Los Angeles for treatment of a serious malady. The couple is said to have been very wealthy and prominent in social circles when financial crashes reduced them to strained circumstances.

Weekly Review

By ROBT. DURR
BLACK DOLLS—I overheard a white clerk say Christmas Eve that they sold out all their colored dolls—that they had sold more this year than ever. That was an encouraging bit of information. When I was younger, I bought a white doll for my sister. But when my eyes became open I bought and advocated Negroes buying Negro dolls. In the same store where I heard this white clerk make the remark about black dolls, I saw a big black Negro, accompanied by his two exquisitely beautiful black daughters, buying two life size white dolls. It was about the most nauseating sight I have seen this year. That Negro's brothers to the tune of more than forty have been lynched recently by white men because some white woman had "positively identified" them as her attackers. This Negro knew that—and yet there he was buying white dolls. Of course his eyes have not become open yet. He does not realize that in buying the white dolls in preference to the black ones, he is teaching in the most effective way, his daughters, to look upon anything that is white as being better and more beautiful than anything that is black. No wonder the Negro is about the only human being that hates himself. No wonder the most of our leaders desire above everything else to be white—they are never so happy as when they can get some white person to approve of their ideas.

I AM BLACK—I am black. I have no desire to be white. I do not think one man is better than another simply because he is white or black. I think black women are the most beautiful women in the world. I am the son of one. I have lived with them. I know how to discover their beautiful features and traits. I have seen them suffer. I have seen them abused. I have heard them sing, laugh and cry and shout—no other woman excels them in any point that is peculiarly feminine. They believe in their souls, their husbands—they trust and respect them when all the world is against them. It was my mother who drilled into me the thing that makes me feel that I am as good as any man, white or black, blue or brown—it was she who drilled into me the courage to hope, to fight and to believe, and to know that even though I lose a world of battles, I shall conquer. I was she that taught me to believe that what is good for any other man is good for me. She still feels that if I do not get to the White House at Washington, that I can so live that I will sit in the white house of the hearts of men—she is great—she is a black woman—I want my children to be like her and want dolls for their children like her—black-believing black folk just as good as any one else.

Declaring that her husband had beaten her for five years continuously, Mrs. Jessie Aldridge, prominent society matron, was exonerated by a coroner's jury for stabbing her spouse to death with a butcher knife. Aldridge was widely known in fraternal and social circles and had been in the employ of the Safeway stores for many years. The young couple have a child, two years old.

Dependent upon the loss of her husband's health and financial reverses, Mrs. Dixie Greenlee of Phoenix, Arizona, placed a 32-caliber revolver in her mouth and fired the fatal shot. Her body was discovered in her Pierce-Arrow sedan parked near Arlington and Venice boulevards by a merchant who thought she was asleep. 2 CAPTAINS FOR LEMOYNE NEXT YEAR

King And Cansler Lead Jackets; 18 Men Get Their Letters

PRaise RUTLEDGE

MEMPHIS, TENN. The boys couldn't get their minds off of a good turkey dinner long enough the other night to select an individual for football captain and so next year when the gridiron ball is sounded, LaMoyné college will have a COUPLE of pig skin leaders.

At the annual banquet last Thursday night in the Yellow Jacket Grill, centered the footballers by President Frank Swenson, a number of papers were submitted to letter men. On the papers, it was to indicate who was who in the year of a 1934 captain. King and Versa Cansler were the honor.

More paper was slipped the youngsters during the course of the banquet. The second round indicated that as far as they were concerned, King and Cansler would have to fight it out because against the two gentlemen had tied for the honor.

Thus we have two captains on at LaMoyné for '34. King and Cansler will alternate in keeping the red, white and blue in the huddle.

Coach Jack Adkins presented 18 Letters Given to the list are Robert Lee, Dick Brooks, Haywood Thornton, Ben Owens, Warren Griffin, Walter Bonner, Lloyd James, Charles Mason, Dick Wade, Former Baker, Versa Cansler, Luther Miller, Richard Oates, Henry Rutledge, Hughes, Charlie King, Charles Tevell and Scott Davis.

Practically every man who made a good tackle this year received a pleasant word from one of the many speakers. Robert Lee, team master, (and a very good one who is telling about the great Rutledge) handled the introduction. He was followed by Swenson, very jubilant and appeared very anxious to erect a gymnasium stadium on the campus. His plan is to have this done within the time of the next two years. Coach Jack Adkins paid tribute to Henry Rutledge as being "one of the best all I have ever coached."

Other speakers were Dan Rouline, Coach Walter Ann, Matthias High, James E. Robert, Harry Haddock, Henry Ryan, Haywood, Henry Rutledge, Charles Versa Cansler, Professor and Lewis O. Swinger.

This issue is the last one in 1933, and an eventful year it has been. Besides the poor business year most institutions have experienced, in times like this little concerns which operate without large reserves in capital find it doubly hard.

But in spite of all things, we have been able to carry on; to be a mouthpiece for the Negroes of the state; a medium whereby many of the white people of Iowa have been able to read the Negroes' view of the questions of the day.

We lived through this period—the next promises to improve—so everything should be better next year. In fact, we are planning to give greater and better service; our only pledge for 1934.

IT CAN BE DONE

Attorney General Cummings announced Thursday morning that the strong arm of the Federal government had crushed the wave of kidnaping and extortion which pervaded the country early this year.

But what about the wave of lynchings which exists now? Upon the same theory can Uncle Sam assume to go into states and help run down kidnapers, he can ferret out and punish lynch-ers.

Everybody agrees that it was right to have done so because states seem powerless to cope with the situation. It has been proven conclusively that the same situation exists with regard to lynchings but here even Uncle Sam balks.

The Bystander does not like to say it but it is easy to reason that "the rich" only are kidnaped and subjected to extortion; course, Uncle Sam is willing to go beyond state borders to get perpetrators. "The poor" are mobbed and lynched since they have little money no influence, "well, it is just bad." This ought not to be case but we must look facts the face.

From some day the wrong feeling is going to get lynched and it will be different. In the time those good people who daily face the danger of waiting for to happen, must continue to public sentiment for the ending out of this heinous crime.

Washington, D. C., department secured an injunction that a Negro society to picket them from picketing the store. In the picketing was carried on because the store, even located in a Negro street, refused to hire any Negro.

The Negro organization set up the services of an organization made up of young white teachers who carried on the picketing before the store could bring an injunction against the group the holiday shopping of over.

By smart job to be sure, they get help when his cause was in peril.

PLEURISY

Pleurisy is an ailment which we find very prevalent at this particular time of the year, however, many persons are prone to call any pain in the chest, side, or back, pleurisy. Pleurisy comes under two distinct classes; acute and chronic, and while there are many different forms of each, all are covered by this reading. Pleurisy may appear following a number of conditions such as common cold, following exposure, and pneumonia. The most distressing symptom of pleurisy is the intense pain in the side, or as sometimes occurs, pain in the abdomen or back. This pain is accompanied by chills, fever, and coughing, the coughing having a tendency to intensify the pain. After persisting for about ten days, in most forms of acute pleurisy, the pain fever and coughing, disappear. However, should fever persist for a longer period of time, say, eight to ten days longer, no anxiety need be felt. Hot or cold applications, if used at once, lessen the pain considerably. The old home remedy, the mustard plaster, may be used very effectively at this time. All persons having acute pleurisy should have plenty of fresh air. Cases of chronic pleurisy generally follow a number of acute attacks, however this condition sometimes makes its appearance with no forewarning whatsoever.

The Observer

By Chas. P. Howard

A white man can always find a Negro to back him in anything he does to another Negro. We will always be a backward race, until these kind of Negroes die and go to hell, or go there without dying.

It appears that great difficulty is being experienced by colored women in getting registered for employment under the CWA, and after being registered, getting on. As a matter of fact, to date one has been put to work; more should be.

Now come forward Uncle Tom and justify them in not putting your women to work. The Municipal Water Works, maintained in part by your pocketbook, hires not a single Negro, and shows no signs of ever intending to hire any. Fair-minded white people in this community know that this is not right. This column will fight this situation until it is changed.

We know that we can depend on you getting your hat in your hand and going to the water works, and you in return will get a pat on the back as a good N.

There isn't a permanently employed Negro man in the Polk County Court House in a single office. Come on Bandanna Days and give these office holders around Des Moines, who solicit Negro support, but never give any Negroes patronage, your loyal backing.

The writer of this column recognizes that it is unpopular and personally destructive to fight the cause of the Negro generally. He has been advised by his friends, both white and black, that if he would spend both his time and energy in making a living for his family, when it came to the close of the year, he would owe less and have more friends. He recognizes this advice to be both sound and sincerely given.

The writer of this column further believes that "He who would be free must himself strike the first blow." He furthermore veritably despises the child-like docility of many of the members of his race. He despises the Uncle Toms worse. He believes that the people of this community believe in justice to the Negro more than the people of any community in the world, and will see that an injustice is restricted if it is brought to their attention. He has decided that irrespective of personal costs, he will cry out against any injustice that he believes is being done his race, and the yelping of a selfish puppet in his own ranks won't deter him in the least.

AMENDMENT TO ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

(1) Repealing Sections 1 and 2, Article 1, of the Articles of Incorporation of the J. R. WOLF, et al., inasmuch as the same are hereby amended.

Section 1. CAPITAL STOCK. The capital of this corporation shall be $200,000 divided into Class A and Class B shares, 3000 shares of Class A stock of $50.00 each and 20,000 shares of Class B stock of $10.00 each, and when issued shall be fully paid for, either in money or property and shall be non-assessable as provided by law.

Section 2. CLASS A STOCK.
